such lease and assignment thereof to pay all taxes levied and assessed against such real property; shall be relieved of any and all taxes levied or assessed against such property by the state, by any county, by any municipality or by any flood control, drainage or school district or by any political subdivision or agency of any of the foregoing, for the year 1952 and subsequent years, and all such taxes shall be and the same are hereby cancelled in view of the exclusive use of any such real property by such a corporation for the purposes thereof; and the proper officers of the state, any county, any municipality or any flood control, drainage or school district, or any political subdivision or agency of any of the foregoing, that have collected taxes for the year 1952 with respect to any such property, are authorized and directed to refund same, without interest thereon, to any such corporation.

(2) All of such property described in subsection (1) be and the same is hereby exempted from all taxes whatsoever, whether state, county, municipal, drainage district, flood control district or school district, or any political subdivision or agency of all thereof, so long as such property is possessed and used by such a corporation exclusively for its scientific and nonprofit purposes.

History.—§§ 1, 2, ch. 28307, 1953.

*192.062 Annual application required for exemption.—Every person or organization who has the legal title to real or personal property which is entitled by law to exemption from taxation as a result of its ownership and use, except property owned and used exclusively for governmental purposes or religious purposes, shall before April 1 of each year file an application for exemption with the county tax assessor listing and describing the property for which exemption is claimed and certifying its ownership and use. The comptroller shall prescribe the forms upon which the application is made.

History.—§1, ch. 63-342.

*Note.—Effective January 1, 1964.

192.063 Annual growing agricultural crops; non-bearing fruit trees, nursery stock; taxability.—That growing annual agricultural crops, non-bearing fruit trees and nursery stock, regardless of the growing methods, shall be considered as having no ascertainable value and shall not be taxable until they have reached maturity or a stage of marketability and have passed from the hands of the producer and/or offered for sale. This act shall be construed liberally in favor of the taxpayer.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 63-432.

192.07 Exemption of institutions for orphans and dependent children.—Real estate of every religious or charitable institution in the state engaged in the support, maintenance and care of orphan and dependent children shall be exempt in aggregate valuation from ad valorem taxes in a sum equal to five hundred dollars for each child cared for in said institution; said exemption to be apportioned to each of the counties in which such real estate may be owned according to the number of children being supported, maintained and cared for by such institution, upon an estimate based upon the average number of children cared for by said institution during the previous fiscal year. This section shall extend to any property owned in any county of the state by such institution, whether improved or unimproved, not used for rental purposes; provided that nothing in this section shall be construed to modify or repeal the provisions of law now exempting all property of such institutions within this state from taxation when actually occupied and used by them solely for the purposes for which they have been or may be organized.

The superintendent or other officer of such institution shall file with the tax collector of each county in which such property shall be each year a list of the real estate owned by the institution in the state, together with an accurate list of the number of children cared for by said institution during the previous twelve months.

192.08 Exemption of state property.— No taxes or special assessments shall be levied by any taxing district, special taxing district, or other governmental unit or agency created for purposes of taxation, against lands or other property of the state, except for the purpose of improving the actual physical condition of such lands or other property, and for such purpose, only upon the approval of such levy by that state agency or department in which title to such lands or other property is vested, or having jurisdiction over such lands or other property.

The taxes or special assessments lawfully imposed upon lands or other property owned by the said state or by its agency shall be an obligation only upon the lands or other property against which such taxes or special assessments are lawfully imposed.

The provisions of this section shall not apply to state lands or property now subject to taxes or assessments in any taxing district or special taxing district created prior to June 26, 1931.

History.—§ § 1-3, ch. 15639, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 893(1).

192.09 Certain property of Y. M. C. A. exempt.—All property of Young men's christian associations within this state, which shall be actually occupied and used by them for the purposes only for which they have been or may be organized, shall be exempted from taxation.

History.—§1, ch. 5724, 1907; RGS 701; CGL 903.

192.10 Commissioners of state institutions to list certain state prison farm lands for taxation in Bradford county.—The board of commissioners of state institutions annually before the first day of March shall list all lands owned or used as the state prison farm in Bradford County, excepting from such list five hundred acres in a contiguous body, on which the buildings belonging to the state prison farm are now or may hereafter be located and place the valuation on all the lands as above described, excepting the five hundred acres upon which said buildings are located, upon the same basis that similar lands are valued upon the tax books of said county and forward such list and valuation of lands to the tax assessor of said county. The said list shall not include any personal property owned or used by the said state prison farm.

The tax assessor of said county shall enter upon the tax rolls the description and valuations as made by the said board, and the county commissioners of said county shall not change or alter such description or valuations.

The tax collector of said county, on or before the first day of April of each year, shall forward to the board of commissioners of state institutions a statement of the amount that would be due upon said land as county taxes the same as if they were owned by and assessed as the lands of individuals or other taxpayers of the county. Upon receipt of such statement, said board shall make their requisition upon the comptroller for the amount contained in the statement of said tax collector, and the comptroller shall draw his warrant for the said amount upon the state treasurer, and forward said warrant to the tax collector of said county, which warrant shall be paid by the state treasurer out of any moneys in his hands the same as other general expenses of the state are paid.

192.11 Evidence of disability of ex-service men; exemption.— Any ex-service man, a bona fide resident of the state, who has been disabled in war, or by misfortune, shall be entitled to the exemption from taxation provided for in §9, Art. IX, of the constitution of Florida, and the production by him of a certificate of disability from the United States Government before the tax assessor of the county wherein his property lies, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that he is entitled to such exemption.

192.111 Exemption for disabled veterans known as paraplegics.—

(1) Any real estate used and owned as a homestead by an ex-serviceman, honorably discharged with service connected disability and who has a certificate from the government or United States veterans' administration, or its successors, certifying that the ex-serviceman is receiving or has received special pecuniary assistance due to disability requiring specially adapted housing and classed as a paraplegic, shall be exempt from taxation.

(2) The production by an ex-serviceman of a certificate of disability from the United States government or United States veterans' administration before the tax assessor of the county wherein his property lies, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that he is entitled to such exemptions.

History.—§1, ch. 57-778.

192.112 Exemption for disabled veterans confined to wheel chairs.—

(1) Any real estate used and owned as a homestead by an ex-serviceman, honorably discharged with service connected total disability and who has a certificate from the government or United States veterans' administration, or its successors, certifying that the ex-serviceman is receiving or has received special pecuniary assistance due to disability requiring specially adapted housing and required to use a wheel chair for his transportation, shall be exempt from taxation.

(2) The production by an ex-serviceman of a certificate of disability from the United States government or United States veterans' administration before the tax assessor of the county wherein his property lies, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that he is entitled to such exemptions.

History.—§1, ch. 57-761.

192.113 Exemption for quadriplegics.—

(1) Any real estate used and owned as a homestead by any quadriplegic shall be exempt from taxation.

(2) The production by any quadriplegic of a certificate of such disability from two licensed doctors of this state to the tax assessor of the county wherein the property lies, shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that he is entitled to such exemption.

History.—§1, ch. 59-134.

192.12 Exemption of homesteads. — Every person who has the legal title or beneficial title in equity to real property in this state and who resides thereon and in good faith makes the same his or her permanent home, or the permanent home of another or others legally or naturally dependent upon said person, shall be entitled to an exemption from all taxation, except for assessments for special benefits, up to the assessed valuation of five thousand dollars on the said home and contiguous real property, as defined in §1, Art. X, of the constitution. Said title may be held by the entireties, jointly, or in common with others, and said exemption may be apportioned among such of the owners as shall reside thereon, as their respective interests shall appear, but no such exemption of more than five thousand dollars shall be allowed to any one person or any one dwelling house, nor shall the amount of the exemption allowed any person exceed the proportionate assessed valuation based on the interest owned by such person.

cf.—§1, Art. X, state const. homestead exemption.

192.13 Extent of homestead exemptions.— Vendees in possession of real estate under bona fide contracts to purchase when such instruments, under which they claim title, are recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court where said properties lie, and who reside thereon in good faith and make the same their permanent homes, and widows residing on real estate by virtue of dower or other estates therein limited in time by deed, will, jointure, or settlement, shall be deemed to have legal or beneficial title to said property.

192.14 Homestead exemptions; definitions.—The words "resident," "residence," "permanent residence," "permanent home" and those of like import, shall not be construed so as to require continuous physical residence on the property, but mean only that place which the person claiming the exemption may rightfully and in good faith call his home to the exclusion of all other places where he may, from time to time, temporarily reside.

History.—§3, ch. 17060, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 897(4).

192.141 Rental of homestead to constitute abandonment.—The rental of an entire dwelling previously claimed to be a homestead for tax purposes shall constitute the abandonment of said dwelling as a homestead and said abandonment shall continue until such dwelling is physically occupied by the owner thereof; provided however, that such abandonment of such homestead after January 1, of any year shall not affect the homestead exemption for tax purposes for that particular year; provided, however, the provisions of this section shall not apply to a member of the armed forces of the United States whose service in such forces is the result of a mandatory obligation imposed by the federal selective service act; provided, however, that this section shall have no effect on the status of any property involved in litigation pending on June 12, 1959.

History.—§1, ch. 59-270.

192.15 Homestead exemptions; forms.—The comptroller shall furnish to the assessor of each county a sufficient number of printed forms to be filed by taxpayers claiming to be entitled to said exemption. Said forms shall be substantially as follows:

Tax Assessor of _____ County, Florida:

I hereby make application for an exemption from all taxation up to the valuation of $5,000 on the following described property: _____

The title to said property is in _____

(Name all owners and their proportionate interest)

and my interest or title in this property is as follows: _____

(If title is not in applicant or is held jointly with others, give relationship of the owner or joint owner, to applicant) _____

I reside on the above property and in good faith make the same my permanent home and do hereby declare that I am a bona fide citizen of the State of Florida.

The statements contained and agreed to herein are true and made in good faith.

Applicant
Subscribed and sworn to before me this _____ day of _____ 19____

All other taxing units shall provide forms making only such changes as are necessary to conform to the laws governing them.

cf.—§192.57, Oath requirement abolished.

192.16 Homestead exemptions; claims.—

(1) LARGE COUNTIES.—(a) Each taxpayer who claims said exemption shall file one of said forms, properly filled out and executed, with the assessor on or before April 1st of each year; and the failure to do so shall constitute a waiver of said exemption for such year; provided, however, that for the year 1935 such claim may be filed on or before July 1, 1935. At the time each taxpayer files claim for homestead exemption, the tax assessor shall deliver to him a receipt over his signature, or that of a duly authorized deputy, which shall appropriately identify the property covered in the application, shall bear date as of the day such application is received by the assessor, and any serial number or other identifying data desired by said assessor. The possession of such receipt shall constitute conclusive proof of the timely filing of such application.

(b) Provided, however, this subsection (1) shall not apply to counties of the state having a population of not more than 27,500 according to the official census of 1940.

(2) SMALL COUNTIES.— Each taxpayer who claims said exemption shall file one of said forms, properly filled out and executed, with the assessor on or before April 1st of each year; and the failure to do so shall constitute a waiver of said exemption for such year.

(3) Any person who shall knowingly give false information for the purpose of claiming homestead exemption as provided for in this chapter, specific reference being hereto made, to the information requested in the form provided for in §192.15, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars or shall be imprisoned in the county jail for not more than six months or both such fine and imprisonment.

History.—§5, ch. 17060, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 897(6); §1, ch. 21876, 1943; (3) n. §1, ch. 28105, 1953.
cf.—§167.72 Homestead exemption municipal; method of filing.

192.161 Homestead exemption; claims by members of armed forces.— Every person who is entitled to homestead exemption in this state and who is serving in any branch of the armed forces of the United States, shall file a claim for such exemption as required by law, either in person, or, if by reason of such service he is unable to file such claim in person he may file such claim through his or her next of kin or through any other person he may duly authorize in writing to file such claim.

History.—§1, ch. 28109, 1953.

192.17 Homestead exemptions; duty of assessors.—The assessor shall examine each claim for exemption filed with him or referred to him and shall allow the same if found to be in accordance with law, by marking the same approved and by making the proper deductions on the tax books. In every case the property shall be assessed whether of the value more or less than five thousand dollars and an appropriate deduction shall be made as the case may be.

History.—§6, ch. 17060, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 897(7).

192.18 Homestead exemptions; city officials.—City tax assessors, or other officials performing such duties, shall be governed by the provisions of these homestead exemption laws.

History.—§7, ch. 17060, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 897(8).

192.19 Homestead exemptions; approval, refusal, hearings.—The tax assessors of the several counties of the state shall, as soon as practicable after the first day of April of each current year and prior to the first Monday in May of said year, carefully consider all applications for tax exemptions that shall have been filed in their respective offices on or before the first day of April of that year and if upon such investigation the tax assessor finds the applicant entitled to the tax exemption applied for under the law he shall mark the application approved and exemption granted and file same in the permanent records of his office and shall make such entries upon the tax rolls of his county as will be necessary to allow such exemption to the applicant. If, after due consideration, the tax assessor should find the applicant not to be entitled under the law to the exemption asked for, such tax assessor shall immediately make out in triplicate form a notice of such disapproval, giving his reasons therefor, a copy of which notice shall be served upon the applicant by the tax assessor either by personal delivery or by registered mail to the post office address given by the applicant and shall make return of the manner in which such notice was served upon said applicant upon the original notice thereof and immediately file same with the clerk of the board of county commissioners of said county. The third copy of said notice shall likewise have entered upon it the return of the tax assessor as to service had and filed among the permanent records of his office. The original notice of disapproval of application for exemption, with entry of service upon the applicant, when filed with the clerk of the board of county commissioners shall constitute an appeal of the applicant from the decision of the tax assessor, refusing to allow the exemption for which application was made, to the board of county commissioners, when sitting as a board of equalization, and said board of county commissioners, when sitting as a board of equalization, shall review the application and evidence presented to the tax assessor upon which the applicant based his claim for exemption and shall hear the applicant in person or by agent in behalf of his right to such exemption, and the board of county commissioners shall reverse the decision of the tax assessor in said cause and grant exemption to the applicant if in its judgment the applicant is entitled thereto, or affirm the decision of the tax assessor, and such action of the board of county commissioners shall be final in said cause unless the applicant shall within fifteen days from the date of refusal of said application of said board of county commissioners, sitting as a board of equalization, file in the circuit court of the county in which the homestead is situated a proceeding against the assessor for a declaratory decree as is provided by chapter 87 or by other appropriate proceedings, and provided, that the failure of the taxpayer to appear before the assessor or board of county commissioners or to file any paper other than the application above provided, shall not constitute any bar or defense to said proceedings.

cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

192.20 Homestead exemptions; administration of oaths.—For the purpose of administering the provisions of this law or any other duties pertaining to the proper administration of the duties of the office of tax assessor, the making and filing of tax returns and applications for tax exemption as provided under the laws of the state, the duly elected or appointed tax assessors of the several counties of the state or their lawful deputies, may administer oaths and attest same in the same manner as notaries public and justices of the peace of the state and when so administered by the said tax assessors such oath will have the same effect and be as binding as if administered by a justice of the peace or notary public of the state.

192.201 Exemption of household goods and personal effects.—

(1) There shall be exempt from taxation to every person residing and making his or her permanent home in this state household goods and personal effects to the assessed value of one thousand dollars. Title to such household goods and personal effects may be held individually, by the entireties, jointly or in common with others.

(2) This section shall take effect on January 1, 1956, and shall be applicable to the tax year beginning on this date.

History.—§§1, 3, ch. 29743, 1955.

192.21 Lien of taxes.—All taxes imposed pursuant to the constitution and the laws of this state shall be a first lien superior to all other liens on any property against which such taxes have been assessed which shall continue in full force and effect until discharged by payment, and no act of omission or commission on the part of any tax assessor, or any assistant tax assessor, or any tax collector, or any board of county commissioners, or any clerk of the circuit court or any officer of this state, or any newspaper in which any advertisement of sale may be published, shall operate to defeat the payment of said taxes; but any such acts of omission or commission may be corrected at any time by the officer or party responsible for the same in like manner as is now or may hereafter be provided by law for performing such acts in the first place, and when so corrected they shall be construed as valid ab initio and shall in no way affect any process by law for the enforcement of the collection of any such tax. All owners of property shall be held to know that taxes are due and payable thereon annually, and are hereby charged with the duty of ascertaining the amount of such tax and paying the same before the first day of April of the year following the year in which such taxes were assessed; all provisions of law now existing or which may be hereafter enacted relating to the assessment and collection of revenue (unless otherwise specifically so declared) shall be deemed and held to be directory only, designed for the orderly arrangement of records and procedure of officers in enforcing the revenue laws of the state; and no assessment shall be held invalid unless suit be instituted within sixty days from the time the assessment shall become final, and no sale or conveyance of real or personal property for nonpayment of taxes shall be held invalid except upon proof that the property was not subject to taxation, or that the taxes had been paid prior to the sale, or that the property had been redeemed prior to the execution and delivery of deed based upon certificate issued for nonpayment of taxes. Nothing contained in this law shall be construed as in any way affecting any suit pending on June 7, 1941, in any court of this state, or any federal court, involving any tax lien, tax certificate or deed, nor as affecting any suit to foreclose delinquent taxes filed by any county or municipality and pending in court on or prior to the first day of June, 1943.

192.22 Validation of acceptance of bonds, etc., for taxes.—The action of public officers of this state, including the officers and governing boards and commissions of special taxing districts, prior to May 16th, 1933, in accepting bonds or matured interest coupons and other obligations in payment of taxes and in the redemption of tax sale certificates and tax liens, is hereby validated, ratified and confirmed.

192.23 Not to impair validity of prior assessments.—Nothing in these statutes shall be construed as to impair the validity of any assessment of taxes assessed prior to the first day of January, 1908, nor of any tax collector's warrant that has been or may be annexed to any assessment roll prior to said first day of January, 1908, nor of any proceedings had or done or that may hereafter be had or done by any tax collector for the collection of any taxes assessed before that time, nor shall this law relieve any person from any penalty incurred by reason of violation of the law now in force.

192.24 Disposition of unclaimed redemption funds.—Wherever there shall have been held by any clerk of the circuit court or other public officer for a period of three months or more any moneys paid in for the redemption of tax certificates, which moneys are by the course of law provided to be paid over to the holder of a tax certificate redeemed, but as to which such clerk of court or other officer has not made payment over to the holder during the period aforesaid, either because of the failure of the person entitled to claim the same to do so within said three months' period, or for other cause, such clerk of the circuit court, or other officer shall forthwith remit the unclaimed redemption moneys, less his fees, to the state treasurer who shall hold the same as part of the public funds of the state available for general state purposes, subject always, however, to the right of the true owner thereof, to have a reimbursement of such funds made to him upon proof of his right thereto according to the procedure provided for the reclamation of escheated property by the heir or legal representative.

§194.23 Disposal of land owners funds.

192.25 Distribution of interest on redeemed tax certificates.—The comptroller of the state shall distribute back to the several counties of the state the interest received on state tax certificates and subsequent omitted taxes on state tax certificates redeemed or purchased except such part of said interest as may have accrued on certificates or taxes levied by the state; same to be distributed at the same time and in the same manner as moneys received from the sale and redemption of state tax certificates as reported by the clerks of the circuit court from such counties to the state comptroller.

cf.—§2, Art. IX, state const. state ad valorem taxes abolished.

192.26 Modification of state tax levy.—The governor of the state may reduce or modify any state tax levy, now or hereafter authorized or provided for by the laws of Florida, when in his judgment the amount of the authorized levy is in excess of the just requirements of the purpose for which the particular tax was authorized, or will produce an excess or unnecessary amount of revenue for such purpose, and the order of the governor made in accordance with this section shall be filed in the office of the comptroller who shall transmit the same to all tax assessors of the state, who are required to obey and observe the same.

History.—§1, ch. 12295, 1927; CGL 1041.

192.27 Taxes against state properties; notice.—Whenever lands or other property of the state or of any agency thereof are situated within any district, sub-district or governmental unit for the purpose of taxation, which said lands or any of them or other property, are or shall be subject to special assessments or taxes, the tax collector or other tax collecting agency having authority to collect such taxes or special assessments, shall upon such taxes or special assessments becoming legally due and payable, mail to the state agency or department holding such land or other property, or if held by the state, then to the trustees of the internal improvement fund at Tallahassee, a notice and make notation under the same date of such notice on the tax roll, which said notice shall contain a description of the lands or other property owned by the state or its agency upon which taxes or special assessments have been levied and are collectible, and the amount of such special assessments or taxes, and unless such notation of notice on the tax roll shall have been made, any nonpayment by the said state or its agency of taxes or special assessments shall not constitute a delinquency or be the basis on which the said lands or other property may be sold for the nonpayment of such taxes or special assessments.

§298.36 Assessing land for reclamation; apportionment of tax; lands belonging to state assessed; drainage tax record.

192.28 Judicial sale; payment of taxes.—All sheriffs, commissioners, masters in chancery, or other officers, whose duty it shall be to make sale of any property under the process or order of any court, shall pay from the proceeds of such sale, after the payment of the costs of the proceedings wherein the said sale is made, and the counsel fees if any allowed by the court, all taxes, state, county and municipal, which may be assessed, due and unpaid against the said property, including any and all sums which may be required to be paid to redeem the same from the lien of all back taxes to tax certificates outstanding against the same.

History.—§1, ch. 10285, 1925; CGL 954.

192.29 Subdivision plats; vacation.—The boards of county commissioners of the several counties of the state may adopt resolutions vacating plats in whole or in part of subdivisions in said counties returning the property covered by such plats either in whole or in part into acreage for the purpose of taxation. Before such resolution of vacating any plat either in whole or in part shall be entered by the boards of county commissioners it must be shown conclusively that the person making application for said vacation owns the fee simple title to the whole or that part of the tract covered by said subdivision sought to be vacated and must be further shown that the vacation by the boards of county commissioners of parts of plats will not affect the ownership of persons owning other parts of said subdivision.

History.—§ 1, 2, ch. 14822, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 921(3), 921(4); § 1, ch. 22999, 1945.
cf.—§177.15 Certain streets and alleys vacated.

192.30 Notice of application to vacate plat.—

(1) Persons making applications for vacation of plats either in whole or in part shall give notice of their intention to apply to the board of county commissioners to vacate said plat either in whole or in part by legal notice published in the newspaper nearest the tract or parcel of land in said county in not less than two weekly issues of said paper and must attach to the petition for vacation the proof of such publication, together with certificates showing that all state and county taxes, including the current year, have been paid; provided, that if such tract or parcel of land is within the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town the board of county commissioners shall be furnished with certified copy of resolution of the town council or city commission, as the case may be, showing that they have already by suitable resolution vacated such plat or subdivision or such part thereof sought to be vacated.

(2) Every such resolution by the board of county commissioners shall have the effect of vacating all streets and alleys which have not become highways necessary for use by the traveling public; and provided, that such vacation shall not become effective until certified copy of such resolution has been filed in the offices of the clerk of the circuit court and duly recorded in the public records of said county.

cf.—§177.15 Certain streets and alleys vacated.

192.31 Powers and duties of comptroller and state budget commission as to uniformity.—

(1) The comptroller shall, under the supervision of the state budget commission, prescribe and furnish all forms to be used by county assessors, tax collectors, clerks of the circuit courts and boards of county commissioners in the assessing and collecting of taxes. The county assessors, tax collectors, clerks of the circuit courts and boards of county commissioners shall use the forms and pursue the instructions which may from time to time be transmitted to them by the comptroller. All forms furnished by the comptroller for use in each county shall be paid for by the comptroller upon approval by the state budget commission as provided by law. The comptroller shall have general supervision of the assessment and valuation of property, under the supervision of the state budget commission, so that all property will be placed on the tax rolls and the valuation thereof will be uniform and equal, as required by the constitution, and he shall also have supervision over the collection of such taxes. The comptroller shall, upon approval thereof by the state budget commission, establish and promulgate standard measures of values not inconsistent with those standards provided by law to be used by tax assessors in all counties, including taxing districts, in arriving at assessments of all property, which standard measures of values shall be deemed and held prima facie to be the standard measures of just valuation contemplated by the constitution of this state in matters of taxation, and tax assessors and county boards of equalization shall follow and apply such standard measures of values in arriving at assessments of all property, and the burden shall be upon any assessor or county board of equalization refusing to follow such standard to overcome the presumption by a preponderance of the evidence.

(2) The comptroller shall prepare a tentative manual of instructions for tax assessors, tax collectors and county boards of equalization and other tax officials, which tentative manual shall include the rules and regulations and the standard measures of values prescribed by the comptroller and such other information as the comptroller may deem to be useful in carrying out the provisions of this law. Copies of such tentative manual shall be furnished to the several tax assessors, tax collectors and county boards of equalization for examination, criticism and suggestions concerning the contents thereof, the same to be transmitted to the state budget commission within sixty days after receipt of such tentative manual, and thereupon the state budget commission shall consider any criticisms or suggestions which may be filed and adopt a final manual of instructions for use as herein provided, such manual not to become effective until so approved and adopted. Such final manual shall provide that platted lands unsold as lots shall be valued for tax assessment purposes on the same basis as any unplatted acreage of similar character, until sixty per cent of such lands included in one plat shall have been sold as individual lots. Within the discretion of the state budget commission prior to the approval and adoption of such manual, public hearings with local taxing officials may be held.

(3) On or before April 1, 1945, and on or before the same day of each year thereafter, the several tax assessors, tax collectors and county boards of equalization may submit to the state budget commission suggestions for amendments, changes or supplements to said manual of instructions and such suggestions, amendments, changes or supplements shall be considered by said state budget commission and said manual of instructions may be revised in such form as may be determined by said state budget commission.

(4) No expense shall be incurred in the preparation and distribution of such manual or handbook unless the same is first approved by the state budget commission.

(5) The several branches of the executive department of the state are authorized and directed to render such necessary aid and assistance to the comptroller as the facilities and professional personnel of such departments permit, to secure the due performance by the comptroller of his duties under this law.

(6) The comptroller shall conduct constant research and keep accurate tabulation of conditions existing as to ad valorem taxation, and make such recommendations by and with the approval of the state budget commission for the benefit of the legislature in regard thereto as he may deem for the best interest of the state.

(7) The comptroller shall, under the supervision of the state budget commission, prescribe reasonable rules and regulations for assessing and collecting taxes and such rules and regulations shall be followed by the county officers referred to in this law.

(8) It is hereby declared to be the purpose and intent of this law to secure a just valuation and provide for a uniform and equal assessment as between property within each county or taxing district and as between property in each county and property in every other county or taxing district in this state.

*Subsection (1) effective January 1, 1964.

192.32 Assessments validated.—Every assessment of taxes heretofore made in the state of real estate, where such assessment has been actually made in the name of the true owner, is hereby validated in so far as the description of ownership is concerned, and no tax assessment or tax levy made upon any real estate in this state shall be held invalid by reason of or because of the fact that such real estate was actually assessed in the name of the true owner although such owner had made no return of the real estate to the tax assessor.

192.33 Survival of restrictions and covenants after tax deed.—Whenever a deed in the chain of title shall contain restrictions and covenants running with the land, as herein-after defined and limited, said restrictions and covenants shall survive and be enforceable after the issuance of a tax deed or master's deed upon foreclosure of a tax deed, tax certificate, or tax lien, to the same extent that it would be enforceable against a voluntary grantee, immediate, mediate, or remote, of the owner of the title immediately prior to the delivery of the tax deed or master's deed.

This section shall apply to the usual restrictions and covenants limiting the use of property, the type, character and location of building, the character, race or nationality of owners, covenants against nuisances and what the former parties deemed to be undesirable conditions, in, upon and about the property, and other similar restrictions and covenants; but this section shall not protect covenants creating any debt or lien against or upon the property, or that will require the grantee to expend money for any purpose, except such as may require said grantee to keep the premises in a sanitary or slightly condition, or to abate nuisances or undesirable conditions.

Any right that the former owner had to enforce like restrictions and covenants against the immediate, mediate, or remote grantor and other parties owning other property held or sold under the same plat or plan, or in the same or adjacent subdivisions of land, or otherwise, except forfeitures, right of re-entry, or reverter, shall likewise survive to the grantee in said tax deed or master's deed and to his or its heirs, successors and assigns; it being among other things the specific intention of the legislature that all forfeitures, rights of re-entry, and reverter rights shall be destroyed and shall not survive to the grantee in such tax deed or master's deed or to his or its heirs, successors and assigns.

192.34 Mandamus to levy tax; limitations, etc.—In any suit brought in any court of this state seeking to compel the levy of any tax for the payment of any bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness, or to establish a sinking fund for their ultimate redemption at maturity, the peremptory writ, if issued by the court, shall in no case require a levy in excess of the ability of the taxing unit involved to pay the taxes commanded to be levied; and if such taxing unit be one having other functions of civil government to perform, the court shall also take into consideration in commanding such levy, the necessity of such unit to make a reasonably ample levy of taxes for the purpose of raising revenue with which to pay for the operation of the ordinary functions of civil government which such unit performs; provided, this section shall not apply to bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness issued subsequent to the passage of this law. The ability of the taxing unit involved to pay the taxes commanded to be levied shall be determined by the court within its sound discretion by the application of equitable considerations in view of all the conditions of the taxing unit bearing upon such ability to pay; and such ability to pay shall be first found and determined before the issuance of any such peremptory writ.

192.35 Certificates purchased under Murphy act.—Holders of tax sale certificates together with subsequent omitted taxes, purchased by persons not the owners of the lands described in such certificates, under the provisions of chapter 18296, acts 1937, shall, at the expiration of two years from the date of the sale of such certificates, except certificates encumbering homesteads, have the right to apply for tax deeds, in the manner provided by law, to the lands described in such certificates; provided, that for two years from the date of the sale of any certificate, the person holding title to the lands described in said certificate, on the date it became two years old, his grantee or legal representative or anyone holding a lien upon such land, shall have the right to redeem the same from said certificate so sold, by the payment of the amount bid therefor plus three per cent per annum from the date of said certificate, together with all costs paid by the purchaser in connection with the purchase of said certificate.

192.351 Murphy act; tax certificates barred.

—The right to apply for a tax deed or to institute other action for recovery on or enforcement of tax sale certificates, and subsequent and omitted taxes in connection therewith, which were sold and assigned under the provisions of chapter 18296, acts of 1937, commonly known as the Murphy act, and which certificates are held by private holders, natural or corporate, partnership, trustee, estate of deceased person, or other person or persons under disability, or otherwise, shall be deemed and held to be barred by this section from and after midnight June 30, 1956.

192.352 Murphy act; cancellation of tax sale certificates by clerks of circuit court.

—The several clerks of the circuit court of the state are authorized, empowered and directed to, immediately after June 30, 1956, note the cancellation of all tax sale certificates which were sold under the provisions of chapter 18296, acts of 1937, commonly known as the Murphy act, and which were then still outstanding, upon any and all records thereof in the office of such clerk.

The several clerks of the circuit court shall indicate such cancellation by entering opposite the record of such tax sale certificates, a notation in substantially the following form: "Cancelled by acts of 1955, Florida legislature."

For making each cancellation and otherwise complying with law in relation thereto the clerk shall receive such fees as provided by general law from the general revenue fund of the county for cancelling tax certificates by marginal notations.

History.—§2, ch. 29794, 1955.

192.353 Exception; certificates held by state.—§§192.351, 192.352 shall not apply to tax sale certificates held by the clerks of the circuit courts on behalf of the state, by virtue of which title to the land covered thereby vested in the state under §192.38, the Murphy act.

History.—§3, ch. 29794, 1955.

192.36 Homesteads; certificates purchased under Murphy act.—In the event any tax certificate, together with subsequent or omitted taxes, encumbering a homestead was purchased under chapter 18296, acts 1937, by any person, not the owner of the land described in such certificate, then at the expiration of ten years from the date of such sale of such certificate such purchaser shall have the right to apply for tax deed, as provided by law, for land described in such certificate; provided, that for ten years from date of sale of such certificate the person who held title to said land on date said certificate became two years old, his grantee or legal representative or any one holding a lien on such land shall have the right to redeem such land from such certificate by the payment of the amount bid therefor plus three per cent per annum from the date of sale of such certificate together with all costs paid in connection with sale of said certificate.

History.—§11, ch. 18296, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 992(22).

192.37 Cancellation of certificates purchased under Murphy act.—The holder of any tax sale certificate, by purchase, assignment or otherwise, purchased under the provisions of chapter 18296, acts of 1937, shall have the right, at any time, to deliver such certificate to the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the lands are situated, for cancellation and said clerk shall cancel the certificates of record upon the payment of a fee of ten cents for each certificate so canceled.

192.38 Title to certain tax certificate lands vested in state.

(1) At the expiration of two years from the date chapter 18296, acts of 1937, became a law, the fee simple title to all lands in this state, against which there remained outstanding tax sale certificates which, on the date said act became a law, were more than two years old, became absolutely vested in the state and every right, title or interest of every nature or kind whatsoever of the former owner of said property, or anyone claiming by, through or under him, or anyone holding a lien thereon, ceased, terminated and ended and the state through the trustees of the internal improvement fund may:

(a) Sell said lands to the highest and best bidder for cash at such time and after giving such notice and according to such rules and regulations as have or may be fixed and adopted from time to time by said trustees of the internal improvement fund;

(b) Sell or lease said lands to the United States, its agencies or instrumentalities, and to municipalities, drainage districts and other taxing districts in this state without notice and public sale, on terms and conditions to be determined by the trustees of the internal improvement fund;

(c) Convey to any agency of the state, or county in the state, without giving notice, on terms and conditions as may be fixed by the trustees of the internal improvement fund:

1. Easements for right-of-way.

2. Any tract or parcel.

Conveyances made under (a), (b) and (c) to be subject to any interests granted or withheld under (c) herein.

(d) Withdraw tracts or parcels from public sale considered by the trustees of the internal improvement fund to be valuable for public purposes, and dedicate such tracts or parcels to such public use considered necessary and proper by the said trustees;

(e) Exchange lands for other lands where such exchange is considered by the trustees of the internal improvement fund to be beneficial to the state;

(f) Convey easements to railroad companies, light and power companies and other public service corporations without notice and on such terms and conditions as to the trustees of the internal improvement fund may be just, and conveyances under (a), (b) and (e) herein shall be subject thereto.

(2) The trustees of the internal improvement fund are hereby vested and charged with the administration, management, control, supervision, conservation and protection of lands and products on, under or growing out of or connected with lands mentioned in this section, and for such purposes, laws relating to lands of the trustees of the internal improvement fund shall be applicable.

cf.—§196.17 Murphy act lands; municipal foreclosures against.

192.381 Sale of Murphy Act lands to former owner; application; conveyance; distribution of proceeds.—

(1) Lands acquired by the state, through delinquent ad valorem tax liens and the Murphy act (ch. 18296, laws of Florida, acts of 1937), which have not been previously sold, conveyed, dedicated or otherwise disposed of by the state, may, at the discretion of the trustees of the internal improvement fund, be sold and conveyed, by the state by and through its said trustees, to the record fee simple owner of said lands, as of June 9, 1939, the date said lands became absolutely vested in the state, or those claiming by, through or under him by virtue of a conveyance, mortgage, lien or agreement, upon such terms and conditions and for such consideration as to said trustees shall seem equitable and proper. No publication of a notice of sale or sale at auction to the highest and best bidder shall be necessary hereunder.

(2) Sale and conveyance of such lands hereunder shall be pursuant to application by the said former owner or those claiming by, through or under such owner, which should contain:

(a) A description of the lands sought to be purchased hereunder;

(b) The name, and address if known, of the said former owner, and the name and address of the applicant if other than the former owner, showing the chain of title from the said owner to the applicant;

(c) The mortgage and lien holders, if any, claiming under the former owner or his successors in title.

(d) The price offered for the lands; which amount shall accompany the application in cash or certified or cashier's checks.

(e) Any equities, or elements of hardship, why the lands should be sold to the applicant under this statute instead of under §192.38; and

(f) Such other information as the trustees of the internal improvement fund may desire.

(g) Evidence satisfactory to the trustees of the payment of all taxes and assessments levied and assessed on said lands prior to the vesting of said title in the state together with the payment of an amount which would equal the sum of taxes and assessments which would have been due had said lands not vested in the state.

(3) Any original application pending for the purchase of said lands under §192.38, shall stand suspended, upon the filing of the above application hereunder, until the final disposition of the said application hereunder and the pending of such an application shall not bar sale and conveyance hereunder unless and until a deed under said §192.38 shall have been delivered to the purchaser.

(4) The form for deeds of conveyances hereunder shall be adopted by the trustees of the internal improvement fund.

(5) The proceeds of sales hereunder shall be distributed and disposed of as are the proceeds from sales under §192.38.

History.—§§1-5, ch. 28317, 1953.

192.39 Validation of certain Murphy act sales.—All sales of tax certificates authorized by chapter 18296, acts 1937, advertised in weekly newspapers dated May 26, June 2, and June 9, 1939, and notices advertised in such weekly newspapers on the above dates, shall be construed as fulfilling the purpose and intent of the first paragraph of §3 of said chapter 18296, acts 1937.

History.—§1, ch. 19149, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 992(14a).

192.40 Redemption of delinquent taxes with bonds, etc.—The governing boards and officials charged with the collection of delinquent taxes of the several counties, districts and municipalities of this state shall receive and accept, when offered, all bonds, delinquent interest coupons or other delinquent obligations of said counties, districts or municipalities which were levied for the payment of interest or for a sinking fund on said bonds or other obligations offered, and in payment of all current taxes levied for the payment of interest or for a sinking fund on said bonds or other obligations; provided, however, that any taxpayer or owner of lands when offering to redeem lands by the payment in bonds, delinquent interest coupons or other delinquent obligations, from delinquent taxes levied for the payment of interest or a sinking fund on said bonds or other obligations, he shall redeem and pay as provided by law all other parts and portions of that particular tax levy levied against said lands. A levy of a tax for interest and sinking fund on one issue of bonds or other obligations shall not be payable in bonds or past due coupons or obligations other than the bonds, past due interest coupons or obligations for which said levy was made to pay, unless otherwise provided by law. All such bonds or past due interest coupons or other past due obligations of the county, district or municipality so received and accepted, shall be accepted and taken at par value; provided, however, that when the bonds involved are bonds having a serial maturity rather than term bonds contemplated to be paid by a sinking fund, such serial bonds may be accepted only under such limitations as to maturity dates of the bonds as the governing authority of the county, city, town or other taxing district may impose. Such limitation shall be authorized by resolution adopted by the said governing authority affected.

When any such obligation is received in payment of delinquent taxes by a county official it shall be delivered to and deposited with the clerk of the circuit court of said county as ex-officio treasurer of said county and shall receive credit for said bonds, interest coupons or other obligations at par on account of the particular transaction or item for which said bonds, interest coupons or other obligations were received, but no other, as though it were an actual and equal amount of cash so delivered. When any such obligation is received in payment of delinquent taxes by a municipality or district it shall be delivered to and deposited with the treasurer of said municipality or district and credit therefor allowed to the tax collector of said municipality or district on account of the particular transaction or item for which said bond, interest coupon or other obligation was received, but no other, as though the amount of said bond, interest coupon or other obligation was delivered or paid in cash.

192.41 Payment in bonds same as cash.—When delinquent taxes on lands are redeemed in bonds, past due interest coupons or other past due obligations for the amount of the taxes levied for the payment of interest or sinking fund on said bonds or other obligations the accrued interest on said delinquent taxes and all other penalties shall be likewise payable in said bonds, coupons or other obligations and in all cases of redemption of delinquent taxes or payment of current taxes with bonds, coupons or other obligations, tax receipts and tax redemption receipts shall issue therefor as though the same were paid in cash, and in all cases of redemption from delinquent taxes with bonds, interest coupons or other obligations as herein stated all costs of the clerk or redemption officer provided by law shall be paid in cash. All bonds, interest coupons or other obligations received in payment or in redemption of taxes shall thereafter stand canceled, null and void, to the same extent as though said bonds, interest coupons or other obligations had been paid in cash.

192.42 When taxes may be redeemed with bonds, etc.—It is the purpose and intent of this law to provide for the payment of taxes levied for the payment of the interest or for a sinking fund of any particular issue of bonds or other obligations to be payable in said bonds, or in the past due interest coupons of said bonds, or both, and if the taxes are delinquent or if tax sale certificate has been issued to and is held and owned by the state, county, district or municipality, the same may be redeemed with such bonds or delinquent interest coupons; and where taxes have been levied for the payment of other obligations they shall likewise be payable or redeemable in such other obligations; provided, in all events, that the person offering to pay the same shall pay the total taxes levied, including all subsequent omitted taxes and all costs in case of redemption, in the same manner and to the same extent as he would be required to pay were he offering to pay in cash the total taxes levied or delinquent.

192.43 Abolished municipalities; payment of taxes with bonds.—The clerks of the circuit courts shall accept at par any and all bonds, certificates of indebtedness and past due interest on the same of any legally abolished municipality, lying wholly or in part within such county or counties in payment, cancellation and satisfaction of any tax sale certificates or delinquent taxes held by the state or county against lands in such county or counties. Any and all such bonds, certificates of indebtedness or past due interest thereon or evidence of debt of any such legally abolished municipality when received by any such clerk shall be canceled. No bonds, certificates of indebtedness, past due interest or other evidence of debt shall be accepted by any clerk as herein provided unless and until that portion of any such delinquent tax or tax sale certificate going to the state shall have been paid in cash by the person or persons presenting such bonds, certificates of indebtedness, past due interest or other evidences of debt as herein provided.

History.—§4a, ch. 17401, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 999(100).

192.44 Definitions.—When used in these laws relating to payment of delinquent taxes with bonds and other obligations, the word "district" shall be understood to apply to any tax district or taxing district of whatever character in any county or counties wherein a tax is levied for the payment of debts of such district outstanding, regardless of its nature or how constituted. The terms "bonds," "interest coupons" or other "obligations" herein mentioned mean and are to be construed to mean all bonds heretofore issued or which may be hereafter issued, with the interest coupons, if any, thereto attached as a part thereof, by any county, board of county commissioners or by the board of public instruction of such county or by any district or districts in any county or counties or by any municipality or municipalities, or any past due warrant or written or recorded obligation to pay money in any form heretofore issued or entered or which may hereafter be issued or entered by or against such counties, districts or municipalities. Any receipts from the holder and owner of a judgment or other like record obligation for credit on such judgment or other record obligation shall be sufficient evidence of delivery of such obligation to the amount of said receipt.

192.45 Sale of Murphy act lands to municipalities.—

(1) The state through the trustees of the internal improvement trust fund shall be, and they are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to sell any land owned by a municipality of the state, prior to the time it became vested in the state by the operation of the Murphy act, also known as chapter 18296, acts of 1937, to the municipality owning said land prior to the time of its divestment of title, for the sum of one dollar for each and every parcel of land so sold, and all advertisement, notice and procedure is hereby dispensed with.

(2) A municipality in requesting a conveyance by the state, through trustees of the internal improvement trust fund, shall furnish prima facie proof, in the nature of a certificate from the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which said municipality is located, that at the time of the operation of the Murphy act, also known as chapter 18296, acts of 1937, at which time the municipality was divested of its title, that the said municipality was the owner of the record title to said property.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 20424, 1941; §2, ch. 61-119.

192.46 Distribution of Murphy act funds.—

(1) The proceeds derived from sales of lands by the state, through the trustees of the internal improvement trust fund pursuant to section 9 of the Murphy act, being chapter 18296, acts of 1937, amounting to $709,794.14 as of April 5, 1941, together with such further proceeds from such sales, shall, after all costs of such sales are defrayed, be immediately transferred from the fund in which the same are now or may hereafter be deposited in the state treasury to the general revenue fund of the state to be used in meeting the general expenses of the state.

(2) All officials of the state having charge of the proceeds of such sales are hereby required to make such funds available to the general revenue funds as hereinbefore provided.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 20368, 1941; (1) §2, ch. 61-119.

192.47 Murphy act lands; suits by former owners; limitations.—The former owner, and others having or claiming by, through or under him, of land vested in the state by virtue of chapter 18296, laws of Florida, 1937, shall have and are hereby allowed a period of six months from the time this section becomes a law to bring suit to recover said land or to enforce any right of the former owner or claim by, through or under the said former owner, or to set aside a sale by the trustees of the internal improvement trust fund, and on failure to assert such right within such time set out in this section, shall be and are hereby forever barred and foreclosed of claims aforesaid in and to said lands and no court of the state, either federal or state, shall thereafter entertain any suit brought by any former owner or anyone claiming by, through or under him for the purpose of questioning, litigating or contesting the title of the state or its grantee to said land.

History.—§1, ch. 21685, 1943; §2, ch. 61-119.

192.48 Murphy act lands and other lands held under tax proceedings; suits by former owners; limitations.—

(1) The former owner, and others having or claiming by, through or under him, of land, title to which is or was claimed by the state under and by virtue of chapter 18296, laws of Florida, 1937, shall have and are hereby allowed a period of one year from the time a deed of any such lands by the trustees of the internal improvement trust fund is recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in the county where the land is situate, to bring suit to recover said land or to enforce any right of the former owner, or claim by, through or under the said former owner, or to set aside sale by the said trustees and on failure to assert such right within such time set out in this section shall be and are hereby forever barred and foreclosed of claims as aforesaid in and to said lands and no court of this state, either federal or state, shall thereafter entertain any suit brought by any former owner or anyone claiming by, through or under him for the purpose of questioning, litigating or contesting the title of the state or its grantee to said land except upon the grounds that the taxes for which any deed was issued was not assessed, was not due or had been paid.

(2) The provisions of this section shall apply to any deed hereafter executed pursuant to any tax foreclosure or tax forfeiture to satisfy a tax lien and to any deed executed by the state, county, municipality, drainage district, or other taxing unit conveying or purporting to convey any real estate, title to which is claimed pursuant to any tax foreclosure, tax forfeiture, or any other proceeding to satisfy a tax lien in the same manner and to the same extent as this section applies to a deed executed by the trustees of the internal improvement trust fund as referred to in subsection (1) hereof.

(3) The former owner of, and any persons having or claiming any interest in, any land, the title to which has heretofore passed or purportedly passed to another by virtue of any deed heretofore executed, within the past five years pursuant to any tax foreclosure or procedure or tax forfeiture to satisfy a tax lien, and executed by the state, or any county, municipality, drainage district, or other taxing unit within the state, shall have and are hereby allowed one year from the time this section becomes law within which to bring suit to recover said land or to enforce any right of the former owner or any claim or interest of any person therein, and upon failure to assert such right, claim or interest within such time as is set out in this subsection, such owner and such other persons shall be and are hereby forever barred and foreclosed of rights, claims or interests as aforesaid in and to said lands, and no court of this state, either federal or state, shall thereafter entertain any suit brought by any former owner or person having or claiming an interest as aforesaid for the purpose of questioning, litigating or contesting such title.

(4) That when the land conveyed by any such deed is in the actual and open possession of any one other than the grantee named in said deed the grantee in said deed or any one claiming by, through or under him shall within three years from the date of said deed bring appropriate action for the possession of the land described in said deed and upon the payment of all subsequent taxes levied against said lands.

(5) This section shall not apply to any lands upon which the taxes, which were the basis for the issuance of a tax deed, had been paid or the land in question was tax exempt or was not subject to any portion of said tax.

History.—§2, ch. 21685, 1943; §1, ch. 23827, 1947; (1), (2) §2, ch. 61-119.

192.49 Murphy act lands; conveyances, leases, etc., confirmed.—Subject to the time limit set forth in §§192.47 and 192.48 above, all deeds heretofore executed by the trustees of the internal improvement trust fund on behalf of the state under the provisions of said chapter 18296, laws of Florida, 1937, and §192.38, shall be valid in all respects, and likewise shall all leases and easements granted by said trustees be valid for the purpose for which granted.

History.—§3, ch. 21685, 1943; §2, ch. 61-119.

192.50 Conveyance of Murphy act lands to municipalities, counties, etc.—

(2) Request for such conveyance shall be made by resolution of the board of county commissioners, or of the county board of public instruction or municipality, as the case may be, duly adopted and spread upon its minutes, showing and setting forth the present or proposed public use or purpose to which said lands are or shall be devoted. A certified copy of such resolution shall be transmitted to the said trustees and by the latter preserved among its records; provided, however, that prior to execution and delivery of conveyance by said trustees, notice shall first be given to the owner or person last paying taxes on said lands, as the same may be required by rules of said trustees in the case of private sales, in effect at the time such resolution is received, and such persons shall have all the rights accorded to former owners by such rules of said trustees in the cases of private sales.

(3) Conveyances of said lands by said trustees shall be deemed and considered as dedications thereof to public use, and the same shall be under the jurisdiction and control, and administered by the official board, or agency charged with the duty of administering the particular public use or purpose set forth in such resolution.

History.—§§1-3, ch. 21929, 1943; (1) §2, ch. 61-119.

192.51 State budget commission; consent required to certain assessments.—When, under any law of this state heretofore or hereafter enacted, providing for the imposition of any tax, provision is made for the payment of any portion of the revenue derived from such tax by any state officer, officers, or board, to defray expenses incident to the enforcement and collection thereof, no such state officer, officers, or board may pay or agree to pay any of such funds without the express authorization and approval of the budget commission of this state.

History.—§1, ch. 21919, 1943.

192.52 Tax exemption, municipal public utilities.—The real and personal property of municipally owned and operated public utilities held and used exclusively for municipal purposes shall not be subject to ad valorem or personal property taxes.

History.—§1, ch. 21985, 1943; §2, ch. 57-788.

192.53 Disposition of bonds, etc., deposited with state treasurer under chapter 15054.—

(1) All bonds, delinquent interest coupons, or other delinquent obligations of counties and districts of this state now held by the state treasurer, as custodian thereof under chapter 15054, acts of 1931, be, and the same are hereby canceled and rendered void and of no effect. The state treasurer shall, within sixty days from April 21, 1943, indicate by appropriate perforation, sign or symbol, on each of such bonds, delinquent interest coupons, or other delinquent obligations as are in this section above described, the fact of such cancellation, and return the same to the appropriate board of county commissioners, to be by the latter destroyed.

(2) All bonds, delinquent interest coupons, or other delinquent obligations of the municipalities of this state, now held by the state treasurer, as custodian thereof under chapter 15054, shall, within sixty days from April 21, 1943, be by the state treasurer, by appropriate perforation, sign or symbol, on each of such bonds, delinquent interest coupons, or other delinquent obligations, canceled and thus rendered void and of no effect, and returned to the source from which received to be destroyed.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 21644, 1943.

192.54 Banks and trust companies; exemption from taxation, etc.—All banks, trust companies and Morris plan banks, now or hereafter chartered under the laws of the state, shall have the same immunity from state and local taxation that national banking associations have from time to time under the statutes of the United States.

History.—§1, ch. 21842, 1943; §10, ch. 26484, 1951.

192.56 Land shall not be subdivided; no plat filed until taxes paid.—No land shall be divided or subdivided and no drawing or plat of the division or subdivision of any such land shall be filed or recorded in the public records of any county in this state until all taxes shall have been paid on said land.

History.—§2½, ch. 22079, 1943.
cf.—Chapter 177, Maps and plats.

192.57 Oath; when not required.—

(1) No tax return or application for tax exemption, license or permit of any kind or nature that may be required by law, need be made under oath.

(2) Whosoever makes or subscribes a tax return or application for tax exemption, license or permit, knowing or having reason to know that same is false as to any material matter therein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished as provided by law.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 21950, 1943.

192.58 Easements survive tax sales and deeds.—When any lands in this state shall be sold for the nonpayment of taxes, or any tax certificate shall be issued thereon, by the state or by any county, municipality, special taxing district or other political subdivision of the state, or pursuant to any tax lien foreclosure proceeding, the title to such lands shall continue to be subject to any easement for telephone, telegraph, pipe line, power transmission or other public service purpose, and such easement and the rights of the owner thereof, shall survive and be enforceable after the execution, delivering and recording of a tax deed conveying title to such land, or of a master's deed pursuant to foreclosure of a tax deed, tax certificate or tax lien, whether the grantee in such deed be the state, or a county, municipality, special taxing district, or other political subdivision of the state, or a private corporation or individual, to the same extent as though said land had been conveyed by voluntary deed, and the rights of the owner of such easement shall not be abrogated or affected thereby; provided, that such easement is evidenced by written instrument recorded, prior to the recording of such tax deed or master's deed, in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in the county where such land is located, or if not recorded that such easement is evidenced by wires, poles or other visible occupation; and provided, further, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to exempt or relieve from taxation, the poles, wires, pipes, equipment or other personal property of the owner of such easement, whether located on the land subject to the easement or elsewhere, or affect in any way the enforcement of taxes upon such personal property.

History.—§1, ch. 21805, 1943.
cf.—State v. Gray, 153 Fla. 462, 14 So. 2d 721.
§193.27 County commissioners may raise or lower value fixed by assessor.

192.59 Taxation; cancellation of delinquent taxes upon lands used for road purposes, etc.—

(1) The board of county commissioners of each county of the state be and it is hereby given full power and authority to cancel and discharge any and all liens for taxes, delinquent or current, held or owned by the county or the state, upon lands, heretofore or hereafter, conveyed to, or acquired by any agency, governmental subdivision or municipality of the state, or the United States, for road purposes, defense purposes, recreation, reforestation or other public use; and said lands shall be exempt from county taxation so long as the same are used for such public purpose.

(2) Such cancellation shall be by resolution of the board of county commissioners, duly adopted and entered upon its minutes, properly describing such lands, and setting forth the public use to which the same are, or will be, devoted. Upon receipt of a certified copy of such resolution, the proper officials of the county, and of the state, are hereby authorized, empowered and directed to make proper entries upon the records to accomplish such cancellation and to do all things necessary to carry out the provisions of this section, and to make the same effective, this section being their authority so to do.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 22845, 1945.

192.60 Cancellation of certain taxes on real property acquired by counties.—Whenever any county of this state has heretofore acquired, or shall hereafter acquire, title to any real property, the taxes of all political subdivisions, as defined in §1.01, upon such property for the year in which title to such property was acquired, or shall hereafter be acquired, shall be that portion of the taxes levied or accrued against such property for such year which the portion of such year which has expired at the date of such acquisition bears to the entire year, and the remainder of such taxes for such year shall stand cancelled.

History.—§1, ch. 26974, 1951.

192.61 Assessment of riparian rights.—Riparian rights shall not be assessed or extended upon the tax roll for purposes of taxation but the value of such rights to the abutting land may be included in determining the assessed value of the land.

History.—§3, ch. 28262, 1953; (1)-(4), tr. §271.09.
cf.—§194.63 Cancellation of certificates on riparian rights separate from land.

192.62 Taxation of exempt and immune property; exceptions.—

(1) Any real or personal property which for any reason is exempt or immune from taxation but is being used, occupied, owned, controlled or possessed, directly or indirectly by a person, firm, corporation, partnership or other organization in connection with a profit making venture, whether such use, occupation, ownership, control or possession is by lease, loan, contract of sale, option to purchase or in any wise made available to or used by such person, firm, corporation, partnership or organization, shall be assessed and taxed to the same extent and in the same manner as other real or personal property.

(2) This section shall not apply to property described in subsection (1) when:

(a) The property is used exclusively for religious, scientific, municipal, educational, literary or charitable purposes;

(b) The property is owned by the federal government and used by a defense contractor in the fulfillment of a federal government contract;

(c) The property is owned or used by the state, any county, municipality, or public entity or authority created by statute and is leased or otherwise made available to such person, firm, corporation, partnership or organization by such public body for a consideration in the performance by the public body of a public function or public purpose authorized by law, or which property prior to the effective date of this act was leased for valuable consideration for purposes not otherwise exempt hereunder;

(d) The property is used for maritime construction and repair of vessels engaged in interstate or foreign commerce;

(e) The property is developed for and devoted to the sole use of federal aviation agency installations;

(f) The property is used by a corporation performing services of a public nature for the operation of its public utilities facilities thereon;

(g) The property is owned by any housing authority heretofore or hereafter organized under chapter 421, and used for purposes authorized under said chapter;

(h) The property is owned by any quadricentennial commission created by or under the laws of Florida and used by such commission for authorized public purposes; or

(i) The property is located on Santa Rosa island and is owned by Escambia county, Santa Rosa county, or Okaloosa county, or is controlled by any agency thereof created by statute, and is used for public purposes authorized by law.

(3) The classification of such interest as property for the purposes of taxation under this section shall not be affected by any provision of the contract or agreement under which the same is used, occupied, owned, controlled or possessed.

(4) Such taxes shall not become a lien against the property used, occupied, owned, controlled or possessed for such purposes but shall constitute a debt due and shall be recoverable by legal action or by the issuance of tax executions which shall become liens upon any property of the taxpayer who owes said tax in any county where recorded in the lien record.

The term "parcel of real property" and "parcel of land," whenever used in this law, shall each be held to mean the quantity of land in the possession of, owned by or recorded as the property of the same claimants, persons or company.

History.—§5, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 432; §5, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 702; CGL 904.

193.02 County assessors and county tax collectors to submit budgets to comptroller; removal of officers.—On or before July first of each year the county assessor and county tax collector shall submit to the comptroller their budgets for the operation of their office for the ensuing year. The comptroller shall examine the budgets and if they are found adequate to carry on the work of the assessor and tax collector, the comptroller shall approve the budgets and certify them back to the assessor and tax collector. If the comptroller finds that the budgets are inadequate or are exorbitant, he shall return such budgets to the assessor or collector, as the case may be, together with his ruling thereon.

The assessor and tax collector shall revise the budgets as required by the ruling of the comptroller and re-submit them to the comptroller for approval or further action by him. After the final approval of the budgets by the comptroller they shall not be reduced by the assessor, tax collector, the board of county commissioners, the county budget commission or any other governing body or officer.

The comptroller shall investigate the conduct and performance of duties by tax assessors, tax collectors, clerks of the circuit court, sheriffs and members of the board of county commissioners when acting as a board of equalization and recommend to the governor the removal of any such official for his willful failure to properly perform the duties imposed upon him by the constitution, these tax laws and the rules and regulations prescribed pursuant to these tax laws, and furnish the evidence to the governor upon which such removal may be warranted.

History.—§56, ch. 20722, 1941.

193.021 Method of assessment of property.—The county assessor of taxes of the several counties shall assess all the real and personal property in said counties in such a manner as to secure a just valuation as required by §1, Art. IX of the state constitution. In arriving at a just valuation, the county assessor of taxes of the several counties shall take into consideration the following factors:

- (1) The present cash value of the property;
- (2) The highest and best use to which the property can be expected to be put in the immediate future; and the present use of the property;
- (3) The location of said property;
- (4) The quantity or size of said property;
- (5) The cost of said property and the present replacement value of any improvements thereon;
- (6) The condition of said property;
- (7) The income from said property.

History.—§1, ch. 63-250.

*Effective January 1, 1964.

193.03 Method of fixing millage.—

(1) After the assessment rolls have been prepared on the basis required by law, the board of county commissioners and the board of public instruction and all other governing boards or governing authorities of all other taxing districts, within the counties including municipalities, whose taxes are assessed on the tax roll prepared by the county assessor, shall for the fiscal years 1963-1964 through 1972-1973, inclusive, reduce the millage to be levied by each such governing authority from what it was in the preceding year proportionate to the increase of the general level of assessed value over the preceding year. Provided, however, if in preparing its proposed budget for 1963-1964 and 1964-1965, such budget-making authority determines that the millage required for operating funds should be increased no more than ten per cent more than the millage determined in subsection (6) of this section it shall proceed as follows:

- (a) The budget-making authority shall cause to be published, at least one time in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county or by posting at the courthouse door if there be no such newspaper, the fact that said increase of not exceeding ten per cent is being proposed. Said advertisement shall state that the budget-making authority will meet on a day fixed in the advertisement, not earlier than one week and not later than two weeks from the date of the advertisement for the purpose of hearing comments and complaints regarding the proposed increase and explaining the reasons for such proposal. Said meeting may coincide with the required public hearing on the tentative budget as required by law.

(b) Each budget-making authority shall submit its proposed budget and millage increase to the comptroller who shall verify said budget and millage to determine that the proposed increase does not exceed ten per cent as set forth above.

(2) Provided, further, that in all counties of the state having a population of seventy-five thousand or more, according to the latest official decennial census, and in which there is now established or may hereafter be established a budget commission, the budget-making authority of such counties shall submit their proposed budgets and millage increase to such budget commission in lieu of submitting the same to the comptroller and such budget commission shall verify said budget and millage increase to determine that the proposed increase does not exceed ten per cent as compared to the millage required to meet the budget in the preceding year.

(3) In the event any budget-making authority shall determine that due to impending emergencies said authority will require funds in excess of those anticipated, and that unless additional funds are made available the operation of said authority in meeting its legal duties and obligations will be seriously impaired and provided that such budget-making authority has requested and obtained a ten per cent increase as set forth in subsections (1) or (2) herein, the said budget-making authority may apply for an additional increase in the millage required to meet the budget for operating funds in the following manner:

(a) It shall adopt a resolution calling a public meeting for the purpose of explaining and discussing such proposed increase in the millage required to meet the budget and fix the time and place for such meeting, and it shall thereupon publish a notice of such meeting for two successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the meeting shall be held, which meeting shall be held not less than five nor more than ten days from the date of the last publication of the notice. At the meeting the proposed increase in the millage shall be explained and discussed by the budget-making authority and opportunity afforded the taxpayers present to discuss and object to the same. Such notice shall briefly state the amount of increase sought and reasons for such increase.

(b) Such budget-making authority shall then prepare and record in the minutes of its meeting, either general or special, a certificate of compliance with the above set forth proceeding; and

(c) Each budget-making authority shall submit its proposed budget and millage increase together with the reasons for requesting the additional increase and a certified copy of compliance as above required to one of the following commissions: the county budget commission in all counties in the state having a population of seventy-five thousand or more, according to the latest official decennial census, and in which there is now established or may hereafter be established a county budget commission; or, the county review commission which shall be created by separate resolution of the board of county commissioners and the board of public instruction and shall be composed of three members of the board of county commissioners, one of whom shall be the chairman of said board, and three members of the board of public instruction, one of whom shall be the chairman of said board, and the affirmative vote of a majority of the membership of said commission shall be required to approve any additional increase.

(d) The commissions as provided in paragraph (c) shall have and exercise final authority as to whether the proposed additional increase shall be allowed and in what amount. In exercising this authority the commissions may require additional information and data be furnished by the budget-making authority requesting such additional increase. Provided always that the budget-making authority shall have the burden of clearly showing the extreme need for such increase and the existence of the conditions precedent for such increase as set forth in this subsection.

(4) The board of county commissioners and board of public instruction and all other governing boards or governing authorities referred to herein, shall decrease or increase the millage to be levied for the years 1963-1964 through 1972-1973, inclusive, in compliance with this section; provided, however, nothing in this section shall be construed to authorize an increase in millage in excess of the maximum millage permitted by law nor to prevent the reduction of millage lower than required by this section.

(5) All references to millage and reduction of millage contained in this section shall apply to all millages levied on the basis of county tax assessors' rolls whether such millage is levied pursuant to local, special or general law.

(6) The provisions of this section shall apply when there has been an increase in the general level of assessed value. The ratio by which all millages assessed in the preceding year shall be divided in order to secure the reduction proportionate to the increase in the general level of assessed value shall be the ratio of the total of assessed valuation in the current year to the total of assessed valuation in the preceding year. Such totals of assessed valuation shall exclude the value of all property and improvements not assessed in both years. The tax assessor shall maintain a separate list of all properties and improvements which are added to the tax rolls each year and a separate list of properties and improvements which are withdrawn from the rolls. The assessor shall certify to each budget-making authority the ratio by which all millages must be reduced in order to comply with this section. If any budget-making authority is dissatisfied with the tax assessor's determination of such ratio such authority may request the comptroller to review the tax rolls and to determine the proportion by which the millages must be reduced to comply with this section. Such authority may then fix the millage based on the comptroller's determination.

*Effective January 1, 1964.

193.04 Futch act taxes cancelled.—All state and county tax certificates and liens for delinquent taxes held by the state on real estate, which said tax certificates and liens were outstanding at the time of the enactment of, and the enforcement and assignment of which have been deferred pursuant to, chapter 16,252, laws of 1933, as amended by chapter 17,400, laws of 1935, commonly known as the Futch act, are hereby cancelled and the lien thereof discharged, providing all taxes assessed against said real estate required to be heretofore paid by said act, as amended, have been duly paid.

History.—§1, ch. 20981, 1941.

193.05 Duty of clerks and comptroller.—The comptroller of the state and the clerks of the circuit courts are hereby authorized and directed to cancel and satisfy of record all such outstanding tax certificates and liens cancelled and discharged by §193.04.

History.—§2, ch. 20981, 1941.

193.06 Land; where and how assessed.—All the lands shall be assessed in the county, city or town in which the same shall be, and the real estate of incorporated companies liable to taxation shall be assessed in the county, city or town in which same shall be in the same manner as real estate of individuals and may be returned and sold in the same manner as property owned by individuals and shall be assessed on the basis provided in §193.021.

*Effective January 1, 1964.

193.07 Assessment of property of religious societies.—All property held by any religious society shall be assessed, and taxed, in the county where the property is situated, unless exempt by law.

History.—§7, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 434; §7, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 704; CGL 906.

193.08 Taxation of stock; shares in banks.—The owner or holder of stock in any incorporated company doing business under corporate name shall not be taxed for such stock; provided, that such stock is returned for taxation by such incorporated company and taxes are paid thereon by such company, or the property of said corporation is assessed for taxes where located and taxes are then paid on such property. All shares of banking associations organized within this state, pursuant to the provisions of congress to procure a national currency secured by a pledge of United States stocks, and to provide for the circulation and redemption thereof, held by any person or body corporate, shall be included in the valuation of the personal property of such person or body corporate, in the assessment of taxes in the town or city where such banking association is located and not elsewhere, whether the holder resides there or not; but not at a greater rate than is assessed on other moneyed capital in the hands of individuals; and for the purpose of securing the collection of taxes assessed upon said shares, each banking association shall pay the same as the agent of each of its shareholders, and the said association may retain so much of any dividend belonging to any shareholder as shall be necessary to pay any taxes levied upon its shares.

History.—§8, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 435; §8, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 705; CGL 907.

193.09 Banking, loan and trust companies; returns.—Any banking, loan or trust company or corporation or any person acting as the agent of another, and, having in his possession or under his control, or management, any money, notes, credits or personal property belonging to such other person, with a view to investing or loaning or in any other manner using the same for pecuniary profits, shall be required to return the same for assessment at the real value, and such company, corporation or person shall be liable for the tax on the same; and if such company, corporation or person refuse to list such property on a return for assessment or to swear to the same, the amount of such money, notes, mortgages or credits shall be listed and valued according to the best knowledge of the assessor.

193.11 Assessment of real and personal property; assessors to visit precincts.—

*(1) Between January 1 and July 1 in each year, the county assessor of taxes in each county, with the aid of such assistant assessors of taxes as may be appointed by the county assessor of taxes, shall ascertain by diligent inquiry the names of all taxable persons in his county, and also all of their taxable personal property, and all taxable real estate therein, as of January 1 of such year, and shall make out an assessment roll of all such taxable property. And the county assessor of taxes or his assistants may make at least one visit to each precinct for the purpose of receiving tax returns after having given ten days notice by publication in a newspaper of such visit, if there be a newspaper published in the county, between January 1 and March 1. Tax returns by owners or agents must be made between January 1 and April 1. The county assessor of taxes shall assess all property on the basis provided in §193.021. The assessment of tangible personal property shall be made separate from the assessment of real estate.

 (2) All railroads, telegraph, express, sleeping cars, freight line and equipment companies shall be assessed in accordance with chapter 195, in the manner and by the officers now provided by law.

(3) All lands being used for agricultural purposes shall be assessed as agricultural lands upon an acreage basis, regardless of the fact that any or all of said lands are embraced in a plat of a subdivision or other real estate development. Provided, agricultural purposes shall include only lands being used in bona fide farming, pasture, grove or forestry operations by the lessee or owner, or some person in their employ. Lands which have not been used for agricultural purposes prior to the effective date of this law shall be prima facie subject to assessment on the same basis as assessed for the previous year, and any demand for a reassessment of such lands for agricultural purposes shall be subject to the severest scrutiny of the county tax assessor to the end that the lands shall be classified properly. Provided, this subsection shall not be construed, interpreted, or applied so as to permit lands being used for agricultural purposes to be assessed other than as agricultural lands and upon an acreage basis.

(4) All taxable lands upon which active construction of improvements is in progress and upon which such improvements are not substantially completed on January 1 of any year shall be assessed for such year, as unimproved lands. Provided, however, the provisions hereof shall not apply in cases of alteration or improvement of existing structures.

193.111 Appraisal of all property in counties.—

(1) The boards of county commissioners of each of the several counties of the state, be, and they are hereby authorized and empowered to cause to be made by a company or board of appraisers to be selected by the board of county commissioners, an appraisal of all property in such county.

(2) Expenditure of county funds for the purpose of causing such appraisal to be made is hereby declared to be a county purpose and the board of county commissioners may expend funds for such appraisal from any funds of said county and may levy taxes for the purpose of securing funds to secure such appraisal.

(3) The original of said appraisal shall be deposited with the tax assessor of such county and a duplicate thereof shall be deposited in the office of the board of county commissioners.

(4) Any board of county commissioners in this state is authorized to budget and pay from the county general fund the necessary expenses incurred by the tax assessor for the purpose of reappraisal and revising maps of real estate in such county.

History.—§§1-3, ch. 26771, 1951; (4) n. §1, ch. 59-162.

193.12 Returning property for taxation; failure to make return.—Every person owning or having the control, management, custody, direction, supervision or agency of property of whatsoever character that is subject to taxation under the laws of this state, shall return under oath the same for taxation to the county assessor of taxes in the proper county, or to other proper officer, on or before April 1 of each and every year, giving the character and the value of the same, as required by law; upon failure to do so the assessment and valuation made by the assessing officer or officers shall be deemed and held to be binding upon such owner or other person or corporation interested in such property, unless complaint is made of such assessment and valuation on the day set for hearing complaints and receiving testimony as to the value of any property, real or personal, as fixed by the county assessor of taxes.

History.—§16, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 715; CGL 917; §4, ch. 63-250. Effective January 1, 1964.

193.13 Oath as to personal property; increase of valuation; complaint.—Every county assessor of taxes shall require any person giving in the amount or list of his personal property to make oath before him that the same is full and correct, and any person refusing to take such oath shall not be permitted afterwards to reduce the valuation made by such county assessor of his personal property for that year. The valuation of any item of property, real or personal, by the taxpayer, shall in no case prevent the county assessor of taxes from determining the value on the basis provided in §193.021, and if he shall ascertain or have reason to believe that the valuation of any item of property is too small, he shall increase the same to its just value. When the tax assessor shall raise the value on any property or item of property given in by any owner or taxpayer under oath, the tax assessor shall at once give notice in writing by registered mail to such owner or taxpayer, such notice to give the amount of the raise or increase; provided, however, that a failure of the tax assessor to mail any such notice shall not in any manner affect the legality of any assessment or valuation of any property by the tax assessor, and the legality of any such assessment or valuation shall not be questioned in any of the courts of this state.

*Effective January 1, 1964.

cf.—§192.57, Oath; when not required.

§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested

193.14 When assessor to value personal property.—All personal estate liable to taxation, the value of which shall not have been specified under oath as aforesaid, shall be estimated by the county assessor of taxes at its true cash value, according to his best judgment and information, and his failure by neglect or refusal to make such estimate shall be a cause for suspension by the governor.

cf.—§192.57, Oath; when not required.

193.15 Comptroller to furnish blank assessment rolls; certifying to assessors, state land sold and land patented during previous year.—The comptroller shall prepare blank assessment rolls, which shall be forwarded to the several county assessors of taxes previous to the first day of January, for each and every year. He shall on or before the first day of May of each year obtain from the United States land office in this state, and from the several railroad land grant companies in the state, or from other land grant companies or corporations, lists of land for which patents were issued, or which was sold or contracted to be sold during the previous year, and certify them for taxation, together with the various classes of state lands sold during the same year, to the county assessor of taxes in which such lands may be situated.

History.—§18, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 514; §15, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 714; CGL 916.

193.16 Assessment of lands against which there are tax sale certificates; redemption; distribution of proceeds.—All lands against which the state holds any tax sale certificate or other lien for delinquent taxes assessed for the year 1940 or prior years, shall be assessed for the year 1941 and subsequent years in like manner and to the same effect as if no taxes against such lands were delinquent. Should the taxes on such lands not be paid as required by law, such lands shall be sold or the title thereto shall become vested in the county, in like manner and to the same effect as other lands, upon which taxes are delinquent, are sold or the title to which becomes vested in the county under this law. Such lands upon which tax certificates have been issued to the state, when sold by the county for delinquent taxes, may be redeemed in the manner prescribed by this law; provided, that all tax certificates held by the state on such lands shall also be redeemed at the same time, and the clerk of the circuit court shall disburse the money as provided by law. After the title to any of such lands against which the state holds tax certificates becomes vested in the county as provided by this law, the county may sell such lands in the same manner as provided in §194.55, and the clerk of the circuit court shall distribute the proceeds from the sale of such lands by the board of county commissioners in proportion to the interest of the state, the several taxing units, and funds of such units, as may be calculated by the clerk.

193.17 Maps to be furnished the assessor; mode of assessing lands in cities and towns, etc.—The county commissioners of each county in this state shall purchase and have mounted on cloth and then bound in volume or volumes, two complete sets of photolithographed township maps in their respective counties of each township therein, one to be kept in the office of the clerk of the circuit court and the other in the county assessor of taxes' office in their several counties, and failure to do so shall be cause for suspension of such county commissioners by the governor upon complaint of the county assessor of taxes, or other citizen of the county, and all these maps and information which may come into the hands of the several county assessors of taxes which may be used in preparing the assessment roll shall remain in the county assessor of taxes' office at the courthouse and be delivered to his successor in office; provided, that any maps now owned by the county assessor of taxes may be purchased at their discretion by the county commissioners at a reasonable price, and should any county assessor of taxes so fail to deliver said maps above provided, his bond shall be responsible to the value of said property, as required for the faithful discharge of his duty, and he shall not again be eligible to any office of trust or profit in the county.

He shall make the assessments of real estate in cities and town plats and blocks in regular order throughout the original plan of the city or town, and all additions thereto, all the lots of a block to be listed in their regular order under the letter, number or other designation of the block as filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, blocks also to follow in their regular order (and all lots or subdivisions of a block, when belonging to one owner and being numbered consecutively and lying contiguously, may be assessed together and the taxes extended on one line), each of the smallest subdivisions of such book to be entered and the taxes thereon to be extended separately; provided, that county assessors of taxes, in making up the assessment rolls, are directed to give sufficient space for the tax collector to make necessary entries; and the clerks of the circuit court in recording the report of the tax sales are directed to give necessary space for the entries of redemption; provided, that no person shall be required to pay taxes on entire land assessed in order to get receipts for taxes on land upon which such person desires to pay taxes.

193.18 Counties may be divided into taxation districts; appointment, oath, bond and duty of assistant assessors, etc.—The county commissioners of the several counties, when it is deemed necessary for assessment purposes, may, before the first day of January of each year, divide their respective counties into taxation districts, and the county assessor of taxes may employ for each district an assistant assessor of taxes, resident of the district, who shall take the oath of office required by law for the faithful discharge of the duties of the office of county assessor of taxes and shall give good and sufficient bond for the faithful performance of his duty, as assistant assessor of taxes, which bond shall be approved by the county commissioners of said county, who shall assess the property, real and personal, in his district, as provided by law, making out a complete list of all the lands subject to taxation and giving the value thereof, and giving the names of the owners or persons making the tax returns. The assistant assessor of taxes shall begin the assessment on the first day of January and shall complete the same as early as possible, and he shall return his list of assessments, as made out to the county assessor of taxes, immediately upon the completion thereof, and not later than the first day of May, and the two shall then revise such list at stated times, before the first day of June, as the county assessor of taxes may designate, and make such changes as may be agreed upon between them as to description and value of property, and in case of disagreement the matter shall be referred to and decided by the board of county commissioners when they meet to revise and equalize the assessment of the county. The county assessor of taxes may remove any assistant assessor of taxes who fails to discharge his duty properly or to complete his work within the prescribed time, and he may fill vacancies in that office at any time when he may deem it necessary. The assistant assessor of taxes shall receive as compensation for his services such fees as may be agreed upon by the county assessor of taxes, which compensation shall be paid out of the fees or compensation allowed the county assessor of taxes for such services.

193.19 Assessment as trustee, guardian, executor, etc.—When a person is assessed as a trustee, guardian, executor, or administrator, a designation of his representative character shall be added to his name, and such assessment shall be entered upon a separate line from the individual assessment.

193.20 Mode of assessing lands not within limits of cities or towns.—The lands in each county in this state, subject to taxation and not included in the limits of incorporated towns and cities and laid off in lots and blocks, shall be assessed by townships, and for purposes of taxation all non-bearing fruit trees shall not be considered as adding any value to said land; and in making the assessment the county assessor of taxes shall begin with the lowest numbered section in each township and shall assess each lot, tract or parcel of land therein, in accordance with the description as returned for taxation by the owner or agent; provided, the county assessor of taxes may correct any errors in the description so returned, and if the owner or agent fails to make such returns, the county assessor of taxes shall assess all lands not returned, according to the government survey, and shall assess in one assessment all the lands in a section belonging to the same owner, or assessed as "unknown," and when a return of any piece or parcel of property is returned by more than one person the county assessor of taxes shall write the names of all claimants opposite said description of land, and the county assessor of taxes shall continue in his assessment roll the description and assessment of the remaining sections in townships in the order of their numbers, and in the same manner he shall then assess all the other townships in his county in like manner. He shall also list all land not subject to taxation belonging to the state, the common school fund, the seminary fund, the internal improvement fund, and the United States, but he shall place no value on any such land or make any extension of taxes, and shall receive no compensation for listing such lands; provided, that when private surveys of land or descriptions by metes and bounds have taken the place of government surveys, and the land is known, designated and described only by such private surveys or metes and bounds, the description in the assessment shall be made in accordance with such surveys or descriptions as recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, or by reference to deed of record, giving the book and page as appears in the office of the clerk of the circuit court; and when Spanish grants or donations exist in any county in this state, which have not been surveyed and platted, or which plats are not recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, the county assessor of taxes for such county shall assess the several tracts of land owned in such grants not platted as above, describing the same by reference to deed of record, giving the book and page of record as appears in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, and if the deed conveying such tracts is not recorded upon its production to the county assessor of taxes, he may describe the lands as being that tract, lot, piece or parcel described in a deed executed by the grantor (naming him) to the grantee (naming him), bearing date (giving date shown by deed), and such description shall be valid and sufficient for all purposes of the assessment.

193.201 Lands zoned for agricultural purposes; assessment.—

(1) The board of county commissioners of any county in the state is hereby authorized and empowered in its discretion to zone areas in the county exclusively used for agricultural purposes as agricultural lands; provided said lands have been used exclusively for agricultural purposes for five years prior to such zoning.

(2) In the event that the board of county commissioners zone said lands as provided in subsection (1) then the board shall notify the tax assessor on or before November 1 and the tax assessor shall immediately after January 1 of the succeeding year and on January 1 of each succeeding year prepare and certify to the board of county commissioners a list of lands in the county so zoned as agricultural lands.

(3) The board of county commissioners shall examine said list and classification of such lands submitted by the tax assessor and shall make such reclassification as shall be appropriate or justified, and as reclassified shall zone such lands in the county for tax purposes only as agricultural.

(4) For the purpose of this section, "agricultural lands" shall include horticulture, floriculture, viticulture, forestry, dairy, livestock, poultry, bee and all forms of farm products and farm production.

(5) The county tax assessor in assessing such lands so zoned and exclusively used for agricultural purposes as described and listed shall consider no factors other than those relative to such use. The tax assessor in assessing land within this class shall take into consideration the following use factors only: The cost of the property as agricultural land, the present replacement value of improvements thereon, quantity and size of the property, the condition of said property, the present cash value of said property as agricultural land, the location of said property, the character of the area or place in which said property is located and such other agricultural factors as may from time to time become applicable.

(6) The board shall keep a record of such lands so zoned for tax purposes only and restricted for agricultural lands and shall remove such zoning restrictions whenever lands so zoned are used for any other purpose.

History.—§1, ch. 59-226.
cf.—§193.11(3) and AGO 057-305, 147 So. 2d 375.

193.21 Name in which real estate assessed where no return made.—The county tax assessor shall in all cases where land has not been returned for assessment on or before the first day of April of each year, as required by law, assess such land not returned for taxation in the name of the last known owner; provided, that an erroneous statement of the name of the owner of such land or entry on the assessment roll shall not invalidate the assessment; and provided, further, however, that from and after the effective date of this law, the county tax assessor shall neither charge nor receive any fee or compensation for the assessment of any parcel of land, or lands, the owner of which is designated upon the tax roll as "unknown."

193.22 Assessment of land, timber and turpentine rights.—The tax assessor shall ascertain by personal inspection, where not already sufficiently acquainted therewith, the value of the lands including the timber thereon when the improvements or timber belong to the owner of the land, and assess the same as lands at their value based on the provisions of §193-021, in the name of the owner, occupant or as unknown and set down in the assessment roll following and opposite the description of the lands the name of the owner, occupant or unknown, and when the land has not been returned for assessment on or before April 1 of each year, by the owner or legal representative of the owner, if the owner or agent be unknown, the assessor shall enter the word unknown in the column of the assessment roll provided for the name of the owners, or his or her legal representative. An index of all taxpayers shall be prepared by the tax assessor to accompany the tax roll; said index may be in the form of a cardex index file, an independent index, or an index attached to the tax roll; such index shall be required to index, if it can be ascertained, each person's name as it appears on the assessment roll, and shall show thereon such name as indexed, the page or control number upon which any tax or taxes may be found to be assessed.

In case any lands shall be timbered, and the timber or the right to turpentine the timber shall belong to a person other than the owner of the land, and the owner of the land shall disclose to the assessor the owner or owners of such timber or turpentine rights, the assessor shall assess the value of the land independent and distinct from the value of the timber and the turpentine rights or privileges, and shall assess the value of such timber and such turpentine rights or privileges separate and distinct from the said land and from each other, assessing the value of the land and of the timber and of the turpentine rights or privileges to the owners respectively thereof. If the assessor cannot ascertain the name of the owner of such rights he may assess them as unknown. And in order that this provision shall be effective it is further provided that the owner or owners of the land, and also the lessees, owner or owners of the turpentine or timber rights, shall annually furnish the assessor with a description of the lands on which such turpentine or timber rights exist, and the value of the same, and of the timber or turpentine rights, and the lease of said turpentine or timber rights shall be assessed as personal property.

When the timber or turpentine rights are sold for nonpayment of taxes due thereon, the title of the owner of the timber or turpentine rights shall pass to the purchaser at the tax sale, subject to redemption by the owner within six months by paying the amount of the taxes and costs, with interest, at the rate of twenty-five cents per annum.

193.221 Assessment of oil, mineral and other subsurface rights.—

(1) Whenever the mineral, oil, gas, and other subsurface rights in or to real property in this state shall have been sold or otherwise transferred by the owner of such real property, or retained or acquired through reservation or otherwise, such subsurface rights shall be taken and treated as an interest in real property subject to taxation separate and apart from the fee or ownership of the fee or other interest in the fee. Such mineral, oil, gas and other subsurface rights, when separated from the fee, or other interest in the fee, shall be subject to separate taxation, when returned for taxation by the owner of the fee, or other interest in the fee, or the owner or claimant of such subsurface rights or interests, or any person, firm or corporation claiming by, through or under the subsurface owner or claimant. Such taxation shall be against such subsurface interest and not against the owner or owners thereof or against separate interests or rights in or to such subsurface rights.

(2) Such subsurface rights, when returned for taxation, as aforesaid, shall be assessed on the basis of a just valuation, as required by §1, Art. IX, of the state constitution, which valuation, when combined with the value of the remaining surface and undisposed of subsurface interests, shall not exceed the full just value of the fee title of the lands involved, including such subsurface rights.

(3) Statutes and regulations, not in conflict with the provisions herein, relating to the assessment and collection of ad valorem taxes on real property, shall apply to the separate assessment and taxation of such subsurface rights, in so far as they may be applied.

(4) The owner of the fee title, or any person, firm or corporation claiming by, through or under him, may purchase tax certificates assessed against subsurface rights, as aforesaid, or tax certificates and liens encumbering the same.

(5) Tax certificates and tax liens encumbering subsurface rights, as aforesaid, may be acquired, purchased, transferred, and enforced as are tax certificates and tax liens encumbering real property generally, including the foreclosure of the same.

History.—§§1-4, ch. 57-150; §1, ch. 63-355.

193.23 Assessment of property for back taxes.—When it shall appear that any ad valorem tax might have been lawfully assessed or collected upon any property in the state, but that such tax was not lawfully assessed or levied, and has not been collected for any year within a period of three years next preceding the year in which it is ascertained that such tax has not been assessed, or levied, or collected, then the officers authorized shall make the assessment of taxes upon such property in addition to the assessment of such property for the current year, and shall assess the same separately for such property as may have escaped taxation at and upon the basis of valuation applied to such property for the year or years in which it escaped taxation, noting distinctly the year when such property escaped taxation and such assessment shall have the same force and effect as it would have had if it had been made in the year in which the property shall have escaped taxation, and taxes shall be levied and collected thereon in like manner and together with taxes for the current year in which the assessment is made. But no property shall be assessed for more than three years' arrears of taxation, and all property so escaping taxation shall be subject to such taxation to be assessed in whomsoever's hands or possession the same may be found; provided, that the county assessor of taxes shall not assess any lot or parcel of land certified or sold to the state for any previous years unless such lot or parcel of lands so certified or sold shall be included in the list furnished by the comptroller to the county assessor of taxes as provided by law; provided, if real or personal property be assessed for taxes, and because of litigation delay ensues and the assessment be held invalid the taxing authorities, may re-assess such property within the time herein provided after the termination of such litigation; provided further, that personal property acquired in good faith by purchase shall not be subject to assessment for taxes for any time prior to the time of such purchase, but the individual or corporation liable for any such assessment shall continue personally liable for same.

The provisions of this section shall apply to property of every class and kind upon which ad valorem tax is assessable by any state or county authority under the laws of the state.

193.24 Assessment of toll bridges.—All privately owned toll bridges whose tolls or maximum rates are now, or may hereafter be fixed or subject to regulation by the Florida railroad commission or other state or federal agency, and used for the purpose of furnishing public transportation, shall be valued for tax assessment purposes upon a mileage basis, and the valuation of any such bridge each year for state, county and municipal tax assessment purposes shall not exceed per mile of bridge the average assessed value per mile of double track main line of common carrier railroads in the state as fixed for tax assessment purposes for such year, provided these provisions shall not apply to any toll bridges built or to be built by counties or municipalities in this state.

193.25 When assessment roll to be completed; equalizing the assessment; meeting to hear complaint, etc.—The county assessor of taxes shall complete the assessment rolls of their respective counties on or before the first Monday in July in every year, on which day such assessors shall meet with the board of county commissioners at the clerk's office of their respective counties for the purpose of hearing complaints and receiving testimony as to the value of any property, real or personal, as fixed by the county assessor of taxes, of perfecting, reviewing and equalizing the assessment, and may continue in session for that purpose from day to day for one week, or as long as shall be necessary. Due notice of such meeting shall be given by publication in a newspaper published in such county, or by posting a notice at the courthouse door, if there be no newspaper published in the county, at least fifteen days before the board will be in session for the purpose of hearing complaints and receiving testimony as to the value of any property as fixed and assessed by the county assessor of taxes; provided, that the county commissioners of any county may, if they deem it necessary, extend the time for the completion of such assessment roll and for the purpose of revising and equalizing the assessment, a similar extension, not exceeding thirty days, giving due notice and an opportunity to be heard as to assessment and values as hereinbefore provided. Should the board increase the value fixed by the county assessor of taxes of any real estate or personal property, due notice thereof shall be given to the owner or agent of such property by publication in a newspaper published in such county, or by posting a notice at the courthouse door, if there be no newspaper published in the county, at least fifteen days before the board will be in session, to hear any reason that such persons may desire to give why the valuation fixed by the board shall be changed. The board of county commissioners shall meet on the first Monday in August or September of each year for the purpose of hearing complaints from owners or agents of any real estate or personal property the value of which shall have been fixed by the assessor, or changed by them, and for that purpose the board shall sit as long as it may be necessary. The county assessor of taxes and the board of county commissioners of each and every county in this state shall comply with the requirements of this section.

cf.—§28, ch. 4010, 1891, Assessment.

193.26 No compensation for illegal assessments.—The county assessors of taxes in this state shall receive no compensation for assessing lands which are not subject to taxation.

History.—§27, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 527; §25, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 726; CGL 932.

193.27 County commissioners may raise or lower value fixed by assessor; penalty.—The board of county commissioners may equalize the assessment of the real estate or personal property in their respective counties, and for that purpose may raise or lower the value fixed by the county assessor of taxes on any particular piece of real estate, or item or items of personal property. It is unlawful for the county commissioners to lower the assessment of any personal property given in by the owner or assessed by the assessor, which shall not have been specified under oath. The county commissioners failing to obey this provision shall be subject to a fine of fifty dollars each, and suspension.

§192.57, Oath, when not required.

193.28 When clerk of circuit court to act for assessor; procedure.—If from sickness any county assessor of taxes cannot attend at the time and place prescribed above, he shall transmit his assessment roll to the clerk, and the county commissioners may review and equalize the assessment. In case the county assessor of taxes in any county shall neglect to assess the property of the county previous to the first Monday in August of any year, the county commissioners may direct the clerk of the circuit court to make or complete the assessment. In case the clerk of the circuit court shall make or complete the assessment he shall perform all the duties which the county assessor of taxes would otherwise have performed. All assessments shall be legal which shall be assessed to the same owner as for the previous year; provided, that the owner does not return it for taxation. And the county commissioners may appoint a day for the purpose of equalizing the assessments so made, and shall proceed in the same manner as provided in §193.25, allowing at least fifteen days between the time of meeting at which the assessed value of any real estate or personal property may be changed by them and the time for hearing complaints from the person aggrieved.

193.29 Completion of assessment roll; comptroller to approve recapitulatory tables; examination by county commissioners, etc.—The county assessors of taxes shall complete the assessment rolls of their respective counties on or before the first day of July in every year. In counties having county budget commissions, the assessment roll shall thereupon be submitted to such budget commission for approval before the same is submitted to the comptroller, or equalized. The county tax assessors shall not be required to transmit the assessment roll to the state capitol for submission to the comptroller, but they shall prepare additional copies of the recapitulatory tables in the form adopted and used for the 1942 tax roll, and submit one true copy thereof, in person or by United States mail, to the comptroller. Upon approving such recapitulatory tables, the comptroller shall execute the certificate of approval in the form adopted and used for the 1942 tax roll, and deliver the same in person, or by United States mail to the respective assessors. At the time such recapitulatory tables are so submitted, the comptroller shall have the privilege of inspecting any such assessment roll in full at the office of the tax assessor of the particular county, and upon request of the comptroller for such inspection, the county tax assessor shall make the assessment roll available in the office of such assessor for inspection there by the comptroller. The county assessor of taxes in each county shall, immediately after the assessment of the county has been reviewed and equalized by the county commissioners, and the amount to be raised for the county and special tax school districts, or other special tax purposes determined, calculate and carry out the total amount of county taxes, and the total amount of school district or other special taxes, setting opposite to the aggregate sum set down as the valuation of real and personal estate, the respective sums assessed as taxes thereon in dollars and cents, rejecting the fraction of a cent, if less than one-half, and count as one cent fractions of one-half and over; he shall also add up the column of assessment and taxes contained in the assessment rolls and make therein such recapitulatory tables in the form prescribed by the comptroller. And the said county assessor of taxes shall make out two fair copies of the assessment roll when thus completed, and shall annex to the original and each copy the affidavit in §193.34, which copies with the original, he shall turn over to the board of county commissioners at a meeting to be held on the first Monday in October of each and every year for that purpose, at which meeting the county commissioners shall examine and compare such original and two copies and cause the county assessor of taxes, who shall attend such meeting from day to day, to correct all mistakes and inaccuracies in description and other character, and after such books shall have been examined and corrected, the board of county commissioners shall endorse on them a certificate that they have so examined them and that they are correct, which certificate shall be executed by at least three members of the board, and the county assessor of taxes shall then issue and annex to one of said books, the warrant as provided by law and a copy of said warrant shall be recorded in the minutes of the board of county commissioners, and the county commissioners shall not have power to change any assessment after endorsement of the said assessment roll as aforesaid.

193.30 Disposition of assessment roll.—The county assessor of taxes shall immediately after endorsement of the assessment roll by the county commissioners, transmit the original of said assessment roll to the tax collector and a copy thereof to the comptroller, and shall retain one copy for his own use. After the tax collector has completed collection of taxes and the sale of lands for nonpayment of taxes and balanced out said assessment roll, he shall file the same with the clerk of the circuit court. The tax assessor is authorized, at any time after the original of said assessment roll has been filed with the clerk of the circuit court by the tax collector, to destroy the copy of the assessment roll retained by him. Clerks of circuit courts are hereby authorized to destroy duplicate copies of assessment rolls for prior years now on file in their offices, retaining however assessment rolls used in prior years by tax collectors in collection of taxes.

193.31 Duty of county commissioners as to rate of taxation; apportionment; certificate of clerk, etc.—The county commissioners shall determine the amount to be raised for all county purposes and shall enter upon their minutes the rates to be levied for each fund respectively and shall ascertain the aggregate rate necessary to cover all such taxes and certify the same to the county assessor of taxes, who shall carry out the full amount of taxes for all county purposes under one heading in the assessment roll to be provided for that purpose, and the county commissioners shall notify the clerk and auditor of the county, also the county tax collector, of the amount to be apportioned to the different accounts out of the total taxes levied for all purposes, and the county depository in issuing receipts to the tax collector, shall state in each of his receipts, which shall be in duplicate, the amount deposited to each fund, out of the deposits made with it by the tax collector, and where any such receipts shall be given to the tax collector by the county depository, he shall immediately file one of the same with the clerk and auditor of the county, who shall credit the same to the tax collector with the amount thereof, and shall make out and deliver to the tax collector a certificate setting forth the payment in detail, as shown by the county depository's receipt; provided, that the county commissioners shall file a written statement with the county assessor of taxes setting forth the boundary of each special school district, and the boundary of the district or territory in which other special taxes are to be assessed, and the county assessor of taxes shall, upon receipt of such statement, and an order from the board of county commissioners, setting forth the rate of taxation to be levied on the real and personal property therein, proceed to assess such property and enter the taxes thereon, in the assessment rolls to be provided for that purpose.

193.32 Annual tax levies; limitations.—The board of county commissioners of the several counties of the state are authorized to levy taxes upon all of the real and personal property assessed for taxes, annually, in the amount and for the purposes set forth, as follows:

- (1) For the general fund, not more than eight mills on the dollar;
- (2) For the fine and forfeiture fund, not more than three mills on the dollar;
- (3) For the general road and bridge fund, not more than ten mills on the dollar;

(4) For the general county school fund, not more than ten mills on the dollar;

(5) For agriculture and live stock fund, not more than one-half mill on the dollar;

(6) For outstanding indebtedness fund, or funds, not more than is necessary to provide for the payment of the indebtedness and interest thereon; but no levy shall be made under this provision for the current expenses or for building, equipment or other purposes unless the same shall be funded pursuant to the constitution and laws of the state.

Provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the levy of reasonable taxes for such other county purposes as are specifically authorized by law.

History.—§1, ch. 20874, 1941.
cf.—§150.08 County tax for libraries.

193.34 Affidavit to roll.—When the county assessor of taxes shall have completed his assessment and made copies thereof, he shall attach to each an affidavit to be taken before some person authorized by law to administer oaths, which shall be in the following form:

State of Florida _____ county of _____ Personally appeared before me _____ county assessor of taxes for _____ county, who, being duly sworn, says the above assessment roll contains a true statement and description of all persons and property in the above county of _____ subject to taxation or liable to be assessed therein, and the valuation thereof, so far as they were made by him, are just and correct, so far as he has been able to ascertain.

Sworn to and subscribed to before me this _____ day of _____ A. D. 19____.

History.—§33, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 533; §31, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 732; CGL 940.

193.35 Assessor's warrant to assessment roll.—To each of the assessment rolls a warrant under the hand of the assessor of taxes shall be annexed in the following form, to-wit:

"State of Florida to _____ tax collector of the county of _____.

You are hereby commanded to collect out of the real estate and personal property, and from each of the persons and corporations named in the annexed roll, the taxes set down in each roll opposite each name, corporation or parcel of land therein described, and in case taxes so imposed are not paid at the time prescribed by law, you are to collect the same by levy and sale of the goods and chattels, lands and tenements so assessed, or of the person or corporation so taxed; and all sums collected for the state taxes you are to pay to the state treasurer at such time as may be required by law, and at the same time you are to pay to the county depository all sums collected for county taxes, district school taxes and other special taxes; and you are further required to make all collections on or before the first Monday in April; and on or before the first Monday in July you will make a final report to and settlement with the comptroller and county commissioners.

Given under my hand and seal this, the _____ day of _____ in the year A. D. 19____.

Assessor of Taxes, _____ County."

Such warrant shall remain in full force until all the taxes as assessed in said roll shall be collected.

All warrants heretofore issued or to be issued shall be of full force and effect in the hands of any successor, immediate or remote, of the tax collector to whom it may have been or may be so issued.

History.—§36, ch. 4322, 1895; §3, ch. 4885, 1901; GS 535; §§33, 34, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 734, 735; CGL 942, 943.

193.36 Clerk to make and publish statement of taxes charged to collector; other statements.—As soon as the assessment roll shall be delivered to the tax collector, the clerk of the circuit court shall make out and publish a statement showing the amount of taxes charged to the tax collector to be collected for the current year and the apportionment of the same in separate columns to the several funds for which such taxes have been levied; and at each monthly meeting of the county commissioners thereafter, and until the tax books are closed, he shall publish a statement giving each fund credit with the amount collected thereon as shown by the reports of the tax collector in his office, and when the tax books are closed he shall publish a like statement showing the amounts specifically allowed the tax collector on account of errors and insolvencies and the amount of each fund uncollected. The aforesaid statement shall be posted by the clerk of the circuit court at the courthouse door, and published in a newspaper, when one is published in the county, and the costs of publishing the same shall be paid by the county commissioners.

193.37 Collector may correct error of assessor.—If any tax collector has reason to believe or is informed that any person, firm or corporation has given to the county assessor of taxes or to the assistant assessor of taxes, an erroneous statement of his or its personal property, or that he or it has not returned the full amount of all property, either real or personal, to be listed in his county or any assessment district thereof, or has omitted or made an erroneous return of any property which is by law subject to taxation, the tax collector shall at once notify the county assessor of taxes of the facts in the case, and if such information as to personal property is given the county assessor of taxes before the first day of April of any year, he shall proceed at once to make an additional assessment in triplicate, and after attaching the affidavit and warrant required by law to be annexed to the assessment roll, he shall dispose of such additional assessment roll in the same manner as is provided for in the disposition of the regular assessment roll and all personal property about which the county assessor of taxes shall be notified after the first day of April, and all real estate about which he shall be notified either before or after the first day of April, or which shall be omitted from the assessment roll, shall be assessed on the regular assessment roll then in course of preparation.

History.—§38, ch. 4322, 1895; §5, ch. 4515, 1897; GS 538; §37, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 737; CGL 945; §8, ch. 20722, 1941.

193.38 Double assessment.—When any tax collector discovers that any land has been assessed more than once for the same year's taxes, he shall collect only the tax justly due thereon, and shall make return of the balance as a double assessment and shall be credited therefor by the county commissioners and comptroller, and he shall notify the different parties to whom the property is assessed. He shall also report to the county commissioners the errors, double assessments and insolvencies for which he is to be credited under different heads, giving in every case the names of the parties on whose account the credit is to be allowed.

193.39 Comptroller to furnish collector with receipt book; duties of collector; monthly statements by collectors, etc.—The comptroller shall prescribe the form of and furnish the tax collectors with a receipt book. The tax collector shall, on the payment to him of any taxes, fill out the receipt as prescribed by the comptroller, and shall note on his tax roll the payment thereof; and if any tax collector shall return to the comptroller and county commissioners as unpaid any tax which has been paid to him, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding twelve months, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars; provided, that the tax collector shall be and is hereby prohibited from accepting taxes on any property not assessed on the regular assessment roll or additional assessment roll made under §193.37, and the tax collector is also prohibited from accepting the payment of taxes on property that has already been paid on, whether such payment was made by the owner or not, but any person may in such cases demand and receive a certificate from the tax collector that the taxes have been regularly paid and such certificate shall set forth the date of payment, amount paid, number of receipt and description of property, which said certificate shall have the same force and effect as the tax receipt upon which it is based.

Every tax collector shall on the first day of each and every month make a return under oath to the comptroller, the board of county commissioners and county judge of all sums collected during the previous month on account of county taxes, and for license taxes and other purposes. In his return he shall state the name of the person or persons from whom a license tax was collected and the amount thereof.

193.391 Destruction of twenty year old tax receipts.—The tax collector in each county of the state is hereby authorized to destroy all duplicate tax receipts on file in his office now twenty years old and hereafter to destroy such duplicate tax receipts as they become twenty years old.

History.—§1, ch. 26891, 1951.

193.40 Comptroller to pass upon and order refunds.—The comptroller shall pass upon and order refunds where payment has been made voluntarily or involuntarily of taxes assessed on the county tax rolls by reason of either of the following circumstances: (1) Any over-payment; (2) Payment where no tax was due; and (3) Where a bona fide controversy exists between the tax collector and the taxpayer as to the liability of the taxpayer for the payment of the tax claimed to be due, the taxpayer may pay the amount claimed by the tax collector to be due, and if it is finally adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction that the taxpayer was not liable for the payment of the tax or any part thereof. The board of county commissioners shall comply with the order of the comptroller in such matters by providing in the county budget for the ensuing year for the payment of such refunds and the board shall have authority to authorize such tax levies as may be necessary to provide the fund with which to make the refund so ordered.

History.—§1, ch. 10282, 1925; CGL 948; §47, ch. 20722, 1941.

193.41 When taxes due; discounts if paid before certain time.—All taxes shall be due and payable on the first day of November of each and every year, or as soon thereafter as the assessment roll may come into the hands of the tax collector, of which he shall give notice by publication, and the tax collector is hereby vested with the power, and it shall be his duty, to collect all taxes as shown on the tax roll, which taxes shall become delinquent on April first following the year in which such taxes are assessed. On all taxes assessed on the county tax rolls and collected by the county tax collector, discounts for early payment thereof shall be at the rate of four per cent in the month of November, three per cent in the month of December, two per cent in the following month of January, and one per cent in the following month of February, the taxes being payable in March without discount. It shall also be his duty, and he is hereby vested with the power, to collect by sale of the tax liens on said lands all taxes assessed thereon and which taxes are not paid prior to April first of the year following the year in which the taxes are assessed.

cf.—§199.16 Discount allowed on intangible tax.

193.42 State and county warrants receivable for revenue.—Comptroller's warrants shall be receivable for state general revenue; provided that warrants issued prior to July 1st, 1871, must be first examined and approved by a commission consisting of the comptroller, treasurer and attorney general. Checks or warrants upon the county depository of any county shall be receivable by such county for county revenue, and orders issued by the county board of public instruction shall be receivable in the counties where such orders are issued for county school purposes.

History.—§38, ch. 5596, 1907; §31-9, ch. 6932, 1915; RGS 738; CGL 946.

193.44 Division of funds.—The comptroller and treasurer shall cause a proper division of the funds assessed in accordance with law under the head of state taxes, on the assessment roll, at the time such taxes are paid over to the state treasurer by the tax collector, and the treasurer shall credit the fund so received to general revenue, common school fund, one-mill tax and such other funds as may by law be required to be separately set apart.

History.—§30, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 530; §28, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 729; CGL 935.

193.45 Notice of taxes by mail, etc.—The tax collector, within fifteen days after delivery to him of the tax book with the assessor's warrant, shall mail to each taxpayer appearing on the assessment roll, whose post office address may be known to him, notice that the tax book is open for payment of taxes, stating the amount of taxes due by such taxpayer, and advising the per cent of discount allowed by law upon payments made by the date fixed by law, stating the date. The expense of printing such notices and the postage therefor shall be paid out of the general funds of the county upon statement thereof by the tax collector. Upon request of any holder of a mortgage or other lien upon any property against which any taxes may be assessed, accompanied by a fee of one dollar the tax collector shall mail to such mortgage or lien holder a statement of taxes against such property, or a copy of the newspaper, if available, containing the list of lands advertised for sale for nonpayment of taxes, as may be requested. Nothing in this section shall affect the legality of any tax sale proceedings, whether the duty hereby imposed upon the tax collector be complied with or not.

History.—§31-3, ch. 10039, 1925; CGL 951-953.

193.46 Collector may appoint deputies to levy on personalty; fees of such deputies.—Tax collectors may appoint a deputy or several deputies to levy upon and seize personal property for unpaid taxes, and a written appointment from the tax collector, with a statement from him of the person in whose name the property is assessed and the amount of taxes due shall be sufficient warrant and authority for such deputy to act, and it shall not be necessary for a deputy to take the tax roll or warrant annexed thereto with him; provided, that deputy collectors so appointed shall be liable to the same penalties prescribed by law as to tax collectors for neglect of duty, or otherwise; provided, the deputy tax collector shall be entitled to the following fees, which shall be collected from delinquent taxpayers at the time of the payment of their taxes: On amounts of less than five dollars taxes, his fee shall be fifty cents; on amounts of over five dollars and less than ten dollars taxes, his fee shall be seventy-five cents; and on amounts over ten dollars taxes, he shall receive a fee of one dollar.

193.47 Sale of personal property, etc.—When personal property shall be levied upon for any taxes, the tax collector or his deputy shall give public notice of the time and place of sale and of the property to be sold at least fifteen days previous to the sale by advertisement, to be posted up in at least three public places in the county, one of which shall be at the courthouse door, one in the election district in which the owner resides, and one at the voting place of the district where the property is located and where such sale shall be made at public auction, and the property sold shall be present if practicable; but at any time previous to the sale the owner or claimant of such property may release the same by the payment of the taxes and charges for which the same was liable to be sold. In case any levy shall be made as aforesaid, the tax collector shall be entitled to the same fees and charges as are allowed sheriffs upon execution.

193.48 When property sold for more than taxes, surplus returned.—If the property levied upon shall be sold for more than the amount of taxes, costs and collection fees, the surplus shall be returned to the person in whose possession the said property was when the levy was made, or to the owner of the property.

History.—§44, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 544; §43, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 744; CGL 957.

193.49 Attachment of personalty in case of removal; assessment a lien on property; taxes assessed a judgment.—In case any personal property upon which the taxes shall have been assessed is removed from the county in which said property was assessed, it is lawful for the tax collector of the county, by his warrant, to authorize the sheriff of the county within this state to which such person shall have removed or in which he shall reside, and such sheriff may proceed thereon as upon execution from the circuit court. Any assessment of taxes shall be a lien upon the property assessed from the 1st day of January for which year the property is liable to assessment. The tax collectors of the several counties may attach for taxes thereon any personal property which has been assessed at any time before payment, if he has reason to believe that such property is being or has been removed or disposed of so as to prevent or endanger the payment of taxes thereon in the same manner and under the same rules of law governing attachments or debts, dues or demands in other cases; and all taxes assessed upon either real or personal property, from the date of such assessment, shall have all the force and effect of a judgment and execution at law against the owner of such property.

193.50 When collections to be made; time of final settlement; proviso.—Tax collectors are required to make all collections before the first day of April, following the year in which such taxes were assessed; and on or before the first Monday in July, following the year in which such taxes were assessed, they are required to make a final report and settlement with the county commissioners; provided, however, that all warrants now outstanding shall be of full force and effect until all the taxes remaining unpaid shall have been collected and final report and settlement made by the tax collector with the county authorities, and all warrants heretofore issued or to be issued shall be of full force and effect in the hands of any successor, immediate or remote, of the tax collector to whom it may have been or may be so issued.

History.—§36, ch. 4322, 1895; §34, ch. 5595, 1907; RGS 735; CGL 943; §7, ch. 20722, 1941; §5, ch. 22079, 1943.

193.51 Date taxes delinquent; advertising and selling lands for unpaid taxes; redemption before sale.—All unpaid taxes upon real estate shall become delinquent on April 1 of the year following the year in which such taxes were assessed, and shall bear interest from such date at the rate of eighteen per cent per annum for the first year and eight per cent per annum for the time after the first year and the tax collector shall, on or before June 1 of each year, advertise and sell in the manner following: He shall make out a statement of all such real estate, specifying the amount due on each parcel, including interest from April 1 to date of sale at the rate of eighteen per cent per annum, together with the cost of advertising and expense of sale in the same order in which the lands were assessed and such list shall be published once each week for four consecutive weeks in some newspaper published in the county, said newspaper to be selected by the board of county commissioners at its first regular meeting in February of each year, and the newspaper so selected shall have been continuously published in the county for a period of not less than one year prior to its selection; provided that should there be no such newspaper, a newspaper published for a less period of time may be selected, and if there be no such newspaper published in the county, then by posting in three public places in the county, one of which shall be at the courthouse, and the newspaper charges for advertising shall be thirty cents per line for the four insertions, per single column, and if there be no newspaper published in the county the tax collector shall receive the same for posting at three public places, but in neither case shall there be any charge for the head notice.

Charges at the rates specified herein shall be computed and paid for on the basis of 6-point type on 6-point body, and shall be charged without discount, rebate, commission or refund.

The clerk of the circuit court for the county shall audit said publisher's charges or the tax collector's charges for posting, as the case may be, and the board of county commissioners shall pay the same out of county funds, if the taxes are county taxes but if the taxes are special district taxes then such costs shall be paid from such district's funds.

Lands upon which taxes have become delinquent may be redeemed at any time between April 1 and the date of sale of the tax sale certificate upon payment of all costs and delinquent taxes and interest on such amount at the rate of eighteen per cent per annum, but not less than three per cent of the delinquent taxes and costs.

History.—§50, ch. 4322, 1895; §10, ch. 4515, 1897; GS 558; §50, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 756; §1, ch. 8570, 1921; CGL 969; §3, ch. 14572, 1929; §11, ch. 20722, 1941; §1, ch. 28286, 1953; §1, ch. 63-167.

193.52 Copy of advertisement to be filed with clerk; collector's fees; time of sale; form of notice.—A copy of the newspaper containing the advertisement shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court within ten days after said sale. When tax certificates are advertised for sale under this law the tax collector shall be entitled to fifteen cents for certification of sale and shall be entitled to five per cent commission on the amount of each delinquent tax when actual sale is made, but said tax collector shall not be entitled to any commission for the sale of such property made to the county until said commission is paid upon the redemption or sale of the tax certificate or certificates issued thereon to the county, or where a tax deed is issued to the county then the tax collector shall not receive his five per cent commission for such certificate or certificates until after such property is sold and conveyed by the county.

All such sales shall commence on the regular sale day prescribed by law, and may be continued from day to day. Such advertisements shall be in the following form, to-wit:

193.53 Publisher to furnish copy of advertisement to collector, clerk and comptroller; proof of publication.—The publisher, proprietor or foreman of any newspaper publishing such notice shall forward a copy of each number of his paper containing such notice to the tax collector and the clerk of the circuit court and the comptroller by mail, and when the publication of the tax sale notice is completed, as provided by law, the publisher shall make affidavit thereto in the form prescribed by the comptroller and annexed to the tax collector's report of the tax sale or list of lands sold as provided by §193.58.

History.—§50, ch. 4322, 1895; §10, ch. 4515, 1897; GS 560; §52, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 758; CGL 971; §13, ch. 20722, 1941.

193.54 Sale of lands for unpaid taxes.—On the day designated in the notice of sale, at twelve o'clock, noon, the tax collector shall commence the sale of those lands on which taxes have not been paid as aforesaid, and shall continue same from day to day until each parcel thereof shall be sold to pay the taxes, interest, costs and charges thereon, and in case there are no bidders each parcel shall be bid off by the tax collector for the county, and the tax collector must offer all such lands as assessed.

History.—§51, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 561; §53, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 759; CGL 972; §5, ch. 14572, 1929; §14, ch. 20722, 1941.

193.55 Collector not to sell land on which taxes have been paid; penalty.—Should any tax collector sell any lands upon which the taxes have been paid, he shall be liable to the owners of said lands for twice the amount of the tax, and in addition pay all legitimate expenses the owner may be put to in clearing his titles, including a reasonable attorney's fee to be fixed by the court, and refund to the state all amounts for which he may be credited on account of such illegal sale, including cost of advertising. The tax collector shall be responsible to the publisher for costs of advertising lands on which the taxes have been paid, and the tax assessor shall be responsible to the publisher for costs of advertising lands doubly assessed.

193.56 To whom land struck off.—The land shall be struck off to the person who will pay the tax, interest, costs and charges and will demand the lowest rate of interest for the first year, not in excess of the maximum rate allowed by law.

History.—§52, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 563; §55, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 761; CGL 974; §6, ch. 14572, 1929; §15, ch. 20722, 1941.

193.57 Immediate payment required.—The tax collector shall require immediate payment by any person to whom any parcel of such land may be struck off, and in all cases where the payment is not made in twenty-four hours he may declare the bid canceled and sell the land again on the following day; and any person so neglecting or refusing to pay any bid made by him shall not be entitled after such neglect or refusal to have any bid made by him received by the tax collector during such sale; provided, however, that the purchaser shall not be required to pay for the certificates until the tax collector shall deliver the certificates to the purchaser, but the tax collector shall require a reasonable deposit as a guaranty that the purchaser will pay for the certificates when delivered.

193.58 Triplicate lists of land sold to be made and filed; clerk's fees; form of book "land sold for taxes."—Immediately after any tax sale, the tax collector shall make out a list in triplicate of all the lands sold for taxes, showing the date of the sales, the number of each certificate, the name of the owner as returned, a description of the land sold, the name of the purchaser, and the amount for which sale was made, and the tax collector shall append to each of said lists a certificate setting forth the fact that such sale was made in accordance with law. One of such lists shall be forwarded to the comptroller, and one shall be retained by the tax collector, and the third list filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, who shall enter the same in a book to be provided by the county commissioners for that purpose, and he shall be entitled to receive the same fees for such record as is paid for other recording, every five figures to be counted as one word, such fees to be paid by the county, which book shall be in the following form, viz:

TAXATION.

193.59 Form of certificate of sale.—

(1) At the sale aforesaid the tax collector shall give to the purchaser a certificate of such sale describing the lands purchased and the amount paid therefor, which amount shall bear interest from the date of the certificate until April 1st of the following year at the rate of eighteen per cent per annum (or at such lower rate of interest as may be bid by any purchaser other than the county) and at the rate of eight per cent per annum thereafter. The certificate shall be substantially in the following form:

State of Florida

County of _____

Office of Tax Collector

_____, A. D. 19____

No. _____

I, _____, Tax Collector for the County of _____, in the State of Florida, do hereby certify that I did, at public auction pursuant to notice given by law as required, on this the _____ day of _____, A. D. 19____, sell to _____ the lands hereinafter described for the sum of _____ dollars and _____ cents, said sum being the amount due and unpaid for taxes, interests, costs and charges, of the described lands for the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and _____; that _____ or assigns, will therefore be entitled to a deed of conveyance of such lands in accordance with the law unless the same shall be redeemed within such periods of time as are provided by law, by payment of such amount and interest thereon from the date of this certificate until April 1st following at the rate of eighteen per cent per annum (or at such lower rate of interest as may be bid by any purchaser other than the county) and at the rate of eight per cent per annum thereafter.

Said lands are described as follows, to wit:

_____ in the county of _____, and State of Florida.

The above described lands do, do not, (strike out inapplicable words) appear on the tax rolls as a homestead.

Witness my hand at _____, this _____ day of _____, A. D. 19____.

Tax Collector

_____, County, Florida

(2) If application be made to the board of county commissioners for issuance of a duplicate tax sale certificate in lieu of a certificate alleged by affidavit to be the property of affiant and to have been lost or destroyed, the board may, upon such reasonable terms, conditions and assurances as it may require, authorize the clerk of the circuit court to issue a duplicate certificate, plainly marked or stamped "duplicate" to the affiant and the clerk shall thereupon issue the same upon payment of a fee of fifty cents and enter the fact of such duplicate in the tax sale record opposite the entry of the sale, for which the lost or destroyed certificate was issued. He shall enter in the same place a notation of the alleged loss or destruction whether the duplicate be issued or not. If the clerk of the circuit court shall certify to the board of county commissioners that a tax sale certificate belonging to the county has been lost or misplaced, the board shall thereupon enter an order in its minute book directing the clerk to issue and file in his office a duplicate certificate, and the clerk shall forthwith issue and file such duplicate certificate and he shall at the same time make an entry on the tax sale record showing the issuance of the duplicate certificate.

History.—§1, ch. 4888, 1901; GS 567; §57, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 766; CGL 981; §8, ch. 14572, 1929; §16, ch. 20722, 1941; §7, ch. 22079, 1943.

193.60 Tax sale certificate transferable by endorsement.—All tax certificates heretofore or hereafter issued, whether to the state, county or individuals, shall be transferable by endorsement at any time before they are redeemed, or a tax deed is executed therefor.

193.61 Procedure by incorporated cities and towns.—The tax collector of any city or incorporated town shall, unless otherwise provided in this chapter, proceed substantially in the same manner in the collection of taxes and sale of lands and personal property for non-payment of taxes due by any railroad or any telegraph company; they may levy upon and sell any property within the corporate limits of said city or town belonging to such company, other than railroad tracks or telegraph lines.

Nothing in this chapter shall be so construed as in any way abridging or limiting powers to assess, levy or collect taxes, licenses or assessments which have been or may be granted to any municipal corporation by special act or charter act, or as limiting such municipal corporation in the method of assessing, levying or collecting the same, to the methods established by this chapter.

193.62 Municipalities; sale and redemption of tax certificates.—

(1) Incorporated cities and towns, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary in their charter or any special act, shall not charge any interest rate in excess of twelve per cent per annum on tax certificates. It is the legislative intent to effectuate a general revision of all provisions relating to interest rates charged by incorporated cities and towns on tax certificates in order to establish a uniform maximum interest rate on such certificates. It is further intended that the provisions of this subsection shall be exclusive, notwithstanding any provision to the contrary contained in any charter or special act, and shall supersede and control over all such provisions. All provisions of any municipal charter or special act allowing an interest rate on tax certificates in excess of twelve per cent per annum are declared inoperative, as of January 1, 1964.

(2) Incorporated cities and towns, unless their special charters provide otherwise, shall conform to the state law in force with reference to the care, custody, sale and redemption of tax certificates insofar as they may be applicable, and shall record a list of such certificates with the clerk of the circuit court of their respective counties; provided, however, that such special charter provision is consistent with subsection (1).

(3) Tax certificates sold prior to January 1, 1964, are not affected hereby.

*Effective January 1, 1964.

193.63 Lands upon which taxes are sold placed on assessment rolls; taxes not extended; excluded from millage calculations.—The tax assessors in making up their assessment rolls, shall place thereon the lands upon which taxes have been sold to the county, and shall enter their valuation of the same on the roll, and mark against such lands on the said rolls, the words, "county tax certificate," but the tax assessors shall not extend the taxes upon such lands. Neither the boards of county commissioners nor the county boards of public instruction shall be required to include nor give consideration to valuations upon such lands in calculating millage required to be levied.

History.—§1, ch. 6158, 1911; RGS 769; CGL 984; §23, ch. 20722, 1941; §10, ch. 22079, 1943.

193.64 Land bid off for the state.—Where land is bid off by the tax collector for the state, the tax certificate shall be issued by the tax collector to the state, in the name of the treasurer, and if the land is not redeemed or the certificate sold by the state, the title to the land shall, at the expiration of the time for redemption vest in the state without the issuing of any deed, as provided for in other cases, and the certificate shall be evidence of the title of the state, and none of the provisions of this chapter providing for the issuing of a deed shall apply in such cases, and in all cases in which land or real estate has heretofore been sold or purchased by the state and the certificate has not been sold, or land or real estate not been redeemed, and the time for redemption is passed, it shall not be necessary for the state to procure a deed, but the title shall be held to be in the state, and the certificate shall be evidence of the title of the state.

193.65 Commissions of assessors and collectors.—The assessors of taxes of the several counties of the state shall be entitled to receive upon the amount of all real and tangible personal property taxes assessed, excluding errors, the following commissions, to wit:

(1) On the county general tax ten per cent on the first five thousand dollars in amount of taxes levied, five per cent on the next five thousand dollars in amount in taxes levied, three per cent on the balance of taxes levied up to the amount levied on an assessed valuation of fifty million dollars and two per cent on the balance; on each taxing district three per cent on the amount of taxes levied up to the amount levied on an assessed valuation of fifty million dollars and two per cent on the balance.

(2) The tax collectors of the several counties of the state shall be entitled to receive upon the amount of all real and tangible personal property taxes, and licenses, collected and remitted, the following commissions:

On state licenses, ten per cent on the first five thousand dollars, five per cent on the next five thousand dollars, and three per cent on the balance; on the county tax, including licenses, ten per cent on the first five thousand dollars, five per cent on the next five thousand dollars, three per cent on the balance up to the amount of taxes levied on an assessed valuation of fifty million dollars and two per cent on the balance; on each taxing district three per cent on the amount of taxes levied on an assessed valuation of fifty million dollars, and two per cent on the balance.

(3) In computing the amount of taxes levied on an assessed valuation of fifty million dollars for the purposes of this section the valuation of nonexempt property and the taxes levied thereon shall be taken first.

(4) The commissions for assessing the state taxes and for collecting taxes assessed for or levied by the state shall be audited and allowed by the state comptroller and shall be paid by the state treasurer as other comptroller's warrants are paid; and commissions for assessing and for collecting the county taxes shall be audited and paid by the boards of county commissioners of the several counties of this state. The commissions for assessing and for collecting all special school district taxes shall be audited by the board of public instruction of each respective county and taken out of the funds of the respective special school districts under its control and allowed and paid to the said tax assessors for assessing such taxes and to the tax collectors for collecting such taxes; and the commissions for assessing and for collecting all other district taxes whether special or not shall be audited and paid by the governing board or commission having charge of the financial obligations of such district. All commissions for assessing and for collecting special tax district taxes shall be paid at the time and in the manner now or as may hereafter be provided for the payment of the commissions for the assessment and for the collection of county taxes. All amounts paid as compensation to any tax assessor or to any tax collector under the provisions of this or any other law shall be a part of the general income or compensation of such officer for the year in which received and nothing in this section contained shall be held or construed to affect or increase the maximum salary as now provided by law for any such officer.

(5) Provided, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to commissions on intangible property taxes or drainage district or drainage subdistrict taxes; and

(6) Provided, further, that where any assessor or of taxes or tax collector in the state is receiving compensation for expenses in conducting his office or by way of salary pursuant to any act of the legislature other than the general law fixing compensation of assessors, such assessor of taxes or tax collector may file a declaration in writing with the board of county commissioners of his county electing to come under the provisions of this section, and thereupon such assessor or collector shall be paid compensation in accordance with the provisions hereof, and shall not be entitled to the benefit of the said special or local act. If such assessor of taxes or collector does not so elect, he shall continue to be paid such compensation as may now be provided by law for such assessor or collector.

(7) The provisions of this section shall apply to taxes assessed for the year 1943 and subsequent years, and commissions on taxes levied for prior years shall be paid at the rate in effect at the time of the passage of this section.

History.—§67, ch. 4322, 1895; §§11, 12, ch. 4515, 1897; §5, ch. 4885, 1901; GS 594, 595; §§63, 64, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 797, 801; CGL 1028, 1033; §1, ch. 17876, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 1036 (14); §§1, 1A, ch. 20936, 1941; §§1, 2, ch. 21918, 1943.

193.66 Commissions; payment upon redemptions.—When any lot or parcel of land certified or sold to the state for the nonpayment of taxes for any previous years shall be redeemed or certificates purchased by payment to or through the clerk of the circuit court of the respective counties of the state, as provided now or as may hereafter be provided by law, the clerk of said court shall, before making the final remittance of the balance on hand derived through such redemption or purchase, pay to the tax assessor of the county in which the land redeemed or purchased lies, two per cent of the amount of the principal of the taxes for the years 1937 and subsequent which are covered by said certificate or certificates or subsequent or omitted taxes redeemed or purchased, excepting any fees or commissions that may have been allowed and paid for the first year's taxes included in said certificate, the said amount to be deducted by the said clerk from his remittance made to the various districts participating in the certificate. The amounts so paid, as above provided, shall be a part of the general income or compensation of the said tax assessor for the year in which received and shall not increase the maximum salary provided by law to any tax assessor.

193.67 County commissioners to pay assessor monthly.—The boards of county commissioners of the several counties of Florida shall pay, or cause to be paid, to the county assessors of taxes of each such county, respectively, in the state, monthly, on the first day of each and every month, on demand of such county assessor of taxes, respectively, an amount or sum equal to one-twelfth of four-fifths of the total amount of commissions received by such county assessor of taxes, or his predecessor in office, from such county, during and for the preceding year, and the balance of the commissions earned by such county assessor of taxes, respectively, during each year, over and above the amount of such installment payments herein provided for, shall be payable when a report of errors and double assessments is approved by the county commissioners of the several counties respectively, and a copy thereof filed with the comptroller of the state.

History.—§2, ch. 7267, 1917; RGS 799; CGL 1031.

193.671 County commissioners to pay tax collector monthly.—The board of county commissioners of each county of the state shall advance and pay to the county tax collector of each such county, at the first meeting of such board each month from January through October of each year, on demand of the county tax collector, an amount equal to one-twelfth of the commissions on the county taxes levied on the county tax roll for the preceding year, and one-twelfth of the commissions on county occupational and beverage licenses paid to the tax collector in the preceding calendar year. To demand the first advance under this section, each tax collector shall submit to the board of county commissioners a statement, showing the calculation of the commissions on which the amount of each advance is to be based.

On or before November 1 of each year, each tax collector who has received advances under the provisions of this section shall make an accounting to the board of county commissioners, and any adjustments necessary shall be made so that the total advances and commissions paid by the board of county commissioners shall be the amount of commissions earned. Provided; that at no time within the year shall there be paid by the board of county commissioners more than the total advances due to that date, or the commissions earned to that date, whichever is the greater; provided further, nothing contained herein shall be construed to abrogate any law providing a salary for the tax collector or require the tax collector to accept the benefits of this section. This section shall apply to payments of advances and commissions for the calendar year 1959 and subsequent years.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 59-62.

193.68 Comptroller to issue to assessors quarter-annual payments.—The comptroller of the state shall issue to each of the county assessors of taxes, severally, in the state, quarter-annually, on the first Monday of January, April, July and October, on demand of such county assessors of taxes, respectively, his warrant, which shall be paid by the treasurer of the state, for an amount or sum equal to one-fourth of four-fifths of the total amount of commissions received by such county assessors of taxes, or his predecessor in office, from the state during and for the preceding year, and the balance of the commissions earned by such county assessor of taxes, respectively, during each year, over and above the amount of such installment payments herein provided for, shall be payable when a report of errors and double assessments is approved by the county commissioners, and a copy thereof filed with the comptroller.

History.—§1, ch. 7267, 1917; RGS 798; CGL 1030.

193.69 Fees of assessors as affected by change of county boundary.—If and when the boundaries of any county in the state are changed, whereby such county, after such change of boundary, includes more or less assessable property than was included in such county prior to such change, in such event, after such change of boundary, the amount or sum to be paid to the county assessor of taxes of such county, in installments as provided in §§193.67 and 193.68, shall be increased or diminished in proportion as the assessed value for the preceding year of the property added to or subtracted from such county, bears to the total assessed value of all property in such county for the year last preceding such change of boundary.

History.—§3, ch. 7267, 1917; RGS 800; CGL 1032.

193.70 Delinquent tax lands; certification; assessment.—All land, against which the state holds any tax sale certificate or other lien for delinquent taxes assessed for the year 1932, or subsequent years, shall, on April 1 of each year, be certified by the state comptroller to the several tax assessors as having been sold to the state for taxes. The tax assessor of each county shall place such lands on the assessment roll as state tax delinquent certificate lands and shall enter his valuation of the same thereon, but he shall not extend the amount of taxes except as otherwise provided herein.

193.71 Delinquent tax lands; errors and insolvencies.—On April 1st of each year the comptroller shall certify to the several tax collectors a list of lands showing by years the number of the certificate or certificates and a description of the lands upon which the state holds a tax sale certificate issued during or since the year 1933 for delinquent taxes assessed for the year 1932 or subsequent years. The tax collector shall not sell any lands appearing upon the list furnished him by the comptroller, and if taxes have been levied and assessed on any such lands the tax collector shall take credit for the amount of such taxes on his list of errors and insolvencies. The clerk of the circuit court shall collect and account for the subsequent taxes when application is made to redeem or purchase any tax sale certificate owned by the state issued in any year subsequent to 1932.

193.72 Sale of lands for delinquent taxes where no outstanding state owned certificate.—If the taxes upon any land, which do not on April 1st of any year have outstanding and in the hands of the state a tax sale certificate issued for taxes assessed for the year 1932 or subsequent years, shall not be paid before the first day of April of any year, the tax collector shall advertise and sell the said lands in the manner now provided by law for the sale of lands because of the nonpayment of taxes.

History.—§4, ch. 17403, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 1014(4).

193.73 Failure of tax assessor to assess taxes or perform duties.—If the county assessor of taxes shall fail from any cause other than sickness to do the duties and assess the taxes in the manner prescribed by law, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction, shall be fined not less than fifty dollars nor more than twenty-five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail not more than two years.

cf.—§775.07 punishment for misdemeanor.

193.74 False return to comptroller or commissioners by tax collector.—If any tax collector shall return to the comptroller and county commissioners as unpaid any tax which has been paid to him, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding twelve months, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand dollars.

193.75 Poll taxes abolished.—From and after June 14, 1941, all poll taxes shall be and the same are hereby abolished in the state.

History.—§1, ch. 20986, 1941.

193.76 Trustees of internal improvement trust fund to furnish county tax assessor name of grantee or contracted purchaser.—

(1) The trustees of the internal improvement trust fund of the state be and they are hereby required to furnish to the county tax assessors of the respective counties in the state the name and address of the grantee in any deed from the said trustees to any property in the state, together with the amount of the total consideration for said deed, same to be furnished to the county tax assessors of the respective counties where the land deeded lies within ten days after the delivery of the deed to the grantee by the trustees of the internal improvement trust fund.

(2) The trustees of the internal improvement trust fund of the state be and they are hereby required to furnish to the county tax assessors of the respective counties in the state the name and address of any person to whom said trustees have contracted to sell any lands in the state where such lands are subject to taxation. Said information shall be furnished to the county tax assessor in the county where the land lies together with the amount of the total consideration for such contract, within ten days after the delivery of the contract by the trustees of the internal improvement trust fund.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 24305, 1947; §2, ch. 61-119.

194.01 Tax sale certificates belonging to county held by clerk; redemption made through clerk.—All tax sale certificates hereafter issued to the county shall be held by the clerk of the circuit court of the several counties wherein are situated the lands covered by such certificates for redemption or sale, as hereinafter provided, and all redemptions of lands hereafter certified or sold to the county, or sold to individuals, shall be made through the clerk of the circuit court of the respective counties wherein such lands are situated. It shall be the duty of every owner of real property to ascertain from the clerk of the circuit court the fact of the existence and status of delinquent taxes thereon, if any, and inquiry by such owner of the tax collector, or any other tax official, shall not relieve such owner of such duty.

194.02 Lands sold to purchaser other than county may be redeemed.—

(1) Any person, or agent of any person, owning or claiming such lands sold for taxes, or any part or parcel thereof, or any interest therein, or the creditor of any such owner or claimant may redeem the same at any time after such sale and before a tax deed is issued therefor, by paying to the clerk of the circuit court of the county wherein such land is situated the face of the certificate of sale, or such portion thereof as the part or interest redeemed shall bear to the whole, and interest thereon from the date of the certificate, together with the fee of fifty cents for the clerk for each certificate or part of certificate so redeemed. Such interest on lands hereafter sold shall be at the rate per annum bid by the purchaser for the period of time from the date of the certificate, not in excess of twelve per cent per annum and eight per annum for the time after the first year, but not less than five per cent of the face of the certificate.

(2) When any land shall have been so redeemed the clerk shall refund to the holder of the tax certificate the whole amount received by him for redemption, less his fee of fifty cents, and such certificate shall be surrendered to the clerk and canceled, if the whole be redeemed, or if only a portion thereof shall be redeemed, such portion and description of land with date of redemption, shall be endorsed on such certificate by the clerk and the certificate retained by the owner subject to such endorsement, and such redemption shall be forthwith entered by the clerk on the record of tax sales on file in his office. Nothing herein contained shall be deemed to deny the right to redeem any tax sale certificate now outstanding in accordance with the law in force when the same was issued; provided, however, that the provisions of §192.33, relating to survival of restrictions and covenants after tax deed, shall not be repealed by this chapter, and shall apply with the same force and effect to lands covered by such chancery decrees as the same apply to tax deeds and masters' deeds as provided in said section.

- 194.62 Tax sale certificates; transfers or assignments to be recorded.
 194.63 Cancellation of certificates on riparian rights separate from land.

History.—§5, ch. 4888, 1901; GS 570; RGS 770; CGL 985; §9, ch. 14572, 1929; §19, ch. 20722, 1941; §8, ch. 22079, 1943; §1, ch. 28254, 1953.

194.03 Redemption receipt and certificate for lands sold to purchaser other than the county.—Whenever any land covered by certificates in the hands of individuals shall be redeemed as provided for in §194.02, the clerk shall give to the person making such redemption a receipt and certificate showing the amount paid for such redemption, a description of the land redeemed, and the date, number and amount of the certificate, certificates, or part of certificate, from which the same is redeemed, which shall be substantially in the form following:

194.05 Redemption or purchase of state-owned certificates of 1917 and prior years.—The clerks of the circuit courts of the several counties of the state shall allow the redemption or purchase, in whole or in part, where the part to be redeemed or purchased can be ascertained by legal and usual subdivision, of any and all tax certificates held by the state issued in the year 1917 and prior there- upon the payment of the amount of such certificate or certificates, or such portion thereof as the part to be redeemed or purchased shall bear to the whole, and the subsequent omitted taxes, or taxes that have not been paid including taxes for the year in which redemption or purchase is made, if made after the first day of April, with interest on such certificates and on unpaid taxes for the year 1916 and prior thereto at the rate of eight per cent per annum from the first day of April, 1918.

194.06 Redemption or purchase of state-owned certificates of 1918 and subsequent years.

—The clerks of the circuit courts of the several counties of the state shall allow the redemption or purchase, in whole or in part, where the part to be redeemed or purchased can be ascertained by legal and usual subdivision, of any and all tax certificates held by the state, that shall have been issued in the year 1918 and subsequent years, or that shall hereafter be issued, upon the payment of the amount of such tax certificate or certificates, or such portion thereof as the part to be redeemed or purchased shall bear to the whole with interest thereon and the payment of any and all subsequent unpaid or omitted taxes due on the land to be redeemed or purchased, with interest thereon. Such interest on lands sold prior to the year 1929 shall be at the rate of twenty-five per cent per annum for the first year and eight per cent per annum for the time after the first year from the date of sale. Such interest on lands sold in the year 1929 and thereafter shall be at the rate of eighteen per cent per annum for the first year and ten per cent per annum for the second year and eight per cent per annum thereafter, but not less than five per cent of the face of the certificates; interest on all unpaid or omitted taxes to be calculated beginning with the first day of April next after the year for which such taxes are due.

194.07 Redemptions prior to November first.

—When application is made prior to November first of any year for the redemption of lands heretofore or hereafter sold for taxes under the laws of the state, the person or persons applying for such redemption shall not be required to pay the taxes for the year in which such redemption is made. In the event of such redemption, without paying the taxes for the year in which such redemption is made, the taxes for such year shall continue to be a lien against such lands, and if not paid before tax sale is held in the county in which such lands are located, the same shall be included by the tax collector in his sale as are other lands. Such taxes shall be extended by the tax assessor if the property is redeemed before the completion of the rolls and by the tax collector if the property is redeemed after the completion of the rolls. The clerk of the circuit court shall immediately notify the tax collector and tax assessor upon the redemption of any lands. In the event the party redeeming, however, shall pay the taxes for the year of redemption during the time when discounts are allowed for payment of taxes, the same discounts shall be allowed such party as are allowed in other cases of the payment of taxes.

194.08 Redemption in certain cases.—Where there are more than one tax certificate held by the state against the same land, the certificates (except the last certificate) may be redeemed, in whole or in part, where the part to be redeemed can be ascertained by legal and usual subdivision, in the order of their issue, by paying to the clerk of the circuit court of the county wherein the land described in said certificates is located the amount of the certificate to be redeemed, or such portion thereof as the part to be redeemed shall bear to the whole, and any and all subsequent omitted or unpaid taxes due on said land to be redeemed prior to the year for which the next certificate was issued, with interest on certificate issued in the year 1917 and prior thereto and unpaid or omitted taxes for the year 1916 and prior thereto at the rate of eight per cent, per annum from the first day of April, 1918, and interest on subsequent certificates and unpaid taxes as provided in §194.06.

194.081 Redemption by owner where state has interest; 1935 and subsequent years.—

(1) All tax sale certificates issued for unpaid taxes on lands in the state, for the years 1935 and subsequent years in which the state has an interest, may be redeemed by the owner of lands covered by said certificates under the following conditions:

(a) Any owner of lands in the state against which tax sale certificates have been issued for unpaid taxes for the year 1935 and subsequent years in which the state has an interest, may redeem said lands from the lien of said tax sale certificates upon payment to the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which said land lies of the amount of the state taxes embraced in said certificate or certificates, together with six per cent interest on the amount of said state taxes from date of certificate until date of payment, provided that this section shall have no effect upon lands, title to which vested in the state under §192.38, the Murphy act.

(b) Upon payment of said amount, it shall be the duty of the clerk of such circuit court and of the comptroller of the state, to cancel said certificates so redeemed as to state taxes embraced therein.

(c) Said certificates so cancelled as to state taxes embraced therein shall thereupon be delivered to the board of county commissioners of the county in which said land lies.

(d) Such certificates so cancelled as to state taxes by the clerk of the circuit court and the comptroller, may be redeemed by the owner of lands embraced in said certificates from all other taxes embraced in said certificates upon such terms and conditions as shall be fixed by the board of county commissioners of the county in which said land lies and upon being so redeemed by said owner said certificates shall be cancelled and delivered to the owner of said lands and shall no longer be or constitute a lien on said land.

(2) All sums of money derived from redemption of said tax sale certificates shall be prorated to the several taxing units having interest in said tax sale certificates as the interest of said unit shall appear in said certificates.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 28316, 1953.

194.09 When tax may be paid in lieu of subsequent certificate.—When the face of any tax certificate held by the state, issued subsequent to the oldest tax certificate held by the state covering any land to be redeemed or purchased, is greater than would be the unpaid or omitted taxes for the year for which such subsequent tax certificate was issued, when based on the last assessed valuation against the land, then the unpaid taxes for that year based on the last assessed valuation may be collected in lieu of the amount due on such subsequent certificate shall then be canceled as to such land.

History.—§4, ch. 7806, 1919; CGL 996.

194.10 Redemption of omitted taxes.—Unpaid or omitted taxes shall be collected upon the basis of the regular valuation placed by the assessor upon the land for the year for which taxes remain unpaid, and where no valuation was so placed then the last assessed valuation prior thereto shall be considered the regular valuation; but where the last assessed valuation against any land to be redeemed or purchased is less than the regular valuation then the last valuation shall be used.

History.—§5, ch. 7806, 1919; CGL 997.

194.11 Transfer of certificates.—The endorsement of a tax certificate officially by the clerk of the circuit court, with the date and the amount received, shall be sufficient evidence of the assignment and transfer thereof. Any portion of land or interest therein contained in a tax certificate held by the state, which can be ascertained by legal and usual subdivision, may be redeemed or sold by a certificate of such transfer, or redemption, under the hand and official seal of the clerk of the circuit court, and a deed may issue thereupon in compliance with the terms of this law.

Endorsement of the clerk shall be made upon the tax certificate of the portion of the certificate redeemed or sold, giving the description of the land and the date of the transfer, with the amount received therefor. Should it appear that the land covered by the oldest certificate to be transferred or canceled has not been assessed, or is assessed to the state, for any subsequent year, the party purchasing or redeeming the oldest certificate shall pay to the clerk the taxes for each of such subsequent omitted years, based upon the last assessed valuation, with interest thereon, at the rate which would be required for the redemption of the certificate.

The clerk shall receive a fee of fifty cents for the endorsement of each certificate.

History.—§7, ch. 4888, 1901; §1, ch. 5112, 1903; GS 573; RGS 775; CGL 992; §10, ch. 14572, 1929.

194.12 Record of tax redemptions.—The clerk of the circuit court shall keep a record of all moneys received by him for redemption from sales of real estate for taxes or special assessments, which record shall show the names of the persons who purchased the property at said sales, or the assignees of such purchaser, if known, and the amount due the lawful holder of the tax certificate for each such redeemed sale.

The clerk of the circuit court at the expiration of his term of office shall account for and pay over to his successor in office all moneys in his hands received for redemptions from sale for taxes or special assessments on real estate.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 8569, 1921; CGL 990, 991.

194.13 Redemption of portion of tax certificate.—Any portion of land, or interest therein contained, in a tax sale certificate or certificates held by the state may be redeemed by a certificate of such transfer or redemption, under the hand and official seal of the clerk of the circuit court, upon such clerk being furnished by the county assessor of taxes with a certificate apportioning the value to the part or parts sought to be redeemed, and to the remaining land or lands under said certificate or certificates, according to their respective part or parts, said apportionment to be made upon the basis of valuation. Upon such redemption being made, the person shall pay all taxes, interest, costs and charges as provided by law upon the part or parts of the land so redeemed or purchased; provided the present method of redemption on basis of area shall in no way be impaired.

Any portion of land, or interest therein contained, in a tax sale certificate or certificates held by any person other than the state, may be redeemed by the person entitled to redeem the same by a certificate of such redemption under the hand and official seal of the clerk of the circuit court, upon such clerk being furnished by the county assessor of taxes with a certificate apportioning the value to the part or parts sought to be redeemed and to the remaining land under said certificate or certificates, according to their respective part or parts, said apportionment to be made upon the basis of valuation. Upon such redemption or purchase being made, the person shall pay all taxes, interest, costs and charges as provided by law upon the part or parts of the land so redeemed.

The county assessor of taxes, upon the request of the clerk of the circuit court, shall furnish to such clerk a certificate containing the information necessary for the clerk to perform the duties imposed upon him by this section.

194.14 Notice to mortgagee.—Each year within sixty days after the list of lands sold for taxes shall have come into the hands of the clerk of the circuit court, the clerk shall, whenever the records of his office show that any lot or tract of land so sold for taxes is encumbered by an unsatisfied mortgage, mail to said holder or holders of such unsatisfied mortgages, a list of all such mortgaged land as had been returned by the tax collector as sold for taxes, showing the number of each certificate and a description of the land sold; provided, that before any mortgage holder or holders shall be entitled to said notice a written request shall have been filed, on or before the first day of May of each year, with the clerk, showing the name and post office address of such mortgage holder or holders, together with a description of the land or lands embraced in said mortgage, the date of the said mortgage, and the book and page where same is recorded, such request to be accompanied by the fee required.

The clerk, as a fee for preparing and mailing such notice, shall be entitled to receive the sum of fifty cents for each mortgage under which the notice aforesaid shall be given, such fee to be added to and become a part of and to bear interest at the same rate as the tax certificate or certificates so specified and to be paid in redemption or purchase of the first of said certificates (if more than one) redeemed or purchased subsequent to such notice. The clerk may stamp each certificate so subject to this fee with a stamp indicating and identifying this charge.

194.15 Application for obtaining tax deed by holder, other than the county, of tax sale certificate; fees.—On and after April 1, 1943, tax deeds on real estate sold for nonpayment of the taxes thereon may be obtained by the holder of a tax certificate, other than the county, in the following manner: The holder of any tax certificate may at any time after two years have elapsed since April first of the year the tax became delinquent (except that on certificates issued pursuant to the 1940 assessment the period shall be two years from the date of the certificate) file such certificate with the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the lands described in such certificate are located, notifying the clerk that he desires the lands described therein, or any part thereof capable of being readily separated from the whole, advertised for sale; provided, further, this section shall not apply to tax certificates issued prior to 1941.

The certificate holder shall pay to the clerk the proper amount fixed by law for the redemption or purchase of all other outstanding tax certificates covering said lands, a fee of fifty cents for each certificate then redeemed or purchased, and for searches ascertaining the outstanding certificates a fee of fifty cents for the oldest tax sale and a fee of fifteen cents for each subsequent year, and a fee of two dollars for conducting the sale herein provided for and the issuing of a tax deed. Where the tax deed contains more than one described parcel of land, an additional fee of ten cents for each additional description of property shall be paid.

History.—§1, ch. 17457, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 999(186); §24, ch. 20722, 1941.

194.16 Notice, form of publication for obtaining tax deed by holder, other than county.—Upon the receipt of the application as provided by §194.15 and after the proper fees have been paid, the clerk shall cause a notice in substantially the following form to be published once each week for four successive weeks (four publications each one week apart) in some newspaper of general circulation published in the county where the lands are located; or if there be no newspaper published in such county, then such notice may be posted the same length of time at the courthouse door and in two other public places in the county. As many tax certificates may be included in the notice as the applicant desires:

All of said property being in the County of _____, State of Florida.

Unless such certificate or certificates shall be redeemed according to law the property described in such certificate or certificates will be sold to the highest bidder at the court house door on the first Monday in month of _____, 19____, which is the _____ day of _____, 19____.

Dated this _____ day of _____, 19____.

 Clerk of Circuit Court of _____ County, Florida.

History.—§2, ch. 17457, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 999(187); §25, ch. 20722, 1941.

194.17 Proof of publication of notice for tax deed holder, other than county.—Proof of the publication or posting of the notice provided for in §194.20 shall be filed by the clerk of the circuit court in his office on or before the date fixed for the making of the sale. Where there is no newspaper the clerk shall execute and file in his office a certificate as to the posting of such notices, stating where and on what dates the notices were posted.

History.—§3, ch. 17457, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 999(188); §27, ch. 20722, 1941.

194.18 Mailing notice to owner where application is made by holder other than county.—

(1) In addition to the publication of the notice provided for by §194.16 the clerk of the circuit court shall mail a copy of such notice to the owner of the property and to each mortgagee, if any, if the name and address of such persons appear on the tax roll for the year in which taxes were last extended on such property or if the name and address of such persons do not appear thereon then the notice shall be mailed to the person last paying taxes upon such lands as shown by the tax collector's receipt book and in the event no address be shown thereon no notice shall be required; and the clerk shall mail a copy of the notice of sale by registered mail to the municipality, and other taxing districts, in which the property therein described is situated; and the clerk shall enclose with every copy mailed a statement as follows: "Warning, property in which you are interested is listed in the copy of the enclosed notice"; and the clerk shall make out and attach to the affidavit of the publisher attesting to the publication of such notice, a certificate that he, the clerk, did on the _____ day of _____, 19____, mail a copy of the notice addressed to _____ at _____, which certificate shall be signed by the clerk and his official seal affixed thereto; and such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that such notice was mailed. In the event the addresses of the owners and mortgagees, if any, do not appear on the tax roll as aforesaid, and the address of the person last paying taxes upon such lands is not shown by the tax collector's receipt book, the clerk shall execute and attach to the proof of publication a certificate sealed with his official seal to such effect. The failure of the owner, mortgagee, or municipality or other taxing district, to receive such notice shall not affect the validity of the tax deed issued pursuant to such notice.

(2) The notice referred to in this section may be sent any time not later than twenty days prior to the date of sale and a printed copy of the notice as published in the newspaper shall be sufficient.

History.—§4, ch. 17457, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 999(139); §28, ch. 20722, 1941; §11, ch. 22079, 1943. cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

194.19 Fees for mailing additional notices, where application is made by holder, other than county.—Where the certificate holder shall make written request for him to do so, and shall furnish him with the names and addresses, the clerk shall send a copy of the notice referred to in §194.18 to any one to whom the certificate holder may request him to send such notice, and for every notice sent out the clerk shall make a certificate as to the mailing similar to that mentioned in the preceding section; but the clerk may demand from such certificate holder the sum of twenty-five cents to reimburse him for the postage and expense incurred for each copy of notice sent, except the copy to the owner of the land; and where such fees are paid they will be added by the clerk to the amount required to redeem the land from sale.

History.—§5, ch. 17457, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 999(140); §29, ch. 20722, 1941.

194.20 Time of making application for tax deed by certificate holder, other than county.—It shall not be necessary that application for deed be made by a certificate holder at any particular time of the month, or that notice provided in §194.16 be published at any particular time with reference to the day of making the deed so long as the day of making the deed shall be fixed not more than thirty days after the last publication of such notice.

History.—§6, ch. 17457, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 999(141); §26, ch. 20722, 1941.

194.21 Sale at public auction.—All lands advertised for sale to the highest bidder shall be sold at public auction by the clerk of the circuit court of the county wherein such lands are located, and such sale shall be held only on the first Monday in each month, and during the legal hours of sale, and such sales shall be held at the courthouse door. At such time and place the clerk shall read the notice of sale, and shall offer the lands described in such notice for sale to the highest bidder for cash, at public outcry. The amount required to redeem the tax certificate or certificates, plus the amounts paid by the holder thereof to the clerk of the circuit court in fees, costs of sale, redemption of other tax certificates on the same lands, in short, all costs which the applicant for tax deed has been put to, plus interest thereon at the rate of eight per centum per annum for one month, shall be considered the bid of the certificate holder for the property; provided, that if the certificate holder be the county, the amount required to redeem the certificate or certificates, plus amounts due the clerk of the circuit court in fees, costs of sale, redemption of other tax certificates on the same lands, together with all costs in connection therewith, plus interest thereon at the rate of eight per centum per annum for one month, shall be considered the bid of the county; and if there be no higher bids, the land shall be struck off and sold to such certificate holder, which term, certificate holder, shall include the county. If there be other bids, the certificate holder, other than the county, shall have the right to bid as others present may bid, and the property shall be struck off and sold to the highest bidder.

194.22 Disbursement of proceeds of sale.—If the property shall be purchased by any person other than the certificate holder, the clerk shall forthwith pay back to the certificate holder all of the sums he has paid, including the amount required for the redemption of the certificate or certificates together with any and all subsequent unpaid taxes plus the costs and expenses of the application for deed with interest on the total of such sums for one month at the rate of eight per cent per annum; provided that if the certificate holder be the county the fees of the clerk shall be the same as provided in §194.15 and shall be retained by him out of the purchase price, and he shall distribute the amount required to redeem the certificate or certificates and the amount required for the redemption of other tax certificates on the same land together with omitted taxes and together with all costs, plus interest thereon at the rate of eight per cent per annum for one month, in the same manner as he distributes money received for the redemption of tax certificates owned by the county.

If the property shall be purchased for an amount in excess of the statutory bid of the certificate holder as provided in §194.21, such excess shall be forthwith paid over and disbursed by the clerk to the municipality and other taxing districts, if any, holding liens for general taxes of equal dignity with county taxes upon said property, for the payment of such liens in full, if such excess be sufficient for such purpose; provided, however, that in the event such excess be not sufficient to pay such liens in full, such municipality and each other taxing district shall be paid such excess on a proportionate basis in the same ratio to such excess as the amount of its said liens bears to the total amount of the said liens of the municipality and such taxing districts, and the municipality and other taxing districts shall retain liens upon said property for the remaining unpaid amount; and if there remains any excess after the payment of all liens for general taxes upon said property and there be unpaid liens for special assessments held by any municipality or other taxing district, the clerk shall pay such excess to such municipality and taxing district for the payment of such special assessment liens in full, if such be sufficient for such purpose; provided, however, that in the event such excess be not sufficient to pay all of such special assessment liens in full, such municipality and each other taxing district shall be paid such excess on the same basis as hereinbefore provided for the partial payment of general tax liens, except that no liens securing said special assessments shall be retained upon said property. After all liens for general taxes and special assessments of the municipality and other taxing districts upon said property are paid in full, the balance of the purchase price shall be retained by the clerk and notice mailed to the owner of such lands, if his address be known to the clerk, that this sum will be paid to him upon demand. The entire balance shall be paid to the owner, less the sum of twenty-five cents on each hundred dollars or fraction thereof, which the clerk may retain to reimburse himself for postage, notices, and keeping account of such funds.

194.23 Disposal of landowner's funds.—The clerk of the circuit court, if on the first day of January of each year he shall have on hand any funds belonging to owners of land that has been sold for taxes and which funds have remained unclaimed for longer than three months, shall publish a notice in some newspaper in the county, or if there be no newspaper, then such notice may be posted at the courthouse door and in two other places in the county, to the effect that he has on hand such funds and that unless the owner shall apply for same on or before the first day of the month succeeding the month in which the notice is published, such funds will be paid into the general funds of the county. Such notice shall be published in one issue of such newspaper, or posted for one week where there is no newspaper. After the funds have been paid into the general funds of the county, the owner may at any time in five years from the date of sale make application to the board of county commissioners for such funds, and such board may, if satisfied that the applicant is entitled to the funds, order a warrant to be drawn for the amount due to the applicant, less the sum of one dollar on each hundred dollars or fraction thereof which shall be retained by the county to cover the expenses the county has been put to by reason of the applicant's negligence. If no application for payment of such funds be made within five years from the date of issuance of tax deed, all claims to such funds are hereby declared to be forever barred and such funds shall become the property of the county.

194.25 Duty of clerk as to redemption of land.—

(1) In consideration of the fee of fifty cents allowed the clerk of the circuit court for each tax certificate redeemed or sold, and for searches ascertaining the outstanding certificates a fee of fifty cents for the oldest tax sale and a fee of fifteen cents for each subsequent tax sale, or omitted tax year, and the fee of two dollars for every tax deed issued containing the description in one certificate and ten cents for each additional description when a deed is applied for, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the circuit court to enter on the record of tax sales the redemption or sale of every tax certificate made through him, and shall also keep, in a substantial book to be furnished him by the comptroller, as a permanent record of the office, a complete and full record of all sales and redemptions, giving the number of the tax certificate, the date of the tax certificate, the amount or proportionate amount of the face value of the certificate, the interest paid, the date of sale or redemption, the name of the holder or owner of the certificate, and the purchaser or redeemer of the certificate, and the disposition of the proceeds, with the date thereof. The clerk shall remit to the proper officers the amounts due the county and subdistricts respectively, taking duplicate receipts from the county and district officers to whom remittance is made, and shall file with the board of county commissioners a report showing the amount of money collected and disposition thereof in detail. Any clerk of the circuit court who fails or refuses to perform any and all of the duties herein prescribed shall be subject to suspension by the governor for neglect of duty in office.

(2) Provided, however, in those cases where acreage outside the corporate limits of any municipality has been sub-divided into lots, blocks or tracts as evidenced by a plat or plats duly filed among or recorded in the public records of any county, then for those lots, blocks or tracts, for which no returns for taxation have been made as sub-divided for more than three years last past, the clerk of the circuit court shall receive the same amount of fees and commissions, for the sale or redemption of all certificates covering the unreturned tracts, that he would have received had the property been assessed as forty acre tracts, or as one parcel if less than forty acres, on the tax roll for the year represented by the certificate. This subsection shall apply to all sales or redemptions hereafter made or consummated, notwithstanding that the application for such sale or redemption and full or partial deposit of funds on account thereof, may have been heretofore made.

History.—§11, ch. 4888, 1901; §2, ch. 5113, 1903; GS 578; RGS 780; CGL 1004; §1, ch. 15918, 1933; §§1-2, ch. 19004, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1003(127); §48, ch. 20722, 1941.

194.26 When taxes not due at time of sale.—Whenever it shall appear to the comptroller that the taxes on any land heretofore sold, or that may hereafter be sold to the county for taxes, were not due at the time of such sale upon the lands or any part thereof embraced in any certificate of sale, or that the sale was otherwise illegal or improper, the comptroller shall have the power to cause to be cancelled, in whole or in part, or cause to be surrendered such certificate in such manner and upon such terms as may in his judgment be best to protect the interest of the state and county and do justice to the owners, and the clerk shall make such cancellation or surrender on the order of the comptroller.

194.27 Illegal, void or imperfect certificates to be cancelled.—The clerk of the circuit court is hereby required to select from among the tax sale certificates now or hereafter held by the county, all such certificates as appear on their face to be illegal, void or imperfect because of erroneous descriptions or otherwise, and to transmit such imperfect or illegal certificates to the comptroller, who shall examine the same and such of said certificates as he shall determine to be for any cause illegal, void or imperfect shall by him be cancelled and destroyed and a list of the same shall by him be certified to the clerk to be noted on his records. Proper credits of such certificates shall be made to the clerk and proper entries of cancellation shall be made on the comptroller's records.

All certificates sent to the comptroller by the clerks and not cancelled by him shall be returned to the clerk and charged to him for sale or redemption.

History.—§1, ch. 5151, 1903; GS 580; RGS 782; CGL 1006; §50, ch. 20722, 1941.

194.28 Procedure where land sold for taxes, the taxes having been paid, land not subject to taxation, or for any other cause.—Whenever it shall be proved to the clerk of the circuit court of any county in this state that lands in his county have been sold for unpaid taxes when the taxes on such lands have been paid, or the lands were not subject to taxation at the time of the assessment on which they were sold, or because the description was void, or because of some error or omission which invalidates the sale, or for any other reason, he shall forward a certificate of such fact to the comptroller, and enter upon the list of land sold for taxes, kept in his office, a memorandum of such fact.

The comptroller upon receipt of such certificate, if satisfied of the correctness thereof, when the certificate of sale is held by the state, shall notify the clerk, who shall cancel the same, and when the certificate is held by an individual, the comptroller shall at once notify the original purchaser, or the holder, if known to him, that upon voluntary surrender of the certificate or deed of release of his rights under any tax deed that may have been issued to him upon such certificate, within ninety days of such notification, but not afterward, he will refund to the holder of such certificate, the amount received by the state by the purchase of said certificate and the sum of one dollar for such deed of release as may be necessary; and the county commissioners shall refund from the general county tax fund the amount received by the county on such account, and the comptroller shall draw his warrant on the state treasurer for such sum or sums as he may be shown to be due on such account, to be paid out of the general revenue fund: provided, that this section shall not be so construed as to apply to any tax certificate issued by a tax collector prior to January 1, 1913.

194.29 Certain tax sale certificates surrendered.—All tax certificates covering land sold to the state after the fourth day of August, A. D. 1891, for taxes assessed for the year of 1890, and now held by the state, shall be surrendered upon the payment of the amount of taxes and costs stated in the certificate without any additional interest, expense or cost.

History.—§1, ch. 4888, 1901; GS 584; RGS 786; CGL 1012.

194.30 Certain tax sale certificates canceled.—All tax sale certificates or tax deeds issued to the state or county for unpaid taxes assessed on real estate for any year prior to the year 1877, which now are held by the state or any county, are canceled and shall have no effect upon the titles of such real estate, but such titles shall stand as though such tax sales had never been made.

History.—§1, ch. 4890, 1901; GS 585; RGS 787; CGL 1013.

194.31 Tax sale certificates issued to state prior to 1893 canceled.—All tax sale certificates issued to the state for unpaid taxes assessed on real estate for any year prior to the year 1893 are hereby canceled, and shall have no effect upon the titles of such real estate, but such titles shall stand as though such tax sales have never been made, and the clerks of the circuit courts of the various counties in Florida shall surrender such certificates now on hand in their offices, respectively, and so enter the cancellation thereof upon the records of tax sales certificates in their offices, respectively, and shall surrender and deliver the tax certificates upon application therefor by the owner or person interested in the lands described therein.

History.—§1, ch. 6859, 1915; RGS 788; CGL 1014.

194.32 Cancellation tax certificates on homes of Confederate veterans.—Whenever any soldier or sailor who was in the service of the state or Confederate States, during the war between the states, and was honorably discharged therefrom, or the widow of such soldier or sailor, shall make oath before the clerks of the circuit courts of this state, that his home has been sold for nonpayment of taxes, and that he is unable, by reason of poverty, to redeem the same, the said clerks shall cancel the certificate of such sale, and mark thereon the reason for such cancellation. The clerks of circuit courts shall require proof of such service and inability to pay.

194.33 Cancellation tax liens on property of United States.—Whenever it shall be made to appear to the board of county commissioners of any county that the United States, or any duly constituted agency thereof, has acquired by purchase or contract to purchase any lands in this state, for reforestation, game preserve or military aviation purposes against which there is any outstanding state and county tax lien held by the state, representing state and county taxes for the year 1935 or any prior year or years, such board of county commissioners shall, by resolution which shall describe the lands so acquired for such purposes and the nature of the lien thereon request the state comptroller to cancel the same or the part thereof which constitutes a lien against the lands acquired for the purposes aforesaid, a certified copy of which resolution shall be forthwith furnished the comptroller. The resolution adopted as aforesaid shall constitute and be sufficient authority for the comptroller to cancel the said tax lien or the part thereof against the lands described in the resolution. When the comptroller is presented with the copy of such resolution he shall forthwith cancel such tax lien by the entry of an appropriate order, a certified copy of which order shall be forthwith transmitted to the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the land affected is located, and such clerk shall immediately upon receipt thereof note on the proper records of his office the action taken by the board of county commissioners and the state comptroller and cancel of record all such state and county tax liens, evidenced by tax sale certificates, or otherwise, held by the state or county. The United States or any of its agencies shall not be required to pay to any public official of this state any costs or expenses to secure the cancellation of any tax lien affected by the provisions of this law.

194.34 Cancellation tax liens on property acquired for certain public uses.—Whenever it shall be made to appear to the board of county commissioners of any county that the duly constituted authorities of this state have acquired any lands for public road or aeronautical purposes against which there is any outstanding state and county tax lien held by the state, such board of county commissioners shall by resolution, which shall describe the lands so acquired for such purposes and the nature of the lien thereon, request the state comptroller to cancel the same or the part thereof which constitutes a lien against the lands acquired for the purposes aforesaid, a certified copy of which resolution shall be forthwith furnished the said comptroller. The resolution adopted as aforesaid shall constitute and be sufficient authority for the comptroller to cancel the said tax lien or the part thereof against the lands described in the resolution. When the said comptroller is presented with the copy of such resolution he shall forthwith cancel such tax lien by the entry of an appropriate order, a certified copy of which order shall be forthwith transmitted to the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the lands affected are located, and such clerk shall, immediately upon receipt thereof, note on the proper records of his office the action taken by the board of county commissioners and the state comptroller, and attach to all evidences of tax liens affected by the comptroller's order a description of the lands acquired for the purposes aforesaid. From and after such entries the lands affected by the order shall be discharged from the lien of all such taxes and said lien shall be considered canceled so long as such lands are used for the aforesaid purposes.

History.—§§1-3, ch. 17426, 1935; §§1-3, ch. 17459, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 992(5)-992(12).

194.35 Cancellation of void tax certificates and return of consideration.—When a tax sale certificate is void because the land covered thereby is not subject to taxation, or because the taxes embraced therein have been paid, or because the description of the property in the tax sale certificate is void, or because of some error or omission which invalidates the sale, or whenever a tax sale certificate is void for any reason, the holder of such tax sale certificate shall be entitled to the return of the amount received therefor; and if the holder of a tax sale certificate pays, redeems or causes to be canceled and surrendered any other tax sale certificates, or pays any subsequent and omitted taxes, in connection with obtaining a tax deed or in connection with the foreclosure of a tax sale certificate or tax deed, and when such other tax sale certificates or such subsequent and omitted taxes are void for any reason, the person paying, redeeming or causing to be canceled and surrendered such other tax sale certificates or paying such other subsequent and omitted taxes, shall be entitled to obtain the return of the amount received therefor.

194.36 Cancellation of void tax certificates; procedure.—Whenever it shall be proved to the clerk of the circuit court of any county in the state that lands in his county have been sold for unpaid taxes, when the tax sale certificate evidencing said sale is void because the taxes on such lands have been paid, or because the lands were not subject to taxation at the time of the assessment on which they were sold, or because the description of the property in said tax sale certificate is void, or because of some error or omission which invalidates the sale, or if the tax sale certificate is void for any other reason, he shall forward a certificate of such fact to the comptroller, and enter upon the list of land sold for taxes, kept in his office, a memorandum of such fact. The comptroller, upon receipt of such certificate, if satisfied of the correctness thereof, when the certificate of sale is held by the state, shall notify the clerk, who shall cancel the same, and when the certificate is held by an individual, the comptroller shall at once notify the original purchaser of said certificate, or the subsequent holder thereof, if known to him, that upon the voluntary surrender of the certificate or deed of release of his rights under any tax deed that may have been issued to him upon said certificate, he will refund to the holder of such certificate the amount received by the state for the purchase of said certificates and the sum of one dollar for such deed of release as may be necessary, and the comptroller shall draw his warrant on the state treasurer for such sum or sums as the state has received on such certificate, to be paid out of the general revenue fund, and the county commissioners shall refund from the general tax fund the amount received by the county for such certificate, and likewise any school board, school district or other district, commission, or governmental subdivision or agency which shall have received any sums from said tax sale, shall refund to the holder of said certificate the amount received by it.

194.37 Cancellation of void omitted taxes or subsequent certificates.—If the holder of any tax sale certificate should pay, redeem or cause to be cancelled and surrendered any other tax sale certificate, or should pay or redeem any subsequent and omitted taxes, in connection with an application for tax deed or in connection with any tax foreclosure proceedings, and if it should develop that said other tax sale certificate or any of said subsequent and omitted taxes are void for any reason, the clerk shall forward a certificate of such fact to the comptroller and enter upon the records in his office a memorandum of such fact, as provided for in §194.36, and the comptroller, upon receipt of such certificate, if satisfied of the correctness thereof, shall refund to the person so paying or redeeming such other tax sale certificate, or to the person so paying such subsequent and omitted taxes, in connection with an application for tax deed or in connection with a tax foreclosure, the amount received by the state, and thereupon the county commissioners, and any school district school board, drainage district or other district, commission, or governmental subdivision or agency, shall likewise refund the amount received by it in accordance with the provisions of §194.36.

194.38 Cancellation of tax certificates; suit by holder.—The holder of any void tax sale certificate, whether such tax sale certificate be void because the land sold was not subject to taxation, or whether such tax sale certificate is void because the taxes embraced therein were paid previous to sale, or whether such tax sale certificate is void, because the description of the property contained therein is void or whether such tax sale certificate is void because of any error or omission which invalidates the sale, or whether such tax sale certificate is void for any other reason, shall have the right to bring a suit in equity to have such tax sale certificate canceled and to obtain the return of the money received for such tax sale certificate. If such tax sale certificate embraces state and county taxes, the only necessary parties defendant to said suit shall be the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which said land is situated, and the comptroller of the state. If such tax sale certificate is issued for nonpayment of city or municipal taxes, the only necessary party defendant shall be the city or municipality in which the property lies. If such tax sale certificate is issued by a district, board, commission, or other governmental subdivision or agency, the only necessary parties defendant to such suit shall be said district, board, commission, or other governmental subdivision or agency. The bill of complaint in such suit shall briefly describe said tax sale certificate, shall state that it is void, and shall state briefly the reason the same is void, and the bill of complaint shall pray that said tax sale certificate be declared null and void, and that the court should order and decree that the holder thereof shall receive the return of the amount received therefor by the state, county, city, district, commission, board or other governmental subdivision or agency. The plaintiff, in such suit, may include as many void certificates as he sees fit, whether they cover the same land or different parcels of land, and whether they were issued by the same governmental agency or by different governmental agencies. If the chancellor, upon the trial of the issues in such suit, should find for the plaintiff, and should find that said tax sale certificate is void, he shall enter a final decree declaring said tax sale certificate to be null and void, canceling the same of record, and ordering the state, county, city, board, district, commission or other governmental subdivision or agency receiving any sums for said tax sale certificate, to return the amounts received by them to the holder of said tax sale certificate; and thereupon there shall be returned to the holder of said tax sale certificate the amount received for said certificate by the state, county, city, municipality, school board, school district, or other district, commission, or governmental subdivision or agency. In such cases the comptroller is directed to draw his warrant on the state treasurer for such sum or sums as the state has received on such void certificate, to be paid out of the general revenue fund, and the county commissioners shall make all refunds on void tax sale certificates from the general tax fund. In such a suit process shall be issued and the same procedure taken as in any other suit in chancery. If the holder of any tax sale certificate should pay, redeem or cause to be canceled and surrendered any other tax sale certificate, or should pay or redeem any other subsequent or omitted taxes, in connection with an application for tax deed or in connection with tax foreclosure proceedings, and if said other tax sale certificate or other subsequent and omitted taxes should be void for any reason, the person so paying, redeeming or causing to be canceled such void tax sale certificate, or paying or redeeming such void subsequent and omitted taxes, shall have the right to bring a bill in equity to obtain the return of the moneys received for such void tax sale certificate or for such void subsequent and omitted taxes, in accordance with the provisions of this section. The provisions of this section shall not be exclusive, but a refund of moneys may be obtained under §§194.35, 194.36 or 194.37.

194.39 Cancellation of tax certificates; application of law.—The provisions of §§194.35-194.38 shall apply to all tax sale certificates of every kind, whether issued by the state, or any county thereof, or any municipality in the state, or any district, board or other government subdivision or agency or tax collector or tax official in the state; provided that if a tax sale certificate has been issued by any city or municipality, the duties set forth to be performed by the clerk of the circuit court shall be performed by the city clerk, and if there is no city clerk, then by the city tax collector, and if there is no city tax collector, then by the city tax assessor, and if there is no city tax assessor, then by the director of finance, and if there are no such officers, then by the officer whose duty most nearly corresponds to that of said clerk, and in such cases, the duties set forth to be performed by the comptroller shall be performed by the mayor, and if there is no mayor, by the city manager, and if there is no city manager, by the president or chairman of the city commission, city council or board of aldermen, and if there are no such officers, then by the officer whose office most nearly corresponds to that of the mayor. If the tax sale certificate shall be issued by a board, district or commission, or other governmental subdivision or agency other than the state, county or municipality, then the duties set forth to be performed by the clerk of the circuit court shall be performed by the secretary thereof, or if no secretary, by the clerk thereof, or if no secretary or clerk, by the person whose duties most nearly correspond to those of secretary or clerk, and the duties set forth to be performed by the comptroller shall be performed by the chairman, and if no chairman, by the president or presiding officer, and if no president or presiding officer, by the superintendent, and if there are no such officers, then by the officer whose duty most nearly corresponds to that of chairman. The provisions of said sections shall apply to all tax sale certificates and subsequent and omitted taxes whether now outstanding or hereafter issued; provided, however, they shall not apply to any tax sale certificates issued prior to January 1st, 1913, or to any tax becoming delinquent prior to said January 1st, 1913.

194.40 Registration of landowners' names with clerk.—Any owner of land in any county, and any person claiming any interest in any such land by lien or otherwise, whether a resident of the county or state, or a non-resident, may cause his name and address and a description of any land within the county in which he is interested as owner or otherwise, to be registered in a book to be provided by the clerk of the circuit court for that purpose at the expense of the county, and in a form to be prescribed or approved by the state comptroller.

Any such applicant for registration shall pay to the clerk a fee of twenty-five cents for each property description desired to be set forth in such registry; provided, however, that any individual, firm or corporation who shall register at one time as to one hundred or more separate parcels of lands shall pay at the rate of ten cents per parcel for such registration.

194.41 Clerk circuit court to receipt for tax certificates and receipt filed with comptroller.

—The tax collector of any county in this state shall deliver to the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which any sales are made by him all certificates of sale to the state for unpaid taxes, take a receipt therefor from said clerk, and shall file such receipt of the clerk, with his report of tax sales as now required by law, with the comptroller of state. Such receipt from the clerk of the circuit court shall be the comptroller's authority to charge such clerk with the amount of such certificates.

History.—§15, ch. 4888, 1901; GS 583; RGS 785; CGL 1011.

194.42 Auditor to examine accounts and tax certificates of clerk of circuit court.—The governor shall require the state auditor to examine into the records, accounts and tax certificates of the clerks of the circuit courts at least once in each year, and report his findings.

History.—§14, ch. 4888, 1901; GS 582; RGS 784; CGL 1010.

194.43 Clerk of circuit court to make deeds to land sold by cities or towns for taxes.—The clerk of the circuit court shall make the deed for all lands sold for nonpayment of taxes by any city or town, and not redeemed, substantially in the same form as provided in the sale of lands for county or state taxes.

History.—§62, ch. 4322, 1895; GS 589; RGS 792; CGL 1018.

194.44 Tax deeds to be issued in the name of the state or town.—All tax deeds shall be issued in the name of the state, or city or incorporated town as the case may be, shall be signed by the clerk of the circuit court, shall be witnessed by two witnesses, and the seal of the circuit court attached thereto, and shall be acknowledged or proven as other deeds. The clerk of the circuit court shall be entitled to receive one dollar for each deed issued containing the description in one certificate, and ten cents for each additional description embraced in the deed.

194.45 Redemption or purchase of certificates held by county.—The clerks of the circuit courts of the several counties of the state are hereby authorized and directed to allow the redemption or purchase, in whole or in part, where the part to be redeemed or purchased can be ascertained by legal and usual subdivision, of any and all tax certificates held by the respective counties, that shall be issued in the year 1941 and subsequent years at any time prior to the vesting of the title in the county, upon the payment of the amount of such tax certificate or certificates, or such portion thereof as the part to be redeemed or purchased shall bear to the whole with interest thereon and the payment of any and all subsequent unpaid or omitted taxes due on the land to be redeemed or purchased with interest thereon at the rate of eighteen per cent per annum for the period of time from the date of the certificate until April 1st of the year following the date of said certificate, and eight per cent per annum for the time thereafter but not less than five per cent of the face of the certificate. The clerk shall receive the same fees as provided for like services in §194.15.

History.—§34, ch. 20722, 1941; am. §12, ch. 22079, 1948.

194.46 Clerk shall notify tax assessor and tax collector of the purchase or redemption of county owned tax certificates and the issuance of tax deeds and county deeds.—Immediately after any tax certificate held by the county is redeemed or purchased, or upon the issuance of any tax deed, or upon the issuance of any deed made by the board of county commissioners, the clerk shall notify the tax assessor and tax collector, advising each of them the name of the assignee or grantee, description of the property and the year for which taxes were last collected.

194.47 When lands become vested in county; proceedings.—

(1) TITLE VESTS IN COUNTY.—On and after two years have elapsed from the date of the certificate issued at the tax collector's sale of delinquent taxes on all such lands as are bid off by him for the county and which taxes have not been redeemed or purchased, and within ninety days following the expiration of such period of two years, the clerk of circuit court shall prepare a complete schedule or list in triplicate of all such lands, and he shall retain one such list or schedule in the files of his office, and he shall deliver one such schedule or list to the board of county commissioners, duly certified by him, the receipt of which schedule or list shall be recited in its minutes. Within ninety days after such receipt, such board shall cause the filing of a bill of complaint in the circuit court of the county, in the name of the county, and against any and all of the lands described in such schedule as defendant, which bill of complaint shall briefly describe the levies and nonpayment of taxes which are delinquent for the period aforesaid; and there shall be attached to such bill of complaint, a true copy of such schedule or list of lands furnished and duly certified by the clerk. It shall not be necessary to name as defendant in such bill of complaint, or proceeding, any person or persons owning or having any interest in or lien upon such lands. At the time such suit is directed to be filed, such board of county commissioners is empowered to employ counsel and agree upon his or their compensation for conducting such suit or suits, and to pay such compensation from the general fund, and may include such item in its budget. No attorneys' fees shall be fixed as costs or allowed by the court in such suits. At the time of the filing of such bill of complaint, the clerk shall mail the notice provided in §194.51, which notice shall contain a brief description of the land, and shall warn that on and after the return date therein named a decree will be sought.

(2) CERTIFICATE OF CLERK; NOTICE; PUBLICATION.—A certificate of the clerk shall be attached to the bill of complaint to the effect that such written notice has been given by him, and it shall not be necessary in such certificate to set forth the names of the parties to whom each notice was given; and such certificate shall be prima facie evidence thereof. Jurisdiction of all of said lands and of all parties interested therein or having any lien thereon at the date of filing of such suit shall be obtained by publication of notice, to be issued as of course on request of the plaintiff by the clerk of circuit court in which such bill is filed, directed in general terms to all persons, firms or corporations having any interest in or lien upon any of the lands described in said notice, and said bill of complaint. It shall not be necessary in said notice to set forth the names of such parties. Said notice shall describe the lands involved, and require all such parties to appear and show cause before said circuit court on or before a day certain specified in said notice, which day shall be not less than fifteen days, nor more than thirty days, after the date of publication of such notice. Such notice shall be published one time in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which the lands are situated. Such publication to be made not later than thirty days after the filing of said bill of complaint. The newspaper charges for publishing such notice shall be at the rate and in the size type prescribed by general law regulating legal advertisements, and if there be no newspaper published in the county the clerk shall post such notice at three public places, one of which shall be the courthouse door, of which fact he shall make his certificate and file the same in the cause.

(3) RIGHT OF REDEMPTION.—On or before the return day of said notice any person, firm or corporation shall have the privilege of purchasing from the clerk of the circuit court all tax liens, tax sale certificates and subsequent and omitted county taxes upon said lands, for the amount due at such time of purchase, including all interest, penalties and charges allowed by law. In the exercise of such privilege, any person so purchasing said taxes and tax liens shall likewise be required to purchase or pay any municipal tax liens thereon outstanding and unpaid at such time, and at the time such county tax liens are purchased from the clerk of the circuit court, such purchaser shall file with such clerk an official receipt of the municipality showing purchase or payment of such municipal taxes, which shall be a prerequisite before the privilege of purchase of county tax liens may be exercised.

(4) CERTIFICATE OF CLERK; DEFENSE; HEARING, DECREE, ETC.—On the day following the return day of the notice, the clerk of the circuit court shall file in said cause a certificate under his hand and official seal, separately describing each and every parcel of such lands the taxes and tax liens upon which have been so purchased, which lands shall by final decree be decreed excluded from said suit and from the operation of such final decree. Upon the return date of said notice each and every person or persons formerly interested in or having any lien upon any of said lands described in the bill of complaint, shall be charged with the duty of appearing and showing cause before the circuit court why the fee simple title to said lands should not be by said court decreed to be vested in said county free and clear of all liens and claims of every kind, except as herein otherwise provided; and such fee simple title in the county thereby forever quieted and confirmed and set at rest against any and all claims on the part of each and every such defendant. Decree pro confesso shall be entered by the court on or as of the day following the return day of such notice as in other chancery causes. If no sufficient cause is shown on said return day, and the only such cause which may be shown by any defendant is that limited and described in §192.21, to wit, that the property was not subject to taxation, or that the taxes had been paid previous to sale, or that the property had been redeemed prior to the expiration of said two-year period the circuit judge shall thereupon enter a final decree, which shall recite briefly the filing of the bill of complaint, the publication of the notice herein provided, and the due compliance with this law, and shall decree the fee simple title in and to the lands described in said bill of complaint and decree to be absolutely vested in said county, and such title in such county shall be by such decree forever quieted and confirmed against all claims and interests formerly held by any of said defendants. The provision for such decree shall not be construed to confer upon any person, firm or corporation which might have held an interest in said lands prior to the expiration of such two-year period, any right whatsoever of redemption after the return date of such notice, except the right to purchase taxes as herein granted. Such decree shall be recorded as all other decrees in the chancery order book of the court. Said decree shall likewise be recorded in the book marked "county lands acquired for delinquent taxes," provided by this law, for which the clerk shall receive the fees allowed by law, to be paid from the proceeds received from the sale of said lands by the board of county commissioners.

(5) ERROR OF CLERK, EFFECT.—The inadvertence, omission, or error of the clerk in failing to include in said list, lands upon which taxes are delinquent for the period herein provided, and which lands should have been therein included, shall not operate to defeat or impair the right and duty of the board of county commissioners to follow the proceedings herein prescribed, but the clerk at any time may compile supplementary or additional lists of such omitted lands in the same manner and proceedings shall be taken as to the same as herein provided for the original schedule.

(6) LIMITATIONS.—After the expiration of the two-year period above prescribed, the right of individual holders of county tax sale certificates upon such land, shall be restricted and confined solely to the right to participate in the proceeds received from said lands upon the sale thereof by the board of county commissioners as herein provided, pro rata, in the same proportion which the amount of the tax lien represented by such individual tax sale certificates bears to the amount of tax liens of equal dignity held by the county, or other taxing units, at the time of expiration of such two-year period; provided, however, that in no event shall such individual tax sale certificate participate in such proceeds and receive a larger amount than would have been required to be paid to redeem such certificate on the date the said two-year period expired.

(7) PROPERTY HELD BY MUNICIPALITIES UNDER FORECLOSURE.—All lands foreclosed by municipalities for delinquent taxes, or special improvement liens, or to which such municipalities acquired title prior to the first day of May, 1943, shall not be subject to the judicial proceedings by the county as herein provided, and shall not be included in the list required to be prepared by the clerk, nor included in the proceedings herein provided. From and after such date of expiration of such two-year period, neither the municipality nor the county shall assess such lands, to which title is held by municipalities, for taxes, nor extend valuations thereon upon their respective tax rolls; nor shall budget making authorities of either county or municipality consider the valuation of such lands in calculating millages required to be levied. It shall be the duty of each municipality holding title to such lands, on or before the first day of September, 1943, to furnish to the clerk of the circuit court, a verified and accurate description of all such lands. Upon the sale of said lands, hereafter, by said municipality, the county shall share in the proceeds thereof as and in full satisfaction and discharge of any lien it holds on said lands for general taxes in the same proportion that the amount of the county's lien for general taxes, due at the time such two-year period expires, bears to the amount of such municipality's lien for general taxes, due at the time said municipality acquired title to such lands, increased by the amount of general taxes which would have been due said municipality had said lands been assessed as those of an individual on the basis of its last assessed valuation upon the municipal tax roll at the annual millage rate thereafter levied until the date on which said lands are no longer subject to assessment under the provisions hereof. Provided, however, that if such proceeds are sufficient to allow payment in full of the amount of such municipality's lien for general taxes as above calculated with lawful interest thereon, and the amount which the county would have received had its taxes been redeemed on the date the two-year period expired, any excess thereafter remaining shall be first applied to payment of any special improvement lien held by the city at the time it acquired title; and, thereafter, any remainder shall be divided between the municipality and county, pro rata, in the proportion that the liens of each for general taxes bore to each other at the time such two-year period expired; provided, further, that all certificates for 1940 taxes which were sold to the state and are unredeemed shall be included in the chancery proceeding herein authorized in the year 1943, to the same effect as if the same were owned solely by the county, and the interest of the state in such taxes shall be distributed to it by the clerk when proceeds thereof are available for distribution and payment as herein provided.

194.471 County delinquent tax lands; method and procedure for sale by county. —

(1) Lands acquired prior to January 1st, 1946, by any county of the state for delinquent taxes under the provisions of chapter 22079, acts 1943 (See §194.47), and described and recorded in book designated "county lands acquired for delinquent taxes," on file in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, and which have not been previously sold or dedicated by the board of county commissioners of the county in the manner prescribed by law, may, in the discretion of the board of county commissioners, be conveyed by said board to the record fee simple owner of such lands as of the date of the final decree whereby the title to such lands became quieted in the county. Provided, however, before any such conveyance shall be made, such former owner of such lands shall file with the board of county commissioners a verified written petition, or statement, which shall show: (a) Description of the lands for which a conveyance is sought; (b) name and address of such former owner; (c) the date of the final decree under which the title to said lands was quieted in the county; (d) the price of the lands as previously fixed by resolution of the board of county commissioners if this has been done; (e) the use to which the lands were enjoyed by such former owner at the time of entry of said final decree; (f) a brief statement of the facts and circumstances upon which such former owner bases the request for restitution of the described property; (g) an offer to pay an amount equal to all taxes, including municipal taxes and liens, if any, which had become delinquent, together with interest and costs provided by law. And, in the event the described lands have not been assessed for taxes for the current year in which the petition is filed, then, and in that event, and in addition to the amounts above provided for, such offer shall also include an amount which would pay the taxes for current and omitted years, such latter amount to be determined by applicable millage for such omitted years and based on the last assessment of said described lands.

(2) Certificates of the clerk of the circuit court and of the proper municipal official having charge of the collection of municipal taxes in case the lands lie within a municipality, showing the amount of all delinquencies existing at the time the title to the lands became vested in the county and estimates of the amount of taxes which would have accrued against said lands, had title not reverted to the county, shall be attached and made a part of the petition or statement. The offer, provided for herein, shall be accompanied by cash or certified check in the amount specified in the petition.

(3) Any original application, pending in the clerk's office for the purchase of the land described in the petition, shall, upon the filing of the petition, be suspended by the clerk; and, provided the board of county commissioners accepts the offer of such former owner, any moneys deposited with the clerk by virtue of any original application to purchase, shall be refunded.

194.472 Duty of county commissioners. —

Upon the filing of the petition or statement provided for in §194.471, the board of county commissioners shall consider the same and should it appear to the satisfaction of the said board that the property constituted the homestead of the petitioner, or that the petitioner was engaged in the armed services of the United States at the time the described lands reverted to the county, or should it appear that a failure to approve said petition would work a severe hardship upon the petitioner, the said board of county commissioners in its discretion may approve or disapprove the same. The action taken by the said board shall be expressed by an appropriate resolution. In the event said petition be approved, the county, acting by and through its board of county commissioners, upon the payment of the amount named in the resolution of said board accepting the offer, is authorized and empowered to convey to the former owner named in the petition, the lands described in the petition, and to execute a proper conveyance thereof.

History.—§2, ch. 22870, 1945.

194.473 Distribution of proceeds. —Proceeds derived from the conveyance of any lands, pursuant to the provisions of this law, shall be distributed by the clerk of the circuit court to the several taxing units for which taxes were calculated and collected.

History.—§3, ch. 22870, 1945.

194.474 Prior sales confirmed. —All acts and proceedings heretofore had or taken by any court or board of county commissioners for the purpose of removing and excluding lands from county suits brought under the provisions of chapter 22079, acts of 1943, are hereby ratified, validated and confirmed.

History.—§4, ch. 22870, 1945.

194.51 Mailing notice to owners of property where county holds tax certificate. —

(1) At the time the bill of complaint is filed as provided in §194.47, the clerk of the circuit court shall mail a copy of the portion of the newspaper containing the notice, to the owner of the property therein described who claimed title thereto on the date such two-year period expired, if the name of such owner and his address appear on the tax roll for the year in which taxes were last extended upon such property, or if the name and address do not appear thereon then the notice shall be mailed to the person last paying taxes upon such lands as shown by the tax collector's receipt book. The clerk shall also mail a copy of such notice to the municipality and other taxing districts, in which the property or any portion thereof may be situated; and the clerk shall enclose with every copy mailed a statement as follows: "Warning, property in which you are interested is listed in the enclosed advertisement," and the clerk shall prepare and file in the cause a certificate that he, the clerk, did on _____ day of _____, 19____, mail a copy of the notice addressed to the several owners whose names were on such tax roll or ascertained as aforesaid, which certificate shall be signed by the clerk and his official seal affixed thereto; and such certificate shall be prima facie evidence of the fact that such notices were mailed; provided, however, that it shall not be necessary to set forth in such certificate the names of the several parties to whom each notice was mailed.

(2) The failure of the former mortgagee, owner, municipality or other taxing district to receive such notice shall not affect the sufficiency or validity of this requirement. Copy of notice referred to in this section may be sent at any time not later than fifteen days prior to the date fixed in the order to show cause provided by law.

History.—§40, ch. 20722, 1941; §17, ch. 22079, 1943.

194.53 All rights terminated upon entry of chancery decree; title from county new and original title.—Upon the entry of the decree provided in §194.47 all rights, titles, interests in or liens upon said property, including municipal taxes and liens and accrued annual assessments and liens imposed by drainage districts, with all interest, penalties, costs and charges thereon, shall be cut off and extinguished and forever declared null and void and the title to such lands when conveyed by the county shall be construed in all respects as a new, original title; and any taxes, tax liens and drainage assessments are relegated to participation in the proceeds of sale of such lands as provided in this law.

194.54 Grantee of tax deed entitled to immediate possession.—Any person, firm, corporation or county who may be the grantee of any tax deed under this law, or any county acquiring lands for delinquent taxes as herein provided, or the county's grantee of such lands upon sale as herein authorized, shall be entitled to the immediate possession of the lands described in such deed or decree, and after making demand for possession, if the same is refused, may file a petition in the circuit court for such county, and thereon obtain an order to show cause from the circuit judge, returnable in five days, directed to the person or persons so refusing to deliver possession, requiring them to show cause why writ of possession should not issue. Upon the filing of the answer to the rule to show cause, the matter shall proceed as in chancery cases. If, upon such hearing, no cause is shown, an order may issue from the circuit judge to the sheriff of the county, directing him to put the grantee in possession of such lands. The fee of the clerk for filing the petition and other pleadings aforesaid shall be two dollars and fifty cents, and the fee of the sheriff for serving the order to show cause shall be one dollar and for serving the writ of possession, one dollar, plus mileage allowances as now provided by law.

cf.—§28.241 Circuit court clerk filing fees.

194.55 Fixing valuation on land acquired by county; county may sell lands acquired for non-payment of taxes; method of sale; provisions for municipality and drainage district to participate in fixing valuations; distribution of proceeds so land may be sold free of city, county, and drainage district taxes and liens.—

(1) The board of county commissioners shall, within ninety days after the entry of decree provided in §194.47, determine the price of each parcel of such land, which price shall not be less than fifty per cent of the amount of the last assessed valuation appearing upon the county tax roll; and in performance of this duty said board of county commissioners are empowered to incur necessary expense in obtaining expert appraisals and information to assist them in determining such price, and are further authorized to include such items in their budget. Where such lands, or any part of them, are situated within the corporate limits of a municipality, the mayor or chief executive officer, the head of the legislative body and the tax assessor of such municipality, provided other officials may be designated by ordinance of the municipality to perform such duties, shall meet with the board of county commissioners and jointly agree with such board and join in the determination of the price of such lands situate within the municipality. Where such lands or any part thereof are situated within the limits of any drainage district, the governing body or such members thereof as it may designate, shall meet with the board of county commissioners and jointly agree with such board and join in the determination of the price of such lands situate within such drainage district. The fact of such meeting and the presence of such officials, shall be recorded in the minutes of the board of county commissioners. Should such municipal officers and/or such drainage district officials fail to meet with the county commissioners after due notice or if the officials and officers at such meeting fail to agree upon the price of any such lands, the price of such property shall be fixed at the minimum of fifty per cent of the last assessed valuation appearing upon the county tax roll as herein provided. Upon fixing of the price of all such lands as herein provided, the same shall be evidenced by resolution adopted by the board of county commissioners, describing separately each parcel of land, and the price fixed thereon; upon the adoption of such resolution and a certified copy thereof shall be recorded by the clerk of the circuit court in the book designated "county lands acquired for delinquent taxes," for which the clerk shall receive the recording fees provided by law, to be paid from the proceeds received from the sale of said lands.

(2) The board of county commissioners shall sell and convey such lands at public sale in the following manner: Any person desiring to purchase any parcel of said land shall deposit with the clerk of the circuit court the amount of his initial bid, which shall be not less than the price as determined by the board of county commissioners and recorded in the book marked "county lands acquired for delinquent taxes," plus the estimated cost of advertising the same for public sale, and all fees of the clerk incident thereto provided by law, and upon receipt of such deposit, the clerk of the circuit court shall immediately publish a notice in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county where the land is situated, which notice shall be published once each week for two successive weeks, two publications being sufficient, which shall notify all concerned that such land will be offered at public sale to the highest bidder for cash at the court house door in the county where the land is situated, on the day to be specified therein, which day shall be not less than fifteen days nor more than thirty days from the date of the first publication of the notice. Said sale may be held on any day of the week except Sunday, and at any time specified in the notice between the hours of 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. of said day of sale. If such lands are within the corporate limits of a municipality other than the county seat, such sale must be advertised to be held and held at the city or town hall door of such municipality if the board of county commissioners by resolution specifically so designates such place of sale. On the day and at the time and place specified in the notice the clerk of the circuit court shall offer said land at public outcry free and clear of liens held by the county and by the municipality if the lands are situated within a municipality, and free and clear of accrued annual drainage assessments, maintenance taxes and liens of any drainage district, if the lands are situated within such district, and the clerk shall sell the same to the highest bidder for cash. The amount deposited with the clerk by the person desiring to purchase the land shall be taken and considered as the first bid, and if no other bids are made, the land shall be sold to him and the amount deposited by him shall be applied on his bid. If other bids are made the land shall be sold to the highest bidder, and the successful bidder forthwith must pay the amount of his bid in cash or by cashier's check or certified check following the sale; in failure or default thereof the clerk shall re-offer the lands in the manner herein provided. The person making a deposit in order to have a parcel of land advertised for sale shall not be permitted to withdraw his bid or his deposit from the clerk unless he is not the highest bidder at the sale, in which event his deposit shall be refunded to him by the clerk. After any of the foregoing lands so acquired by the county have been available for sale for at least two years and no application to purchase same has been made, the board of county commissioners may sell and dispose of the same in any method provided by law. The clerk of the circuit court shall receive such fees for his services as are allowed by law.

(3) Upon completion of such sale the clerk of the circuit court shall prepare a deed of conveyance to the purchaser in substantially the form authorized by law, which deed shall be signed by the chairman or vice-chairman of the board of county commissioners, and attested by the clerk or deputy clerk of the circuit court under the seal of said board affixed thereto. No acknowledgement or witnesses shall be required in order to entitle said deed to record. Upon the delivery of deed to the purchaser the clerk shall make notation of the date and fact of such sale opposite the description of such lands in the resolution fixing price recorded in the book designated "county lands acquired for delinquent taxes."

(4) All conveyances shall be free and clear of all liens held by the county, and by the municipality, if the lands are situated therein, and free and clear of all accrued annual drainage assessments, maintenance taxes and liens of any drainage district if the lands are situated within a drainage district.

(5) The clerk of the circuit court shall calculate from the county tax rolls the amount of taxes due on the property at the time the title was acquired by the county, and the officials of the municipality shall calculate from the municipal tax rolls the amount of taxes due to such municipality at the time title was acquired by the county, and the officials of any drainage district, if the land lies within such a district, shall calculate the amounts due thereon for accrued annual drainage assessments, maintenance taxes and liens in accordance with the law on the date of entry of final decree quieting title in the county, and deliver official notice thereof to such clerk of the circuit court. Thereupon, the clerk of the circuit court shall first pay the expenses and costs of sale, and the fees of the county tax assessor, the county tax collector, and the clerk of the circuit court, and shall distribute the balance of the proceeds from the sale of the lands to the municipality and the county and the drainage districts, if any, ratably, in proportion to the amount of taxes, or accrued annual drainage assessments or liens so calculated to be due each, and he shall distribute the county's share in proportion to the interests of the several taxing units of the county and the funds of such units, according to millage rates in existence and use for the year in which such proceeds of sale are received and distributed, and individually held state, county or municipal tax sale certificates or individually held drainage assessment certificates, not barred by law, shall participate pro rata in such distribution in the proportion that the same bear to the total of all unpaid liens for general taxes and accrued annual drainage assessments, taxes and liens; provided, however, that in no event shall such individually held tax or drainage assessment certificate holder receive an amount in excess of that required to redeem the individual certificate on the date the county acquired title to such land. After the distribution should there remain any excess, the same shall be applied in payment of special improvement liens of the city or county, or both, ratably, and any remainder shall be distributed to the county and the municipality, if any, in the proportion that the tax lien of each as of the date of the final decree quieting title in the county bears to the total of the two.

(6) After the county acquires title to such lands as provided herein, neither the county tax assessor nor the municipal tax assessor, if such lands are situated within a municipality, shall assess the same for taxes nor extend taxes upon the rolls, during the period of time such lands are owned by the county; nor shall any drainage district, if said lands are situated within the same, impose or levy annual assessments, maintenance taxes or liens thereon during the period said lands are so owned by the county; nor shall the budget making authorities of the county or city give consideration to the valuations upon such lands in calculating millages to be levied; provided, however, such lands shall be assessed as of January 1st, of the year following such sale in the same manner as all other lands subject to taxes and/or drainage assessments are assessed as provided by law.

(7) The board of county commissioners shall have the power in their discretion to dedicate to public use and purposes any lands to which the county acquires title as aforesaid, and upon resolution of dedication being duly adopted by the board of county commissioners, such lands shall not thereafter be assessed for taxes so long as the same remain devoted to public use. The board of county commissioners shall likewise have the power to dedicate such lands to public use upon request by proper resolution from the county board of public instruction, county welfare board, or other similar public board of the county. No such lands situate within the corporate limits of any municipality or within a drainage district shall be so dedicated unless the governing body of such municipality or of the drainage district, as the case may be, shall concur in such dedication. The board of county commissioners shall have authority and power to convey any such lands to any of the foregoing public boards or political subdivisions of the county for public purpose, without consideration or public sale, upon request of such board or political subdivision evidenced by proper resolution. Any individually held tax sale certificates or drainage assessment certificates, not barred by law, outstanding at the time of such dedication or conveyance for public purposes shall be paid in full or settled and cancelled before such dedication or conveyance shall become effective.

(8) This section and §194.53 shall apply to all lands to which the several counties of Florida have acquired or hereafter may acquire title, under the provisions of §194.47, as amended.

(9) Nothing in these taxing laws as amended by chapter 22079, acts of 1943, shall be construed to affect the assessment, collection, lien or enforcement of taxes or assessments of Everglades drainage district heretofore or hereafter imposed, or to repeal any law relating thereto.

194.551 Certain valuations, conveyances validated.—

(1) All actions of the several boards of county commissioners and the city officials of the several counties and cities of the state in fixing the values of real estate which has reverted to the several counties under the provisions of chapter 20722, laws of Florida, 1941, as amended, shall be and they are hereby confirmed, ratified and validated. It is intended hereby to validate the fixing of such values against the failure to do an act required by said laws or the doing of an act at variance with the provisions of said laws.

(2) As against all former rights of the county, municipalities, individual tax certificate holders and all other persons, all conveyances of real estate which have heretofore reverted to the several counties under chapter 20722, laws of Florida, 1941, as amended, and which conveyances have heretofore been made by the several boards of county commissioners are hereby validated, confirmed and ratified as of June 13, 1949; provided, however, that this section shall not validate, ratify or confirm any such conveyances the validity of which is in litigation on June 13, 1949 or which shall be attacked in any judicial proceeding at any time within six months from June 13, 1949.

194.57 Clerk circuit court to receipt for tax certificates and receipt filed with board of county commissioners.—It shall be the duty of the tax collector to deliver to the clerk of the circuit court of the county, all certificates of sale to the county for unpaid taxes, take a receipt therefor from said clerk, and shall file such receipt of the clerk, with his report of tax sales with the board of county commissioners. Such receipt from the clerk of the circuit court shall be the board of county commissioners' authority to charge such clerk with the amount of such certificates.

194.58 Cancellation of tax sale certificates over twenty years old.—

(1) After the expiration of twenty years from the date of issuance of any tax sale certificate issued against any lands in the state, whether issued for state taxes, state and county taxes, county taxes, or issued by a municipality for municipal taxes, and held by any private holder, natural or corporate, partnership, trustee, estate of deceased person, or other person or persons under disability, or otherwise, and no application for tax deed thereon, or other administrative or legal proceeding is pending involving said tax sale certificate, the several clerks of the circuit court of the state are authorized, empowered and directed to note the cancellation by this section of such twenty year old tax sale certificate upon any and all records thereof in the office of such clerk.

(2) The several clerks of the circuit court shall accomplish such cancellation by entering opposite the record of such twenty year old tax sale certificate, a notation in substantially the following form: "Cancelled by Act 1947 Florida Legislature."

(3) Immediately upon this section taking effect, the several clerks of the circuit court shall comply with the provisions hereof as to any and all tax sale certificates which are then twenty years old or older, and thereafter shall note the cancellation of any and all other such tax sale certificates from time to time as the same come within the terms of this section.

(4) For making each cancellation and otherwise complying with law in relation thereto the clerk shall receive ten cents to be paid from the general revenue fund of the county or municipality as the case may be.

(5) This section shall take effect at 12:01 o'clock A. M., the first day of January, A. D. 1948.

History.—§§1-3a, 5, ch. 23828, 1947.

194.59 Cancellation of certain tax sale certificates.—

(1) The clerks of the circuit court of the several counties of the state are hereby authorized, empowered, and directed to note the cancellation by this section of any and all tax sale certificates issued prior to the year 1940, whether issued for state taxes, state and county taxes, or municipal taxes, and held by any private holder, natural or corporate, partnership, trustee estate of deceased person, or other person or persons under disability or otherwise, where the land covered by such tax sale certificate heretofore reverted to the state for non-payment of delinquent taxes under the provisions of §192.38 et seq.

(2) The said several clerks of the circuit court shall accomplish such cancellation by entering opposite the record of each such tax sale certificate so cancelled, a notation in substantially the following form: "Cancelled by Acts 1947 Florida Legislature."

History.—§§1-2, ch. 23832, 1947.

194.60 Sale by county of land, title to which vested in the county under tax deed.—

(1) When the title to any lands has become vested in any one of the counties of the state in pursuance of chapter 20722, acts of 1941, as amended by chapter 22079, acts of 1943, and of other acts amendatory thereof, and has remained vested in such county for a period of two years after the court's decree provided for by §13 of said chapter 22079 (which amended §36 of said chapter 20722, laws of Florida, acts of 1941, being §194.47), then the board of county commissioners of the county having title to said lands may, at its option, as exercised by the affirmative action of a majority of said board, order the sale of said lands, or any part or parcel thereof, at public outcry, to the highest cash bidder therefor.

(2) Such boards of county commissioners shall designate the parcel or parcels of land to be sold hereunder, which designation may be by reference to all remaining parcels described in a decree of the court, as above referred to, or by reference to individual and particular parcels designated by said board.

(3) After the board of county commissioners shall have ordered a sale or sales, as herein permitted, it shall be the duty of the clerk of the circuit court of such county to advertise such lands for sale prior to the sale thereof. In the event said lands shall be within the limits of a municipality, the clerk shall advertise such sales once each week for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper published in said municipality and having a general circulation in such municipality. In the event such lands are not within the boundaries of a municipality, it shall be the duty of the clerk to advertise said sales once each week for four consecutive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation of the territory in which the land to be sold is situated. Said lands so advertised shall be sold to the highest cash bidder at such sale, and the purchaser thereof shall be entitled to receive a deed of conveyance to said lands; provided, however, that such bid shall be in conformity with the minimum bid determined to be required by the board of county commissioners of the county having title to said lands.

(4) The said clerk of said court shall report to the board of county commissioners and obtain deeds of conveyance to the highest bidder or bidders for the several parcels of land offered for sale and sold, and the said clerk shall receive for his services in connection with the holding of any such sale or sales the same fee which he would have received had said sale been held and conducted in pursuance of an offer or bid made under the provisions of said chapter 22079.

(5) All moneys received from the sale of such lands shall be distributed and disbursed by the clerk as heretofore provided in existing law, or hereafter required by amendment, for the distribution of proceeds of sale of such lands when made under the provisions of §194.55. The clerk shall prepare the deeds to be executed by the board of county commissioners and shall in general perform the same duties and follow the same routine with reference to such sales as that heretofore provided in said chapter 22079, but the sale shall be without reference to any sale price or bid price theretofore fixed by the board of county commissioners (and municipal officers) as provided in said chapter.

(6) The board of county commissioners shall have the power and authority, in ordering such sales to be held, to fix minimum bids for which said lands (as to individual parcels) shall be sold hereunder, and in case there be no bidder for an amount equal to or in excess of said minimum, then the sale shall not be consummated and the title to said land or lands shall remain vested in the county.

(7) No sale shall be ordered of any lands which shall have been dedicated to public use and purposes, except and unless there shall be prior resolutions by all governing authorities having an interest in or jurisdiction over such dedicated lands, rescinding the dedication and returning said lands to the county for the purpose of county ownership and sale.

(8) This section shall be taken and deemed as remedial in purpose and cumulative in character and all laws and parts of laws in conflict herewith are hereby repealed.

History.—§§1-8, ch. 23830, 1947; §11, ch. 25035, 1949.

194.601 Corrective county deeds without consideration or further notice.—As to all lands acquired by any county of the state for delinquent taxes under the provisions of §194.47, and thereafter described and recorded in the book designated "county lands acquired for delinquent taxes" on file in the office of the clerk of the circuit court and which lands have been through the process and procedure of public notice and public sale to the highest and best bidder and a deed of conveyance issued by any county and the proceeds of said sale received by said county and where such deed of conveyance is invalid because the purchaser or one of the purchasers at said public sale and in said deed from said county was the clerk of the circuit court of said county, then in each and every such event the board of county commissioners is authorized and empowered and may in the discretion of said board convey the title to said lands to the record fee simple owners or the record grantees or successor grantees of said purchaser or purchasers from the county and execute a proper conveyance therefor without further public notice or without further consideration. This section is supplemental and in addition to all laws.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 57-827.

194.61 Return to churches of land acquired through tax foreclosure suits.—Whenever any land comprises a part of county lands acquired for delinquent taxes, the title of which land became vested in any county pursuant to the provisions of chapter 22079, acts of 1943, or any acts amendatory thereof, and such land, at the time of acquisition of title thereto by the county, was owned by an established church or by any corporation or individuals acting as trustee or trustees for such church, and also at such time was being used for church purposes, the board of county commissioners of such county may convey such land to such church or to its trustee or trustees, at private sale without the necessity of advertising, and upon such terms and conditions and for such amounts as such board may determine, without regard to the actual value of such land.

194.62 Tax sale certificates; transfers or assignments to be recorded.—

(1) No transfer or assignment of any state and county or county tax sale certificate shall be valid and binding against the state, county, clerk of the circuit court or board of county commissioners unless and until such transfer or assignment shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the land described in such tax sale certificate is situate.

(2) Persons or corporations claiming as assignees of such tax sale certificates prior to June 13, 1949, shall have sixty days after June 13, 1949, within which to record their assignments.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 25276, 1949.

194.63 Cancellation of certificates on riparian rights separate from land.—

(1) All tax sale certificates describing riparian rights, as defined by §192.61, only and separately from the land in the hands of any governmental taxing agency are hereby declared invalid and are hereby cancelled. Any title presumed to have vested in the state under chapter 18296, acts of 1937, known as the Murphy act, by virtue of such certificates is hereby declared invalid, and the riparian rights affected thereby are hereby restored to their original status and become appurtenant to the adjoining upland.

(2) The clerk of the circuit court of each county and the proper tax officer of any governmental taxing agency are hereby authorized and directed to withhold all such tax sale certificates in their hands from redemption or sale and to enter such cancellation upon the face of any such tax sale certificate and upon the tax sale record of the county or other taxing agency.

History.—§3, ch. 28262, 1953.

195.001 Railroad assessment board.—

(1) CREATION; MEMBERSHIP; ETC.—There is hereby created the railroad assessment board, which shall consist of the comptroller, who shall be chairman; the attorney general; and the state treasurer; any two of whom shall constitute a quorum. The board shall have its office in Tallahassee in rooms to be provided by the state for that purpose and all of its records shall be kept there. It shall hold meetings upon such days as may be determined by the board, and may hold special meetings upon the call of the chairman or any two members. It shall keep a complete record of all its meetings, of its acts, and of the business it transacts, and may prepare all necessary regulations and blank forms for the conduct of its business.

(2) EMPLOYMENT OF ADDITIONAL HELP BY BOARD; EXPENSES.—The board may employ from time to time such skilled assistants, clerks and employees as are necessary for the administration of this law. The board or any person employed by the board shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in §112.061 while performing duties required or performed by direction of the board.

*History.—§1, ch. 57-295.
cf.—§112.061 Travel expenses of public officers, employees, and authorized persons.*

195.01 Railroad assessment board; annual return and assessment of railroad properties; value study.—

(1) ANNUAL RETURN BY RAILROAD COMPANIES.—The president and secretary, or superintendent or manager of the railroad company or street railroad company or sleeping or parlor car company, or the tax commissioner or the receiver thereof, whose car, track or roadbed, or any part thereof is in this state, shall annually, on or before the first Monday in April, return to the railroad assessment board of the state, under their oath, the total length of such railroad, the total length and value of such main track, branch, switch and spur track, and side tracks, lots or parts of lots not leased or rented and terminal facilities, in this state, and the total length and value thereof in each county, city or incorporated town in this state as of the first day of January.

They shall also make return of the number and value of all locomotives, engines, passenger, sleeping, freight, parlor, platform, construction and other cars and appurtenances (including shop equipment and tools), stock in warehouse and other personal property used or to be used in connection with the construction, operation or maintenance of the property of the company.

(2) ASSESSMENT BY RAILROAD ASSESSMENT BOARD.—Should any such company or its officers fail to make the returns required by this law on or before the first Monday in April, when return is due, or should such return not be made, or should the railroad assessment board have reason to believe that any return so made does not give a complete and correct value of such railroad property, the railroad assessment board, after having given not less than five days notice to the person or persons making the return of the time and place of hearing, shall assess the same from the best information the board can obtain.

(3) DISTRIBUTION OF VALUE.—The railroad assessment board shall specify the value of such railroad in each county, and the value of the locomotives, engines, passenger, sleeping, parlor, freight, platform, construction and other cars and appurtenances shall be apportioned by the board, pro rata to each mile of main track, branch, switch, spur track and side track.

(4) NOTIFICATION OF VALUE TO COUNTY ASSESSOR.—The board shall notify the county assessor of taxes of each county through which such railroad runs of the number of miles of track and the value thereof, and the proportionate value of the personal property taxable in their respective counties, special school districts, special road districts, and other special districts that may exist.

(5) NOTIFICATION OF INCORPORATED CITIES AND TOWNS.—The board shall notify each incorporated city and town into which said railroad runs, of the mileage, apportionment of rolling stock, and other property of said railroad within such city or town, and the value thereof shall be assessed by such city or town as provided by law, and upon the value thus ascertained and apportioned, taxes shall be assessed the same as upon the property of individuals.

(6) BOARD TO MAKE STUDIES.—The railroad assessment board is hereby authorized and empowered to make, or cause to be made, such studies and research of the value of railroads operating in Florida, and of railroad operating property located in Florida, and of the values and assessments of other properties locally assessed by the several counties of the state, and the board shall use such information and data to the extent necessary and requisite for the proper and equitable administration of this law. All such studies, research, data and information compiled or acquired by the board pursuant to this law, shall be kept by the board in permanent form and shall be available for inspection to all interested persons, at reasonable times at the offices of the board. The board may, in its discretion, make copies of any such studies, data or information so obtained and distribute the same to interested parties. Such studies, research or other investigations made by the board pursuant hereto, may be continued, renewed or supplemented from time to time, as the board may direct or determine, in order to secure to the board current and accurate information upon which to discharge its duties under this law.

195.02 Assessment of railway line across bay, bayou, lake, or river of length over four miles.—The assessment for taxation per mile of any part of any railroad or railway line within the state of any common carrier which may be constructed and maintained along, over or across any bay, bayou, lake or river of a length of four miles or more, including the approaches thereto, whether constructed and maintained in connection with a toll bridge or other bridge for the passage of pedestrians and vehicles or without, shall not exceed the average per mile assessment for taxation of such railroad or railway line located on land, nor shall the assessment per mile of the entire railroad or railway line of any such common carrier within the state be increased by reason of the construction and maintenance of any part thereof upon or with or by means of any such railway trestle or bridge along, over or across any such bay, bayou, lake or river, notwithstanding the extra or disproportionate expense of the construction thereof, above and beyond the expense of construction of such railway line upon land.

195.03 Assessment of telegraph lines.—Every telegraph line in this state shall be returned and assessed in the manner as is provided by this chapter for the assessment of railroads, and in case of failure to pay the taxes assessed, the entire line of telegraphs of this state and all of its properties, rights and franchises, or any property belonging to the same company, person or persons, may be sold in the same manner as is provided for the sale of the railroads or any of its property upon which any tax shall be due and not paid.

195.04 Comptroller to make return of side tracks and spurs.—The comptroller of this state on or before the first Monday in April of each year shall forward to the tax assessor of each county in this state a full description of all side tracks and spurs returned for taxation by the different railroad companies in the respective counties; and respective tax assessors shall examine the report of the comptroller of the state so sent to him, and if there be any railroad spurs or side tracks in his county which are not embraced in the returns made to the comptroller of the state, then the said tax assessor shall proceed to assess the same to the rightful owner, if known, or if not known, as "unknown," and enter the said assessment on his assessment book as personal property.

History.—§1, ch. 4665, 1899; GS 551; RGS 750; CGL 963.

195.05 Tax collectors to collect tax on railroad spurs and side tracks.—The tax collectors of the various counties in this state shall collect the taxes so assessed on railroad spurs and side tracks by the county tax assessor as other personal tax is collected; provided, however, no assessment shall be made by the county tax assessor, or tax collected by the county tax collectors, on railroad side tracks or spurs which have been assessed and taxes collected on by the comptroller.

History.—§2, ch. 4665, 1899; GS 552; RGS 751; CGL 964.

195.06 Certifying unpaid taxes on railroads to comptroller.—If any taxes on any railroad or any part thereof in this state shall not be paid on or before April first of any year, the tax collector of any county wherein such taxes may be due shall send a certificate of the amount thereof to the comptroller, including in said certificate the amount of state taxes, county taxes, and special school district taxes and all other special taxes of every kind and nature appearing on the tax roll, together with all costs. The certificate shall bear the date of the first of April of the year in which it is issued. Taxes on any railroad or any part thereof in this state, if not paid, shall become delinquent on the first of April following the year in which said taxes are levied and assessed. All such unpaid taxes on real estate which shall become delinquent hereafter shall bear interest from the date they become delinquent at the rate of eighteen per centum per annum for the first year and eight per centum per annum thereafter, and all such delinquent taxes on personal property which shall become delinquent hereafter, shall bear interest at the rate of one per centum per month from the date said taxes become due until the same shall be paid.

195.07 Collection of taxes from defaulting railroads.—

(1) The comptroller shall have the power upon the receipt of the certificate or certificates from the tax collectors as aforesaid to issue a warrant directed to the sheriff of any county where such defaulting railroad or any part thereof may be located, commanding him to collect by levy and sale, in the same manner as is now provided by law for the sale of property under execution from the clerk of the circuit court, of the shops, fixtures, rolling stock or any part thereof as may be located in this state, the full amount of taxes and interest due thereon, or of the entire road or such part thereof, including the costs and expenses of the sale, and the proceeds of such sale, after deducting the fees and costs as provided by law, shall be forwarded by such sheriff to the comptroller, who shall pay the county taxes and district school taxes and other special taxes and interest thereon to the county depository of each county in which such taxes were assessed, according to the assessment, and the board of county commissioners and the county school board of such county shall thereupon pay the county tax collector the fee or commission allowed him by law for payment of other delinquent taxes, and the surplus after such payments are made, if any, shall be paid over to the authorities of such defaulting railroad.

(2) Nothing in §195.06 and this section shall be construed to apply to railroad taxes already assessed and which are the subject of pending litigation.

History.—§48, ch. 4322, 1895; §9, ch. 4515, 1897; §4, ch. 4885, 1901; GS 555; §48, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 753; CGL 966; §2, ch. 20725, 1941. §1, ch. 26956, 1951.

195.08 Fees of sheriff in collecting taxes from defaulting railroads; cost added to taxes; sale of properties for taxes.—The fees of the sheriff in the execution of the warrant provided for in §195.07 shall be the same as provided by law in the case of executions from the clerk of the circuit court, which fees, together with the costs, shall be included with the taxes in the amount to be collected from the defaulting railroad; provided, further, that whenever any person shall become the purchaser of any car, engine or other rolling stock of any such company or corporation at any such sale, such purchaser may require of any such company or corporation the transportation of any car, engine or other rolling stock to any point along the line of such railroad at a cost of not to exceed eight cents per mile, and that the sheriff shall take corporal possession of the property levied on under this section, and on selling the same, or any part thereof, shall deliver it into the actual possession of the purchaser upon his paying the amount bid therefor at such sale, and in case no person shall bid the amount of taxes due, including the costs and expenses of sale, the property shall be bid off for the comptroller of the state, and shall be delivered to the comptroller, and the governor and comptroller shall dispose of, sell and convey the same in such manner as in their judgment may be to the interest of the State. The provisions of this section, in so far as they relate to the sale of railroads for unpaid taxes, shall apply to all taxes assessed heretofore or that may be hereafter assessed.

History.—§48, ch. 4322, 1895; §9, ch. 4515, 1897; §4, ch. 4885, 1901; GS 556; §48, ch. 5596, 1907; RGS 754; CGL 967.

195.09 Return of lands owned by railroad companies; failure to make return.—The president, secretary, superintendent, manager or agent of any railroad company, or receiver of any railroad, owning land or any other real estate in any county in this state, shall make out and deliver to the county assessor of taxes on or before the first Monday in March in each year, of each county where the property is situated, a full and complete list of all lands or lots owned or held by them, the same as the property of individuals, and should any railroad company fail to return their real property as required by this chapter the county assessor of taxes shall ascertain and assess the same as in cases of individual property.

195.10 License taxes against railroads; distribution.—Any railroad company doing business in this state shall pay annually on the first day of October, to the comptroller of the state, a sum equal to ten dollars per mile for each and every mile of its railroad tracks in this state, including branches, switches, spurs and side tracks, as shown by the last assessment of the said railroad company for property taxation, as a license tax, one-half of which amount shall be paid into the state treasury and one-half of which amount shall be distributed by the comptroller to the various counties in which such railroad may be located, in proportion to the amount of railroad trackage in each county, which license tax shall be in lieu of all other state and county license taxes on said railroad companies.

195.11 License taxes against railroads in municipalities.—Any city or town hereinafter described may impose upon any railroad company whose tracks extend into or through its corporate limits, a license tax not exceeding the sum as follows:

In municipalities of twenty thousand inhabitants or more, a license tax of two hundred and fifty dollars.

In municipalities of less than twenty thousand and more than fifteen thousand inhabitants, a license tax of one hundred and fifty dollars.

In municipalities of fifteen thousand and more than ten thousand inhabitants, a license tax of one hundred dollars.

In municipalities of ten thousand and more than five thousand inhabitants, a license tax of seventy-five dollars.

In municipalities of five thousand and more than three thousand inhabitants, a license tax of fifty dollars.

In municipalities of three thousand and more than one thousand inhabitants, a license tax of twenty-five dollars.

In municipalities of one thousand and more than five hundred inhabitants, a license tax of fifteen dollars.

In municipalities of five hundred inhabitants or less, a license tax of ten dollars.

History.—§43, ch. 6421, 1913; RGS 966; CGL 1238.

195.12 License taxes against street railways, etc.—Street railways in cities of twenty thousand population or more, shall pay an annual license tax of fifteen dollars per mile, and in cities and towns having a population of less than twenty thousand, shall pay a license tax of seven dollars and fifty cents per mile, and suburban and interurban railways propelled by electricity or gas, shall pay an annual license tax of five dollars per mile.

History.—§43, ch. 6421, 1913; RGS 966; CGL 1238.

195.13 Gross receipts taxes against express companies; reports; penalties; distribution.—Every express company doing business in this state shall annually, on the first day of October, make a report under oath to the comptroller of the state of the total amount of gross receipts derived from business done between points in this state during the year ending June 30th, next preceding the first day of October and shall at the same time pay to the comptroller a sum equal to two per cent upon the total amount of such gross receipts, and if any such company shall fail to make such report and payment to the comptroller as herein provided, on or before the first day of November of any year, the comptroller shall, after having given at least five days' notice to an official or representative of the company located in this state, estimate the amount of such gross receipts from such information as he may be able to obtain, and shall add ten per cent to the amount of such taxes as a penalty for the failure of such company to make report, and shall proceed to collect such tax, together with all costs and penalties thereon, the same as delinquent railroad taxes are collected; provided, that no penalty shall be added if a return is made and the amount due paid to the comptroller before the expiration of the time stated in the notice required to be given by this section.

Of the sum paid to the comptroller, as provided by this section, one-half shall be distributed by the said comptroller among the various counties of this state in proportion to the assessed valuation thereof as shown by the assessment of the previous year, and the remaining one-half shall immediately be turned over to the treasury of the state as license money.

History.—§22, ch. 6421, 1913; RGS 889; §1, ch. 8556, 1921; CGL 1145.

195.14 License taxes against express companies in municipalities.—Any city or town in the state may impose upon any express company doing business in this state, having an office in such city or town, a license tax not to exceed the sum hereinafter mentioned, namely:

In cities of twenty thousand inhabitants or more, two hundred dollars.

In cities of less than twenty thousand and more than fifteen thousand inhabitants, one hundred dollars.

In cities of fifteen thousand and more than ten thousand inhabitants, seventy-five dollars.

In cities and towns of ten thousand and more than five thousand inhabitants, fifty dollars.

In cities and towns of five thousand and more than three thousand inhabitants, thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents.

In cities and towns of three thousand and more than one thousand inhabitants, twenty-five dollars.

In towns and villages of one thousand and more than five hundred inhabitants, twelve dollars and fifty cents.

In towns and villages of five hundred and more than two hundred and fifty inhabitants, six dollars.

History.—§22, ch. 6421, 1913; RGS 889; §1, ch. 8556, 1921; CGL 1145.

195.15 License taxes against sleeping and parlor car companies; no municipal tax.—Sleeping and parlor car companies operating any such cars on or over any railroads or any part of said railroads in this state, shall on the first day of October of each year, pay to the comptroller a license tax of five thousand five hundred dollars, which shall be paid into the state treasury by the comptroller to the credit of the general revenue fund; provided, that no other county or municipal license taxes shall be required of any such company under this section.

195.16 Gross receipts taxes against sleeping and parlor car companies; penalties.—All sleeping and parlor car companies operating their cars in this state shall annually on or before the first day of January, report to the comptroller of the state, under oath of the secretary or other officer of such company, the total amount of their gross receipts derived from business done between points in this state, and at the same time shall pay into the state treasury the sum of one dollar and fifty cents upon each one hundred dollars of such gross receipts, and if any such company shall fail to make such report to the comptroller and pay the tax thereon as herein provided, the comptroller shall, after having given at least five days' notice to an official or representative of the company located in this state, estimate the amount of such gross receipts from such information as he may be able to obtain, and shall add ten per cent to the amount of such taxes as a penalty for the failure of such company to make report, and shall proceed to collect such tax, together with all costs and penalties thereon, the same as other delinquent taxes are collected; provided, that no penalty shall be added if a return is made and the amount due paid to the state treasurer before the expiration of the time stated in the notice required to be given by this section.

195.17 Failure of express company to pay gross receipts and license tax.—The superintendent of any express company violating the provisions of §§195.13 and 195.14, and any person who acts as agent for any express company before it has paid the tax as provided in §§195.13 and 195.14 payable by said company shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished, respectively, by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months.

cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

195.18 Failure of sleeping and parlor car companies to pay license tax.—The superintendent of any sleeping or parlor car company violating the provisions of §§195.15 and 195.16, and any person who acts as agent for any such company before it has paid the license tax as provided by §§195.15 and 195.16 shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof shall be punished, respectively, by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not more than six months.

- 196.21 Murphy act lands; courts having jurisdiction.

196.01 Chancery jurisdiction in tax matters.—Courts of chancery in this state shall have jurisdiction in all cases involving the legality of any tax, assessment or toll, and shall inquire into and determine the legality, equality and validity of the same under the constitution and laws of Florida, and shall render decrees setting aside such tax, assessment or toll, or any part of the same, that shall appear to be contrary to law, provided that the complainant shall in every case tender into court and file with the complaint the full amount of any such tax, assessment or toll which he shall admit to be legal and due by him, or file with the complaint a receipt showing payment of the same prior to the institution of the suit.

History.—§1, ch. 8586, 1921; CGL 1038; §2, ch. 29737, 1955.

196.02 Injunction against tax sales.—In any such cases, the court may issue injunctions to restrain the sale of real or personal property for any tax, assessment or toll which shall appear to be contrary to law or equity, and in no case shall any complaint be dismissed because the tax assessment or toll complained of, or the injunction asked for, involves personal property only.

History.—§2, ch. 8586, 1921; CGL 1039.

196.03 Injunction proceedings; parties.—The only necessary party defendant to any such suit shall be the person whose duty it shall be to collect or enforce the collection of the tax, assessment or toll complained of, and service upon such person shall be deemed binding upon the county, state or municipality for whose benefit the tax, assessment or toll was levied, but any officer or other person interested may intervene and defend the same upon application to the court.

History.—§3, ch. 8586, 1921; CGL 1040.

196.04 Injunction proceedings; comptroller a party.—No suit or proceeding shall be maintained in any court of this state for the purpose of canceling or contesting the validity of any tax certificate held by the state unless the comptroller of the state be made a party to such proceeding.

History.—§1, ch. 7932, 1919; CGL 1007.

196.05 Cancellation; condition precedent.—No decree shall be made by any court in a suit brought by or on behalf of any land owner to enjoin any tax sale or to set aside or cancel any tax certificate in the state until such owner shall have paid to the tax collector of the county where the property is assessable the full amount of the taxes which could have been lawfully assessed against the property involved for the period covered by the assessment complained of, whether such real estate shall have been returned for assessment by the owner thereof or not. In all such cases the court shall ascertain and determine and by decree fix the amount of such tax to be paid by the owner.

History.—§2, ch. 10023, 1925; CGL 1008.

196.06 Limitations upon recovery of land in possession of tax deed holder.—When the holder of a tax deed goes into actual possession, occupancy and use of the land embraced in such tax deed, and so continues for a period of four years, no suit for the recovery of the possession thereof shall be brought by a former owner or other adverse claimant, unless such suit be commenced within, or prior to, the said period of four years after the holder under such tax deed has entered into the actual possession, occupancy and use of the land embraced in said tax deed; and the holder of such tax deed, where the said real estate is in adverse actual possession, occupancy and use of any person, shall not be entitled to recover possession of such real estate under such tax deed, unless suit for such recovery shall be brought within four years from the date of such tax deed; provided, however, that infants, persons of unsound mind or under guardianship or imprisonment may commence suit or proceedings under this section within three years after the recovery or discontinuance of such disability.

196.07 Party recovering land must refund taxes paid and interest, and for expenses and improvements.—

(1) If in any suit at law or in equity involving the validity of any tax deed it shall be held by the court that said tax deed was invalid at the time of its issuance and that title to the land therein described did not vest in the tax deed holder, then, if the taxes for which said land was sold and upon which said tax deed was issued had not been paid prior to issuance of such deed, the party in whose favor the judgment or decree in such suit shall be entered shall pay to the party against whom such judgment or decree shall be entered the amount paid for such tax deed and all taxes paid upon said land, together with eight per cent interest thereon per annum from the date of the issuance of said tax deed and all legal expenses in obtaining said tax deed, including publication of notice and clerk's fees for issuing and recording such tax deed, also the fair cash value of all permanent improvements made upon said land by the holders under the tax deed. The amount of such expenses and the fair cash value of improvements, as aforesaid, shall be ascertained and found upon the trial of the suit, and such tax deed holder or anyone holding thereunder shall have a prior lien upon said land for the payment of said sums of money in full.

(2) After January 1, 1948, the provisions of this section shall apply to any deed heretofore or hereafter executed pursuant to any tax foreclosure or tax forfeiture to satisfy a tax lien and to any deed executed by the state, county, municipality or other subordinate taxing unit conveying or purporting to convey any real estate, title to which is claimed pursuant to any tax foreclosure, tax forfeiture, or any other proceeding to satisfy a tax lien, in the same manner and to the same extent as this section applies to a tax deed.

(3) The provisions herein are declared to be supplemental and in addition to any other laws now existing.

196.08 State as party to municipal tax foreclosure.—In any suit in equity brought by any county, city, village or town of this state for the purpose of consummating the enforcement in tax lien foreclosure proceedings of its tax or assessment liens, whether such liens be evidenced by taxes or assessments duly levied and assessed upon the tax assessment roll or by tax certificates or tax deeds owned and held by it, against property located therein, the state may be made a party defendant in such proceedings for the purpose of adjudicating therein its tax liens against said property and receiving from the proceeds of any foreclosure sale in such proceedings its proper and proportionate share of such proceeds in satisfaction of its said tax liens so adjudicated; and the state does hereby give its consent to be sued and made a party defendant in such suits for such purpose. In any such suit in equity, brought by a city, village or town, the county and any taxing district, having tax or assessment liens against the property involved, may likewise be made a party defendant for the purpose of adjudicating and satisfying such liens therein.

All suits to which the state is made a party defendant under the provisions of this section shall be cognizable only in the courts of the state. Such suits shall be brought in the county where the property involved in such foreclosure proceedings is located. Process against the state in such suits shall be served upon the comptroller of the state; and process against the county and taxing districts shall be served as now or hereafter provided by law for service of process on the county and taxing districts.

In such suits the attorney of record for the county shall represent the interest of the state and county; and the city, village or town and the county, whether party plaintiff or defendant, shall be entitled to recover reasonable fees for the services of their respective attorneys therein, as allowed and apportioned by the court, which shall be a lien against the property involved, and payable from the proceeds of the sale thereof.

196.09 Limitations where grantee of tax deed has paid taxes for twenty years.—Wherever a tax deed has been issued by the state, conveying or attempting to convey the title to any real estate in the state, by reason of the nonpayment of the taxes thereon, no action shall be brought by the former owner thereof, or by any person claiming by, through or under him, against the grantee in said tax deed, his heirs, devisees or assigns, where the grantee or his heirs, devisees or assigns have paid the taxes assessed against the lands described in the said tax deed for a period of twenty successive years, at any time after the issuance of said tax deed, but the grantee in said tax deed, his heirs, devisees or assigns, may, at his option, file a suit in equity to quiet the title to the lands described in said tax deed, and no defense to said suit, nor attack upon said tax deed shall be made, except to show that the taxes assessed against the premises described in said tax deed, and for the nonpayment of which, said tax deed was issued, had been paid before the execution and issuance thereof, by the former owner.

History.—§1, ch. 12407, 1927; CGL 1021; am. §7, ch. 22858, 1945; §2, ch. 29737, 1955.

196.10 Limitations where patent not issued prior to assessment, etc.—Where a tax deed has heretofore been or may hereafter be issued by the state, conveying or attempting to convey real estate for the nonpayment of taxes thereon before a patent has been issued thereon by the United States government, or before a deed of conveyance has been issued thereon by the state, conveying said premises to any person whomsoever, and thereafter a patent by the United States government or a deed of conveyance by the state has been issued thereon to the party to whom the land was assessed, or to his heirs, devisees or assigns, and the grantee in the tax deed, his heirs, devisees or assigns have continued to pay the taxes thereof for twenty successive years at any time after the issuance of a patent by the United States government, or a conveyance by the state, then it shall be presumed that the patentee, or those claiming by or through him, or the grantee in a conveyance from the state, or those claiming through him, have abandoned the land and all their right, title, interest and claim thereto, and that the grantee in the tax deed, his heirs, devisees or assigns are the legal owners of the land conveyed or attempted to be conveyed by the said tax deed, and he, or they or any of them, may, at their option, file a suit in equity to quiet the title thereto, and no defense shall be made thereto, by reason of the assessment of the land, or the issuance of the tax deed before the United States government or the state have parted title therewith; and no attack shall be made on said tax deed; save only that the taxes, by reason whereof the tax deed was issued, had been paid by the party or his successors or assigns, to whom the United States patent or the conveyance from the state was issued before the issuance of the said tax deed.

196.11 Application of §§196.09 and 196.10.—The provisions of §§196.09 and 196.10 shall apply whether there has or has not been any actual possession of said premises described in the tax deed by the grantee in the tax deed, his heirs, devisees or assigns, except that if a tax deed has been issued, conveying or attempting to convey real estate in the actual possession of a legal owner thereof, and the legal owner, his heirs, devisees or assigns, continue in the possession thereof for a period of one year after the issuance of the tax deed, before any action at law or proceeding in equity is commenced to dispossess the party or parties in possession, then the provisions of said sections shall not apply. Said sections shall be construed to be prospective, retroactive and cumulative of the rights and benefits of grantees under tax deed and of those claiming under them; provided, said sections shall not apply to infants, persons non compos mentis, or under other disability to maintain suit until one year after the removal of such disability.

History.—§§3-5, ch. 12407, 1927; CGL 1023-1025.

196.12 Limitation upon lien of tax certificates.—A period of twenty years is declared to be the life of any tax certificate issued against any lands in the state, whether issued for state and county taxes or issued by a municipality for municipal taxes, and held by any private holder, natural or corporate, partnership, trustee, estate of deceased person, or other person or persons under disability, or otherwise, such period of twenty years to be reckoned from the date of the issuance of such tax certificate; and when such certificate becomes twenty years old, reckoned from the date of its issuance, the same shall be deemed and held to be barred by this statute of limitation, and no action on such certificate shall be maintained by any such private holder in any court of this state, and no tax deed shall issue thereof. This section shall not be construed so as to make it unlawful for the state or any municipality to sell, to third persons or private purchasers, tax certificates which become twenty years old after the effective date of chapter 19515, acts 1939, but as to all such tax certificates which are so sold and which become twenty years old after said act became a law, and as to all tax certificates, now held by the state or any municipality, which are already twenty years old, and which may be sold, the purchaser or purchasers shall be limited to five years from the date of purchase of such certificate or certificates in which to apply for a tax deed or institute other action for recovery on or enforcement of such certificate or certificates.

The provisions and the limitations herein prescribed for tax certificates shall not apply to tax certificates which were sold under the provisions of chapter 18296, acts 1937, commonly known as the Murphy act.

196.13 Parties in suits relating to distribution, etc., of funds to counties, etc.—No court shall hereafter enter any interlocutory or final order, decree or judgment in any case involving the validity or constitutionality of any law relating to the distribution, apportionment or allocation of any state excise or other taxes equally to the several counties in this state under such law, until it shall be made to appear of record in the case that the party to the cause seeking such order, decree or judgment has duly served upon the chairman of the board of county commissioners or the chairman of the board of public instruction of each of the counties of this state or upon both such chairman or said boards, depending upon whether one or both of said boards has an interest in the subject matter, written notice of the pendency of the case and thereafter of all hearings of all applications or motions for such orders, decrees or judgments in such cases, at least five days before all hearings, and such notice shall state the time, place and date of each such hearing and adjournments thereof, and shall be accompanied by copy of the complaint and petition, motion or application for any such order, decree, or judgment and the exhibits thereto attached, if any; and upon such service such boards of such counties having an interest in the subject matter of the case shall forthwith be and become parties to the cause, and shall be by order of the court properly aligned as parties plaintiff or defendant.

196.14 Comptroller party to suit to cancel tax assessment and tax certificate.—No suit or proceeding shall be maintained in any court of this state for the purpose of canceling or contesting the validity of any tax assessment or tax certificate unless the comptroller of the state be made a party to such proceedings. All such suits shall be brought in the county where the land is situated and the attorney for the board of county commissioners of such county shall represent the comptroller in any such suit or proceeding, for which he shall receive no additional compensation other than as paid him by the county.

196.15 Payment of back taxes as condition precedent to cancellation of tax certificates held by county.—No decree shall be made by any court in a suit brought by or on behalf of any land owner to enjoin any tax sale or to set aside or cancel any tax certificate held by any county in the state until such owner shall have paid to the tax collector of the county where the property is assessable the full amount of the taxes which could have been lawfully assessed against the property involved for the period covered by the assessment complained of, whether such real estate shall have been returned for assessment by the owner thereof or not. In all such cases the court shall ascertain and determine and by decree fix the amount of such tax to be paid by the owner.

History.—§52, ch. 20722, 1941; §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

196.16 Authority to bring and maintain suits.—The comptroller shall have authority to bring and maintain such actions at law or in equity by mandamus or injunction, or otherwise, to enforce the performance of any duties of any officer or official performing duties with relation to the execution of the tax laws of the state, or to enforce obedience to any lawful order, rule, regulation or decision of the comptroller lawfully made under the authority of these tax laws.

History.—§55, ch. 20722, 1941.

196.17 Murphy act lands; municipal foreclosures against.—Suits in equity, by proceedings in personam or in the nature of proceedings in rem, may be brought by any city, village or town of this state as plaintiff, for the purpose of consummating the enforcement and satisfaction of its tax or assessment liens, whether such liens be evidenced by taxes or assessments duly levied and assessed upon the tax assessment roll or by tax certificates owned and held by it, against property located therein, the fee simple title to which vested in and is held by the state under the provisions of chapter 18296, acts of 1937 (§192.38) and the state may be made a party defendant in such proceedings, and the state does hereby give its consent to be sued and made a party defendant in any such suit. The former owner, or owners, of said property, anyone claiming by, through or under him or them, anyone claiming a lien thereon, or any taxing district, having tax or assessment liens against the property involved, may also be made a party defendant in any such suit.

196.18 Murphy act lands; pleadings.—In all such suits, if it shall affirmatively appear to the court that the title to the property involved therein is vested in the state, and that the plaintiff has delinquent tax or assessment liens thereon, the court shall order and decree that said property be sold at public sale to the highest and best bidder for cash, on a legal sales day within the legal hours of sale, at the court house door of the county, or the city hall door of any city, village or town, in which said property is situated, by a special master named by the court, after notice of such sale, designating the place of said sale, shall have been published once at least seven days prior thereto in a newspaper qualified to publish legal advertisements in said county. The court shall confirm said special master's sale of said property and order him to convey it to the purchaser in the event the sale price is equal to not less than thirty per centum of the valuation of said property as assessed on the 1932 state and county tax assessment roll, which valuation shall be reported to the court by the special master in his report of sale; provided, however, that the court may confirm said sale and order said property conveyed to the purchaser for a sale price less than the foregoing should the special master report to the court that he believes that said sale price is the highest and best bid for cash that it is possible to obtain for said property at public sale. If any sale is rejected by the court, then, upon application of the plaintiff at any time, the court shall order a resale of the property upon such terms and conditions as to the court may seem meet and proper.

History.—§2, ch. 21896, 1943; §1, ch. 24343, 1947.

196.19 Murphy act lands; distribution of proceeds.—The order confirming a sale of property in any such suit shall provide for the distribution of the proceeds of sale as follows: First, the costs, exclusive of attorney's fees, shall be paid, and the fees of the clerk of the circuit court shall be limited to suit fees; second, the plaintiff shall be allowed and paid twenty per cent of the balance as fees for the services of its attorney in said suit; and third, of the balance then remaining, forty per cent shall be distributed and paid to the state and sixty per cent shall be distributed and paid to the plaintiff, except that whenever any taxing district is made a party defendant in said suit and is adjudged therein to have tax or assessment liens against the property involved, thirty-five per cent shall be distributed and paid to the state, fifty-five per cent shall be distributed and paid to the plaintiff, and ten per cent shall be distributed and paid to said taxing district, and if more than one of such taxing districts are defendants then said ten per cent shall be distributed and paid to them in equal parts. Such sale and the confirmation thereof shall satisfy, discharge and extinguish all claims, rights and interests of the state and all liens of the city, village or town, or taxing districts in said proceedings, in, to or upon the property involved therein, and the special master's deed in said proceedings shall vest the purchaser with a fee simple title thereto, free and clear of all claims, rights, interests and liens of the state, the city, village or town, and the taxing districts in said proceedings. The proceeds received by the state in such proceedings shall be disposed of in the manner then provided by law for the disposition of the proceeds derived from the sales by the state of lands the fee simple title to which vested in the state under the provisions of chapter 18296, acts of 1937 (§192.38).

196.20 Murphy act lands; rights foreclosed.—Whenever, in any such suit, the owner or owners, prior to the state, of the property involved therein, or anyone claiming by, through or under said previous owner or owners, or anyone claiming a lien thereon, are parties defendant, the court may adjudicate and decree that they, or any of them, have no right, title, interest, claim or demand in or to said property, and that they, or any of them, are forever barred from making any such assertion.

History.—§4, ch. 21896, 1943.

196.21 Murphy act lands; courts having jurisdiction.—All suits to which the state is made a party defendant under the provisions of this law shall be cognizable only in the courts of the state. Such suits shall be brought in the county where the property involved in such proceedings is located. Process against the state in such suits shall be served upon the comptroller of the state; and process against the taxing districts shall be served as now or hereafter provided by law for service of process on taxing districts. In such suits it shall be the duty of the attorney general of the state to represent the state.

History.—§5, ch. 21896, 1943.

CHAPTER 197

TAX COLLECTION AGENCIES

- 197.01 Definitions.
 197.02 Unlawful to conduct agency without complying with this chapter.
 197.03 Licenses.
 197.04 Stationery to show "Licensed tax collection agency."

197.01 Definitions.—A "tax collection agency" is any person who shall collect, pay or offer to collect or pay the taxes or special assessments of another, levied by the state or any of its subdivisions or municipalities, for or in expectation of a commission, compensation or valuable consideration; provided, however, this definition shall not include any person regularly employed by the taxpayers for that and other purposes or an attorney at law in the exercise of his duties as such or any official or person employed by the state or any of its subdivisions or municipalities for the purpose of enforcing the tax law.

History.—§2, ch. 12414, 1927; CGL 1337.

197.02 Unlawful to conduct agency without complying with this chapter.—No person may act as or conduct a tax collection agency without first complying with the provisions of this chapter.

History.—§1, ch. 12414, 1927; CGL 1336.

197.03 Licenses.—Every tax collection agency shall annually apply for and receive, a license from the county judge of every county wherein such tax collection agency shall propose to pay taxes for others, and pay therefor a state tax of fifty dollars and a county tax of twenty-five dollars, which license may be denied for cause or revoked by said judge by proceedings in the nature of scire facias, for a violation of this chapter. Such license shall expire on the 30th day of September next after its issuance.

History.—§3, ch. 12414, 1927; CGL 1338.

197.04 Stationery to show "Licensed tax collection agency."—Every tax collection agency which shall send or deliver any notice, letter, or receipt, to any taxpayer within or without the state, regarding the collection or payment of taxes, shall cause to be distinctly written or printed thereon the words, "licensed tax collection agency," together with the business address of such tax collection agency.

History.—§4, ch. 12414, 1927; CGL 1339.

197.05 Notices.—Every tax collection agency which shall send or deliver any notice of taxes due or any receipt for taxes, to any taxpayer, shall note thereon the amount of tax and penalty due or paid to each of the several taxing authorities separately, the legal description of the property covered by the tax items, and shall indicate in a separate item the charge made by such agency for services. Should there be any town, city or drainage taxes, or special assessments due, but unpaid, the fact shall be noted on such notice or receipt.

History.—§5, ch. 12414, 1927; CGL 1340.

197.06 Bond of agency.—Before granting any license, or renewal thereof, under this chapter, the county judge shall require such tax collection agency to give bond, with sufficient sureties approved by said judge, in the sum of ten thousand dollars, payable to the state, for the use of any person damaged by reason of the unlawful act, fraud, neglect or embezzlement of such tax collection agency, its members, officers or agents, said bond to be conditioned that said tax collection agency shall comply with the provisions of this chapter, faithfully account for all moneys coming into its hands, and use ordinary care in correctly informing persons with whom it deals of and concerning taxes levied against them. Any person who shall be damaged by reason of the unlawful acts, fraud, neglect or embezzlement of said tax collection agency may bring an action on said bond in its name against the principal and sureties therein.

History.—§6, ch. 12414, 1927; CGL 1341.

197.07 Payment of taxes within five days.—Whenever any tax collection agency shall receive and accept from any taxpayer any moneys for the purpose of paying taxes, said tax collection agency shall pay over said moneys to the proper tax collection authorities of the state, its subdivisions and municipalities, within five days after its receipt, and upon a failure to do so, said tax collection agency and its sureties on the bond herein prescribed shall be liable to said taxpayer, in a civil action, for the principal sum and interest so paid and received, together with all tax penalties thereafter accruing, and interest thereon, costs and damages.

History.—§7, ch. 12414, 1927; CGL 1342.

197.08 Penalties.—Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of §§197.01-197.07 shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for each offense.

197.09 Embezzlement by tax collection agency.—Any person who, whether as an individual, or as an officer, agent, or manager of tax collection agency, shall receive or collect any money from any taxpayer, upon the representation, promise, or for the purpose of the payment of any taxes, and for which a commission, compensation or valuable consideration is collected or expected, and who shall convert or embezzle said money to his own use, or to the use of some person other than the taxpayer, or the proper tax officials, or who shall fail to pay over said money to the proper tax official or to the taxpayer, upon demand, with an intent to deprive the taxpayer of said money, or the benefit thereof, shall be guilty of embezzlement, and shall, upon conviction, be punished as if he had been convicted of larceny; provided, that for the purposes of this chapter, said person shall be deemed to have received and collected said money when any check, draft, exchange or other commonly recognized medium of payment shall be cashed, negotiated or deposited in a bank by said person, unless said check, draft or exchange shall be later dishonored by the person or bank upon which it is drawn.

198.01 Definitions.—When used in this chapter the term, phrase or word:

(1) "Commissioner" means the comptroller of the state, as commissioner of revenue.

(2) "Executor" means the executor, administrator or curator of the decedent, or, if there is no executor, administrator or curator appointed, qualified and acting, then any person who is in the actual or constructive possession of any property included in the gross estate of the decedent;

(3) "Person" means persons, corporations, associations, joint stock companies and business trusts;

(4) "Transfer" shall be taken to include the passing of property or any interest therein, in possession or enjoyment, present or future, by inheritance, descent, devise, succession, bequest, grant, deed, bargain, sale, gift, or appointment in the manner herein described;

(5) "Decedent" shall include the testator, intestate, grantor, bargainor, vendor, or donor;

(6) "Resident" means a natural person domiciled in the state;

(7) "Nonresident" means a natural person domiciled without the state;

(8) "Gross estate" means the gross estate as determined under the provisions of the applicable federal revenue act;

(9) "Net estate" means the net estate as determined under the provisions of the applicable federal revenue act;

(10) "Tangible personal property" means corporeal personal property, including money; and the term "intangible personal property" means incorporeal personal property including deposits in banks, negotiable instruments, mortgages, debts, receivables, shares of stock, bonds, notes, credits, evidences of an interest in property, evidences of debt and choses in action generally.

(11) "United States" when used in a geographical sense includes only the states, the territories of Alaska and Hawaii, and the District of Columbia.

History.—§2, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(81).

198.02 Tax upon estates of resident decedents.—A tax is imposed upon the transfer of the estate of every person who, at the time of death, was a resident of this state, the amount of which shall be a sum equal to the amount by which the credit allowable under the applicable federal revenue act for estate, inheritance, legacy and succession taxes actually paid to the several states shall exceed the aggregate amount of all constitutionally valid estate, inheritance, legacy and succession taxes actually paid to the several states of the United States (other than this state) in respect to any property owned by such decedent or subject to such taxes as a part of or in connection with his estate.

cf.—§11, art. IX Florida constitution inheritance taxes.

198.03 Tax upon estates of nonresident decedents.—A tax is imposed upon the transfer of real property situate in this state, upon tangible personal property having an actual situs in this state, upon intangible personal property having a business situs in this state and upon stocks, bonds, debentures, notes and other securities or obligations of corporations organized under the laws of this state, of every person who at the time of death was not a resident of this state but was a resident of the United States, the amount of which shall be a sum equal to such proportion of the amount of the credit allowable under the applicable federal revenue act for estate, inheritance, legacy and succession taxes actually paid to the several states, as the value of the property taxable in this state bears to the value of the entire gross estate wherever situate.

History.—§4, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(84); §1, ch. 28031, 1953.

198.04 Tax upon estates of alien decedents.—A tax is imposed upon the transfer of real property situate and tangible personal property having an actual situs in this state and upon intangible personal property physically present within this state of every person who at the time of death was not a resident of the United States, the amount of which shall be a sum equal to such proportion of the credit allowable under the applicable federal revenue act for estate, inheritance, legacy and succession taxes actually paid to the several states, as the value of the property taxable in this state bears to the value of the estate taxable by the United States wherever situate. For the purpose of this section, stock in a corporation organized under the laws of this state shall be deemed physically present within this state. The amount receivable as insurance upon the life of a decedent who at the time of his death was not a resident of the United States, and any moneys deposited with any person carrying on the banking business by or for such decedent who was not engaged in business in the United States at the time of his death, shall not for the purpose of this section, be deemed to be physically present in this state.

History.—§5, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(85).

198.05 Administration of law by comptroller as commissioner of revenue.—The comptroller of the state shall be the commissioner of revenue of the state and as such commissioner shall, except as otherwise provided, have jurisdiction and be charged with the administration and enforcement of the provisions of this chapter.

History.—§6, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(86).

198.06 Examination of books, papers, records, etc., by the commissioner.—The commissioner, for the purpose of ascertaining the correctness of any return, or for the purpose of making a return where none has been made, may examine any books, papers, records or memoranda, bearing upon the matter required to be included in the return; may require the attendance of persons rendering return or of any officer or employee of such persons, or of any person having knowledge in the premises, at any convenient place in the county in which such person resides, and may take his testimony with reference to the matter required by law to be included in such return, and may administer oaths to such persons.

If any person summoned to appear under this chapter to testify, or to produce books, papers, or other data, shall refuse to do so, the circuit court for the county in which such person resides shall have jurisdiction by appropriate process to compel such attendance, testimony, or production of books, papers, or other data.

198.07 Appointment of agents by commissioner; bonds of agents; may administer oaths; credentials.—The commissioner may appoint and remove such deputy commissioners, examiners, appraisers, attorneys and employees as he may deem necessary, such persons to have such duties and powers as the commissioner may from time to time prescribe. The salaries of all deputy commissioners, examiners, appraisers, attorneys and employees employed by the commissioner shall be such as he may prescribe, and the commissioner and such deputy commissioners, examiners, appraisers, attorneys and employees shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in §112.061.

The commissioner may require such of the deputy commissioners, examiners, appraisers, attorneys and employees as he may designate to give bond payable to the state for the faithful performance of their duties in such form and with such sureties as he may determine, and all premiums on such bonds shall be paid by the state.

All officers, empowered by law to administer oaths and the commissioner, and the deputy commissioners, examiners, appraisers and attorneys appointed by him may administer an oath to all persons giving any testimony before them or to take the acknowledgment of any person in respect to any return or report required under this chapter.

All deputy commissioners, examiners, appraisers and attorneys appointed by the commissioner shall have for identification purpose, proper credentials signed by the commissioner and exhibit the same upon demand.

History.—§6, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(86); §19, ch. 63-400.

cf.—§112.061 Traveling expenses.
§113.07 Bonds of officials.

198.08 Rules and regulations.—The commissioner may from time to time make such rules and regulations not inconsistent with this chapter as he may deem necessary to enforce its provisions, and may adopt such rules and regulations as are or may be promulgated with respect to the estate tax provisions of the revenue act of the United States in so far as they shall be applicable hereto. The commissioner may from time to time prescribe such forms as he shall deem proper for the administration of this chapter.

198.09 Information confidential.—Except in accordance with proper judicial order, or as otherwise provided by law, it is unlawful for the commissioner, or any deputy commissioner, examiner, appraiser, attorney or other employee, to divulge or make known in any manner the value of any estate or any particulars set forth or disclosed in any report or return required. Nothing herein shall be construed to prohibit the publication of statistics, so classified as to prevent the identification of particular reports or returns and the items thereof; provided, however, that the commissioner may permit the commissioner of internal revenue, or any collector of internal revenue, or internal revenue agent of the United States or the proper officer of any state imposing an estate tax or inheritance tax, or the authorized representative of such officer, to inspect the estate tax returns of any individual, or may furnish to such officer or his authorized representatives an abstract of the return of any executor or furnish information concerning any item contained in any return or disclosed by the report of any investigation of the return of any executor.

198.10 Suits by or against commissioner; special counsel.—The commissioner may sue and be sued in his name as such commissioner, but shall not be required to give supersedeas or other bond in any cause or court of this state.

Said commissioner may employ special counsel to advise him and to conduct any litigation or proceeding that may be brought by or against him, and such special counsel shall be paid such compensation as said commissioner shall deem proper.

198.11 Appointment of special appraisers.—The commissioner may employ special appraisers for the purpose of determining the value of any property which is, or is believed by the commissioner to be, subject to the tax imposed by this chapter, and such special appraisers shall be paid such compensation as said commissioner shall deem proper.

History.—§6, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(86).

198.12 Notice of death to commissioner; tax return.—The executor, within two months after the decedent's death, or within a like period after qualifying as such, shall give written notice thereof to the commissioner on the form prepared and published by the commissioner known as the preliminary notice and report. If a federal estate tax return is required by the applicable federal revenue act then a copy of the preliminary notice filed with the federal government may be filed with the commissioner in lieu of such preliminary notice and report.

History.—§7, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(87); §1, ch. 29718, 1955.

198.13 Tax return to be made in certain cases.—The executor of every estate required by the laws of the United States to file a federal estate tax return shall file with the commissioner within fifteen months from the date of death a return consisting of an executed copy of the federal estate tax return, and shall file with such return all supplemental data, if any, as may be necessary to determine and establish the correct tax under this chapter. Such return shall be made in the case of every decedent who at the time of his death was not a resident of the United States and whose gross estate shall include any real property situate and tangible personal property having an actual situs in the state and intangible personal property physically present within the state.

History.—§7, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(87); §2, ch. 28031, 1953; §2, ch. 29718, 1955.

198.14 Failure to make return; extension of time for filing.—If the federal taxing authorities grant an extension of time for filing a return the commissioner shall allow a like extension of time for filing upon the filing by the executor of a copy of such federal extension with the commissioner. An extension of time for filing a return shall not operate to extend the time for payment of the tax. If any person fails to file a return at the time prescribed by law or files, willfully or otherwise, a false or fraudulent return, the commissioner shall make the return from his own knowledge and from such information as he can obtain through testimony or otherwise. Any such return so made by the commissioner shall be prima facie good and sufficient for all legal purposes.

History.—§7, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(87); §3, ch. 29718, 1955.

198.15 When tax due; extension; interest.—The tax imposed by this chapter shall be due and payable fifteen months after the decedent's death, and shall be paid by the executor to the commissioner. Where the commissioner finds that the payment on the due date of the tax or any part thereof would impose undue hardship upon the estate, the commissioner may extend the time for payment of any such part, but no extension shall be for more than one year and the aggregate of extensions with respect to any estate shall not exceed five years from the due date. In such case the amount in respect of which the extension is granted shall be paid on or before the date of the expiration of the period of the extension unless a further extension be granted. If the time for the payment is thus extended there shall be collected, as part of such amount, interest thereon at the rate of six per cent per annum from the due date of the tax to the date the same shall be paid.

History.—§8, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(88); §3, ch. 28031, 1953.

198.16 Notice of determination of deficiency in federal estate tax to be filed with commissioner.—It shall be the duty of the executor to file with the commissioner within sixty days after a final determination of any deficiency in federal estate tax has been made, written notice thereof. If, based upon such deficiency and the ground therefor, it shall appear that the amount of tax previously paid is less than the amount of tax owing, the difference together with interest, at the rate of one-half of one per cent per month from the due date of the tax, shall be paid upon notice and demand by the commissioner. In the event the executor shall fail to give the notice required by this section, any additional tax which shall be owing may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment at any time prior to the filing of such notice or within thirty days after the delinquent filing of such notice, notwithstanding the provisions of §198.28.

History.—§9, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(89); §4, ch. 28031, 1953; §4, ch. 29718, 1955.

198.17 Deficiency; hearing by commissioner; procedure on appeal.—If upon examination of any return a tax or a deficiency in tax is disclosed, the executor shall be notified of such tax or deficiency by the commissioner by registered mail, and given a period of not less than thirty nor more than sixty days from such notice in which to show cause why such tax or deficiency should not be paid. The commissioner shall proceed to hear and determine all questions involving such tax or deficiency upon not less than ten days' notice to the executor of the date of such hearing, and a final determination thereon shall be made as quickly as practicable, and a copy of such determination, together with notice and demand, shall be sent by registered mail to the executor. Such tax or deficiency in tax shall be assessed and paid together with the penalty and interest, if any, applicable thereto, within sixty days after such notice and demand by the commissioner. Such determination of tax or deficiency in tax by the commissioner shall be final unless the executor, or other party interested, shall within fifty days from the date of the receipt of a copy of such determination, bring a suit in equity against the commissioner and such other parties as are interested. It shall not be necessary to join as parties to such suit any heir-at-law, next of kin, distributee, legatee or devisee of said decedent. The complaint shall contain a concise statement of the facts and shall have annexed thereto a copy of the return and of the findings and determination of the commissioner and shall pray for an abatement of the tax, in such amount and to such extent, in part or in whole, and for such other relief as the executor shall desire. Such suits shall proceed as other suits in equity. Either the commissioner, the executor or any other party may appeal to the appropriate district court of appeal in the manner and within the time prescribed by the Florida appellate rules, or, if authorized by Art. V of the state constitution, to the supreme court.

History.—§10, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(90); §5, ch. 29718, 1955; §19, ch. 63-559. cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

198.18 Failure to pay tax; civil penalties.—If any part of a deficiency in tax due under the provisions of this chapter is due to negligence or intentional disregard of the provisions of this chapter, of the rules and regulations issued pursuant hereto, with knowledge thereof but without intent to defraud, there shall be added as a penalty five per cent of the total amount of the deficiency in tax, and if any part of such deficiency is wilfully made with intent to defraud, there shall be added as a penalty fifty per cent of the total amount of such deficiency; which penalty shall become due and payable upon notice and demand by the commissioner and such executor shall be liable to the state personally and on his official bond, if any, for any loss to the state accruing under the provisions of this section through his negligence or wilful neglect. No interest shall be collected upon the amount of any penalty. The commissioner may compromise or remit any penalty imposed pursuant to this section.

198.19 Receipts for taxes.—The commissioner shall issue to the executor upon payment of the tax imposed by this chapter, receipts in triplicate, any of which shall be sufficient evidence of such payment, and shall entitle the executor to be credited and allowed the amount thereof by any court having jurisdiction to audit or settle his accounts. If the executor files a complete return and makes written application to the commissioner for determination of the amount of the tax and discharge from personal liability therefor, the commissioner as soon as possible, and in any event within one year after receipt of such application, shall notify the executor of the amount of the tax, and upon payment thereof the executor shall be discharged from personal liability for any additional tax thereafter found to be due, and shall be entitled to receive from the commissioner a receipt in writing showing such discharge; provided, however, that such discharge shall not operate to release the gross estate of the lien of any additional tax that may thereafter be found to be due, while the title to such gross estate remains in the executor or in the heirs, devisees, or distributees thereof; but after such discharge is given, no part of such gross estate shall be subject to such lien or to any claim or demand for any such tax after the title thereto has passed to a bona fide purchaser for value.

198.20 Failure to pay tax when due, commissioner's warrant, etc.—If any tax imposed by this chapter or any portion of such tax be unpaid within ninety days after the same becomes due, and the time for payment be not extended, the commissioner shall issue a warrant directed to the sheriff of any county of the state in which the estate or any part thereof may be situated, commanding him to levy upon and sell the real and personal property of such estate found within his county, for the payment of the amount thereof, with such interest and penalties, if any, as may have accrued thereon or been assessed against the same, together with the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant, to the commissioner and pay to him the money collected by virtue thereof, by a time to be therein specified, not less than sixty days from the date of the warrant. The sheriff thereupon shall proceed upon the same in all respects, with like effect, and in the same manner prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against property upon judgments of a court of record, and shall be entitled to the same fees for services in executing the warrant as are now allowed by law for like services to be collected in the same manner as now provided by law. Alias and pluries warrants may issue from time to time as said commissioner may deem proper until the entire amount of the tax, deficiency, interest, penalties and costs have been recovered.

198.21 Tax due payable from entire estate; third persons.—If the tax or any part thereof is paid or collected out of that part of the estate passing to or in possession of any person other than the executor in his capacity as such, such person shall be entitled to a reimbursement out of any part of the estate still undistributed or by a just and equitable contribution by the person whose interest in the estate of the decedent would have been reduced if the tax had been paid before the distribution of the estate or whose interest in the estate is subject to an equal or prior liability for the payment of tax, debts, or other charges against the estate, it being the purpose and intent of this section that so far as is practical and unless otherwise directed by the will of the decedent, the tax shall be paid out of the estate before its distribution; but the commissioner shall not be charged with enforcing contribution from any person.

History.—§14, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(94).

198.22 Lien for unpaid taxes.—Unless the tax is sooner paid in full, it shall be a lien for ten years upon the gross estate of the decedent, except that such part of the gross estate as is used for the payment of charges against the estate and expenses of its administration, allowed by any court having jurisdiction thereof, shall be divested of such lien, and except that such part of the gross estate of a resident decedent as is transferred to a bona fide purchaser, mortgagee, or pledgee, for an adequate and full consideration in money or money's worth shall be divested of such lien and such lien shall then attach to the consideration received for such property from such purchaser, mortgagee, or pledgee. If the commissioner is satisfied that no tax liability exists or that the tax liability of an estate has been fully discharged or provided for, he may issue a waiver releasing any or all property of such estate from the lien herein imposed. There shall be paid to the commissioner a fee of one dollar for each waiver so issued.

198.23 Personal liability of executor, etc.—If any executor shall make distribution either in whole or in part of any of the property of an estate to the heirs, next of kin, distributees, legatees or devisees without having paid or secured the tax due the state under this chapter, or obtained the release of such property from the lien of such tax he shall become personally liable for the tax so due the state, or so much thereof as may remain due and unpaid, to the full extent of the full value of any property belonging to such person or estate which may come into his hands, custody or control.

History.—§16, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(96).

198.24 Sale of real estate by executor to pay tax.—Every executor shall have the same right and power to take possession of or sell, convey and dispose of real estate as assets of the estate for the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter as he may have for the payment of the debts of the decedent.

History.—§17, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(97).

198.25 Actions to enforce payment of tax.—Actions may be brought within the time or times herein specified by the commissioner to recover the amount of any taxes, penalties and interest due under this chapter. Every such action shall be brought in the county where the estate is being or has been administered, or if no administration be had in this state, then in any county where any of the property of the estate shall be situate.

History.—§18, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(98).

198.26 No discharge of executor until tax is paid.—No final account of an executor of the estate of a nonresident, nor of the estate of a resident where the value of the gross estate wherever situate exceeds sixty thousand dollars shall be allowed by any court unless and until such account shows, and the judge of said court finds, that the tax imposed by the provisions of this chapter upon said executor, which has become payable, has been paid. The certificate of the commissioner of nonliability for tax or his receipt for the amount of tax therein certified shall be conclusive in such proceedings as to the liability or the payment of the tax to the extent of said certificate.

198.27 Agreements as to amount of tax due.—For the purpose of facilitating the settlement and distribution of estates held by executors, the commissioner may, on behalf of the state, agree upon the amount of taxes at any time due or to become due from such executor under the provisions of this statute, and payment in accordance with such agreement shall be full satisfaction of the taxes to which the agreement relates.

198.28 Time for assessment of tax.—The amount of estate tax due under this chapter shall be determined and assessed within four years from the date the return was filed, or within a period expiring ninety days after the last day on which the assessment of a deficiency in federal estate tax may lawfully be made under applicable provisions of the internal revenue laws of the United States, whichever date last occurs, and no suit or other proceedings for the collection of any tax due under this chapter shall be begun after such date; provided, however, that in the case of a false or fraudulent return or of a failure to file a return, the tax may be assessed, or a proceeding in court for the collection of such tax may be begun without assessment, at any time.

198.29 Refunds of excess tax paid.—Whenever it appears upon the examination of any return made under this chapter or upon proof submitted to the commissioner by the executor, that an amount of estate tax has been paid in excess of the tax legally due under this chapter, then the amount of such overpayment, together with any overpayment of interest thereon shall be refunded to the executor and paid upon the warrant of the commissioner drawn upon the state treasurer who shall honor and pay the same; and such refund shall be made by the commissioner as a matter of course regardless of whether or not the executor has filed a written claim therefor, except that upon request of the commissioner, the executor shall file with the commissioner a conformed copy of any written claim for refund of federal estate tax which has theretofore been filed with the United States. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions, no refund of estate tax shall be made nor shall any executor be entitled to bring any action for refund of estate tax after the expiration of four years from the date of payment of the tax to be refunded unless there shall have been filed with the commissioner written notice of any administrative or judicial determination of the federal estate tax liability of the estate, whichever shall last occur, and such notice shall have been so filed not later than sixty days after such determination shall have become final. For the purpose of this section, an administrative determination shall be deemed to have become final on the date of receipt by the executor or other interested party of the final payment to be made refunding federal estate tax or upon the last date on which the executor or any other interested party shall receive notice from the United States that an overpayment of federal estate tax has been credited by the United States against any liability other than federal estate tax of said estate. A final judicial determination shall be deemed to have occurred on the date on which any judgment entered by a court of competent jurisdiction and determining that there has been an overpayment of federal estate tax becomes final. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent an executor from bringing or maintaining an action in any court of competent jurisdiction within any period otherwise prescribed by law to determine any question bearing upon the taxable situs of property, the domicile of a decedent, or otherwise affecting the jurisdiction of the state to impose an inheritance or estate tax with respect to a particular item or items of property.

198.30 County judge to furnish commissioner with names of decedents, etc.—The county judges of this state shall, on or before the tenth day of every month, notify the commissioner of the names of all decedents, the names and addresses of the respective executors, administrators or curators appointed, the amount of the bonds, if any, required by the court, and the probable value of the estates, in all estates of decedents whose wills have been probated or propounded for probate before him or upon which letters testamentary or upon whose estates letters of administration or curatorship have been sought or granted, during the preceding month, and such report shall contain any other information which the county judge may have concerning the estate of such decedents; and said county judge shall also furnish forthwith such further information, from the records and files of his office in regard to such estates, as the commissioner may from time to time require.

History.—§23, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(103); §9, ch. 29718, 1955.

198.31 Duties and powers of corporate executors of nonresident decedents.—If the executor of the estate of a nonresident be a corporation duly authorized, qualified and acting as such executor in the jurisdiction of the domicile of such decedent, it shall be under the duties and obligations as to the giving of notices and filing of returns required by this chapter, and may bring and defend actions and suits as may be authorized or permitted by this chapter, to the same extent as an individual executor, notwithstanding that such corporation may be prohibited from exercising, in this state, any powers as executor, but nothing herein contained shall be taken or construed as authorizing corporations not authorized to do business in this state to qualify or act as executor, administrator or in any other fiduciary capacity, if otherwise prohibited by the laws of this state, except to the extent herein expressly provided.

198.32 Prima facie liability for tax.—The estate of each decedent whose property shall be subject to the laws of the state shall be deemed prima facie liable for estate taxes under this chapter, and shall be subject to a lien therefor in such amount as may be later determined to be due and payable on such estate as provided in this chapter. Such presumption of liability shall begin on the date of the death of the decedent and shall continue until the full settlement of all taxes which may be found to be due under this chapter, such settlement to be shown by receipts for all taxes due to be issued by the commissioner as provided for in this chapter. Whenever it shall be made to appear to the commissioner that an estate is not subject to any tax under this chapter such commissioner shall issue to the executor, administrator, curator or other personal representative, or to the heirs, devisees, or legatees of the decedent, a certificate in writing to that effect, showing such nonliability to tax, which certificate of nonliability shall have the same force and effect as a receipt showing payment. Such certificate of nonliability shall be subject to record and admissible in evidence in like manner as receipts showing payment of taxes. There shall be paid to the commissioner a fee of one dollar for each certificate so issued.

History.—§25, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(105).

198.33 Discharge of estate, notice of lien, limitation on lien, etc.—Where no receipt for the payment of taxes, or no receipt of nonliability for taxes has been issued or recorded as provided for in this chapter, the property constituting the estate of the decedent in this state shall be deemed fully acquitted and discharged of all liability for estate and inheritance taxes under this chapter after a lapse of ten years from the date of the filing with the commissioner of notice of the decedent's death, or after a lapse of ten years from the date of the filing with the commissioner of an estate tax return, whichever date shall be earlier, unless the commissioner shall make out and file and have recorded in the public records of the county wherein any part of the estate of the decedent may be situated in this state, a notice of lien against the property of the estate, specifying the amount or approximate amount of taxes claimed to be due to the state under this chapter, which notice of lien shall continue said lien in force for an additional period of five years or until payment is made. Such notice of lien shall be filed and recorded in the book of deeds in the office of the clerk of the circuit court; provided, where no receipt for the payment of taxes, or no certificate of nonliability for taxes, has been issued or recorded as provided for in this chapter, the property constituting the estate of the decedent in this state, if said decedent was a resident of this state at the time of his death, shall be deemed fully acquitted and discharged of all liability for tax under this chapter after a lapse of ten years from the date of the death of the decedent, unless the commissioner shall make out and file and have recorded notice of lien as herein provided, which notice shall continue said lien in force against such property of the estate as is situate in the county wherein said notice of lien was recorded for an additional period of five years or until payment is made.

Notwithstanding anything to the contrary in this section or this chapter, no lien for estate and inheritance taxes under this chapter shall continue for more than twenty years from the date of death of the decedent, whether the decedent be a resident or nonresident of this state.

History.—§26, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(106); §6, ch. 28031, 1953; §10, ch. 29718, 1955; §2, ch. 57-108. cf.—§28.24 Fees of clerk of circuit court.

198.331 Retroactive effect of §§198.22 and 198.33.—The provisions of §§198.22 and 198.33 as amended by ch. 57-108 shall apply to estates of decedents dying after 12:01 a.m., eastern standard time, October 1, 1933; provided, however, that the commissioner shall have one year from the date this act becomes law in which to enforce any lien for unpaid estate taxes that could be so enforced by the commissioner except for the provisions of this act.

History.—§3, ch. 57-108.

198.34 Disposition of proceeds from taxes.—All taxes and fees levied and collected under this chapter shall be paid into the treasury of the state to the credit of the general revenue fund.

History.—§28, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(108); §10, ch. 26869, 1951. cf.—§550.30(1) Race track funds guaranteed from general revenue fund.

198.35 Interpretation and construction.—When not otherwise provided for in this chapter, the rules of interpretation and construction applicable to the estate and inheritance tax laws of the United States shall apply to and be followed in the interpretation of this chapter.

History.—§32, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(111).

198.36 Failure to produce records; penalty.—Whoever fails to comply with any duty imposed upon him by this law, or having in his possession or control any record, file, or paper, containing or supposed to contain any information concerning the estate of the decedent, or, having in his possession or control any property comprised in the gross estate of the decedent, fails to exhibit the same upon request to the commissioner or any deputy commissioner, examiner, appraiser, or attorney appointed pursuant to this chapter, who desires to examine the same in the performance of his duties under this chapter, shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding five hundred dollars to be recovered, with costs of suit, in a civil action in the name of the state.

198.37 Failure to make return; penalty.—Any person required under this chapter to pay any tax, or required by law or regulations made under authority thereof to make a return, keep any records, or supply any information, for the purposes of the computation, assessment, or collection of any tax imposed by this chapter, who willfully fails to pay such tax, make such return, keep such records, or supply such information, at the time or times required by law or regulations, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than ten thousand dollars, or imprisoned for not more than one year, together with the costs of prosecution.

cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

198.38 False return; penalty.—Any person who willfully aids or assists in, or procures, counsels, or advises, the preparation or presentation under, or in connection with any matter arising under this chapter, of a false or fraudulent return, affidavit, claim, or document, shall (whether or not such falsity or fraud is with the knowledge or consent of the person authorized or required to present such return, affidavit, claim or document) be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than ten thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than five years, together with the costs of prosecution.

cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

198.39 False statement in return; penalty.—Whoever knowingly makes any false statement in any notice or return required to be filed under this chapter shall be liable to a penalty of not exceeding five thousand dollars or imprisonment not exceeding one year.

cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

198.40 Failure to pay tax, evasion of tax, etc.; penalty.—Any person required under this chapter to collect, account for and pay over any tax imposed by this chapter, who willfully fails to collect or truthfully account for and pay over such tax, and any person who willfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any tax imposed by this chapter or the payment thereof, shall, in addition to other penalties provided by law, be guilty of a felony and, upon conviction thereof, be fined not more than ten thousand dollars or imprisoned for not more than five years, together with the costs of prosecution.

cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

198.41 Effectiveness of this chapter, etc.—This chapter shall remain in force and effect so long as the government of the United States retains in full force and effect as a part of the revenue laws of the United States a federal estate tax, and this chapter shall cease to be operative as and when the government of the United States ceases to impose any estate tax of the United States.

History.—§29, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(109).

198.42 Short title.—This chapter may be cited as the estate tax law of Florida.

History.—§1, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(80).

198.43 Effective date of this chapter.—The provisions of this chapter shall apply to estates of decedents dying after 12:01 o'clock A. M., eastern standard time, October 1st, A. D. 1933, and estates of decedents dying prior thereto shall be taxed in accordance with the statutes and laws of Florida in force prior to said date, which statutes and laws shall remain in force after the adoption of these statutes for such purpose.

History.—§33, ch. 16015, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1342(82).

199.01 Definitions. — "Intangible personal property" is hereby defined as all personal property which is not in itself intrinsically valuable but which derives its chief value from that which it represents. "Taxpayers" shall mean a person, firm or corporation who or which shall be liable for taxes under this chapter for intangible personal property.

History.—§§2, 4, ch. 15789, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1041(2); §§2, 4, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.02 Classes of intangible personal property.—For the purpose of taxation intangible personal property is hereby divided into four classes to be known as class A, B, C and D, intangible personal property.

(1) Class A intangible personal property is hereby defined as all moneys, United States legal tender notes, bank deposits of all kinds, certificates of deposits, cashiers' and certified checks, bills of exchange, drafts, and money placed with savings, building and loan associations.

(2) Class B intangible personal property is hereby defined as being all stocks, or shares of incorporated or unincorporated companies (except partnerships) all bonds, except bonds of the several municipalities, counties and other taxing districts of the state, and except bonds of the United States government and its agencies; all notes, bonds, and other obligations bearing date prior to January 1, 1942, for payment of money which are secured by mortgage, deed of trust or other liens upon real or personal estates situated in Florida; provided, that only that part of the value of the mortgage deed of trust, or other lien, the property of which is located within the state shall bear to the whole value of the property described in said obligation shall be included; and the beneficial interest of residents of Florida in trust estates of all kinds when the trustee resides outside of the state, or if the trustee is a corporation and has its principal place of business outside of the state; provided, that if the trustee returns to the tax assessor such beneficial interest and pays the tax thereon to the tax collector in Florida, then the owner of such beneficial interests shall not be required to return the same for taxation; provided, further, that when the trustee is a resident of Florida and returns the corpus of the trust for taxation as provided by law there shall be no tax upon the beneficial interest in such trust.

All such class B intangible personal property shall be taxed at its true taxable value hereinafter set forth, as of January 1 of each year, or as hereinafter provided.

(a) Valuation of stock, shares or interest.—

1. Shares of stock of corporations regularly listed on any stock exchange or regularly traded over the counter shall be taxed at the value per share published as the closing value of the previous year.

2. Shares of stock not listed on any stock exchange or not regularly traded over the counter, which are closely-held and for which no open market exists, shall be taxed at full book-value arrived at by addition of

- a. Capital stock,
 - b. Paid-in or capital surplus,
 - c. Earned surplus and undivided profits.
- Such value shall be deemed the true taxable value, such book value shall be determined as of the close of the corporation's fiscal year prior to January 1 of each year.

3. Every company or corporation, domestic or foreign, shall on or before April 1, of each year, forward to the comptroller of the state, a list of all registered holders of its securities, of record as of the end of the preceding year, taxable under this section, whose mailing address on the records of the company or corporation or its agents is within the state. Such list shall contain the names, addresses, number of class of shares of stock and the face amount and class of bonds, held by each such registered holder.

Any company or corporation may file an intangible tax return on all the securities issued by the said company or corporation and thereby be relieved of furnishing such list as provided for herein.

All security brokers and dealers, registered under the laws of Florida, shall furnish to the comptroller of the state, on or before April 1 of each year the names, addresses, number and class of shares of stock and the face amount and class of bonds, held by each customer, as of December 31 of the preceding year, whose mailing address is in the state; provided however, such brokers and dealers shall be relieved of such on those securities which are held in the name of such broker or dealer and where such broker or dealer files an intangible tax return including those securities on said return.

The report or lists so furnished hereunder shall be solely for the purpose of assessing said intangible tax and shall be confidential and shall not be made public.

4. The blockage rule or discount theory shall have no effect on valuation of shares of stocks as defined in 1. and 2.

(3) Class C intangible personal property is hereby defined as being all notes, bonds and other obligations bearing date subsequent to December 31, 1941, for payment of money which are secured by mortgage, deed of trust or other liens upon real property situated in Florida; provided, that only that part of the value of the mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien, the real property of which is located within the state shall bear to the whole value of the real property described in said obligation shall be included.

(4) Class D intangible personal property shall include all other intangible personal property not embraced in classes A, B or C.

(5) Intangible personal property belonging to the state, or any political subdivision thereof, and intangible personal property belonging to any religious, charitable, benevolent or educational association shall be exempt from taxation.

(6) Nothing herein contained shall apply to franchises.

(7) Nothing herein contained shall apply to the interest in the firm or partnership of a member of an unincorporated firm, or of a partner in a general or limited partnership, nor shall it apply to the interest of any such person in the surplus or net worth of the firm or partnership.

It is declared to be the legislative intent that this subsection is an interpretation of the prior law, and that the provisions of chapter 199 were never intended to tax any interest of a member of an unincorporated firm, or the interest of any partner, in the firm or partnership.

(8) Nothing herein contained shall apply to the assets of a corporation registered under the investment company act of 1940 of the United States, 15 U. S. Code, section 80a-1 - 80a-52, as amended or a federally licensed small business investment company.

History.—§3, ch. 15789, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1041(3); §3, ch. 20724, 1941; §§1, 4, ch. 21943, 1943; §1, ch. 22867, 1945; (7) n. §§1, 2, ch. 59-36; (2) §2, ch. 61-159; (8) n. §1, ch. 61-285. cf.—§665.21 Regulation of loans to stockholders.

199.021 Business situs.—All class D intangible personal property as defined in §199.02(4) wheresoever situate arising out of or issued in connection with the sale, leasing or servicing of personal property in this state are subject to taxation under this chapter, it being the legislative intent to provide that such intangibles shall be assessable by this state regardless of where they are kept, approved as to their creation, or paid; provided however that all bills, notes or accounts receivable, obligations or credits arising from the sale of personal property manufactured in this state where such sale is made by a nonresident to a nonresident debtor shall not be taken to have arisen from business done in this state. This provision shall apply with equal force to any person, firm or corporation representing business interests in this state that may claim a domicile elsewhere, the intent being further that no nonresident, either by himself or through an agent, shall transact business in this state without paying to the state a corresponding tax with that exacted of its own citizens; provided further that the provisions of this section shall in no way be construed to alter the tax situs of class D intangibles not connected with the sale, leasing or servicing of personal property in this state.

History.—§1, ch. 63-331.

199.03 Comptroller to make rules and prescribe forms.—It shall be the duty of the comptroller and he shall have the power to make such rules and regulations as may be necessary to carry out and execute the intent of this chapter.

History.—§5, ch. 15789, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1041(4); §5, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.04 Assessment of intangible personal property.—Intangible personal property shall be assessed by the tax assessor of each and every county in the state on a separate tax roll, which shall be designated the intangible personal property tax roll, the form of which shall be prescribed by the comptroller. Such tax roll shall distinctly show the name and address of the taxpayer and the amount of the valuation for tax purposes of intangible personal property, assessed against such taxpayers on said tax roll; provided, however, that no tax shall be extended on said intangible personal property tax roll in an amount less than twenty-five cents.

199.05 Basis of assessment.—The tax assessor shall assess all intangible personal property at its full cash value.

History.—§7, ch. 15789, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1041(6); §7, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.06 Assessor's and collector's commissions.—The county assessor shall be entitled to receive the following commissions, upon the amount of intangible personal property taxes assessed, excluding errors, and the county tax collector shall be entitled to the following commissions upon the aggregate amount of intangible personal property taxes collected by him and paid to the comptroller, to-wit: On the first five thousand dollars, ten per cent; on the next five thousand dollars, five per cent; and on the balance two per cent. The commissions for assessing and collecting such taxes shall be audited and allowed by the comptroller and paid by the treasurer upon warrants therefor. The commissions allowed the county assessor and county tax collector under this chapter are independent and exclusive of any commissions that may be due them for assessing and collecting other taxes.

History.—§8, ch. 27024, 1941.

199.07 Returns of intangible personal property for taxation.—It is hereby made the duty of every person, firm or corporation in this state owning or having control, management, or custody of intangible personal property which is subject to taxation under the laws of Florida, including trustees, executors, administrators, receivers and all other fiduciaries, to file a sworn return of the same with the county assessor of taxes in the proper county on or before the first day of April of each and every year, giving the character, description, location and full cash value of same according to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person making the return. It is provided that intangible personal property of a taxable class owned by or under the control, management or custody of every person who becomes a legal resident of this state subsequent to January 1st and prior to the following April 1st of any year shall be subject to taxation on the date upon which such person becomes a legal resident of this state and such person shall file a return and be liable for intangible personal property taxes for said year; provided, however, that the tax assessor in his discretion may grant such taxpayer a reasonable extension of time in which to file a return; and provided, further, that credit shall be allowed against such taxes for any amount of intangible or income taxes such taxpayer is required to pay to another state for all or any part of said year on said intangible personal property or the income therefrom. Intangible personal property tax returns shall not be open to inspection except by the officers of the state and county whose duties require their examination thereof or under an order of a court of competent jurisdiction requiring the same as relevant evidence. No officer examining such returns shall divulge their contents, other than the total value and tax thereon, or make or permit to be made any copy or list therefrom. When any intangible personal property tax or assessment shall have been paid, it shall be the duty of the tax assessor to return and deliver to the taxpayer at his request, the original intangible personal property tax return or returns of the taxpayer upon or in connection with which such intangible personal property taxes shall have been assessed and levied. If a taxpayer shall not request the surrender of his intangible personal property tax return after having paid his intangible personal property tax, it shall be the duty of the tax assessor to destroy all intangible personal property tax returns filed with him within three years after the same shall have been paid.

199.08 Where tax returns shall be filed.—Intangible personal property shall be assessed in the county where the taxpayer resides or has his usual domicile. In case of corporations such intangible personal property tax returns shall be assessed and levied in the county in which the corporation has its principal office, or place of business.

History.—§9, ch. 15789, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1041(8); §10, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.09 Assessor may fix valuations; notice in case of increase; appeals.—In the event any person, firm or corporation shall make or file a return as required by this chapter, the true and just value of the intangible personal property owned by him shall be presumptively considered to be that shown in the tax returns, unless the tax assessor shall, upon his knowledge or after investigation, find that the taxpayer has intangible property subject to taxation which is not described in such return or that the valuation of that which is described in such return is greater than the valuation shown by such return, in which event the tax assessor shall give notice by mail to the person filing the return. The taxpayer shall have the right to appeal from the decision of any tax assessor made under this section to the board of county commissioners sitting as a board of equalization, whose decision after a hearing shall be deemed and held to be final.

History.—§10, ch. 15789, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1041(9); §11, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.10 Effect of return.—Regardless of any return which may be filed by any taxpayer, the valuation of any item or items of property shown in the return shall in no case prevent the county assessor of taxes from determining and assessing the true taxable value, according to his information and best judgment, or from determining and entering upon the return of the taxpayer any item or items of intangible personal property which the county assessor may find has been omitted therefrom, subject to the restrictions and limitations mentioned in this chapter.

199.11 Annual levy.—On and after January 1, 1942, there is hereby annually levied and assessed on all intangible personal property, to be assessed and collected as other taxes are assessed and collected and to be paid into the intangible tax fund of the state and apportioned therefrom as hereinafter set forth, the following tax:

(1) On all class A intangible personal property one-tenth of one mill on the dollar of the taxable value of such class A intangible personal property.

(2) On all class B intangible personal property, for two years beginning January 1, 1962, one and one half mills on the dollar of the taxable value of such class B intangible personal property; thereafter, beginning January 1, 1964, one mill on the dollar of the taxable value of such class B intangible personal property.

(3) On all class C intangible personal property two mills on the dollar of the taxable value of such class C intangible personal property, which taxable value shall be the principal amount of the indebtedness, evidenced by such obligation, which tax shall be due and payable when mortgage, deed of trust or other lien is executed and shall be paid to the county tax collector before the mortgage, deed of trust or other lien securing such indebtedness is presented for recordation. Every person who shall take, receive or record any mortgage, deed of trust or other written specific lien in the nature of a mortgage upon real property situated in Florida shall pay the tax prescribed by this subsection in respect to the debt or obligation secured thereby, and in evidence thereof the tax collector, upon receiving payment thereof, shall place on such mortgage, deed of trust or the instrument evidencing such specific lien a notation showing the amount of tax levied by this subsection and received by him. Any person taking such mortgage, deed of trust or other lien who shall fail or refuse to pay such tax shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined accordingly. No mortgage, deed of trust or written evidence of a specific lien in the nature of a mortgage on real property shall be admissible to record or be recorded in any public record of this state or be enforceable in any court of this state unless and until the tax levied by this subsection shall have been paid and until the notation of the tax collector shall have been placed thereon showing the payment of the tax, except where such tax is collected and notation made by the clerk of the circuit court as hereinafter provided. The class C intangible tax may be paid to the clerk of the circuit court at the time the mortgage, deed of trust or lien securing such indebtedness is presented for recordation. The clerk shall receive such payment in behalf of the county tax collector and shall on the last day of the month transmit the monies to the tax collector together with a list of all instruments upon which the tax was paid. The clerk shall upon receiving payment of the tax, place on such mortgage, deed of trust or the instrument evidencing such specific lien a notation showing the amount of tax levied by this subsection and received by him. The tax collector shall, on the first of each month, report to the county tax assessor the receipts from this source for the previous month and the tax assessor shall thereupon enter the notes, bonds or other obligations represented thereby upon the assessment roll for the current year; provided however, that if the assessment roll for the current year has been delivered to the tax collector, the tax assessor shall file an amendment to the assessment roll and certify the same to the tax collector who shall state thereon that the tax has been paid. The tax imposed by this subsection shall be the only intangible tax levied on such notes, bonds and other obligations under this chapter.

(4) On all class D intangible personal property one mill on the dollar of the taxable value of such class D intangible personal property.

(5) (a) On all class C intangible personal property where the real estate described in the mortgage, deed of trust or other lien is located in two or more counties, that part of the tax shall be assessed and collected in each county in proportion to the value of the lands located in each county shall bear to the whole.

(b) Any mortgage, deed of trust or other lien given to replace a defective mortgage, deed of trust or other lien, covering the identical real property as the original, and securing the identical original note or obligation, shall be recorded without payment of additional tax upon proof of payment of the tax upon the original recording. The tax collector or clerk shall place a notation on the new mortgage, deed of trust, or other lien, showing that the tax has been paid on the original recording.

(c) If the mortgage, deed of trust or other lien subject to the tax levied by this subsection secures future advances as provided in §697.04 the tax shall be paid at the time of execution on the initial debt or obligation secured excluding future advances; at the time, and so often as, any future advance is made the tax shall be paid on all sums then advanced. The trustee under any such deed of trust or the owner of any such mortgage or other instrument evidencing such lien making any such advance shall pay the tax prescribed in this subsection in respect to the amount of the advance and the tax collector or clerk shall place a notation on the record of the mortgage, deed of trust or other instrument evidencing such lien, or upon any supplemental instrument evidencing such advance and offered for recording, showing the amount of tax received by him. Failure to pay the tax shall not affect the lien for any such future advance given by §697.04, but any person who shall fail or refuse to pay such tax due by him shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined accordingly. The mortgage, deed of trust, or other instrument shall not be enforceable in any court of this state as to any such advance unless and until the tax due thereon upon each advance that may have been made thereunder has been paid.

199.12 Powers and duties of board of equalization.—At the meeting of the board of county commissioners as a board of equalization, for the purpose of hearing complaints and receiving testimony and for reviewing, revising and equalizing the intangible personal property tax roll, the board may make such changes in valuations and assessments of intangible personal property, as shown on the intangible personal tax roll submitted by the tax assessor, and may make such additions of taxable intangible personal property thereto which have been omitted therefrom. If, however, the board shall increase the assessment appearing on such intangible personal property tax assessment roll, it shall publish or post in the manner prescribed by law, notice that the board has increased the assessments of certain persons (whose names need not be stated) and will sit as a board of equalization on the date to be stated in such notice for the purpose of hearing complaints and testimony, if any, in respect to such increased or added assessments. On the date specified in such notice, the board shall sit as a board of equalization and then and there equalize and determine the true and just amount of such assessments in the same manner as provided for the equalization of personal property.

199.13 Effect of assessment after equalization.—Where no complaint shall have been made as to any assessment or valuation as shown on the intangible personal property assessment roll, the assessment and the valuation thereof, shall be deemed and held to be fair, just and equal and validly made according to the laws of the state.

History.—§14, ch. 15789, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1041(13); §15, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.14 Form of intangible personal property tax receipts.—All tax collectors of the state shall be required when issuing receipts for taxes collected by them to show separately on the tax receipts the assessments and valuation of intangible personal property as made under this chapter.

History.—§15, ch. 15789, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1041(14); §16, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.15 When intangible personal property taxes due and payable.—All taxes on intangible personal property shall be due and payable on the first of November of each year, or as soon thereafter as the personal property assessment roll shall come into the hands of the tax collector.

History.—§16, ch. 15789, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1041(15); §17, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.16 Discounts.—Taxpayers paying intangible personal property taxes, shall be entitled to the same discounts as may be allowed by law for the payment of taxes on real or personal property.

History.—§17, ch. 15789, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1041(16); §18, ch. 20724, 1941.

cf.—§193.41 Discount allowed.

199.17 Duty of comptroller.—The comptroller shall make independent investigations concerning the intangible personal property assessment rolls and he shall ascertain by diligent search and inquiry whether all persons, firms or corporations have made proper returns and whether all intangible personal property subject to taxation has been assessed, and advise the tax assessors of his findings. The comptroller may employ such persons as may be necessary to enable him to perform his duties under this chapter. The tax assessors shall utilize the information furnished by the comptroller and enter upon the assessment rolls all intangible personal property certified by the comptroller to be intangible personal property subject to taxation in their respective counties; provided, however, that after the assessment roll has been delivered by the tax assessor to the tax collector, the tax assessor shall, on request, permit a person who should have filed a return or who desires to file an amended return, to file an intangible personal property tax return, or amended return and the tax assessor shall receive such return and immediately assess the taxes due on the intangible personal property of the taxpayer and the tax assessor shall thereupon immediately file an amendment to the assessment roll and certify the same to the tax collector, who shall, on request of the taxpayer, permit him thereupon to pay the tax.

History.—§19, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.18 When tax deemed delinquent; tax executions.—

(1) Taxes on intangible personal property shall be deemed delinquent on April 1 of the year following that for which the assessment was made. On or before April 25 the tax collector shall advertise one time, in a newspaper selected by the board of county commissioners at their regular meeting in February of each year, said newspaper to be qualified to publish legal advertising as provided by chapter 49, a notice setting forth the names of delinquent intangible personal property taxpayers and the amount of tax due by each and advising them that such taxes are now drawing interest at the rate of one per cent per month and that unless such taxes are paid before May 1 tax executions will issue thereon; which advertisement shall be paid for by the county at the rate provided by law for legal advertisements and the proportionate cost of such advertisement shall be added to the delinquent taxes and paid by the taxpayer as and when the taxes are paid. The form of the notice and the form of the tax execution provided for herein shall be prescribed by the comptroller.

(2) Beginning on the first day of May the tax collector shall issue tax executions for enforcing the collections of all intangible personal property taxes remaining unpaid on that date. Such tax executions shall show the name of the taxpayer and the amount of taxes assessed against him as shown by the intangible personal property tax roll, plus delinquent charges and interest. It shall be the duty of the tax collector of the county, in person or by deputy, forthwith to proceed to make the necessary levies and collections of taxes, penalties and costs pursuant to such tax executions. A tax execution shall have the force and effect of a personal judgment and execution at law against the taxpayer and may be levied upon and satisfied out of any property, real, personal or mixed, belonging to the taxpayer in like manner by the tax collector as executions on judgments of the circuit court in law cases are satisfied by the sheriff.

(3) When it shall become necessary for the tax collector to advertise property for sale under execution or executions, he shall include in one notice of sale the names of the owners, general descriptions of all properties to be sold on said sales day, the amount of the execution against each owner, and the date, place and time of sale. Said sale shall be made at the door of the county courthouse. The tax collector or his deputy shall offer for sale and sell separately the property belonging to each owner. No property of the taxpayer shall be exempt from levy under such tax execution. The tax collector shall be entitled to the following fees for executing and collecting tax executions without sale; on amounts of less than five dollars taxes, his fee shall be one dollar; on amounts of over five dollars but less than ten dollars taxes, his fee shall be one dollar and fifty cents; and on amounts over ten dollars taxes, he shall receive a fee of two dollars; provided, however, that if the tax execution is collected by levy and sale, the tax collector shall receive the same fees as are allowed by law to the sheriff; and provided, further, that all said fees shall be added to the amount of the total tax stated in such tax executions and shall be collected by the tax collector or his deputy from the taxpayer, and not from the county or state.

History.—§18, ch. 15789, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1041(17); §20, ch. 20724, 1941; §4, ch. 22867, 1945; (1) §1, ch. 63-429.

199.20 Alias executions.—Whenever it becomes necessary in the judgment of the tax collector, or when required by the comptroller, he may issue an alias tax execution or tax executions, which, however, shall be so designated on the face of the tax execution. Any such alias tax execution shall have the same force and effect as the original.

History.—§22, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.21 Tax executions may operate as writ of garnishment.—Tax executions shall have the same force and effect as a writ of garnishment when levied upon any person, firm or corporation who shall have any goods, moneys, chattels or effects of the delinquent taxpayer in his hands, possession or control or who shall be indebted to such delinquent taxpayer. When any tax execution is so levied upon any debtor or person holding property of the taxpayer, such debtor or person shall pay the debt or deliver the property of the tax delinquent to the tax collector or his deputy levying such writ, and the receipt of the tax collector or his deputy therefor shall be complete discharge to that extent of the debtor or person holding such property. In the event of such levy the tax collector or his deputy shall make note thereof upon the tax execution.

History.—§23, ch. 20724, 1941; §6, ch. 22867, 1945.

199.22 Time and circumstances under which intangible personal property taxes are a lien.—All intangible personal property taxes shall be a lien on all the real and personal property of the taxpayer in the county in which they are assessed from the time they become due. All such intangible personal property taxes shall be a lien upon any and all real estate of the taxpayer in every other county from the time that the tax execution is recorded in such other county where the real estate is situated. Where no tax execution is, or has been, issued or recorded on a delinquent intangible personal property tax, said intangible personal property tax shall cease to be a lien on the real and personal property of the taxpayer, wherever situated, seven years from the date said intangible personal property tax becomes, or became, due; and any interested party may thereafter request that the tax collector cancel same of record, and it shall be the duty of the tax collector to so do. The lien of intangible personal property taxes and tax executions shall be superior to all other liens, except liens for other taxes, state, county and municipal, and prior recorded liens on real estate.

History.—§19, ch. 15789, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1041(18); §24, ch. 20724, 1941; §1, ch. 57-106.

199.23 Lien and enforcement of recorded tax executions.—Every tax execution when recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court shall have the force and effect of a recorded judgment at law against the delinquent taxpayer, for the period of seven years after the date the taxes represented by such execution become or became due. At the request of the comptroller or of the tax collector who issued the tax execution, it shall be the duty of the sheriff of any county in which such tax execution shall be recorded other than that in which it is issued to levy such tax execution upon any lands and tenements, goods, chattels and effects of the delinquent taxpayer which shall be found in the county in which the tax execution shall have been so recorded, and to enforce the collection of such execution by the sale of such property in the same manner as is provided by law for the enforcement and sale under writs of execution upon judgments at common law. In case of such sales, the taxpayer shall pay all costs and expenses, and if he fails to do so, they shall be deducted from the purchase price. The proceeds of the sale shall be remitted by the sheriff making the sale to the tax collector issuing such tax execution. The lien of such tax execution, wherever recorded, shall continue for seven years from the date the taxes represented by such execution become or became due. It is hereby declared the intention of the legislature that the provisions of this section as amended by chapter 59-355 shall apply to tax executions recorded before or after June 17, 1959.

History.—§25, ch. 20724, 1941; §§1, 2, ch. 59-355.

199.24 Duty of tax collector to record and endeavor to collect tax executions.—It shall be the duty of the tax collector to file with the clerk of the circuit court, and of said clerk to record, without charge, in the book containing the record of liens, all such tax executions when returned uncollected, or as soon as possible thereafter. The tax collector or the comptroller may, however, record any such tax execution before levy, if they have, or either of them has reason to believe it to be advisable to take such action promptly. The original tax execution shall be returned by the clerk, when recorded, to the tax collector. The tax collector shall record in like manner an alias tax execution in every county in which the delinquent taxpayer has, or in which the tax collector has reason to believe that he has, real estate. Upon request of the comptroller, the tax collector shall issue alias tax executions which shall be delivered to the comptroller who shall record them in every county in which the delinquent taxpayer has, or in which the comptroller has reason to believe that he has, real estate. All such tax executions shall run throughout the state and shall be executed by any tax collector or deputy tax collector in any other county at the instance of the tax collector by whom it was issued or of the comptroller.

199.25 Tax collector to keep record of tax executions; satisfaction of liens.—The tax collector shall keep a record of all tax executions and note thereon the date of the issue and of the return of the same, the date of payment thereof, the county or counties in which it is recorded, and the date thereof and the amount of money, if any, received by the tax collector on such tax executions and the disposition thereof made by him and the respective dates thereof. Such record shall be known as the tax executions register, and the form thereof shall be prescribed by the comptroller. When any such tax execution shall have been recorded and shall thereafter be paid, it shall be the duty of the tax collector to endorse such payment on the margin of the record of the tax execution in the lien book of the county where it was issued, and of the clerk or his deputy to attest such endorsement. If the tax execution shall have been recorded in another county, and thereafter paid, it shall be the duty of the tax collector to execute and deliver to the clerk of the court of such county a written satisfaction of such tax execution, which satisfaction need not be witnessed or acknowledged, and it shall be the duty of the clerk of every county to record the same in the book of satisfaction of liens. Whenever a tax execution is paid, the clerk of the court in every county in which such execution is recorded shall be entitled to a fee of one dollar for the recording of a satisfaction of such execution. Such fee shall be paid by the party filing the satisfaction or record.

199.26 Continuing duty of the tax collector to collect tax executions under comptroller's directions.—It shall be the duty of the tax collector issuing a tax execution to continue from time to time his efforts to collect the same for a period of seven years from the date of the issuance of such tax execution, but at the expiration of said period, said execution shall be void. The comptroller may, in his discretion, direct the tax collector from time to time as to the manner of conducting the proceedings to enforce such tax execution.

History.—§28, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.27 Tax collectors accountable until complete performance of duty hereunder.—No tax collector shall be relieved of accountability for collection of any taxes assessed on intangible personal property until he shall have completely performed every duty devolving upon him as required by this chapter.

History.—§29, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.28 Intangible personal property exempt from all other taxation.—The intangible personal property taxes authorized and to be assessed and levied under this chapter shall exclude and be in lieu of all other state, county, district and municipal taxes.

History.—§30, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.29 Assessment of intangible personal property previously omitted.—If any tax assessor when making his assessment shall discover that any intangible personal property has for any reason escaped taxation for any or all of the three previous years, he shall, in addition to the assessment of such intangible personal property for that year, assess the same separately for such year or years that it may have escaped taxation at the full cash value thereof in such year, noting distinctly the year when such intangible personal property escaped taxation, and such assessment shall have the same force and effect as it would have had if made in the year that the same escaped taxation, and taxes shall be levied and collected thereon in like manner and together with the taxes of the year in which the assessment is made. Provided, that intangible personal property acquired in good faith by purchase shall not be subject to assessment for taxes for any time prior to the time of such purchase, but the individual or corporation liable for any such assessment shall continue personally liable for same.

History.—§31, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.30 Failure to file return and pay the tax when due.—If any intangible personal property is not returned for taxation by the persons required to return it, within the time and in the manner required by this chapter; or if any intangible personal property is returned at less than its true taxable value as defined in this chapter; there shall be added as a part of the tax a mandatory penalty in the amount of ten per cent of the tax found to be due, and a mandatory interest one per cent per month from the date the tax should have been paid.

History.—§32, ch. 20724, 1941; §9, ch. 22867, 1945; §3, ch. 61-159.

199.31 Disposition of intangible personal property taxes; appropriations for expenses of assessment and collection and for retirement systems.—

(1) All intangible personal property taxes levied, assessed and collected under and pursuant to this chapter shall be promptly remitted by the tax collector to the comptroller of the state to be placed in a special fund designated as the "intangible tax trust fund."

(2) There is hereby appropriated annually out of the intangible tax trust fund the amount necessary for the effective and efficient enforcement of the provisions of this chapter and for the fees of the county assessors and tax collectors allowed them by the law for the assessment and collection of intangible personal property taxes. It shall be the duty of the comptroller to pay from the intangible tax trust fund these costs and fees.

(3) When money has been paid into the intangible tax trust fund in payment of any intangible personal property taxes, whether payment was made voluntarily or involuntarily, the comptroller is authorized and directed to refund to the person who paid same, or to his heirs, personal representatives or assigns:

(a) Any overpayment;

(b) Payment where no tax was due; and

(c) Where a bona fide controversy exists between the tax collector and the taxpayer as to the liability of the taxpayer for the payment of the tax claimed to be due; the taxpayer may pay the amount claimed by the tax collector to be due and if it is finally adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction that the taxpayer was not liable for the payment of taxes, or any part thereof, the comptroller shall make such refund as the court may direct. Except when made pursuant to an order of a court of competent jurisdiction, no refund of taxes shall be made by the comptroller unless the assessor of the county in which said assessment was made shall have approved such refund in writing and filed a copy of such approval with the comptroller. Each refund shall be charged against the taxes collected from the county of the residence of the taxpayer to whom the refund is made and shall be considered in arriving at the amount of money to be received by the county. There is hereby appropriated annually, out of funds coming into the comptroller's hands under the provisions of this chapter, an amount necessary to make such refunds.

(4) The comptroller shall pay from the intangible tax trust fund the entire cost of all forms, books and records required by law to be furnished each county or county officer by the comptroller in connection with the assessment and collection of ad valorem taxes, and a sum sufficient to pay therefor is hereby annually appropriated out of the intangible tax trust fund.

(5) There is hereby annually appropriated from the intangible tax trust fund:

(a) A sufficient amount to meet the appropriation in §122.13.

(b) From the balance, after all the above amounts have been paid, a sufficient amount to meet the matching requirements of the state officers and employees retirement system and the county officers and employees retirement system as provided by §122.17.

(c) Any balance shall be placed in the general revenue fund of the state.

History.—§20, ch. 15789, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1041(19); §33, ch. 20724, 1941; §3, ch. 21943, §7, ch. 22000, 1943; §10, ch. 22867, 1945; (5) §1, ch. 29929, 1955; §2, ch. 61-119. cf.—§200.03 Comptroller regulates tangible property tax forms.

199.32 Removal of officers.—The comptroller shall investigate the conduct and performance of duties by tax assessors, tax collectors, clerks of the circuit court, sheriffs and members of the board of county commissioners when acting as a board of equalization, and recommend to the governor the removal of any such official, for his willful failure to properly perform the duties imposed upon him by the constitution, this chapter and the rules and regulations prescribed pursuant to this chapter, and furnish the evidence to the governor upon which such removal may be warranted.

199.33 Imposition of taxes for the year 1941.—Intangible personal property taxes for the year 1941 shall be imposed pursuant to chapter 15789, acts of 1931.

History.—§35, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.34 State tax commissioner to perform duties of the comptroller.—Wherever the comptroller is required by law to perform any duties relating to the assessment and collection of ad valorem taxes, such duties shall, after the creation of the office of state tax commissioner, be performed by the state tax commissioner.

History.—§36, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.35 Punishment for violation of this chapter.—Any taxpayer, public officer or other person willfully failing or refusing to comply with this chapter, or violating any of the provisions hereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars or be confined in the county jail for not more than six months, or both, in the discretion of the court.

History.—§21, ch. 15789, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 7473(8); §37, ch. 20724, 1941.

199.36 Short title.—This chapter may be cited or referred to as "intangible personal property taxation law of 1941."

History.—§1, ch. 20724, 1941.

200.01 Definition of tangible personal property.—Tangible personal property shall include all goods, chattels, vehicles (except motor vehicles), animals and other articles of value capable of manual possession and whose chief value shall consist of the thing itself and not what it represents. The words personal property as used in this chapter shall be synonymous with tangible personal property.

History.—§1, ch. 20723, 1941; §6, ch. 63-550.

200.02 Time and circumstances under which tangible personal property taxes are a lien.—All tangible personal property taxes shall be a lien on all of the personal property of the taxpayer in the county in which they are assessed from January 1 for which year the property is liable to assessment. The lien of tangible personal property taxes shall be superior to all other liens, except liens for other taxes, state, county and municipal. No act of omission or commission on the part of any tax assessor or any assistant tax assessor, or any tax collector, or any board of county commissioners, or any clerk of the circuit court or any officer of this state, or any newspaper in which any advertisement of sale may be published, shall operate to defeat the payment of said taxes; but any such acts of omission or commission may be corrected at any time by the officer or party responsible for the same in like manner as is now or may hereafter be provided by law for performing such acts in the first place, and when so corrected they shall be construed as valid ab initio and shall in no way affect any process by law for the enforcement of the collection of any such tax. All owners of personal property shall be held to know that taxes are due and payable thereon annually, and are hereby charged with the duty of ascertaining the amount of such tax and paying the same before April 1 of each year; all provisions of law now existing or which may be hereafter enacted relating to the assessment and collection of revenue (unless otherwise specifically so declared) shall be deemed and held to be directory only, designed for the orderly arrangement of records and procedure of officers in enforcing the revenue laws of the state; and no assessment shall be held invalid unless suit be instituted within sixty days from the time and assessment shall become final, and no sale of personal property for non-payment of taxes shall be held invalid except upon proof that the personal property was not subject to taxation, or that the taxes had been paid previous to sale.

200.021 Property located in state between January 1 and March 31 taxable.—

(1) All taxable tangible personal property, as defined by §200.01, located in the state between January 1 and March 31 of each year (both dates inclusive) shall be taxable for said year in the county and by the tax assessor of the county in which the same is located; provided, that tangible personal property brought into the state after January 1st and before April 1st of any year shall be taxable for that year only if such property is brought into the state for resale or if the assessor has reason to believe that such property will be removed from the state prior to January 1st of the next succeeding year.

(2) All taxable tangible personal property which is removed from one county in this state to another county after January 1st of any year shall be subject to taxation for said year in the county where it was located on January 1st.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 28302, 1953.

200.03 Comptroller to prescribe and furnish forms, and to prescribe rules and regulations.—The comptroller shall prescribe and furnish all forms to be used by the county assessors, tax collectors, clerks of the circuit courts and boards of county commissioners in the assessing and collecting of taxes. The county assessors, tax collectors, clerks of the circuit courts and boards of county commissioners shall use the forms and pursue the instructions which may from time to time be transmitted to them by the comptroller. All forms furnished by the comptroller for use in each county shall be charged to such county and payment therefor shall be deducted from that part of the intangible taxes collected within the county and allocated by law to the county. The comptroller shall have general supervision of the assessment and valuation of property so that all property will be placed on the tax rolls and the valuation thereof will be uniform and equal, as required by the constitution, and he shall also have supervision over the collection of such taxes. The comptroller shall prescribe reasonable rules and regulations for assessing and collecting taxes and such rules and regulations shall be followed by the county officers referred to in this chapter.

cf.—§199.31 Disposition of intangible personal property taxes.

200.04 Assessment of tangible personal property.—Tangible personal property shall be assessed by the tax assessor of each and every county in the state on a separate tax roll, which shall be designated the tangible personal property tax roll. Such tax roll shall distinctly show the name and address of the taxpayer and the amount of valuation for tax purposes of any tangible personal property assessed against such taxpayer on said tax roll. It shall not be necessary to enter on said tax roll the particular items constituting the tangible personal property which is assessed thereon, but tangible personal property may be entered and assessed on such tax roll in general terms. The total valuation of the tangible personal property of each taxpayer shall be separately stated on such personal property tax roll.

History.—§4, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.05 Schedule of assessments.—If no tax return is filed by the taxpayer, then the tax assessor shall prepare and file in his office a schedule showing the tangible personal property of the taxpayer which is assessed upon the tax roll, which schedule shall be given a number and shall show the date of filing. The number and date of the tangible personal property tax return filed by the taxpayer with the tax assessor and the number and date of the schedule prepared by the tax assessor, where no return has been made, shall be shown on the tax roll in connection with the assessment in an appropriate column in the tangible personal property tax roll for that purpose. Any such assessment for tangible personal property taxes appearing on the tax roll in general terms as tangible personal property shall be construed to refer to and embrace the property described in a return, when a return shall have been filed, and where no return has been filed then such assessment shall be construed to refer to and embrace the property described in the schedule filed by the assessor. All steam, and electric railroads and telegraph, express, sleeping cars, freight line and equipment companies shall be assessed at their full cash value, provided, however, that such assessments shall be made in the manner and by the officers now provided by law.

History.—§4, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.06 Basis of assessment.—The tax assessor shall assess all tangible personal property at its full cash value.

History.—§5, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.07 Assessments against husband and wife, trustee, guardian, executor, administrator, etc.—Where the relation of husband and wife exists all tangible personal property shall be assessed in the name of the husband, unless a special return is filed showing the amount of tangible personal property to be assessed against the husband and wife separately, or unless in the discretion of the tax assessor the assessments should be separate. When a person is assessed as trustee, guardian, executor, administrator, or in any other representative capacity, his representative character shall be added to his name and such assessment shall be entered on separate line or lines from the individual assessment of the same person. Where a family relation exists all tangible personal property shall be assessed to the head of the family unless returns of separate ownership are filed, or unless in the discretion of the tax assessor the assessments should be separate.

History.—§6, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.08 Returns of tangible personal property for taxation.—Tangible personal property shall be returned upon the basis and in the manner following:

(1) *It shall be the duty of every person, firm or corporation, including trustees, executors, administrators, receivers, and all other fiduciaries, owning or having the control, management or custody of tangible personal property of every character subject to taxation under the laws of this state, to return the same for taxation to the county assessor of taxes in the proper county on or before April 1 of each and every year. Except as provided by subsections (2) and (4) of this section such return shall give the character, description, location and full cash value of said property according to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person making the return. Any return not made out in the form required or prescribed shall be corrected upon the demand of the tax assessor, and the taxpayer shall be required upon such demand to supply such information as may have been improperly omitted therefrom; and refusal of the person making such return to correct the same shall be cause for the tax assessor to reject or refuse to receive or file such return. Except as provided in subsections (2) and (4) of this section dealing with classes of tangible property therein specified, the tax returns shall be verified by the signature and oath of the person making the same that such return is true to the best of the knowledge and belief of the person making the return, and that the valuations shown thereon are to the best of the knowledge and belief of such person the full cash value of the property described in the return.

(2) It is recognized and declared that household furnishings, wearing apparel, and effects of the person, actually employed in the use for which designed, constitute a class of personal property serving the creature comforts of the owner, that such property is not held for commercial purposes, that the true cash value thereof is both uncertain and speculative, that sentimental value is attached to a great quantity of such property, that it is in the general public welfare to encourage the improvement of the homes of the people, and that taxpayers are generally unable to determine with any reasonable accuracy the full cash value of such property and that such is not a proper basis for valuation thereof for purposes of taxation. Therefore, tangible property consisting of household furnishings, wearing apparel and effects of the person, actually employed in the use for which designed and not used for commercial purposes, are recognized and declared to be property of a special class and character; that the assessed valuation of such property, for purposes of taxation, shall be arrived at and determined upon the basis of the comparable value of articles in like state of repair and capable of comparable use as that of the articles subject to be taxed, irrespective of variance in values between articles designed for similar use; that the person making the return of such property may return the same in bulk, without describing the several articles, and giving the aggregate value thereof upon the stated basis in a lump sum, and the return, as respects said class of property, shall not require verification.

(3) Statutes and laws of this state providing for or requiring the filing of tax returns of household goods and personal effects for ad valorem taxation are hereby declared to be directory only and not mandatory and the failure of any person to file a tax return of such property shall in no way affect his right to object to a tax assessment, within the time permitted by statute, to seek a review of a tax assessment made before either an administrative agency or the courts, or otherwise, and the filing of such a tax return may not be made a condition precedent to the right to homestead tax exemption or any other right.

(4) It is recognized and declared that goods, wares and merchandise, commonly known as stock in trade constitute a class of personal property serving the practical necessity of business operation; that such property is not purchased or held for the use of the owner but for resale; that such property varies from liquids to solids and iron to cloth, that such property includes fast moving items and very slow turnover items, that obsolescence often affects in varying degree the value of such property, that such property includes both low and high mark up items, that such property includes both seasonal and nonseasonal items as well as items with great and no style change factors, that the true cash value thereof is often both uncertain and speculative, that it is in the general welfare to encourage successful business operation to be adequately stocked with varying stock in trade, that such stock in trade is property between capital and profit or just money in transit, and that taxpayers are generally unable to determine with any reasonable accuracy the full cash value of such property and that such is not a proper basis for valuation thereof for purposes of taxation. Therefore tangible property consisting of goods, wares, and merchandise commonly called stock in trade is recognized and declared to be property of a special class and character; that the assessed valuation of such property for purposes of taxation shall be arrived at and determined upon the basis of the comparable value of articles in a like state of salability and capable of comparable use as that of the articles subject to be taxed, irrespective of variance in values between articles designed for similar use; that the person making the return of such property may return the same in bulk, without describing the several articles, and giving the aggregate value thereof upon the stated basis in a lump sum.

200.09 Where tax returns shall be filed.—

Where a taxpayer has tangible personal property in more than one county, he shall make and file a separate tax return for each and every county, and in such return he shall show the tangible personal property he has for taxation in the county where the return is made.

History.—§8, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.10 Assessor may fix valuations; notice in case of increase; appeals.—In the event any person, firm or corporation shall make or file a return as required by this chapter, the full cash value of the tangible personal property owned by him shall be presumptively considered to be that shown in the tax return, unless the tax assessor shall, upon his knowledge or after investigation find that the taxpayer has property subject to taxation which is not described in such return or that the valuation of that which is described in such return is greater than the valuation shown by such return, in which event the tax assessor shall give notice by mail to the person filing the return of such opinion by him. Such notice need not be given unless the taxpayer shall state his post office address on his return and thereon expressly request such notice, but the failure to give or receive such notice shall not invalidate the assessment. The tax assessor thereafter, upon request of such person, shall give him a full and fair hearing as to the tangible personal property which he may have subject to taxation and as to the full cash value of the same. After such full and fair hearing the tax assessor shall finally decide and determine and make his assessment accordingly. The tax assessor may assess the tangible personal property of the taxpayer at an amount less than the valuation shown in such return if he finds that the value thereof as returned is in excess of the full cash value thereof. The taxpayer shall have the right to appeal from any decision of any tax assessor made under this section to the board of county commissioners sitting as a board of equalization, and if the taxpayer is dissatisfied with the decision of the board he may have the decision reviewed by the circuit court of the county in which the property is assessed for taxes by filing a petition for issuance of a writ of certiorari in the manner and within the time prescribed by the Florida appellate rules.

History.—§9, ch. 20723, 1941; §42, ch. 63-512.

200.11 Evidence on hearing and equalizations by assessor and county commissioners.—In the hearings provided for in the preceding section, the county assessors of taxes and the county commissioners shall require every person complaining to give in a complete list of his tangible personal property under oath with the full cash value of the same, and to make oath that the valuations fixed to each item thereof are the full cash valuation of the same, and that the list submitted by the taxpayer is full and complete. If any person shall refuse to make such oath he shall not be permitted afterwards to have reduced the valuation made by the county assessor of his personal property for that year.

History.—§10, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.12 Effect of return.—Regardless of any return which may be filed by any taxpayer, the valuation of any item or items of property shown in the return shall in no case prevent the county assessor of taxes from determining and assessing the full cash value according to his information and best judgment, or from determining and entering upon the return of the taxpayer any item or items of tangible personal property which the county assessor may find has been omitted therefrom, subject to the restrictions and limitations mentioned in this chapter.

History.—§11, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.13 When tangible personal property tax rolls shall be begun; all tangible personal property to be assessed.—No tax return shall be received by the tax assessor after April first of any year for that tax year. Beginning on April first of each year the tax assessor shall begin preparation of his tax roll of tangible personal property, and shall cause the same to be completely assessed at its true and just taxable value according to his best information and judgment, and shall complete the same on or before June first of that year. The tax assessor shall enter upon and include in said tax roll the name of each and every person, firm and corporation who or which between January first and March first of that year was an inhabitant and/or was doing business in such county, and shall enter upon said tax roll, according to his best knowledge and information, the name of each person, firm or corporation not an inhabitant of the county or not doing business therein who or which between said dates of that year had located in the county tangible personal property, and shall also enter upon said roll all taxable tangible personal property usually kept and located in the county, the ownership of which is unknown to him, provided in the last mentioned case the tax assessor shall give the location of said property if same is known to him.

History.—§12, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.14 Form and contents of tangible personal property tax assessment roll, and submission thereof to the comptroller.—After having entered all the names of the owners of tangible personal property on the tax roll, as hereinbefore provided, the tax assessor shall proceed to assess the tangible personal property in the county upon such information as he may have before him after making diligent effort to obtain true descriptions, ownerships and valuations of the same, including such information as shown by the tax returns which shall have been filed with him for that year. He shall place on the tax roll opposite the name of the person, firm or corporation listed thereon as a taxpayer the true total taxable valuation, as found and determined by the tax assessor, of tangible personal property for which said taxpayer is to be assessed for that year. The county assessors of taxes shall complete the assessment rolls of their respective counties on or before the first day in June in every year, on which day the assessors shall submit their rolls to the comptroller for approval. Upon approving the tax roll the comptroller shall endorse his approval thereon. No assessment roll shall be submitted to the county board of equalization until such roll has the approval of the comptroller endorsed thereon.

History.—§13, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.15 Tax returns to show all exemptions and claims.—In making tangible personal property tax returns under this chapter it shall be the duty of the taxpayer to completely disclose and claim any and all lawful or constitutional exemptions from taxation to which he may be entitled or which he may desire to claim in respect to taxable tangible personal property. The failure to disclose and include such exemptions, if any, in a tangible personal property tax return made under this chapter shall be deemed a waiver of the same on the part of the taxpayer and no such exemption or claim thereof shall thereafter be allowed for that tax year.

History.—§14, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.16 Assessment of tangible personal property previously omitted.—If any tax assessor when making his assessment shall discover that any tangible personal property has for any reason escaped taxation for any or all of the three previous years, he shall, in addition to the assessment of such tangible personal property for that year, assess the same separately for such year or years that it may have escaped taxation at the full cash value thereof, in such year, noting distinctly the year when such tangible personal property escaped taxation, and such assessment shall have the same force and effect as it would have had if made in the year that the same escaped taxation, and taxes shall be levied and collected thereon in like manner and together with the taxes of the year in which the assessment is made. Provided, that tangible personal property acquired in good faith by purchase shall not be subject to assessment for taxes for any time prior to the time of such purchase, but the individual or corporation liable for any such assessment shall continue personally liable for same.

History.—§15, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.17 Duty of receivers and other judicial officers to return tangible personal property for taxation.—Every receiver or custodian of tangible personal property who shall be appointed by any court in this state and every clerk of any court in this state who shall hold or have the custody of any such tangible personal property in the registry of the court between January first and April first of each year shall return the same for taxation to the tax assessor in the proper county on or before the first day of April of each year. The officers required to make such reports shall make the same upon the forms provided by the comptroller. If the tangible personal property so reported by the officers named in this section shall not be otherwise taxed, the tax assessor shall enter the same upon the tangible personal property tax roll and assess the tax thereon to the proper party. The taxes thereon shall be paid by the receiver, clerk or other officer named in this section to the tax collector, and the amount so paid shall be charged against such tangible personal property and allowed as a credit to the officer paying or delivering the same, which may be established by the receipt of the tax collector. The officers paying such tax shall not be required to inquire into the validity of such assessment or tax, but the receipt of the tax collector shall afford him complete protection for such payment.

History.—§16, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.18 Duty of judge of the county judge's court to file list of tangible personal property belonging to estates of deceased persons.—It shall be the duty of the judge of the county judge's court to furnish to the county assessor of taxes, on or before April first of each year, a complete list of all tangible personal property belonging to the estate of any deceased person, as shown by the records in the office of the judge of the county judge's court. The county assessor of taxes shall check said list against the return filed by the administrator or executor of said estate, and shall make his assessment against said administrator or executor as other assessments are made. In the event that the administrator or executor has not filed a report, then the county assessor of taxes shall make his assessment against said administrator or executor as in other cases where no return is filed. The failure on the part of the judge of the county judge's court to furnish said list as required herein shall be grounds for removal of said judge by the governor of this state.

History.—§17, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.19 Time for completion of assessment roll; hearings and equalization by county commissioners.—The assessor shall complete the personal property assessment roll on or before June first of each year. The failure or neglect of the assessor to complete such tax roll by such date shall not invalidate the assessment. As soon after July first as convenient on the day to be fixed by the board of county commissioners the tax assessor shall meet with the board of county commissioners at the usual meeting place of the board in such county for the purpose of hearing complaints and receiving testimony as to the valuation to be used in making tangible personal property assessments, and for the purpose of perfecting, reviewing, and equalizing the assessments and valuations thereof as shown by the personal property tax assessment roll, and to determine whether all taxable tangible personal property has been assessed on the roll for that year. Such equalization meeting may be held on the same day and at the same time that the board of county commissioners sits as a board of equalization in respect to assessments of real estate. The board of county commissioners may continue in session for the purpose stated in this section from day to day and from time to time as long as it shall be necessary. Due notice of the original meeting of the county commissioners for the purpose stated in this section shall be given by publication once each week for two successive weeks in a newspaper published in the county, said newspaper to be selected by the board of county commissioners at its regular meeting in February of each year, and the newspaper so selected shall have been continuously published in the county for a period of one year prior to its selection, or, if there be no such newspaper, a newspaper published for a less period of time may be selected. If there be no such newspaper published in the county, then such notice shall be posted at the door of the county court house for the same period of time provided for such publication. The advertisement shall be paid for by the county at the rate provided by law for official or legal advertisements, and if there is no newspaper published in the county then the clerk shall receive as a fee for posting the notice a sum equal to what the cost would have been if the notice had been published.

cf.—§49.06 Legal rate for advertisement.

200.20 Powers and duties of board of equalization.—At the meeting of the board of county commissioners as a board of equalization, for the purpose of hearing complaints and receiving testimony and for reviewing, revising, and equalizing the tangible personal property tax roll, the board may make such changes in valuation and assessments of tangible personal property, shown on the tangible personal property tax roll submitted by the tax assessor, and may make such additions of taxable tangible personal property thereto which have been omitted therefrom, as may be necessary to equalize the assessment and make the same fair and just. If, however, the board shall increase the assessment appearing on such personal property tax assessment roll, it shall publish or post in the manner prescribed by §200.19, notice that the board has increased the assessment of certain persons (whose names need not be stated) and will sit as a board of equalization on a date to be stated in such notice for the purpose of hearing complaints and testimony, if any, in respect to such increased or added assessments. On the date specified in such notice, the board shall sit as a board of equalization and then and there equalize and determine the true and just amount of such assessments in the same manner provided in §200.19.

History.—§19, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.21 Acts of assessor and county commissioners presumptively valid.—It shall be the duty of the tax assessor and board of county commissioners of each county in this state to comply strictly with all the duties and requirements of this chapter; and their determinations for fact under this chapter shall be presumed to be correct and valid when made in the manner and pursuant to the authority hereby conferred.

History.—§20, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.22 Taxpayer to be heard under oath.—If any taxpayer shall make complaint to the county commissioners, sitting as a board of equalization, as to the valuation involved in any tangible personal property tax assessment he shall be fully heard under oath.

History.—§21, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.23 Effect of assessment after equalization.—Where no complaint shall have been made as to any assessment or any valuation as shown on the assessment roll, the assessment and the valuation thereof shall be deemed and held to be fair, just and equal and validly made according to the laws of the state.

History.—§22, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.24 Reduction of tangible personal property taxes forbidden after tax roll completed except to correct clerical errors.—All officers, state and county, charged by law with the execution or enforcement of this chapter are hereby prohibited from reducing or canceling any tangible personal property tax after such tangible personal property tax shall have been assessed and equalized in a manner prescribed by this chapter; except that no such officer is hereby prohibited from making corrections of obvious clerical errors and acting in pursuance of such corrections.

If any officer shall, in violation of this chapter, reduce or cancel any such tangible personal property tax, or accept any sum in payment thereof less than that so assessed and levied, he and the sureties on his official bond shall be liable to the state for the amount so reduced or rebated, together with a penalty of fifty per cent thereof, all of which may be recovered in a civil action instituted in the name of the state by the attorney general or by the state attorney upon the direction of the attorney general.

History.—§23, ch. 20723, 1941; §1, ch. 59-247.

200.25 When tangible personal property taxes due and payable.—All taxes on tangible personal property shall be due and payable on the first day of November of each year, or as soon thereafter as the tangible personal property assessment roll shall come into the hands of the tax collector. The tangible personal property tax assessment roll shall have attached thereto a tax assessor's warrant in substantially the same general form as provided by §193.35. The controller may prescribe the form of such warrant. The absence of such warrant or defects in its form shall not invalidate the tangible personal property tax roll if it is the authentic tax roll made under and pursuant to this chapter; and the effect and purpose of such warrant is hereby declared to be merely evidence of the authenticity and official regularity of the tangible personal property tax assessment roll itself.

History.—§24, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.26 Discounts.—Taxpayers paying tangible personal property taxes shall be entitled to the same discounts as may be allowed by law for the payment of taxes on real property.

History.—§25, ch. 20723, 1941.
cf.—§193.41 Discount allowed.

200.27 When tax deemed delinquent; advertisements; warrants; fees of deputy tax collectors.—Taxes on tangible personal property shall be deemed delinquent on April 1 of the year following that for which the assessment was made, except that for the 1940 assessment the date shall be July 15. On or before April 25 (except that for the 1940 assessment the day shall be July 15), the tax collector shall advertise one time in some newspaper published in the county, said newspaper to be selected by the board of county commissioners at their regular meeting of February of each year, except that for the 1940 assessment the date shall be at their regular meeting in July, and the newspaper so selected shall have been continuously published in the county for a period of not less than one year prior to its selection, or if there be no such newspaper, a newspaper published for a less period of time may be selected, a notice setting forth the names of delinquent tangible personal property taxpayers and the amount of tax due by each and advising them that such delinquent tangible personal property taxes, are now drawing interest at the rate of one per cent per month and that unless such delinquent tangible personal property taxes are paid before May 1, except that for the 1940 assessment the day shall be before August 1, warrants will issue thereon directing levy upon and seizure of the tangible personal property of the taxpayer for unpaid taxes; which advertisement shall be paid for by the county at the rate provided by law for official or legal advertisement and the proportionate cost of such advertisement shall be added to the delinquent taxes as and when they are collected. Beginning on May 1 (except for the 1940 assessment the date shall be August 1) the tax collector in person or by deputy appointed by him for that purpose shall levy upon and seize tangible personal property of the delinquent taxpayer for unpaid taxes, and a written appointment from the tax collector with a statement from him of the person in whose name the property is assessed and the amount of taxes due shall be sufficient warrant and authority for the tax collector or said deputy to act, and it shall not be necessary for the tax collector or said deputy to take the tax roll or warrant annexed thereto with him. Deputy collector so appointed shall be liable to the same penalties prescribed by law as to tax collectors for neglect of duty or otherwise. The deputy tax collector shall be entitled to the following fees, which shall be collected from delinquent taxpayers at the same time of the payment of their taxes: on amounts of less than five dollars taxes, his fee shall be one dollar; on amounts of over five dollars but less than ten dollars taxes, his fee shall be one dollar and fifty cents; and on amounts over ten dollars taxes, he shall receive a fee of two dollars.

History.—§26, ch. 20723, 1941; §1, ch. 63-430.

200.28 Sale of tangible personal property after seizure.—When tangible personal property shall be levied upon for any delinquent taxes as provided for in the preceding section, the tax collector or his deputy shall give public notice of the time and place of sale and of the property to be sold at least fifteen days previous to the sale by advertisement, to be posted in at least three public places in the county, one of which shall be at the court house door, and the property shall be sold at public auction at the court house door and the property sold shall be present if practical; but at any time previous to the sale the owner or claimant of such property may release the same by the payment of the taxes plus delinquency charges and interests and costs for which the same was liable to be sold. In case any sale shall be made as aforesaid, the tax collector shall be entitled to the same fees and charges as are allowed sheriffs upon execution sales.

History.—§27, ch. 20723, 1941; §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

200.29 When property sold for more than taxes, surplus returned.—If the property levied upon shall be sold for more than the amount of taxes, the delinquent charges, interest, costs and collection fees, the surplus shall be returned to the person in whose possession the said property was when the levy was made or to the owner of the property.

History.—§28, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.30 Attachment of tangible personal property in case of removal; taxes assessed a judgment.—In case any tangible personal property upon which the taxes shall have been assessed is removed from the county in which said tangible personal property was assessed, it shall be lawful for the tax collector of the county, by his warrant, to authorize the sheriff of the county within this state to which such tangible personal property shall have been removed to collect such taxes and the sheriff may proceed thereon as upon execution from the circuit court. The tax collectors of the several counties shall have the power to attach for taxes thereon any tangible personal property which has been assessed at any time before payment, if he has reason to believe that such property is being or has been removed or disposed of so as to prevent or endanger the payment of taxes thereon in the same manner and under the same rules of law governing attachments or debts, dues or demands in other cases; and all taxes assessed upon tangible personal property, from the date such taxes become due, shall have all the force and effect of a judgment and execution at law against the owner of such property, except that the same shall not constitute a lien on the real property of such owner.

History.—§29, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.31 Tax warrant may operate as writ of garnishment.—Tax warrant issued by the tax collector for the collection of tangible personal property taxes shall have the same force and effect as a writ of garnishment when levied by the tax collector or his deputy upon any person, firm or corporation who shall have any goods, moneys, chattels, or effects of the delinquent taxpayer in his hands, possession or control or who shall be indebted to such delinquent taxpayer. When any tax warrant is so levied upon any debtor or person holding property of the taxpayer, such debtor or person shall pay the debt or deliver the property of the tax delinquent to the tax collector or deputy tax collector levying such writ, and the receipt of the tax collector or his deputy therefor shall be complete discharge to that extent of the debtor or person holding such property. In the event of such levy the tax collector or his deputy shall make note thereof upon the tax warrant.

History.—§30, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.32 Tax collector to keep record of warrants and levies on tangible personal property.—The tax collector shall keep a record of all warrants and levies made under this chapter and shall note on such record the date of payment, the amount of money, if any, received, and the disposition thereof made by him. Such record shall be known as "the tangible personal property tax warrant register" and the form thereof shall be prescribed by the comptroller.

History.—§31, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.33 Continuing duty of the tax collector to collect delinquent tax warrants.—It shall be the duty of the tax collector issuing a tax warrant for the collection of delinquent tangible personal property taxes to continue from time to time his efforts to collect same for a period of seven years from the date of the issuance of such warrant.

History.—§32, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.34 Tax collectors accountable until complete performance of duty hereunder.—No tax collector shall be relieved of accountability for collection of any taxes assessed on tangible personal property until he shall have completely performed every duty devolving upon him as required by this law.

History.—§33, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.35 Failure to file return and pay tax when due.—Any person who fails to make a tax return as required by this chapter shall pay as a penalty, in addition to and as part of the tax a sum equal to ten per cent of the tax found to be due. A taxpayer making a return and who fails to include therein all of his tangible personal property subject to taxation, as required by this chapter shall pay as a penalty, in addition to and as part of the tax, a sum equal to ten per cent of the tax found to be due upon that part of his tangible personal property which he fails to include in his return. All taxes together with any penalties shall draw interest at the rate of one per cent per month from the date the said taxes become delinquent until the same shall be paid. This section shall apply to the tangible personal property roll for 1941, provided, however, that the penalties herein shall not apply until after the year 1941.

History.—§34, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.36 Comptroller to pass upon and order refunds.—The comptroller shall pass upon and order refunds where payment has been made voluntarily or involuntarily of tangible personal property taxes assessed on the county tax rolls by reason of either of the following circumstances: (1) Any over-payment; (2) Payment where no tax was due; and (3) Where a bona fide controversy exists between the tax collector and the taxpayer as to the liability of the taxpayer for the payment of the tax claimed to be due, the taxpayer may pay the amount claimed by the tax collector to be due, and if it is finally adjudged by a court of competent jurisdiction that the taxpayer was not liable for the payment of the tax or any part thereof. The board of county commissioners shall comply with the order of the comptroller in such matters by providing in the county budget for the ensuing year for the payment of such refunds and the board shall have authority to authorize such tax levies as may be necessary to provide the fund with which to make the refund so ordered.

History.—§35, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.37 Disposition of tangible personal property taxes.—All tangible personal property taxes collected by the tax collector shall be disposed of, applied and remitted by the tax collector promptly as and when collected in the manner prescribed by law in respect to the collection and disposition of taxes upon real estate.

History.—§36, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.38 Errors and insolvencies list.—On or before the first Monday in July of each and every year the tax collector shall make out a report to the county commissioners showing the discounts, errors, double assessments and insolvencies for which he is to be credited under the different heads, giving in every case, except discounts, the names of the parties on whose account the credit is to be allowed. In no case, however, shall the tax collector take credit on this list as insolvent items, any tangible personal property tax due by a solvent taxpayer. The county commissioners, upon receiving such report shall examine same, making such investigations as may be necessary, and if it is discovered that the tax collector has taken credit as an insolvent item any tangible personal property tax due by a solvent taxpayer, then the amount of taxes represented by such item shall be charged to the tax collector and the report shall not be approved until the tax collector shall strike from the report such item.

History.—§37, ch. 20723, 1941; §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

200.39 Authority to bring and maintain suits.—The comptroller shall have authority to bring and maintain such actions at law or in equity by mandamus or injunction, or otherwise, to enforce the performance of any duties of any officer or official performing duties with relation to the execution of the tax laws of the state, or to enforce obedience to any lawful order, rule, regulation or decision of the comptroller lawfully made under the authority of this chapter.

History.—§38, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.40 Proceeding for cancelling or contesting tax.—No suit or proceeding shall be maintained in any court of this state for the purpose of cancelling or contesting the validity of any tax assessment upon tangible personal property, or to enjoin the county tax collector from selling the property of the taxpayer for the purpose of collecting the tax, unless the county tax collector and the comptroller shall be made parties to such proceedings. All such suits shall be brought and maintained in the county where the tangible personal property has been assessed for taxation and the attorney for the board of county commissioners of such county shall represent the county tax collector and the comptroller in any such suit or proceeding, for which he shall receive no additional compensation other than as paid him by the county.

History.—§38, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.41 County assessors to submit budget to comptroller.—On or before July first of each year the county assessor shall submit to the comptroller his budget for the operation of his office for the ensuing year. The comptroller shall examine the budget and if it is found adequate to carry on the work of the assessor, the comptroller shall approve the budget and certify it back to the assessor. If the comptroller finds that the budget is inadequate or is exorbitant, he shall return such budget to the assessor together with his ruling thereon. The assessor shall revise the budget as required by the ruling of the comptroller and resubmit it to the comptroller for approval or further action by him. After the final approval of the budget by the comptroller, it shall not be reduced by the assessor, the board of county commissioners, the county budget commission or any other governing body or officer.

History.—§39, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.42 Removal of officers.—The comptroller shall investigate the conduct and performance of duties by tax assessors, tax collectors, clerks of the circuit court, sheriffs and members of the board of county commissioners when acting as a board of equalization and recommend to the governor the removal of any such official for his willful failure to properly perform the duties imposed upon him by the constitution, this chapter and the rules and regulations prescribed pursuant to this chapter and furnish the evidence to the governor upon which such removal may be warranted.

History.—§40, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.43 Punishment for violation of this act.—Any public officer willfully failing or refusing to comply with this chapter, or violating any of the provisions hereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than five hundred dollars or be confined in the county jail for not more than six months, or both, in the discretion of the court.

History.—§41, ch. 20723, 1941.

200.44 Yachts, boats, etc.—

(1) All pleasure yachts and boats of non-resident ownership which are enrolled, registered or licensed at ports in states or countries other than the state, that would be liable for the payment of personal property taxes assessed in this state by virtue of remaining in Florida waters the year around, shall be and they are hereby exempted from the payment of any personal property taxes levied by the state upon yachts and boats.

(2) The non-resident owner of such pleasure yacht or boat so enrolled, registered, or licensed at ports in states or countries other than this state claiming the exemption in this section provided for, shall be required to exhibit upon demand to the tax assessor of the county where such yacht or boat is anchored, docked or stored, paid personal property tax receipt on said yacht or boat from state of residence, or otherwise show that taxes on said yacht or boat have been paid on the same in state or country of residence, or that the same is not subject to such tax therein.

cf.—§193.10 Boats, list for taxation.

200.45 Personal property tax; automobile trailers.—

(1) There is hereby levied and assessed upon each automobile trailer that does not have a current year's Florida license tag thereupon the same amount that is assessed upon all other personal property within the county where such trailer is found to be.

(2) The county tax assessor of the county wherein said trailer is found to be shall issue a certificate of valuation which shall be immediately conveyed to the tax collector of the county and the tax collector of such county shall collect the same within fifteen days from the date of such certificate of valuation and if same is not paid said automobile trailer is hereby made subject to levy and sale the same as any other delinquent personal property in the state, provided, however, that the owner of such trailer may purchase a Florida license tag for such trailer at any time prior to the issuance of such certificate of valuation, and the same shall operate to exempt such trailer from said ad valorem tax assessment.

(3) If such certificate is issued before November first the tax rate thereupon shall be based upon the same as the previous year's rate.

201.01 Documents taxable, generally.—There shall be levied, collected and paid the taxes specified in this chapter, for and in respect to the several documents, bonds, debentures or certificates of stock and indebtedness, and other documents, instruments, matters, writings, and things described in the following sections, or for or in respect of the vellum, parchment, or paper upon which such document, instrument, matter, writing, or thing, or any of them, are written or printed by any person, who makes, signs, executes, issues, sells, removes, consigns, assigns, or ships the same, or for whose benefit or use the same are made, signed, executed, issued, sold, removed, consigned, assigned, or shipped in the state. Provided further that the documentary stamp taxes required under this chapter shall be affixed to and placed on all recordable instruments, requiring documentary stamps according to law, prior to recordation. On mortgages where the stamps are on the notes, a notation shall be made on the mortgage that the proper stamps and the amount of same have been placed on the notes.

cf.—§665.21(1) Regulation of loans to stockholders.

201.02 Tax on deeds and other instruments relating to lands, etc.—On deeds, instruments, or writings, whereby any lands, tenements, or other realty, or any interest therein, shall be granted, assigned, transferred, or otherwise conveyed to or vested in the purchaser, or any other person by his direction, on each one hundred dollars of the consideration therefor the tax shall be thirty cents; provided, that when the full amount of the consideration for the execution, assignment, transfer, or conveyance, is not shown in the face of such deed, instrument, document, or writing, then in such event the tax shall be at the rate of thirty cents for each one hundred dollars, or fractional part thereof, of the consideration therefor.

History.—§1, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(111); §1, ch. 57-397; §1, ch. 63-533.

201.04 Tax on bills of sale, agreements, transfers, etc., of personal property and interests therein.—

(1) On all sales, agreements to sell or memoranda of sales or deliveries of, transfers of legal title to shares, or certificates of stock or profits or interest in property or accumulations in any corporation, or to rights to subscribe for or to receive such shares or certificates, whether made upon or shown by the books of the corporation, or by any assignment in blank, or by any delivery, or by any paper or agreement or memorandum or other evidence of transfer or sale, whether entitling the holder in any manner to the benefit of such stock interest rights or not, on each one hundred dollars of face value or fraction thereof the tax shall be fifteen cents; and where such shares are without par or face value the tax shall be fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars of actual value or fraction thereof but not to exceed fifteen cents on each share; provided, that in case of sale, where evidence of transfer is shown only by the books of the corporation, the stamps shall be placed upon such books of the corporation; and where the change of ownership is by transfer of the certificate, the stamps shall be placed upon the certificates; and in case of an agreement to sell or where the transfer is made by delivery of the certificate assigned in blank, there shall be made and delivered by the seller to the buyer a bill or memorandum of such sale, to which the stamp shall be affixed; and every bill or memorandum of sale or agreement to sell before mentioned, shall show the date thereof, the name of the seller, the amount of the sale, and the matter or things to which it refers. Any person or corporation liable to pay the tax as herein provided, or anyone who acts in the matter as agent or broker for such person or corporation, or who makes any such sale, or who in pursuance of any such sale, delivers any certificate or evidence of the sale of any stock, interest or right, or bill or memorandum thereof, as herein required, without having the proper stamps affixed thereto, with intent to evade the foregoing provisions, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished accordingly.

(2) For the purposes of this section, the term stock includes corporate stock, shares however designated in a joint stock company, trust in the nature of a common law trust or Massachusetts trust, association or other trust in which the trustees are associated together in substantially the same manner as directors in a corporation for the purpose of carrying on a business enterprise. Such shares are declared to be personal property, and not interests in land, notwithstanding the nature of the property of which the trust shall consist, unless provided otherwise in the trust instrument.

History.—§1, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(111), 7473(4); §1, ch. 61-270; §2, ch. 63-533; (2) n. §1, ch. 63-488. cf.—§775.07 Punishment for misdemeanor.

201.05 Tax on stock certificates.—On each original issue, whether organization or reorganization, of certificates of stock or shares however designated issued in the state, or certificates of profits, or of interest in property or accumulations, by any corporation or by any joint stock company or other association as set forth in §201.04, on each one hundred dollars of face value, or fraction thereof, the tax shall be fifteen cents; provided, that where a certificate is issued without face value, the tax shall be fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars of actual value or fraction thereof. The stamps representing the tax imposed by this section shall be attached to the stock books, and not to the certificates issued.

History.—§1, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(111); §1, ch. 61-270; §2, ch. 63-488; §3, ch. 63-533.

201.07 Tax on bonds, debentures and certificates of indebtedness.—On all bonds, debentures, or certificates of indebtedness issued in the state by any person, and all instruments and documents, however termed, issued by any corporation with interest coupons or in registered form, on each hundred dollars of the face value or fraction thereof, the tax shall be fifteen cents; provided, however, that only that part of the value of the bonds, debentures, or certificates of indebtedness issued by any such person, the property of which is located within the state shall bear to the whole value of the property described in said instrument or obligation shall be taxed hereunder.

History.—§1, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(111); §4, ch. 63-533.

201.08 Tax on promissory notes, written obligations to pay money, assignments of wages, etc.—

(1) On promissory notes, non-negotiable notes, written obligations to pay money, assignment of salaries, wages, or other compensation, made, executed, delivered, sold, transferred, or assigned in the state, and for each renewal of the same on each one hundred dollars of the indebtedness or obligation evidenced thereby, the tax shall be fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars or fraction thereof. Mortgages which incorporate the certificate of indebtedness, not otherwise shown in separate instruments, are subject to the same tax at the same rate.

(2) On promissory notes, non-negotiable notes, written obligations to pay money, or other compensation, made, executed, delivered, sold, transferred, or assigned in the state, in connection with sales made under retail charge account services, incident to sales which are not conditional in character and which are not secured by mortgage or other pledge of purchaser, the tax shall be fifteen cents on each one hundred dollars or fraction thereof of the gross amount of the indebtedness evidenced by said instruments, payable quarterly on such forms and under such rules and regulations as may be promulgated by the comptroller. No documentary stamps shall be required to be attached to instruments under the provisions of this subsection.

History.—§1, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(111); §1, ch. 28216, 1953; (1) §1, (2) §2, ch. 61-277; §5, ch. 63-533.

201.09 Renewal of existing promissory note; exemption.—When any promissory note is given in renewal of any existing promissory note, which said renewal note only extends or continues the identical contractual obligations of the original promissory note and evidences part or all of the original indebtedness evidenced thereby, not including any accumulated interest thereon and without enlargement in any way of said original contract and obligation, such renewal note shall not be subject to taxation under this chapter if such renewal note has attached to it the original promissory note with canceled stamps affixed thereon showing full payment of the tax due thereon.

History.—§1, ch. 19068, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1279(118).

201.10 Certificates of deposit issued by banks exempt.—All certificates of deposit issued by any bank, banking association, or trust company are exempt from the requirement for an excise tax imposed by this chapter.

History.—§2, ch. 19068, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1279(119).

201.11 Administration of law by comptroller.—The administration of this chapter shall be vested in the comptroller of the state, who shall prescribe suitable rules and regulations for the enforcement of the provisions thereof, and shall administer and enforce the taxes levied and imposed by this chapter. He may enter upon the premises of any taxpayer, and examine or cause to be examined by any agent or representative designated by him for that purpose, any books, papers, records, or memoranda bearing upon the amount of taxes payable, and secure other information directly or indirectly concerned in the enforcement of this chapter. Any person, subject to this tax, who shall by any practice or evasion make it difficult to enforce the provisions of this chapter by inspection, or any person, agent or officer, who shall, after demand by the comptroller or any agent or representative designated by him for that purpose, refuse to allow full inspection of the premises or any part thereof, or any books, records, documents, or other instruments in any way relating to the liability of the tax payer for the tax herein imposed, or shall hinder or in any wise delay or prevent such inspection, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished accordingly.

201.12 Duties of clerks of the circuit court.

—Clerks of the circuit court shall report to the comptroller the names and addresses of any and all individuals, firms or corporations, who shall fail to have affixed the required amount of stamps of any conveyance or taxable instrument or document which may be recorded in their respective offices; and any such clerk who knowingly fails to report any such violation within thirty days after recording of any taxable instrument or document, without such stamps, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction punished accordingly.

cf.—§775.07 Punishment for misdemeanor.

201.13 Comptroller to furnish stamps for tax.

—The comptroller of the state shall cause to be prepared and distributed for the payment of the taxes prescribed in this chapter, suitable stamps denoting the tax on the documents to which same are required to be affixed, and shall prescribe such method for affixing of said stamps as shall be necessary to carry out and comply with the intent and purpose of this chapter.

201.131 Metering machines.—

(1) The taxes imposed by this chapter may also be paid through the use of excise tax on documents stamp insignia to be applied by the use of metering machines. The comptroller of the state shall prescribe and promulgate appropriate rules and regulations governing the use of metering machines, the procedure for the payment of such excise taxes on documents through the use thereof, requiring adequate surety bonds of the non-governmental users thereof to assure the proper use of such machines and the payment of all excise taxes on documents, and all other rules and regulations necessary and proper to govern the use of same.

(2) Users of such metering machines will have to supply such machines at their own expense.

(3) All provisions of this chapter governing the use of excise tax in documents stamps and pertaining to the payment of such excise taxes through the use of stamps shall likewise be applicable, where appropriate, to the payment of such taxes through the use of metering machines.

History.—§3, ch. 57-107.

201.14 Cancellation of stamps when used, etc.—Whenever an adhesive stamp is used for denoting any tax imposed by this chapter on documents, the person using or affixing the same shall write or stamp or cause to be written or stamped thereon, the initials of his or its name, and the date upon which same is attached or used, so that the same may not again be used. Stamps shall be affixed in such manner that their removal will require continued application of steam or water; provided, that the comptroller may prescribe such other method for the cancellation of such stamps as he may deem expedient.

History.—§5, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(116).

201.15 Distribution of taxes collected.—All taxes collected under the provisions of this chapter shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund of the state, to be used and expended for the purposes for which said general revenue fund was created and exists by law.

History.—§6, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(117).

201.16 Other laws made applicable to chapter.—All revenue laws relating to the assessment and collection of taxes are hereby extended to and made a part of this chapter, so far as applicable, for the purpose of collecting stamp taxes omitted through mistake or fraud from any instrument, document, paper, or writing named herein.

History.—§3, ch. 15787, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(115).

201.17 Penalties for failure to pay tax required.—Whoever makes, signs, issues, or accepts, or causes to be made, signed, issued, or accepted, any instrument, document or paper of any kind or description whatsoever, without the full amount of the tax herein imposed thereon being fully paid, or whoever makes use of any adhesive stamp to denote any tax imposed by this chapter without canceling or obliterating such stamps as herein provided, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished accordingly.

cf.—§775.07 Punishment for misdemeanor.

201.18 Penalties for illegal use of stamps, etc.—Whoever fraudulently cuts, tears, or removes from any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, or document, upon which any tax is imposed by this chapter, any adhesive stamp used in pursuance of this chapter, or fraudulently uses, joins, fixes, or places to, with, or upon any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, or document, upon which any tax is imposed by this chapter (1) any adhesive stamp which has been cut, torn, or removed from any other vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, or document, upon which any tax is imposed by this chapter, or (2) any adhesive stamp of insufficient value, or (3) any forged or counterfeited stamp; or whoever wilfully removes or alters the cancellation or defacing marks of, or otherwise prepares any adhesive stamp with intent to use or cause the same to be used after it has already been used, or knowingly or willfully buys, sells, offers for sale, or gives away any such washed or restored stamp to any person for use, or knowingly uses the same, or whoever knowingly and without lawful excuse has in possession any washed, restored, or altered stamp which has been removed from any vellum, parchment, paper, instrument, writing, or document; or whoever knowingly or willfully prepares, buys, sells, offers for sale, or has in his or its possession any counterfeit stamps, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by fine of not less than five hundred dollars, or imprisonment of not less than twelve months.

cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

201.19 Forfeiture for illegally avoiding tax on notes.—Any person, either maker or payee, who shall attach to any original note any other note which is not in fact a renewal of the original note without paying the tax and affixing the stamps required by law on each and all of such notes, shall forfeit to the state a sum of money equal to twice the face value of all such notes as may be so attached, and the comptroller of the state shall direct the state attorney of the judicial circuit within which such parties or any of them reside, or where the act was committed, to bring suit in the name of the state to collect the amount due, and such state attorney shall institute and prosecute to judgment and collection the amount due, and the maker and the payee shall be jointly and severally liable for the payment thereof.

History.—§3, ch. 19068, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1279(120).

201.20 Penalties for illegally avoiding tax on notes.—Any person using the provisions of §201.09 to avoid the payment of any tax justly due shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail of not more than six months.

cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

201.21 Notes and other written obligations exempt under certain conditions.—There shall be exempt from all excise taxes imposed by chapter 201, all promissory notes, non-negotiable notes and other written obligations to pay money bearing date subsequent to July 1, 1955, hereinafter referred to as "principal obligations," when the maker thereof shall pledge or deposit with the payee or holder thereof pursuant to any agreement commonly known as a wholesale warehouse mortgage agreement, as collateral security for the payment thereof, any collateral obligation or obligations, as hereinafter defined, provided all excise taxes imposed by this chapter upon or in respect to such collateral obligation or obligations shall have been paid. If the indebtedness evidenced by any such principal obligation shall be in excess of the indebtedness evidenced by such collateral obligation or obligations, the exemption provided by this section shall not apply to the amount of such excess indebtedness, and in such event, the excise taxes imposed by this chapter shall apply and be paid only in respect to such excess of indebtedness of such principal obligation. The term "collateral obligation" as used in this section shall mean any note, bond or other written obligation to pay money secured by mortgage, deed of trust or other liens upon real or personal property.

History.—§1, ch. 29981, 1955.

CHAPTER 203

GROSS RECEIPTS TAXES, GENERALLY

- 203.01 Public service corporations, tax upon gross receipts.
 203.011 Certain credits authorized.
 203.02 Powers of comptroller.

203.01 Public service corporations, tax upon gross receipts.—Every person, including municipal corporations, receiving payment for electricity for light, heat or power, for natural or manufactured gas for light, heat or power, for use of telephones, and for the sending of telegrams and telegraph messages, shall annually, on or before the fifteenth day of March, report to the comptroller of the state, under oath of the secretary or some other officer of such person, the total amount of gross receipts derived from business done within this state, or between points within this state, for the preceding calendar year and, at the same time, shall pay into the state treasury the sum of one dollar and fifty cents upon each one hundred dollars of such gross receipts. The term "gross receipts" as used herein shall not include gross receipts of any person derived from the sale of natural gas to a public or private utility, including municipal corporations and rural electric cooperative associations, either for resale or for use as fuel in the generation of electricity. If any person fails to make such report to the comptroller and pay the tax as herein provided, the comptroller shall, after having given at least five days' notice to such person or some official or representative thereof within this state, estimate the amount of such gross receipts from such information as he may be able to obtain and shall add ten per cent of the amount of such taxes as a penalty, for the failure of such person to make report, and shall proceed to collect such tax, together with all costs and the penalty, the same as other delinquent taxes are collected; provided, no penalty shall be added as aforesaid if a return is made and the amount due is paid to the state treasurer before the expiration of the time stated in the comptroller's notice aforesaid.

History.—§1, 2, ch. 15658, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(108), 1279(109); §7, ch. 22858, 1945; §1, ch. 57-819, cf.—§1.01 (3) Definition of person.

203.011 Certain credits authorized.—Whenever a purchase is made of any utility service and a tax is paid thereon by a public utility that is regulated by the Florida railroad and public utilities commission, municipality or a rural electric cooperative association as provided in §203.01, and such public utility, municipality or rural electric cooperative association resells the same directly to consumers, such public utility, municipality or rural electric cooperative association shall be entitled and shall receive credit upon such taxes as may be due it under §203.01 to the extent of the tax paid or payable upon such utility service by the person, firm or corporation from whom such purchase was made.

- 203.03 Penalties.
 203.04 Repeal of laws granting exemptions or exceptions.

History.—§1, ch. 28091, 1953; §1, ch. 57-820.

203.02 Powers of comptroller.—The comptroller may audit the reports provided for in §203.01 and each and every such person shall submit all records, books, papers and accounts as to business done to the comptroller or to a representative of the comptroller for examination or investigation upon demand.

History.—§3, ch. 15658, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1279(110).

203.03 Penalties.—Any officer, agent or representative of any such person who receives any payment for the furnishing of the things or the services above mentioned without first complying with the provisions of this chapter as required, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and for each violation shall be punished in the manner as is provided by law for the punishment of a misdemeanor.

 cf.—§775.07 Punishment for misdemeanor.

203.04 Repeal of laws granting exemptions or exceptions.—

(1) All provisions of presently existing general, special or local statutes or laws, or parts thereof, including municipal charters and laws relating to quasi-municipal corporations, of this state granting or providing exemptions or exceptions, either directly or indirectly, from the gross receipts taxes imposed by chapter 203 are hereby repealed. This section shall not repeal, modify or amend any of the provisions of §§203.01 or 203.011.

(2) No statute or law, general, special or local hereafter enacted which either directly or indirectly relates to exemptions or exceptions from taxation in this state shall be construed as including or extending to the gross receipts taxes imposed by chapter 203 unless its application to said chapter, either directly or indirectly, is clearly and specifically expressed and no repeals by implication shall be recognized in this connection. This is a rule of statutory construction to be applied to statutes and laws hereafter enacted.

(3) Subsection (1) shall be construed as applying to chapter 29334, 1953, as amended by chapter 31051, 1955; chapters 30415, 30576, 30845 and 31166, 1955; and chapters 57-1174 and 57-1348, all laws of Florida. This enumeration of chapters shall not be construed as being all inclusive.

History.—§§1, 2 and 3, ch. 63-535.

RETAIL STORE LICENSE TAXES

- 204.01 Definitions.
- 204.02 License taxes imposed.
- 204.05 Time taxes due and payable.
- 204.06 Collection of taxes; duty of comptroller.
- 204.09 Penalties.

- 204.10 Lien for taxes, enforcement and penalties.
- 204.11 Revocation or suspension of licenses.
- 204.12 Transfer of licenses.
- 204.13 Enforcement.
- 204.14 Disposition collections.
- 204.15 Licenses not exclusive.

204.01 Definitions.—The following words, terms and phrases when used in this chapter have the meaning ascribed to them in this section except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning.

(1) "Person" includes any individual, corporation, receiver, or association of persons acting together as a unit.

(2) "Association of persons" means and includes any firm, copartnership, joint adventure, joint stock company, association, estate, business trust, trust, syndicate, fiduciary, or any other group or combination of persons, whether natural or artificial, acting together or as a unit.

(3) "A retail sale" or "sale at retail" means any sale to a consumer or to any person for any purpose other than for resale in the form of tangible personal property, provided that no sale shall be construed to be a "retail sale" where goods, wares, and merchandise are sold in wholesale quantities at wholesale prices by licensed wholesale dealers under standing orders or through outside salesmen as distinguished from sales of small packages at retail prices or is sold in wholesale quantities and at wholesale prices to any governmental institution, subdivision or agency.

Provided further that incidental sales not otherwise excepted in this paragraph, made by a licensed wholesaler to consumers at wholesale prices shall not be construed to be retail sales, unless such sales exceed five percent of such wholesaler's total sales.

(4) "Business" includes any activity engaged in, or carried on, by any person either directly or indirectly, or for whose benefit such activity is engaged in or carried on where the object of such activity is profit or gain to the person engaging in or carrying on the same, or for whose benefit the same is carried on.

(5) "Retailer" includes every person engaged in the business of making sales at retail.

(6) "Store" as used in this chapter shall mean and include any store or any mercantile establishment, whether same be stationary or movable by means of wheels or otherwise, which is owned, operated or maintained by a person, firm, copartnership, joint adventure, joint stock company, association, corporation, estate, business trust, trust, receiver, syndicate, fiduciary, or any other group, or combination of persons; in which goods, wares, or merchandise of any kind, are sold or are offered for sale at retail. Provided, however, the term store or mercantile establishment shall not include bulk plants or filling stations engaging principally in the sale of gasoline and other petroleum products, ice plants or ice dealers engaging principally in the sale of ice, bakeries and other manufacturing or processing plants selling only the products manufactured or processed therein, restaurants, cafes, cafeterias, hotels and liquor stores; provided, however, that where food or intoxicating liquors is (are) sold in connection with a principal business, but only incidental thereto, said principal business shall not be exempt from the license tax imposed herein.

(7) "Seasonal store" when used in this chapter shall mean a store regularly and customarily operated or to be operated only during a certain season of a year, or for a period of time less than a calendar year.

(8) "New store" when used in this chapter shall mean a newly opened store or mercantile establishment located at a street address anywhere in this state at which the owner or licensee has not theretofore operated a store or mercantile establishment and for which new store location the licensee has not, under the provisions of this chapter, transferred a license theretofore issued by the comptroller for a store of the licensee in another location of this state.

History.—§2, ch. 16848, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(95b); §1, ch. 20977, 1941; §1, ch. 24269, 1947; §11, ch. 25035, 1949; (6) §1, ch. 28008, 1953; §7, ch. 29615, 1955; §24, ch. 57-1.

204.02 License taxes imposed.—For the privilege of conducting, engaging in and carrying on the business of a retailer as defined in this chapter, there is hereby levied and assessed upon every person, or association of persons as herein defined, for each store located and operated within this state by such person or association of persons, an annual license tax in the sum of ten dollars.

History.—§4, ch. 16848, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(95d); §2, ch. 20977, 1941; §1, ch. 28028, 1953.

204.05 Time taxes due and payable.—The license taxes levied and imposed by §204.02 shall be due and payable on the first day of July of each year at the office of the state comptroller at Tallahassee, at which time the comptroller shall issue the license or licenses.

If any person, or association of persons, desires to operate a store, or mercantile establishment in Florida, such person, or association of persons, shall, before commencing the operation of such store, apply for and obtain the annual license, or licenses, herein provided for, applicable to such store, which license, or licenses, shall expire on June thirtieth following its or their issuance, regardless of the date of its or their issuance.

History.—§7, ch. 16848, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(95g); §5, ch. 20977, 1941; §20, ch. 29615, 1955.

204.06 Collection of taxes; duty of comptroller.—The collection of the license taxes levied, imposed and required to be paid is hereby vested in the state comptroller, and the several county collectors of the state are hereby required to perform such duties and assist the comptroller in such respects as he may require in the administration and enforcement of this chapter; and the comptroller is hereby authorized and empowered to prescribe forms relative to the administration and enforcement of this chapter. The comptroller is hereby authorized and empowered to demand of any agency or department of the state government or of any officer of any political subdivision of the state all information by him deemed necessary to properly administer this chapter.

History.—§5, ch. 16848, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(95e); §6, ch. 20977, 1941.

(1) Any person, or association of persons, subject to the provisions of this chapter, failing or refusing to furnish any report as herein required to be made, or failing or refusing to furnish a supplemental report, or other data required by the comptroller, or who shall violate any provision of this chapter, or fail to pay the license tax or taxes due by such person, or association of persons, under the provisions of this chapter, or who shall secure any license as herein provided for upon a false or fraudulent application, or who shall operate any store in this state without first obtaining the license or licenses provided for herein, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment within the discretion of the court.

(2) Any person required to make, render, sign or verify any report as aforesaid, who makes any false or fraudulent report or return with the intent to evade the license taxes herein provided for, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction, be fined not exceeding one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment within the discretion of the court, and the comptroller shall in each such case collect in addition to the taxes due, a penalty equal to two per cent of the amount of such tax per month for the period of delinquency in excess of sixty days.

204.10 Lien for taxes, enforcement and penalties.—There is hereby created a lien in favor of the state upon all the property, both real and personal, of any person, or association of persons, who shall become liable for the payment of any license tax levied and imposed by this chapter for the amount of the license tax, or license taxes, due and payable under the provisions thereof, together with all costs of collecting same; and if the license tax imposed by this chapter, or any portion of such license tax, or license taxes be not paid within sixty days after the same becomes delinquent, the comptroller may thereafter, upon due application and order of a court of competent jurisdiction, issue a warrant under his official seal, directed to all and singular the sheriffs of the state, commanding them to levy upon and sell any real and personal property of the person, or association of persons, liable for such license tax, or license taxes, within their respective jurisdiction, for the payment of the amount thereof, with the added penalties and costs of executing the warrant and to return such warrant to the comptroller and to pay him the money collected by virtue thereof by a time to be therein specified, not more than sixty days from the date of the warrant. The sheriff shall, within five days after the receipt of the warrant, file with the clerk of the circuit court of his county a copy thereof, and thereupon the clerk shall record the same, showing the name of the persons, or association of persons, mentioned in the warrant, and in proper columns the amount of the license tax, or taxes, and penalties, for which the warrant is issued, and the date when such copy is filed, and thereupon the amount of such warrant so docketed shall become a lien upon the title to any real or personal property of such person, or association of persons against whom such warrant is issued in the same manner as a judgment duly docketed and recorded in the office of such clerk of the circuit court with execution duly issued thereon and in the hands of the sheriff for levy. Such sheriff shall thereupon proceed upon the same in all respects with like effect and in the same manner prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against property upon judgments of a circuit court and shall be entitled to the same fees for his services in executing the warrant, to be collected in the same manner.

Any person or association of persons who fails to pay any license tax when due the comptroller shall in each such case collect in addition to the taxes due a penalty of two dollars fifty cents for the period of delinquency occurring any time in the first three months, and an additional two dollars fifty cents for each additional three months period, or fraction, of delinquency thereafter.

—No license under this chapter shall be issued by the comptroller until after the filing of the sworn report as herein provided for; and in the event the comptroller shall, within eighteen months, and not thereafter, determine, after the issuance of any permit, that there has been any false statement in the application therefor, or the sworn report provided for herein, or that the number of stores in the chain of the applicant is greater than those set forth in his application, or that the inventory is greater than that shown by his sworn report, it shall be the duty of the comptroller, within eighteen months after the filing of such report, and not thereafter, to proceed to the revocation of all licenses issued to such person, or association of persons, in the manner hereinafter provided. Whenever the holder of a license issued under this chapter shall fail to comply with any of the provisions of this chapter, or whenever the comptroller shall determine that any license has been issued upon any false application or report, the comptroller, upon hearing, after giving ten days' notice to the license holder at his address, time and place of the hearing, to show cause, if any he can, why his license should not be revoked by reason of such violation or false statement or report, and upon such hearing, if the comptroller shall find that such violation has been committed, or such false report made, he shall thereupon revoke and suspend such person's or association of persons', license, or licenses, and before any new license shall be issued such persons, or association of persons, shall be required to make proper application as herein provided for, and to pay the proper license tax, or taxes, imposed by this chapter; and no action taken under the authority hereof shall be construed as in any manner operating as a bar to any other civil or criminal liability which any person, or association of persons, may be liable.

204.12 Transfer of licenses.—The licenses granted and issued under the provisions of this chapter upon payment of the taxes levied and imposed under the provisions of this chapter may be transferred by the licensee upon notice to the comptroller, from one store location to another store location under the same ownership, upon the closing and discontinuance of business at the store location for which such taxes were originally paid and such licenses were originally issued.

History.—§12, ch. 20977, 1941.

204.13 Enforcement.—The comptroller is authorized to employ such employees as he may from time to time deem necessary to carry out the terms and provisions of this chapter, and the attorney general is hereby directed and required to perform all legal services required by the comptroller without any additional expense.

History.—§14, ch. 16848, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151 (95m); §13, ch. 20977, 1941; §11, ch. 26869, 1951.

204.14 Disposition collections.—All funds collected under this chapter shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund.

History.—§15, ch. 16848, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(95n); §14, ch. 20977, 1941; §12, ch. 26869, 1951.

204.15 Licenses not exclusive.—The license taxes imposed by this chapter shall not repeal any other license tax, occupational tax, excise tax, or tax levied by law as a condition precedent to engaging in business in the state, unless expressly repealed hereby.

History.—§17, ch. 16848, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 4151(95o); §15, ch. 20977, 1941.

205.01 Occupational license taxes; county judge's fee.—No person shall engage in or manage any business, profession or occupation, for which an occupational license tax is required by this chapter or other law of this state, unless a state license, or a state and county license, or county license, as the case may be, shall have been procured from the tax collector of the county where the place of business may be located, or where the profession or occupation may be engaged in, or from the comptroller or state treasurer, as is provided by this chapter or other law of this state, which license shall be issued to each person upon receipt of the amount hereinafter provided, or as may be otherwise provided by law, and in case the license is issued by the tax collector, he must collect in addition thereto the county judge's fee of twenty-five cents for each county license signed by him, and such license shall be signed by the tax collector and the county judge and shall have the county judge's seal thereon.

cf.—§1.01(3) Definition of person.

205.011 Definition; merchandise vending machine operator.—Every person who operates for profit fifteen or more merchandise vending machines which require the insertion of a coin, coins, tokens, or paper currency and dispenses merchandise of a value of five cents or more without the necessity of replenishing the device between each operation shall be known as merchandise vending machine operators.

History.—§1, ch. 63-421.

205.02 County and city license taxes, amounts.—In every case, not otherwise provided by law, a county license tax of fifty per cent of the state license tax be and the same is levied and imposed upon every business, profession, or occupation, and the tax collector of each county in this state shall collect such county license tax when the business, profession, or occupation is engaged in, conducted or carried on in any such county, and all of the penalties prescribed by law for the nonpayment of license taxes or for doing business without a license shall extend to and apply to county license taxes, whether imposed by this chapter or any other law of the state; provided, that incorporated cities and towns may impose such further license taxes of the same kind upon the same subjects as they may deem proper, except when otherwise provided by law, but the license taxes so imposed shall not exceed fifty per cent of the state license tax, except as otherwise authorized by law.

205.03 Term of license taxes; transfer.—No license shall be issued for more than one year, and all licenses shall expire on the first day of October of each year, except as otherwise provided by law. All business licenses may be transferred with the approval of the comptroller with the business for which they were taken out when there is a bona fide sale and transfer of the property used and employed in the business, but such transferred license shall not be held good for any longer time or any other place than that for which it was originally issued; provided, that the original license shall be surrendered to and filed with the county judge at the time application for transfer is made, and such transferred license after being approved shall be of the same force and effect as the original license.

205.04 When license tax payable; fractional licenses.—All licenses shall be payable on or before the first day of October, of each year, unless otherwise provided by law, and except as may be otherwise provided by law any person who was not liable for a license during the first half of the license year may be issued a license during the second half of the license year upon the payment of one half the amount fixed as the price of such license for one year.

History.—§4, ch. 6421, 1913; RGS 806; CGL 1053; §4, ch. 14491, 1929; §4, ch. 18011, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 1279(4); §4, ch. 20956, 1941.

205.05 Issuance of license; application.—No license shall be issued except upon written application of the person applying for the same, and the tax collector, before issuing a license based wholly or in part upon property valuation, capital stock, merchandise inventory capacity, production, number of persons employed, number of places of business, or any other contingency, shall require the person applying for such license to file, under oath, a statement giving full and complete information relative to the property valuation, capital stock, merchandise inventory, capacity, production, number of persons employed, number of places of business, or other contingency, as the case may be. The applications and statements required by this section shall be retained as a part of the records of the tax collector's office.

205.051 Issuance of license to practice medicine.—

(1) From and after the passage of this act it shall be unlawful for the tax collectors of the several counties of the state to issue state and county occupational licenses to any persons applying for license to practice medicine in any of its branches unless and until proof of current qualification and competency, as established by certificate or license issued by state boards duly constituted and legally authorized to determine qualification and competency, be exhibited at the time of making such application.

(2) That nothing herein shall be construed to repeal any license tax now imposed by law and not specifically repealed hereby.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 24352, 1947.

205.06 Method of determining license when value of goods or number of employees a factor.—Whenever the amount of a license tax shall be based wholly or in part on the number of persons employed, or the value of the stock of merchandise maintained, the number or value to be used in calculating the amount of the license tax shall be the average number of persons employed or the average value of merchandise maintained during the preceding license year or business operating period, or the average number of persons or average value of merchandise reasonably expected to be employed or maintained during the period for which the license is to be issued, whichever number or value shall be the greater. The average shall be obtained by adding the maximum and minimum number of persons or the maximum and minimum values of merchandise for the period for which the average is to be obtained and the division by two of the sum of the maximum and the minimum. The term "persons employed" includes all persons actively working in the business whether owners thereof or not.

History.—§29, ch. 18011, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 1279(30); §29, ch. 20956, 1941.

205.07 Issuance of license; manner, forms, etc.—The comptroller of the state shall furnish such blanks as are required in book form to the county judge of each county, who shall give to the comptroller his receipt therefor, stating the number of blank licenses in each book received, and the county judge shall return such books for examination at any time when requested to do so by the comptroller. Every state or county license shall be furnished by the county judge, under his seal of office, to the tax collector, on the blanks published by the comptroller, after signing the same and taking his receipt therefor, and the tax collector shall fill out and sign each license before issuing the same to the person or persons, paying him the necessary amount therefor. The tax collector shall make a duplicate of each license issued in the book furnished by the county judge for that purpose, and shall file such duplicate license with the county judge, and the person or persons obtaining such license shall keep the same displayed conspicuously at their place of business and in such a manner as to be open to the view of the public and subject to the inspection of all duly authorized officers of the state and county, and upon failure to do so, shall be subject to the payment of another license tax for engaging in or managing the business or occupation for which such license was obtained. If the payment of a license is made to the state treasurer or comptroller, the license shall be issued by the officer to whom the payment must be made.

205.08 Comptroller's instructions, county officers to obey.—The tax collector and county judge shall follow the instructions and use the forms and such system as may be prescribed by the comptroller, and the comptroller may by audit, examination, inspection and investigation, determine whether or not the reports made by the tax collectors and county judge are accurate, truthful and complete, and if he shall find that any tax collector or county judge has failed, neglected or refused to fully comply with the requirements of this law he shall report such failure, neglect, or refusal to the governor.

205.09 Report of county judge.—Each county judge shall transmit to the comptroller, on or before the fifteenth day of each month following the month covered, a statement showing the total number of licenses issued, the amount of money collected for state and county licenses and shall render to the county commissioners a duplicate of said statement. Each monthly statement shall be signed by the county judge and the tax collector; the tax collector shall make monthly payments of the amount collected by him for state licenses to the state comptroller and at the same time pay to the county depository the amount collected by him for county licenses, retaining a copy of said statement and a copy of each license issued by him for his office records.

205.10 Method of collection of delinquent license taxes, generally; liens.—Whenever any person who is subject to the payment of a license or privilege tax provided by this or any other law of the state, shall fail to pay the same when due, the tax collector, comptroller, state treasurer, or other official to whom the said tax is payable, may issue a warrant directed to all and singular the sheriffs of the state, commanding them and each of them to levy upon and sell any real or personal property of the person liable for said tax within his respective jurisdiction for the amount thereof and the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant to the officer issuing same, and to pay to him the money collected by virtue thereof within sixty days from the date of the warrant. The sheriff to whom the said warrant may be delivered shall proceed in all respects and in the same manner prescribed by law in regard to executions issued against property upon judgments of a circuit court, and shall be entitled to the same fee for his services in executing the warrant, to be collected in the same manner. The officer issuing the warrant may file a copy of the warrant with the clerk of the circuit court of the county to the sheriff of which the original is delivered and the clerk shall record the same, whereupon the amount of the warrant and recording fee shall become a lien upon the title to and interest, whether legal or equitable, in any property, whether real, personal, or mixed, of the person against whom the warrant is issued, in the same manner and to the same extent as a judgment duly docketed in the office of such clerk of the circuit court with execution duly issued and in the hands of the sheriff. Any person subject to and who fails to pay a license or privilege tax required by this or any other law of the state, shall, on petition of the officer to whom the said tax is payable, be enjoined by the circuit court from engaging in the business for which he has failed to pay said license, until such time as he shall pay the same with all costs of such action.

205.15 Exemptions allowed cripples, invalids, aged, etc.—All confirmed cripples, or invalids physically incapable of manual labor, widows with minor dependents, and persons sixty-five years of age or older, with not more than one employee or helper, and who use their own capital only, not in excess of five hundred dollars, shall be allowed to engage in any business or occupation in counties in which they live without being required to pay for a license; except that this exemption shall not apply to any of the occupations specified in §205.41. The exemption provided by this section shall be allowed only upon certificate of the county physician, or other reputable physician, that the applicant claiming the exemption is a confirmed cripple or invalid, the nature and extent of the disability being specified therein, and in case the exemption is claimed by a widow with minor dependents, or a person over sixty-five years of age, proof of the right to the exemption shall be made. Any person entitled to the exemption provided by this section shall, upon application and furnishing of the necessary proof as aforesaid, be issued a license which shall have plainly stamped or written across the face thereof the fact that it is issued under this section, and the reason for the exemption shall be written thereon. Disabled veterans of the world war and the Spanish War shall be allowed the same exemptions as are now allowed by law.

205.16 Disabled veterans of Spanish-American, Korean and World War, exemption.—

(1) Any bona fide permanent resident elector of the state, who served as an officer or enlisted man in the United States army, navy or marine corps during the World War between April 6, 1917, and November 11, 1918, or in the Spanish-American War between April 21st, 1896, and July 4th, 1902, and who was honorably discharged from the service of the United States, and who at the time of his application for license as hereinafter mentioned shall be disabled from performing manual labor, shall, upon sufficient identification and proof of being a permanent resident elector in the state and production of an honorable discharge from the service of the United States during the World War or Spanish-American War between the dates aforesaid, respectively, be granted a license to engage in any business or occupation in the state which may be carried on mainly through the personal efforts of the licensee as a means of livelihood, and for which the state, county or municipal license does not exceed the sum of fifty dollars without payment of any license tax otherwise provided for by law; or shall be entitled to an exemption to the extent of fifty dollars on any license to engage in any business or occupation in the state which may be carried on mainly through the personal efforts of the licensee as a means of livelihood where either the state, county or municipal license for such business or occupation shall be more than fifty dollars. The exemption heretofore referred to shall extend to and include the right of licensee to operate an automobile for hire of not exceeding five-passenger capacity, including the driver, when it shall be made to appear that such automobile is bona fide owned, or contracted to be purchased by the licensee, and is being operated by him as a means of livelihood, and the proper license tag for the operation of such motor vehicle for private use has been applied for and attached to said motor vehicle, and the proper fees therefor paid by the licensee.

(2) When any such person shall apply for a license to conduct any business or occupation for which either the state, county or municipal license tax as fixed by law shall exceed the sum of fifty dollars, the remainder of such license tax in excess of fifty dollars shall be paid by him in cash.

(3) Each and every tax collecting authority of this state, and of each county thereof, and of each municipality therein, shall issue to such persons as may be entitled hereunder a license in pursuance to the foregoing provision and subject to the conditions thereof; and such license when issued shall be marked across the face thereof "World War Veteran's License" or "Spanish-American War Veteran's License"—"Not transferable," as the case may be, provided that before issuing the same, proof shall be duly made in each case that the applicant is entitled under the conditions of this law to receive the exemption herein provided for, which proof may be made by exhibiting a certificate of government rated disability to an extent of ten per cent, or more, or the affidavit or testimony of a reputable physician who personally knows the applicant, and who makes oath that the applicant is disabled from performing manual labor as a means of livelihood, or by the certificate of any post of Spanish-American War veterans or World War veterans, duly executed under the hand and seal of the chief officer and secretary thereof attesting the fact that the applicant is disabled and entitled to receive a license within the meaning and intent of this section, or by the production of a pension certificate issued to him by the United States of America by reason of such disability, or by such other reasonable proof as may be required by the tax collecting authority to establish the fact that such applicant is so disabled, and in addition by establishing to the satisfaction of such tax collecting authority by means of certificate of honorable discharge or certified copy thereof that he is a veteran within the purview of this section. All licenses issued under this section shall be in the same general form, and shall expire at the same time, as other state, county and municipal licenses are fixed by law to expire.

(4) All licenses obtained under the provisions of this section by the commission of fraud upon any issuing authority shall be deemed null and void, and the person who has fraudulently obtained any such license, or who has fraudulently received any transfer of a license issued to another and has thereafter engaged in any business or occupation requiring a license under color thereof, shall be subject to prosecution as for engaging in a business or occupation without having the required license under the laws of the state; and such license shall not be issued in any county other than the county wherein said veteran is a bona fide resident citizen elector, unless such veteran applying therefor shall produce to the tax collecting authority in such county a certificate of the tax collector of his home county to the effect that no exemption from license has been granted to such veteran in his home county under the authority of this section.

(5) In no event under this or any other law shall any person, veteran or otherwise, be allowed any exemption whatsoever from the payment of any amount required by law for the issuance of a license to sell intoxicating liquors, malt and vinous beverages; or for the operation of any slot machine, punch board or any other gaming or gambling device.

(6) Disabled veterans of World War II who became disabled in line of duty any time between December 7, 1941, and the close of the war shall be entitled to the same license tax exemption as is now provided by law for disabled veterans of the Spanish-American war and/or veterans of World War I.

(7) Disabled veterans of the Korean war who became disabled in line of duty any time between June 24, 1950 and July 27, 1953, shall be entitled to the same license tax exemption as now provided by law for disabled veterans of the Spanish-American war and/or veterans of World War I.

for admission and population as defined and prescribed by this section, but a license so issued shall be good only for the place for which it was originally taken out, and the tax collector shall so state in writing on the face of each such license.

No fractional license shall be issued under this provision.

205.321 Traveling medicine shows.—

(1) There is hereby levied a daily license fee of twenty-five dollars, in addition to all other licenses, on itinerant medicine shows where entertainment is given incidental to or as a part of an effort to sell any product by such licensee in the state.

(2) The additional license fee here imposed shall be collected and the license issued in the same manner as the licenses provided for in §205.32.

History.—§1, ch. 57-355.

205.322 Traveling amusement shows; permit required; exemptions, fees; enforcement, penalties.—

(1) It is unlawful for any person to engage in the business of traveling shows, exhibitions or amusement enterprises including (without in any manner limiting the general terms) circuses, carnivals, rodeos, riding devices, traveling animal shows, ice shows, vaudeville, minstrels, theatrical games or tests of skills, dramatic repertoires or other shows and amusements, operating within or without any tent, structure or enclosure permanent or temporary in nature, which shall operate in a city, town or county of the state for a period of less than thirty days, without having first obtained from the comptroller of the state a permit so to do for each location where appearing.

(2) Exempted from the provisions of this act are:

(a) Public fairs and expositions under chapter 616.

(b) Games, contests, recitals, plays by or between schools, universities, colleges, including bona fide church benefits and also games by organized baseball or football teams.

(c) Traveling shows, exhibitions or amusement enterprises as set forth in subsection (1), conducted or exhibited in a motion picture theatre, restaurant, hotel or night club, that pays the annual occupational license tax as provided by law.

(3) Such permit shall be issued by the comptroller upon a sworn written application by the applicant. The application shall state the nature of the show or exhibition and shall list thereon the number of attractions, concessions or units, including any gaming devices to be operated, at what place or places within the state, and for what period of time such applicant for the permit shall remain for the purpose of giving performances, exhibitions, or operating concessions. Provided, however, where any portion of the proceeds from such performances, exhibitions, or concessions inures to a charitable, fraternal, educational, civic or veterans organization then the agreed percentage or contribution, if any, inuring to such beneficiary shall be set forth in the application together with such other information as the comptroller may deem necessary or require. Provided, further, that in the event a beneficiary organization receives any part of the gross proceeds, the person operating the exhibition, performance or concession must upon the completion of such exhibition or performance at each of the places set forth in the permit submit to the comptroller within forty-eight hours of the termination of such exhibition or performance and/or closing of such concession, a sworn statement showing the gross proceeds received therefrom, and further, that the percentage distribution to the beneficiary organization shown in the application has been made to such beneficiary organization. Attached to such sworn statement must be a receipt signed by an authorized official of the beneficiary organization showing that such sum or sums have been received. Failure by the person operating the exhibition, performance, or concession to make such a report within the time limit set forth in this act shall operate to cancel and revoke the permit as to all other places within the state until this act has been fully complied with and a new permit issued.

(4) In addition to any license now or hereafter provided by law such applicant shall at the time of making such application pay a fee of fifty dollars to the comptroller of the state for the issuance of the permit. In the case of any person, subject to the provisions of this act, who shall operate at any one location for less than twenty-four hours and from such operation shall have gross receipts of less than one thousand dollars, in which gross receipts a beneficiary organization, as described in subsection (3), participates, then such person shall be entitled to a refund of thirty-five dollars; provided, that application for such refund is received by the comptroller within fifteen days after such operation on forms prescribed by the comptroller and which form must require that it be sworn to by both such person and an executive officer of the beneficiary organization. Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to exempt any applicant from the payment of all licenses required by state law and existing city ordinances. The permit when issued shall be in quintuplicate, shall not be assignable and shall be valid only for the person in whose name it is issued.

(5) No county tax collector or other state or county officer or employee shall issue a license to any person whomsoever engaging in any business subject to the provisions of this act until such applicant named in the permit shall first display such permit duly granted by the comptroller of the state as herein provided. It shall be a violation of this act for any beneficiary organization as described herein to purchase any license for and on behalf of the exhibitionist, performer, or concessionaire holding a valid permit. Any county tax collector who shall issue or cause to be issued a license under the provisions of this act to any person not possessing such a permit issued in the name of the applicant for the license shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and punished accordingly, and the failure of any county tax collector to collect the fee or the occupational license tax required by law shall cause such county tax collector to be liable on his bond.

(6) Upon the issuance of the required license by the county tax collector to any such applicant a copy of the permit and license showing the nature of the show or exhibitions, a list of attractions, concessions or units to be operated, at what place or places in the county, and for what period of time, shall be delivered to the sheriff of the county as information. The several sheriffs of the counties of the state and other law enforcement officers located within each county are hereby empowered and directed to assist the several county tax collectors in the strict enforcement of this act.

(7) Any person who shall carry on or conduct any temporary business or amusement, subject to the provisions of this act, for which a permit and license is required without first obtaining such permit and license and thereafter strictly complying with the provisions of this act shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than treble the amount required for such permit and license, or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or both.

(8) No restriction or enlargement of the exemptions granted under subsection (2) shall be made by any law hereafter enacted. Any restriction or enlargement of the exemptions granted by subsection (2) shall be affected only by an amendment of subsection (2).

History.—§§1-8, ch. 61-273.

205.33 Circuses, traveling shows, tent shows, etc.; construction where license based upon population.—Whenever, under the laws of Florida, any traveling show, exhibition, or amusement enterprise is required to pay a license tax graduated or scaled in accordance with the population of a municipality, such license tax shall be computed upon the basis of the population of the municipality having the largest population, any portion of which such municipality is within five miles of said show, exhibition or enterprise.

History.—§1, ch. 18012, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 1245(1).

205.34 Cafes, restaurants and other eating places.—Every person engaged in the business of operating a restaurant, cafe, or other public eating place (whether operated in conjunction with some other line of business or not, except dining rooms in hotels) shall pay a license tax based on the number of people for whom he has seats or accommodations for the service of food at any one time in accordance with the following schedule:

With seats or accommodations for less than fifteen persons a license tax of five dollars;

With seats or accommodations for fifteen persons and not more than fifty persons a license tax of ten dollars;

With seats or accommodations for over fifty persons and not more than one hundred fifty persons, a license tax of twenty-five dollars;

With seats or accommodations for over one hundred fifty persons a license tax of fifty dollars.

History.—§5A, ch. 20956, 1941.

205.35 Contracting.—Every person engaged in the business of contracting in any of its branches shall pay a license tax of three dollars, plus one dollar for each person employed thereat, provided said license shall not exceed two hundred fifty dollars. A person who does all the work himself with no employees, helpers, or partners shall not be required to obtain a license under this section.

Less than twenty thousand, but not less than ten thousand inhabitants, fifty dollars.

Less than ten thousand, but not less than three thousand, inhabitants, forty dollars.

Three thousand inhabitants or less, ten dollars.

Any person furnishing light and power, or either, to his customers and making a charge by meter and who shall make a minimum charge without reference to the meter shall pay a license tax of fifty per cent more than above set out; provided, however, this provision shall not apply to persons furnishing meters without cost to places of business and residences.

Municipal corporations which own and operate their own electric light and power plants shall not be subject to the above license taxes.

205.39 Emigrant or labor agents.—

(1) No person, firm or corporation shall carry on the business of an emigrant agent in this state without first obtaining a license therefor from the county tax collector of each county in which emigrants are to be solicited.

(2) The term "emigrant agent," as contemplated by this section, shall be construed to mean any person, firm or corporation engaged in hiring laborers, or soliciting emigrants in this state, to be employed beyond the limits of this state; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not apply to the United States employment service, the war manpower commission, the Florida state employment service, or any state or federal agency engaged in recruiting or referring laborers for employment beyond the limits of this state.

(3) Any person, firm or corporation shall be entitled to a license, which shall be good for one year, upon the payment to the county tax collector, for the use of the state of the sum of one thousand dollars and, for the use of the said county, the sum of five hundred dollars, which license shall be valid only in the county where purchased.

(4) The provisions of chapter 205 shall be applicable to the execution and enforcement of this section except to the extent the same shall be in conflict herewith.

(5) Any person doing the business of an emigrant agent in any county of this state without having first obtained a license as aforesaid shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than five hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than four months or confinement in the state prison at hard labor not exceeding two years for each and every offense, within the discretion of the court.

205.41 Fortune tellers, clairvoyants, etc.—Every fortune teller, clairvoyant, palmist, astrologer, phrenologist, character reader, spirit medium, absent treatment healer, or mental healer, and every person engaged in any occupation of a similar nature shall pay a license tax of one hundred dollars; provided, that this section shall not be construed to require members of any recognized christian denomination who pray for the sick, to obtain a license.

205.411 Same; county permit required; penalty.—

(1) No license to engage in the occupation of fortune-telling or any other pursuit for which a license is required by §205.41, shall be issued to any person unless such person holds a permit therefor given by the board of county commissioners of the county wherein such license is sought. No permit shall be issued until after the following conditions are fulfilled:

(a) The applicant shall have been a resident of Florida for at least two years and shall be a registered voter in the county where the permit and license are applied for.

(b) The applicant shall establish good moral character by not less than five reputable citizens of the county.

(c) The application shall be presented to the clerk of the board of county commissioners, who shall make investigation and examination of the applicant and report the results thereof to the board of county commissioners at its next regular or special meeting.

(d) The board of county commissioners shall consider the application and the report of the clerk and order the permit either issued or denied. The order of the board shall be made in triplicate, with the original given to the applicant, one copy to be retained by the clerk and one by the licensing official.

(2) Any official who shall issue a license provided by §205.41, upon an application not accompanied by the permit required by this act shall be guilty of malfeasance and subject to removal from office.

(3) All county law enforcement officers shall aid and assist the clerk of the board of county commissioners in conducting the examination of any applicant for the permit required for this section.

(4) Every licensee comprehended by this section shall at all times while engaging in the occupation for which licensed display at his place of business both his license and the permit herein required. Failure or refusal so to do shall be prima facie evidence of engaging in such occupation without a license.

(5) Anyone guilty of engaging in any occupation comprehended by §205.41 without a license and the permit required by this section or who shall obtain any such permit or license by fraud or deceit shall, for the first offense, be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or imprisonment for not more than sixty days. For a second or subsequent offense, he shall be imprisoned in the state prison for not less than six months nor more than two years and may, in addition, be fined not to exceed five thousand dollars.

(6) This section does not apply to christian churches who heal the sick by prayer or to regularly ordained ministers of churches who are members of Florida state spiritualist ministerial association whose charters are filed in the library of congress and on record in the state capitol in Tallahassee.

History.—§§1-6, ch. 28289, 1953.

205.42 Gas plants.—Every person engaged in the business of furnishing gas for profit shall pay the following license taxes, in cities and towns having the following populations according to the last preceding state or federal census, to-wit:

Fifty thousand inhabitants or more, three hundred dollars.

Less than fifty thousand, but not less than forty thousand, inhabitants, two hundred and fifty dollars.

Less than forty thousand, but not less than thirty thousand, inhabitants, two hundred dollars.

Less than thirty thousand, but not less than twenty thousand, inhabitants, one hundred dollars.

205.51 Pawnbrokers; records, inspection.—Every person engaged in the business of pawnbrokers shall pay the following license tax, in cities and towns having the following populations according to the last preceding state or federal census, to-wit:

Ten thousand inhabitants, or more, for each place of business, one hundred and fifty dollars.

Less than ten thousand inhabitants, for each place of business, one hundred dollars.

Pawnbrokers shall keep a complete and true record of all transactions, showing from whom each article of their stock was purchased, and the date of purchase, and the date and to whom each article was sold, which record shall at all times be subject to the inspection of all police or peace officers.

Any person violating the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding six months.

History.—§42, ch. 6421, 1913; RGS 965, 5665; CGL 1237, 7868.

205.511 Reports to sheriff; penalty.—Every person engaged in the business of pawnbrokers, licensed under §205.51, shall make monthly reports to the sheriff of the county in which such business is operated of the information required to be maintained by such pawnbrokers under the provisions of §205.51, and any person failing to make such report shall be subject to the penalty provided in said section. Forms for the preparation of the reports required herein shall be prescribed and furnished by the Florida sheriffs bureau.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 59-34.

205.52 Professions.—Every person engaged in the practice of any profession, whether or not such profession be regulated by law, shall pay a license tax of ten dollars for the privilege of practicing, which license tax shall not relieve the person paying same from the payment of any license tax imposed on any business operated by him. This section shall include real estate brokers but no license shall be required of their salesmen.

History.—§10, ch. 18011, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 1279(10); §10, ch. 20956, 1941.

205.53 Public service.—Every person engaged in any business, as owner, agent, or otherwise, that performs some service for the public in return for a consideration, shall for each place of business pay a license tax of three dollars, plus an additional amount equal to two dollars for each person in excess of one employed or working thereat.

No license shall be required under this section for any business, the principal function of which is the performance of some service for the public in return for a consideration, when the nature of the service is such that an occupational license is required of such business by some other section or law of this state, but this proviso shall not be construed to exempt service departments of merchandising and other lines of business from the license required by this section, with the exception of gasoline service stations with not more than three persons engaged in the performance of service for a consideration. No tax under the provisions of this section shall exceed fifty dollars.

205.54 Refrigerator and tank cars.—Every person owning, controlling or operating refrigerator or tank cars, or both, on or over any railroad or part thereof, or leasing or renting any such cars to any other person to operate on or transport freight on or over any railroad or part thereof in this state, shall, on the first day of October of each year, make return to the comptroller under oath, in such form as he may provide, of the number of refrigerator, tank or other cars mentioned in this section, owned, used or operated, leased or rented to be used on or over any railroad or any part thereof in this state, and shall, on the same day pay to the comptroller a license tax of five hundred dollars; provided, that this section shall not apply to any railroad company upon which a license tax is otherwise provided, when such railroad company owns the cars it operates; provided further, that no further license tax shall be imposed by any county or municipality.

All license taxes collected under this section shall be paid into the state treasury by the comptroller as license money.

History.—§46, ch. 6421, 1913; RGS 970; CGL 1242.

205.55 Schools, colleges, etc.—Every person engaged in the business of operating a school, college, or other educational or training institution for profit shall pay a license tax of ten dollars for each place of business, except that persons giving lessons or instructions in their homes without assistants or a staff shall not be required to pay a license.

History.—§13, ch. 18011, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 1279(13); §13, ch. 20956, 1941.

205.56 Telegraph systems.—Each person engaged in the business of owning or operating telegraph systems within this state shall pay a license tax to the comptroller of sixty-five cents per mile, said mileage to be based upon the actual distance from point to point and not upon the number of miles of wire, one-half of which tax shall be paid to each county in which or through which said telegraph lines run in proportion to the mileage in any such county, and no further license tax may be imposed by any county.

205.57 Telephone systems.—Each person engaged in the business of owning or operating telephone systems in this state for profit shall pay a license tax as follows: On the first thousand phones or instruments, or fraction of a thousand, ten cents for each phone or instrument operated or installed; on the second thousand or fraction over one thousand, eight cents for each phone or instrument operated or installed; and all over two thousand, six cents for each phone or instrument operated or installed; provided, owners or managers of telephone systems operated or having installed less than one hundred phones or instruments shall not be required to pay a license tax.

History.—§54, ch. 6421, 1913; RGS 987; CGL 1260.

205.58 Trading, etc., in intangible personal property.—Every person engaged in the business of trading, bartering, buying, lending or selling intangible personal property, whether as owner, agent, broker or otherwise, shall pay a license tax of twenty-five dollars for each place of business.

No license shall be required under this section where the trading, bartering, buying, lending or selling is incidental to and a part of some other business classification on which an occupational license tax is imposed by this chapter, or other law of the state.

History.—§9, ch. 18011, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 1279(9); §9, ch. 20956, 1941.

205.59 Trading, etc., in tangible personal property.—Every person engaged in the business of trading, buying, bartering, serving, or selling tangible personal property as owner, agent, broker, or otherwise, shall pay a license tax of ten dollars (which shall entitle him to maintain one place of business, stationary or movable) and shall pay ten dollars for each additional place of business, provided that the license for each bulk plant or depot of wholesale dealers in petroleum products shall be twenty-five dollars. Vehicles used by any person for the sale and delivery of tangible personal property at wholesale from his established place of business on which a license is paid shall not be construed to be separate places of business and no license may be levied on such vehicles or the operators thereof as salesmen or otherwise, by the state or county or municipality, any other law to the contrary notwithstanding.

No license shall be required under this section, where the trading, buying, bartering, serving or selling of tangible personal property is a necessary incident of some other business classification for which an occupational license is required by this or another law of this state, and is carried on at the place of business licensed under such other classification, nor shall this section apply to any person engaged in the sale of motor vehicles or principally in the sale at retail of gasoline and other petroleum products.

205.60 Traveling shows and places of amusement.—Any person engaged in the business of traveling shows, exhibitions or amusement enterprises, including carnivals, vaudeville, minstrels, rodeos, theatrical, games or tests of skill, riding devices, dramatic repertoire, and all other shows or amusements operating in tents, enclosures, or temporary structures, whether covered or uncovered, shall pay a license tax as provided in §205.32.

For the purposes hereof the show, riding device, concession, or side show charging the highest admission or fee shall be considered the main show in determining the license tax to be levied. When there are more than one such riding devices, concessions, or side shows in this admission or free price group, any one of the same may be considered the main show.

The following, for the purposes hereof, shall be considered a side show on which shall be levied a license tax as provided in said §205.32.

All riding devices, including merry-go-rounds, ferris wheels, or any other rides or automatic riding devices; all concessions, including revolving wheels, corn games, throwing balls, rolling balls, cane racks, knife racks, weighing machines, games or tests of skill or strength, candy machines, sandwich, confectionery or similar stands, or any other booth, unit, tent or stand commonly known as a concession; and every side show, exhibition, display, concert, athletic contest, lecture, minstrel, or performance to which admission is charged, a fee is collected, or a charge is made for anything of value.

205.61 Traveling shows using buildings fitted for their use, etc.—

(1) Theatrical shows, or traveling players and minstrels, in buildings fitted up for such shows or exhibitions, for each performance, shall pay a license tax as follows:

In cities and towns of ten thousand inhabitants or more, shall pay a license tax of twenty-five dollars.

In cities and towns of less than ten thousand and inhabitants, fifteen dollars.

(2) Traveling moving picture shows in buildings or tents shall pay a license tax for each day as follows: In cities and towns of ten thousand inhabitants or more, shall pay a license tax of twenty-five dollars; in cities and towns of less than ten thousand inhabitants, fifteen dollars; provided, if they have any other features than moving pictures, they shall be subject to the license tax as otherwise provided for shows.

(3) Owners or managers of theaters or halls employing traveling troupes, theatrical, operatic or minstrel, giving performances in buildings fitted up for such purposes, or moving picture shows giving exhibitions in buildings permanently used for such purpose, shall be allowed to give as many performances or exhibitions in such building or theater as they wish on payment of the following license:

In cities or towns of twenty thousand inhabitants or more, shall pay a license tax of two hundred dollars per annum.

In cities and towns of less than twenty thousand and more than fifteen thousand inhabitants, shall pay a license tax of one hundred and fifty dollars per annum.

In cities and towns of less than fifteen thousand and more than ten thousand inhabitants, shall pay a license tax of one hundred dollars per annum.

In cities and towns of less than ten thousand and more than five thousand inhabitants, shall pay a license tax of fifty dollars per annum.

(4) This section shall not apply to local amateur performances or to any hall owned or used by any charitable or fraternal organization giving performances or exhibitions for their own benefit.

History.—§48, ch. 6421, 1913; RGS 973; CGL 1245.

205.62 Toll bridges.—Owners of toll bridges shall pay a license tax of two hundred fifty dollars where the bridge is entirely within the limits or boundaries of any one county, and where the bridge joins two counties a license of two hundred fifty dollars in each such county shall be paid; provided, that nothing in this chapter shall apply to toll bridges owned by any county or municipality in the state.

205.63 Vending machines.—Every person, except merchandise vending machine operators, who operates for profit any machine, contrivance, or device which is set in motion or made or permitted to function by the insertion of a coin, or slug, shall pay a license tax of five dollars for each machine, contrivance, or device; provided that when any merchandise vending machine is located in and operated only in a place of business for which a license has been duly issued for trading, buying, bartering, serving or selling tangible personal property under this or other law of this state the license tax thereon shall be two dollars for each machine, contrivance, or device; provided that when any machine, contrivance, or device as described herein operates by the insertion of a penny, the license tax thereon shall be fifty cents for each machine, contrivance, or device. This section shall license all coin-operated machines, contrivances or devices operated for amusement and that do not dispense any form of prize or reward, but shall not be construed to authorize the use of any machine, contrivance or device for gambling or as a game of chance. No license shall be required on coin-operated parcel-checking lockers and toilet locks, used in railroad, bus, airport stations, or depots, and in hotels, boarding houses, restaurants, and rest rooms for the convenience of, and in rendering service to the public, nor on penny-operated vending machines located in licensed places of business and dispensing only nuts, citrus juice and other food products.

205.631 United States postage stamp vending machines.—

(1) Whereas vending machines which vend only United States postage stamps make such stamps easily and readily available to the public without the necessity of travel by the public to postoffices or the establishment of sub-post offices by the United States Government, it is hereby declared that such vending machines render a general public service and are for the general public good.

(2) In view of such public service said machines are hereby exempted from the payment of any excise or license tax levied by the state or any county or municipality or other taxing district thereof.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 23740, 1947.

205.632 Citrus juice vending machines.—Automatic coin operated vending machines which vend only unadulterated Florida produced citrus juice are hereby exempted from the payment of all excise or license taxes to the state or to any county or municipality thereof.

History.—§1, ch. 25124, 1949.

205.64 Water companies.—Each person engaged in the business of operating water companies shall pay the following license taxes, in cities and towns having the following populations according to the last preceding state or federal census, to-wit:

Forty thousand inhabitants or more, three hundred dollars.

Less than forty thousand, but not less than thirty thousand, inhabitants, two hundred dollars.

Less than thirty thousand, but not less than twenty thousand, inhabitants, one hundred dollars.

Less than twenty thousand, but not less than ten thousand, inhabitants, seventy-five dollars.

207.01 Definitions.—The following words, terms and phrases used in this section are for the purpose hereof defined as follows:

(1) "Motor Fuel" shall mean and include gasoline or other like products of petroleum and any and all liquid fuels or products of petroleum which are now or hereafter subjected to a tax computed by or measured by or based upon the sale, use, consumption, or distribution of said liquid fuels or products of petroleum.

(2) "Kerosene" shall include the ordinary household petroleum oil used with wick burners for illuminating, heating and cooking purposes.

(3) "Public Highways" shall mean and include every way or place, of whatever nature generally open to the use of the public as a matter of right, for the purpose of vehicular travel, and notwithstanding that the same shall have been temporarily closed for the purpose of construction, reconstruction, maintenance or repair.

(4) "Person" shall mean and include natural persons, corporations, copartnerships, firms, companies, agencies or associations, counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions of this state, singular or plural.

(5) "Distributor" shall include any person, association of persons, firm, corporation, municipalities and political subdivisions of this state:

(a) That imports or causes to be imported and sells at wholesale or retail, or otherwise within this state, any of the motor fuel as specified above; or

(b) That imports or causes to be imported, and withdraws for use within this state by himself, or others, any such fuels, from the tank car, truck, or other original container, or package in which imported into this state; or

(c) That manufactures, refines, produces, or compounds any such fuels within this state, and sells the same at wholesale or retail or otherwise within this state for use or consumption within this state.

(d) That imports into this state from any other state or foreign country or shall receive by any means into this state, and keep in storage in this state for a period of twenty-four hours, or more after the same shall lose interstate character as a shipment in interstate commerce, any motor fuel which is intended to be used for consumption in this state.

(e) That are primarily liable under the motor fuel tax laws of this state for the payment of motor fuel taxes.

(f) That was holding, on January 1, 1953, an uncanceled license issued by the comptroller of the state to engage in business as a distributor of motor fuel.

(g) That purchases or receives in this state gasoline in bulk quantities for resale to retail dealers, upon which the tax has not been paid.

(6) "Comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the state.

(7) "Duly licensed distributors" shall mean and include any distributor holding an unrevoked license issued by the comptroller of the state.

(8) "Motor fuel tax" shall mean and include any and all taxes imposed by the laws of the state upon or measured by the sale, use, distribution or consumption of motor fuel.

(9) "Motor fuel tax collection trust fund" shall mean any fund or funds heretofore or hereafter created by the legislature for the purpose of enforcing the motor fuel tax laws of the state.

History.—§1, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(62); (5) §1, ch. 28100, 1953; (5) §1, ch. 57-162; (9) §2, ch. 61-119.

207.02 Application for license.—It is unlawful for any distributor to engage in business as a distributor of motor fuel within this state unless such distributor is the holder of an uncanceled license issued by the comptroller to engage in such business. To procure such license every distributor shall file with the comptroller an application upon oath and in such form as the comptroller may prescribe, setting forth:

(1) The name under which the distributor will transact business within the state;

(2) The location, with street number address, of its principal office or place of business within this state;

(3) The name and complete residence address of the owner or the names and addresses of the partners, if such distributor is a partnership, or the names and addresses of the principal officers, if such distributor is a corporation or association; and if such distributor is a corporation organized under the laws of another state, territory or country, it shall also file with such application a certified copy of the certificate or license issued by the secretary of state showing that such corporation is authorized to transact business in the state.

Upon filing of an application for a license, and concurrently therewith, a bond of the character stipulated and in the amount provided for, shall be filed with the comptroller.

No license shall issue upon any application unless accompanied by such a bond.

Upon the filing of the application for a license, a filing fee of five dollars shall be paid to the comptroller.

History.—§2, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(63).

207.03 Application by person whose license has been canceled; procedure.—In the event that any application for a license certificate to transact business as a distributor in the state shall be filed by any person whose license shall at any time theretofore have been canceled for cause by the comptroller or in case said comptroller shall be of the opinion that such application is not filed in good faith, or that such application is filed by some person as a subterfuge for the real person in interest whose license or registration shall theretofore have been canceled for cause by said comptroller, then and in any of said events the comptroller, after a hearing of which the applicant shall have been given five days' notice in writing and in which said applicant shall have the right to appear in person or by counsel and present testimony, may refuse to issue to such person a license certificate to transact business as a distributor in the state.

History.—§2, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(63).

207.04 Licensing of distributors.—The application in proper form having been accepted for filing, the filing fee paid, and the bond having been accepted and approved, the comptroller shall issue to such distributor a license certificate to transact business as a distributor in the state, subject to cancellation of such license as provided by law.

The license certificate so issued by the comptroller shall not be assignable, and shall be valid only for the distributor in whose name issued, and shall be displayed conspicuously in the principal place of business of said distributor in the state.

The comptroller shall keep and file all applications and bonds with an alphabetical index thereof, together with a record of all duly licensed distributors.

History.—§2, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(63); §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

207.05 License number and cards; penalties.—Each distributor shall be assigned a license number upon qualifying for a license hereunder, and the comptroller shall issue to each such licensee separate license cards for each tank truck operated by such distributor. Such license card shall indicate the number so assigned the distributor, the motor number of the truck authorized to be operated under such license card, and such other information as the comptroller may prescribe. Such license card shall be conspicuously displayed on the tank truck to which it is assigned and any distributor operating a tank truck in this state, conveying or transporting motor fuel without such license card shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than one hundred dollars or to confinement in jail for not less than ten nor more than thirty days.

cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

207.06 Bond required of licensed distributors.—Each distributor shall file with the comptroller a bond in a penal sum of not less than three thousand dollars nor more than thirty-five thousand dollars, said sum to be approximately three times the average monthly motor fuel tax paid or due by such distributor during the next preceding twelve calendar months under the laws of this state; provided, however, that any person subsequently becoming a distributor, as heretofore defined, shall file a bond in the minimum penalty of three thousand dollars. Such bond shall be in such form as may be approved by the comptroller, shall be executed by some surety company duly licensed to do business under the laws of the state as surety thereon, and upon which such distributor shall be the principal obligor and the state shall be the obligee, conditioned upon the prompt filing of true reports and the payment by such distributor to the comptroller of the state of any and all motor fuel taxes which are now or which hereafter may be levied or imposed by the state, together with any and all penalties and interest thereon, and generally upon faithful compliance with the provisions of the motor fuel tax laws of the state.

In the event that liability upon the bond thus filed by the distributor with the comptroller shall be discharged or reduced, whether by judgment rendered, payment made or otherwise, or if in the opinion of the comptroller any surety on the bond theretofore given shall have become unsatisfactory or unacceptable, then the comptroller may require the distributor to file a new bond with satisfactory sureties in the same amount, failing which the comptroller shall forthwith cancel the license certificate of said distributor. If such new bond shall be furnished by said distributor as above provided, the comptroller shall cancel and surrender the bond of said distributor for which such new bond shall be substituted.

In the event that upon hearing, of which the distributor shall be given five days' notice in writing, the comptroller shall decide that the amount of the existing bond is insufficient to insure payment to the state of the amount of the tax and any penalties and interest for which said distributor is or may at any time become liable, then the distributor shall forthwith upon the written demand of the comptroller file additional bond in the same manner and form with like security thereon as hereinbefore provided; provided further, that the total amount of any such additional bond as well as the bond required under the provisions of the first paragraph of this section shall not exceed the maximum of thirty-five thousand dollars, and the comptroller shall forthwith cancel the license certificate of any distributor failing to file an additional bond as herein provided.

Any surety on any bond furnished by a distributor as above provided shall be released and discharged from any and all liability to the State of Florida accruing on such bond after the expiration of sixty days from the date upon which such surety shall have lodged with the comptroller written request to be released and discharged; provided, however, that such request shall not operate to relieve, release or discharge such surety from any liability already accrued, or which shall accrue, before the expiration of said sixty-day period. The comptroller shall, promptly on receipt of notice of such request, notify the distributor who furnished such bond, and unless such distributor shall on or before the expiration of such sixty-day period file with the comptroller a new bond with a surety company satisfactory to the comptroller in the amount and form hereinbefore in this section provided, the comptroller shall forthwith cancel the license of said distributor. If such new bond shall be furnished by said distributor as above provided, the comptroller shall cancel and surrender the bond of said distributor for which such new bond shall be substituted.

207.07 Comptroller may cancel licenses; surrender of bond.—If a distributor shall at any time knowingly file a false monthly report of the data or information required by the motor fuel tax laws, or shall fail, refuse or neglect to file the monthly report required by such laws, or to pay the motor fuel tax as required by this chapter and the laws of the state, the comptroller may forthwith cancel the license of said distributor and notify such distributor in writing of such cancellation by registered mail to the last known address of such distributor appearing on the files of the comptroller.

The comptroller may cancel any license hitherto or hereafter issued to any distributor, such cancellation to become effective sixty days from the date of receipt of the written request of such distributor for cancellation thereof, or said comptroller may cancel the license of any distributor upon investigation and sixty days' notice mailed to the last known address of such distributor, if he shall ascertain and find that the person to whom such license has been issued is no longer engaged in business as a distributor, and has not been so engaged for the period of six months immediately preceding such cancellation; but no license shall be canceled upon the request of any distributor until and unless the distributor shall, prior to the date of such cancellation, have paid to the state all motor fuel taxes payable under the laws of the state, together with any and all penalties and fines accruing by reason of any failure on the part of said distributor to make accurate reports as required by the motor fuel tax laws of Florida or to pay said taxes and penalties. In the event that the license of any distributor shall be canceled by the comptroller as hereinbefore in this section provided, and in the further event that said distributor shall have paid to the state all motor fuel taxes due and payable by it under the laws of the state together with any and all penalties accruing by reason of any failure on the part of said distributor to make accurate reports or to pay said tax and penalties, then the comptroller shall cancel and surrender the bond theretofore filed by said distributor.

207.08 Estimate of amount of motor fuel taxes due and unpaid.—Whenever any distributor shall neglect or refuse to make and file any report for any calendar month, as required by the motor fuel tax laws of this state, or shall file an incorrect or fraudulent report, or shall be in default in the payment of any motor fuel taxes and penalties thereon payable under the laws of this state, the comptroller, after giving at least five days' notice to such distributor, shall, from any information he may be able to obtain from his office or elsewhere, estimate the number of gallons of motor fuel, with respect to which the distributor has become liable for taxes under the motor fuel laws of this state, and the amount of taxes due and payable thereon, to which sum shall be added a sum equal to ten per cent thereof, as a penalty for the failure of such distributor or his default aforesaid.

In any action or proceeding for the collection of the motor fuel tax and any penalties or interest imposed in connection therewith, an assessment by the comptroller of the amount of the tax due and interest or penalties due to the state shall constitute prima facie evidence of the claim of the state, and the burden of proof shall be upon the distributor to show that the assessment was incorrect or contrary to law.

207.09 Suits for collection of unpaid taxes.—Upon demand of the comptroller the attorney general, or any state attorney of any judicial circuit, shall bring appropriate actions, in the name of the state or in the name of the comptroller in the capacity of his office, for the recovery of the above mentioned taxes, penalties and interest, and judgment shall be rendered for the amount so found to be due together with costs; provided, however, that if it shall be found as a fact that such failure to pay was willful on the part of any distributor, judgment shall be rendered for double the amount of the tax found to be due, with costs. The comptroller may employ an attorney at law to institute and prosecute proper proceedings to enforce payment of the motor fuel taxes provided for by the laws of this state and penalties and interest provided for by this chapter and fix the compensation for the services of said attorney at law.

207.10 Comptroller's warrant for collection of unpaid taxes.—Upon the determination of the amount of unpaid taxes and penalties due, the comptroller may issue a warrant, under the official seal of his office, directed to the sheriff of any county of the state, commanding said sheriff to levy upon and sell the goods and chattels of such distributor found within his jurisdiction, for the payment of the amount of such delinquency, with the added penalties and interest and the cost of executing the warrant and conducting the sale, and to return such warrant to the comptroller and to pay the comptroller the money collected by virtue thereof; provided, however, that any surplus resulting from said sale after all payments of costs, penalties and delinquent taxes have been made shall be returned to the defaulting distributor. The sheriff, to whom any such warrant shall be directed, shall proceed upon the same in all respects to and with like effect and in the same manner (with the exceptions herein noted) as prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against goods and chattels upon judgments by the several circuit courts. In the event there shall be a contest or claim of any kind with reference to the property levied upon, or the amount of taxes, costs or penalties due, such contest or claim shall be tried in the circuit court in and for the county in which the warrant was executed as nearly as may be in the same manner and means as such contest or claim would have been tried in such court had the warrant originally issued upon a judgment rendered by said court; provided, that the warrant issued as aforesaid shall constitute prima facie evidence of the amount of taxes, interest and penalties due to the state by said distributor, and the burden of proof shall be upon the distributor to show that said amounts or penalties were incorrect; provided further, that nothing in this section shall be construed as forfeiting or waiving any rights to collect such taxes or penalties by an action upon any bond that may be filed with the comptroller under the provisions of this chapter, or by suit or otherwise, and in case such suit, action or other proceeding shall have been instituted for the collection of said tax, such suit, action or other proceeding shall not be construed as waiving any other right herein provided; provided further, that any civil proceeding under this chapter shall not be construed as a waiver or estoppel in any criminal proceeding against such distributor under this chapter.

207.11 Report from persons not distributors.—Every person purchasing or otherwise acquiring motor fuel in tank car, truck or cargo lots and selling, using, consuming or otherwise disposing of the same for delivery in Florida not required by the provisions of this chapter to be licensed as a distributor in motor fuel or by the laws of Florida to make reports, shall file a statement setting forth the name under which such person is transacting business within the state, the location with street number address of such person's principal office or place of business within the state, the name and address of the owner, or the names and addresses of the partners if such person is a partnership, or the names and addresses of the principal officers if such person is a corporation or association, and, on or before the fifteenth day of each calendar month, such person shall, on forms prescribed by the comptroller report to the comptroller all purchases or other acquisition and sales or other disposition of motor fuel during the next preceding calendar month, giving a record of each tank car, truck or cargo lot delivered to a point within Florida. Such report shall set forth from whom each tank car, truck or cargo lot was purchased or otherwise acquired, point of shipment, to whom sold or shipped, point of delivery, date of shipment, the name of the carrier, the initials and number of the car, and the number of gallons contained in such tank car, if shipped by rail, and the name and owner of the boat, barge or vessel, and the number of gallons contained therein, if shipped by water, and the name of the owner of the truck and the number of gallons contained in such truck if shipped by truck, and shall contain any other additional information the comptroller may require relative to such motor fuel.

207.12 Penalty for failure to submit report.

—When any person, not required by the provisions of this chapter to register as a distributor of motor fuel, purchasing or otherwise acquiring motor fuel in tank car, truck or cargo lots and selling, using, consuming or otherwise disposing of the same for delivery in Florida, shall fail to submit his monthly report to the comptroller by the sixteenth day of the month succeeding the month in which said lot or lots of motor fuel were received, acquired or purchased, or when such person shall fail to submit in such monthly report the data required by this chapter, such person shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be subject to a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or to imprisonment of not more than thirty days, for the first offense; and shall be fined an amount not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars or be subjected to imprisonment for not less than thirty days, nor more than a year, for each subsequent offense.

cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

207.13 Reports from carriers transporting motor fuel, kerosene or similar products.

—Every railroad company, street car, suburban or interurban railroad company, pipe line company, water transportation company, and common carrier transporting motor fuel, kerosene, casinghead gasoline, natural gasoline, naphtha, or distillate, either in interstate or intrastate commerce, to points within Florida, and every person transporting motor fuel, kerosene, casinghead gasoline, natural gasoline, naphtha or distillate, by whatever manner to a point in Florida from any point outside of said state, shall report under oath to the comptroller on forms prescribed by said comptroller all deliveries of motor fuel, kerosene, casinghead gasoline, natural gasoline, naphtha or distillate so made to points within the state.

Such reports shall cover monthly periods, shall be submitted within fifteen days after the close of the month covered by the report, shall show the name and address of the person to whom the deliveries of motor fuel, kerosene, casinghead gasoline, natural gasoline, naphtha or distillate have actually and in fact been made, the name and address of the originally named consignee, if motor fuel, kerosene, casinghead gasoline, natural gasoline, naphtha or distillate has been delivered to any other than the originally named consignee, the point of origin, the point of delivery, the date of delivery, and the number and initials of each tank car and the number of gallons contained therein, if shipped by rail; the name of the boat, barge or vessel, and the number of gallons contained therein if shipped by water; the license number of each tank truck and the number of gallons contained therein, if transported by motor truck; if delivered by other means, the manner in which such delivery is made; and such other additional information relative to shipments of motor fuel and kerosene as the comptroller may require.

207.14 Reports to be filed whether taxes due or not.—All statements or reports required by this chapter and the motor fuel tax laws of this state to be made to the comptroller monthly, shall be filed each month regardless of whether or not a motor fuel tax is due under the provisions of the laws of Florida.

History.—§17, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(78).

207.15 Penalty for false statements in reports.—Any false or fraudulent statement or report submitted under the motor fuel tax laws of this state and sworn to by a person knowing same to be false or fraudulent, shall constitute perjury and upon conviction thereof, the person so convicted shall be punished as provided by law for conviction of perjury under §837.01.

History.—§17, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 7794(12).

207.16 Retention of records by distributors and other persons.—Each distributor shall maintain and keep, for a period of two years, such record or records of motor fuel received, used, consumed, sold and delivered within this state by such distributor, together with invoices, bills-of-lading, and other pertinent records and papers as may be required by the comptroller for the reasonable administration of the motor fuel tax laws of this state.

Every person purchasing motor fuel taxable under the laws of the state from a distributor for the purpose of resale, shall maintain and keep for a period of one year a record of motor fuel received, the amount of tax paid to the distributor as part of the purchase price, together with delivery tickets, invoices, and bills of lading, and such other records as the comptroller shall require.

Penalty: Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall, upon conviction thereof, be sentenced to pay a fine of not more than one thousand dollars and costs of prosecution, or to undergo imprisonment for not more than one year.

cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

207.17 Inspection of records; hearings; forms.—The comptroller or any deputy, employee or agent authorized by him, may examine, during the usual business hours of the day, the records, books, papers, storage tanks, and any other equipment of any distributor, purchaser, or common or contract carrier, pertaining to motor fuel or kerosene received, sold, shipped, delivered or used, as the case may be, to verify the truth and accuracy of any statement, report or return, or to ascertain whether or not the motor fuel taxes imposed by law have been paid. The comptroller may, in the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter and of the motor fuel tax laws of this state, hold hearings, take the testimony of any person, and for such purpose may issue subpoenas and compel the attendance of witnesses, and may conduct such investigations as he may deem necessary.

History.—§9, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(70).

207.18 Motor fuel taxes a lien on property.—If any person liable for the motor fuel tax imposed by the laws of this state neglects or refuses to pay the same, the amount of such tax (including any interest, penalty or addition to such tax, together with any costs that may accrue in addition thereto) shall be a lien in favor of the state upon all franchises, property and rights to property, whether real or personal, then belonging to or thereafter acquired by such person (whether such property is employed by such person in the prosecution of business or is in the hands of an assignee, trustee or receiver for the benefit of creditors) from the date said taxes are due and payable. Such lien shall have priority over any lien or incumbrance whatsoever except the lien of other state taxes having priority by law, and except that such lien shall not be valid as against any bona fide mortgagee, pledgee, judgment creditor, or purchaser whose rights shall have attached prior to the time when the comptroller shall have filed notice of such lien in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the principal place of business of such person is located (for which filing no fee shall be required). Such lien shall continue until the amount of said tax, together with any penalties and interest subsequently accruing thereon, is paid. The comptroller may issue a certificate of release of lien when the amount of such tax, together with any penalties and interest subsequently accruing thereon, has been satisfied by such person, and such person may record the same with the clerk of the circuit court in and for the county in which the notice of lien was filed.

History.—§10, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(71).

207.19 Officer, etc., selling property belonging to a distributor.—No sheriff, receiver, assignee, master or other officer shall sell the property or franchise of any person who is distributor without first filing with the comptroller a statement containing the following information:

- (1) Name of the plaintiff or party at whose instance or upon whose account the sale is made;
- (2) Name of the person whose property or franchise is to be sold;
- (3) The time and place of sale;
- (4) The nature of the property and the location of the same.

The comptroller after receiving notice as aforesaid shall furnish to the sheriff, receiver, trustee, assignee, master or other officer having charge of the sale, a certified copy or copies of all motor fuel taxes, penalties, and interest on file in the office of the comptroller as liens against such person, and in the event there are no such liens, a certificate showing that fact, which certified copies or copy of certificate shall be publicly read by such officer at and immediately before the sale of the property or franchise of such person.

History.—§10, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(71).

207.20 Comptroller to furnish certificates of liens.—The comptroller shall furnish to any person applying therefor a certificate showing the amount of all liens for motor fuel tax, penalties, and interest that may be of record in the files of the comptroller against any person under the provisions of this chapter.

History.—§10, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(71).

207.21 Foreclosure of liens.—The comptroller may cause to be filed in the name of the state a bill in chancery to foreclose the liens provided for herein, and the practice, pleading and procedure of foreclosure shall be as nearly as may be in accordance with the practice, pleading and procedure for foreclosure of mortgages on real estate. A certificate of the comptroller setting forth the amount of motor fuel taxes due shall be prima facie evidence of the matter therein contained. Said suit may be instituted at any time after said lien becomes effective. The purchaser at any sale in suits for the foreclosure of said liens shall be entitled to a deed and the same process and remedies to obtain possession of the premises as in suits for the foreclosure of mortgages. The title to the land conveyed by such deed shall be indefeasible as to all parties defendant in the action.

History.—§10, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(71).

207.22 Discontinuance or transfer of business; penalty.—Whenever a distributor ceases to engage in business as a distributor within the state by reason of the discontinuance, sale or transfer of the business of such distributor, such distributor shall notify the comptroller in writing at least ten days prior to the time the discontinuance, sale or transfer takes effect. Such notice shall give the date of discontinuance and, in the event of a sale or transfer of the business, the date thereof and the name and address of the purchaser or transferee thereof. All motor fuel taxes, penalties and interest not due and payable under the provisions of the laws of this state, shall, notwithstanding such provisions, become due and payable concurrently with such discontinuance, sale or transfer; and any such distributor concurrently with such discontinuance, sale or transfer, shall make a report, pay all such taxes, interest, and penalties, and surrender to the comptroller the license certificate theretofore issued to said distributor by the comptroller.

Unless the notice above provided for shall have been given to the comptroller as above provided, such purchaser or transferee shall be liable to the state for the amount of all taxes, penalties, and interest under the laws of Florida accrued against any such distributor selling or transferring his business, on the date of such sale or transfer, but only to the extent of the value of the property and business thereby acquired from such distributor.

Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction thereof be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars and costs of the prosecution, or to undergo imprisonment for not more than one year. Nothing in this section shall be construed as releasing the distributor so transferring or discontinuing his business of liability for any motor fuel tax, or for any interest or penalty due under the motor fuel tax laws.

cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

207.23 Not to settle for less than amounts actually due.—The comptroller shall have no right, power, or authority to settle or compromise with any distributor any claim of the state accruing under the motor fuel tax laws of this state for a sum less than the full amount due, in conformity with this chapter.

History.—§12, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(73).

207.24 Transportation of motor fuel over public highways.—Every person hauling, transporting or conveying motor fuel over any of the public highways of this state must, during the entire time he is so engaged, have in his possession an invoice or delivery ticket, bill of sale, or other record evidence showing the true name and address of the person from whom he has received the motor fuel, and the number of gallons so originally received by him from said person, and the true name and address of every person to whom he has made deliveries of said motor fuel, or any part thereof, and the number of gallons so delivered to each of said persons. The person hauling, transporting or conveying such motor fuel shall, at the request of any person required by law to inquire into or investigate said matters, produce and offer for inspection said invoice, or delivery ticket, or bill of sale, or record evidence. If said person fails to produce the invoice, or delivery ticket, or bill of sale or record evidence, or if, when produced, it fails to clearly disclose said information, the same shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this section. No person shall haul, transport or convey motor fuel over any of the public highways of the state except in vehicles plainly and visibly marked on each side and on the rear thereof with the word "Gasoline" or other name of the motor fuel being transported, in letters at least four inches high and of corresponding appropriate width, together with the name and address of the owner of the vehicle in which such motor fuel is contained. Any person guilty of violating any of the provisions of this section shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred fifty dollars, or imprisoned for a term of not less than fifteen nor more than sixty days. The provisions of this section shall not apply to vehicles transporting motor fuel not in excess of one hundred gallons contained in the fuel tank of such vehicle provided for the carrying of motor fuel for propelling same, which motor fuel is to be used solely for the motive power of such vehicle, nor to vehicles transporting motor fuel in quantities of not more than five gallons for emergency purposes, nor to motor fuel being transported by common carrier in railroad cars.

207.25 Transportation of motor fuel by boats over the navigable waters of this state.—Every person hauling, transporting or conveying motor fuel over any of the navigable waters of this state must, during the entire time he is so engaged, have in his possession an invoice or bill of sale or other record evidence showing the true name and address of the person from whom he has received said motor fuel and the true name and address of every person or persons to whom he is making deliveries of same, and the number of gallons (that is, a person hauling, transporting or conveying said motor fuel must have in his possession record evidence of the name and address of the person from whom he has received the same, and also of the name and address of the person to whom he is going to deliver the same, and the number of gallons). The person hauling, transporting or conveying said motor fuel shall at the request of any person authorized by law to inquire into or investigate said matters, produce and offer for inspection said invoice or bill of sale or other record evidence. If said person fails to produce the invoice or bill of sale or other record evidence, or if, when produced, it fails to clearly disclose said information, the same shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this section. No person shall haul, transport or convey motor fuel in boats over any of the navigable waters of the state, except in boats plainly and visibly marked on both sides and above the water line thereof with the word "Gasoline" or other name of the motor fuel being transported, in letters at least four inches high and of corresponding appropriate width, together with the name and address of the owner of the boat in which such motor fuel is contained. Any person guilty of violating any of the provisions of this section, shall, upon conviction, be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than two hundred fifty dollars, or imprisoned for a term of not less than fifteen nor more than sixty days. The provisions of this section shall not apply to boats transporting motor fuel to be used solely for their own motive power.

207.27 Forfeiture of vehicles and boats illegally transporting or delivering motor fuel.

—The right of property in and to all conveyances, boats and other vehicles of transportation, and all tanks and other equipment used in connection therewith, employed in the illegal transportation or delivery of motor fuel in this state for the purpose of illegally evading or avoiding any motor fuel tax provided or imposed by the laws of this state, and all other personal property that may have been used by any person for the purpose of illegally evading or avoiding any such tax, or which may have been used to facilitate the illegal evasion or avoidance of any such tax, is hereby declared not to exist in any person, and the same shall be forfeited. The comptroller, the comptroller's deputies, the several sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, constables and police officers of municipalities, shall seize any and all such things, and the same shall be safely kept by the sheriff of the county until disposed of as in this section provided.

The sheriff of the county, within ten days after the receipt of any such things, shall make and subscribe to an affidavit in writing before some officer authorized by law to administer an oath, reciting such seizure, with the date, place and things seized, giving a reasonably full description thereof, and the name of the alleged owner and person from whose possession same were taken, if either or both be known to such sheriff, and a short statement of the circumstances under which said property was being used for the purpose of illegally evading or avoiding or had been used for the purpose of illegally evading or avoiding any motor fuel tax provided or imposed by the laws of Florida; and:

(1) Within ten days after the receipt of such things by the sheriff, such sheriff shall present such affidavit to the judge of the circuit court of the county where such things were seized, and the circuit judge of said court shall direct that such sheriff shall serve written notice upon such owner and person from whose possession such things were taken, if known, and if he, it or they be within the county, of time and place of the hearing upon such affidavit, which may be in term time or in vacation, and at any place within the judicial circuit as the circuit judge may fix, which notice shall be signed by the circuit judge citing such person to appear and show cause, if any, why such things should not be adjudged forfeited and disposed of as in this section provided; but,

(2) If such sheriff shall recite in his affidavit that such things were not taken from the possession of any person, or that the owner is unknown, or that either of such persons is without the county, conceals himself or themselves, or that personal service of such notice can not be made by such sheriff for any good reason, the circuit judge shall by written order direct that, in lieu of personal notice of such hearing to any such person, that written notice of such hearing shall be posted at the county court house door, directed to all persons interested in such things, and giving notice of such seizure, and of the date and place thereof and a reasonable description of the things seized, and of the time and place of the hearing upon such affidavit, which notice shall be signed by the circuit judge;

(3) If at the time and place provided for the hearing upon such affidavit no person shall appear and claim such things, the affidavit of the sheriff shall stand as confessed and taken as true, and the recitals therein contained shall not thereafter be open to question in any other court or proceeding, and the circuit judge shall thereupon make an order in writing directing the sale thereof;

(4) Such sale shall be in the presence of the clerk of the circuit court of the county, and at such times, places and in such manner as such judge shall in his order direct.

207.28 Trial of issues interposed by defense; sale, etc.—Should any person appear at the hearing provided for in §207.27, and claim the things seized and interpose any defense to the affidavit mentioned in said section, the circuit judge shall determine whether the evidence adduced proves beyond a reasonable doubt that such things are forfeited and make his written order accordingly. And if he shall determine in the affirmative, such things shall be sold by the sheriff in the same manner and upon the same terms and conditions as provided in §207.27; but if he shall determine in the negative respecting all or any of such things, the part not forfeited shall be returned to the person legally entitled thereto. The hearing before the circuit judge shall be informal and he may make all needful rules and orders to carry this section into effect. And the sheriff may call to his assistance the state attorney, county solicitor or other commissioned prosecuting attorney or other prosecuting attorney regularly employed by the county, to assist him in preparing the affidavit herein mentioned, and represent him at the hearing before the circuit judge, and in taking and perfecting any appeal from the final decision of the circuit judge. If the state, the sheriff, or the claimant shall be dissatisfied with the decision he may appeal from the final decision of the court to the appropriate district court of appeal in the same manner and within the time as appeals in chancery are taken under the Florida appellate rules, and upon such appeal being entered such circuit judge shall cause to be reduced to writing and authenticate with his signature all oral evidence considered by him upon such hearing and the same shall be filed with the papers in the case and thereby become a part of the record proper. If authorized by §4, Art. V of the state constitution, appeal may be taken to the supreme court. No appeal taken by any party shall operate as a supersedeas, but such things shall remain in the custody of the sheriff pending such appeal and to abide the final decision of the appellate court.

207.29 Costs and expenses of proceedings.

—For the performance of the duties required of the sheriff by the provisions of §§207.27 and 207.28, he shall receive the same fees provided by law for the arrest and return of persons charged with crime, including the same mileage and the actual cost of transporting such things, and for each seizure made by him or his deputy, when the same are ordered sold by the circuit judge he shall receive an additional fee of five dollars, and all such fees and compensations shall be paid out of the proceeds of the sale. The clerks of the courts performing duties under the provisions aforesaid shall receive the same fees as prescribed by the general law for the performance of similar duties, and witnesses attending any investigation pursuant to subpoena shall receive the same mileage and per diem as if attending as a witness before the circuit court in term time. All fees and costs provided for shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale, or if there be no sale or if the proceeds of such sale be insufficient to meet such fees and costs then such fees and costs shall be paid out of the motor fuel tax collection trust fund or other funds available for the enforcement of the motor fuel tax laws by the comptroller. In the event the proceeds of the sale are more than sufficient to pay all costs and fees attending said sale then the surplus thereof shall be sent to the comptroller to be disposed of as provided for the disposition of the taxes collected under the motor fuel tax laws of the state; provided, however, that any property seized under §207.27, against which there is existing a mortgage lien or retain title contract held by a person who has no knowledge that such property is being used for the purpose of illegally evading or avoiding the payment of the motor fuel taxes provided for under the laws of the state, then such seizure shall not invalidate such lien or retain title contract, but the same shall be paid out of any funds derived from a sale of said property, provided the retain title holder or mortgagee shall within thirty days after seizure come into court and set up his claim to such retained title lien or mortgage.

207.30 Restraining and enjoining violations.

—Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter, or who shall fail to pay all motor fuel taxes and all interest and penalties due by him to the state under the provisions of the laws of this state may be restrained and enjoined in a suit or other proceeding in any court of competent jurisdiction instituted in the name of the state by the attorney general or by any state attorney at the direction of the comptroller, from selling, consuming, using, distributing or transporting any motor fuel which is taxable under the laws of this state until such person shall have paid all of said taxes, interest and penalties due the state, and have complied with the provisions of this chapter. Any proceeding instituted under this section shall not operate as a bar to the prosecution of any person guilty of violating any of the criminal laws of the state.

207.31 Posting price of motor fuel plus tax.

Distributors and all other persons selling motor fuel may add the amount of the motor fuel tax to the price of the motor fuel sold by them, and shall state the rate of the tax separately from the price of the motor fuel on all price display signs and invoices.

History.—§22, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(82).

207.32 Comptroller and deputies may make arrests, seize property and execute warrants.

—The comptroller and his deputies, agents and employees may make arrests without warrants for any violation of any provision or provisions of this chapter or for any violation of the motor fuel tax laws of this state. In all such cases the person arrested for any violation of any provision of this chapter or of the motor fuel tax laws of this state shall be surrendered without delay to the sheriff of the county in which the arrest was made and formal complaint made against him, in accordance with law.

The comptroller and his deputies, agents and employees also may seize property as set out in §§207.27-207.29 and upon said seizure being made shall surrender without delay such seized property to the sheriff of the county where said property was seized for further procedure as set out in said sections.

When the comptroller deems advisable, he may direct the warrant provided for in §207.10, to one of the said comptroller's deputies, agents and employees who shall then execute said warrant and proceed thereon in the same manner provided for sheriffs in such cases.

History.—§25, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(85).

207.33 Method for collection of tax cumulative.—The methods and means of effecting and enforcing the collection of motor fuel taxes as set out in this chapter shall be in addition to, and not in lieu of the methods and means of effecting and enforcing collection set out in the motor fuel tax laws of Florida.

History.—§28, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(87).

207.34 Review of comptroller's decisions.—Any person aggrieved by an order or decision of the comptroller may file a petition for the issuance of a writ of certiorari with the circuit court of Leon county for a review of said order or decision upon giving bond with sureties to be approved by the clerk of said court, payable to the state, conditioned to pay all costs by reason of the review. Either party may appeal to the appropriate district court of appeal from the order of the circuit court. The order of the comptroller shall not be suspended during proceedings had pursuant to this section. Review proceedings taken pursuant to this section shall be in the manner and within the time provided by the Florida appellate rules.

History.—§23, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(83); §2, ch. 63-512.

207.35 General penalties for violations.—Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this chapter, a penalty for which is not otherwise provided, shall upon conviction thereof for a first offense be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for a term of not more than thirty days, and for a second or further offense, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five thousand dollars or by imprisonment for a term of not less than thirty days and not more than twelve months. Each day or part thereof, during which any person shall engage in business as a distributor without being the holder of an uncanceled license as provided by this chapter, shall constitute a separate offense within the meaning of this section; provided that in addition to the penalty imposed by this chapter the defendant shall be required to pay all motor fuel taxes and penalties due to the state.

cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

207.36 Records and files as public records.—The records and files in the office of the comptroller appertaining to this chapter shall be available to the public at any time during business hours. The comptroller shall prepare a list each month, of all distributors, and others, together with the amount of motor fuel tax or taxes paid thereby, and mail a copy thereof to each duly licensed distributor.

History.—§21, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(81).

207.37 Exchange of information among the states.—The comptroller of the state shall, upon request duly received from the officials to whom are entrusted the enforcement of the motor fuel tax laws of any other state, forward to such officials any information which he may have in his possession relative to the manufacture, receipt, sale, use, transportation or shipment by any person of motor fuel, kerosene or other petroleum products.

History.—§21, ch. 16082, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(81).

207.38 Comptroller to make rules and regulations.—The comptroller shall make reasonable rules and regulations, which shall have the force and effect of law, to effect a strict enforcement of the provisions of this law and of the motor fuel tax laws of the state.

207.39 Refunds to city transit companies; definitions.—

(1) "City transit system" as that term is used in this act means any system of mass public transportation authorized to operate within any city, town or municipality in this state, as distinguished from any over-the-road system of public transportation operating between one or more cities, towns or municipalities. Provided, however, that a city transit system as defined above may operate within twenty-five miles outside the corporate limits of any city, town, or municipality when such operation outside the corporate limits is found necessary to adequately and efficiently provide mass public transportation services for the city, town or municipality involved. Provided further, that a city transit system, as defined above, shall not include taxicab or limousine operations.

(2) "City or cities" as that term is used includes collectively or individually any city, town or municipality organized in this state by virtue of any general or special law enacted by the legislature.

History.—§1, ch. 63-451.

207.40 Legislative findings.—It is hereby expressly recognized and declared by the legislature: That mass public transportation is essential to the continued economic growth and development of the cities of this state and therefore essential to the general welfare of the state; that the constant population growth throughout the state has brought an ever increasing use of private individual means of transportation, resulting in the overburdening of traffic arteries within our cities and thereby causing an increase in police requirements, higher cost of traffic regulation and law enforcement, and severe economic loss to and a blight on the central business districts in the cities; that relief of present city traffic congestion is essential to the continued economic growth and development of the cities of this state, and thus essential to the general welfare of this state; that further deterioration of the central areas of the cities must be prevented; that by reason of the heavy population growth and the increase in the use of private means of transportation, existing city transit systems have had to reduce route mileage and areas served, limit the hours of operation, and raise rates to compensate for the loss in revenue; that by reason of the reduced operations of the city transit systems as described herein, income and capital investment have declined while operating expenses have increased, resulting in the obsolescence of equipment and a further decline in services; that present excise taxes imposed on city transit systems by chapters 208 and 209, constitute but a minor source of revenue to the state but constitute a major item of cost to each city transit system; and that the vehicles used by the city transit systems do not operate normally over state maintained roads but operate primarily over streets and roads maintained by the cities involved. In view of the foregoing facts, the legislature has found that the improvement, revitalization, modernization and expansion of the city transit systems of this state are necessary and proper in the best interest of the state, and in order to obtain these objectives the legislature has found it necessary to grant certain tax advantages to the said city transit systems as set forth below.

History.—§2, ch. 63-451.

207.41 Refunds on fuel used for city transit systems.—Any person who shall use any motor fuel for city transit systems, on which the taxes, as imposed by chapters 208 and 209, have been paid, shall be entitled to a refund of the first four cents of the said state taxes; provided, however that no refund shall be authorized unless sworn applications therefor containing such information as the comptroller may determine shall be filed with him not later than January 31 immediately following the year for which refund is claimed.

History.—§3, ch. 63-451.

207.42 Powers and duties of comptroller.—

(1) The comptroller shall make such rules and regulations as are necessary to establish the procedure for procuring the refund provided for in §207.41 and to enforce the provisions of §§207.39-207.51.

(2) Agents of the comptroller are authorized to go upon the premises of any person who has applied for or who has received a refund under §207.41 or of any licensed motor fuel dealer or his duly authorized agent as defined in §207.01, to make inspection to ascertain any matter connected with the operation of §§207.39-207.51 or the enforcement thereof; provided, however, that no agent shall enter the dwelling of any person without the occupant's consent or the authority from the court of competent jurisdiction.

History.—§4, ch. 63-451.

207.43 Permit for refunds required; procedure for issuance; bond.—

(1) No person shall secure a refund of tax under §207.41 unless such person is the holder of an unrevoked refund permit issued by the comptroller before the purchase of the motor fuel, which permit shall be numbered and issued annually, and which shall entitle such person to make application for a refund under §§207.39-207.51.

(2) To procure a permit every person shall file with the comptroller an application, on forms furnished by the comptroller, stating that he is engaged in the business of city transit systems and that he intends to file an application for refund for the current calendar year, and shall furnish the comptroller such other information as the comptroller shall request.

(3) No person shall, in any event, be allowed a refund unless he has filed the application provided for above with comptroller. The permit shall be effective on the date issued by the comptroller.

(4) The comptroller may, if applicant for a refund permit has violated any provision of §§207.39-207.51 or regulation pursuant thereto, or has been convicted of bribery, theft, or false swearing within the period of five years preceding the application, or if the comptroller has evidence of the applicant's financial irresponsibility, require the applicant to execute a corporate surety bond of one thousand dollars to be approved by the comptroller conditioned upon the payment of all taxes, penalties, and fines for which such applicant may become liable under §§207.39-207.51.

History.—§5, ch. 63-451.

207.44 Sales; invoices required.—When motor fuel is sold to a person who shall claim to be entitled to refund under §207.39, the seller of such motor fuel shall make out a motor fuel invoice in accordance with such rules, in such form and containing such information as the comptroller may require. No person shall execute a motor fuel invoice who is not a distributor, as defined in §207.01, or a jobber, agent, consignee or bailee duly authorized by a licensed distributor, to execute motor fuel invoices as his agent. No refund invoices shall be executed for purchases from retail filling stations.

History.—§6, ch. 63-451.

207.45 When refund claims allowed; procedure; right of refund nonassignable, exception; fee.—

(1) When the comptroller is satisfied that a refund is proper he shall authorize the first four cents of the state taxes imposed by chapters 208 and 209 to be refunded as other refunds are made; and the amount shall be refunded and deducted by him from current motor fuel tax receipts in his possession.

(2) The right to receive any refund under the provisions of this section shall not be assignable, except to the executor or administrator, or the receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, or assignee in insolvency proceedings of such person entitled thereto.

(3) Claims shall be paid annually on a calendar year basis. Claims shall be filed not later than January 31 immediately following the year for which refund is claimed.

(4) The comptroller shall deduct a fee of two dollars for each claim, which two dollars shall be deposited in the general revenue fund.

History.—§7, ch. 63-451.

207.46 Appropriation for payment of claims.

—The comptroller is authorized to withhold from gas tax revenues and special fuel tax revenues sufficient funds to make the refund provided for in §207.39.

History.—§8, ch. 63-451.

207.47 False information in permit or refund application.—No person shall knowingly make a false or fraudulent statement in an application for a refund permit or in a motor fuel refund invoice, or in an application for a refund of any taxes under this law; or fraudulently obtain a refund of such taxes; or knowingly aid or assist in making any such false or fraudulent statement or claim; or having bought motor fuel or any part thereof to be used for any person other than as provided in §207.39.

History.—§9, ch. 63-451.

207.48 Revocation, suspension of refund permit.—

(1) The refund permit of any person who shall violate any provision of §207.47 shall be revoked by the comptroller and may not be reissued until two years have elapsed from the date of such revocation, and such person, whether or not his permit has been revoked by the comptroller shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than $200.00 nor more than $500.00, or imprisoned for a term of not less than 30 days nor more than 6 months, or both in the discretion of the court.

(2) The refund permit of any person who shall violate any provision of §207.39-207.51, other than those contained in §207.47, may be suspended by the comptroller for any period in his discretion not exceeding 6 months.

History.—§10, ch. 63-451.

207.49 Hearing required.—If the comptroller reasonably believes that any refund permit holder has been guilty of a violation of §§207.39-207.51, which would subject the permit holder to a suspension or revocation of his permit under the provisions of §207.47 or §207.48, said permit holder may be cited to show cause at a public hearing before the comptroller why his permit should not be suspended or revoked. The permit holder shall be notified by registered letter or summons. The letter or summons shall inform the permit holder of the charge or charges made against him and he shall have a reasonable opportunity to be heard before his permit may be revoked or suspended. The summons may be served in the same manner and by the same officer or person as provided by law, or it may be served in said manner by an employee of the department. The hearing shall be set at least five days after the summons is served or the letter delivered.

History.—§11, ch. 63-451.

207.50 Appropriation for administration.—All fees collected under §§207.39-207.51 are hereby appropriated to the comptroller for the purpose of defraying the cost of administering said sections.

History.—§12, ch. 63-451.

207.51 Violations by persons other than refund permit holders.—Any person other than the holder of a refund permit, who shall knowingly violate any provision of §§207.39-207.49 shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than $100.00 nor more than $500.00, or imprisoned not exceeding 6 months, or both in the discretion of the court.

History.—§13, ch. 63-451.

208.01 License tax upon dealers.—Every dealer in gasoline, or other like products of petroleum, in this state, under whatever name designated, shall pay a license tax of five dollars per annum, to the state.

History.—§1, ch. 15659, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(16); §1, ch. 20308, 1941.

208.02 Receipt for payment of license tax.—The comptroller shall issue to the licensee dealer in gasoline a receipt or certificate evidencing the payment of said license fees. Said receipt or certificate shall be posted on display and be so kept at all times open to the public view at the place of business for which same is issued.

History.—§4, ch. 15659, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(19).

208.03 Disposition of license tax funds.—All moneys derived from the license tax of five dollars imposed by this law for the state license shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund.

History.—§5, ch. 15659, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(20); §14, ch. 26869, 1951.

208.04 Gasoline taxes imposed.—

(1) An excise or license tax of six cents per gallon, herein termed "gas tax," is imposed upon every gallon of gasoline, or other like products of petroleum, sold in this state, upon which such tax has not been paid or the payment thereof not lawfully assumed by some person handling the same in this state. This levy of tax is upon the consumer but shall be paid upon the first sale or transfer within this state whether by a distributor or dealer, except as expressly provided in subsection (2), who shall act as agent for the state in the collection of said tax whether he be the ultimate seller or not;

(2) Provided, distributors who hold valid distributor's licenses, may purchase gasoline in bulk lots, without the tax imposed by this section being paid upon the first sale or transfer in this state as aforesaid, for sale in wholesale quantities to retail dealers in the state, and be liable for and shall pay the tax on all gasoline so purchased and sold, and shall act as agent for the state in the collection and payment thereof. As a condition precedent to a distributor purchasing and selling gasoline and like products under this subsection without the tax being paid upon the first sale or transaction in this state, he must have made average monthly sales for the twelve months next preceding of not less than forty thousand gallons; provided that sales made under provisions of §208.45, shall be included in arriving at such average monthly sales.

(3) Upon the payment or lawful assumption of the tax by the distributor or dealer, the amount of the tax paid or assumed may be added to the sales price of the product sold, and the amount of the tax may be stated separately from the price of the product on all price display signs, sales or delivery slips, bills, or statements which advertise or indicate the price of the product. The delivery of the product sold shall be deemed to be made at the point of destination.

(4) The above "gas tax" is made up of two separate taxes:

First gas tax. A tax of four cents per gallon for the use of the state road department, as provided by law;

Second gas tax. A tax of two cents per gallon to be apportioned and used as provided in §16, Art. IX, of the state constitution.

History.—§1, ch. 15659, 1931; §1, ch. 18298, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(16), 1167(29a); §1, ch. 20303, 1941; §2, ch. 57-162, cf.—§7.52 Pinellas county.

208.041 Tax on out-of-state purchased motor fuel.—

(1) DEFINITIONS.—The following words, terms, and phrases as used in this law are defined:

(a) "Motor fuel" means any fuel subject to tax under §§208.04 and 209.02.

(b) "Director" means director of the department of public safety.

(c) "Comptroller" means the state comptroller.

(2) LEVY OF TAX.—An excise tax of seven cents per gallon is hereby imposed upon every gallon of motor fuel carried in motor vehicle fuel tanks over and above the maximum of fifty gallons in any vehicle entering this state, except common passenger carriers with a seating capacity of more than seven persons.

(3) ADMINISTRATION OF LAW BY DIRECTOR.—The administration of this section shall be vested in the director of public safety of Florida who shall prescribe suitable rules and regulations for the enforcement of the provisions thereof and shall administer and enforce the tax levied and imposed by this section. In enforcing this section, the director shall have all authority vested in him by chapter 317.

(4) DIRECTOR TO REPORT TO COMPTROLLER MONTHLY.—On or before the twenty-fifth day of each month, the director of public safety shall report under oath to the comptroller the number of gallons of motor fuel, separating the product as to quantity of gallons of gasoline and quantity of gallons of other motor fuel on which the tax was collected, the date of collection, and name and address of the taxpayer on all motor fuel collected during the preceding month, and at the same time pay to the comptroller the amount of tax above mentioned. And the proceeds shall be distributed pursuant to the provisions of §208.44(3).

History.—§§1-4, ch. 59-328.

208.05 Aviation motor fuel exempt from tax.—Each and every dealer in aviation motor fuel in the state by whatever name designated, who sells aviation motor fuel testing 78 octane number (A. S. T. M. method D-357-33T) or higher, of such quality not adapted for use in ordinary motor vehicles, being designed for and sold and exclusively used for aircraft motors, are exempted from the payment of any and all excise taxes levied by the state upon such motor fuel.

History.—§1, ch. 16789, 1935; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(102).

208.06 Dealer to report to comptroller monthly; deduction.—The tax levied and assessed as provided in §208.04 shall be paid to the comptroller monthly in the following manner:

On or before the twenty-fifth day of each month the dealer shall report, under oath, to the comptroller the number of gallons of such products sold by him during the preceding month, and shall at the same time, pay to the comptroller the amount of tax computed to be due. The dealer shall deduct, from the amount of tax shown by the report to be payable an amount equivalent to two percent of the tax on motor fuel not exceeding five hundred thousand taxable gallons, and less an amount equivalent to one percent of the tax on motor fuels in excess of five hundred thousand gallons but not exceeding one million taxable gallons, which is hereby allowed to the dealer on account of services and expenses in complying with the provisions of this law, provided this allowance shall not be deductible unless payment of tax is made on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month as herein required. Such report shall show in detail the amount of products so sold and delivered by such dealer in the state. The taxes herein levied and assessed shall be in addition to any and all other taxes authorized, imposed, assessed or levied on gasoline and other like products of petroleum under any laws of the state.

208.07 Penalty for failure to report.—If any dealer shall fail to make the report and payment to the comptroller as provided in §208.06, on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding the month for which said tax is due as therein provided, the comptroller shall estimate the amount of such products sold by such dealer during such months from such information as he may be able to obtain and shall add ten per cent to the amount of such taxes, as estimated, as the penalty for the failure of such dealer to make such report or payment and shall proceed to collect such tax, together with such penalty and costs, and obtain the same as delinquent railroad taxes are collected by law; provided, however, that the comptroller may waive the penalty if the dealer has regularly filed reports and made payments of the tax due for a period of twenty-four months in accordance with the provisions of §208.06 and the dealer files an acceptable excuse for the late filing under oath with the comptroller.

History.—§2, ch. 15659, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(17); §2, ch. 24308, 1947; §11, ch. 25035, 1949; §1, ch. 63-302. cf.—Ch. 195, Taxes upon railroads.

208.08 Payment of tax into state treasury.—All moneys derived from the gas taxes imposed by this chapter shall be paid into the state treasury by the comptroller, for deposit in the "gasoline tax clearing trust fund," which fund is created and from which the following transfers shall be made:

First gas tax.—After withholding fifty thousand dollars to be used as a revolving cash balance in the "gasoline tax clearing trust fund," shall be transferred into the "state roads trust fund," which fund is created for use as provided by law.

Second gas tax.—Shall be transferred into the "state roads distribution trust fund," which fund is created and determined by the legislature to be the same as the state roads distribution fund named in §16, Art. IX of the state constitution, for distribution as provided in §16 of Art. IX of the state constitution and §208.11.

Additional gas tax collected pursuant to §208.44.—Shall be transferred into the "seventh cent gas tax trust fund," which fund is created for distribution as provided in §208.44.

History.—§3, ch. 15659, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(18). §3, ch. 61-119.

208.09 State roads trust fund; construction, etc., of roads.—All such moneys in the "state roads trust fund" shall be used for the construction and maintenance of state roads, as otherwise provided by law, under the direction of the state road department, which department may from time to time make requisition on the comptroller for fund to pay for the construction and maintenance of state roads. Money from said fund shall be drawn by the comptroller by warrant upon the state treasury pursuant to vouchers, and shall be paid in like manner as other state warrants are paid out of the appropriate fund against which same are drawn, and all sums of money necessary to provide for the payment of said warrants by the comptroller drawn upon said fund are appropriated annually out of said fund for the purpose of making such payments from time to time.

History.—§6, ch. 15659, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(21); §2, ch. 61-119.

208.10 State roads trust fund; use as to county roads, etc.—It is expressly recognized and declared by the legislature that all roads being constructed or built or which have heretofore been constructed or built, or which will be hereafter constructed or built by the state road department under prior authorization or designation by the legislature as state roads, or which were constructed or built by any county or special road and bridge district or other special taxing districts thereof, were, are and will be constructed and built as state projects and undertakings, and that the cost of the construction and building thereof was, is and will be a legitimate proper state expense incurred for a general and state purpose and should be wholly borne by the state. It is expressly recognized that certain of the counties of the State of Florida and special road and bridge districts or other taxing districts of such counties have advanced or contributed and paid to the state road department varying sums of money to be used and expended by said state road department in the construction and building of state roads theretofore authorized or designated by the legislature as state projects, and it is expressly recognized that certain of the counties of the state and special road and bridge districts or other taxing districts of such counties have paid or expended or caused to have been paid or expended varying sums of money in the construction and building of certain roads that are now state roads and heretofore designated as state roads by the legislature and that all such moneys have been and are being expended, furnished, advanced, contributed or paid out on account of expenses of the state in construction and building of said state roads to and for the general benefit of the state and that such sums should be returned and repaid respectively to each county to the amount that such county or any special road and bridge district, or special taxing districts thereof, has advanced or expended in the construction of the same.

208.11 Distribution of second gas tax to counties, etc.—

tion of roads that are now designated state roads, specifying separately and particularly the amount furnished and expended by each county. The amount so certified as to any county shall include all moneys advanced, contributed, paid and expended, as aforesaid, by such county and by every special road and bridge district or other special taxing district for road and bridge purposes on roads now designated as state roads, in such county.

(2) Said certificate shall be audited by the comptroller, and, being found correct, shall constitute the basis for the subsequent allocation and apportionment of the moneys to be derived from the second gas tax and from which the disbursement shall be made to, or for the benefit of, such respective counties as herein provided, out of said 'state roads distribution trust fund' account. The comptroller shall each month draw his order on the treasurer of the state for the full net amount of moneys then with the state treasury in said 'state roads distribution trust fund', specifying the counties to which said moneys shall be paid, and the amount to be paid to each county, respectively. Said orders of said comptroller shall be countersigned by the governor, and shall be payable to the state treasurer as ex officio treasurer of the counties, respectively, participating therein. The monthly schedule of installments to be so paid to or for such counties shall be computed, determined and paid out monthly in the following ratio, to-wit:

(a) One-third part of the said second gas tax shall be apportioned to the credit of the several counties on the basis of area of said counties, that is to say, the apportionment shall be to the county in the proportion that the area of the county shall bear to the area of all the counties;

(b) One-third part of said second gas tax shall be apportioned to the credit of the several counties on the basis of population of the counties, that is to say, the apportionment shall be to the county in the proportion that the population of the county shall bear to the total population of the state, as determined by the last preceding general state or federal census taken; and made a part of the existing state highway system.

(c) One-third part of said second gas tax shall be apportioned to the credit of the several counties on the basis of contribution which has heretofore been made by the respective counties and/or special road and bridge districts or other special taxing districts of such counties to the construction of state roads prior to July 1, 1931, either through funds or the equivalent thereof of the county and/or special road and bridge district, or other special taxing districts, of such counties turned over to the state road department from time to time or through roads constructed by the counties and/or special road and bridge districts or other special taxing districts of such counties at county or district expense, and which were prior to July 1, 1931,

§7.52 Pinellas county.

208.15 Reports required of wholesale dealers.—Each wholesale dealer in gasoline, or other like products of petroleum, shall, when making his report to the comptroller of the amount of such products sold in this state upon which the tax provided is due and payable by him to the comptroller of the state for the use of the state, at the same time report to the comptroller each and every sale made by such dealer of any quantity of gasoline, or other like products, which shall not have been at the time of such sale divested of its interstate character, which report shall show the name and business location of the person to whom the same is sold in this state. Every dealer shall, at the time other reports are required to be made to the comptroller, report to the comptroller each and every purchase of such products not theretofore divested of their interstate character made by such dealer upon which the tax is shown by the invoice thereof to have been assumed for report and payment by the dealer selling to him.

History.—§12, ch. 15659, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(27).

208.16 Invoice to show whether or not tax paid.—Each dealer when selling to any other dealer any of the products taxed under this chapter, shall render an invoice of such sale to the purchaser and upon such invoice the dealer so rendering such invoice shall plainly state thereon whether or not the tax required will be reported and paid by him, and the purchaser so buying and receiving such products may fully rely upon the statement so made in such invoice.

History.—§13, ch. 15659, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(28).

208.17 Dealer and road defined.—The term "dealer" as used in this chapter, or in any proceedings under this chapter, shall be deemed and taken to mean any person engaged in the business of selling in this state such of the products covered by this chapter as have been divested of their interstate character, and the tax imposed upon the quantity of such product sold in this state shall be collected only once and then upon the first sale after the same has lost its interstate character. The term "road" as used in this chapter, or in any proceeding under this chapter, shall be deemed and taken to include highways and bridges.

History.—§11, ch. 15659, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(26).

208.18 Penalty for violation of chapter.—Any person violating any of the provisions of this chapter, for the first offense, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished accordingly, and for the second or further offense, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not more than twelve months; provided, however, that the penalties provided in this section shall be in addition to those provided for in §208.07.

History.—§14, ch. 15659, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 7451(2).
cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.
§775.07 Punishment for misdemeanor.

208.181 Retail gasoline dealers, refund allowed.—Every person, firm or corporation licensed to sell gasoline at retail to the general public at posted retail prices, hereinafter referred to as "retail dealers" shall be entitled to a refund of two per cent on the first gas tax, as defined in §208.04, imposed by the state, on such gasoline purchased by such retail dealer; to cover losses due to evaporation and shrinkage of such gasoline, subject to the conditions set forth in the following sections.

History.—§1, ch. 29699, 1955.

208.182 Requirements for refund.—

(1) No retail dealer shall be entitled to a refund unless he is the holder of a current certificate of license as prescribed by §208.02.

(2) The comptroller shall not approve refund payment to any person other than a currently licensed retail dealer except the executor or administrator of the estate of the deceased currently licensed retail dealer.

History.—§2, ch. 29699, 1955; §1, ch. 63-332.
cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

208.183 Application for refund.—

(1) Retail dealers holding a current certificate of license may file application for refunds provided by §§208.181-208.186 with the comptroller. Said application shall be filed quarterly, within six months of date of purchase of gasoline with respect to which refund is claimed, on forms prescribed by the comptroller; shall be sworn to; shall state total quantity of gasoline purchased, location where purchased, period for which refund is claimed, date of purchase, from whom purchased, and any other information reasonably required by the comptroller. Original or duplicate original invoice for each purchase of gasoline made during the period for which refund is claimed shall be attached to said application.

(2) The comptroller shall deduct a fee of one dollar for each claim, which shall be used by the comptroller to defray the expense of administering this law for the biennium.

History.—§3, ch. 29699, 1955; §2, ch. 63-332.

208.184 Approval of application; payment of refund.—The comptroller shall promptly examine each such application for refund and approve or disapprove it. If he disapproves the application for refund, he shall promptly notify the applicant of his reason therefor and a time and place when the applicant may be heard in support of his application. If he approves the application he shall authorize the amount claimed to be refunded as other refunds are made, and the amount shall be refunded and deducted by him from current motor fuel tax receipts. After refund is made the invoices required under §208.183 shall be perforated and returned to the applicant.

History.—§4, ch. 29699, 1955; §3, ch. 63-332.

208.185 Refund over-payment; adjustment.—In the event of over-payment of any refund provided for in §208.184, the comptroller shall refuse to make further refund until such over-payment is adjusted in a manner satisfactory to him.

History.—§5, ch. 29699, 1955.

208.186 False statement; penalty.—Any retail dealer who falsely swears to a refund application, knowing such statement to be false, is guilty of perjury; and upon conviction, in addition to the penalty prescribed by law, shall not be allowed to make future applications for refund during the current license year.

History.—§6, ch. 29699, 1955; §4, ch. 63-332.

208.19 Failure to account for tax collected; embezzlement.—If any dealer shall collect from another, upon an invoice rendered, the tax in this chapter contemplated, and shall fail to report and pay the same to the comptroller, as provided, he shall be deemed to be guilty of embezzlement of funds, the property of the state, and upon conviction shall be punished as if convicted of larceny of a like sum.

cf.—§811.021. Punishment for larceny.

208.20 Gasoline tax imposed upon motor fuels in vehicle reservoirs.—A tax of seven cents per gallon is fixed and levied on all motor vehicle fuel carried in motor vehicle reservoirs upon which other gasoline taxes of this state have not been paid, and such tax shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund.

The terms "reserve motor vehicle reservoirs" and "reserve reservoirs" shall be deemed to be any reservoir or receptacle in, upon or attached to any motor vehicle other than the reservoir provided by the manufacturer as the container for fuel used in propelling said motor vehicle.

The term "motor vehicle fuel" shall be deemed to include any petroleum or petroleum products.

The term "other gasoline taxes" shall be deemed to refer to any gasoline taxes provided by law, as long as any such law shall be in effect, and to apply to any gasoline taxes provided for by any subsequent statute.

Gasoline inspection laws of the state are declared to be applicable to the enforcement of this section.

History.—§§1-3, ch. 16081, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(55), 1167(56), 1167(57).
cf.—§§525.01, 525.03, 525.06—525.17 Gasoline and oil inspection.

208.21 Duties of police officers; penalties, etc.—

(1) All sheriffs, deputy sheriffs, constables and police officers in their respective jurisdictions shall, with or without warrant, stop and detain any person operating a motor vehicle in this state when they have good cause to suspect that such person is carrying motor vehicle fuel in reserve reservoirs upon which the gasoline taxes in this state have not been paid, and to seize any such motor vehicle fuel and reserve reservoirs containing such fuel that may be found and arrest the parties so operating such motor vehicle or having such motor vehicle fuel and reserve reservoir containing such fuel in their possession. If such fuel in such quantities as to confirm the belief of the illegal carrying of the same be found, the said fuel and the reserve reservoirs containing such fuel shall be prima facie evidence of the carrying of such fuel contrary to law.

(2) It is unlawful for any person to operate a motor vehicle in this state carrying motor vehicle fuel in reserve reservoirs upon which other gasoline taxes of this state have not been paid, and any person so operating a motor vehicle carrying motor vehicle fuel in reserve reservoirs upon which the other gasoline taxes of this state have not been paid or having such fuel in their possession shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be subject to punishment as provided by law for misdemeanors.

(3) Upon the conviction of the person arrested for the violation of the provisions of this section, the judge of the court trying the case, after such notice to the person convicted and any other person entitled to such notice, as the judge may deem reasonable, may issue to the officer so making the arrest and seizure a written order adjudging and declaring such motor vehicle fuel and reserve reservoirs containing such fuel, or either, forfeited, and directing such officer to destroy such motor vehicle fuel or reserve reservoir containing such fuel. Such destruction shall be in the presence of such judge, or the clerk of his court, and at such time, place and in such manner as such judge shall in his order direct.

cf.—§775.07 Punishment for misdemeanor.

208.22 Stored motor fuels; license tax upon persons storing.—Every person, municipality, county or political subdivision, in this state, which shall import or receive by any means into this state, and keep in storage for a period of twenty-four hours or more after the same loses its interstate character as a shipment in interstate commerce, any gasoline or other like products of petroleum, which is intended to be stored or used for consumption in this state, shall, annually on the first day of October of each year, pay to the state a license fee of five dollars. Said license tax shall be paid into the state treasury in a special fund to the credit of the comptroller, who shall issue to the licensee a receipt evidencing the payment of said tax, which receipt shall be posted or displayed and so kept at all times open to the public view at the place of storage for which the same was issued.

It is unlawful for any person to keep in storage, for a period of twenty-four hours or more, after the same shall have lost its interstate character as a shipment in interstate commerce, any gasoline or like products of petroleum subject to taxation under this chapter, without having first obtained the license herein provided for and without otherwise complying, with the payment of taxes required to be paid.

History.—§§1, 2, 4, ch. 13756, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(5), 1167(6), 1167(8).

cf.—§1.01 Person defined.

208.23 Stored motor fuels tax.—An excise or license tax of six cents per gallon is levied upon every gallon of gasoline, or other like products of petroleum, which shall be shipped or imported into this state and which shall thereafter for a period of twenty-four hours or more after it loses its interstate character as a shipment of interstate commerce, be kept in storage in this state to be used and consumed in this state, which has not already been subjected to the payment of an excise or license tax under some law of this state taxing gasoline or like products of petroleum. The tax herein provided shall not be fixed and taxed upon fuel oil, kerosene oil, distillate crude petroleum, residuum or smudge oil.

History.—§§1, 9, 10, ch. 13756, 1929; §1, ch. 15659, 1931; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(5), 1167(13), 1167(14), 1167(16).

208.24 Stored motor fuels; disposition of taxes.—All taxes collected under §§208.22 and 208.23 shall be paid into the state treasury into a special fund to be credited to the account of the comptroller, which payments shall be made monthly. All persons subject to said taxes shall report, under oath, to the comptroller the number of gallons of gasoline, or other like products of petroleum held in storage by them for a period of more than twenty-four hours after the same has lost its interstate character, together with the amount of such products, which are kept in storage to be used or consumed in this state. Said persons, shall, at the time of filing the report aforesaid, pay into the state treasury, to the account of the comptroller, the amount of taxes computed upon the number of gallons upon which said person is liable for above taxes. Said persons shall deduct, from the amount of tax shown by the report to be payable, an amount equivalent to two percent of the tax on motor fuel not exceeding five hundred thousand taxable gallons, and less an amount equivalent to one percent of the tax on motor fuels in excess of five hundred thousand gallons but not exceeding one million taxable gallons, which is hereby allowed to the dealer on account of services and expenses in complying with the provisions of this law, provided this allowance shall not be deductible unless payment of tax is made on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month as herein required. The said report shall show in detail such facts as may be required by the comptroller and shall be upon such forms as may be furnished by the comptroller. The comptroller may require such additional and supplementary reports as he may deem necessary in order to ascertain the facts in any particular case, and in order to determine whether or not liability for taxes has been fully and truthfully reported and the tax fully paid.

208.25 Stored motor fuels; failure to report; penalties.—Should any person fail to make report to the comptroller, or to make payment into the state treasury to the account of the comptroller, as provided in §208.24 on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding the month when due, the comptroller shall estimate the amount of products, liable for taxes from such information as he may be able to obtain, and the taxes due for each month, to which amount shall be added ten per cent thereof as a penalty for the failure of such person to make such report and payment, which amounts the comptroller shall proceed to collect together with all costs, in the same manner as delinquent railroad taxes are collected; provided, however, that the comptroller may waive the penalty if the person has regularly filed reports and made payments of the tax due for a period of twenty-four months in accordance with the provisions of §208.24 and the person files an acceptable excuse for the late filing under oath with the comptroller.

Any person who shall fraudulently evade the payment of any such tax to which he may be liable, or who knowingly assists any other person with whom he may be connected in evading payment of such taxes, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding $5,000.00 or imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed 12 months.

History.—§3, ch. 13756, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(7), 7451 (1); §3, ch. 24308, 1947; §2, ch. 63-302. cf.—Ch. 195, Taxes upon railroads. §775.06 Alternative punishment.

208.26 Stored motor fuels; application of chapter.—All provisions of this chapter, insofar as they relate to the duties and powers of the comptroller and the penalties and liabilities of persons violating the laws relating to stored motor fuels, shall apply to §208.22-208.25; however, the same shall not be construed as making any such gasoline, and other products of petroleum, liable to double taxation.

History.—§55, 6, ch. 13756, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(9), 1167(10).

208.27 Stored motor fuels; distribution of taxes.—The entire proceeds of all taxes collected under §§208.22 through 208.26, hereof, is annually appropriated for the following purposes, to-wit:

(1) For the payment of all costs and expenses of collection, including expenses of litigations for such collection and necessary clerical assistants and other expenses incurred in the administration of this chapter.

(2) All the remaining moneys derived from this chapter, after deducting the items mentioned in the preceding subdivision of this section, shall be distributed in like proportions and in the same manner and to the same objects as taxes collected from dealers in gasoline under other laws of the state are distributed.

History.—§8, ch. 13756, 1929; CGL 1936 Supp. 1167(12).

208.28 Comptroller to make rules; powers of comptroller.—The comptroller of the state shall make reasonable rules and regulations, which shall have the force and effect of law, to govern reports and accounts by all persons dealing in or handling gasoline or other like products of petroleum, including state, county and municipal authorities, for the purpose of enabling the comptroller to ascertain whether or not any gasoline or other like products of petroleum are being dealt with, handled or stored in this state under such circumstances as to become liable to the tax imposed by any law relating to a tax on gasoline or other like products of petroleum.

The comptroller is further given power to investigate, or cause to be investigated under his authority, all cases involving dealers in gasoline by persons receiving, handling or storing the same and to determine, from such investigation, whether or not any law relating to the gasoline tax, is being evaded or illegally avoided, and the determination of the comptroller in any case shall be prima facie, valid and authentic in all courts in this state, and all actions involving the validating of taxes on dealers in gasoline or persons subject to the provisions of this chapter.

208.43 Legislative intention concerning senate joint resolution 324.—It is hereby declared to be the meaning and intention of the legislature that those provisions of senate resolution No. 324 of the 1941 session of legislature, relating to the remittance of twenty per cent of any balance in any year of the proceeds of said taxes contemplated by said resolution, to the board of county commissioners of any county for use on roads and bridges therein, provides, and the same shall be construed to provide, in the event said Resolution is adopted at the general election in 1942, that such funds shall be expended by the board of county commissioners of any such county for road and bridge purposes within the county, unless there exists a board of bond trustees or other authority in such county which is now or hereafter authorized by law to have the power of constructing, maintaining and supervising the roads and bridges of such county, and in such case, such board of bond trustees or other authority shall have the power and authority to use and expend such remitted twenty per cent funds for road and bridge purposes in the county until otherwise provided by law and it shall be the duty of the board of county commissioners in any such county to make such remitted funds available to such board of bond trustees or other authority for use on the public roads and bridges of such county immediately upon their remittance.

History.—§1, ch. 20937, 1941.

208.44 Additional tax upon gasoline or other like products of petroleum.—

(1) Every dealer in gasoline or other like products of petroleum, under whatever name designated in this state, in addition to all other taxes required by law, shall pay an additional tax of one cent per gallon for every gallon of gasoline or other like products of petroleum under whatever name designated, sold by him on which the tax herein provided has not been paid, or the payment thereof has not been assumed by a person preceding him in the handling of said lot of products. Delivery shall be deemed to be made at the point of destination. This additional license tax of one cent per gallon on gasoline or other like products of petroleum, under whatever name designated, shall be paid to the comptroller monthly in the following manner: On or before the 25th day of each month, the dealer shall report under oath to the comptroller the number of gallons of such products sold by him during the preceding month, and shall at the same time pay to the comptroller the amount of license tax computed to be due. Such report shall show in detail the amount of gallons of such products sold and delivered in each county. The dealer may deduct from the amount computed to be due, such amount as may be allowed by law for his services and expenses in complying with the provisions of this section.

(2) If any dealer shall fail to make such report and payment to the comptroller as herein provided, on or before the twenty-fifth day of the month succeeding the month for which the license tax is due as herein provided, the comptroller shall thereupon estimate the amount of such products sold by such dealer during such month from such information as he may be able to obtain, and shall add ten per cent of the amount of such taxes, as estimated, as the penalty for the failure of such dealer to make such report or payment, and shall proceed to collect such taxes, together with all costs and obtain the same as delinquent railroad taxes are collected by law; provided, however, that the comptroller may waive the penalty if the dealer has regularly filed reports and made payments of the tax due for a period of twenty-four months in accordance with the provisions of subsection (1) of this section, and the dealer files an acceptable excuse for the late filing under oath with the comptroller.

(3) The proceeds of said tax are hereby appropriated for public highway purposes in the manner following: The comptroller, after deducting his expenses of collection, shall monthly apply to said monthly collections the same ratio of distribution by which the two cents gasoline tax, known as the second gas tax, is prorated among the several counties under §16(a), Art. IX of the state constitution. The comptroller shall thereupon, monthly, remit the said respective distributive shares of each county as follows: Eighty per cent to the state road department for the construction, reconstruction, maintenance and repair of state roads and bridges within such county, for the lease or purchase of bridges connecting state highways within such county, acquisition of rights of way for state roads within such county or for reduction of bonded indebtedness of such county or special road and bridge districts within such county incurred for road and bridge purposes. Provided, however, that the state road department shall expend such funds solely for such purposes or on such state roads as shall be designated by appropriate resolution of the board of county commissioners of such county; and twenty per cent to the board of county commissioners of such county who shall use said funds solely and only for the acquisition of rights of way, or the construction, reconstruction, maintenance and repair of roads and bridges therein, or reduction of bonded indebtedness as aforesaid. Provided, however, that in the event that the powers and duties relating to roads and bridges usually exercised and performed by boards of county commissioners are exercised and performed by some other or separate county board, then and in such event such other or separate county board shall receive the proceeds and exercise the powers and perform the duties designated in this section to be done by the boards of county commissioners.

(4) The gasoline inspection laws of the state shall be and they are hereby declared to be applicable to the enforcement of this section.

(5) Any person, firm, corporation or association violating any of the provisions of this section, for the first offense shall be guilty of misdemeanor, and shall be punished accordingly, and for the second or further offense shall be fined not more than five thousand dollars, and in addition thereto, it shall be the discretion of the comptroller to revoke the dealer's license, and the proceeds of all fines and penalties imposed hereunder, less the costs, shall be paid into the county depository to the credit of the fine and forfeiture fund in the county where the conviction was had.

Provided, however, that the penalty provided in this subsection may be in addition to those provided for in subsection (2) of this section.

(6) The term "dealer" as used herein, or in any proceedings under this section, shall be deemed and taken to mean any person, firm, corporation or association engaged in the business of selling in this state such of the products covered by this section as have been divested of their interstate character, and the taxes herein imposed on the quantity of such products sold in this state shall be collected only once, and that, after the same has lost its interstate character.

(7) Each dealer, when selling to any other dealer any of the products herein taxed, shall render an invoice of such shipment to the purchaser, and such invoice of the dealer so selling shall plainly state whether or not the tax herein required will be reported and paid by him, and the purchaser, so buying and receiving such products may, in making his report to the comptroller, fully rely upon the statement so made in such invoice.

(8) Each wholesale dealer in gasoline or other like products of petroleum, when making his report to the comptroller of the amount of such products sold in this state, upon which the tax herein provided is due and payable by him to the comptroller of the state, for the use of the state, at the same time shall report to the comptroller each and every sale made by such dealer of any quantity of gasoline or other like products of petroleum which shall not have been at the time of such sale divested of its interstate character, which report shall show the name and business location of the person, firm, corporation or association to whom the same is sold in this state. Every dealer shall, at the same time other reports are required to be made to the comptroller, report to the comptroller each and every purchase of such products made by said dealer upon which the tax is shown on the invoice thereof to have been assumed, reported and paid by the dealer selling to him.

(9) The license tax herein levied shall be in addition to all other license taxes levied under the laws of the state, and in addition to the dealer's license tax for each place of business levied under the provisions of the laws of the state.

(10) If any dealer shall collect from another upon an invoice rendered the license tax herein contemplated, and shall fail to report and pay the same to the comptroller as herein provided, he shall be deemed to be guilty of embezzlement of funds, the property of the State of Florida, and upon conviction shall be punished as if convicted of larceny of a like sum.

(11) It is the intent of this section that the effect hereof shall be to correspondingly increase the gasoline storage tax imposed by chapter 13756, acts of 1929, as provided by §9 of said act, as brought forward and revised in §208.23 to §208.28 inclusive, so as to equalize the gasoline gallonage storage tax with the gallonage sales tax.

(12) It is hereby expressly recognized and declared by the legislature that all public roads and bridges, being constructed or built, or which will be hereafter constructed or built, including the acquisition of rights of way as incident thereto, either by the state road department, or the several counties of the state, were, are and will be, constructed and built as general public projects and undertakings, and that the cost of the construction and building thereof including the acquisition of rights of way as incident thereto, was, is and will be, legitimate proper state expense incurred for a general public and state purpose. And it is expressly recognized and declared that the construction, reconstruction, maintenance and acquisition of rights of way of all secondary roads are essential to the welfare of the state, and that such roads when constructed, or reconstructed or maintained, or such rights of way when acquired, are and will be for a general public and state purpose. And, the legislature has found and hereby declares that for the proper and efficient construction and maintenance of public highways designated state roads, it is in the best interest of the state to further integrate the activities of the state road department and the several boards of county commissioners as provided in subsection (8) in order that both state and local highway needs may be adequately provided for.

(13) This section shall not repeal any law, or parts of laws, relating to the levying of any state license taxes or other state taxes upon gasoline or other like products of petroleum, with exception of chapter 25266, acts of 1949, provided, however, that no municipality or other political subdivision shall levy or collect any "gasoline tax" or other tax measured or computed by the sale, purchase, storage, distribution, use, consumption, or other disposition of gasoline or other like products of petroleum except such municipalities as are now levying such a tax under authorization of special laws; provided, further, that nothing herein shall prevent the levying by municipalities, or other political subdivisions, of reasonable flat license fees or taxes upon the business of selling gasoline or other like products of petroleum at wholesale or retail.

(14) This section shall take effect November 1, 1949. In the event of invalidity or ineffectiveness for any reason, of subsection (3) or (12) or of both such subsections of this section, the comptroller shall hold in a separate fund in the state treasury, all monies derived from the tax imposed by this section and such proceeds shall not be expended for any purpose, but shall be held as aforesaid until appropriated by act of the legislature in future session.

(15) It is declared to be the legislative intent that the funds derived from this section shall be used in such manner and for the purposes aforesaid to reduce the burden of ad valorem taxes in the several counties.

(16) This section may be known and cited as "secondary roads assistance act of 1949."

208.45 Certain sales to United States tax exempt; rules and regulations.—

(1) Each and every dealer in gasoline or other like products of petroleum by whatsoever name designated shall be exempt from the payment of any and all excise taxes upon gasoline or other like products of petroleum sold by such dealer in the state to the United States, its departments, agencies and instrumentalities when such gasoline or other like products of petroleum is sold and delivered by such dealer in bulk lots of not less than five hundred gallons in each delivery to and for the exclusive use by the United States, its departments, agencies and instrumentalities.

(2) The term "exclusive use by the United States, its departments, agencies and instrumentalities" shall be construed to mean the consuming by the United States, its departments, agencies and instrumentalities of the gasoline or other like products of petroleum in equipment, devices or motors owned and operated by the United States, its departments, agencies or instrumentalities, and operated by contract flying schools training cadet aviators for the United States air force under contract whereby the United States reimburses the contract flying school for the gasoline so used.

(3) The term "exclusive use by the United States, its departments, agencies or instrumentalities" shall be further construed to specifically exclude the use of such gasoline and other like products of petroleum by any person, firm or corporation, whether operating under contract with the United States, its departments, agencies, and instrumentalities or not, the original purchase by whom from a dealer in gasoline or other products of petroleum in this state would have rendered such dealer liable for the payment of excise taxes upon such gasoline and other like products of petroleum under the laws of the state.

(4) The above definitions of the term "exclusive use by the United States, its departments, agencies, and instrumentalities" shall in nowise be construed to be the sole meaning intended by the use of such term in this section, but such term shall be given its ordinary and usual meaning in all instances not specifically mentioned herein, and the enumeration of the above definitions shall be construed as an extension of the ordinary and usual meaning of the term "exclusive use."

(5) The comptroller of the state shall promulgate such rules and regulations and shall prescribe such forms as shall be necessary to effectuate and enforce the purposes of this section.

(6) If any subsection, provision, or clause of this section shall be declared to be invalid or unconstitutional and such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall have the effect of defeating or striking down the attempted exemption it shall not affect the operation or validity of other statutes of the state providing for the taxation of every gallon of gasoline sold in the state, it being hereby declared to be the legislative intent to grant exemption from taxation under conditions set forth in subsection (1) only in the event and to such extent that such exemption is lawful and constitutional; and it is further declared to be the legislative intent that if any subsection, provision or clause of this section shall be declared to be invalid or unconstitutional and such declaration shall have the effect of defeating or striking down the attempted exemption that then and in such event the dealers and distributors of gasoline or other like products of petroleum shall pay each and every excise tax levied upon every gallon of gasoline sold in the state.

208.47 Definitions for §§ 208.48-208.63.—For the purposes of §§ 208.48-208.63 the following words and terms when used herein shall have the following meanings:

(1) "Motor fuel" means motor fuel as defined in §207.01.

(2) "Distributor" means distributor as defined in §207.01.

(3) "Comptroller" shall mean the comptroller of the state.

(4) "Public highways" means public highways as defined in §207.01.

(5) "State" means the State of Florida.

(6) "Agricultural purposes" shall be construed to mean motor fuel used in any tractor, vehicle, or other farm equipment which is used exclusively on a farm or for processing farm products on the farm, and no part of which is used in any vehicle or equipment driven or operated upon the public roads, streets, or highways of this state; provided, that this restriction shall not apply to the movement of farm vehicles or farm equipment between farms, provided further, that the transporting of bees by water and the operating of equipment used in the apiary of a beekeeper shall be also deemed an agricultural purpose.

(7) "Commercial fishing purposes" as used in §§ 208.48-208.63 shall be construed to mean motor fuel used in the operation of boats, vessels, and equipment used exclusively for the taking of fish, crayfish, oysters, shrimp, and sponges from the salt and fresh waters under the jurisdiction of the state for resale to the public, but shall in no way be construed to include sports or pleasure fishing, and no part of which is used in any vehicle or equipment driven or operated upon the public roads, streets, or highways of this state.

History.—§2, ch. 28098, 1953; (6), §1, ch. 29913, 1955, superseded by §1, ch. 29916, 1955; (6), §1, ch. 57-205.

208.48 Refunds on fuel used for agricultural or commercial fishing purposes; limitation; claims.—Any person who shall use any motor fuel for agricultural purposes and commercial fishing purposes, on which the tax, as imposed by chapter 208 has been paid shall be entitled to a refund of the state tax except the two cents per gallon motor fuel tax known as the second gasoline tax and the seventh cent gas tax as provided by §208.44; provided, however, that no refund shall be authorized unless sworn applications therefor containing such information as the comptroller may determine shall be filed with him not later than January 31 immediately following the year for which refund is claimed, provided where a claim is filed after January 31 and there is presented to the comptroller a justified excuse for late filing and the last preceding claim has been filed on time, such late filing may be accepted through February of the year filed, and provided, further, that no refund shall be authorized for purchases of less than twenty-five gallons at any one time; and further provided that no refund shall be authorized unless the amount due is for five dollars or more in any twelve month period.

History.—§2, ch. 28098, 1953; §2, ch. 29916, 1955; §1, ch. 63-297.

208.49 Powers and duties of comptroller.—

(1) The comptroller shall make such rules and regulations as are necessary to enforce the provisions of §§ 208.47-208.63.

(2) Agents of the comptroller are authorized to go upon the premises of any permit holder or of any licensed motor fuel dealer or his duly authorized agent as defined in this law to make inspection to ascertain any matter connected with the operation of §§ 208.47-208.63 or the enforcement thereof; provided, however, that no agent shall enter the dwelling of any person without the occupant's consent or the authority from the court of competent jurisdiction.

(3) The comptroller is hereby authorized to employ such additional persons, and incur travel, rental, and other current and capital expenses necessary properly to accomplish the purpose of §§ 208.47-208.63 and to protect the motor fuel tax revenues of the state and to that end may call upon any state or local law enforcing agency to assist in enforcing the provisions of this law.

History.—§§ 2, 10, 12, ch. 28098, 1953.

208.50 Permit for refunds required; procedure for issuance; bond.—

(1) No person shall secure a refund of tax under § 208.48, unless such person is the holder of an unrevoked refund permit issued by the comptroller before the purchase of the motor fuel, which permit shall be numbered and issued annually, and which shall entitle such person to make application for a refund under §§ 208.47-208.63.

(2) To procure a permit every person shall file with the comptroller an application, on forms furnished by the comptroller, stating that he is engaged in the business of farming or commercial fishing and that he intends to file an application for refund for the current calendar year, and shall furnish the comptroller such other information as the comptroller shall request.

(3) No person shall, in any event be allowed a refund unless he has filed the application provided for above with the comptroller. The permit shall be effective on the date issued by the comptroller, and continuous from year to year so long as the permit holder files refund claims year to year. In the event he fails to file a claim for any year then he must apply for a new permit.

(4) The comptroller may, if applicant for a refund permit has violated any provision of §§ 208.47-208.63 or regulation pursuant thereto, or has been convicted of bribery, theft, or false swearing within the period of five years preceding the application, or if the comptroller has evidence of the applicant's financial irresponsibility, require the applicant to execute a corporate surety bond of one thousand dollars to be approved by the comptroller conditioned upon the payment of all taxes, penalties, and fines for which such applicant may become liable under §§ 208.47-208.63.

History.—§§ 3, 9, ch. 28098, 1953; § 3, ch. 29916, 1955; § 1, ch. 63-297.

208.51 Permit numbers; tax refund blanks.—The comptroller shall annually assign each permit holder a new file number and furnish the permit holder with blank motor fuel tax refund applications.

History.—§ 4, ch. 28098, 1953; § 4, ch. 29916, 1955; § 1, ch. 63-297.

208.52 Sales; quantities limited; invoices required, requirements.—

(1) When motor fuel is sold to a person who shall claim to be entitled to refund under § 208.48, the seller of such motor fuel shall make out a sales invoice which invoice shall contain the following information:

(a) The name, post office and resident address of the purchaser;

(b) The number of gallons purchased;

(c) The date on which purchase was made;

(d) The price paid for such refund motor fuel;

(e) The name and place of business of the seller of the refund motor fuel.

(2) The sales invoice shall be retained by the purchaser for attachment to his application for refund as a part thereof. No refund shall be allowed unless the seller executes such invoices and proof of payment of such taxes for which refund is claimed is attached. The comptroller may refuse to grant a refund if the invoice in any particular is incomplete and fails to contain the full information required under §§ 208.47-208.63. When refund payment is made the comptroller may perforate the invoices and return them to the permit holder.

(3) Refund motor fuel shall not be sold or delivered in quantities of less than twenty-five gallons.

(4) No person shall execute a sales invoice, as described in subsection (1), who is not a distributor, as defined in § 207.01, or a jobber, agent, consignee or bailee duly authorized by a licensed distributor, to execute invoices as his agent. No refund invoices shall be executed for purchases from retail filling stations, except that the comptroller shall have authority to designate certain retail stations as agents of distributors where no distributors are available to serve commercial fishermen.

History.—§§ 5, 10, 12, ch. 28098, 1953; (6) § 5, ch. 29916, 1955; § 1, ch. 63-297.

208.53 Refund claim application forms.—The refund permit holder shall file with the comptroller an application for refund on forms furnished by the comptroller which shall contain blanks for listing:

(1) The quantity of motor fuel used on which refund is claimed;

(2) The name, post office and resident address of the purchaser;

(3) The amount of tax claimed to be refunded;

(4) The number of gallons purchased;

(5) That the same has been used exclusively by the purchaser for his own use;

(6) An oath that no part of said refund motor fuel has been sold, or used on the public roads, streets, or highways of this state;

(7) The quantity of refund motor fuel used in machines and equipment listed in claimant's application for refund;

(8) The quantity of motor fuel on hand at the beginning and the quantity of motor fuel on hand at the end of the period for which refund is claimed;

(9) The quantity of motor fuel used on which no refund claim is made,

(10) The name and address of the seller from whom the refund motor fuel was purchased, and

(11) Such other information as the comptroller shall require.

History.—§6, ch. 28098, 1953; (7) §6, ch. 29916, 1955.

(1) When the comptroller is satisfied that a refund is proper he shall authorize the amount of the state motor fuel tax paid except the two cents per gallon motor fuel tax known as the "second gasoline tax" and the seventh cent gas tax as provided by §208.44, to be refunded as other refunds are made; and the amount shall be refunded and deducted by him from current motor fuel tax receipts in his possession. Such refunds shall be allowed only on motor fuel purchased in quantities of twenty-five gallons, or more, and used in machines, boats and equipment listed by the claimant in his application for refund.

(2) The right to receive any refund under the provisions of this section shall not be assignable, except to the executor or administrator, or to the receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, or assignee in insolvency proceedings of such person entitled thereto.

(3) Claims shall be paid annually on a calendar year basis. Claims shall be filed not later than January 31 immediately following the year for which refund is claimed.

(4) The comptroller shall deduct a fee of two dollars for each claim, which two dollars shall be deposited in the general revenue fund.

History.—§§2, 6, ch. 28098, 1953; §7, ch. 29916, 1955.

208.55 Appropriation for payment of claims.—The annual claims to be refunded shall not exceed five hundred thousand dollars which amount shall be withheld from gasoline tax revenues available for the purpose of refund under §§ 208.47-208.63. In event claims exceed this amount the comptroller shall reduce such refunds proportionally so that each claim shall receive the same percentage reduction.

History.—§2, ch. 28098, 1953.

208.56 Erroneous refunds.—If any excise taxes on motor fuel be erroneously refunded the comptroller shall advise the payee by registered mail of the erroneous refund. If the payee fails to reimburse the state within fifteen days after the receipt of the letter, an action may be instituted by the comptroller against such payee in the circuit court and the comptroller shall recover from the payee the amount of the erroneous refund plus a penalty of twenty per cent.

History.—§8, ch. 28098, 1953.

208.57 Records of sales and purchases of motor fuel under refund permit.—

(1) Each licensed distributor shall, in accordance with the comptroller's requirements, keep at his principal place of business in this state, or at the bulk plant where the sale is made, a complete record or duplicate sales tickets of all such motor fuel sold by him for refund provided for in §208.53, which records shall give the date of each such sale, the number of gallons sold, the name of the person to whom sold and the sale price. No licensed distributor or his agent or employee shall acknowledge or assist in the preparation of any claim for tax refund.

(2) Every person to whom a refund permit has been issued under the act shall, in accordance with the comptroller's requirements, keep at his residence or principal place of business in this state a record of each purchase of motor fuel from a licensed distributor or the distributor's authorized agent, the number of gallons purchased, the name of the seller, the date of the purchase and the sale price.

(3) The records required to be kept under subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall at all reasonable hours be subject to inspection by the comptroller or by any person duly authorized by him. Such records shall be preserved and shall not be destroyed until two years after the date the motor fuel to which they relate was sold or purchased.

History.—§7, ch. 28098, 1953; §1, ch. 63-297.

208.58 Comptroller's records of refunds open to public.—The comptroller shall keep a permanent record of the amount of refund claimed and paid to each claimant. Such records shall be open to public inspection.

History.—§9, ch. 28098, 1953.

208.59 False information in permit or refund application.—No person shall knowingly make a false or fraudulent statement in an application for refund permit or in an application for a refund of any taxes under this law; or fraudulently obtain a refund of such taxes; or knowingly aid or assist in making any such false or fraudulent statement or claim; or having bought motor fuel or any part thereof to be used for any purpose other than as provided in §208.48.

History.—§9, ch. 28098, 1953; §1, ch. 63-297.

208.60 Revocation, suspension of refund permit.—

(1) The refund permit of any person who shall violate any provision of §208.59 shall be revoked by the comptroller and may not be reissued until two years have elapsed from the date of such revocation, and such person, whether or not his permit has been revoked by the comptroller shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than two hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned for a term of not less than thirty days nor more than six months, or both in the discretion of the court.

(2) The refund permit of any person who shall violate any provision of §§ 208.47-208.63, other than those contained in §208.59, may be suspended by the comptroller for any period in his discretion not exceeding six months.

History.—§9, ch. 28098, 1953.

208.61 Hearing required.—If the comptroller reasonably believes that any refund permit holder has been guilty of a violation of §§208.47-208.63, which would subject the permit holder to a suspension or revocation of his permit under the provisions of §§208.51 (5) or 208.60, said permit holder may be cited to show cause at a public hearing before the comptroller why his permit should not be suspended or revoked. The permit holder shall be notified by registered letter or summons. The letter or summons shall inform the permit holder of the charge or charges made against him and he shall have a reasonable opportunity to be heard before his permit may be revoked or suspended. The summons may be served in the same manner and by the same officer or person as provided by law, or it may be served in said manner by an employee of the department. The hearing shall be set at least five days after the summons is served or the letter delivered.

History.—§11, ch. 28098, 1953.

208.62 Appropriation for administration.—All fees collected under §§208.47-208.63 are hereby appropriated to the comptroller for the purpose of defraying the cost of administering §§208.47-208.63.

History.—§12, ch. 28098, 1953; §24, ch. 57-1.
cf.—§282.001 Fees deposited in general revenue fund.

208.63 Violations by persons other than refund permit holders.—Any person other than the holder of a refund permit, who shall knowingly violate any provision of §§ 208.47-208.62, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, or imprisoned not exceeding six months, or both in the discretion of the court.

209.001 Purpose.—The tax imposed by this law is levied for the purpose of providing revenue to be used by this state to defray in whole or in part, the cost of constructing, widening, reconstructing, maintaining, resurfacing and repairing the public highways of this state and the cost and expense incurred in the administration and enforcement of this law and for no other purpose whatsoever.

History.—§1, ch. 26718, 1951.

209.01 Definitions.—The following words, terms and phrases as used in this law are defined:

(1) "Special fuels" means any liquid product or gas product or combination thereof used in an internal combustion engine or motor for the generation of power to propel motor vehicles on the public highways, except such fuels that are subject to the tax imposed by chapter 208.

(2) "Motor vehicles" means all vehicles, machines or mechanical contrivances which are propelled by internal combustion engines or motors, and required, or which would be required to be licensed under the motor vehicle license law if owned by a resident.

(3) "Public highways" includes every way or place of whatever nature, generally open to the use of the public as a matter of right for the purpose of vehicular travel and notwithstanding that the same may be temporarily closed for the purpose of construction, reconstruction, maintenance or repair.

(4) "Person" includes any individual, association, firm, co-partnership, corporation, receiver, trustee, conservator or other officer appointed by any state or federal court, counties, municipalities or other political subdivisions of this state.

(5) "Use" means the placing of special fuel into any receptacle on a motor vehicle from which fuel is supplied for the propulsion thereof, and with respect to special fuels brought into this state in any such receptacle, for consumption in this state.

(6) "User" includes any person who shall use special fuels within this state in an internal combustion engine or motor for the generation of power to propel a motor vehicle on the public highways of this state.

(7) "Comptroller" means the state comptroller.

(8) "Bulk dealer" means any person, firm, corporation, association of persons, or political subdivisions of this state, engaged in the business of delivering or selling direct to service stations and/or user-dealers in this state of such of the products covered by this act as have been deprived of their interstate character.

(9) "User-dealer" means any person who has obtained a license as required by §209.05.

History.—§1, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(103); §2, ch. 26718, 1951.

209.02 Levy of tax.—An excise tax of seven cents per gallon is hereby imposed on all licensed user-dealers of special fuels upon the transferring or delivering of any special fuels into the fuel supply tank of any motor vehicle. A like tax is also hereby imposed on any person using special fuels for propelling any motor vehicle over the public highways of this state on which the excise tax has not been paid to a licensed user-dealer in this state, except as provided in §209.05 (1).

History.—§2, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(104); §3, ch. 26718, 1951.

209.03 Allocation of tax.—All moneys derived from the taxes imposed by this chapter shall be paid into the state treasury by the comptroller, for deposit in the "special motor vehicle fuel tax clearing trust fund," which fund is created and from which the following transfers shall be made:

After withholding five thousand dollars from the proceeds of four cents of said tax, to be used as a revolving cash balance, all other moneys shall be transferred in the same manner and for the same purposes as provided by law for allocation of the taxes on gasoline and other like products of petroleum.

History.—§3, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(105); §1, ch. 20554, 1941; §4, ch. 26718, 1951; §4, ch. 61-119.

cf.—§208.08 Payment of gasoline tax in state treasury.
§208.44(1) Additional gasoline tax.

209.04 Appropriation for expenses of administration.—The legislature shall include in its biennial appropriation act a sum sufficient for the payment by the comptroller of expenses incident to the administration of this chapter including legal expenses, costs and expenses incident to litigation, and the payment of such sums of money as the comptroller may from time to time determine shall be refunded to any person making over payment of such taxes.

History.—§4, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(106); §15, ch. 26869, 1951.

209.05 Licenses; necessity; prerequisites; issuance; non-assignability.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person to use, transfer or deliver special fuels into the fuel supply tank of any motor vehicle unless such person is the holder of a valid user-dealer license issued by the comptroller, provided, that no person shall be required to be licensed who uses only special fuels on which the tax has been paid to a licensed user-dealer, and provided, further, that the motor vehicle of any user may enter this state with a maximum of fifty gallons or gallonage to the capacity of the regular fuel tank attached to the vehicle, whichever is the lesser upon which a similar tax has been paid in another state.

(2) To procure a license as provided in subsection (1), every person shall file with the comptroller an application in such form as the comptroller may prescribe, with a bond, as provided in §209.06. No license shall be issued upon any application unless accompanied by said bond.

(3) When an application for said license shall be filed by a person whose license has been cancelled for cause by the comptroller, or in case the comptroller shall be of the opinion that such application is not filed in good faith, or that such application is filed by some person as a subterfuge for the real person in interest whose license has theretofore been cancelled, the comptroller shall have, after a hearing, of which the applicant shall have been given five days notice in writing and in which said applicant shall have the right to appear in person or by counsel and present evidence, if the evidence warrants, authority to refuse to issue to said person a license.

(4) Upon filing application for a license, a filing fee of one dollar shall be paid to the comptroller which shall be paid into the general revenue fund.

(5) All requirements of this section having been complied with, the comptroller shall issue to the applicant a license, and such license shall remain in effect until cancelled as provided in this law.

(6) Said license shall not be assignable and shall be valid only for the user-dealer in whose name issued and shall be displayed conspicuously by the user-dealer in the principal place of business for which it was issued.

History.—§5, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(107); §6, ch. 26718, 1951.
cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

209.06 Bond required of licensed user-dealers.—

(1) Every user-dealer shall file with the comptroller a bond or bonds in a penal sum of not less than three thousand dollars nor more than twenty thousand dollars. The sum of said bond shall be approximately three times the average monthly special fuels tax paid or due by such user-dealer during the next preceding twelve calendar months under this law, with a surety approved by the comptroller, upon which the user-dealer shall be the principal obligor and the state shall be the obligee, conditioned upon the faithful compliance with the provisions of this law.

(2) When the liability upon the bond filed, as provided in subsection (1), shall be discharged or reduced, whether by judgment rendered, payment made or otherwise, or if in the opinion of the comptroller any surety on the bond theretofore given shall have become unsatisfactory or unacceptable, the comptroller may require the user-dealer to file a new bond with satisfactory surety in the same form and amount.

(3) If such new bond shall be furnished as provided in subsection (2), the comptroller shall cancel and surrender the bond of the user-dealer for which such new bond shall be substituted. If the user-dealer shall fail to post said new bond, the comptroller shall forthwith cancel the license certificate of said user-dealer.

(4) If the comptroller shall determine that it is necessary to hold a hearing to determine the sufficiency of the existing bond filed, as provided in subsection (1), he shall give the user-dealer filing such bond, five days written notice of such hearing. If, after the hearing, the comptroller shall decide that the amount of the existing bond is insufficient to insure payment to the state of the amount of tax and any penalties and interest for which said user-dealer is liable, the user-dealer shall forthwith, upon the written demand of the comptroller, file additional bond in the same manner and form with like security thereon. The comptroller shall forthwith cancel the license certificate of any user-dealer failing to file the additional bond. The total amount of such additional bond and the bond required under the provisions of subsection (1) shall not exceed twenty thousand dollars.

(5) Any surety on any bond furnished by a user-dealer, as provided in this section, shall be released and discharged from all liability to the state accruing on such bond after the expiration of sixty days from the date upon which such surety shall have lodged with the comptroller, written request to be released and discharged. Such request shall not operate to relieve, release or discharge such surety from any liability already accrued, or which shall accrue, before the expiration of said sixty-day period. The comptroller shall, promptly on receipt of such request, notify the user-dealer who furnished such bond, and unless said user-dealer shall on or before the expiration of the sixty-day period, file with the comptroller a new bond with a surety company satisfactory to the comptroller in the amount and form as provided in subsection (1), the comptroller shall forthwith cancel the license of said user-dealer. If such new bond shall be furnished, the comptroller shall cancel and surrender the bond of said user-dealer for which the new bond shall be substituted.

209.07 Tax reports; computation and payment of tax.—

(1) For the purpose of determining the amount of tax imposed by §209.02 each user-dealer shall, not later than the twentieth day of each calendar month, file with the comptroller on forms prescribed by said comptroller, monthly reports which shall include the total gallons of special fuels used, transferred or delivered into the fuel supply tank of any motor vehicle by the user dealer on which the tax has not been paid by a user-dealer in this state during the next preceding calendar month. The reports shall contain or be verified by a written declaration that such report is made under the penalties of perjury.

(2) At the time of filing said monthly report, each user-dealer shall pay to the comptroller the full amount of special fuels tax for the next preceding calendar month at the rate as provided for in §209.02.

(3) The report and remittance of said taxes shall be deposited in the United States mails, with postage prepaid, in sufficient time to reach the comptroller in the ordinary course of the mails on or before the twentieth day of the month.

History.—§7, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(109); §8, ch. 26718, 1951.

209.08 Surrender of bond or license.—

(1) Upon receipt of a written request from any user-dealer to cancel the license, the comptroller shall have the power to cancel such license, effective sixty days from the date of such written request. No such license shall be cancelled unless the user-dealer shall have, prior to the date of such cancellation, paid to this state all taxes due and payable, together with all penalties and interest accruing under any of the provisions of this law, and unless the user-dealer shall have surrendered to the comptroller the license issued to such user-dealer.

(2) If, upon investigation, the comptroller shall ascertain and find that any person to whom a license has been issued under this law is no longer engaged in the use, transfer or delivery of special fuels and has not been so engaged for a period of six months, the comptroller shall have the power to cancel the license by giving such person sixty days' notice of the cancellation, mailed to their last known address, in which event the license theretofore issued to such person shall be surrendered to the comptroller.

(3) If any license shall be cancelled by the comptroller as provided in this section, and if the user-dealer shall have paid to this state all taxes due and payable, together with any and all penalties and interest accruing under this law, the comptroller shall cancel and surrender the bond theretofore filed by said user-dealer.

History.—§8, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(110); §9, ch. 26718, 1951.

209.09 Penalty for failure to report and pay taxes promptly.—If any person shall wilfully fail to file the monthly report and pay the tax as provided in §209.07 the comptroller shall give notice to such person of an intention to revoke his license. Such user-dealer shall be entitled to five days within which to apply for a hearing on the license cancellation at which hearing evidence may be presented and if it appears that the failure to comply with this law was not due to fraud or to an intent to violate the law the license of the user-dealer shall not be revoked. If, after hearing, the license is revoked the user-dealer may file a petition with the appropriate circuit court for the issuance of a writ of certiorari to review the order of the comptroller. If no application is made for a hearing the comptroller may cancel the license forthwith and notify the user-dealer of such cancellation by first-class mail sent to the last known address appearing in the files of the comptroller.

History.—§9, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(111); §10, ch. 26718, 1951; §3, ch. 63-512.

209.10 Comptroller may estimate special fuels sold or used.—

(1) When any user-dealer shall neglect or refuse to file any report for any calendar month as required by §209.07, or shall file an incorrect or fraudulent report, the comptroller shall determine, after investigation, the number of gallons of special fuels with respect to which the user-dealer has incurred liability under this law, for any particular month or months, and fix the amount of taxes due and payable thereon, to which sum shall be added a sum equal to ten per cent thereof as a penalty for the default of such user-dealer; provided, however, that the comptroller may waive the penalty if the user-dealer has regularly filed reports and made payments of the tax due for a period of twenty-four months in accordance with the provisions of §209.07, and the user-dealer files an acceptable excuse under oath with the comptroller for the late filing.

(2) In any action or proceeding, which must be commenced within two years of the date the taxes were due, for the collection of the tax, penalties or interest imposed in connection therewith, an assessment by the comptroller of the amount of the tax, penalties or interest due, shall be prima facie evidence of the claim of the state, and the burden of proof shall be upon the user-dealer to show the assessment was incorrect and contrary to law.

History.—§10, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(112); §11, ch. 26718, 1951; (1) §1, ch. 63-301.

209.11 Bulk dealers to report monthly.—Every bulk dealer shall make such report as may be required by the comptroller to the comptroller at the time and on the forms prescribed by the comptroller as provided in §209.13, of all special fuels delivered to licensed user-dealers.

History.—§11, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(113); §7, ch. 22858, 1945; §12, ch. 26718, 1951.

209.111 Enforcement of law; presumption as to fuel received.—For the purpose of enforcing the provisions of this chapter, it shall be prima facie presumed that all fuel received by a user-dealer into storage and dispensing equipment designed to fuel motor vehicles, is to be transferred or delivered by the user-dealer into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles.

History.—§13, ch. 26718, 1951.

209.12 Retention of records by user-dealers; penalty.—

(1) Each user-dealer shall maintain and keep for a period of two years, such record or records of special fuel received, used, transferred or delivered together with invoices, bills of lading, and other pertinent records and papers as may be required by the comptroller for the reasonable administration of this law.

(2) Any person wilfully violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than sixty days, or both, in the discretion of the court.

History.—§12, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(114), 7451(6); §14, ch. 26718, 1951.

cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

209.13 Inspection of records; hearings; forms; rules and regulations.—

(1) The comptroller shall have the authority to prescribe all forms upon which reports shall be made to him and any other forms required for the proper administration of this law and shall prescribe and publish all needful rules and regulations for the enforcement of this law, which rules and regulations shall have the force and effect of law.

(2) The comptroller, or any authorized deputy, employee or agent, is authorized to examine the records, books, papers and equipment of user-dealers, common carriers, or bulk dealers, to verify the truth and accuracy of any statement or report, to ascertain whether or not the tax imposed by this law has been paid.

(3) The comptroller, or any of his duly authorized agents, shall have the power in the enforcement of the provisions of this law to hold hearings, administer oaths to witnesses, and take sworn testimony of any person and cause it to be transcribed into writing; and for such purposes shall be authorized to issue subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum and compel the attendance of witnesses, and shall have the power to conduct such investigations as he may deem necessary.

(4) If any user-dealer shall unreasonably refuse access to such records, books, papers or other documents or equipment, or if any person shall fail or refuse to obey such subpoenas duces tecum, or shall fail or refuse to testify, except for lawful reasons, before the said comptroller, or any of his authorized agents, the comptroller shall certify the names and facts to the clerk of the circuit court of any county and the said circuit court shall enter such order against such user-dealer or person in the premises as the enforcement of this law and justice shall require.

209.14 Information privileged.—Any information obtained by the comptroller or his agent or representative as a result of a report, investigation or verification in this chapter authorized to be made, shall be confidential and any person divulging any such information except upon order of a court of competent jurisdiction or to an officer of the state entitled to receive the same in his official capacity shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not less than twenty-five dollars nor more than five hundred dollars.

History.—§14, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(116), 7451(7).

209.15 Failure to file statement; false statement; penalties, etc.—Any person who shall wilfully refuse or neglect to make any statement, report or return required by the provisions of this law or who shall knowingly make, or shall aid or assist any other person in making a false statement in a return or report, or in connection with an application for refund of any tax, or who shall knowingly collect, or attempt to collect or cause to be paid to him or to any other person, either directly or indirectly, any refund of such tax without being entitled to the same, or who uses, transfers or delivers into supply tank of any motor vehicle any special fuels upon which the tax has not been paid to a user-dealer in this state without being the holder of an uncancelled license, shall upon conviction thereof be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than one thousand dollars or imprisonment in the county jail for a term of not less than thirty days and not more than one year or both such fine and imprisonment. Each day or part thereof during which any person shall engage in business as a user-dealer without being the holder of an uncanceled license shall constitute a separate offense within the meaning of this section.

cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

209.16 Discontinuance as a licensed user-dealer.—

(1) Whenever a user-dealer ceases to engage in the business of using, transferring or delivering special fuels into the fuel supply tanks of motor vehicles upon which the tax has not been paid to a user-dealer within this state, it shall be the duty of such user-dealer to notify the comptroller in writing within fifteen days after discontinuance. All taxes, penalties and interest under this chapter not then due and payable, shall, notwithstanding any provisions thereof, become due and payable forthwith. It shall be the duty of said user-dealer to make a report and pay all such taxes, interest and penalties and to surrender to the comptroller the license certificate theretofore issued.

(2) Any person violating any of the provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall, upon conviction, be punished by a fine not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars and costs of the prosecution or by imprisonment for not more than one year or both.

cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

209.17 Exchange of information among the states.—The comptroller shall, upon request duly received from the officials to whom are entrusted the enforcement of the special fuels tax laws of any other state, forward to such officials any information which he may have in his possession relative to the manufacture, receipt, sale, use, transportation and shipment by any person of special fuels.

History.—§17, ch. 19446, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 1167(118); §18, ch. 26718, 1951.

209.19 Tax lien on property.—

(1) If any person liable for the tax imposed by §209.02 neglects or refuses to pay the same, the amount of such tax (including any interest, penalty or addition to such tax, together with any costs that may accrue in addition thereto) shall be a lien in favor of the state upon all franchises, property and right to property, whether real or personal, then belonging to or thereafter acquired by such person (whether such property is employed by such person in the prosecution of business or is in the hands of an assignee, trustee or receiver for the benefit of creditors) from the date said taxes are due and payable as provided in this law.

(2) Said lien shall have priority over any lien or encumbrance whatsoever, except the lien of other state taxes having priority by law and except that such lien shall not be valid as against any bona fide mortgagee, pledgee, judgment-creditor or purchaser whose rights shall have attached prior to the time when the comptroller shall have filed notice of such lien in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the principal place of business of such person is located, or if such person has no principal place of business in the state, in the office of the secretary of state (for which filing no fee shall be required).

(3) Said lien shall continue until the amount of such tax together with any penalties and interest subsequently accruing thereon is paid. The comptroller may issue a certificate of release of lien when the amount of such tax together with any penalties and interest subsequently accruing thereon has been satisfied, and such certificate may be recorded with the recorder of the county in which the notice of lien was filed.

(4) No sheriff, receiver, assignee, master or other officer shall sell the property or franchise of any person who is a user-dealer without first filing with the comptroller a statement containing the following information:

(a) Name or names of the plaintiff or party at whose instance or upon whose account the sale is made;

(b) Name of the person whose property or franchise is to be sold;

(c) The time and place of sale;

(d) The nature of the property and the location of the same.

(5) It shall be the duty of the comptroller after receiving notice, as required by subsection (4), to furnish to the sheriff, receiver, trustee, assignee, master or other officer, having charge of the sale, a certified copy or copies of all special fuels tax, penalties and interest on file in the comptroller's office as liens against such person and in the event there are no such liens, a certificate showing that fact, which certified copy or copies of certificate shall be publicly read by such officer at and immediately before the sale of the property or franchise of such person.

(6) It shall be the duty of the comptroller to furnish to any person applying therefor a certificate showing the amount of all liens for special fuels tax, penalties and interest that may be of record in the files of the comptroller against any person under the provision of this chapter.

History.—§20, ch. 26718, 1951.

209.20 Refund of taxes erroneously or illegally collected.—When any taxes or penalties imposed by this law have been erroneously or illegally collected, the comptroller may permit the user-dealer within one year to take credit against a subsequent tax report for the amount of the erroneous or illegal amount overpaid or the user-dealer may apply for refund as provided by §215.26.

cf.—§215.26 Repayment of funds paid into state treasury through error, etc.

209.21 Reports from motor vehicle commissioner.—At the time of issuing a license plate to the owner of a motor vehicle, the motor vehicle commissioner shall determine the kind of fuel used to propel the motor vehicle, and for those motor vehicles using fuel other than gasoline, shall report to the comptroller within thirty days the name and address of the owner, the make and motor number of the vehicle. Forms for making such reports shall be furnished by the comptroller.

History.—§22, ch. 26718, 1951.

209.22 Municipalities and other political subdivisions prohibited from levying tax.—No municipality or other political subdivision shall levy or collect any "special fuel" tax or other tax measured or computed by the sale, purchase, storage, distribution, use, consumption, or other disposition of special fuels as defined in this chapter except such municipalities as are now levying such a tax under authorization of special laws; provided, that nothing in this chapter shall prevent the levying by municipalities, or other political subdivisions, of reasonable flat license fees or taxes upon the business of selling special fuels, as defined in this chapter, at wholesale or retail.

History.—§23, ch. 26718, 1951.

209.23 Certain sales to United States tax exempt; rules and regulations.—

(1) Every user-dealer shall be exempt from the payment of the excise taxes upon any special fuels for motor vehicle use transferred or delivered by such user-dealer to the United States, its departments, agencies and instrumentalities when such special fuel is delivered by such user-dealer in bulk lots of not less than five hundred gallons in each delivery to and for the exclusive use by the United States, its departments, agencies and instrumentalities.

(2) The term "exclusive use by the United States, its departments, agencies and instrumentalities" shall be construed to mean the consuming by the United States, its departments, agencies and instrumentalities of the special fuel in motor vehicles owned and operated by the United States, its departments, agencies or instrumentalities.

(3) The term "exclusive use by the United States, its departments, agencies or instrumentalities" shall be further construed to specifically exclude the use of such special fuel by any person, firm or corporation, whether operating under contract with the United States, its departments, agencies and instrumentalities or not, the original receipt by whom from a user-dealer in this state would have rendered such user-dealer liable for the payment of excise taxes upon such special fuel under the laws of this state.

(4) The above definitions of the term "exclusive use by the United States, its departments, agencies, and instrumentalities" shall in nowise be construed to be the sole meaning intended by the use of such term in this section, but such term shall be given its ordinary and usual meaning in all instances not specifically mentioned herein, and the enumeration of the above definition shall be construed as an extension of the ordinary and usual meaning of the term "exclusive use."

210.01 Definitions.—When used in this chapter the following words shall have the meaning herein indicated:

(1) "Cigarette" means any roll for smoking made wholly or in part of tobacco irrespective of size or shape and whether or not such tobacco is flavored, adulterated or mixed with any other ingredient, the wrapper or cover of which is made of paper or any other substance or material except tobacco.

(2) "Persons" means any individual, co-partnership, society, club, association, corporation, joint stock company, and any combination of individuals and also an executor, administrator, receiver, trustee or other fiduciary.

(3) "Sale" means any transfer, exchange or barter in any manner, or by any means whatever.

(4) "Retail sale" or "sale at retail" means a sale to a consumer or to any person for any purpose other than resale.

(5) "Dealer" means any wholesale dealer as hereinafter defined.

(6) "Wholesale dealer" means any person who sells cigarettes to retail dealers or other persons for purposes of resale only, or any person who operates more than one cigarette vending machine located in more than one place of business.

(7) "Retail dealer" means any person other than a wholesale dealer engaged in the business of selling cigarettes.

(8) "Package" means the individual package, box or other container in or from which retail sales of cigarettes are normally made or intended to be made.

(9) "Agent" means any person authorized by the director to purchase and affix adhesive or meter stamps under this chapter.

(10) "Director" means the director of the beverage department of the state as provided for in §561.05.

(11) "Use" means the consuming, giving away or disposing, in any manner, of cigarettes.

(12) "First sale" means the first use or consumption of cigarettes within this state.

(13) "Operating ad valorem millage" means all millages other than those fixed for debt service.

(14) "Distributing agent" means every person, firm or corporation in this state who acts as an agent for any person, firm or corporation outside or inside the state by receiving cigarettes in interstate or intrastate commerce and storing such cigarettes subject to distribution or delivery upon order from said principal to wholesale dealers and other distributing agents inside or outside this state.

(15) "Place of business" means any place where cigarettes are sold or where cigarettes are stored or kept for the purpose of sale or consumption; or if cigarettes are sold from a vending machine the place in which the vending machine is located.

(16) "Manufacturer's representative" means a person who represents a manufacturer of cigarettes but who has no place of business in this state where cigarettes are stored. A manufacturer's representative is required to obtain any cigarettes required by him through a wholesale dealer in this state and to make such reports as may be required by the state beverage department.

History.—§1, ch. 21946, 1943; §1, ch. 22645, 1945; §1, ch. 24363, 1947; §1, ch. 26320, 1949; (6) §1, (14), (15) n. §2, ch. 29884, 1955; (14), (16) n. §1, ch. 61-399.

210.02 Cigarette tax imposed; collection, credit for municipal tax, etc.—

(1) An excise or privilege tax, in addition to all other taxes of every kind imposed by law, is imposed upon the sale, receipt, purchase, possession, consumption, handling, distribution and use of cigarettes in this state, in the following amounts, except as hereinafter otherwise provided, for cigarettes of standard dimensions:

(a) Upon all cigarettes, as herein defined, three and one-half inches long or less, four mills on each cigarette;

(b) Upon all cigarettes, as herein defined, between three and one-half and six inches long, eight mills on each cigarette; and

(c) Upon all cigarettes, as herein defined, six inches long or longer, sixteen mills on each cigarette.

(2) The description of cigarettes contained in paragraphs (a), (b) and (c) of subsection (1) are hereby declared to be standard as to dimensions for taxing purposes as provided in this law and should any cigarette be received, purchased, possessed, sold, offered for sale, given away or used of a size other than of standard dimensions, the same shall be taxed at the rate of one cent on each such cigarette.

(3) Where cigarettes, as described in subsection (1) (a) above, are packed in varying quantities of twenty cigarettes or less, the following rate shall govern:

(a) Packages containing ten cigarettes or less require a four-cent tax; and

(b) Packages containing more than ten but not more than twenty cigarettes require an eight-cent tax.

(4) Where cigarettes, as described in subsection (1) (b) above, are packed in varying quantities of twenty cigarettes or less, the following rates shall govern:

(a) Packages containing ten cigarettes or less require an eight-cent tax; and

(b) Packages containing more than ten but not more than twenty cigarettes require a sixteen-cent tax.

(5) Where cigarettes, as described in subsection (1) (c) above, are packed in varying quantities of twenty cigarettes or less, the following rates shall govern:

(a) Packages containing ten cigarettes or less require a sixteen-cent tax; and

(b) Packages containing more than ten but not more than twenty cigarettes require a thirty-two-cent tax.

(6) This tax shall be advanced and paid by the dealer to the director for deposit and distribution as hereinafter provided upon the first sale or transaction within the state, whether or not such sale or transfer be to the ultimate purchaser or consumer. The seller or dealer shall collect the tax from the purchaser or consumer and the purchaser or consumer shall pay the tax to the seller. The seller or dealer shall be responsible for the collection of the tax and the payment of the same to the director. Whenever cigarettes are shipped from outside the state to anyone other than a distributing agent or wholesale dealer, the person receiving the cigarettes shall be responsible for the tax on said cigarettes and the payment of same to the director.

(7) The taxpayer shall be entitled to a credit on the state tax imposed in this section to the extent of any tax imposed by any municipality as authorized in this chapter, such credit to be accomplished by a reduction of the state tax imposed in this section and in the distribution of the tax revenue as hereinafter provided, it being the legislative intent that the tax on cigarettes shall be uniform throughout the state and the same amount of tax shall be collected upon cigarettes subject to the municipal tax and those cigarettes not subject to a municipal tax.

(8) On July 1, 1963, the effective date of this act, before opening for business, each retailer of cigarettes in this state shall take an inventory of all cigarettes on hand, on forms prepared and furnished by the state beverage department, which report shall be certified and signed by the retailer or his authorized employee and mailed on or before July 10, 1963, to the state beverage department, Carlton building, Tallahassee, accompanied by check or money order for the amount of increased tax on said inventory as indicated on the report. If a retailer fails to make said report or remittance, the state beverage department may make an estimate of the July 1, 1963, cigarette inventory of such retailer which estimate shall be mailed by certified mail to the retailer at his last known address. If the retailer does not pay the amount of tax increase on the estimated inventory within thirty days from receipt thereof, the collection of said tax increase shall be subject to the provisions of §210.14. All taxes collected under the provisions of this subsection shall be paid to the state treasurer to the credit of the general revenue fund.

History.—§2, ch. 21946, 1943; §2, ch. 22645, 1945; §7, ch. 24337, 1947; §1, ch. 23871, §2, ch. 24363, 1947; §11, ch. 25035, 1949; §1, ch. 26320, 1949; (6) §3, ch. 29884, 1955; (1), (3)-(5) §1, (8) n. by §3, ch. 63-480.

210.03 Municipal tax authorized; prohibition against other taxes.—

(1) Any municipality in this state may, in the discretion of its governing body, impose an excise or privilege tax upon the sale, receipt, purchase, possession, consumption, handling, distribution and use of cigarettes sold or to be sold at retail within the territorial limits of such municipality up to the same amount for the same size and the same package content as set forth in §210.02, except cigarettes sold by a traveling location, such as an itinerant store or industrial caterer.

(2) The tax herein authorized shall be collected by the beverage department of the state in the same manner as the state tax imposed by §210.02.

(3) This tax, when imposed by a municipality, shall be advanced and paid by the dealer to the director, for deposit and distribution as hereinafter provided, upon the first sale or transaction within the state of cigarettes sold or to be sold at retail within the territorial limits of such municipality, irrespective of whether or not such sale or transfer be to the ultimate purchaser or consumer. The seller or dealer shall collect the tax from the purchaser or consumer, and the purchaser or consumer shall pay the tax to the seller.

(4) When any such municipality shall impose the tax herein authorized, a certified copy of the municipal law imposing said tax shall be filed with the director and the effective date of such municipal tax shall be the date of filing said certified copy with the director.

(5) Any funds received under and by virtue of this chapter by municipalities shall be used and expended for the following purposes only, which said purposes are hereby found to be and are hereby designated as state functions and purposes within the state:

For the future cost, purchase, building, designing, engineering, planning, repairing, reconditioning, altering, expanding, maintaining, servicing and otherwise operating any of the following:

Streets, bridges, storm sewers, curbs, drains, gutters, water supplies, sanitary facilities and services for the preservation, protection or improvement of the public health and safety, including hospitals, fire stations and fire fighting equipment, sanitary sewers, sewerage disposal systems, sewerage disposal plants and facilities, garbage and refuse collection and disposal services, facilities and equipment, incinerators and other facilities and services, including street cleaning, inspections and services for the protection of public health including the enforcement of ordinances designed to maintain safe health standards with respect to foods, mosquito, insect and rodent eradication and control, and the removal and abatement of nuisances which may be or constitute dangers to public health and the exercise of controls for public safety, facilities for the prevention of beach erosion, the enforcement of the laws of the state, and municipal ordinances with respect to public travel, health and safety, and such other state functions which are performed by municipal governments within their boundaries, and are otherwise performed by the state and county governments outside of the limits of incorporated municipalities.

(6) No municipality shall, after November 1, 1949, levy or collect any other excise or license tax on cigarettes, or on persons or vending machines to engage in the sale thereof.

History.—§1, ch. 26320, 1949; (1) §1, ch. 63-486, 63-486.

210.04 Construction; exemptions; collection, etc.—

(1) The amount of taxes, either state or municipal, advanced and paid to the state aforesaid shall be added to and collected as a part of the sales price of the cigarettes sold or distributed, which amount may be stated separately from the price of the cigarettes on all display signs, sales and delivery slips, bills and statements which advertise or indicate the price of the product.

(2) The cigarette tax imposed shall be collected only once upon the same package or container of such cigarettes.

(3) No tax shall be imposed by this chapter upon cigarettes not within the taxing power of the state under the commerce clause of the United States Constitution.

(4) (a) No tax shall be required to be paid upon cigarettes sold at post exchanges, ship service stores, ship stores, slop chests or base exchanges, to members of the armed services of the United States, when such post exchanges, ship service stores or base exchanges are operated under regulations of the army, navy or air force of the United States or military, naval or air force reservations in this state, or when such ship stores or slop chests are operated under the regulations of the United States navy on ships of the United States navy.

(b) Or upon the sale or gift of cigarettes by charitable organizations to bona fide patients in regularly established government veterans' hospitals in Florida for the personal use or consumption of such patients.

(5) It shall be presumed that all cigarettes are subject to the tax imposed by this chapter until the contrary is established, and the burden of proof that they are not taxable shall be upon the person having possession of them.

(6) The sale of single or loose unpacked cigarettes is prohibited. The director may authorize any person to give away sample packages of cigarettes, each to contain not less than two cigarettes upon which the taxes have been paid.

(7) Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit the sale of cigarettes, upon which the tax has been advanced, through the medium of vending machines where the tax is collected by the said vending machines.

(8) Except as hereinafter provided, all agents shall be liable for the collection and payment of the tax imposed by this chapter or the tax imposed by any municipality as authorized herein, and shall pay the tax to the director by purchasing, under such regulations as he shall prescribe, adhesive stamps of such design and denominations as he shall prescribe.

(9) Agents, located within or without the state, shall purchase stamps and affix such stamps in the manner prescribed to packages or containers of cigarettes to be sold, distributed or given away within the state, in which case any dealer subsequently receiving such stamped packages of cigarettes will not be required to purchase and affix stamps on such packages of cigarettes. Provided however, that the director may, in his discretion, authorize manufacturers to distribute in the state, through their representatives, free sample packages or containers of cigarettes containing not less than two or more than five cigarettes without affixing any tax stamps provided that copies of shipping invoices to such representatives be furnished, and payment of all taxes imposed on said cigarettes by law be made, directly to the director not later than the 10th day of each calendar month.

History.—§2, ch. 21946, 1943; §2, ch. 22645, 1945; am. §3, ch. 24363, 1947; §11, ch. 25035, 1949; §1, ch. 26320, 1949; (9) §1, ch. 28227, 1953; (4) (a) §1, ch. 67-169.

210.05 Preparation and sale of stamps; discount.—

(1) The tax imposed by this chapter, or by any municipality as authorized herein, shall be paid by affixing stamps in the manner herein set forth, or by affixing stamp insignia through the device of metering machines authorized in this act.

(2) The director shall prescribe, prepare and furnish stamps of such denominations and quantities as may be necessary for the payment of the tax imposed by this chapter, or the tax imposed by any municipality as authorized herein, and may from time to time and as often as he deems advisable provide for the issuance and exclusive use of stamps of a new design and forbid the use of stamps of any other design. The director shall make provisions for the sale of such stamps at such places and at such time as he may deem necessary.

(3) The director may appoint dealers in cigarettes, manufacturers of cigarettes, within or without the state as agents to buy or affix stamps to be used in paying the tax herein imposed, or the tax imposed by any municipality as authorized herein, but an agent shall at all times have the right to appoint a person in his employ who is to affix the stamps to any cigarettes under the agent's control; provided, however, that any wholesale dealer in the state shall have the right to buy and affix such stamps. Whenever the director shall sell and deliver to any such agent or wholesaler any such stamps, such agent or wholesaler shall be entitled to receive as compensation for his services and expenses as such agent or wholesaler in affixing such stamps, and to retain out of the moneys to be paid by him for such stamps, a discount of five per cent of the par value of any amount of stamps purchased during any fiscal year from July 1 through June 30 of the following year, up to and including two million stamps, and a discount of three and one-half per cent of the par value of any amount of stamps purchased during any fiscal year from July 1 through June 30 of the following year in excess of two million stamps. All stamps purchased from the director under this chapter shall be paid for in cash.

(4) The director may in his discretion revoke the authority of any agent failing to comply with the requirements of this chapter or the rules and regulations promulgated hereunder and such agent may in addition be punished in accordance with the provision of this chapter.

History.—§3, ch. 21946, 1943; §3, ch. 22645, 1945; §1, ch. 26320, 1949; (3) §1, ch. 57-255; (3) §2, ch. 63-480.

210.06 Affixation of stamps; presumption.—Every dealer within or without the state shall affix or cause to be affixed to such package or container of such cigarettes, stamps, evidencing the payment of the tax imposed by virtue of this chapter before such cigarettes are offered for sale or use or consumed or before they are otherwise disposed of in the state.

Each retail dealer shall open such box, carton or other container of cigarettes prior to exposing for sale or selling such cigarettes and examine the packages contained therein for the purpose of ascertaining whether or not the said packages have affixed thereto the proper tax stamp. If unstamped or improperly stamped packages of cigarettes are discovered, the retail dealer shall immediately notify the dealer from whom said cigarettes were purchased. Upon such notification, the dealer from whom said cigarettes were purchased shall replace such unstamped or improperly stamped packages of cigarettes with those upon which stamps have been properly affixed, or immediately affix thereto the proper amount of stamps.

Whenever any cigarettes are found in the place of business of any such retail dealer, or in the possession of any other person without the stamps affixed, the presumption shall be that such cigarettes are kept in violation of the provisions of this law. Stamps shall be affixed to each package of cigarettes of an aggregate denomination not less than the amount of the tax upon the contents therein, and shall be affixed in such manner as to be visible to the purchaser. All stamps shall be affixed in the manner prescribed by the director.

History.—§4, ch. 21946, 1943; §4, ch. 22645, 1945; §1, ch. 26320, 1949.

(1) The tax may also be paid through the use of cigarette tax stamp insignia to be applied by the use of metering machines. The director shall prescribe and promulgate appropriate rules and regulations governing the use of metering machines, the procedure for the payment of such cigarette taxes through the use thereof, requiring adequate surety bonds of the users thereof to assure the proper use of such machines and payment of all cigarette taxes that might come due by the users thereof, and all other rules and regulations necessary and proper to govern the use of same.

(2) All provisions of this chapter governing the use of cigarette tax stamps, the compiling of records, the making of reports, permits and revocation of permits, seizures and forfeitures, penalties, and all other provisions pertaining to the payment of cigarette taxes through the use of stamps, shall likewise be applicable to the payment of said taxes through the use of metering machines.

(3) Wholesale or retail dealers of cigarettes, owning, leasing, furnishing or operating cigarette vending machines shall affix to each such machine in a conspicuous place, an identification sticker furnished by the state beverage department. Sticker shall show the name and address of the cigarette wholesale or retail dealer owning, leasing, furnishing or operating said vending machines.

No vending machine shall be allowed to operate in the state that does not have affixed thereto the identification sticker required by this section nor shall any vending machine be allowed to operate in the state that does not display at all times at least one package of each brand of the packages located therein so the same are clearly visible and arranged in such a manner that the cigarette tax stamps or meter impressions of stamps affixed thereto are clearly visible. It shall be the duty of any person, firm or corporation operating a cigarette vending machine in this state, to furnish the beverage department the location of the vending machine and to report within thirty days to the beverage department any change of location of the vending machine.

History.—§5, ch. 21946, 1943; §5, ch. 22645, 1945; §1, ch. 26320, 1949; (3) n. §2, ch. 57-169; (3) §2, ch. 61-399.

210.08 Bond for payment of taxes.—Each dealer, agent or distributing agent shall file with the director a surety bond acceptable to the director in the sum of ten thousand dollars as surety for the payment of all taxes; provided, however, that where in the discretion of the director the amount of business done by the dealer, agent or distributing agent is of such volume that a bond of less than ten thousand dollars will be adequate to secure the payment of all taxes assessed as authorized by the cigarette tax law, the director may accept a bond in a lesser sum than ten thousand dollars, but in no event shall he accept a bond of less than one thousand dollars, and he may at any time in his discretion require any bond in an amount less than ten thousand dollars to be increased not to exceed ten thousand dollars.

210.09 Records to be kept; reports to be made; examination.—

(1) Every person who shall possess or transport any unstamped cigarettes upon the public highways, roads or streets of the state, shall be required to have in his actual possession invoices or delivery tickets for such cigarettes. The absence of such invoices or delivery tickets shall be prima facie evidence that such person is a dealer in cigarettes in this state and subject to the provisions of this chapter.

(2) The director is authorized to prescribe and promulgate by rules and regulations, which shall have the force and effect of the law, such records to be kept and reports to be made to the director by any distributing agent, wholesale dealer, retail dealer, common carrier, or any other person handling, transporting or possessing cigarettes for sale or distribution within the state as may be necessary to collect and properly distribute the taxes imposed by §210.02, and the taxes imposed by any municipality as authorized in §210.03. All reports shall be made on or before the tenth day of the month following the month for which the report is made, unless the director by rule or regulation shall prescribe that reports be made more often.

(3) All distributing agents, wholesale dealers, agents, or retail dealers shall maintain and keep for a period of three years at the place of business where any transaction takes place, such records of cigarettes received, sold or delivered within the state as may be required by the director. The director or his duly authorized representative is hereby authorized to examine the books, papers, invoices and other records, stock of cigarettes in and upon any premises where the same are placed, stored and sold and equipment of any such distributing agents, wholesale dealers, agents or retail dealers, pertaining to the sale and delivery of cigarettes taxable under this chapter. To verify the accuracy of the tax imposed and assessed by this chapter or any municipal tax imposed as authorized herein, each person is hereby directed and required to give to the director or his duly authorized representatives the means, facilities and opportunity for such examinations as are herein provided for and required.

(4) (a) All persons who are either cigarette wholesalers, vending machine operators or distributing agents, and agents and employees of the same, are required to keep daily sales tickets or invoices of cigarette sales and it shall be the duty of said persons to see that each sales ticket and invoice handled by them or on behalf of them show the correct name and address to whom sold and the number of packages or cartons of each brand sold. It shall also be the duty of said persons to see that each sales ticket or invoice correctly shows whether the same is inside or outside of a qualified municipality and if the sale is made within the limits of a qualified municipality, the correct name of the municipality must be indicated.

(b) The director shall suspend or revoke the license of any person who is either a cigarette wholesaler, vending machine operator or distributing agent upon sufficient cause appearing that the said persons, their agents or employees have failed to keep daily sales tickets or invoices in accordance with this section.

(c) Before the director shall suspend or revoke the license of any licensee under the cigarette tax law, the procedure set out in §561.29 shall be followed.

(5) Common carriers in this state are required to report to the state beverage department all packages or cartons of unstamped cigarettes which are refused by the consignee because of damage or otherwise. Authority in writing from the state beverage department must be obtained to sell or dispose of such unstamped cigarettes. Any dealer or distributing agent, who refuses any shipment or part of a shipment of unstamped cigarettes, must show in his next monthly report to the state beverage department the number of packages or cartons of cigarettes refused and the name of the common carrier from whom the cigarettes were refused.

History.—§§6, 10, 11, ch. 21946, 1943; §§7, 11, 12, ch. 22645, 1945; §1, ch. 26320, 1949; (2), (3) §4, ch. 29884, 1955; (4) n. §4, ch. 57-169; (5) n. §1, ch. 57-784.

210.10 General powers of the director; salary.—

(1) The director is authorized to prescribe and promulgate all rules and regulations necessary to effectuate the provisions of this chapter, and consistent with the terms hereof. All cigarette permits issued hereunder shall have printed thereon a notice to the effect that such permit is issued subject to the provisions of this chapter and said rules and regulations. The director shall provide upon request without charge to any applicant for a permit a copy of this chapter and the rules and regulations prescribed by him pursuant hereto.

(2) The director and all officers and employees under this chapter shall, in the administration thereof and in the administration of the state beverage law, have all the authority and power vested in officers and employees of the state beverage department as provided by §§561.07 and 561.52, and such power and authority is hereby conferred upon the director and all officers and employees under this chapter with respect to the administration of this chapter and also with respect to the administration of the beverage law.

History.—§7, ch. 21946, 1943; §8, ch. 22645, 1945; §1, ch. 26320, 1949; (3) r. §7, ch. 29615, 1955.

210.11 Refunds; sales of stamps and payment of tax.—Whenever any cigarettes upon which stamps have been placed, or upon which the tax has been paid by metering machine, have been sold and shipped into another state for sale or use therein, or have become unfit for use and consumption or unsalable, or have been destroyed the dealer involved shall be entitled to a refund of the actual amount of the tax paid with respect to such cigarettes less any discount allowed by the director in the sale of the stamps or payment of the tax by metering machine, upon receipt of satisfactory evidence of the dealer's right to receive such refund, provided application for refund is made within three months of the date the cigarettes were shipped out of the state, became unfit or were destroyed. No person other than the director shall sell, or offer for sale, any stamp or stamps issued under this chapter. The director may redeem unused stamps lawfully in the possession of any person. The director may prescribe necessary rules and regulations concerning refunds, sales of stamps, and redemptions under the provisions of this chapter. Appropriation is hereby made out of revenues collected under this chapter for payment of such allowances.

History.—§8, ch. 21946, 1943; §9, ch. 22645, 1945; §1, ch. 26320, 1949; §5, ch. 29884, 1955.

210.12 Seizures; forfeiture proceedings.—

(1) The state, acting by and through the director, shall be authorized and empowered to seize, confiscate and forfeit for the use and benefit of the state, any cigarettes upon which taxes payable hereunder may be unpaid, and also any vending machine or receptacle in which such cigarettes are held for sale, or any vending machine that does not have affixed thereto the identification sticker required by the provisions of §210.07, or which does not display at all times at least one package of each brand of cigarettes located therein so the same is clearly visible and arranged in such a manner that the cigarette tax stamp or meter impression of the stamp affixed thereto is clearly visible. Such seizure may be made by the director, his duly authorized representative, or any sheriff or deputy sheriff, or any police officer.

(2) The procedure for seizure, the listing, appraisal, advertisement and sale of the property seized, the bond of any claimant, the court proceedings, if any, including the parties, personal service of citation, and other personal services, the services by publication, judicial sale, and all other proceedings for the confiscation and forfeiture of the property for the nonpayment of the taxes shall be regulated, conducted, governed and controlled in the manner provided by chapter 562, relating to the seizure, confiscation and forfeiture of property under the beverage law which is incorporated herein by reference except to the extent that such sections may conflict or be inconsistent herewith.

(3) From the proceeds of any sale hereunder the director shall collect the tax on the property, together with a penalty of fifty per cent thereof and the costs incurred in such proceedings; the balance, if any, shall be payable by the director to the person in whose possession the said property was found or as the court may direct.

(4) The distribution by the director of the proceeds of the sale from any cigarettes or other property that may be forfeited and confiscated hereunder, shall, after the payment of expenses of such forfeiture, be governed by the provisions of this chapter.

(5) No sale shall be made hereunder to any person except a licensed wholesale or retail dealer authorized to engage in the sale of cigarettes under the laws of Florida. All sales shall be made to the highest and best bidder for cash. The director shall provide for the payment of any taxes payable upon any cigarettes sold hereunder before the same are delivered to any purchaser.

(6) The state attorney for the judicial circuit in which such property was seized shall act as the attorney for the director in such confiscation and forfeiture proceedings.

210.13 Determination of tax on failure to file a return.—If a dealer fails to file any return required under this chapter, or having filed an incorrect or insufficient return, fails to file a correct or sufficient return, as the case may require, within ten days after the giving of notice to him by the director that such return or corrected or sufficient return is required, the director shall determine the amount of tax due by such dealer any time within three years after the making of the earliest sale included in such determination, and give written notice of such determination to such dealer. Such a determination, shall finally and irrevocably fix the tax unless the dealer against whom it is assessed shall, within thirty days after the giving of notice of such determination, apply to the director for a hearing. After such hearing, the director shall give notice of his decision to the dealer liable for the tax. The decision of the director may be reviewed in the circuit court of the county where such dealer is authorized to do business if a petition for the issuance of a writ of certiorari is filed by the dealer within the time and in the manner provided by the Florida appellate rules. Review by such court shall not be granted unless the amount of tax stated in the decision, with penalties thereon, if any, shall have been first deposited with the director, and an undertaking or bond filed in the circuit court in which such cause may be pending in such amount and with such sureties as the circuit judge shall approve, conditioned that if such proceeding be dismissed or the decision of the director confirmed, the applicant for review will pay all costs and charges which may accrue against him in the prosecution of the proceeding. At the option of the applicant such undertaking or bond may be in an additional sum sufficient to cover the tax, penalties, costs and charges aforesaid, in which event the applicant shall not be required to pay such tax and penalties precedent to the granting of such review by such court.

210.14 Warrant for collection of taxes.—

(1) In addition to all other remedies for the collection of any taxes due under the provisions of this chapter, the director may issue a warrant directed to the sheriff of any county commanding said sheriff to levy upon and sell the goods and chattels of the specified delinquent person found within his jurisdiction, for the payment of the amount of such delinquency plus a penalty equal to fifty per cent of the amount thereof, and interest on the total at six per cent per annum and the cost of executing the warrant, and to return such warrant to the director and to pay him the money collected by virtue thereof within sixty days after receipt of such warrant. The sheriff shall, within five days after receipt of the warrant, file with the clerk of the circuit court of his county a copy thereof and thereupon such clerk shall enter in the judgment docket the name of the person mentioned in the warrant and the amount of the tax and penalties for which the warrant was issued and the date that such copy is filed. Said clerk shall be allowed the same fees as are allowed by law for similar services rendered in judgment execution proceedings.

(2) Thereupon the amount of such warrant so docketed shall become a lien upon the title to or the interest in real or personal property of the person against whom the warrant is issued. The sheriff to whom any such warrant shall be directed shall proceed upon the same in all respects and with like effect and in the same manner as prescribed by law in respect to executions issued against goods and chattels upon judgments by a court of record, and shall be entitled to the same fees for his services in executing the warrant to be collected in the same manner.

(3) In the discretion of the director a warrant of like terms, force and effect may be issued and directed to any officer or employee of the director and in the execution thereof such officer or employee shall have all the power conferred by law upon sheriffs, but he shall be entitled to no fee or compensation in excess of the actual expenses paid in the performance of such duty. If a warrant is returned not satisfied in full, the director may from time to time issue new warrants and shall also have the same remedies to enforce the amount due thereunder as if the state had recovered judgment therefor and execution thereon had been returned satisfied.

210.15 Permits.—

(1) Every person, firm or corporation desiring to deal in cigarettes as a distributing agent or wholesale dealer within this state shall file an application for a cigarette permit for each place of business with the director or any assistant designated by him. Every application for a cigarette permit shall be made on forms furnished by the director and shall set forth the name under which the applicant transacts or intends to transact business, the location of his place of business within the state, and such other information as the director may require. If the applicant has or intends to have more than one place of business dealing in cigarettes within this state, the application shall state the location of each place of business. If the applicant is an association, the application shall set forth the names and addresses of the persons constituting the association, and if a corporation, the names and addresses of the principal officers thereof and any other information prescribed by the director for the purpose of identification. The application shall be signed and verified by oath or affirmation by the owner, if a natural person, and in the case of an association or partnership, members or partners thereof, and in the case of a corporation, by an executive officer thereof or by any person specifically authorized by the corporation to sign the application, to which shall be attached the written evidence of this authority. The cigarette permit for a distributing agent shall be issued annually for which an annual fee of five dollars shall be charged. The holder of any duly issued, annual permit for a distributing agent shall be entitled to a renewal of his annual permit from year to year as a matter of course, on or before July 1, upon making application to the director and upon payment of this annual permit fee. The permit for a wholesale dealer shall be issued only to persons of good moral character, who are not less than twenty-one years of age. Wholesale dealer permits to corporations shall be issued only to corporations whose officers are of good moral character and not less than twenty-one years of age. There shall be no exemptions from the permit fees herein provided to any persons, association of persons or corporation, any law to the contrary notwithstanding. No wholesale dealer permit shall be issued to any person who has been convicted within the last past five years of any offense against the cigarette laws of this state or who has been convicted in this state, any other state, or the United States during the past five years of any offense designated as a felony by such state or the United States, or to a corporation, any of whose officers have been so convicted. The term "conviction" shall include an adjudication of guilt on a plea of guilty or a plea of nolo contendere, or the forfeiture of a bond when charged with a crime. The director may refuse to issue a wholesale permit to any person, firm or corporation whose permit under the cigarette law has been revoked or to any corporation, an officer of which has had his permit under the cigarette law revoked, or to any person who is or has been an officer of a corporation whose permit has been revoked under the cigarette law. Any permit issued to a firm or corporation prohibited from obtaining such permit under the cigarette law may be revoked by the director. Prior to an application for a wholesale dealer permit being approved, the applicant shall file two sets of fingerprints on regular United States department of justice forms for himself. The applicant shall also file a set of fingerprints for any person or persons interested directly or indirectly with the applicant in the business for which the permit is being sought, when so required by the director. If the applicant or any person interested with the applicant, either directly or indirectly, in the business for which the permit is sought shall be such a person as is within the definition of persons to whom a wholesale dealer permit shall be denied, then the application may be denied by the director. If the applicant is a partnership, all members of the partnership are required to file said fingerprints, or if a corporation, all principal officers of the corporation are required to file said fingerprints. The cigarette permit for a wholesale dealer shall be originally issued at a fee of one hundred dollars which sum is to cover the cost of the investigation required before issuing such permit. The cigarette permit for a wholesale dealer shall be renewed from year to year as a matter of course at an annual cost of five dollars on or before July 1 upon making application to the director and upon payment of the annual renewal fee. Permittees, by acceptance of their permits, agree that their places of business or vehicles transporting cigarettes shall always be subject to be inspected and searched without search warrants for the purpose of ascertaining that all provisions of this chapter are complied with by authorized employees of the beverage department and also by sheriffs, deputy sheriffs and police officers during business hours or during any other time such premises are occupied by the permittee or other persons. Retail cigarette dealers and manufacturers' representatives by dealing in cigarettes, agree that their places of business or vehicles transporting cigarettes shall always be subject to inspection and search without search warrant for the purpose of ascertaining that all provisions of this chapter are complied with by authorized employees of the beverage department and also by sheriffs, deputy sheriffs and police officers during business hours or other times when the premises are occupied by the retail dealer or manufacturers' representatives or other persons.

No retail sales of cigarettes may be made at a location for which a wholesale dealer or distributing agent permit has been issued. Retail sales of cigarettes may be made from any location for which a general retailer's license has been issued. The excise tax on sales made to any traveling location, such as an itinerant store or industrial caterer, shall be paid into the general revenue fund unallocated. Cigarettes may be purchased for retail purposes only from a person holding a wholesale dealer permit. The invoices for the purchase of cigarettes must show the place of business for which the purchase is made and, if such place is a traveling location, this fact must be shown on the invoices and the cigarettes cannot be transferred to any other place of business for the purpose of resale.

(2) The director may not sell stamps or approve the use of meter machines to evidence the payment of the taxes on cigarettes except to qualified wholesale dealers.

(3) Upon approval of the application, the director shall grant and issue to each applicant a cigarette permit for each place of business within the state set forth in his application. Cigarette permits shall not be assignable and shall be valid only for the persons in whose names issued, and for the transaction of business at the places designated therein, and shall at all times be conspicuously displayed at the places for which issued.

(4) All permits of distributing agents and wholesale dealers shall remain in force and effect until July 1 following their issuance, or until suspended, surrendered or revoked for cause by the director before July 1 following their issuance.

(5) Whenever any permit issued under the provisions of this chapter is destroyed or lost, the holder thereof shall immediately make application for a duplicate permit on a form prescribed by the director, which application shall be filed with the director or any assistant designated by him. The said application shall be under oath and shall state that the applicant is a holder of a valid permit which has been destroyed or lost as the case may be and that the said permit has not been suspended, surrendered or revoked for cause by the director.

(6) Applicants for a permit hereunder, by the acceptance of such permit, agree that their places of business covered by such permit shall always be subject to be inspected and searched without search warrant by the director or any of his authorized assistants and also by sheriffs, deputy sheriffs or police officers.

(7) The director shall promulgate suitable rules for carrying out the provisions of this section.

History.—§14, ch. 21946, 1943; §15, ch. 22645, 1945; §1, ch. 26320, 1949; (1), (4) §7, (7) n. §8, ch. 29884, 1955; (1), (4), (5) §6, ch. 57-169; (1) and (4) §3, ch. 61-399; (1) §2, ch. 63-486.

210.16 Revocation or suspension of permit.—The director is given full power and authority upon sufficient cause appearing of the violation of any of the provisions of this chapter by any wholesale or retail dealer receiving a permit to engage in business under this chapter to revoke the permit of such wholesale or retail dealer. Before the director shall revoke the permit of such wholesale or retail dealer, he shall give such wholesale or retail dealer a written statement of such cause for revocation of such permit and a fair hearing, if the wholesale or retail dealer shall demand a hearing. Provided, that said wholesale or retail dealer shall in writing demand a hearing within ten days after receipt by him of the statement of the cause for revoking such permit, which said notice shall, within said ten day period, be delivered in person to the director or transmitted to him by due course of mail. If such hearing is not demanded within the time herein fixed the director shall proceed to revoke the permit. At such hearing, the wholesale or retail dealer shall be entitled to produce witnesses and be represented by counsel. In order to permit a wholesale or retail dealer, whose permit shall be revoked, opportunity to apply to the courts for relief, no revocation of a permit by the director shall become effective until the elapse of the period of time allowed for making application for review. If within the time provided by the Florida appellate rules a wholesale or retail dealer whose permit has been revoked shall apply for the issuance of a writ of certiorari to the circuit court or to any judge thereof of the county wherein such wholesale or retail dealer is permitted to do business under this chapter to review the proceedings before the director, such court or the judge thereof shall dispose of the proceeding as expeditiously as possible. The director may suspend for a reasonable period of time, in his discretion, the permits of wholesale or retail dealers issued under the provisions of this chapter for the same causes and under the same limitations as is authorized hereunder to revoke the permits of such wholesale or retail dealers. No wholesale or retail dealer whose permit for any place of business has been revoked shall engage in business under this chapter at such place of business after such revocation until a new permit is issued to him. No wholesale or retail dealer whose permit for any place of business has been revoked shall be permitted to have said permit renewed, or to obtain an additional cigarette permit for any other place of business for a period of six months after the date such revocation becomes final.

210.18 Penalties.—

(1) Any person who possesses or transports any unstamped packages of cigarettes upon the public highways, roads, or streets in the state for the purpose of sale, or, who sells or offers for sale unstamped packages of cigarettes in violation of the provisions of this chapter, or, who wilfully attempts in any manner to evade or defeat any tax imposed by this chapter, or the payment thereof, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or both; provided, that any person, who shall have been convicted of a violation of any provision of the cigarette tax law and shall thereafter be convicted of a further violation of the cigarette tax law, shall, upon conviction of said further offense, be deemed guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment of not more than two years in the state penitentiary or fined not more than two thousand dollars, or both.

(2) Any wholesale or retail dealer who shall fail, neglect or refuse to comply with, or shall violate the provisions of this chapter or the rules and regulations promulgated by the director under this chapter shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and shall upon conviction be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for not more than six months or by fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or both; provided, that any wholesale or retail dealer, who shall have been convicted of a violation of any provision of the cigarette tax law and shall thereafter be convicted of a further violation of the cigarette tax law, shall, upon conviction of said further offense, be deemed guilty of a felony and shall be punished by imprisonment of not more than two years in the state penitentiary or fined not more than two thousand dollars, or both.

(3) Any person who falsely or fraudulently makes, forges, alters, or counterfeits any stamp or impression die used in meter machines prescribed by the director under the provisions of this chapter, or causes or procures to be falsely or fraudulently made, forged, altered or counterfeited any such stamp or die, or knowingly and wilfully utters, purchases, passes or tenders as true any such false, altered, or counterfeited stamp or die impression shall be guilty of a felony and upon conviction thereof shall be sentenced to pay a fine of not less than two thousand dollars nor more than five thousand dollars or to be imprisoned for a term of not more than five years in the state prison, or both, in the discretion of the court.

210.19 Records to be kept by director.—The director shall keep records showing the total amount of taxes collected, which records shall disclose the amount of taxes collected for any municipality levying a tax as herein authorized and which records shall be open to the public during the regular office hours of the director.

History.—§1, ch. 26320, 1949.

210.20 Employees and assistants; distribution of funds.—

(1) The director under the applicable rules of the Florida merit system, shall have the power to employ such employees and assistants and incur such other expenses as may be necessary for the administration of this chapter, within the limits of an appropriation for the operation of said department as may be authorized by the general appropriations act.

(2) As collections are received by the director from such cigarette taxes, he shall pay the same into a trust fund in the state treasury designated "cigarette tax collection trust fund" which shall be paid and distributed as follows:

(a) The director shall from month to month certify to the comptroller the amount derived from each municipal tax authorized in §210.03, and such amount, less the service charge provided for in §215.22, shall be paid to such municipality by warrant drawn by the comptroller upon the state treasury, which amount is hereby appropriated monthly out of such cigarette tax collection trust fund. The director shall from month to month certify to the comptroller the amount derived from the cigarette tax imposed by §210.02 on all cigarettes sold at retail on any property of the Inter-American center authority, created by chapter 554, and such amount, less the service charge provided for in §215.22, shall be paid to said Inter-American center authority by warrant drawn by the comptroller upon the state treasury, which amount is hereby appropriated monthly out of such cigarette tax collection trust fund. In those counties of the state that have no incorporated municipalities, and subject to the foregoing provisions of this section concerning payments to the Inter-American center authority, it shall be the duty of the director to certify to the comptroller the amount derived from this tax in such counties and fifty per cent of such amount, less the service charge provided for in §215.22, shall be paid to the board of county commissioners of such counties by warrant drawn by the comptroller upon the state treasury which amount is hereby appropriated monthly out of the cigarette tax collection trust fund.

(b) After all distributions hereinabove provided for have been made, the balance of the revenue produced from the tax imposed by this chapter, shall be deposited in the general revenue fund.

211.01 Definitions.—Whenever used in this chapter, the following words and terms shall have the definition and the meaning ascribed to them in this section, unless the intention to give a more limited meaning is disclosed by the context:

(1) The word "board" means the state board of conservation of the state.

(2) The word "comptroller" means the comptroller of the state.

(3) The word "annual" means the calendar year, or the taxpayer's fiscal year, when permission is obtained from the comptroller to use a fiscal year as a tax period in lieu of a calendar year.

(4) The word "value" means the sales price, or market value, at the mouth of the well. If the oil or gas is exchanged for something other than cash, or if there is no sale at the time of severance, or if the relation between the buyer and the seller is such that the consideration paid, if any, is not indicative of the true value or market price, then the comptroller shall determine the value of the oil or gas subject to tax, considering the sales price for cash at the place where produced of oil or gas of like quality. Where gas is returned to a horizon or horizons in the field where produced either through wells on the lease from which produced or on other leases, that portion of the gas so returned shall not be considered in arriving at the value of the gas produced.

(5) The word "taxpayer" means any natural person, corporation, association, partnership, receiver, trustee, guardian, executor, administrator, fiduciary, or representative of any kind liable for the tax imposed by this chapter.

(6) The word "oil" means crude petroleum oil and other hydrocarbons, regardless of gravity, which are produced at the well in liquid form by ordinary production methods, and which are not the results of condensation of gas after it leaves the reservoir.

(7) The word "gas" means all natural gas, including casinghead gas, and all other hydrocarbons not defined as oil in subsection (6) above.

(8) The word "severed" means the extraction or withdrawal from below the surface of the soil or water of any oil or gas, whether such extraction or withdrawal shall be by natural flow, mechanically enforced flow, pumping, or any other means employed to get the oil or gas from below the surface of the soil or water, and shall include the withdrawal by any means whatsoever of oil or gas upon which the tax has not been paid, from any surface reservoir, natural or artificial, or from a water surface, and the recovery of escaped oil or gas on which the tax has not been paid.

(9) The word "person" means any natural person, firm, copartnership, joint venture, association, corporation, estate, trust, receiver, or any other group, or combination acting as a unit, and the plural as well as the singular number.

(10) The word "producer" means any person, owning, controlling, managing or leasing any oil or gas property, or oil or gas well, and any person who produces in any manner any oil or gas by taking it from the earth or water in this state, and shall include any person owning any royalty or other interest in any oil or gas or its value, whether produced by him, or by some other person on his behalf, either by lease contract or otherwise.

(11) The word "barrel," for oil measurements, means a barrel of forty-two U. S. gallons of two hundred thirty-one cubic inches per gallon, computed at a temperature of sixty degrees fahrenheit.

(12) The term "cubic feet," for gas measurement, means the volume of gas expressed in cubic feet and computed at a base pressure of four ounces per square inch above the average atmosphere barometric pressure of fourteen and four-tenths pounds per square inch, a standard base and flowing temperature of sixty degrees fahrenheit; correction to be made for pressure according to Boyle's law, and for specific gravity according to test made by the balance method.

(13) The word "production," for oil measurement, means the total gross amount of oil produced and saved, including all royalty or other interest; that is, the amount for the purpose of the tax imposed by this chapter shall be measured or determined by tank tables compiled to show one hundred per centum of the full capacity of tanks without deduction for overage or losses in handling. Allowance for any reasonable and bona fide deduction for basis sediment and water, and for correction of temperature to sixty degrees fahrenheit will be allowed. If the amount of oil produced has been measured or determined by tank tables compiled to show less than one hundred per centum of the full capacity of tanks, then such amount shall be raised to a basis of one hundred per centum for the purpose of the tax imposed by this chapter.

(14) The word "production," for gas measurement, means the total gross amount of gas produced and sold, or used, including all royalty or other interest; that is, the amount for the purpose of the tax imposed by this chapter shall be measured or determined by meter readings showing one hundred per centum of the full volume expressed in cubic feet.

(15) The term "gathering system" means the pipe lines, pumps, compressors, meters, and other property used in gathering or removing oil or gas from the property on which it is produced, the tanks used for storage at a central place, loading racks and equipment for loading oil into tank cars or other transporting media, and all other equipment and appurtenances necessary to a gathering system for transferring oil or gas into trunk pipe lines.

211.02 Levy of oil and gas tax and amount thereof; first and second taxes; basis of tax.—

(1) There is hereby levied, to be collected hereafter, as provided herein, an excise tax upon every person engaging or continuing within this state in the business of producing or severing oil or gas, as defined herein, from the soil or water for sale, transport, storage, profit or for commercial use. The amount of such tax shall be measured by the value of the oil produced and saved, and by the value of the gas produced and sold, or used, is hereby levied and assessed at the following rates; for oil, five per centum of the gross value thereof at the point of production; and for gas, five per centum of the gross value thereof at the point of production; said tax on oil and gas being made up of two separate taxes being.

(a) FIRST OIL AND GAS TAX: eighty per centum of the total tax for the state for the use of the general revenue fund.

(b) SECOND OIL AND GAS TAX: twenty per centum of the total tax for the county in which the oil and gas is produced for the use of the general revenue fund of the board of county commissioners.

(2) It is the intention of the legislature to impose the first oil and gas tax as a state excise tax and to impose the second oil and gas tax as a county excise tax to compensate the county in which oil and gas is produced for the loss of ad valorem taxes by reason of the provision of this chapter, and to make it possible for the board of county commissioners of such county to provide the additional public services that will be required in a county where oil and gas are produced.

(3) The tax is hereby levied upon the basis of the entire production in this state, including what is known as the royalty interest, on which production the amount of such tax shall be a lien, regardless of the place of sale or to whom sold, or by whom used, or the fact that the delivery may be made to points outside the state; and the tax shall accrue at the time such oil is severed from the soil or water, and in its natural, unrefined, or unmanufactured condition, provided, however, oil and gas used for lease operations on the lease where produced shall not be taxed hereunder.

History.—§2, ch. 22784, 1945; §2, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.03 Measure of value.—In computing the tax levied under this chapter, where the gross proceeds of sales of such oil or gas are taken as the measure of the value of such products for the purpose of computing the tax, if such products shall have been sold on a delivered price, the actual freight charge prepaid by the taxpayer or included in the invoice price on such products to the place of delivery shall be deducted from the gross proceeds of sales used in determining the amount of the tax.

History.—§3, ch. 22784, 1945; §3, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.04 Assessment upon escaped oil; claims against same.—

(1) When any regular monthly report required from taxpayers by this chapter does not disclose the actual source of any oil taxable under this chapter, but does show such oil to have escaped from a well or wells and to have been recovered from streams, lakes, ravines, or other natural depression; it shall be the duty of the comptroller to collect, in addition to the excise tax herein imposed, an additional amount equal to twelve and one-half per centum of the gross value of such escaped oil. The comptroller shall hold such additional collection in a special escrow account for a period of twelve months from the date of the collections, during which time any person or persons, who claim to be the rightful owner or owners of any royalty interest in the escaped oil, may present proper and satisfactory proof of such ownership to the comptroller. If the comptroller shall be satisfied as to the ownership of such escaped oil, then he shall pay to such claimant or claimants a proportionate part of such additional collection held in escrow, according to their proper interest or interests. No payment to any claimant shall be made, however, before it is approved by the attorney general or before it is ordered by any court having proper jurisdiction.

(2) After the lapse of twelve months from the date of any additional collection, if no claim or claims have been made to it, or to the balance remaining of it after the payment by the comptroller of any claim or claims, the comptroller shall distribute the additional collection or any balance of it in the same manner as is herein provided for the distribution of the tax imposed by this chapter.

History.—§4, ch. 22784, 1945; §4, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.05 Penalty for failure to pay tax.—Should the taxpayer fail to pay when due the tax levied hereunder and same becomes delinquent, such tax as a penalty for such delinquencies shall bear interest at the rate of eighteen per centum per annum from the date such tax is due and payable and shall be collected in the manner hereinafter provided. If any taxpayer shall fail to make the report or return herein required as to the production of oil or gas from any well in this state it shall be the duty of the comptroller to examine the books, records and files of such taxpayer to ascertain the amount and value of such production, to compute the tax thereon as herein provided, and he shall add thereto the cost of such examination, together with any penalties accrued thereon.

History.—§5, ch. 22784, 1945; §5, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.06 Oil and gas tax trust fund; distribution.—

(1) All taxes herein levied and collected shall be placed in a special fund known as the oil and gas tax trust fund and shall be monthly distributed by the comptroller as follows:

(a) After the cost of collection of the taxes herein levied is deducted, the proceeds from the first oil and gas tax shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit of the general revenue fund of the state.

(b) The proceeds from the second oil and gas tax shall be paid into the general revenue fund of the board of county commissioners of the county in which the tax is imposed.

(2) There is hereby annually appropriated out of the proceeds of the first oil and gas tax coming into the hands of the comptroller under the provisions of this chapter the amount necessary for the effective and efficient enforcement of the provisions of this chapter, and for that purpose the comptroller is authorized to employ such additional employees as he may from time to time deem necessary to carry out the terms and provisions of this chapter. The comptroller is authorized and empowered to adjust and make proper settlements and refunds in cases of overpayment of the tax or where payment is made when no tax is due or when payment is made through error, under regulations prescribed by him, and there is hereby appropriated a sufficient amount for the comptroller to refund said taxes, when and if on proper application and proof filed with him within one year from the date of the payment of such taxes, he deems it necessary to make such refunds, and this provision shall in no way prejudice any right of action that may accrue to any person liable for the payment of the tax to contest in any court of competent jurisdiction the payment of any or all of the taxes imposed herein.

History.—§6, ch. 22784, 1945; §6, ch. 23883, 1947; (1) §2, ch. 61-119.

211.07 When taxes due; statements; information; penalties; powers of comptroller.—

(1) The taxes levied hereunder shall be due and payable on or before the 25th day of the calendar month next succeeding the calendar month in which the tax accrued.

(2) Every producer of oil or gas, as defined in this chapter, shall on or before the 25th day of each calendar month file with the comptroller a statement on forms prescribed by the comptroller, showing the location of each oil or gas well operated or controlled by such producer during the last preceding calendar month, the kind of oil or gas produced; the gross quantity thereof produced, and the actual cash value thereof at the time and place of production, including any and all premiums received from the sale thereof; the amount of royalty payable thereof; and, where such royalty is claimed to be exempt from taxation by law, the facts on which such claim of exemption is based; and such other information as the comptroller may require. Such statement shall be accompanied by a return showing the amount of tax payable on the oil or gas covered by such report, together with a remittance for the amount of the tax due. Such statement and report shall be mailed or sent to the office of the comptroller and shall be signed by the taxpayer or duly authorized agent of the taxpayer and shall be verified by oath.

(3) The comptroller shall have the power to require any person engaged in the production of oil or gas, and the purchaser thereof, or the owner of any royalty interest therein to furnish any information by him deemed necessary for the purpose of computing correctly the amount of tax to be levied and collected under the provisions of this chapter; and to examine the books, records and files of such persons, and shall have power to conduct hearings and compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, records and papers of any person.

(4) Any person or any member of any firm, association or corporation, or any officer, official, agent or employee of any corporation who shall fail or refuse to testify; or who shall fail or refuse to produce any books, records or papers which the comptroller shall require; or who shall fail or refuse to furnish any other evidence which the comptroller may require; or who shall fail or refuse to answer any competent questions which may be put to him by the comptroller, touching the business, property, assets or effects of any such person, firm, association or corporation, or relating to the gross production tax imposed by this chapter, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and, upon conviction thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or imprisonment in the jail of the county where such offense shall have been committed, for not more than one year, or by both such fine and imprisonment; and each day such refusal on the part of such person shall constitute a separate and distinct offense.

(5) The comptroller shall have the power and authority to ascertain and determine whether or not any return herein required to be filed with him is a true and correct return of the gross products and of the value, quantity or volume thereof of such person engaged in the production of oil or gas; and, if any person has made an untrue or incorrect return of the gross production or value, or quantity, or volume thereof, as hereinbefore required, or shall have failed or refused to make such return, the comptroller shall, under rules and regulations prescribed by him ascertain the correct amount of either, and compute said tax.

History.—§7, ch. 22784, 1945; §7, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.08 Common carriers to furnish information; inspection of bills of lading.—

(1) When requested by the comptroller, all transporters, railroads, motor vehicles, pipe lines, or other carriers, of oil or gas out of, within, or across the state shall be required to furnish the board such information relative to the transportation of such oil or gas as may be required.

(2) The comptroller shall have authority to inspect bills of lading, waybills, or other similar documents, and such books and records as may relate to the transportation of oil or gas in the facilities of each transporter herein referred to; and the comptroller shall further be empowered to demand the production of such bills of lading, waybills or other similar documents and books and records relating to the transportation of oil or gas at any point in the state which he may designate.

(3) Provided, however, that in case of common carriers using bills of lading or waybills prescribed or approved by the interstate commerce commission, such common carriers shall only be required to keep the usual records at office or offices in this state where such records usually are kept.

History.—§8, ch. 22784, 1945; §8, ch. 23883, 1947; §11, ch. 25035, 1949.

211.09 Collection of tax.—

(1) The tax hereby imposed is levied upon the producers of such oil or gas in the proportion of their ownership at the time of severance, but, except as otherwise herein provided, shall be paid by the person in charge of the production operations, who is hereby authorized, empowered and required to deduct from any amount due to producers of such production at the time of severance, the proportionate amount of the tax herein levied before making payments to such producers; said tax shall become due and payable as provided by this chapter, and such tax shall constitute a first lien upon any of the oil or gas so produced, when in the possession of the original producer, or any purchaser of such oil or gas in its unmanufactured state or condition.

(2) When any person in charge of production operations shall sell the oil or gas produced by him to any person under contracts requiring such purchaser to pay all owners of such oil or gas direct, then the person in charge of the production operations may not be required to deduct the tax herein levied, but, in which event, such deduction shall be made by the purchaser before making payments to each owner of such oil or gas, and the purchaser in that case shall account for the tax; provided that nothing herein shall be construed as releasing the person in charge of production operations from liability for the payment of said tax.

(3) When any person in charge of production operations shall sell oil or gas produced by him on the open market, or shall use or dispose of the oil or gas for fuel or any purpose other than for lease operations on the lease where produced, he shall withhold the tax imposed by this chapter, and, if he is required to pay other interest holders, is hereby authorized, empowered and required to deduct from any amounts due them the amount of the tax levied and due under the provisions of this chapter before making payment to them.

(4) Every person in charge of production operations by which oil or gas is severed from the soil or water in this state, who fails to deduct and withhold, as required herein, the amount of tax from sale or purchase price, when such oil or gas is sold or purchased under contract or agreement, or on the open market, or otherwise, shall be liable to the state for the full amount of taxes, interest, and penalties due which should have been deducted, withheld and remitted to the state; and the comptroller shall proceed to collect the tax from the person in charge of production operations, under the provisions of this chapter, as if he were the producer of the oil and gas.

211.10 Procedure where tax in dispute.—

When the title to any oil or gas that has been severed or is being severed from the soil or water, is in dispute, or whenever the producer of such oil or gas, or the purchaser thereof, shall be withholding payments on account of litigation, or for any other reason, such producer or purchaser is hereby authorized, empowered and required to deduct from the gross amount thus held, the amount of the tax herein levied and imposed, and to make remittance thereof to the comptroller as provided by this chapter.

History.—§10, ch. 22784, 1945; §10, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.11 Lien of tax.—Such tax, interest and penalty shall constitute and remain a lien upon the property, assets and effects of the taxpayer until paid and may be recovered at the suit of the comptroller on behalf of the state in any court of competent jurisdiction of the county where any such property, assets and effects are located. All penalties and other revenue derived hereunder in addition to any delinquent tax shall be apportioned in the same manner as the taxes are apportioned.

History.—§11, ch. 22784, 1945; §11, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.12 Delinquent taxes.—When any tax provided for in this chapter shall become delinquent the comptroller shall issue his warrant directed to the sheriff of any county wherein the same or any part thereof accrued for the collection of said tax, interest and penalty; and the sheriff to whom the said warrant shall be directed shall proceed to levy upon the property, assets and effects of the person, firm, association or corporation against whom said tax is assessed and shall sell the same and make return thereof as upon execution and such sheriff shall execute and deliver to the purchaser a bill of sale or deed as the case may be. The state, through its comptroller, shall be authorized to make bids at any such sale to the amount of the tax, penalty and costs accrued. In the event such bid is successful, the sheriff shall issue proper muniment of title to the comptroller who shall hold such title for the use and benefit of the state; and any taxpayer or transferee of such taxpayer shall have the right at any time within thirty days from the date of such sale to redeem such property upon the payment of all taxes, penalties and costs accrued to the date of redemption. Such applicants shall not be entitled to a credit upon such taxes, penalties and costs by reason of any revenue that might have accrued to the state or other purchaser under sale prior to such redemption. After the expiration of the period of redemption herein provided for, the comptroller may sell such property at public auction upon giving a seven day's notice in writing, said notice to be published in one issue in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county in which such property is located, to the highest and best bidder for cash, or, if such newspaper is not published in said county, then such notice shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation published in Leon county. Upon a sale had thereof or when a redemption is made the comptroller, for and on behalf of the state, shall issue bill of sale or quit claim deed as the case may be, to the successful bidder or other redemptioner. Such muniment of title shall be executed by the comptroller of the state.

History.—§12, ch. 22784, 1945; §12, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.13 Tax exclusive.—No other excise or license tax in addition to the tax provided herein shall be imposed by the state, counties, municipalities, drainage districts, road, school and other taxing districts within this state upon any person who produces in any manner any oil or gas by taking it from the earth or water of this state. The several tax assessors of this state and of the cities therein, when assessing the value of any land for ad valorem taxes, shall not increase the value thereof by reason of the fact that there may be oil or gas under the surface of such land, in as much as it is impossible under known valuation methods to accurately ascertain the true value of oil and gas in place and taxation thereof is more certainly accomplished after its capture or severance from the earth or water. The value of land for ad valorem tax purposes shall not be increased by reason of the location thereon of any producing oil or gas equipment or machinery used in and around any oil or gas well and actually used in the operation thereof and no ad valorem tax shall be imposed upon such producing equipment and machinery.

History.—§13, ch. 22784, 1945; §13, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.14 Severance of oil rights; tax certificates; rights of holder; tax deeds, etc.—

(1) Whenever any severance of title between the surface ownership of land and the subsurface ownership of any right, title or interest in gas or oil, or both, thereunder, takes place with respect to land in this state, by any type of severing conveyance or reservation, the interests so severed or reserved shall, notwithstanding such severance or reservation, continue to be a part of the surface ownership for the purpose of all ad valorem taxation imposed by any taxing authority in this state. All title forfeitures, foreclosures, reverters, and sales of lands for nonpayment of ad valorem taxes shall include the subsurface oil and gas and mineral interests.

(2) Unless provided by contract, the owner of any subsurface interest is under no obligation to pay taxes levied and assessed against the surface interest of such land and shall have all of the rights of a stranger to purchase tax sales certificates against the surface interest, and in addition to such right of purchase shall be depositing with the proper tax collecting official of the state or any political subdivision thereof the amount due on any tax sales certificate held by any person (other than an owner of a part of the subsurface interest) be issued a duplicate tax sales certificate, which duplicate tax sales certificate shall have all the force and effect as if the original certificate had been purchased by such subsurface owner, and the tax official shall cancel the original certificate and pay to the holder thereof the money so deposited for its purchase.

History.—§14, ch. 22784, 1945; §14, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.15 Holder of tax certificates; rights.—The holder of any tax sales certificate covering land in which he holds any subsurface interest may, at any time after two years from the date of its issuance, obtain a tax deed by application to the clerk of the circuit court or to the proper official of any other political subdivision of the state (which shall include any municipality) wherein such land is located, and the surrender of such certificate and the payment to such official of the proper amount for the purchase and surrender of all other outstanding certificates covering said land and payment of all subsequent and omitted taxes and all fees and costs incident to such application, including fees and costs for sending notices provided for herein, such deed shall be substantially in the form provided by law for tax deeds except such tax deed shall show on its face that it was issued under authority of this chapter provided, however, that in the event such holder of a tax sales certificate shall be the owner of only a part of the subsurface oil and gas interest, then and in such event any other person owning a part of the subsurface interest shall have the right at any time during thirty days following the publication or posting of the notice hereinafter provided to pay such part of the amount due in delinquent taxes as evidenced by the tax sales certificates and the cost of obtaining such tax deed as his part of the subsurface interest bears to the total of such subsurface interest, and, upon such payment shall be entitled to be a joint grantee of the tax deed to the surface interests in the same proportion that his part of the subsurface interest bears to the total of the subsurface interest.

History.—§14, ch. 22784, 1945; §14, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.16 Issuance of tax deed.—

known, or can be ascertained from the records hereinafter prescribed to be examined by the clerk, and a description of the land, such notice also to state that a tax deed will issue after the expiration of thirty days. The clerk of the circuit court or the tax official of any other political subdivision to whom application shall be made for such tax deed shall advertise notice of such application by publishing the same once each week for two successive weeks in some newspaper of general circulation wherein the land lies, or if no newspaper be published in such county, then by posting such notice at the court house door or city hall door.

(2) In addition to the publication or posting of such notice, such tax official to whom application is made shall mail a copy of such notice to the owner of the property for which a tax deed is applied, if the name and address of such owner appears on the tax rolls for the year in which taxes were last extended on said property and if the name and address of such owner does not appear on said tax roll, then notice shall be mailed to the person last paying taxes upon such land as shown by the tax collector's receipt book and in the event no address is shown thereon, no notice shall be required, which notice shall be mailed not more than fifteen days after the first publication or posting of the notice aforesaid. In addition to notice to the owner as prescribed above, the clerk shall send a copy of such notice at the same time that notice to the owner is sent, to any mortgagee or lienor of record, if any.

(3) At any time within thirty days after the first publication or posting of the notice aforesaid, any person owning the land or any part or parcel thereof or any interest therein or any mortgagee or lienor of such owner may redeem the same by paying to the clerk or other tax official of any other political subdivision of the state the full amount that may then be due the applicant for all certificates, fees and costs of the publication or posting or such portion thereof as the part or interest therein redeemed shall bear to the whole together with eight per cent interest per annum thereon, and if there be no such redemption at the expiration of thirty days the clerk or other proper taxing official to whom application is made shall immediately issue the tax deed herein provided for.

(4) For his services in receiving such application, calculating all taxes due, and issuance of such tax deed, and all other services in connection therewith, the tax official shall receive the fees provided by law for issuance of tax deeds. Proof of publication or posting of the notice and all other records of application for an issuance of such deed shall be filed in the records of the office issuing such deed.

History.—§14, ch. 22784, 1945; §14, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.17 Rules and regulations.—The comptroller shall prescribe rules and regulations and appropriate forms for effectuating the purposes of §§211.14-211.18.

History.—§14, ch. 22784, 1945; §14, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.18 Records.—It shall be the duty of the clerk of the circuit court to keep a record book to be provided by the board of county commissioners of the county for the purpose of accepting for record any subsurface owner's interest in real estate of said county and any owner of subsurface interest in the lands of said county may register with the clerk the name of such owner, his address, the description of the land in which he has subsurface interest and such recording shall entitle such subsurface owner to notice by registered mail with return receipt requested of nonpayment of taxes by the surface owner, sale of tax certificates affecting the surface of said lands, application for tax deed of the surface interest and any foreclosure proceedings against said lands for unpaid taxes thereon, and no tax deed nor foreclosure proceedings shall affect such subsurface owner's interest if the notice hereby provided for is not given. For his services in registering such subsurface owner's interest as herein provided, the clerk shall receive a fee of one dollar, plus the fee per page for recording now provided by law. Where an owner of a subsurface interest or interests has registered with the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which said subsurface interest is located, the name of such owner, his address, and the description of the land in which he has subsurface interests pursuant to the provisions of chapter 22784, acts of 1945, such registration shall be and operate as a registration of his subsurface interests and shall entitle the owner thereof to the notices and immunities hereinabove provided the same as if such owner had registered with said clerk his subsurface interests under and pursuant to this chapter.

History.—§14, ch. 22784, 1945; §14, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.19 Appeal to courts.—Any person aggrieved by any findings or order of the comptroller shall have the right of redress in accordance with the provisions of §§196.01, 196.02 and 196.03.

History.—§15, ch. 22784, 1945; §15, ch. 23883, 1947.

211.20 Construction of chapter.—Nothing in this chapter shall affect or defeat any claim, assessment, appeal, suit, right or cause of action for taxes due under existing laws, prior to July 1, 1947, whether such assessment, appeal, suit, claim or action shall have been begun before the said date, or shall thereafter be begun; and any existing law amended or repealed by this chapter is expressly continued in full force, effect and operation for the purpose of the assessment and collection of any taxes due under it prior to July 1, 1947, and for the imposition of any penalties, forfeitures or claims for a failure to comply therewith.

History.—§16, ch. 22784, 1945; §16, ch. 23883, 1947.

212.01 Short title.—Part I of this chapter shall be known as the "Florida revenue act of 1949" and the taxes imposed herein shall be in addition to all other taxes imposed by law.

History.—§1, ch. 26319, 1949.

212.02 Definitions.—The following terms and phrases when used in part I of this chapter, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning:

(1) Person includes any individual, firm, copartnership, joint adventure, association, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, syndicate, or other group or combination acting as a unit, and shall include any political subdivision, municipality, state agency, bureau or department, and the plural as well as the singular number.

(2) Sale means (a) any transfer of title or possession, or both, exchange, barter, lease or rental, conditional or otherwise, in any manner or by any means whatsoever of tangible personal property for a consideration, and (b) shall include the rental of living quarters, sleeping or housekeeping accommodations in hotels, apartment houses or rooming houses, tourist or trailer camps, as hereinafter defined in part I of this chapter, and (c) includes the producing, fabricating, processing, printing or imprinting of tangible personal property for a consideration for consumers who furnish either directly or indirectly the materials used in the producing, fabricating, processing, printing or imprinting, and (d) the furnishing, preparing, or serving for a consideration of any tangible personal property consumed on the premises of the person furnishing, preparing, or serving such tangible personal property.

A transaction whereby the possession of property is transferred but the seller retains title as security for the payment of the price, shall be deemed a sale.

(3) (a) Retail sale or a sale at retail means a sale to a consumer or to any person for any purpose other than for resale in the form of tangible personal property, and shall mean and include all such transactions that may be made in lieu of retail sales or sales at retail. A resale must be in strict compliance with rules and regulations and any dealer making a sale for resale which is not in strict compliance with rules and regulations shall himself be liable for and pay the tax.

(b) The terms retail sales, sales at retail, use, storage, and consumption shall include the sale, use, storage or consumption of all tangible advertising materials imported or caused to be imported into this state. Tangible advertising material shall include displays, display containers, brochures, catalogs, price lists, point of sale advertising and technical manuals or any tangible personal property which does not accompany the product to the ultimate consumer.

(c) The terms retail sales, sale at retail, use, storage, and consumption shall not include the sale, use, storage or consumption of industrial materials for future processing, manufacture or conversion into articles of tangible personal property for resale where such industrial materials become a component part of the finished product or are used directly and immediately dissipated in fabricating, converting or processing such materials or parts thereof, nor shall such term include materials, containers, labels, sacks or bags intended to be used one time only for packaging tangible personal property for shipment or sale. Immediately dissipated as used herein shall mean one-time use.

(d) The term gross sales means the sum total of all retail sales of tangible personal property as defined herein, without any deduction whatsoever of any kind or character, except as provided in part I of this chapter.

(4) Sales price means the total amount for which tangible personal property, including any services that are a part of the sale, valued in money, whether paid in money or otherwise, and includes any amount for which credit is given to the purchaser by the seller, without any deduction therefrom on account of the cost of the property sold, the cost of materials used, labor or service cost, interest charged, losses, or any other expense whatsoever; provided that cash discounts allowed and taken on sales shall not be included.

(5) Cost price means the actual cost of articles of tangible personal property without any deductions therefrom on account of the cost of materials used, labor or service costs, transportation charges, or any expenses whatsoever.

(6) Lease, let, or rental means leasing or renting of living quarters, sleeping or housekeeping accommodations in hotels, apartment houses, rooming houses, tourist or trailer camps, the same being defined as follows:

(a) Every building or other structure kept, used, maintained, advertised as or held out to the public to be a place where sleeping accommodations are supplied for pay to transient or permanent guests or tenants, in which ten or more rooms are furnished for the accommodation of such guests, and having one or more dining rooms or cafes where meals or lunches are served to such transient or permanent guests, such sleeping accommodations and dining rooms or cafes being conducted in the same building or buildings in connection therewith, shall, for the purpose of part I of this chapter, be deemed a hotel.

(b) Any building or part thereof, where separate accommodations for two or more families living independently of each other are supplied to transient or permanent guests or tenants, shall for the purpose of part I of this chapter be deemed an apartment house.

(c) Every house, boat, vehicle, motor court, trailer court or other structure or any place or location kept, used, maintained, advertised or held out to the public to be a place where living quarters, sleeping or housekeeping, accommodations are supplied for pay to transient or permanent guests or tenants, whether in one or adjoining buildings, shall for the purpose of part I of this chapter be deemed a rooming house.

(d) In all hotels, apartment houses and rooming houses within the meaning of part I of this chapter, the parlor, dining room, sleeping porches, kitchen, office and sample rooms shall be construed to mean rooms.

(e) A tourist camp is a place where two or more tents, tent houses, or camp cottages are located and offered by a person or municipality for sleeping or eating accommodations, most generally to the transient public for either a direct money consideration or an indirect benefit to the lessor or owner in connection with a related business. A trailer camp is a place where space is offered, with or without service facilities, by any persons or municipality to the public for the parking and accommodation of two or more automobile trailers which are used for lodging, for either a direct money consideration or an indirect benefit to the lessor or owner in connection with a related business, such space being hereby defined as living quarters, and the rental price thereof shall include all service charges paid to the lessor.

(f) Lease, let or rental also means the leasing or rental of tangible personal property and the possession or use thereof by the lessee or rentee for a consideration, without transfer of the title of such property, except as expressly provided to the contrary herein. Provided that, where two taxpayers, in connection with the interchange of facilities, rent or lease property, each to the other, for use in providing or furnishing any of the services mentioned in §167.431, the term lease or rental shall mean only the net amount of rental involved.

(7) Storage means and includes any keeping or retention in this state of tangible personal property for use or consumption in this state, or for any purpose other than sale at retail in the regular course of business.

(8) Use means and includes the exercise of any right or power over tangible personal property incident to the ownership thereof, or interest therein, except that it shall not include the sale at retail of that property in the regular course of business.

(9) Business includes any activity engaged in by any person, or caused to be engaged in by him with the object of gain, benefit, or advantage, either direct or indirect. The term business shall not be construed in part I of this chapter to include occasional and isolated sales or transactions involving tangible personal property by a person who does not hold himself out as engaged in business, but shall include all charges of admission and all rentals and leases of living quarters, sleeping or housekeeping accommodations in hotels, apartment houses, rooming houses, tourist or trailer camps, as hereinbefore defined in this chapter, made subject to a tax imposed by part I of this chapter.

(10) Retailer means and includes every person engaged in the business of making sales at retail, or for distribution, or use, or consumption, or storage to be used or consumed in this state.

(11) The term comptroller means and includes the comptroller of the state or his duly authorized assistants.

(12) Tangible personal property means and includes personal property, which may be seen, weighed, measured, felt or touched, or is in any other manner perceptible to the senses. The term tangible personal property shall not include stocks, bonds, notes, insurance, or other obligations or securities, or intangibles as defined by the intangible tax law of the state nor pari-mutuel tickets sold or issued under the racing laws of the state.

(13) The term use tax referred to in this chapter includes the use, the consumption, the distribution, and the storage as herein defined.

(14) The term intoxicating or alcoholic beverages referred to in part I of this chapter includes all such beverages as are so defined or may be hereafter defined by the laws of the state.

(15) The terms cigarettes or tobacco or tobacco products referred to in part I of this chapter includes all such products as are defined or may be hereafter defined by the laws of the state.

(16) The term admissions shall mean and include the net sum of money after deduction of any federal taxes for admitting a person or vehicle, or persons, to any place of amusement, sport or recreation, or where there is any show, game or exhibition and where any charge is made by way of sale of tickets, gate charges, seat charges, box charges, season pass charges, cover charges, greens fees, all dues paid to private clubs providing recreational facilities, including but not limited to golf, tennis, swimming, yachting and boating facilities; but specifically excluding civic, fraternal and religious clubs and organizations, participation fees, entrance fees, or other fees.

(17) In this state or in the state means within the exterior limits of Florida and includes all territory within these limits owned by or ceded to the United States.

212.03 Transient rentals tax; rate, procedure, enforcement, etc.—

or trailer camp, as hereinbefore defined in part I of this chapter. For the exercise of said privilege a tax is hereby levied as follows: in the amount equal to three per cent of and on the total rental charged for such living quarters, sleeping or housekeeping accommodations by the person charging or collecting the rental; provided that such tax shall apply to hotels, apartment houses, rooming houses, tourist or trailer camps, as hereinbefore defined in part I of this chapter, whether or not there be in connection with any of the same, any dining rooms, cafes or other places where meals or lunches are sold or served to guests.

(2) The tax provided for herein shall be in addition to the total amount of the rental and shall be charged by the lessor or person receiving the rent in and by said rental arrangement to the lessee or person paying the rental, and shall be due and payable at the time of the receipt of such rental payment by the lessor or person, as defined in part I of this chapter, who receives said rental or payment. The owner, lessor or person receiving the rent shall remit the tax to the comptroller at the times and in the manner hereinafter provided for dealers to remit taxes under part I of this chapter. The same duties imposed by part I of this chapter upon dealers in tangible personal property respecting the collection and remission of the tax, the making of returns, the keeping of books, records and accounts and the compliance with the rules and regulations of the comptroller in the administration of part I of this chapter shall apply to and be binding upon all persons who manage or operate hotels, apartment houses, rooming houses, tourist and trailer camps, and to all persons who collect or receive such rents on behalf of such owner or lessor taxable under part I of this chapter.

(3) Where rentals are received by way of property, goods, wares, merchandise, services or other things of value, the tax shall be at the rate of three per cent of the value of said property, services or other things of value.

(4) The tax levied by this section shall not apply to, be imposed upon, or collected from any person who shall reside continuously longer than twelve months at any one hotel, apartment house, rooming house, tourist or trailer camp, and shall have paid the tax levied by this section for twelve months of residence in any one hotel, rooming house, apartment house, tourist or trailer camp; provided, however, that any person who, upon July 1, 1963, shall have resided continuously for six months at any one place enumerated above shall be deemed to qualify fully for the exemption set forth herein so long as such person shall remain at said place. Notwithstanding other provisions of part I of this chapter, no tax shall be imposed upon rooms provided guests where there is no consideration involved between guest and the public lodging establishment.

(5) The tax imposed by this section shall constitute a lien on the property of the lessee or rentee of any sleeping accommodations in the same manner as and shall be collectible as are liens authorized and imposed by §§85.19 and 85.20.

History.—§3, ch. 26319, 1949; (4), (5) §4, ch. 26871, 1951; §2, ch. 29883, (5) and (6) r. §3, ch. 29883, 1955; (4) §2, (6) r. §7, ch. 63-526.

cf.—Ch. 86 Enforcement of statutory liens.

212.04 Admissions tax; rate, procedure, enforcement, etc.—It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that every person is exercising a taxable privilege who sells or receives anything of value, by way of admissions and that every person who sells admissions to any place of amusement, sport or recreation, or for the privilege of entering or staying in any place of amusement, sport or recreation, including but not limited to theatres, outdoor theatres, shows, exhibitions, games, races, or any place where charge is made by way of sale of tickets, gate charges, seat charges, box charges, season pass charges, cover charges, greens fees, participation fees, entrance fees or other fees, or receipts of anything of value measured on an admission or entrance or length of stay, or seat box accommodations, in any place of business or where there is any exhibition, entertainment, amusement, sport or recreation. There shall be exempt all admissions to athletic events held by elementary, junior high schools, deaf and blind school and state correctional institutions. Provided, however, that no municipality of the state shall hereafter levy an excise tax on admissions. The taxes imposed by this section shall be collected in addition to the admission tax collected pursuant to §550.09, but the amount collected under §550.09 shall not be subject to taxation under part I of this chapter. For the exercise of said privilege a tax is levied as follows:

(1) At the rate of three per cent of sales price, or the actual value received for such admissions said three per cent to be added and collected with all such admissions from the purchaser thereof and such tax shall be paid for the exercise of the privilege as defined in the preceding paragraph. Each ticket shall reflect on its face the actual sales price of admission and the tax shall be computed and collected on the basis of each such admission price.

(2) The sale price or actual value of admission shall for the purpose of part I of this chapter, be that price remaining after deduction of federal taxes, if any, imposed upon said admission and the rate of tax on each admission shall be according to the brackets established by §212.12(10).

Provided that no tax shall be levied as to admissions to athletic events engaged in by high schools, junior colleges and institutions of higher education in the state until December 26, 1963.

(3) Such taxes shall be paid and remitted at the same time and in the same manner as provided for remitting taxes on sales of tangible personal property, as hereinafter provided.

(4) Each person who, after November 1, 1949, exercises the privilege of charging admission taxes, as herein defined, shall apply for and at that time shall furnish the information and comply with the provisions of §212.18, not inconsistent herewith, and receive from the comptroller a certificate of right to exercise such privilege, which certificate shall apply to each place of business where such privilege is exercised, and shall be in the manner and form prescribed by the comptroller. Such certificate shall be issued upon payment to the comptroller of a registration fee of one dollar by the applicant. The county tax collectors are hereby made the agents of the comptroller for the purpose of issuing such certificates within the respective counties and upon application they shall issue such certificate, the county tax collector shall forward a copy of each of the same to the comptroller. Each person exercising the privilege of charging such admission taxes as herein defined shall cause such records and accounts showing the admission which shall be in the form as the comptroller may from time to time prescribe, inclusive of records of all tickets numbered and issued for a period of not less than three years, and inclusive of all bills or checks of customers who are charged any of the taxes defined herein, showing the charge made to each for a period of not less than three years. The comptroller shall be empowered to use each and every one of the powers granted herein to the comptroller to discover the amount of tax to be paid by each such person, and to enforce the payment thereof as are hereby granted the comptroller for the discovery and enforcement of the payment of taxes hereinafter levied on the sales of tangible personal property. The failure of any person to pay such taxes before the twenty-first day of the succeeding month after the same are collected shall render such person liable to the same penalties that are hereafter imposed upon such person for being delinquent in the payment of taxes imposed upon the sales of tangible personal property and the failure of any person to render returns and to pay taxes as prescribed herein shall render such person subject to the same penalties, by way of charges for delinquencies, at the rate of five per cent per month for the total amount of tax delinquent up to a total of twenty-five per cent of such tax, and at the rate of fifty per cent penalty for attempted evasion of payment of any such tax, or for any attempt to file false or misleading returns that are required to be filed by the comptroller.

(5) All of the provisions of part I of this chapter relating to collection, investigation, discovery and aids to collection of taxes upon sales of tangible personal property shall likewise apply to all privileges described or referred to in this section, and the obligations imposed in part I of this chapter upon "retailers" are hereby imposed upon the seller of such admissions. Where tickets or admissions are sold and not used but returned and credited by the seller, the seller may apply to the comptroller for a credit allowance for such returned tickets or admissions where advance payments have been made by the buyer and have been returned by the seller upon such form and in such manner as the comptroller may from time to time prescribe, and the comptroller may upon obtaining satisfactory proof of the refunds on the part of seller credit the seller for taxes paid upon admissions that have been returned unused to the purchaser of those admissions. The seller of admissions upon the payment of the taxes before they become delinquent and the rendering of the returns in accordance with the requirement of the comptroller, and as provided in this law, shall be entitled to a discount of three per cent of the amount of taxes upon the payment of the same before the same become delinquent, in the same manner as permitted the sellers of tangible personal property in part I of this chapter.

(6) Admission taxes required to be paid by part I of of this chapter shall be paid to the comptroller by the owner or the collector of such admission, and where any place of business is sold or transferred by any owner, or owners, thereof, wherein such admission taxes have or are accruing shall be obligated before such sale becomes effective to notify the comptroller of such pending sale and secure from the comptroller a permit as prescribed in this section, and the purchaser shall become obligated to withhold from the sales price such sum of money as will safely be required to discharge all accrued admission taxes upon such places of business, and that upon the failure of any such purchaser or purchasers shall become obligated to pay all accrued admission taxes, and the same shall become a lien upon all of the purchaser's assets until the same have been paid and fully discharged.

(7) That the taxes under this section shall become a lien upon the assets of the owner of any business exercising the privilege of selling admissions, and the collection of such admissions, as defined hereunder, and shall remain a lien until fully paid and discharged, and such lien may be enforced in the manner provided hereinafter for the enforcement of the collection of taxes imposed upon the sales of tangible personal property.

(8) The word owners as used in this law shall be taken to include and mean all persons obligated to collect and pay over to the state the tax imposed under this section, inclusive of all holders of permits issued as herein provided, and wherever the words "owner" or "owners" are used herein it shall be taken to mean and include all persons liable for such admission taxes unless and except it appear from the context that the words are descriptive of property owners.

History.—§4, ch. 26319, 1949; (2), (3) §§5, 6, ch. 26871, 1951; (5) §4, ch. 29883, 1955; (4) §2, ch. 57-109; (1), (2) §2, ch. 61-274; (2) §3, ch. 63-526.

212.05 Sales, storage, use tax.—It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that every person is exercising a taxable privilege who engages in the business of selling tangible personal property at retail in this state, or who rents or furnishes any of the things or services taxable under part I of this chapter, or who stores for use or consumption in this state any item or article of tangible personal property as defined herein and who leases or rents such property within the state. For the exercise of said privilege a tax is levied as follows:

(1) At the rate of three per cent of the sales price of each item or article of tangible personal property when sold at retail in this state; the tax to be computed on gross sales for the purpose of remitting the amount of tax due the state, and to include each and every retail sale.

(2) At the rate of three per cent of the cost price of each item or article of tangible personal property when the same is not sold but is used, consumed, distributed or stored for use or consumption in this state.

(3) At the rate of three per cent of the gross proceeds derived from the lease or rental of tangible personal property, as defined herein, except the rental of motion picture film where an admission is charged for viewing such film, where the lease or rental of such property is an established business or part of an established business, or the same is incidental or germane to said business.

(4) At the rate of three per cent of the lease or rental price paid by lessee or rentee, or contracted or agreed to be paid by lessee or rentee, to the owner of the tangible personal property.

(5) The said tax shall be collected from the dealer as defined herein and paid at the time and in the manner as hereinafter provided.

(6) The tax so levied is and shall be in addition to all other taxes, whether levied in the form of excise, license or privilege taxes, and shall be in addition to all other fees and taxes levied.

History.—§5, ch. 26319, 1949; (2) §3, ch. 59-289; (3) §4, ch. 63-526.

212.06 Sales, storage, use tax; collectible from dealers; dealers defined; dealers to collect from purchasers; legislative intent as to scope of tax.—

(1) The aforesaid tax at the rate of three per cent of the retail sales price, as of the moment of sale, or three per cent of the cost price, as of the moment of purchase, or three per cent of the cost price, as of the moment of commingling with the general mass of property in this state, as the case may be, shall be collectible from all dealers as herein defined on the sale at retail, the use, the consumption, the distribution and the storage for use or consumption in this state, of tangible personal property. The full amount of the tax on credit sales, installment sales and sales made on any kind of deferred payment plan shall be due at the moment of the transaction in the same manner as a cash sale.

(2) (a) The term dealer as used in part I of this chapter shall include every person, who manufactures or produces tangible personal property for sale at retail, for use, consumption or distribution, or for storage to be used or consumed in this state.

(b) The term dealer is further defined to mean every person, as used in part I of this chapter, who imports or causes to be imported, tangible personal property from any state or foreign country, for sale at retail, for use, or consumption, or distribution, or for storage to be used or consumed in this state.

(c) The term dealer is further defined to mean every person, as used in part I of this chapter, who sells at retail, or who offers for sale at retail, or who has in his possession for sale at retail, or for use or consumption, or distribution, or storage to be used or consumed in this state, tangible personal property as defined herein.

(d) The term dealer is further defined to mean any person who has sold at retail, or used, or consumed, or distributed, or stored for use or consumption in this state, tangible personal property and who cannot prove that the tax levied by part I of this chapter has been paid on the sale at retail, the use, the consumption, the distribution, or the storage of said tangible personal property.

(e) The term dealer is further defined to mean any person, as used in part I of this chapter, who leases or rents tangible personal property, as defined in part I of this chapter, for a consideration, permitting the use or possession of said property without transferring title thereto, except as expressly provided for to the contrary herein.

(f) The term dealer is further defined to mean any person as used in part I of this chapter, who maintains or has within this state, directly or by a subsidiary, an office, distributing house, sales room, or house, warehouse or other place of business.

(g) Dealer also means and includes every person who solicits business either by direct representatives, indirect representatives, manufacturers agents, or by distribution of catalogs or other advertising matter or by any other means whatsoever and by reason thereof receives orders for tangible personal property from consumers, for use, consumption, distribution and storage for use or consumption in the state, and such dealer shall collect the tax imposed by part I of this chapter from the purchaser and no action either in law or in equity on a sale or transaction as provided by the terms of part I of this chapter may be had in this state by any such dealer unless it be affirmatively shown that the provisions of part I of this chapter have been fully complied with.

(h) Dealer also means and includes every person who, as a representative, agent, or solicitor, of an out-of-state principal or principals, solicits, receives and accepts orders from consumers in the state for future delivery and whose principal refuses to register as a dealer.

(3) Every dealer making sales, whether within or outside the state, of tangible personal property, for distribution, storage, or use or other consumption, in this state, shall at the time of making sales, collect the tax imposed by part I of this chapter from the purchaser.

(4) On all tangible personal property imported or caused to be imported from other states, territories, the district of Columbia, or any foreign country, and used by him, the dealer as herein defined, shall pay the tax imposed by part I of this chapter on all articles of tangible personal property so imported and used, the same as if the said articles had been sold at retail for use or consumption in this state. For the purposes of part I of this chapter, the use, or consumption, or distribution, or storage to be used or consumed in this state of tangible personal property, shall each be equivalent to a sale at retail, and the tax shall thereupon immediately levy and be collected in the manner provided herein, provided there shall be no duplication of the tax in any event.

(5) It is not the intention of part I of this chapter to levy a tax upon tangible personal property imported, produced or manufactured in this state for export, provided that tangible personal property shall not be considered as being imported, produced or manufactured for export unless the importer, producer or manufacturer delivers the same to a licensed exporter for exporting, or to a common carrier for shipment outside the state or mails the same by United States mail to a destination outside the state; nor is it the intention of part I of this chapter to levy a tax on radio broadcasting, or any sale which the state is prohibited from taxing under the constitution or laws of the United States.

(6) It is however, the intention of part I of this chapter to levy a tax on the sale at retail, the use, the consumption, the distribution, and the storage to be used or consumed in this state of tangible personal property after it has come to rest in this state and has become a part of the mass property of this state.

(7) It is further specifically provided that the use tax shall not apply to tangible personal property owned or acquired in this state, or imported into this state or held or stored in this state prior to November 1, 1949. But, the use tax will apply to all tangible personal property imported or caused to be imported into this state on or after November 1, 1949.

(8) The taxes imposed by part I of this chapter shall not apply to the use, sale or distribution or religious publications, bibles, hymn books, prayer books, vestments, altar paraphernalia, sacramental chalices and like church service and ceremonial raiments and equipment.

History.—§6, ch. 26319, 1949; (5), (9) §7, 8, ch. 26871, 1951; (5) §4, ch. 29883, 1955; (1) §1, (2) (g) §2, ch. 59-397; (7) §1, (8) §2, ch. 59-289; (1) §1, ch. 61-275; (7) r. §1, ch. 61-279.

212.07 Sales, storage, use tax; tax added to purchase price; dealer not to absorb; penalties; general exemptions.—

(1) The privilege tax herein levied measured by retail sales shall be collected by the dealers from the purchaser or consumer.

(2) Dealers shall, as far as practicable, add the amounts of the tax imposed under part I of this chapter to the sale price and the tax shall be separately stated on any charge tickets, sales slips, invoices, or other tangible evidence of sale, and such tax shall constitute a part of such price, charge or proof of sale which shall be a debt from the purchaser or consumer to the dealer, until paid, and shall be recoverable at law in the same manner as other debts. Any dealer who shall neglect, fail or refuse to collect the tax herein provided, upon any, every, and all retail sales made by him, or his agents, or employees, of tangible personal property which is subject to the tax imposed by part I of this chapter shall be liable for and pay the tax himself.

(3) Any dealer who shall fail, neglect or refuse to collect the tax herein provided, either by himself or through his agents or employees, shall, in addition to the penalty of being liable for and paying the tax himself, be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or imprisonment in the county jail for not more than three months, or both, in the discretion of the court.

(4) A dealer engaged in any business taxable under part I of this chapter shall not advertise or hold out to the public, in any manner, directly or indirectly, that he will absorb all or any part of the tax, or that he will relieve the purchaser of the payment of all or any part of the tax, or that the tax will not be added to the selling price of the property sold or released or when added that it or any part thereof will be refunded either directly or indirectly by any method whatsoever. A person who violates this provision with respect to advertising or refund shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five dollars, nor more than two hundred fifty dollars, or imprisonment in the county jail for not exceeding three months, or both, in the discretion of the court. For a second or subsequent offense, the penalty shall be double.

(5) The gross proceeds derived from the sale in this state of livestock, poultry and other farm products, direct from the farm are exempted from the tax levied by part I of this chapter, provided that such sales are made directly by the producers. The producers shall be entitled to such exemptions although said livestock so sold in this state may have been registered with a breeders or registry association prior to said sale and although said sale takes place at a livestock show or race meeting, so long as said sale is made by the original producer and within this state. When sales of livestock, poultry or other farm products are made to consumers by any person, as defined herein, other than a producer, they are not exempt from the tax imposed by part I of this chapter.

(6) It is specifically provided that the "use tax" as defined herein shall not apply to livestock and livestock products, to poultry and poultry products, to farm and agricultural products, when produced by the farmer and used by him and members of his family and his employees on the farm.

(7) Provided, however, that each and every agricultural commodity sold by any person, other than a producer, to any other person who purchases not for direct consumption but for the purpose of acquiring raw products for use or for sale in the process of preparing, finishing or manufacturing such agricultural commodity for the ultimate retail consumer trade shall be and is exempted from any and all provisions of part I of this chapter, including payment of the tax applicable to the sale, storage, use, transfer or any other utilization or handling thereof, except when such agricultural commodity is actually sold as a marketable or finished product to the ultimate consumer, and in no case shall more than one tax be exacted.

(8) The term agricultural commodity, for the purposes hereof, shall mean horticultural, poultry and farm products, and livestock and livestock products.

212.08 Sales, rental, storage, use tax; specified exemptions.—The sale at retail, the rental, the use, the consumption, the distribution and the storage to be used or consumed in this state, of the following tangible personal property, is hereby specifically exempt from the tax imposed by part I of this chapter.

(1) EXEMPTIONS; GENERAL GROCERIES.—There shall be exempt from the tax imposed by part I of this chapter foods for human consumption, particularly including foods such as milk and milk products, cereal and cereal products (meal, grits, flour, bread and other bakery products), meats (fresh, frozen, canned, salt or cured) and meat products, poultry and poultry products, vegetables and vegetable juices, fruits and fruit juices (not including soft drinks), seafoods, canned goods (including jams, jellies and preserves), nuts, berries, melons, sugar, salt, coffee and coffee substitutes, tea, cocoa, condiments, spices, spreads, relishes, desserts, flavoring, oleomargarine and shortening; also candy when the price at which the same is sold is twenty-five cents or less; provided, that none of such items of food and/or drink shall mean foods and drinks (which include meals, milk and milk products, fruit and fruit products, sandwiches, salads, processed meats and seafoods, vegetable juices, ice cream in cones or small cups) served, prepared or sold in or by restaurants, drug stores, lunch counters, cafeterias, hotels, or other like places of business, or by any business or place required by law to be licensed by the hotel and restaurant commission of the state, or sold ready for immediate consumption from push carts, motor vehicles, or any other form of vehicle.

(2) EXEMPTIONS, MEDICAL.—There shall be exempt from the tax imposed by part I of this chapter medicine compounded in a retail establishment by a pharmacist licensed by the state according to an individual prescription or prescriptions written by a practitioner of the healing arts licensed by the state, and common household remedies recommended and generally sold for the relief of pain, ailments, distress or disorders of the human body, according to a list prescribed and approved by the state board of health, which said list shall be certified to the comptroller from time to time and be included in the rules promulgated by the comptroller; artificial eyes and limbs, eyeglasses, dentures, hearing aids, crutches, prosthetic and orthopedic appliances and funerals. Funeral directors shall pay tax on all tangible personal property used by them in their business. This subsection shall be strictly construed and enforced.

(3) EXEMPTIONS, PARTIAL; MOTOR VEHICLES; AND CERTAIN FARM EQUIPMENT.—There shall be exempt from the tax imposed by part I of this chapter so much of such tax as shall exceed two per cent on the sale (including occasional or isolated sales), the use, consumption or storage for use in this state of motor vehicles, and self-propelled or power-drawn farm equipment used exclusively by a farmer on a farm owned, leased or sharecropped by him in plowing, planting, cultivating and harvesting crops. No title certificate shall be issued by the motor vehicle commissioner on any motor vehicle unless there be filed with such application for title certificate a receipt issued by an authorized motor vehicle dealer, or by a designated agent of the comptroller or by the comptroller evidencing the payment of such tax where the same is payable. For purposes of enforcing this provision, all county tax collectors and any and all persons or firms authorized to sell or issue motor vehicle licenses are hereby designated agents of the comptroller and are required to perform such duty in the same manner and under the same conditions prescribed for their other duties by the constitution or any statute of this state. No such receipt shall be required upon application for transfer of any title certificate issued by another state having a sales tax equal to or greater than the tax required by this state and requiring such tax to be paid before the issuance of title certificate. Other provisions of part I of this chapter relating to trade-ins are applicable to motor vehicles; however, all transfers of title to motor vehicles are presumed to be a taxable transaction until otherwise shown. The term motor vehicles as used in this subsection shall have the same meaning ascribed in §320.01 (1), when used in the plural form; and shall include the purchase of a motor vehicle to be used exclusively for rental purposes; however, any vehicle required to be licensed under §320.08, with a "GW" series tag shall not be construed to be a motor vehicle under the provisions of this subsection and is taxable at the rate of three per cent. The term "motor vehicle dealer" as used in this subsection shall have the same meaning ascribed in §320.60(6).

(4) EXEMPTIONS, LIMITED; INDUSTRIAL MACHINERY.—There shall be exempt from the tax imposed by part I of this chapter on any single transaction so much of said tax as shall exceed five thousand dollars on the sale or rental to, the use, consumption or storage for use in this state of machines and equipment and parts and accessories therefor used in mining, quarrying, compounding, processing, producing or manufacturing, personal property for sale in this state, or used in furnishing communication, transportation or public utility services. As used in this subsection "single transaction" shall include each order placed and accepted for the sale and delivery within six months by one supplier, and the use in one particular location of specifically described items on which this exemption is allowed; and the term "machines and equipment and parts and accessories therefor" shall mean only such machines, machinery and equipment and parts and accessories therefor which are specifically designed for use in some phase or process of the operations mentioned in this subsection. The comptroller is authorized to further define the terms used herein by rules and regulations not inconsistent herewith for the purpose of uniformity in the enforcement of this subsection.

(5) EXEMPTIONS, ITEMS BEARING OTHER EXCISE TAXES, ETC.—Also exempt from the tax imposed by part I of this chapter are fuels (including crude oil, fuel oil, gasoline, kerosene, diesel oil, natural and artificial gas, coal, coke and cordwood), electric power or energy, water (not exempting mineral water or carbonated water), and ice. Gasoline and other fuels used or consumed in airplanes or other aeronautical devices or used or consumed in railroad trains or locomotives used to transport persons or property in interstate or foreign commerce, are subject to tax imposed in this chapter only to the extent provided herein. The basis of the tax shall be the ratio of intrastate mileage to interstate or foreign mileage traveled by the carrier, during the previous fiscal year of the carrier, such ratio to be determined at the close of the carrier's fiscal year. This ratio shall be applied each month to the total purchases made in this state by the carrier of gasoline and other fuels to establish that portion of the total used and consumed in intrastate movement and subject to tax under part I of this chapter. Aviation fuels or fuels consumed in railroad trains or locomotives intrastate are taxable hereunder. Alcoholic beverages and malt beverages are not exempt. The terms "alcoholic beverages" and "malt beverages" as used in this subsection shall have the same meaning ascribed to them in §561.01 (7) and (3), respectively. It is determined by the legislature that the classification of alcoholic beverages made in this subsection for the purpose of extending the tax imposed by part I of this chapter is reasonable and just, and it is intended that such tax be separate from and in addition to any other tax imposed on alcoholic beverages.

(6) EXEMPTIONS; ACCOUNT OF USE.—There shall be exempt from the tax imposed by part I of this chapter nets and ships designed for and exclusively used by commercial fisheries; feeds for raising poultry and livestock on farms and for feeding dairy cows; fertilizers, insecticides and fungicides used for application on crops or groves; containers used for processing farm products; field and garden seeds; cheesecloth for shading tobacco and seed beds, used exclusively by a farmer on a farm owned, leased or share-cropped by him in cultivating and harvesting crops; provided, that such exemption shall not be allowed unless the purchaser or lessee signs a certificate stating that the item to be exempted is for the exclusive use designated herein.

(7) EXEMPTIONS; POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS, COMMUNICATIONS.—There shall also be exempt from the tax imposed by part I of this chapter, sales made to the United States government, the state or any county, municipality or political subdivision of this state; provided this exemption shall not include sales of tangible personal property made to contractors employed either directly or as agents of any such government or political subdivision thereof where such tangible personal property goes into or becomes a part of public works owned by such government or political subdivision thereof, except public works in progress or for which bonds or revenue certificates have been validated on or before August 1, 1959. Likewise exempt are newspapers, communication services, film rentals where an admission is charged for viewing such film and charges for services rendered by radio and television stations, including line charges, talent fees or charges, and charges for films and transcriptions and other expendable items in producing radio or television broadcasts.

(8) MISCELLANEOUS EXEMPTIONS.—

(a) Religious, charitable and educational.—There shall be exempt from the tax imposed by part I of this chapter articles of tangible personal property sold or leased direct to or by churches or sold or leased to, nonprofit religious, nonprofit educational, or nonprofit charitable institutions and used by such institutions in carrying on their customary nonprofit religious, nonprofit educational, or nonprofit charitable activities, including church cemeteries.

(b) School books and school lunches.—This exemption shall apply to school books used in regularly prescribed courses of study, and school lunches served to students, in public, parochial or nonprofit schools operated for and attended by pupils of grades one through twelve. School books and food sold or served at junior colleges and other institutions of higher learning are taxable.

(c) Restrictive definitions.—The provisions of this section authorizing exemptions from tax shall be strictly defined, limited and applied in each category as follows:

1. Religious institutions shall mean churches and established physical places for worship in this state at which nonprofit religious services and activities are regularly conducted and carried on.

2. Educational institutions shall mean state tax supported or parochial, church and nonprofit private schools, colleges or universities conducting regular classes and courses of study required for accreditation by or membership in the southern association of colleges and secondary schools, state department of education or the Florida council of independent schools. Nonprofit libraries, art galleries and museums open to the public are defined as educational institutions and eligible for exemption.

3. Charitable institutions shall mean only nonprofit corporations operating physical facilities in Florida at which are provided charitable services, a reasonable percentage of which shall be without cost to those unable to pay.

(d) Hospital meals and rooms.—Also exempt from payment of the tax imposed by part I of this chapter on rentals and meals are patients and inmates of any hospital or other physical plant or facility designed and operated primarily for the care of persons who are ill, aged, infirm, mentally or physically incapacitated or otherwise dependent on special care or attention.

(e) Professional services.—Also exempted are professional, insurance or personal service transactions which involve sales as consequential elements for which no separate charges are made.

The above exempted personal service transactions do not exempt the sale of information services involving the furnishing of printed, mimeographed, multigraphed matter or matter duplicating written or printed matter in any other manner, other than professional services and services of employees, agents or other persons acting in a representative or fiduciary capacity or information services furnished to newspapers. Information services shall mean and include the services of collecting, compiling or analyzing information of any kind or nature and furnishing reports thereof to other persons.

(f) Magazines.—There shall likewise be exempt from the tax imposed by part I of this chapter subscriptions to magazines entered as second class mail sold for an annual or longer period of time.

(9) PARTIAL EXEMPTIONS, VESSELS ENGAGED IN INTERSTATE OR FOREIGN COMMERCE.—All vessels and parts thereof used to transport persons or property in interstate or foreign commerce shall be subject to the taxes imposed in part I of this chapter only to the extent provided herein. The basis of the tax shall be the ratio of intrastate mileage to interstate or foreign mileage traveled by the carrier during the previous fiscal year. The ratio would be determined at the close of the carrier's fiscal year. This ratio applied to the total purchases by the carriers of vessels and parts thereof each month to establish that portion of the total used and consumed in intrastate movement and subject to tax at the applicable rate. Vessels and parts thereof used to transport persons or property in interstate and foreign commerce are hereby determined to be susceptible to a distinct and separate classification for taxation under the provisions of part I of chapter 212.

(10) PARTIAL EXEMPTIONS, VEHICLES ENGAGED IN INTERSTATE OR FOREIGN COMMERCE.—Vehicles and parts thereof used to transport persons or property in interstate or foreign commerce are subject to tax imposed in part I of this chapter only to the extent provided herein. The basis of the tax shall be the ratio of intrastate mileage to interstate or foreign mileage travelled by the carrier during the previous fiscal year of the carrier, such ratio to be determined at the close of the carrier's fiscal year. This ratio shall be applied each month to the total purchases by the carriers of vehicles and parts thereof which are used in Florida to establish that portion of the total used and consumed in intrastate movement and subject to tax under part I of this chapter, subject to the provisions of §212.08(4).

212.081 Legislative intent.—It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent of the amendments to §§212.08, 212.11(1), (3), 212.12(10) and 212.20 by ch. 57-398:

(1) To raise the additional revenue required to meet the appropriations of the legislature, by amending the sales and use tax exemptions previously allowed on clothing, fabrics, lubricating oil and grease and cigarettes included in this section. By amending the sales and use tax exemption on alcoholic and malt beverages to exclude from such exemption alcoholic and malt beverages consumed on the premises, and imposing a partial tax on motor vehicles, by increasing the tax on industrial machinery from three hundred dollars to one thousand dollars and further restricting and clarifying the definition of such machinery; and by eliminating all other exemptions allowed by §212.08, not specifically mentioned herein.

(2) To aid in the enforcement of part I of this chapter by recognizing the effect of court rulings involving such enforcement and to incorporate herein substantial rulings of the comptroller which have been recognized as necessary to supplement the interpretation of some of the terms used in this section.

(3) To arrange the exemptions allowed in this section in more orderly categories thereby eliminating some of the confusion attendant upon the present arrangement where cross-exemptions frequently occur.

It is further declared to be the legislative intent that the tax levied by part I of this chapter and imposed by this section is not a tax on motor vehicles as property but a tax on the privilege to sell, to rent, to use or to store for use in this state motor vehicles; that such tax is separate from and in addition to any license tax imposed on motor vehicles; and that such tax is not intended as an ad valorem tax on motor vehicles as prohibited by the constitution.

It is also the legislative intent that there shall be no pyramiding or duplication of excise taxes levied by the state under part I of this chapter and no municipality shall levy any excise tax upon any privilege, admission, lease, rental, sale, use or storage for use or consumption which is subject to a tax under part I of this chapter unless permitted by general law, provided, however, that this provision shall not impair valid municipal ordinances which are in effect and under which a municipal tax is being levied and collected on July 1, 1957.

(4) It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that revenue produced by this law [ch. 59-402 amending §212.08(5) and (7)] together with other available general revenue in excess of money required to meet the general revenue appropriations shall accrue to the sixth fund, the same being the working capital fund, as provided by law.

(5) It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that all purchases made by banks are subject to state sales tax in the same manner as is provided by law for all other purchasers. It is further declared to be the legislative intent that if for any reason, the sales tax on federal banks is declared invalid, that sales tax shall not apply or be applicable to purchases made by state banks.

History.—§1, ch. 57-398; (4) n. §3, ch. 59-402; (5) n. §4, ch. 61-274.

212.082 Effective date of amendments enacted by ch. 57-398.—It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that the amendments enacted by chapter 57-398 to §§212.08, 212.11(1), (3), 212.12(10) and 212.20 are an integral part of a revenue program designed to raise an estimated one hundred twenty million dollars revenue, thirty-six million dollars of which is herein appropriated to the county school fund of the respective counties, which program includes and is dependent upon the enactment of a separate act increasing intangible taxes and another act increasing documentary stamp taxes, each of such acts to be passed by the 1957 session of the legislature of the state; therefore, said amendments shall take effect July 1, 1957 immediately after and only after the said two other separate acts become effective; provided, however, if for any reason either of the two said other and separate acts should fail to become a law, then in such event it is the declared legislative intent that these amendments shall not take effect but shall become inoperative and void.

History.—§6, ch. 57-398.

212.09 Trade-ins deducted.—

(1) Where used articles are taken in trade, or a series of trades, as a credit or part payment on the sale of new articles, the tax levied by part I of this chapter shall be paid on the sales price of the new article, less the credit for the used article taken in trade.

(2) Where used articles are taken in trade, or a series of trades, as a credit or part payment on the sale of used articles, the tax levied by part I of this chapter shall be paid on the sales price of the used article less the credit for the used article taken in trade.

History.—§9, ch. 26319, 1949.

212.10 Sale of business; liability for tax, procedure, penalty for violation.—

(1) If any dealer liable for any tax, interest or penalty levied hereunder shall sell out his business or stock of goods, he shall make a final return and payment within fifteen days after the date of selling the business; his successor, successors, or assigns, shall withhold a sufficient portion of the purchase money to safely cover the account of such taxes, interest, or penalties due and unpaid until such former owner shall produce a receipt from the comptroller showing that they have been paid or a certificate stating that no taxes, interest, or penalty are due. If the purchasers of a business or stock of goods shall fail to withhold sufficient amount of the purchase money as above provided, he shall be personally liable for the payment of the taxes, interest and penalties accruing and unpaid on account of the operation of the business by any former owner, owners or assigns.

(2) If any dealer liable for any tax, interest or penalty shall quit the business without the benefit of a purchaser and there is no successor, successors or assigns he shall make a final return and payment within fifteen days. Any person failing to file such final return and make payment shall be denied the right to engage in any business in the state until he complies with such requirements, and the attorney general is hereby authorized to proceed by injunction, when requested by the comptroller so to do, to prevent by injunction any activity in the performance of any such business activity until either such permit is secured, or such bond is executed and filed, or such tax is paid in advance, and any temporary injunction enjoining the execution of such contract shall be granted without notice by any judge or chancellor now authorized by law to grant injunctions.

(3) In the event any dealer is delinquent in the payment of the tax herein provided for, the comptroller may give notice of the amount of such delinquency by registered mail to all persons having in their possession or under their control any credits or other personal property belonging to such dealer or owing any debts to such dealer at the time of receipt by them of such notice. All persons so notified shall within five days after receipt of the notice advise the comptroller of all such credits, other personal property, or debts in their possession, under their control, or owing by them. After receiving the notice the persons so notified shall neither transfer nor make any other disposition of the credits, other personal property, or debts in their possession or under their control at the time they receive the notice until the comptroller consents to a transfer or disposition or until sixty days elapse after the receipt of the notice, whichever period expires the earlier. All persons notified shall likewise within five days advise the comptroller of any subsequent credits or other personal property belonging to such dealer or any debts incurred and owing to such dealer which may come within their possession or under their control during the time prescribed by the notice or until the comptroller consents to a transfer or disposition whichever expires the earlier. If such notice seeks to prevent the transfer or other disposition of a deposit in a bank or other credits or personal property in the possession or under the control of a bank, the notice to be effective shall be delivered or mailed to the office of such bank at which such deposit is carried or at which such credits or personal property is held. If, during the effective period of the notice to withhold, any person so notified makes any transfer or disposition of the property or debts required to be withheld hereunder, to the extent of the value of the property or the amount of the debts thus transferred or paid he shall be liable to the state for any indebtedness due under part I of this chapter from the person with respect to whose obligation the notice was given if solely by reason of such transfer or disposition the state is unable to recover the indebtedness of the person with respect to whose obligation the notice was given. All such credits or other personal property or debts are subject to garnishment by the comptroller for satisfaction of the delinquent tax due.

(4) Any violation of the provisions of this section shall be a misdemeanor and punishable as such.

History.—§10, ch. 26319, 1949; §1, ch. 59-426; (3) §3, ch. 61-276.

212.11 Tax returns and regulations.—

(1) That the taxes levied hereunder upon rentals, admissions and sales of tangible personal property shall be due and payable monthly on the first day of each month and for the purpose of ascertaining the amount of tax payable under part I of this chapter, it shall be the duty of all dealers to make a return, on or before the twentieth day of the month to the comptroller, upon forms prepared and furnished by him, showing the rentals, admissions, gross sales or purchases as the case may be, arising from all leases, rentals, admissions, sales or purchases, taxable under part I of this chapter during the preceding calendar month. Any dealer who operates two or more places of business for which returns are required to be filed with the comptroller and who maintains records for such places of business in a central office or place, shall have the privilege on each reporting date of filing a consolidated return for all such places of business in lieu of separate returns for each such place of business.

(2) Gross proceeds from rentals or leases of tangible personal property shall be reported and the tax shall be paid with respect thereto in accordance with such rules and regulations as the comptroller may prescribe.

(3) Whenever the tax on rentals of any machine described in §212.08, shall amount to the total tax which would have been paid on said machine had the same been a sale rather than a rental, then there shall be no further rental tax thereon.

(4) Except as otherwise expressly provided for herein, it is hereby declared to be the intention of part I of this chapter to impose a tax on the gross proceeds of all leases and rentals of tangible personal property in this state where the lease or rental is a part of the regularly established business, or the same is incidental or germane thereto.

History.—§11, ch. 26319, 1949; §10, ch. 26871, 1951; (1), (3) §2, ch. 57-398.

212.12 Dealer's credit for collecting tax; penalties for noncompliance; powers of comptroller in dealing with delinquents; brackets applicable to taxable transactions; records required.—

(1) For the purpose of compensating the lessors of real and personal property taxed hereunder, and for the purpose of compensating dealers in tangible personal property and for the purpose of compensating owners of places where admissions are collected, as compensation for the keeping of prescribed records and the proper accounting and remitting of taxes by them, such seller, lessor, owner and dealer shall be allowed three per cent of the amount of the tax due and accounted for and remitted to the comptroller, in the form of a deduction in submitting his report and paying the amount due by him, and the comptroller shall allow the said deduction of three per cent of the amount of the tax to the person paying the same for remitting the tax in the manner herein provided, and for paying the amount due to be paid by him provided, however, that the three per cent allowance shall not be granted nor shall any deduction be permitted where the tax is delinquent at the time of payment, or where there is a manifest failure to maintain proper records or make proper prescribed reports; and as further compensation to dealers in tangible personal property for the keeping of prescribed records and collection of taxes and remitting the same.

(2) When any person, firm or corporation required hereunder to make any return or to pay any tax imposed by part I of this chapter, shall fail to make such return or shall fail to pay such tax, within the time required hereunder, in addition to all other penalties provided herein, and by the laws of Florida in respect to such taxes, the specific penalty shall be added to the tax in the amount of five per cent if the failure is for not more than thirty days, with an additional five per cent for each additional thirty days, or fraction thereof, during the time which the failure continues, not to exceed, however, a total penalty of twenty-five per cent in the aggregate. In the case of a false or fraudulent return or a wilful intent to evade payment of any tax imposed under part I of this chapter, in addition to the other penalties provided by law, the person making such false or fraudulent return or wilfully attempting to evade the payment of such a tax shall be liable to a specific penalty of fifty per cent of the tax bill and for fine and punishment as provided by law for a conviction of a misdemeanor.

(3) When any dealer, or other person charged herein, fails to remit the tax, or any portion thereof, on or before the day when such tax shall be required by law to be paid, there shall be added to the amount due interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the date due until paid.

(4) All penalties and interest imposed by part I of this chapter shall be payable to and collectible by the comptroller in the same manner as if they were a part of the tax imposed.

(5) The comptroller for good cause shown by written request, may extend, but not to exceed thirty days, the time for making any returns required under the provisions of part I of this chapter, and may compromise penalties after his investigation reveals that the penalty would be too severe or unjust, but interest shall be collected.

(6) In the event any dealer, or other person charged herein, fails to make a report and pay the tax as provided by part I of this chapter, or in case any person receiving rentals, or any dealer, owner or person charged herein with the duty to report, fails to make a report, or makes a grossly incorrect report, or makes a report that is false or fraudulent, then in either such event, it shall be the duty of the comptroller to make an assessment from an estimate for the taxable period of retail sales of such dealer, or of the gross proceeds from rentals, or the total admissions received or amounts received from leases of tangible personal property by a dealer, and an assessment from an estimate of the cost price of all articles of tangible personal property imported by the dealer for use or consumption or distribution or storage to be used or consumed in this state of tangible personal property with interest, plus penalty, if such have accrued, and as the case may be, then the comptroller shall proceed to collect such taxes on the basis of such assessment, which shall be considered prima facie correct, and the burden to show the contrary shall rest upon the dealer, seller, owner or lessor as the case may be.

(7) The comptroller is given the power to prescribe the records to be kept by all persons subject to taxes imposed by part I of this chapter and it shall be the duty of every person required to make a report and pay any tax under part I of this chapter, and every person receiving rentals, and owners of places of admission, to keep and preserve suitable records of the sales, leases, rentals, admissions, or purchases, as the case may be, taxable under part I of this chapter, and such other books of account as may be necessary to determine the amount of the tax due hereunder, and other information as may be required by the comptroller; and it shall be the duty of every such person so charged with such duty, moreover, to keep and preserve, for a period of three years, all invoices and other records of goods, wares and merchandise, records of admissions, leases and rentals and all other subjects of taxation under part I of this chapter; and all such books, invoices and other records shall be open to examination at all reasonable hours to the comptroller or any of his duly authorized agents.

(8) In the event the dealer has imported the tangible personal property and he fails to produce an invoice showing the cost price of the articles as defined in part I of this chapter, which are subject to tax, or the invoice does not reflect the true or actual cost price as defined herein, then the comptroller shall ascertain, in any manner feasible, the true cost price, and assess and collect the tax thereon with interest plus penalties, if such have accrued on the true cost price as assessed by him. The assessment so made shall be considered prima facie correct, and the duty shall be on the dealer to show to the contrary.

(9) In the case of the lease or rental of tangible personal property, or other rentals as herein defined and taxed, if the consideration given or reported by the lessor, person receiving rental or dealer does not, in the judgment of the comptroller, represent the true or actual consideration, then the comptroller is authorized to ascertain the same and assess and collect the tax thereon in the same manner as above provided, with respect to imported tangible property, together with interest, plus penalties, if such have accrued.

(10) Taxes imposed by part I of this chapter upon the privilege of the use, consumption, or storage for consumption, or sale of tangible personal property, admissions and rentals as herein taxed shall be collected upon the basis of an addition of the tax imposed by part I of this chapter to the total price of such admissions, rentals, or sale price of such article or articles that are purchased, sold or leased at any one time by or to a customer or buyer, and the dealer, or person charged herein, is required to pay a privilege tax in the amount of the tax imposed by part I of this chapter of the total of his gross sales of tangible personal property, admissions, and rentals, and such person or dealer shall add the tax imposed by part I of this chapter to the price, rental or admissions and collect the total sum from the purchaser, admittee, lessee or consumer. Notwithstanding the rate of taxes imposed upon the privilege of sales, admissions and rentals, and in order to avoid fractions of pennies, the following brackets shall be applicable to all three percent taxable transactions:

(a) On single sales of less than ten cents no tax shall be added.

(b) On single sales in amounts from ten cents to thirty-five cents, both inclusive, one cent shall be added for taxes.

(c) On sales in amounts from thirty-six cents to sixty-five cents, both inclusive, two cents shall be added for taxes.

(d) On sales in amounts from sixty-six cents to one dollar, both inclusive, three cents shall be added for taxes.

(e) On sales in amounts of more than one dollar, three percent shall be charged upon each dollar of price, plus the above bracket charges upon any fractional part of a dollar in excess of even dollars.

(11) It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent, that wherever in the construction, administration or enforcement of part I of this chapter there may be any question respecting a duplication of the tax, that the end consumer, or last retail sale shall be the sale intended to be taxed and in so far as may be practicable there be no duplication or pyramiding of the tax.

(12) In order to aid the administration and enforcement of the provisions of part I of this chapter with respect to the rentals, each lessor of any hotel, apartment house, rooming house, tourist or trailer camp, or any interest therein, or any portion thereof, inclusive of owners, property managers, lessors, landlords, hotel, apartment house and rooming house operators and all licensed real estate agents within the state leasing or renting such property, shall be required to keep a record of each and every such lease or rental transaction which is taxable under part I of this chapter, in such a manner and upon such forms as the comptroller may prescribe, and to report such transaction to the comptroller, or his designated agents, and to maintain such records for a period of not less than three years, subject to the inspection of the comptroller and his agents, and failure of such owner, property manager, lessor, landlord, hotel, apartment house, rooming house, tourist or trailer camp operator, or real estate agent to keep and maintain such records and to make such reports upon the forms and in the manner prescribed, shall be deemed to be a misdemeanor and upon conviction, such owner, property manager, lessor, landlord, hotel, apartment, rooming house, tourist or trailer camp operator, receiver of rent, property manager or real estate agent shall be subject to a fine of not less than fifty dollars, nor more than two hundred dollars or imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ten days nor more than thirty days, or both, for the first offense; and for subsequent offenses, they shall each be subject to a fine of not more than five hundred dollars and by imprisonment in the county jail of not more than six months, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

History.—§12, ch. 26319, 1949; (10) §11, ch. 26871, 1951; (7) §3, ch. 57-109; (10) §3, ch. 57-398; (12) §4, ch. 61-276.

212.13 Records required to be kept; power to inspect.—

(1) For the purpose of enforcing the collection of the tax levied by part I of this chapter, the comptroller is hereby specifically authorized and empowered to examine at all reasonable hours the books, records and other documents of all transportation companies, agencies, or firms that conduct their business by truck, rail, water, aircraft, or otherwise, in order to determine what dealers, or other persons charged with the duty to report or pay a tax under part I of this chapter, are importing or are otherwise shipping in articles or tangible personal property which are liable for said tax. In the event said transportation company, agency or firm shall refuse to permit such examination of its books, records, or other documents by the comptroller as aforesaid, it shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than fifty or more than five hundred dollars; provided further, that the comptroller shall have the right to proceed in any chancery court to seek a mandatory injunction or other appropriate remedy to enforce his right against the offender as granted by this section, to require an examination of the books and records of such transportation company or carrier.

(2) Each dealer, as defined in part I of this chapter, shall secure, maintain, and keep for a period of three years a complete record of tangible personal property received, used, sold at retail, distributed or stored, leased or rented within this state by said dealer together with invoices, bills of lading, gross receipts from such sales and other pertinent records and papers as may be required by the comptroller for the reasonable administration of part I of this chapter, and all such records shall be open for inspection to the comptroller at all reasonable hours at his store, sales office, warehouse or place of business located in this state. Any dealer who wishes the inspection conducted at a point outside this state is required to reimburse this state for the necessary travel and per diem expended for this purpose. Any dealer subject to the provisions of part I of this chapter who shall violate these provisions shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished as provided by the general law.

(3) For the purpose of enforcement of part I of this chapter, every manufacturer and seller of tangible personal property licensed within this state is required to permit the comptroller to examine his books and records at all reasonable hours, and upon his refusal the comptroller may require him to permit such examination by resort to the circuit courts of this state, subject however to the right of removal of the cause to the judicial circuit wherein such person's business is located or wherein such person's books and records are kept, provided further that such person's books and records are kept within the state.

(4) For the further purpose of enforcement of part I of this chapter every wholesaler of tangible personal property licensed within this state is required to permit the comptroller to examine his books and records at all reasonable hours. He must also maintain such books and records for a period of not less than three years in order to disclose the sales of all goods sold, and to whom sold, and also the amount of items sold, in such form and in such manner as the comptroller may reasonably require, and so as to permit the comptroller to determine the volume of goods sold by wholesalers to dealers, as defined under part I of this chapter, and the dates and amounts of sales made. The comptroller may require any manufacturer or wholesaler who refuses to keep such records or to permit such inspection through the circuit courts of Florida to submit to such inspection, subject however to the right of removal of the cause as hereinbefore provided in this section.

History.—§13, ch. 26319, 1949; (2) §4, ch. 57-109; (2) §1, ch. 59-290; (4) §5, ch. 61-276.

212.131 Revolving trust fund for out of state inspections.—There is hereby created a revolving fund to be known as "sales tax special revolving trust fund," and there is hereby transferred to said fund the sum of five thousand dollars from the moneys appropriated to the comptroller's office for expenses by the 1959-61 general appropriations act. Only expenses and per diem authorized by §112.061 shall be paid out of said fund to officers and employees of the comptroller's office engaged in making out-of-state inspections and audits in the administration and enforcement of part I of this chapter. All moneys collected under §212.13(2) shall be deposited in such fund; provided, however, at the end of each fiscal year all moneys in excess of twenty thousand dollars existing in such fund shall be deposited as unallocated to the general revenue fund.

History.—§2, ch. 59-290; §2, ch. 61-119.

212.14 Comptroller's powers; hearings, subpoena; distress warrants; time for assessments.

(1) Any person required to pay a tax imposed under part I of this chapter, or to make a return, either or both, and who renders a return or makes a payment of a tax with intent to deceive or defraud the state, and to prevent the state from collecting the amount of taxes imposed by part I of this chapter, or otherwise fails to comply with the provisions of part I of this chapter for the taxable period for which any return is made, or any tax is paid, or any report is made to the comptroller, may be required by the comptroller to show cause before the comptroller, or his designated agents, at a time and place to be set by the comptroller, after ten days' notice in writing requiring such books, records or papers as the comptroller may require relating to the business of such person for such tax period, and the comptroller may require such person, or persons, or their employee or employees to give testimony under oath and answer interrogatories by the comptroller, or his assistant, respecting the sale, use, consumption, distribution or storage rental of real or personal property within the state, or admissions collected therein, or the failure to make a true report thereof, as provided by part I of this chapter, or failure to pay the true amount of the tax required to be paid under part I of this chapter. At said hearing, in the event such person fails to produce such books, records or papers, or to appear and answer questions within the scope and investigation relating to matters concerning taxes to be imposed under part I of this chapter, or prevents or impedes his or her agents or employees from giving testimony, then the comptroller is authorized under part I of this chapter to estimate any unpaid deficiencies in taxes to be assessed against such person upon such information as may be available to him and to issue a distress warrant for the collection of such taxes, interest or penalties estimated by him to be due and payable, and such assessment shall be deemed prima facie correct. In such cases said warrant shall be issued to any sheriff in the state where such person owns or possesses any property and such property as may be required to satisfy any such taxes, interest or penalties shall be by such sheriff seized and sold under said distress warrant in the same manner as property is permitted to be seized and sold under distress warrants issued to secure the payments of delinquent taxes as hereinafter provided, and the comptroller shall also have the right to writ of garnishment to subject any indebtedness due to the delinquent dealer by a third person in any goods, money, chattels or effects of the delinquent dealer in the hands, possession or control of the third person in the manner provided by law. Respecting the place for the holding of a hearing, by the comptroller or his agents, as provided in this section, the person whose tax return or report being investigated, may by written request to the comptroller require the hearing be set at a place within the judicial circuit of Florida wherein the person's business is located, or within the judicial circuit of Florida wherein such person's books and records are kept.

(2) Wherever returns are required to be made to the comptroller hereunder the full amount of the taxes required to be paid as shown by said return shall be paid and accompany said return, and the failure to remit said full amount of taxes at the time of making said return shall cause said taxes to become delinquent. All taxes and all interest and penalties imposed under part I of this chapter shall be paid to the comptroller at Tallahassee, or to such designated offices throughout the state as the comptroller may from time to time designate and in the form of remittance required by him.

(3) The comptroller may require all reports of taxes to be paid under part I of this chapter to be accompanied with a written statement, of the person or by an officer of any firm or corporation required to pay such taxes setting forth such facts as the comptroller may reasonably require in order to advise the comptroller as to the amount of taxes that are due and payable upon said return. Filing of return not accompanied by payment is prima facie evidence of conversion of the money due. Any person or any duly authorized corporation officer or agent, members of any firm or incorporated society, or organization who refuses to make a return and pay the taxes due, as required by the comptroller and in the manner and in the form that the comptroller may require, or to state in writing that the return is correct to the best of his knowledge and belief, as so required by the comptroller, shall be subject to a penalty of six per cent per annum of the amount due and shall upon conviction, be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and shall be punished accordingly. The signing of a written return shall have the same legal effect as if made under oath without the necessity of appending such oath thereto.

(4) In all cases where it is necessary to insure compliance with the provisions of part I of this chapter the comptroller shall require a cash deposit, bond, or other security as a condition to a person obtaining, or retaining, a dealer's permit under part I of this chapter. Such bond shall be in the form and such amount as the comptroller deems appropriate under the particular circumstances. Any security required to be deposited may be sold by the comptroller at public sale if it becomes necessary so to do in order to recover any tax, interest or penalty due. Notice of such sale may be served upon the person who deposited such securities personally or by mail. If by mail, notice sent to the last known address, as the same appears in the records of the comptroller's office shall be sufficient for the purpose of this requirement. Upon such sale the surplus, if any above the amount due under part I of this chapter, shall be returned to the person who deposited the security.

(5) Any person entering into a contract for the repair, alteration, construction or improvement of realty who is required to obtain a contractor's occupational license under the laws of this state and where the total contract price, or compensation received amounts to more than ten thousand dollars, shall, before entering into the performance of such contract, secure a dealer's permit, unless such person has held such contractor's occupational license for a period of at least one year. As a prerequisite for the issuance of such dealer's permit such dealer shall execute and file with the state comptroller a good and valid bond endorsed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, or with sufficient sureties to be approved by the comptroller, conditioned that all taxes which may accrue to the state under part I of this chapter will be paid when due. Provided, however, that any taxpayer may pay the tax in advance on any contract in lieu of furnishing bond. Every person failing to procure the permit required by this law, shall be denied the right to perform such contract until he complies with such requirement, and the attorney general is hereby authorized to proceed by injunction, when so requested by the comptroller to prevent any activity in the performance of such contract until such permit is secured, and any temporary injunction enjoining the execution of such contract may be granted without notice by any judge or chancellor now authorized by law to grant injunctions. The bond shall remain in full force and effect during the terms of the contract or until such time as the comptroller has issued a formal certificate of clearance stating that the tax due on the contract has been paid.

(6) The amount of any tax imposed under part I of this chapter may be determined and assessed for a period of three years after the tax became due and payable. The beginning of the three year period for determination and assessment of tax due shall be the first day of the month corresponding to the month in which a request for inspection and examination of the books and records has been made by the comptroller. No suit or other proceeding, without assessment, for the collection of such tax shall be begun after the expiration of such period.

(7) This section as amended by ch. 59-449 shall apply only to all contracts executed subsequent to September 1, 1959.

212.15 Taxes declared state funds, penalties for embezzlement; due and delinquent dates; appeals.—

(1) The taxes imposed by part I of this chapter shall become state funds from the moment of collection, and §812.10, relating to embezzlement by state, county or municipal officers shall apply to every person who collects any taxes imposed by this chapter.

(2) The taxes imposed by part I of this chapter shall for each month be due to the comptroller on the first day of the succeeding month and delinquent on the twenty-first day of such month.

(3) All taxes collected under part I of this chapter shall be remitted to the comptroller. The comptroller is empowered and it shall be his duty, when any tax becomes delinquent under part I of this chapter, to issue a warrant for the full amount of the tax due or estimated to be due, together with the interest, penalties and cost of collection, directed to all and singular the sheriffs of the state, and mail such warrant to the sheriff of the county wherein any property of the taxpayer is located; and upon receipt of such warrant, the sheriff shall record the same in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of said county and thereupon the amount of such warrant shall become a lien upon the title to any real or personal property of such taxpayer, situated in said county, against whom such warrant is issued in the same manner as a judgment duly docketed and recorded in the office of such clerk of the circuit court. Upon the recording of such warrant, the clerk of the circuit court shall issue execution thereon, the same as on a judgment. Such sheriff shall thereupon proceed in all respects and with like effect and in the same manner as prescribed by law and in respect to executions issued against property upon judgment of the circuit court and shall be entitled to the same fees for his services in executing the warrant to be collected. The comptroller shall also have the right to writ of garnishment to subject any indebtedness due to the delinquent dealer by a third person in any goods, money, chattels, or effects of the delinquent dealer in the hands, possession or control of the third person in the manner provided by law for the payment of the tax due. Upon payment of such execution, warrant, judgment or garnishment the comptroller shall, within thirty days, satisfy the lien of record and is hereby specifically authorized and directed to do so.

(4) If any taxpayer or person required by part I of this chapter to remit taxes to the comptroller shall feel aggrieved by any action of the comptroller, he shall have the right within thirty days to appeal to the comptroller for rehearing and re-examination and in support thereof may submit such data as may be relevant. All exceptions and objections to the actions of the comptroller must be filed with the comptroller in duplicate at least ten days prior to the date set for such rehearing and re-examination. If the comptroller's decision is determined adversely to the taxpayer or person required by part I of this chapter to remit to the comptroller, such person shall have the right within thirty days from notice of such determination to have the comptroller's determination reviewed in appropriate proceedings in the circuit court of Leon county, and in such review there shall be no presumption in favor of the comptroller's findings.

(5) In any action involving the legality of any tax assessed under part I of this chapter, the court shall inquire into and determine the legality and validity of the same and shall render decrees setting aside such tax assessment or any part of the same which is contrary to law, provided that the complainant shall in every case, except where the taxes assessed, including interest and penalties, have been paid to the state comptroller prior to the institution of suit, tender into court and file with the complaint the full amount of the assessment complained of, including any interest and penalties included in such assessment, or file with the complaint a cash bond, surety bond endorsed by a surety company authorized to do business in this state, or by such sureties as may be approved by the court, conditioned to satisfy any judgment or decree in full, including the taxes complained of, costs, interest and penalties.

212.151 Jurisdiction of suits for violation of revenue act; service on retailers, dealers or vendors not qualified to do business in state.—In all suits brought hereafter in any of the courts of this state by the comptroller against any retailer, dealer or vendor for any violation of the Florida revenue act of 1949, such suits shall be brought thereon in the circuit courts of this state having jurisdiction of the subject matter. Every retailer, dealer or vendor not qualified to do business in this state shall designate with the comptroller an agent for service within the state for the purpose of enforcing part I of this chapter. If a retailer, dealer or vendor has not designated or shall fail to designate with the comptroller an agent for service within the state, then the secretary of state shall be deemed the agent for service, or any agent or employee of the retailer, dealer or vendor within the state shall be deemed agent for service.

212.16 Importation of goods; permits; seizure for noncompliance; procedure; review.—

(1) For the protection of the revenue of this state, to prevent the illegal importation of tangible personal property which is subject to tax in this state, and to strengthen and make more effective the manner and method of enforcing payment of the tax imposed by part I of this chapter, the comptroller is hereby authorized and empowered to put into operation, a system of permits whereby any person or dealer as defined in part I of this chapter may import tangible personal property by truck, automobile, or other means of transportation other than a common carrier, without having said truck, automobile, or other means of transportation seized and subjected to legal proceedings for its forfeiture. Such system of permits shall require the person or dealer who desires to import tangible personal property into this state, which property is subject to tax imposed by part I of this chapter, to apply to the comptroller or his designated agent for a certificate of registration and a permit stating the kind of vehicle used, the name of the driver, the license number of the vehicle, the kind or character of tangible personal property to be imported, the date, the name and address of the consignee and such other information as the comptroller may deem necessary to prevent the illegal transportation of tangible personal property into this state. Such certificate of registration and permit shall be free of cost to the applicant and forms for such certificate of registration and permit may be obtained from the comptroller or his designated agents.

(2) The importation into this state of tangible personal property which is subject to tax, by truck, automobile, or other means of transportation other than a common carrier without having first obtained a certificate of registration and permit as hereinabove described, (if the tax imposed by part I of this chapter on the said tangible personal property has not been paid) shall be construed as an attempt to evade payment of the said tax and the same is hereby prohibited and the said truck, automobile or other means of transportation, other than that of common carrier, and said taxable property may be seized by the comptroller in order to secure the same as evidence in a trial and the same shall be subject to forfeiture and sale in the manner provided for in part I of this chapter. No certificate of registration or permit shall be required to transport personal effects of a driver, owner, or passengers of any private automobile or carrier vehicle not engaged in carrying goods for resale within the state. The comptroller may issue a certificate of registration and permit to a person who is regularly or frequently importing into this state tangible personal property in trucks owned by him in connection with his own business, requiring that reports, copies of sales documents, and other information may be filed at regular or frequent intervals with the comptroller after importation of tangible personal property subject to the tax, and the comptroller may require as a condition for the issuance of such certificate of registration and permit that such person post a bond payable to the comptroller in an amount sufficient to guarantee payment of the tax on such goods as may be imported by such person, which amount the comptroller shall set.

(3) Subject to the above stated exception of private vehicles, any truck, automobile, or other means of transportation other than a common carrier which is used to import into this state tangible personal property which is subject to tax under part I of this chapter, together with the contents thereof, is hereby declared to be contraband and subject to confiscation unless a certificate of registration and permit as herein above described was first obtained. The comptroller may confiscate any such truck, automobile, or other means of transportation other than a common carrier together with its contents whenever the same is found to be importing without the certificate of registration and permit tangible personal property, the sale or use of which is taxable under part I of this chapter. Such permit shall be posted in or on the vehicle or made immediately available for inspection. The comptroller or his agent is authorized hereby to turn over to any sheriff or constable for safekeeping any vehicle or property seized hereunder, and such sheriff or constable shall collect from the vehicle owner costs provided by the general law for performing similar service.

(4) Upon seizure for confiscation, the comptroller or his representatives shall appraise the value of the vehicle and its said contents according to his best judgment and shall deliver to the person, if any found in possession of such property, a receipt showing the fact of seizure, from whom seized, the place of seizure, a description of the vehicle and contents seized. A copy of said receipt shall be filed in the office of the comptroller and shall be open to public inspection.

(5) The comptroller, or any representative of the comptroller, shall within thirty days advertise the said vehicle and its contents or other property so seized for sale to the highest bidder by one proper notice in a newspaper published in the county where the property is to be sold, if the county has such a newspaper, if there is no newspaper in such county, then by notice on the courthouse door, at least thirty days prior to the date of sale and contain a description of the vehicle and property to be sold.

(6) Any person claiming any property so seized as contraband goods, may, at any time before the sale, file with the comptroller, at Tallahassee, a claim in writing requesting a hearing and stating his interest in the article seized. The comptroller shall set a date and place for hearing within ten days from the day the claim is filed. The comptroller is hereby empowered to subpoena witnesses and compel their attendance at the hearing authorized under part I of this chapter. All parties to the proceeding including the person claiming such property shall have the right to have subpoenas issued by the comptroller to compel the attendance of all witnesses deemed by such parties to be necessary for a full and complete hearing. All witnesses shall be entitled to the witness fees and mileage provided by law for legal witnesses, which fees and mileages shall be paid as a part of the cost of the proceeding.

(7) In the event the ruling of the comptroller is favorable to the claimant, the comptroller shall deliver to the claimant the vehicle or property so seized. If the ruling of the comptroller is adverse to the claimant, the comptroller shall proceed to sell such contraband goods in accordance with the foregoing provisions of part I of this chapter. The expense of storage and transportation, shall be adjudged as part of the cost of the proceedings in such manner as the comptroller shall fix pending any proceeding to recover a vehicle or other property seized under part I of this chapter. The comptroller may order delivery thereof to any claimant who shall execute with one or more sureties, approved by the comptroller, and deliver to the comptroller, a bond in favor of the state for the payment of a sum double the appraised value thereof as of the time of the hearing; and providing further that if the vehicle or other property is not returned at the time of the hearing the bond shall stand in lieu of, and be forfeited in the same manner as such vehicle or other property.

(8) The action of the comptroller may be reviewed by a petition for common law writ of certiorari addressed to the circuit court of any county wherein said hearing was held which petition shall be filed within the time provided by the Florida appellate rules.

(9) Immediately upon the granting of the writ of certiorari the comptroller shall cause to be made, certified, and forwarded to said court a complete transcript of the proceeding in said cause, which shall contain all the proofs submitted before the comptroller. All defendants named in the petition desiring to make defense, shall answer or otherwise plead to said petition within ten days from the date of the filing of said transcript unless the time be extended by the court.

(10) Said decision of the comptroller shall be reviewed by the circuit court solely upon the pleadings and a transcript of the evidence before the comptroller, and neither party shall be entitled to introduce any additional evidence in the circuit court. The confiscated vehicle or goods shall not be sold pending such review but shall be stored by the comptroller until the final disposition of said case.

(11) Within the discretion of the comptroller, the claimant may be awarded possession of the confiscated goods pending the decision of the circuit court under the petition for certiorari, provided the claimant shall be required to execute a bond payable to the state, in an amount double the value of the property seized, the sureties to be approved by the comptroller. The condition of the bond shall be that the obligors shall pay to the state, the full value of the vehicle or goods seized unless upon certiorari the decision of the comptroller shall be reversed and the property awarded to the claimant.

(12) If no claim is interposed such vehicle, or other goods shall be forfeited without further proceedings and the same sold as hereinabove provided. The above procedure is the sole remedy of any claimant and no court shall have jurisdiction to interfere therewith by replevin, injunction, supersedeas, or in any other manner.

(13) Any funds derived from the sale of confiscated vehicles or other goods shall be distributed or allocated in the same manner as other funds derived from the taxing statute.

History.—§16, ch. 26319, 1949; (1)-(3) §8, ch. 61-276; §4, ch. 63-512.

212.17 Credits for returned goods, rentals or admissions; additional powers of comptroller.—

(1) In the event purchases are returned to the dealer by the purchaser or consumer after the tax imposed by part I of this chapter has been collected, or charged to the account of the consumer or used, the dealer shall be entitled to reimbursement of the amount of tax collected or charged by him, in the manner prescribed by the comptroller; and in case the tax has not been remitted by the dealer to the comptroller, the dealer may deduct the same in submitting his return upon receipt of a signed statement of the dealer as to the gross amount of such refunds during the period covered by said signed statement, which period shall not be longer than ninety days. The comptroller shall issue to the dealer an official credit memorandum equal to the net amount remitted by the dealer for such tax collected. Such memorandum shall be accepted by the comptroller at full face value from the dealer to whom it is issued, in the remittance for subsequent taxes accrued under the provisions of part I of this chapter, provided in cases where a dealer has retired from business and has filed a final return, a refund of tax may be made if it can be established to the satisfaction of the comptroller that the tax was not due.

(2) The comptroller shall design, prepare, print and furnish to all dealers, or make available to said dealers, all necessary forms for filing returns and instructions to insure a full collection from dealers and an accounting for the taxes due, but failure of any dealer to secure such forms shall not relieve such dealer from the payment of said tax at the time and in the manner herein provided.

(3) The comptroller and his assistants are hereby authorized and empowered to administer the oath for the purpose of enforcing and administering the provisions of part I of this chapter.

(4) The comptroller shall have the power to make, prescribe and publish reasonable rules and regulations not inconsistent with part I of this chapter, or the other laws, or the constitution of this state, or the United States, for the enforcement of the provisions of part I of this chapter and the collection of revenue hereunder, and such rules and regulations shall when enforced be deemed to be reasonable and just.

(5) The comptroller, where admissions or rental payments are made and thereafter returned to the payers, after the taxes thereon have been paid, shall return or credit the taxpayer for taxes so paid on the monies returned in the same manner as is provided for returns or credits of taxes where purchases or tangible personal property are returnable to a dealer.

History.—§17, ch. 26319, 1949.

212.18 Administration of law; rules and regulations.—

(1) The cost of preparing and distributing the reports, forms and paraphernalia for the collection of said tax and the inspection and enforcement duties required herein shall be borne by the revenue produced by part I of this chapter, provisions for which are hereinafter made.

(2) The comptroller shall administer and enforce the assessment and collection of the taxes, interest, and penalties imposed by part I of this chapter. He is authorized to make and publish such rules and regulations not inconsistent with part I of this chapter, as he may deem necessary in enforcing its provisions in order that there shall not be collected on the average more than the rate levied herein. The comptroller is authorized to and he shall provide by rule and regulation a method for accomplishing this end. He shall prepare instructions to all persons required by part I of this chapter to collect and remit the tax to guide such persons in the proper collection and remission of such tax and to instruct such persons in the practices that may be necessary for the purpose of enforcement of part I of this chapter and the collection of the tax imposed hereby. The use of tokens in the collection of this tax is hereby expressly forbidden and prohibited.

(3) Every person desiring to engage in or conduct business as a dealer as defined in part I of this chapter, or in leasing, renting or letting of living quarters, sleeping or housekeeping accommodations in hotels, apartment houses, rooming houses, tourist or trailer camps, as hereinbefore defined in part I of this chapter, in this state shall file with the comptroller a certificate of registration for each place of business, show the name of the interested persons in such business, their residences, the address of the business, and such other data as the comptroller may reasonably require. Such application shall be made to the comptroller on or before thirty days after November 1, 1949, or on or before such person, firm or corporation may engage in such business, and it shall be accompanied by a registration fee of one dollar. The comptroller, upon receipt of such application will grant to the applicant, a separate certificate of registration for each place of business which certificate shall not be assignable and shall be valid only for the person, firm or corporation to whom issued, and such certificate shall be placed in a conspicuous place in the business or businesses for which it is issued, and so displayed at all times. No person shall engage in business as a dealer, or in leasing, renting or letting of living quarters, sleeping or housekeeping accommodations in hotels, apartment houses, rooming houses, tourist or trailer camps, as hereinbefore defined on or before thirty days after November

1, 1949, without first having obtained such a certificate, and no person shall receive any license from any authority within the state to engage in any such business after November 1, 1949, without first having obtained such a certificate. The engaging in the business of selling or leasing tangible personal property or as a dealer as defined in part I of this chapter, or engaging in leasing, renting or letting of living quarters, sleeping or housekeeping accommodations in hotels, apartment houses, or rooming houses, or tourist or trailer camps, as hereinbefore defined without such certificate first had and obtained within the time limits set forth above, or after being cancelled by the comptroller, is hereby prohibited. Failure or refusal of any individual or copartnership to so qualify where required hereunder is a misdemeanor subject to maximum fine of five hundred dollars or six months in jail, either or both; or to injunctive proceedings as provided by law.

(4) The comptroller is hereby given the authority to purchase such supplies and equipment as may be necessary and incur any other necessary expenses as are proper for the enforcement and administration of part I of this chapter.

History.—§18, ch. 26319, 1949; (3) §9, ch. 61-276.

212.19 All state agencies to cooperate in administration of law.—The comptroller is further empowered to call on any state agency, department, bureau or board for any and all information which may, in his judgment, be of assistance in administering or preparing for the administration of part I of this chapter, and such state agency, department, bureau or board is hereby authorized, directed and required to furnish such information.

History.—§19, ch. 26319, 1949; §12, ch. 57-1.

212.20 Funds collected, disposition; additional powers of comptroller; operational expense.—

(1) The comptroller shall pay over to the treasurer of the state, all funds received and collected by him under the provisions of part I of this chapter, to be credited to the account of the general revenue fund of the state.

(2) The comptroller is authorized to employ all necessary assistants to administer part I of this chapter properly and is also authorized to purchase all necessary supplies and equipment which may be required for this purpose.

(3) The estimated amount of money needed for the administration of part I of this chapter shall be included by the comptroller in his biennial legislative budget request for the operation of his office.

212.21 Declaration of legislative intent.—

(1) If any section, subsection, sentence, clause, phrase or word of part I of this chapter is for any reason held or declared to be unconstitutional, invalid, inoperative, ineffective, inapplicable, or void, such invalidity or unconstitutionality shall not be construed to affect the portions of part I of the chapter not so held to be unconstitutional, void, invalid, or ineffective, or affect the application of this chapter to other circumstances not so held to be invalid, it being hereby declared to be the express legislative intent that any such unconstitutional, illegal, invalid, ineffective, inapplicable or void, portion or portions of part I of this chapter did not induce its passage, and that without the inclusion of any such unconstitutional, illegal, invalid, ineffective or void portions of part I of this chapter, the legislature would have enacted the valid and constitutional portions thereof.

(2) It is hereby declared to be the specific legislative intent to tax each and every sale, admission, use, storage, consumption, or rental levied and set forth in part I of this chapter except as to such sale, admission, use, storage, consumption, or rental, as shall be specifically exempted therefrom, subject to the conditions appertaining to such exemption. It is further declared to be the specific legislative intent that should any exemption or attempted exemption from the tax or the operation or imposition of the tax or taxes be declared to be invalid, ineffective, inapplicable, unconstitutional or void for any reason, such declaration shall not affect the tax or taxes imposed herein, but such sale, admission, use, storage, consumption or rental or any of them exempted or attempted to be exempted from the tax or taxes or the operation or the imposition of the tax or taxes, shall be subject to the tax or taxes and the operation and imposition thereof to the same extent as if such exemption or attempted exemption had never been included herein.

(3) It is further declared to be the specific legislative intent to exempt from the tax or taxes or from the operation or the imposition thereof only such sales, admissions, uses, storages, consumption or rentals in relation to or in respect of the things set forth as exempted from the tax, as may be exempted in accordance with the provisions of the constitution of the state and of the United States, and it is further declared to be the specific legislative intent to tax each and every the taxable privileges made subject to the tax or taxes or the operation of the tax or taxes, or the imposition of the tax or taxes except such sales, admissions, uses, storages, consumption or rentals as are specifically exempted therefrom, and such exemption is made only to the extent that such exemption may be made in accordance with the provisions of the constitution of the state and of the United States.

(4) It being further declared to be the specific legislative intent that in the event any exemption or attempted exemption of any sale, admissions, use, storage, consumption or rental from the tax or taxes imposed by part I of this chapter is for any reason declared to be unconstitutional, ineffective, inapplicable or void, that then and in such event each and every such sale, admission, use, storage, consumption or rental shall be subject to the tax or taxes imposed by part I of this chapter as fully and to the same extent as if such exemption or attempted exemption had never been included herein, it being declared to be the specific legislative intent that no unconstitutional, invalid, ineffective, inapplicable or void exemption or attempted exemption or exemptions or attempted exemptions induced the passage of part I of this chapter, it being further declared to be the specific legislative intent that without the inclusion herein of any such unconstitutional, invalid, ineffective, inapplicable or void exemption or attempted exemption, exemptions or attempted exemptions, the valid portions of part I of this chapter would have been enacted; provided, however, that should the provisions, or any one or more of them, set forth in §212.22, requiring two certain other and separate acts of the 1949 extraordinary session of the legislature to become laws as conditions precedent to this act becoming a law, for any reason be held or declared to be unconstitutional, inoperative or void, then in such event it is not intended that §212.22 or any part thereof be separable from any of the remaining provisions of part I of this chapter, but in such event it is expressly intended that part I of this chapter be inseparable in its entirety.

History.—§21, ch. 26319, 1949.

212.22 Savings provision.—Nothing herein contained shall be construed as repealing any general or special act authorizing a municipality to levy a special tax upon admission tickets which said tax is now being levied by such municipality.

History.—§23, ch. 26319, 1949.

212.23 Additional declaration of legislative intent.—It is hereby declared to be the legislative intent that part I of this chapter is an integral part of a revenue program, which program includes, in addition to the provisions set forth in part I of this chapter, certain aid to municipalities through another and separate act (ch. 210), designed to authorize municipalities to levy a tax up to five cents per package on cigarettes, which tax shall be collected by the state beverage director and remitted to the municipalities levying such taxes pursuant to said other act, and certain aid to counties through another and separate act (§208.44), designed to allocate to the several counties of the state, the proceeds of the so-called "7th Cent Gas Tax" in the manner as provided in said other and separate act.

PART II

WHOLESALE FISHING AND OTHER EQUIPMENT REVENUE ACT

212.50 Short title.

212.51 Declaration of legislative findings and intent.

212.52 Definitions.

212.53 Imposition and levy of tax.

212.54 Collection of tax.

212.55 Administration.

212.56 Earmarking of tax.

212.57 Exemptions.

212.58 Penalty.

212.50 Short title.—Part II of this chapter may be cited as the wholesale fishing and other equipment revenue act.

History.—§2, ch. 63-527.

212.51 Declaration of legislative findings and intent.—

(1) It is the finding of the legislature that an equitable means of financing the programs established by the outdoor recreation and conservation act of 1963 is to impose a tax on certain sales, uses, and storages of fishing, hunting, camping, swimming and diving equipment, all as herein provided or defined, in that the establishment, enhancement and expansion of such programs will greatly increase and expand such sales, uses and storages of such equipment and further in that the burden, incidence, or impact, if any, of such tax will be borne either by those persons benefiting directly from such increased and expanded sales, uses, and storages or by those persons directly utilizing the facilities and lands developed or acquired by virtue of the provisions of the outdoor recreation and conservation act of 1963 or otherwise directly receiving the benefits of such act.

(2) The tax herein imposed is not intended to be and shall not be construed or administered as an ad valorem tax upon tangible personal property as prohibited by §2, Art. IX, of the constitution.

(3) It is the finding of the legislature that the classification of fishing, hunting, camping, swimming, and diving equipment established in part II of this chapter is reasonable and just and that said classification of such equipment and the tax herein imposed fairly and reasonably results in the encompassing of those sales, uses, and storages which will be increased and expanded by the implementation of the outdoor recreation and conservation act of 1963.

(4) It is the finding of the legislature that the imposition of a tax by part II of this chapter upon certain wholesale sales is reasonable and just and that the imposition of this tax at such level will because of the nature of the equipment involved permit economy, uniformity, and fairness in collection of the tax and in the administration of part II of this chapter.

(5) It is the intention of the legislature that part II of this chapter not be construed or administered as taxing any sale, use, or storage, the taxation of which by the state would violate the constitution of the state or of the United States.

(6) It is the intention of the legislature that if any express exemption herein is construed as causing the tax herein imposed to be discriminatory, every such sale, use, and storage exempted shall be subject to said tax, it being the intent of the legislature to enact no unconstitutional or discriminatory exemptions.

(7) The tax herein imposed and levied shall be in addition to any and all other taxes imposed by law, regardless of the nature of the same.

History.—§1, ch. 63-527.

212.52 Definitions.—As used in part II of this chapter:

(1) Cost price means and includes the actual cost of fishing, hunting, camping, swimming and diving equipment without any deductions therefrom on account of the cost of materials used, labor or service costs, transportation charges, or any expenses whatsoever.

(2) Dealer means and includes:

(a) Every person who manufactures or produces fishing, hunting, camping, swimming and diving equipment for sale at wholesale, for use or for storage; or

(b) Every person who imports or causes to be imported fishing, hunting, camping, swimming and diving equipment from any place outside the state for sale at wholesale, for use, or for storage; or

(c) Every person who sells at wholesale or offers to sell at wholesale, or who has in possession for sale at wholesale, for use, or for storage fishing, hunting, camping, swimming and diving equipment; or

(d) Every person who has sold at wholesale, used, or stored fishing, hunting, camping, swimming and diving equipment and who cannot prove the tax levied by part II of this chapter has been paid upon such sale at wholesale, use, or storage; or

(e) Every person who purchases, imports or causes to be imported into this state for resale, fishing, hunting, camping, swimming and diving equipment, who cannot prove that the tax levied by part II of this chapter has been paid to his supplier or vendor.

(f) Every person who maintains or has within this state, directly or by a subsidiary, an office, distributing house, sales room, or house, warehouse, or other place of business; or

(g) Every person who solicits business either by direct representatives, indirect representatives, manufacturer's agents, or by distribution of catalogs or other advertising matter or by any other means whatsoever and by reason thereof receives orders for fishing, hunting, camping, swimming, and diving equipment from consumers for use or storage in the state; or

(h) Every person who, as representative, agent, or solicitor, of an out-of-state principal or principals, solicits, receives, and accepts orders from consumers in the state for future delivery and whose principal refuses to register as a dealer.

(3) Fishing, hunting, camping, swimming, and diving equipment means and includes any device, implement, tool, article, or object customarily or primarily used, operated, or consumed by participants in the course of and in the furtherance of the recreational pursuit of fishing, whether in salt or fresh water and including the capturing, harvesting, or other obtaining of any creature from or beneath waters, whether or not the same be regarded as a fish; hunting, whether of animals, birds, fowl, fish, reptiles, or other creatures; camping, whether independently of or in conjunction with fishing, hunting, swimming or diving; swimming, whether in salt or fresh water, or diving, whether in salt or fresh water, including but not limited to poles, rods, reels, lines, seines, nets, tackle, tackle boxes, hooks, lures, swivels, sinkers, floats, leader wires, weights, firearms, ammunition, decoys, tents, sleeping bags, camping stoves, diving tanks, diving masks, diving lungs, diving weights and belts, diving regulators, diving suits, water skis, tow ropes, fins, bathing and swimming suits, underwater spears, spear guns, and similar, related, or like items; provided that fuels, oils, lubricants, motor vehicles and parts thereof, boats and watercraft, motors, engines and parts for boats and watercraft, devices or articles designed or utilized primarily as life-saving, safety, or first aid equipment, and articles of clothing or apparel other than bathing, swimming, or diving suits, shall not be included within this definition.

(4) Person means and includes any individual, firm, copartnership, joint venture, association, corporation, estate, trust, business trust, receiver, syndicate, or other group or combination acting as a unit, and shall include the plural as well as the singular number.

(5) Sale and sold and derivatives thereof mean and include any transfer of title or possession, or both, exchange, barter, lease or rental, conditional or otherwise, in any manner or by any means whatsoever of fishing, hunting, camping, swimming, and diving equipment, and shall include a transaction whereby the possession of such equipment is transferred to the buyer, but wherein title to the same or a mortgage upon the same is retained by the seller as security for the payment of the price.

(6) Sale at retail, sold at retail and retail sale mean and include a sale of fishing, hunting, camping, swimming, and diving equipment by any person other than the manufacturer to a consumer or to any person for any purpose other than for resale of such equipment in the same form.

(7) Sale at wholesale, sold at wholesale and wholesale sale mean and include any sale of fishing, hunting, camping, swimming and diving equipment which is not a retail sale or sale at retail; provided that where the mode or method of sale or distribution of such equipment results in there being more than one sale at wholesale prior to the sale at retail, the sale at wholesale shall be deemed to be the sale immediately preceding the sale at retail.

(8) Sales price means and includes the total amount for which fishing, hunting, camping, swimming, and diving equipment is sold, including any services that are part of the sale, valued in money, whether paid in money or otherwise, and including any amount for which credit is given to the purchaser by the seller, without any deduction therefrom on account of the cost of the property sold, the cost of materials used, labor or service costs, interest charged, losses, or any other expense whatsoever; provided that cash discounts allowed and taken on sales shall not be included.

(9) Storage and stored mean and include any keeping or retention of fishing, hunting, camping, swimming, and diving equipment in the state for use or consumption in the state, except that it shall not mean or include a sale at wholesale, wholesale sale, sale at retail, or retail sale.

(10) Use and used mean and include the exercise in this state of any right or power over fishing, hunting, camping, swimming, and diving equipment incident to the ownership of such equipment or any interest therein, or the consumption or distribution thereof, except that it shall not mean or include a sale at wholesale, wholesale sale, sale at retail, or retail sale.

History.—§3, ch. 63-527.

212.53 Imposition and levy of tax.—

(1) It is hereby declared that every person is exercising a taxable privilege who engages in the business of selling at wholesale fishing, hunting, camping, swimming and diving equipment in this state, or who stores or uses in this state fishing, hunting, camping, swimming or diving equipment. For the exercise of said privilege a tax is imposed and levied as follows:

(a) At the rate of five per cent of the sales price of each item of fishing, hunting, camping, swimming, and diving equipment sold at wholesale in this state; the tax to be computed on gross sales for the purpose of remitting the amount of tax due the state, and to include each and every wholesale sale.

(b) At the rate of five per cent of the cost price of each item of fishing, hunting, camping, swimming and diving equipment purchased, imported or caused to be imported into this state for resale unless the purchaser thereof can prove that the tax levied by part II of this chapter has been paid to his supplier or vendor.

(c) At the rate of five per cent of the cost price of each item of fishing, hunting, camping, swimming, or diving equipment when the same is not sold at wholesale, but is used or stored in the state.

(2) The said tax shall be collected from and by the dealer and paid at the time and in the manner provided herein. No action at law or in equity on any sale at wholesale may be maintained in any court in the state by any dealer who has not fully complied with the provisions of part II of this chapter.

(3) The full amount of the tax on credit sales, installment sales, and sales made on any kind of deferred payment shall be due at the moment of the transaction in the same manner as a cash sale.

History.—§4, ch. 63-527.

212.54 Collection of tax.—

(1) The aforesaid tax at the rate of five per cent of the sales price, as of the moment of sale, or five per cent of the cost price, as of the moment of commingling with the general mass of property in the state, as the case may be, shall be collectible from all dealers on the sale at wholesale, use, or storage in the state of fishing, hunting, camping, swimming and diving equipment.

(2) Every dealer making sales at wholesale, whether within or without the state, or fishing, hunting, camping, swimming or diving equipment for storage or use in the state shall at the time of sale collect the tax imposed by part II of this chapter from the purchaser.

(3) Every dealer shall pay the tax imposed by part II of this chapter on all fishing, hunting, camping, swimming, and diving equipment imported or caused to be imported from any other state, territory, or district of the United States, or from any foreign country, and made the subject of use or storage by him, the same as if said equipment had been sold at wholesale for use or storage in this state.

(4) There shall be no duplicate payment of the tax under part II of this chapter in that if a tax is paid on the sale at wholesale of such equipment as provided in §212.53(1)(a) it shall not be necessary to pay a tax on use or storage of such equipment as provided in §212.53(1)(b).

History.—§5, ch. 63-527.

212.55 Administration.—

(1) The tax herein imposed shall be collected by and paid to the comptroller, who shall administer the collection thereof and who is empowered to promulgate reasonable rules and regulations to implement and effectuate the purposes of part II of this chapter; provided that all rights and duties of the comptroller under part II of this chapter shall be deemed to lie in the state revenue commission or any other agency or board succeeding to the duties of the comptroller under chapter 212 at and after the time of such succession.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature that part II of this chapter be administered in accordance with procedures paralleling, as closely as lawful or practicable, those utilized in the administration of part I of chapter 212 and that the comptroller, state revenue commission or other agency or board collecting the tax hereunder shall have available under this act every means of enforcement available under part I of chapter 212.

(3) The provisions of §§212.07(2)(3)(4);

212.09(1) and (2); 212.10(1)-(4); 212.11(1); 212.12(1)-(8); 212.13(1)-(4); 212.14(1)-(6); 212.15(1)-(5); 212.151; 212.16(1)-(13); 212.17(1)-(4); 212.18(1)-(4); 212.19; and 212.20(2), as far as lawful or practicable, shall be applicable to the tax herein levied and imposed and the collection thereof, as if fully set out in this act, provided:

(a) That the term tangible personal property used therein shall be understood to include fishing, hunting, camping, swimming and diving equipment;

(b) That no provision of any such section shall apply if it conflicts with any provision of part II of this chapter;

(c) That the term comptroller used therein shall be deemed to mean the state revenue commission or any other agency or board succeeding to the duties of the comptroller under part I of chapter 212 at and after the time of any such succession;

(d) The term retail sales or sale at retail used therein shall be understood to include sale at wholesale;

(e) Any term used therein which is defined in part II of this chapter shall be deemed to have the meaning ascribed to it in part II of this chapter.

(f) Part II of this chapter shall not apply to nets and seines, and gear attached to or used directly in connection with same, used for commercial production of fish and other marine life, and such nets and gear are exempted from the payment of the tax herein proposed.

History.—§6, ch. 63-527.

212.56 Earmarking of tax.—The comptroller, or the state revenue commission or other agency collecting the tax hereunder, shall pay to the treasurer all sums collected hereunder for deposit in the land acquisition trust fund. Such sums so deposited may be used for any purposes for which funds deposited in the land acquisition trust fund may lawfully be used, and may be used to pay the cost of the collection and enforcement of the tax imposed and levied herein; provided that not exceeding twenty per cent of all funds collected under part II of this chapter shall be used for research and capital outlay for research relating to recreational and commercial salt water fisheries and fishing.

History.—§7, ch. 63-527.

212.57 Exemptions.—All sales at wholesale, or use or storage by the United States, the state or any county, municipality, or other political subdivision thereof, churches or religious institutions, nonprofit educational institutions, or nonprofit charitable institutions in the course of their nonprofit educational, religious, or charitable activities, shall be exempt from any tax under part II of this chapter.

History.—§8, ch. 63-527.

212.58 Penalty.—Violation of any provision of part II of this chapter shall constitute a misdemeanor, and shall be punished as provided by law.

History.—§9, ch. 63-527.

215.01 Fiscal year.—The fiscal year shall begin on the first day of July and end on the thirtieth day of June in each and every year.

History.—§5, ch. 515, 1853; RS 405; GS 597; RGS 1032; §1, ch. 10124, 1925; §1, ch. 10130, 1925; CGL 1343.

215.02 Manner of paying money into the treasury.—Whenever any officer of this state or other person desires to pay any money into the treasury of the state on account of his indebtedness to the state, he shall first go into the comptroller's office, and there ascertain from the comptroller's books the amount of his indebtedness to the state, and thereupon the comptroller shall give him a memorandum or certificate of the amount of such indebtedness, and on what account. Second, he shall take said certificate with him to the treasurer's office and deliver the same to the treasurer, and pay over to the treasurer the amount called for in said certificate. Third, the treasurer shall receive the money, make a proper entry thereof, file the comptroller's certificate, and give a certificate to the party paying over the money, acknowledging the receipt of the money, and on what account; which certificate thus received from the treasurer, the party shall return to the comptroller's office, on receipt of which the comptroller shall give the party a receipt for the amount, and enter a credit on the party's account in his books for the amount thus paid by him to the treasurer, and file the treasurer's certificate received.

215.03 Party to be reimbursed on reversal of judgment for state.—Whenever upon appeal in civil cases, any judgment in favor of the state has been or shall be reversed and set aside, which may have been paid in part by the appellant, the comptroller shall issue his warrant upon the treasurer to reimburse the appellant for all sums paid in discharge of such judgment and cost, provided the appellant shall adduce satisfactory evidence to the comptroller of the sums paid as aforesaid.

History.—§1, ch. 723, 1855; CS 615; RGS 1051; CGL 1362; §21, ch. 63-559.

215.04 Comptroller to report delinquents.—

The comptroller shall report to the state attorney of the proper circuit the name of any delinquent officer whose delinquency concerns the financial department of the government, so soon as such delinquency shall occur; and the state attorney shall proceed forthwith against such delinquent.

History.—§4, Mar. 4, 1839; RS 407; GS 599; RGS 1034; CGL 1345.

215.05 Comptroller to certify accounts of delinquents.—When any revenue officer or other person accountable for public money shall neglect or refuse to pay into the treasury the sum or balance reported to be due to the state, upon the adjustment of his account, the comptroller shall immediately hand over to the state attorney of the proper circuit the statement of the sum or balance certified under his hand and seal of office, so due; and the state attorney shall institute suit for the recovery of the same, adding to the sum or balance stated to be due on such account the commissions of the delinquent, which shall be forfeited in every instance where suit is commenced and judgment is obtained thereon, and an interest of eight per cent per annum from the time of the delinquent's receiving the money until it shall be paid into the state treasury.

History.—§1, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 408; GS 600; RGS 1035; CGL 1346.

215.06 Certified accounts of delinquents as evidence.—In every case of delinquency, where suit has been or shall be instituted, the certified statement provided for in §215.05, shall be admitted as evidence and shall be prima facie proof of the facts therein stated. All copies of bonds, contracts, or other papers relating to or connected with the settlement of any account between the state and an individual, when certified as aforesaid to be true copies of the original, may be annexed to such statement aforesaid, and shall have equal validity and be entitled to the same degree of credit which would be due to the original papers if produced and authenticated in court; provided, where suit is brought upon a bond or other sealed instrument, and the defendant shall plead non est factum, or upon motion to the court, such plea or motion being verified by the oath of the defendant, it is lawful for the court to take the same into consideration, and, if it shall appear necessary for the attainment of justice, to require the production of the original bond, contract, or other paper specified in such affidavit.

History.—§2, Feb. 10, 1832; RS 409; GS 601; RGS 1036; CGL 1347.

215.07 Preference of state in case of insolvency.—When any revenue officer or other person now indebted or hereafter becoming indebted to the state, by bond or otherwise, shall become insolvent, or when the estate of any deceased debtor in the hands of executors or administrators shall not be sufficient to pay all the debt due from the deceased, the debt due to the state shall be first satisfied; and the priority established shall be deemed to extend as well to cases in which a debtor, not having sufficient property to pay all his debts, shall make a voluntary assignment thereof, or in which the estate and effects of an absconding, concealed or absent debtor shall be attached by process of law, as to cases in which the party shall be insolvent.

215.08 Delinquent collectors to be reported to state attorney.—The comptroller, the county judge, the chairman of the board of county commissioners and the members of the said board, representing the same, after sufficient time has expired to receive the reports required of the tax collector by law and they have not received them, or if the collector has failed to turn over money collected to either the proper state or county officer as provided by law, shall report the same to the state attorney of the circuit in which the collector resides; and the state attorney shall institute such proper proceedings, both civil and criminal, as are authorized by law; and the said state attorney shall, in case the said defaulting tax collector shall either attempt to collect taxes or perform any other act prohibited by law, or shall fail or refuse to deliver all the official tax rolls and books, with the statement required by law, to his successor or the person appointed by the governor to perform the duties appertaining to the office of the collector of any county in lieu of any such defaulting collector, apply in a summary way, by petition to the circuit court or to the judge thereof in vacation, of the proper county, for an order prohibiting and enjoining in the one case such defaulting collector from collecting or attempting to collect taxes, or performing any other act prohibited to him by law, and requiring him in the other case to deliver to his successor, or to the person appointed by the governor to perform his duties as aforesaid, all the official tax rolls and books, with the statement required by law; and the said court or judge in vacation may make such order and compel the performance of, or obedience to, such order by attachment and punishment as for a contempt of court.

History.—§3, ch. 1977, 1874; RS 411; GS 603; RGS 1038; CGL 1349.

215.09 Delinquent collectors; forfeiture of commissions.—For any failure on the part of any tax collector to make reports or to pay over any money as required by law, he shall forfeit for every week's delay one-fifth of his commissions, and if the delay extends beyond thirty days he shall forfeit all commissions on all amounts to which such failure applies, and all future commissions upon all collections to be made; provided, that the comptroller, for good cause shown him, may suspend the force and operation of this section with regard to such defaulting collector.

History.—§5, ch. 1977, 1874; RS 412; GS 604; RGS 1039; CGL 1350.

215.10 Delinquent collectors; suspension.—For a failure or refusal of any tax collector or other officer, whose duty it is to perform any act connected with the assessment or collection of taxes, to perform any duty or act, to make any return, or pay over any money required by law, the governor, by his written order, may suspend any such defaulting or non-complying collector or other officer from office, and from further acting in his office until his further order, but not beyond the adjournment of the next session of the senate; and appoint or designate some other person to perform and discharge all the duties of such collector or other officer, who shall discharge such duties until the further order of the governor, but not beyond the adjournment of the next session of the senate, and to whom the official tax rolls, books and statements as required by law shall be delivered.

History.—§4, ch. 1977, 1874; §15, art. IV, Florida constitution; RS 413; GS 605; RGS 1040; CGL 1351.

History.—§1, ch. 3854, 1889; RS 417; GS 606; RGS 1041; CGL 1352.

215.12 Defaulting officers; duty of clerk.—The clerk of the circuit court to whom any such statement shall be forwarded, shall file the same in his office, and within ten days thereafter shall furnish each of the sureties of such delinquent officer with an abstract of such statement, showing the amount of indebtedness of such delinquent officer to the state, and shall at the same time furnish the sureties with a statement showing his indebtedness to the county, if there be any.

History.—§2, ch. 3854, 1889; RS 418; GS 607; RGS 1042; CGL 1353.

215.15 School appropriations to have priority.—Appropriations, other than from the general revenue fund, made for school purposes under any statute or law, shall be payable out of the first funds available after payment of the salaries of public officers and other current expenses as hereinbefore provided, and the moneys for such appropriations shall be available as fast as they come in, without waiting for the whole amount of any such appropriation to be received into the treasury.

History.—§2, ch. 5603, 1907; §1, ch. 19001, 1939; RGS 1053; CGL 892(39), 1364.

215.16 School appropriations from general revenue fund.—All state appropriations, from the general revenue fund, for the benefit of the uniform system of public free schools and the state institutions of higher learning shall be on a parity with all other state appropriations for all other purposes from the general revenue fund; provided, that the appropriations by the legislature of the proceeds from specific tax levies set aside and earmarked for a particular purpose shall not be affected by this section.

If the state appropriations from the general revenue fund for the benefit of the uniform system of public free schools and the state institutions of higher learning cannot be paid in full during any given year, they shall be diminished only in the same proportion that appropriations for all other purposes from the general revenue fund are diminished during such year.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 19001, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(39), 892(40).

215.18 Transfers between funds; limitation.—Whenever there exists in any fund provided for by §215.32, a deficiency which would render such fund insufficient to meet its just requirements, and there shall exist in the other funds in the state treasury moneys which are for the time being or otherwise in excess of the amounts necessary to meet the just requirements of such last mentioned funds, the governor may, with the approval of the comptroller, order a temporary transfer of moneys from one fund to another in order to meet temporary deficiencies in a particular fund without resorting to the necessity of borrowing money and paying interest thereon; provided, that the fund from which any money is temporarily transferred, shall be repaid the amount transferred from it not later than the end of the fiscal year in which such transfer is made, the date of repayment to be specified in the order of the governor and approved by the comptroller.

History.—§2, ch. 12295, 1927; CGL 1365; §24, ch. 57-1; §1, ch. 59-82; §15, ch. 63-572.

215.19 Rate of wages for laborers, mechanics and apprentices employed on public works.—

(1) (a) Every contract in excess of five thousand dollars in amount to which the state, any county or municipality in the state, or any political subdivision of the state or other public agency or authority is a party which requires or involves the employment of free laborers, mechanics, or apprentices in the construction of any public building, or the prosecution and completion of any public work or for repairs upon any public building or public work, shall contain a provision that the rate of wages for all laborers, mechanics and apprentices, if such apprentices are available in the area in which the said public work is located, employed by any contractor or subcontractor on the work covered by the contract shall be not less than the prevailing rate of wages for similar skills or classification of work in the city, town, village or other civil division of the state in which the said public work is located, which provision shall refer to and incorporate this section in the contract by reference.

(b) The provisions of this section shall be called to the attention of all prospective bidders on public contracts of this nature by a notice in the specifications, and by the insertion in the specifications of a schedule of prevailing wage rates in the locality or area where the work is contemplated, furnished by the Florida industrial commission, and such schedule of prevailing wage rates shall for the purpose of the contract and for the duration of the contract be deemed the prevailing wage rates as contemplated by this section regardless of any previous or subsequent determination by the Florida industrial commission.

(c) Every request for payment made by the contractor on such work shall contain an affidavit by the contractor that all provisions of this section regarding apprentices and payment of wages have been complied with by him, and to the best of his knowledge and belief, by all his subcontractors, which affidavit shall be accompanied by like affidavits of all his subcontractors, but nothing herein shall be construed to make a contractor liable in any way for statements or misstatements contained in the affidavits of his subcontractors.

(d) Apprentices hereunder shall be persons defined as apprentices by §446.07 who shall be working under either an apprentice agreement registered and approved by the apprenticeship council as provided by §446.09(2) or an apprenticeship agreement of higher standards as provided in §446.13; provided, however, that the contractor or subcontractor shall file with the Florida industrial commission at Tallahassee, within fifteen days from the first date of employment, the name, classification and wage rate applicable to each apprentice employed by him or any subcontractor under him on such job.

(2) (a) The Florida industrial commission shall make a continuing study to determine the prevailing wage rates of laborers, mechanics and apprentices usually employed in work similar to that contemplated by this section to the various parts of the state, and shall furnish to any person, upon request, a schedule of applicable prevailing wage rates in the area where public work of similar character is in progress or contemplated.

(b) Every public contracting authority shall, when contemplating public work of the character described in subsection (1) hereof, and before publication of invitations to bid, notify the commission of the nature and magnitude of the work and its location.

(c) Any contracting authority who is a party to any contract as contemplated by this section, shall cause the schedule of prevailing wages required by subsection (1)(b) to be posted and permanently maintained throughout the job in a secure, protected, prominent place on the premises where the contract is being performed, and the contractor shall mail to the Florida industrial commission in Tallahassee an affidavit certifying that such notice has been posted and is being maintained on such job, which affidavit shall be forwarded within ten days of the commencement of work on the job and the posting of such notice. Such affidavit shall contain information identifying the job, the contractor, or subcontractor, the contracting authority, and the prevailing wage determination number applicable to such job.

(3) (a) If the contractor or subcontractor fails to comply with this section relative to the payment of prevailing wages, any aggrieved employee on behalf of himself, and other employees similarly aggrieved on the same job, shall make such fact known to the contracting authority, the contractor and/or subcontractor by written sworn affidavit signed by each such aggrieved employee setting forth the name of the employee or employees, the name of the alleged noncomplying contractor or subcontractor, the name of the contracting authority, a designation of the public work upon which such employees were employed, the employee's job classification, the number of hours each employee has been employed on the public work, the amount of wages paid the employees by the contractor or subcontractor, and the amount claimed by the employees to be due and unpaid by the contractor or subcontractor.

The affidavit hereinabove provided shall be filed with the contracting authority within thirty days from the last date of alleged non-compliance, and in no event shall such affidavit be filed more than thirty days after the completion and acceptance of the public work contracted for.

(b) After receipt of any such affidavit the contracting authority shall withhold from the contractor, until final determination of the claim, an amount of money equal to the amount claimed in such affidavit to be due and unpaid and the contracting authority shall forthwith attempt to settle the dispute between the contractor or subcontractor and the complaining employee and if the contracting authority is unable to effect such settlement the matter shall forthwith be referred by the contracting authority to the Florida industrial commission for determination. In all cases the said commission may make such investigation as it shall deem necessary. The decision of the commission shall be conclusive, upon all parties, subject to judicial review.

(c) All hearings (including taking testimony, receiving other evidence, and argument) necessary in such determination shall be held in the municipality where the work is done, or if not done in a municipality, then in the county where the work is done, unless another place is agreed upon by the parties in dispute, otherwise the commission may formulate its own rules for hearings. In the discharge of the duties imposed by this section the commission and any authorized representative of the commission shall have the power to administer oaths, take depositions, certify to official acts, and the commission shall have the power to issue subpoenas to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of such excerpts of payroll records as pertain to the wages only of each aggrieved employee and certificates issued in connection therewith which are material and relevant to an affidavit filed under subsection (3) (a) of this section, for review by the commission without disclosing the remainder of such payroll records in connection with any authorized investigation or hearing required by this section, provided that all information and evidence including affidavits, certificates, testimony or other documents, which are obtained by the commission pursuant to this section shall be deemed to be privileged and shall not be made the subject matter or basis of any suit for slander or libel but may be considered only by the commission to the extent necessary for a proper determination of the issues involved. Any circuit court of this state within the jurisdiction of which such hearing or inquiry is carried on or within the jurisdiction of which any person who has refused to comply with a duly authorized subpoena of the commission resides, or transacts business, upon application of the commission or any authorized representative of the commission, shall have jurisdiction to issue to such person an order requiring such person to appear before the commission or its authorized representative, there to produce evidence if so ordered or to give testimony touching on the matter under investigation or in question, and any failure to obey such order of the court may be punished by said court as contempt thereof.

(d) Upon settlement of the dispute by the contracting authority or upon determination of the matter by the Florida industrial commission the contracting authority shall pay to the complaining employee such amount as shall be found to be due said employee and shall pay to the contractor the balance of the monies withheld as herein above provided.

(e) The contracting authority on its own initiative or upon the written complaint of any aggrieved party, may initiate its own investigation to determine whether any contractor or subcontractor has failed to comply with the provisions of this section, and upon the basis of its findings as a result of its determination shall withhold from the contractor or subcontractor until final determination of the claim by the Florida industrial commission any amounts which it finds to be due any employee of the contractor or any of his subcontractors on such job, who has been paid less than the prevailing wages for the classification of services performed by him as prescribed in the wage determination, and shall pay such amount to such employee and deduct it from the total due the contractor.

(4) Nothing in this section shall apply to contracts for the construction, repair or maintenance of public roads or highways, except that all its provisions shall apply to contracts for the construction of bridges on public roads and highways, where the contract price for such construction shall exceed fifty thousand dollars or such bridge shall be located in a large metropolitan area; provided, however, that the provisions of this section shall not be applicable to any construction or contracts for public works with respect to which prevailing wage rates are required to be established pursuant to federal authority. The words "metropolitan area" are defined for the purpose of this section as any county in Florida having a population of one hundred thousand according to the last preceding state or federal census.

(5) The Florida industrial commission shall not take into consideration either in establishing prevailing wage rates or classifications or in hearing disputes in regard to prevailing wage rates or classifications; conditions, classifications or wage rates in any area outside the geographic limits of the state.

(6) In case of a state of emergency, the governor may suspend the provisions of this section.

(7) The Florida industrial commission shall include in its legislative budget request the estimated amounts needed for the purpose of administering the provisions of this section and the legislature shall appropriate such amounts as it deems necessary for this purpose.

(8) Any contractor or subcontractor who knowingly violates any provision of this subsection or any lawful order or rule of the contracting authority or of the Florida industrial commission authorized by this section and for which no other penalty is specifically prescribed, shall upon conviction thereof in a court of competent jurisdiction be subject to punishment by such court by a fine of not less than $100.00 nor more than $1,000.00, or by imprisonment for not longer than 60 days, or by both such fine and imprisonment.

History.—§1, ch. 16300, 1933; §1, ch. 16301, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1365(5), §1, ch. 28264, 1953; §1, ch. 29782, 1955; (2) §1, ch. 57-339; (3) §1, ch. 57-755; (7)n. §2, ch. 57-339; (2)(c) n. §1, (3)(a), (3)(c) §§2, 3, ch. 59-347; (4) §1, ch. 59-159; (7) §1, ch. 61-27; §1, ch. 63-380.

215.20 Certain moneys and certain trust funds to contribute to the general revenue fund.—A deduction of four per cent, representing the estimated pro rata share of the cost of general government paid from the general revenue fund, shall be made from the moneys and trust funds enumerated in §215.22. The deduction shall be as provided in §215.22. All such deductions shall be deposited in the general revenue fund.

History.—§2, ch. 20890, 1941; §1, ch. 61-493; §1, ch. 63-567.

215.22 Certain moneys and certain trust funds enumerated.—The following described moneys and trust funds, by whatever name designated, shall be those from which the deductions authorized by §215.20 shall be made:

(2) The seventh cent additional tax upon gasoline or other like products of petroleum levied pursuant to the provisions of §208.44.

(3) The stored motor fuels tax levied pursuant to the provisions of §208.23.

(4) All taxes levied on motor fuels other than gasoline, exclusive of two cents of said tax, levied pursuant to the provisions of §209.02.

(5) The trust funds of the examining and licensing boards as defined in §215.37, unless a different percentage is authorized in the aforesaid section.

(6) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the general inspection trust fund and subsidiary accounts thereof, unless a different percentage is authorized in §570.20.

(7) All income of a revenue nature received by the state racing commission.

(8) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the Florida citrus advertising trust fund created in §601.15(7), including transfers from any subsidiary accounts thereof, unless a different percentage is authorized in the aforesaid section.

(9) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the special disability trust fund created in §440.15(5)(d) 7.a.

(10) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the workmen's compensation administration trust fund created in §440.50(1)(a).

(11) All transfers to the special employment security administration trust fund created in §443.14(2).

(12) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the employment security administration trust fund created in §443.14(1).

(13) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the municipal firemen's pension trust fund created in §175.07.

(14) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the municipal police officers' retirement trust fund created in §185.10.

(15) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the liquefied petroleum gas administrative trust fund created in §527.02.

(16) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the state fire marshal trust fund named in §624.0314.

(17) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the insurance commissioner's miscellaneous service trust fund created in §624.0324.

(18) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the insurance commissioner's license receipts trust fund created in §624.0323.

(19) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the insurance commissioner's automobile warranty administration trust fund created in §634.221.

(20) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the educational certification and service trust fund created in §231.30.

(23) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the internal improvement trust fund created in §253.01.

(24) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the Florida alcoholic rehabilitation trust fund created in §396.121.

(25) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the revenue bond fee trust fund created in §288.20.

(26) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the airport operations trust fund authorized in §288.25.

(27) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the motorboating revolving trust fund created in §371.171.

(28) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the state game trust fund established in §372.09.

(29) All income derived from outdoor advertising and overweight violations which is deposited in the state roads trust fund created in §208.08.

(30) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the milk commission trust fund established in §501.09.

(31) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the Florida egg commission trust fund established in §504.12.

(32) All income of a revenue nature deposited in the agents and solicitors county license tax trust fund established in §624.0304, unless a different percentage is authorized in the aforesaid section.

(33) The motor carrier mileage tax levied pursuant to the provisions of chapter 323, unless a different percentage is authorized in the aforesaid chapter.

The enumeration of the above moneys or trust funds shall not prohibit the applicability thereto of §215.24 should the governor determine that for the reasons mentioned in said §215.24 said money or trust fund should be exempt herefrom, as it is the purpose of this law to exempt all trust funds from its force and effect where, by the operation of this law, federal matching funds or contributions to any trust fund would be lost to the state.

History.—§4, ch. 20890, 1941; §2, ch. 61-493; (21) r. §16, ch. 63-572; (33) §2, ch. 63-496.

215.23 When contributions to be made.—The deduction hereby required shall be paid into the general revenue fund by the comptroller or by the state treasurer, as the case may be, for quarterly periods ending March 31, June 30, September 30, and December 31 of each year, and when so paid into the general revenue fund shall thereupon become a part of said fund to be accounted for and disbursed as provided by law with respect to the general revenue fund.

History.—§5, ch. 20890, 1941.

215.24 Exemptions where federal contributions.—

(1) Should any state fund be the recipient of federal contributions, either by the matching of state funds or by a general donation to state funds, and the payment of monies into the general revenue fund under this law should cause such fund to lose federal assistance, the governor shall certify to the comptroller and to the state treasurer that said fund is for that reason exempt from the force and effect of this law.

(2) Should it be determined by the governor that by reason of payments already made into the general revenue fund by any fund under this law, such fund is subject to the loss of federal assistance, then the governor shall certify to the comptroller and to the state treasurer that such fund is exempt from the provisions of this law, and the comptroller or the state treasurer, as the case may be, shall thereupon refund and pay over to such fund any amount or amounts previously paid into the general revenue fund by such fund.

History.—§6, ch. 20690, 1941; (3) r. §5, ch. 61-493.

215.25 Manner of contributions; rules and regulations.—The comptroller and the state treasurer are hereby authorized to ascertain and determine the manner in which the required amounts shall be deducted and paid and to adopt and effectuate such rules and procedure as may be necessary for carrying out the provisions of this law. Such rules and procedure shall be approved by the budget commission.

History.—§7, ch. 20890, 1941.

215.26 Repayment of funds paid into state treasury through error, etc.—

(1) The comptroller of the state may refund to the person who paid same, or his heirs, personal representatives or assigns, any moneys paid into the state treasury which constitute:

(a) An overpayment of any tax, license or account due;

(b) A payment where no tax, license or account is due; and

(c) Any payment made into the state treasury in error;

and if any such payment has been credited to an appropriation, such appropriation shall at the time of making any such refund, be charged therewith. There are appropriated from the proper respective funds from time to time such sums as may be necessary for such refunds.

(2) Application for refunds as provided by this section shall be filed with the comptroller within three years after the right to such refund shall have accrued else such right shall be barred and such application shall be on a form to be prescribed by the comptroller and shall be sworn to and supplemented with such additional proof as is necessary to establish such claim; provided, such claim is not otherwise barred under the laws of this state.

(3) No refund of moneys referred to in this section shall be made of an amount which is less than one dollar, except upon application.

History.—§1, ch. 22008, 1943; (2) §14, ch. 57-1; (3) n. §1, ch. 57-18; (2) §1, ch. 59-181; (2) §1, ch. 63-271.
cf.—§95.37 Limitation on claims against state.

215.28 Defense stamps and war bonds, purchase by state and county officers and employees; deductions from salary.—

(1) Upon the request in writing, signed by any officer or employee of the state, or of any county, or other political subdivision or subordinate agency of the state or any county, any officer or employee who acts as disbursing agent for the payment of salaries and wages is hereby authorized and empowered to deduct from the salary or wages of such officer or employee, periodically, such sum as authorized by such written application, for the purchase of United States securities.

(2) The participation in such pay-roll deduction plan by any officer or employee shall be entirely voluntary at all times, and any officer or employee may from time to time increase or decrease the amount to be so deducted, or cancel his pay-roll deduction authorization, or change the form of registration for securities to be purchased.

(3) All deductions so made by any such disbursing authority shall be deposited in a trust account separate and apart from the funds of the state, county or subordinate agency. Such account will be subject to withdrawal only for the purchase of United States securities on behalf of officers and employees, or for refunds to such persons in accordance with the provisions of this law. Whenever the sum of eighteen dollars and seventy-five cents or the purchase price of the security requested to be purchased is accumulated from deductions so made from the salaries or wages of an officer or employee, such disbursing agent shall arrange the purchase of the bond or security applied for and have it registered in the name or names requested in the deduction authorization. Securities so purchased will be delivered in such manner as may be convenient for the issuing agent and the purchaser.

(4) Upon request, the disbursing agent will advise the officer or employee of the amount accumulated in his account for the purchase of United States securities. A periodic statement showing amounts accumulated to the credit of the officer or employee need not be issued.

(5) When an officer or employee leaves the service of the state, county or subordinate governmental agency, the pay-roll deduction authorization will be canceled automatically and any amount credited to the officer or employee's account shall immediately be refunded and paid to the officer or employee entitled to receive the same. In case of death of an officer or employee, the pay-roll deduction authorization will be canceled automatically and any amount to the credit of the officer or employee's account will be paid immediately to the surviving spouse, children or parents of the officer or employee, according to and as provided by §§222.15 and 222.16.

(6) The disbursing agent is authorized to promulgate such reasonable rules and regulations with reference to the handling of such pay-roll deduction plan as will promote the purposes thereof and as shall most conveniently meet the facilities of the office of such disbursing agent.

History.—§§1-6, ch. 21794, 1943.

215.29 Classification of comptroller's warrants; report.—All disbursements made by the state upon comptroller's warrants countersigned by the governor shall be classified according to officers, offices, bureaus, divisions, boards, commissions, institutions, or other agencies and undertakings and shall be further classified according to personal services, contractual services, commodities, current charges, current obligations, capital outlays, debt payments, investments, and such additional classifications as may be prescribed or authorized by law; and such detail classifications shall be printed in the comptroller's annual reports.

History.—§1, ch. 22901, 1945.

215.31 State funds; deposit in state treasury.—From and after June 30, 1945, revenue, including licenses, fees, imposts, or exactions collected or received under the authority of the laws of the state by each and every state official, office, employee, bureau, division, board, commission, institution, agency or undertaking of the state shall be promptly deposited in the state treasury, and immediately credited to the appropriate fund as herein provided, properly accounted for by the comptroller as to source and no money shall be paid from the state treasury except as appropriated and provided by the biennial general appropriations act, or as otherwise provided by law.

History.—§2, ch. 22833, 1945.

215.311 State funds; exceptions.—The provisions of §215.31, shall not apply to funds collected by and under the direction and supervision of the Florida council for the blind as provided under §§413.011, 413.041 and 413.051; provided, nothing in this section shall be construed to except from the provisions of §215.31, any appropriations made by the state to the Florida council for the blind.

History.—§1, ch. 29872, 1955.

215.32 State funds; segregation.—

(1) All moneys received by the state shall be deposited in the state treasury unless specifically provided otherwise by law and shall be deposited in and accounted for by the state treasurer and the comptroller within the following funds, which funds are hereby created and established:

- (a) General revenue fund,
- (b) Trust funds, and
- (c) Working capital fund.

(2) The source and use of each of the aforesaid funds shall be as follows:

(a) The general revenue fund shall consist of all moneys received by the state from every source whatsoever, except as provided in paragraphs (b) and (c) of this subsection. Said moneys shall be expended pursuant to general revenue fund appropriations acts or transferred as provided in paragraph (c) of this subsection.

(b) The trust funds shall consist of moneys required by law to be deposited in a trust fund or moneys of a trust nature received by the state. Such moneys shall be properly accounted for and held in such trust funds until disbursed as provided by law or as provided in the trust provisions under which such moneys are received.

(c) The working capital fund shall consist of not more than fifty million dollars which shall be accrued from moneys in the general revenue fund which are in excess of the amount needed to meet the general revenue fund appropriation acts as determined by the comptroller; said moneys shall be used as a revolving fund for transfers as provided by §215.18, and when the comptroller determines that said moneys are not needed for that purpose they may be temporarily invested as provided in §§215.44-215.54; provided, however, the requirement of §215.18 relating to repayment of said transfers in the same fiscal year in which the transfer is made is hereby suspended for the biennial period beginning July 1, 1961 and ending June 30, 1963 insofar as it relates to repayments of transfers from the working capital fund during the 1961-63 biennium.

History.—§3, ch. 22833, 1945; (5) §1, ch. 59-91; §2, ch. 59-257; §1, ch. 61-119.

215.34 State funds; noncollectible items; procedure.—Any check, draft, or other order for the payment of money in payment of any licenses, fees, taxes, commissions or charges of any sort authorized to be made under the laws of the state and deposited in the state treasury as provided herein, which may be returned for any reason by the bank upon which same shall have been drawn shall be forthwith returned by the state treasurer for collection to the state officer or the state agency making the deposit. In such case, the treasurer is hereby authorized to issue a debit memorandum charging the proper fund or account to which same shall have been originally credited and shall send a copy of said debit memorandum to the state agency making the deposit and to the comptroller stating his reasons for returning the said check, draft, or other order. Such procedure for handling noncollectible items shall not be construed as paying funds out of the state treasury without an appropriation, but shall be considered as an administrative procedure for the efficient handling of state records and accounts.

History.—§5, ch. 22833, 1945.

215.35 State funds; warrants and their issuance.—All warrants issued by the comptroller shall be numbered in chronological order commencing with number one in each fiscal year and each warrant shall refer to the comptroller's voucher by the number thereof, which voucher shall also be numbered as above set forth. Each warrant shall state the name of the payee thereof and the amount allowed, and said warrant shall be stated in words at length. No warrant shall issue until same has been authorized by an appropriation made by law but such warrant need not state or set forth such authorization. The comptroller shall register each warrant in his office. The warrants shall be coded to show the fund, account, purpose and department involved in the issuance of such warrant. In those instances where the expenditure of funds of regulatory boards or commissions has been provided for by laws other than the biennial appropriation bill, warrants shall issue upon requisition to the state comptroller by the governing body of such board or commission.

History.—§6, ch. 22833, 1945.
cf.—A9 S4 Money drawn from treasury.

215.36 State funds; laws not repealed.—Nothing in §§215.30-215.36 shall be construed as repealing §§215.20 to 215.25, inclusive, or as affecting the proceeds of two cents per gallon of the total tax levied by state law upon gasoline and other like products of petroleum now known as the second gas tax, and upon other fuels used to propel motor vehicles, placed in the state treasury and divided and distributed as required by §16 of Art. IX of the constitution of this state.

History.—§7, ch. 22833, 1945.

215.37 Examining and licensing boards to be financed from fees collected; moneys deposited in trust funds; ten per cent to general revenue fund; appropriation.—

(1) For the purposes of this section examining and licensing boards shall include: state board of accountancy, Florida state board of architecture, barbers' sanitary commission, board of examiners in the basic sciences, state board of beauty culture, board of chiroprody examiners, board of chiropractic examiners, Florida state board of dental examiners, Florida state board of engineer examiners, state board of funeral directors and embalmers, Florida board of massage, state board of medical examiners, state board of naturopathic examiners, Florida state board of nursing, state board of dispensing opticians, Florida state board of optometry, state board of osteopathic examiners, Florida board of pharmacy, Florida state board of examiners of psychology, Florida real estate commission, sanitarians registration board, structural pest control commission of Florida, state board of veterinary examiners, and Florida watchmakers' commission.

(2) All fees, licenses, and other charges collected by each examining and licensing board, shall be deposited in the state treasury into a separate trust fund to the credit of the individual board collecting same.

(3) Each board shall be financed solely and individually from income accruing to it from fees, licenses, and other charges collected by the board, and all such moneys are hereby appropriated to each such board. All salaries and expenses shall be paid as budgeted after said budgets have been approved by the state budget commission or within the limitations of any appropriation for that purpose which may be included in the general appropriations act.

(4) Each board shall be charged ten per cent of all revenue collections (excluding refunds, grants, donations, etc.) made and credited to its account. The amount so charged shall be deposited in the general revenue fund.

(5) Each board shall submit a biennial legislative budget and operating budgets as required of all governmental subdivisions in chapters 215 and 216, to be based upon anticipated revenues together with any unexpended balance of moneys which may accrue to the credit of the particular board. Such budgets shall be subject to appropriate legislative action.

(6) Each board shall operate financially within the budget approved by the state budget commission and all disbursements shall be made by the comptroller only as provided by law for all agencies of government.

(7) It is the intent and purpose of the legislature to place all examining and licensing boards under strict budgetary control and to determine the policy of budgeting all collections and expenditures of moneys collected through examining and licensing laws and to be used by the boards for enforcement and administrative purposes.

History.—§8, ch. 28115, §3, ch. 28231, 1953; (5) §24, ch. 57-1; (5) §13, ch. 59-1; §1, ch. 61-514.
cf.—§216.211 Appropriations, maximum; adjustment of budgets.

215.42 Purchases from appropriations, proof of delivery.—The state comptroller may require proof, as he deems necessary, of delivery and receipt of purchases before honoring any voucher for payment from appropriations made in the general appropriations act or otherwise provided by law.

History.—§20, ch. 28115, §14, ch. 28231, 1953.

215.43 Public bonds, notes, and other securities.—

(1) DEFINITIONS.—As used in this section, the following words and term shall have the following meanings:

(a) The word "unit" shall mean any department, board, commission or other agency of Florida, or any county, city, town, village, district or any other political subdivision of the state, heretofore or hereafter created or established, or any board, commission, authority or other public agency or instrumentality which is now or may hereafter be authorized by law to issue bonds.

(b) The term "governing body" shall mean the officer or officers, or the department, board, body, council, commission, authority or other agency which is authorized by law to take the proceedings which are required to authorize or to provide for the issuance of bonds.

(c) The word "bonds" shall include all bonds, notes, certificates and other similar obligations and securities of a unit whether payable in whole or in part from the proceeds of ad valorem taxes, revenues or any other source.

(2) EXECUTION OF PUBLIC SECURITIES.—Any bonds heretofore or hereafter authorized to be issued by any unit under the provisions of any general, special or local law heretofore or hereafter enacted and any interest coupons attached thereto may, if so authorized by the governing body of such unit, bear or be executed with the facsimile signature of any official authorized by such law to sign or to execute such bonds or coupons; provided, however, that each such bond shall be manually signed by at least one official of such unit. In case any such law shall provide for the sealing of such bonds with the official or corporate seal of such unit or of its governing body or any official thereof, a facsimile of such seal may be imprinted on the bonds if so authorized by the governing body of such unit, and it shall not be necessary in such case to impress such seal physically upon such bonds.

In case any officer whose signature or a facsimile of whose signature shall appear on any bonds or coupons shall cease to be such officer before the delivery of such bonds, such signature or such facsimile shall nevertheless be valid and sufficient for all purposes the same as if he had remained in office until such delivery, and any bond may bear the facsimile signature of, or may be signed by, such persons as at the actual time of the execution of such bond shall be the proper officers to sign such bond although at the date of such bond such persons may not have been such officers.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 57-763.

215.431 Issuance of bond anticipation notes.

—Each of the counties, school boards, districts, authorities and municipalities in the state shall have power, at any time and from time to time after the issuance of bonds thereof shall have been authorized, whether such bonds be general, special, revenue or other obligations of such county, school board, district, authority, or municipality, and, if the approval of such bonds at an election is required after the holding of such election, to borrow money for the purposes for which such bonds are to be issued in anticipation of the receipt of the proceeds of the sale of such bonds and within the authorized maximum amount of such bond issue. Any such loan shall be paid within three years after the date on which the issuance of such bonds shall have been authorized or, if such bonds shall have been approved at an election, within five years after the date on which such election shall have been held. Bond anticipation notes shall be issued for all moneys borrowed under the provisions of this law, and such notes may be renewed from time to time, but all such notes shall mature within the time above limited for the payment of the original loan. Such notes shall be authorized by resolution of the governing body of the issuer and shall be in such denomination or denominations, shall bear interest at such rate or rates not exceeding the maximum rate permitted by law or by the resolution or ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds, whichever shall be the lesser, shall be in such form and shall be executed in such manner, all as such governing body shall prescribe. Such notes may be sold at either public or private sale or, if such notes shall be renewal notes, they may be exchanged for notes then outstanding on such terms as the governing body shall determine. The governing body may, in its discretion, retire any such notes by means of current revenues, in lieu of retiring them by means of bonds, provided, however, that before the retirement of such notes by any means other than the issuance of bonds it shall amend or repeal the resolution or ordinance authorizing the issuance of the bonds in anticipation of the proceeds of the sale of which such notes shall have been issued so as to reduce the authorized amount of the bond issue by the amount of the notes so retired. Such amendatory or repealing resolution or ordinance shall take effect upon its passage and need not be published. All powers and rights conferred by this law shall be in addition to and supplemental to those conferred by any other general or special law and shall be liberally construed to effectuate the purposes hereof.

History.—§1, ch. 59-127.

215.44 Board of administration; powers and duties in relation to investment of funds of state agencies.—

(1) Except where otherwise specifically provided by the state constitution, the state board of administration, hereinafter sometimes referred to as "board", composed of the governor as chairman, the state treasurer, and the state comptroller, shall have and exercise all the rights, powers, jurisdiction, duties, privileges and authority heretofore vested by law in any state department, agency, institution, or officer relating to the investment or reinvestment of moneys and the purchase, sale or exchange of any investments or securities of or for any investment funds or investment accounts under the control and management of such departments, agencies, institutions or officers, and required by law to be deposited with the state treasurer.

(2) The board shall have the power to make purchases, sales, exchanges, investments and reinvestments for and on behalf of any of the funds or accounts referred to in subsection (1), and it shall be the duty of the board to see that moneys invested under the provisions of §§215.44-215.54 are at all times handled in the best interests of the state.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 57-353.

215.45 Sale and exchange of securities.—Securities or investments purchased or held under the provisions of this chapter may be sold or exchanged for other securities or investments; provided, however, that no sale or exchange shall be at a price less than the market price of the securities or investments to be sold or exchanged unless such sale or exchange has received the unanimous approval of the board.

History.—§3, ch. 57-353.

215.46 Collection of defaulted investments.—In the event of default in the payment of principal of, or interest on, any investments made, the attorney general, upon request of the board, is authorized to institute the proper proceedings to collect such matured principal or interest, and may, with the approval of the board, accept proposals for the exchange of bonds for refunding bonds or other evidences of indebtedness at interest rates to be agreed upon with the obligor, and to make such compromises, adjustments, or disposition of interest or defaulted principal, or to make such compromises or adjustments as to future payments of interest or principal, as deemed advisable for the purposes of protecting the funds invested.

History.—§4, ch. 57-353.

215.47 Investments; authorized securities.—Moneys available for investment under §§215.44-215.54 may be invested in the following types of securities and in no other:

(1) Without limitation in:

(a) Florida county road and bridge bonds issued on or before July 1, 1931, or refunding issues thereof, which are administered by the state board of administration and are commonly referred to as SBA bonds.

(b) School bonds of the state board of education, issued pursuant to §18 of Art. XII of the Florida constitution.

(c) Bonds of the several counties or districts in Florida containing a pledge of the full faith and credit of the county or district involved.

(d) Bonds of the Florida state improvement commission and the Florida development commission containing a pledge of the eighty per cent surplus two cents gasoline tax accruing under the provisions of §16 of Art. IX of the Florida constitution.

(e) Bonds, notes, or other obligations guaranteed by the United States.

(2) Not more than ten per cent of any particular fund in any one of the following six types of securities, based upon the par value of securities in the particular fund and not upon the principal amount of the fund:

(a) Bonds, notes, or obligations of any municipal or political subdivision or any agency or authority of this state, issued pursuant to a law of this state; provided that the issuer has not, within ten years prior to the making of the investment, been in default for more than three months in the payment of any part of the principal or interest on any debt evidenced by its bonds, notes, or obligations; and provided, further, if the bonds are city, county, agency, authority or utility district revenue bonds, the revenues of which, other than for payment of operation and maintenance expenses, are pledged wholly to the payment of the interest and principal of such indebtedness, and the project has been completely self-supporting from such pledged revenue sources for a period of five years next preceding the date of investment.

(b) Bonds, debentures, or other obligations issued by a federal land bank, or by a federal intermediate credit bank, under the act of congress of July 17, 1916, known as the "federal farm loan act," as amended or supplemented from time to time.

(c) Bonds, debentures, or other obligations issued by any mortgage association under the act of congress of June 27, 1934, known as the "national housing act," as amended or supplemented from time to time.

(d) Obligations of any state or municipal authority issued pursuant to the laws of this state; provided, however, that for each of the five years next preceding the date of investment the income of such authority available for fixed charges shall have been not less than one and one-fifth times its average annual fixed charges requirements over the life of such obligations.

(e) Savings share accounts of any savings and loan association incorporated under the laws of this state or in savings share accounts of any federal savings and loan associations situated in this state, to the extent that such investments are insured by the federal government or an agency thereof.

(f) Savings accounts of any bank incorporated under the laws of this state or in any national bank organized under the laws of the United States doing business and situated in this state, to the extent that such investments are insured by the federal government or an agency thereof.

(3) Not more than thirty per cent of any fund to June 30, 1964, and not more than thirty-five per cent of any fund, thereafter, based upon the par value of securities in the particular fund and not upon the principal amount of the fund, in interest bearing obligations with a fixed maturity of any corporation within the United States, if such obligations are rated by at least two nationally recognized rating services in any one of the three highest classifications approved by the comptroller of the currency for the investment of the funds of national banks; provided, however, that if only one nationally recognized rating service shall rate such obligations, then such rating service shall have rated such obligations in any one of the two highest classifications heretofore mentioned.

History.—§5, ch. 57-353; (3) n. §1, ch. 61-462; (2) §1, ch. 63-341; (3) §1, ch. 63-446.

215.48 Consent and ratification of appropriate board or agency.—By and with the consent and approval of any constitutional board or agency now having the constitutional power to make investments, and in accordance with the provisions of §§215.44-215.54, the board shall have the power to make purchases, sales, exchanges, investments and reinvestments for and on behalf of any such board or agency for subsequent ratification thereof by such board or agency.

History.—§6, ch. 57-353.

215.49 Making funds available for investment.—It shall be the duty of each department, agency, institution or officer now or hereafter charged with the administration of the investment funds referred to in §215.44 to make such moneys available for investment as fully as is consistent with the cash requirements of the particular fund. Monthly and more often as circumstances require, such official or agency shall notify the state board of administration of the amount available for investment, and the investment shall be made by the board, and paid for by the state treasurer upon order of the comptroller countersigned by the governor, or as may be otherwise provided by law. Such notification shall include the name and number of the fund for which the investments are to be made, and of the life of the investment if the principal sum is subsequently to be required for meeting obligations; provided, however, that nothing herein shall be construed as legislative intent to make available for investment any funds other than those designated as investment funds referred to in §215.44.

It shall also be the duty of each department, agency, institution or official referred to in §215.44, to furnish the board as of August 1, 1957, an inventory of all securities in the particular fund, together with such additional information as may be requested by the board.

History.—§7, ch. 57-353.

215.50 Custody of securities purchased; interest, etc.—

(1) All securities purchased or held shall be in the custody of the state treasurer who may, with the approval of the board, deposit same with a bank or trust company to be held in safekeeping by such bank or trust company for collection of principal and interest, or of the proceeds of sale thereof.

(2) It shall be the duty of the state treasurer to collect the interest, or other income on, and the principal of such securities in his custody as the said sums become due and payable, and to pay the same, when so collected, into the fund to which the investments belong.

(3) Whenever a given investment is owned by two or more funds, the income shall be prorated in accordance with the ownership of the respective funds.

History.—§8, ch. 57-353.

215.51 Investment accounts; changes; notice, etc.—

(1) The board shall keep, for each fund for which investments are made, a separate account, to be designated by name and number, which shall record the individual amounts and the totals of all investments belonging to such fund. Every receipt and collection or disbursement when received or made shall be immediately reported to the board for recording to the particular fund to which it belongs.

(2) The board shall make written report monthly to each and every interested state official or agency the changes in investments made during the preceding month for their respective fund or funds, and, in addition, shall furnish the details on the investment transaction of any fund upon written request of such state official or agency or head thereof.

History.—§9, ch. 57-353.

215.52 Rules and regulations.—The board shall have power and authority to make reasonable rules and regulations necessary to carry out the provisions of §§215.44-215.54.

History.—§10, ch. 57-353.

215.53 Powers of existing officers, boards, and agencies not affected.—It is the intent of the legislature that transfer of the powers, duties and responsibilities of existing officers, boards and agencies made by §215.44-215.54 to the board shall include only the particular powers, duties and responsibilities hereby transferred, and all other existing powers shall in no way be affected by said sections. The powers, duties and responsibilities conferred by §§215.44-215.54 upon the board are additional and supplemental to the existing powers of the officers composing the said board.

History.—§11, ch. 57-353.

215.54 Fire insurance fund.—Sections 215.44-215.53 shall not apply to the state fire insurance trust fund as provided by §284.09.

History.—§13, ch. 57-353; §2, ch. 61-119.

215.55 Flood control trust fund; county distribution.—The funds collected and deposited in the flood control trust fund shall be distributed annually to the county in which the money is collected, as follows: Fifty per cent to the board of county commissioners and fifty per cent to the board of public instruction in such counties; provided, that all moneys accruing to Marion county hereunder shall be paid to the internal improvement commission until loan of six thousand dollars, now owed to said commission by Marion county, has been repaid in full; thereafter, all moneys accruing hereunder shall be paid as provided for other counties herein.

History.—§1, ch. 59-204; §2, ch. 61-119.

215.56 Bond review board; state board of administration.—

(1) There is hereby created a bond review board, whose membership shall consist of the governor, the comptroller and the treasurer of the state, the president of the Florida senate and one other member of the senate to be appointed by such president, the speaker of the house of representatives of Florida and one other member of such house to be appointed by the speaker. All such members shall serve during their tenure in such designated office except the member of the senate and the member of the house appointed by the president and speaker, respectively, whose term shall be for four years from date of appointment unless sooner terminated by failure to qualify as a member of the legislative branch from which appointed.

(2) The bond review board shall adopt rules and regulations prescribing for state agencies, boards, commissions and authorities the criteria which shall govern such agencies, boards, commissions and authorities in the preparation and submission of proposed bond issues and revenue certificates to the bond review board for their approval or disapproval. These criteria shall establish limits on interest rates and interest costs, underwriting fees, maturities, fees paid for all professional services rendered, and all other matters deemed essential in establishing the legal and fiscal sufficiency of proposed bond or revenue certificate issues.

(3) It shall be the responsibility of the bond review board to review all bond and revenue certificate financing for all state agencies, boards, commissions and authorities and to determine that such financing has legislative approval and is in keeping with legislative intent. No such bonds or revenue certificates shall be issued unless such bonds or revenue certificates have first been approved by the bond review board.

(4) Unless otherwise provided by law, all revenue bonds or revenue certificates to be issued by or on behalf of each state agency, board, commission or authority shall be first submitted to the constitutional state board of administration, who in addition to all other legal responsibilities shall as fiscal agent have the responsibility and authority for approving such issues as to legal and fiscal sufficiency and after approval by such board, such proposed issues shall be submitted to the bond review board for final approval or disapproval.

History.—§§1-4, ch. 63-335.

—The budget commission for the state shall be composed of the governor, the secretary of state, the comptroller, the state treasurer, the attorney general, the commissioner of agriculture and the state superintendent of public instruction, who shall exercise such powers and discharge such duties as in this chapter provided. A majority vote of said commission shall be necessary to decide matters and questions coming before said commission.

History.—§1, ch. 8426, 1921; §1, ch. 10034, 1925; CGL 1366.

216.02 Estimates to be furnished by departments, bureaus, institutions, etc.—

(1) On or before the fifteenth day of November, biennially, prior to the meeting of the legislature, each of the several departments, bureaus, divisions, officers, commissions, institutions, boards, and all other state agencies created by legislative act and supported by any form of taxation or licenses, fees, imposts, or exactions, hereinafter referred to as "agencies", shall report to the budget director the following:

(a) An estimate in itemized form showing the amount needed for operational expenditures for the next two years, beginning the first day of July thereafter.

(b) An estimate in itemized form showing the amount needed for building and equipment expenditures for the next ten years, beginning the first day of July thereafter.

(c) A summary of each contract awarded, if any, for the acquisition or construction of buildings and equipment during the current biennium, together with a statement giving the present status of acquisition or construction.

(d) A complete list of each building and equipment appropriation not acted upon during the current biennium, the reasons therefor, and a statement as to whether contracts are to be let thereunder in the succeeding biennium.

(2) The form of reports shall be prescribed by the budget director, shall be as nearly uniform as may be, and shall designate the kind of information to be given thereon.

History.—§2, ch. 8426, 1921; CGL 1367; §1, ch. 14654, 1931; §2, ch. 22857, 1945; §1, ch. 27994, 1953.

216.021 Limitation on power.—No right to require reports from the legislature or from the legislative council and reference bureau is granted by this chapter.

History.—§1, ch. 29660, 1955.

216.022 Data on legislative expenses.—

(1) On or before November fifteenth, biennially, in the year next preceding the convening of the state legislature, estimates of the financial needs of the legislature during the ensuing legislative session and expenses of interim committees shall be prepared by a committee consisting of the president-designate of the senate, speaker-designate of the house, chairman-designate of the senate committee on legislative expenses (or management) and the chairman-designate of the house committee on legislative expenses. These estimates shall be furnished to the budget commission by the secretary of the senate, and clerk of the house of representatives and certified by them.

(2) On or before November fifteenth, biennially, in the year next preceding the convening of the legislature, estimates of the financial needs of the legislative council and reference bureau for each of the two fiscal years of the ensuing biennial period, shall be furnished to the budget commission by the chairman of the legislative council or such other person as may be designated by the council for that purpose. These estimates shall include salaries of the employees of the legislative reference bureau and the estimates of other requirements for the legislative council and reference bureau as approved by the legislative council.

(3) All of the data relative to the legislative branch of the government shall be for the budget commission's information and guidance in estimating the total financial needs of the state for the ensuing biennial period; but none of these estimates shall be subject to revision or review by the commission and must be included in the budget report as prepared by it.

History.—§2, ch. 29660, 1955.

216.04 Statements, information, etc., to be furnished by comptroller.—On or before the fifteenth day of December, biennially, prior to the meeting of the legislature, the comptroller shall furnish to the budget commission the following statements, classified and itemized in strict accordance with the budget classifications adopted by the budget commission:

(1) A statement showing the balance standing to the credit of the several appropriations for each department, bureau, division, officer, board, commission, institution and all other agencies of the state created by legislative act and supported from any form of taxation or licenses, fees, imposts, or exactions at the end of the last preceding appropriation year.

(2) A statement showing the monthly expenditure and revenues from each appropriation account, and the total monthly expenditures and revenues from all appropriation accounts, including special and all other appropriations, in the twelve months of the last preceding appropriation year.

(3) A statement showing the annual expenditures in each appropriation account, and the revenues from all sources, including expenditures and revenues from special and all other appropriations, for each of the last two appropriation years, with a separate column showing the increase or decrease for each item.

(4) An itemized and complete financial balance sheet for the state at the close of the last preceding fiscal year.

(5) Such other statements as the budget commission shall request.

History.—§4, ch. 8426, 1921; CGL 1369; §3, ch. 14654, 1931; §3, ch. 22857, 1945.

216.041 Filing of state agency balance sheets; handling by comptroller.—

(1) On or before July 31 of each year, each of the several departments, bureaus, divisions, officers, commissions, institutions, boards, and all other state agencies created by legislative act and supported by any form of taxation or licenses, fees, imposts, or exactions, hereinafter referred to as agencies, shall file with the comptroller a balance sheet as of June 30 of each year showing all assets and liabilities of the respective agencies.

(2) It shall be the duty of the comptroller to:

(a) Compile the respective balance sheets filed pursuant to subsection (1) into one balance sheet and furnish the legislature with a copy of the same no later than March 1 of each year the legislature convenes, and

(b) Furnish the budget commission with a copy of said compiled balance sheet pursuant to §216.04(4).

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 63-493.

216.06 The chief budget officer through the budget director may request information from departments, bureaus, etc.—The agencies mentioned in §216.02, upon request, shall promptly furnish to the budget director in such form as he may prescribe, any information in relation to the affairs or activities of such agency. The chief budget officer through the budget director shall have authority to examine and inspect any and all records of such departments, and shall bring to the attention of the budget commission such matters in reference thereto as he may deem necessary.

History.—§5, ch. 8426, 1921; CGL 1370; §4, ch. 22857, 1945.

216.07 Public hearings, etc.—The budget commission shall provide for public hearings on any and all estimates to be included in the budget report to the legislature, which shall be held at such time as the budget commission may fix. The budget commission shall require the attendance at these hearings of the heads or responsible representatives of all state departments, bureaus, divisions, officers, boards, commissions, institutions, and all other agencies of the state created by legislative act and supported by any form of taxation or licenses, fees, imposts or exactions.

History.—§6, ch. 8426, 1921; CGL 1371; §5, ch. 22857, 1945.

216.08 Budget commission to make survey of departments, bureaus, etc.—On or before the fifteenth day of December, or as soon thereafter as practicable, biennially, prior to the meeting of the legislature, the budget commission must have completed a careful survey of all the departments, bureaus, divisions, officers, boards, commissions, institutions, and all other agencies of the state created by legislative act and supported by any form of taxation, licenses, fees, imposts or exactions, through which they shall be in possession of the working knowledge upon which to base their recommendations to the legislature.

History.—§7, ch. 8426, 1921; CGL 1372; §4, ch. 14654, 1931; §6, ch. 22857, 1945.

216.09 Governor to be chief budget officer and to appoint a budget director with the approval of the budget commission.—The governor shall be the chief budget officer of the state, and to facilitate the carrying out of the provisions of this law, a budget director shall be appointed by the governor with the approval of the budget commission to serve at the will of the budget commission. The budget commission shall set the salary of the budget director unless otherwise provided by law. To carry out the duties required by law, the budget director shall employ such competent assistants and office help as may be necessary and shall fix their duties and compensation, payable from the general revenue appropriation biennially made by the legislature for that purpose. The budget director shall have no vote in the deliberations of the budget commission.

History.—§11, ch. 8426, 1921; CGL 1376; §7, ch. 22857, 1945; §1, ch. 59-210.

216.10 Duties of budget director.—

(1) It shall be the duty of the director to make a detailed study of each of the several state departments, bureaus, divisions, officers, commissions, agencies, institutions, and undertakings receiving or asking aid from the state, including such as are permitted by laws to charge, collect, and receive fees for inspection, examination, licenses or other perquisites, all hereinafter referred to as "agencies", with a view toward ascertaining and determining the needs thereof, whether changes should be made in existing organizations, their activities and methods of operation, what appropriation should be made therefor, whether the operations and activities of different agencies or within the same agencies should be combined, consolidated or integrated, or whether the same should be regrouped and rearranged, all to the end of securing greater economy without sacrificing efficiency in the operations of such agencies.

(2) Such study shall cover a period not less than the preceding fiscal year. The results thereof shall be embodied in a report which shall also include:

(a) The estimates furnished by state agencies covering their respective operating requirements.

(b) The estimates furnished by state agencies covering their respective building and equipment requirements.

(c) The respective operational amounts, and, building and equipment amounts requested by them to be appropriated by the legislature for the next biennium.

(3) Said report shall also show the director's own estimate for operating costs, and, building and equipment costs, separately and in such detail as may be necessary and the amounts required for each. Annual amounts last appropriated by the legislature shall be shown, together with amounts expended for the last fiscal year, amounts expended to the latest available date for the report, and an estimate of the amount required for the remainder of the current fiscal year, together with such other data as will reflect the financial condition of the state and its agencies at the close of the last fiscal year, and an estimate of what that condition will be at the close of the current year.

(4) The report shall be submitted to the budget commission not later than the fifteenth day of December, biennially, prior to the convening of the legislature.

History.—§13, ch. 8426, 1921; CGL 1378; §8, ch. 22857, 1945; §2, ch. 27994, 1953.

216.101 Uniform system of reporting; institutions of higher learning.—The state budget director may prescribe a uniform system of reporting for the institutions of higher learning on all phases of budget and fiscal matters, including uniform reporting on student enrollment, personnel, compensation and pay scales, buildings and equipment, and such other matters as he deems necessary. It shall be the duty and the responsibility of the governing body and the executive head of each of the state's institutions of higher learning to insure that the institutions comply with the prescribed uniform system of reporting.

History.—§2, ch. 29902, 1955.

216.11 Budget to be furnished legislature; copies to members, etc.—

(1) On or before March first, biennially, prior to the meeting of the legislature, the budget commission shall send by mail to each representative and senator a printed copy of the budget based on their own conclusions and judgment. The budget shall be distinctly separated into two sections, section one of the budget shall be entitled "operations". Section two shall be entitled "Buildings and Equipment". The budget shall contain a complete itemized plan of all proposed expenditures for each state department, bureau, division, officer, board, commission, institution, or other agency or undertaking, classified by function, character and object, and of estimated revenues for each year beginning with the first day of July thereafter. Opposite each item of proposed expenditure the budget shall show in separate parallel columns the amount appropriated for the last preceding appropriation year, for the current appropriation year, and the increase or decrease. This budget shall be presented by the budget commission to the presiding officer of each house on the first day of each regular session of the legislature.

(2) The budget commission shall accompany the budget with:

(a) A statement of the revenues and expenditures for each of the two appropriation years next preceding, classified and itemized in accordance with the official budget classification adopted by the budget commission.

(b) A statement of the current assets, liabilities, reserves and surplus or deficit of the state.

(c) A statement of the funds of the state.

(d) A statement showing the budget commission's itemized estimates of the condition of the state treasury as of the beginning and end of each year.

(e) An itemized and complete financial balance sheet for the state at the close of the last preceding fiscal year.

(f) A recommendation of priorities for building and equipment expenditures for the next biennium.

(g) A recommendation of the total amount to be expended by that session of the legislature for 1. operations and 2. buildings and equipment.

(h) An itemized and complete list of all state owned buildings, together with a brief summary as to their present use or non-use, their present condition, major repairs needed, and the life expectancy of each of such buildings.

(i) A summary of each contract awarded, if any, for the acquisition or construction of buildings and equipment during the current biennium, together with a statement giving the present status of acquisition or construction.

(j) A complete list of each building and equipment appropriation not acted upon during the current biennium, the reasons therefor, and a statement as to whether contracts are to be let thereunder in the succeeding biennium.

History.—§8, ch. 8426, 1921; CGL 1373; §5, ch. 14654, 1931; §3, ch. 27994, 1953.

216.12 Meetings of appropriation committees, etc.—The appropriation committees of the house of representatives and of the senate, being in charge of appropriation measures, shall sit jointly in open sessions while considering the budget, and shall begin such joint meetings within five days after the budget has been submitted to the legislature by the budget commission. This joint committee may cause the attendance of heads or responsible representatives of the departments, institutions and all other agencies of the state to furnish such information and answer such questions as the joint committee shall require, and to these sessions shall be admitted, with the right to be heard, all persons interested in the estimates under consideration. Members of the budget commission, or their representatives, may sit at these public hearings, and be heard on all matters coming before the joint committee.

History.—§9, ch. 8426, 1921; CGL 1374.

216.13 Appropriation bills to be itemized.—All bills introduced in either house carrying appropriations shall be itemized in accordance with the classifications used in the budget.

History.—§10, ch. 8426, 1921; CGL 1375.

216.14 Legislature may change items in budget.—The legislature may increase or decrease items in the budget bill as it may deem to be in the interests of greater economy and efficiency in the public service.

History.—§10, ch. 8426, 1921; CGL 1375.

216.15 Appropriation.—The legislature shall appropriate such amounts as it may determine to be sufficient for the purpose of carrying out the duties and responsibilities of the commission.

History.—§12, ch. 8426, 1921; CGL 1377; §9, ch. 22857, 1945; §1, ch. 61-25.

216.16 Departments to file annual expense budgets.—

(1) Not later than the first day of July subsequent to adjournment of the legislature, and during other years not later than the first day of June, each state agency shall prepare and file with the budget director a full and complete operational expense budget of all expenditures anticipated to be made for the next ensuing fiscal year, giving details as to number and amounts to be paid employees and for necessary and regular expense, and such others as are provided for by specific appropriations. At the same time each state agency shall prepare and file with the budget director a full and complete building and equipment budget of all expenditures anticipated to be made for those purposes for the next ensuing fiscal year, giving such details thereon as the director may request. The budget director shall examine said budgets, and as soon as practicable shall transmit to the budget commission his report thereon. The budget commission shall examine the budgets and the report of the director and shall approve or disapprove or amend said budgets. When approved, the budget director shall certify the action of the budget commission on each subject to the comptroller and such certification shall be the comptroller's guide in reference to the requirements of each; provided, however, this section shall not apply to the budgets for legislative expense, nor to the appropriation for the legislative council and reference bureau, nor to any appropriation specifically made for any other committees of the legislature, for use either during a session or in the interim of sessions. The budget commission shall have no authority over said budgets until and unless a determination shall be made that a shortage of revenues requires a reduction in all appropriations made by the legislature, in which event any percentage reserve required of all departments for which appropriation is made shall apply equally to such budgets.

History.—§10, ch. 22857, 1945; §4, ch. 27994, 1953; §3, ch. 29660, 1955.

216.17 Work programs of spending agencies; powers of budget commission.—

(1) Immediately before the beginning of each fiscal year, the state budget commission shall require the head of each spending agency to submit on forms prescribed by the state budget commission, a work program for the budget year, which program shall include all appropriations for operation and all anticipated revenue and receipts, and maintenance expenditures and for the acquisition of property, and it shall show the requested allotments of said appropriations for such spending agency for the ensuing year. The state budget commission shall review the requested allotments in the light of the work program of the spending agency concerned, and the state budget commission shall, if it deems necessary, revise, alter or change such allotments before approving the same. The aggregate of such allotments shall not exceed the total appropriations available to said spending agency for the budget year. The state budget commission shall transmit a copy of the approved allotments to the head of the spending agency concerned and also a copy to the state comptroller. The state comptroller shall authorize all expenditures to be made from the appropriations on the basis of such allotments, and not otherwise.

(2) The head of any spending agency of the government, whenever he shall deem it necessary by reason of changed conditions, may revise the work program of his agency at the beginning of any quarter during the budget year and submit such revised program to the state budget commission with his request for a revision of the allotments for the remaining quarters of the budget year. If, upon a re-examination of the work program, the state budget commission shall decide to grant the request for a revision of the allotments, the same procedure, as far as it relates to review, approval and control, shall be followed as in making the original allotments.

(3) In order to provide funds for possible emergencies arising during the budget year in the operation and maintenance expenditures of the various spending agencies, the state budget commission may require the head of each spending agency, in making the original allotments, to set aside at least five per cent of the total amount appropriated as a reserve. At any time during the budget year, this reserve, or any portion of it, may be returned to the appropriation to which it belongs and be added to any one or more of the allotments, provided the state budget commission shall deem such action necessary and shall notify the comptroller of such action; any unused portion thereof shall remain at the end of the budget period as an unexpended balance of the appropriation.

(4) The provisions of this section shall not apply to the state road department.

cf.—§216.211 Appropriations, maximum; adjustment of budgets.

216.18 Services of director to be available to legislature, etc.—During the legislative session, the services of the director shall be available to the legislature for procuring such fiscal data as it may require. He shall have ready by the beginning of each session and shall furnish to the legislature and to the governor the following:

A tabulation showing:

(1) The operating cost of each state agency for the past fiscal year and an estimate of the cost for the current fiscal year, arranged by groups according to fund or funds from which supported or paid.

(2) The then balance, and an estimate of the probable final balance, which will remain at the close of the biennium to each agency and to the fund out of which supported, or the deficit therein or amount by which the same fails to meet requirements imposed by the legislature.

And, during the session:

(3) As the legislature progresses in its work and makes provision for reduced or additional activities or expansions, a prompt ascertainment of funds required therefor.

(4) A tabulation, adjusted daily or as appropriations are made and as revenue is provided, showing the estimated requirements for revenue, the revenue anticipated from existing and proposed sources, and the additional required, if any.

History.—§12, ch. 22857, 1945.

216.19 Budget of Florida citrus advertising trust fund.—The budget of the Florida citrus advertising trust fund, except expenditures provided for under §601.10, shall be approved as submitted by the Florida citrus commission.

History.—§13, ch. 22857, 1945; §1, ch. 26982, 1951; §2, ch. 61-119.

216.20 Budgets for federal funds; approval.—Every agency of the state government when making requests or preparing budgets to be submitted to the federal government for funds, equipment, material or services shall have such request or budget approved in writing by the state budget commission before submitting it to the proper federal authority. When such federal authority has approved the request or budget, the agency of the state government shall resubmit it to the director of the budget for recording before any allotment or encumbrance of the federal funds can be made.

History.—§1, ch. 26538, 1951.

216.211 Appropriations, maximum; adjustment of budgets.—

(1) All appropriations provided in the general appropriations act or otherwise provided by law shall be maximum appropriations, based upon the collection of sufficient revenue to meet and provide for such appropriations. If, in the opinion of the governor, the revenues to be collected will be insufficient to meet the appropriations provided for in said general appropriations act, he shall so certify to the state budget commission, and the state budget commission shall adjust the budget of any department or board to the end that efficiency and economy may result therefrom, and the appropriations kept within the revenues of the state. In the event the state budget commission shall fail to adjust the budgets of the several departments after the governor has certified that the anticipated revenue will not permit the maximum appropriation made, the governor is hereby vested with the power and authority to effect such changes by executive order, it being the intent and purpose of this section to prevent any deficit in any department of the state government, and that the revenues available shall be used in the most efficient and economical manner; provided, however, that this section shall not be construed to mean that the governor or the state budget commission has the power to eliminate any department of government.

(2) No additional funds shall be released by the budget commission to any revenue producing department in excess of the amounts provided in the general biennial appropriations act, or as provided by chapter 28231, 1953.

History.—§12, ch. 28115, §§8, 9, ch. 28231, 1953; §215.38, 1955.

216.22 Emergency or contingency appropriations; approval of expenditures.—Any appropriation to any department or agency which is classified as "emergency" or "contingency" may be expended only with the expressed approval of the state budget commission. The department or agency desiring the use of any such appropriation shall submit to the state budget commission application therefor in writing setting forth the facts from which the alleged emergency arises. The state budget commission shall, at a public hearing, review such application promptly and approve or disapprove the same as the circumstances may warrant; provided, that an affirmative vote of five members of the state budget commission shall be required for approval of such request.

History.—§19, ch. 28115, §13, ch. 28231, 1953; §215.39, 1955.

216.25 Motor vehicles; purchase by state budget commission.—The state budget commission is hereby authorized to purchase all motor vehicles for the various state officers, agencies and departments under the supervision of the state board of control, provided such purchases are within legislative appropriations therefor. Both motor vehicle appropriations and appropriations for necessary and regular expense of the proposed purchaser, may be considered in determining whether or not the purchase is within such appropriations.

History.—§2, ch. 20896, 1941; §116.17, 1955.

cf.—§116.16 Motor vehicles; purchase by board of control and commissioners of state institutions.

216.27 Authority to fix and collect fees for extension work.—The state board of control is hereby empowered to fix and collect fees for materials, correspondence study and extensions incident thereto, through the general extension division and it is expressly provided that all such fees so collected by the said board of control shall not affect the state appropriation or be deducted therefrom, and they shall be used only for the purposes for which they are collected; provided, however, that said fees shall not be expended except in pursuance of detailed budgets filed with and approved by the state budget commission; and said fees shall be deposited in the state treasury, for accounting with the comptroller of the state, who, upon the order of said board of control, shall draw his warrants on the state treasurer in payment for the said materials, correspondence study, and extension teaching and expenses incident thereto. In its biennial report, the board of control shall make report in detail of the collections and expenditure of said funds, together with a report of the work done.

History.—§6, ch. 28115, §2, ch. 28231, 1953; §240.071, 1955.

216.28 Additional appropriation.—All moneys received by the institutions under the management of the state board of control, other than from state and federal sources, are hereby appropriated to the use of the state board of control, for the respective institutions collecting same, to be expended as the state board of control may direct; provided, however, that said funds shall not be expended except in pursuance of detailed budgets filed with and approved by the state budget commission, and shall not be expended for the construction or reconstruction of buildings except as provided under §240.102.

History.—§5, ch. 28115, §1, ch. 28231, 1953; §240.091, 1955; §1, ch. 57-400; §1, ch. 61-500.

CHAPTER 218

FINANCIAL MATTERS PERTAINING TO POLITICAL SUBDIVISIONS

- 218.01 Authority to accept benefits of bankruptcy acts.
- 218.02 Disposition of unused funds relating to the refunding of bonds.
- 218.03 Creation of political subdivisions validated.
- 218.04 Proceedings relating to certain bonds sold, etc., to federal government validated.
- 218.05 Certain bonds sold to federal government, etc., validated.
- 218.06 Transfer of funds by county commissioners with relation to public works grants.
- 218.07 Surplus properties; purchase by the state, counties and municipalities and their agencies.
- 218.08 Surplus properties; authority and method of purchasing.
- 218.09 Surplus properties; advertisement not required.
- 218.10 Surplus properties; terms of purchase.
- 218.11 Surplus properties; construction of law.

218.01 Authority to accept benefits of bankruptcy acts.—For the purpose of rendering effective the privilege and benefits of any amendments to the bankruptcy laws of the United States that may be enacted for the relief of municipalities, taxing districts and political subdivisions, the state represented by its legislative body gives its assent to, and accepts the provisions of any such bankruptcy laws that may be enacted by the congress of the United States for the benefit and relief of municipalities, taxing districts and political subdivisions and its several municipalities, taxing districts and political subdivisions, at the discretion of the governing authorities thereof, may institute and conduct and carry out, by any appropriate bankruptcy procedure that may be enacted into the laws of the United States for the purpose of conferring upon municipalities, taxing districts and political subdivisions, relief by proceedings in bankruptcy in the federal courts.

218.02 Disposition of unused funds relating to the refunding of bonds.—All funds heretofore or hereafter raised or created by any county or taxing district for the purpose of applying toward the payment of interest or principal of refunding bonds of such county or taxing district, when such refunding bonds are not issued and such funds not otherwise lawfully disposed of, shall revert back to the county or special taxing district to be used by the governing body or board of such county or taxing district for such general and lawful purposes of the county or taxing district raising such funds as in the judgment and discretion of such governing body or board shall seem to the best interest of the county or taxing district.

For the purpose of carrying out the intent of this section, every officer or board, now or hereafter having the custody of any of the said funds shall transmit and return the same to the governing body or board of the county or taxing district, taking receipt therefor from such governing body or board.

History.—§1, 2, ch. 15907, 1933; CGL 1936 Supp. 1365(4).

218.03 Creation of political subdivisions validated.—The creation, organization and existence of all cities, towns, counties, special tax school districts, special road and bridge districts, bridge districts and all other districts in this state which have heretofore issued or taken proceedings toward the issuance of any bonds for the purpose of financing or aiding in financing any work, undertaking or project financed or to be financed in whole or in part by a loan or grant heretofore made or agreed to be made to such public body by the United States acting through the federal emergency administrator of public works are validated, ratified, approved and confirmed.

History.—§2, ch. 17750, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 1365(44).

218.04 Proceedings relating to certain bonds sold, etc., to federal government validated.—All proceedings heretofore taken in connection with the authorization or issuance of any issue of bonds, all or a part of which have heretofore been purchased by the United States through the federal emergency administrator of public works, or an agreement for the purchase of all or a part of which has heretofore been entered into by the United States through the federal emergency administrator of public works, issued or to be issued for the purpose of financing or aiding in the financing of any work, undertaking or project by any public body are validated, ratified, approved and confirmed notwithstanding any lack of power of such public body, or the governing board, council, commission or officers thereof, to authorize such bonds, or to execute the same, and notwithstanding any defects or irregularities in such proceedings or in such sale, execution or delivery, and all bonds heretofore or hereafter issued pursuant to such proceedings shall constitute binding, legal, valid and enforceable obligations of such public body.

History.—§3, ch. 17750, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 1365(45).

218.05 Certain bonds sold to federal government, etc., validated.—All bonds heretofore issued for the purpose of financing or aiding in financing any work, undertaking or project by any public body to which any loan or grant has heretofore been made or agreed to be made by the United States of America through the federal emergency administrator of public works for the purpose of financing or aiding in financing of such work, undertaking or project, including all proceedings for the authorization and issuance of such bonds and the sale, execution and delivery thereof, are validated, ratified, approved and confirmed, notwithstanding any lack of power of such public body or the governing board, council or commission or officers thereof, to authorize and issue such bonds, or to sell, execute or deliver the same, and notwithstanding any defects or irregularities in such proceedings, or in such sale, execution or delivery; and such bonds are and shall be binding, legal, valid and enforceable obligations of such public body.

The term "bonds" includes bonds, notes, warrants, debentures, certificates of indebtedness, revenue certificates and all instruments or obligations evidencing or representing indebtedness, or evidencing or representing the borrowing of money or evidencing or representing a charge, lien, or encumbrance on specific revenues, income or property of a public body, including all instruments or obligations payable from a special fund.

218.06 Transfer of funds by county commissioners with relation to public works grants.

—Boards of county commissioners of the several counties of the state, whenever it may be necessary to meet the requirements of the United States government with reference to obtaining grants of federal funds in connection with the program of the public works administration, may by resolution of such board, transfer and expend such sums of money as may be necessary to obtain said grant, from any fund to such other fund as may be necessary to meet said requirements and carry out the intent and purposes of the said transfer; provided, however, that no such transfer may be made by any county of the state without first having obtained the approval of the comptroller of the state thereto, and in the counties of the state where there is provision for a budget commission, without first having also obtained the approval of said budget commission to said transfer.

The comptroller of the State of Florida and the budget commissions of the several counties of the state in which there are provisions for such budget commissions, may approve such transfers whenever in their opinion such transfers are necessary and proper.

History.—§1, ch. 18023, 1937; CGL 1940 Supp. 1373(73).

218.07 Surplus properties; purchase by the state, counties and municipalities and their agencies.—Authority to enter into any contract or contracts with the United States, or with any owning or disposal agency thereof, for the lease, purchase, or other acquisition of any equipment, supplies, materials, or other property, real or personal, offered for lease, sale, or other disposal, under the provisions of the act of congress known as the surplus property act of 1944, or any amendments thereto, or any other law providing for the disposal of such property as is the subject matter of said act, is hereby granted to the following political entities:

(1) The state and every board, commission, department, or other state agency, and every officer of the state authorized by law to make purchases of material, supplies and equipment or other property, real or personal, for state use or purposes.

(2) Every county of the state, board of county commissioners, county boards of public instruction, or other county agency, and every county officer authorized by law to make purchases of material, supplies and equipment or other property, real or personal, for county use or purposes.

(3) Every municipality of the state, and every officer thereof, authorized by law to make purchases of material, supplies and equipment or other property, real or personal, for municipal use or purposes.

History.—§1, ch. 22677, 1945.

218.08 Surplus properties; authority and method of purchasing.—Any of the political entities and officers described in §218.07 may designate by appropriate resolution or order, any officer, employee or agency to enter a bid or bids in its, or their behalf for any surplus property, real or personal, offered for lease, sale or other disposal by the United States, or any owning or disposal agency thereof, and may authorize such officer, employee or agency to make any down payment, or payment in full, required in connection with such bidding.

History.—§2, ch. 22677, 1945.

218.09 Surplus properties; advertisement not required.—The authority granted in §218.07 may be exercised by the grantees of such authority without reference to the requirements of any general or special law, charter or ordinance, providing for advertising for sealed bids, inviting or receiving competitive bids, or the letting of contracts to the lowest and best bidder, and with respect to, and to the extent of, the contracts herein authorized, all general or special laws, charters or ordinances relating to advertising for sealed bids, inviting or receiving competitive bids, or the letting of contracts to the lowest and best bidder, are hereby abrogated, in order to effectuate the purposes of this law.

History.—§3, ch. 22677, 1945.

218.10 Surplus properties; terms of purchase.—The contracts herein authorized may be entered into for cash, or upon such credit terms or plan not in conflict with organic law, and as may be deemed advisable or expedient; any general or special law, charter or ordinance to the contrary is hereby modified to the extent of permitting entering into the contracts herein authorized, in order to effectuate the purposes of this law.

History.—§4, ch. 22677, 1945.

218.11 Surplus properties; construction of law.—Sections 218.07-218.10 shall not be construed as in anywise repealing, altering, modifying or qualifying any general or special law, charter or ordinance, relating to advertising for sealed bids, inviting or receiving competitive bids, or the letting of contracts to the lowest and best bidder, or purchasing of property on credit terms, except to the extent herein provided.

History.—§5, ch. 22677, 1945.

CHAPTER 219

COUNTY PUBLIC MONEY, HANDLING BY STATE AND COUNTY

- 219.01 Definitions.
 219.02 Handling of public money.
 219.03 Deputies and employees.
 219.04 Cash book.

219.01 Definitions.—The following words, terms and phrases, when used in this act, shall have the meaning ascribed to them in this section, except where the context clearly indicates a different meaning.

(1) For the purposes of this act, the term "officer" shall be taken to mean a county officer, including an officer whose authority is ordinarily confined to a district within a county, whose duties require or authorize him to collect public money; the term "officer" shall not include any board or commission or any member thereof acting as such.

(2) The term "public money" shall be taken to mean and include all money collected by a county officer which he is required or authorized by law, as such county officer, to collect, and underpayments, overpayments, partial payments and deposits of such money, except his salary when his sole compensation is provided by such salary.

History.—§1, ch. 57-349.

219.02 Handling of public money.—It shall be the duty of each officer to issue a receipt for each collection of public money made by him, a copy of which receipt shall be retained by the officer and shall be a public record. The receipt may be printed and registered by a cash register or validating machine, or may be by prenumbered license, or may be by prenumbered receipt blank. In addition to the foregoing alternative methods, any one or more of which may be used by the officer, he may use also any other form or method prescribed or approved by the state comptroller which will record collections of public money in a manner adequate for a proper post audit. The forms, the methods, the built-in characteristics of the cash register or validating machine, and the procedures for their use shall be prescribed or approved by the state comptroller. The state comptroller shall furnish the forms prescribed by him and keep a record of the prenumbered receipt blanks issued by him to each officer. The officer shall keep safely all unused receipt blanks issued to him.

It shall be the duty of each officer to keep safely all the public money collected by him. Each officer shall exercise all possible care for the protection of the public money in his custody, and all public money shall be kept separate in the depository and shall not be commingled with personal funds.

It shall be the duty of the several boards of county commissioners to provide suitable facilities, and adequate insurance, for the protection of the public money in the respective county offices; provided, that if it shall appear

- 219.05 Depositories.
 219.06 Income and expenses.
 219.07 Disbursements.
 219.08 Continuing duty.

to an officer that the facilities or the insurance provided by the board of county commissioners are inadequate, he may, with the approval of the state comptroller, provide the additional facilities and insurance found to be necessary, and may charge the cost thereof to the expense of his office.

History.—§2, ch. 57-349.

219.03 Deputies and employees.—Each deputy and employee handling public money in county offices may be placed under bond by the officer, and the premium on the bond may be charged to the expense of the office.

History.—§3, ch. 57-349.

219.04 Cash book.—Each officer as defined in this act, shall keep a cash book, or books, wherein shall be entered daily all receipts and disbursements of public money, either by items or by summaries of itemized entries in other records, including machine tapes, kept in such office. The cash book shall be balanced, it shall show the amount of money on hand, and shall be a permanent record of the office.

The cash book and the lists and records subsidiary to it and essential to the proper identification of and accounting for public money received or disbursed shall be on forms prescribed by or approved by the state comptroller.

History.—§4, ch. 57-349.

219.05 Depositories.—Public money as defined in this act may be deposited in a depository qualified under the provisions of chapter 136, and the regulations of the comptroller pursuant thereto. Such deposits shall be made sufficiently often to keep the amount of the money in the office within the insurance coverage; provided, that any public money may be paid directly to the officer, person or fund entitled to receive it, without first depositing it in the depository, if a receipt is taken and the transaction is properly recorded in the cash book.

The title of each depository account shall include the name of the office, the name of the county, and such other suitable designation as may be required or desired, and withdrawals shall be made only by checks signed with the title of the account, by such officer, or by his duly authorized and bonded deputy or employee.

Whenever a county office is vacated by any officer who carries a depository account carried under this act, the retiring officer shall transfer each of his official depository accounts to the incoming officer, and if he should fail to do so, the depository shall transfer such account or accounts to the person succeeding to the office, upon his written request, and exhibition to the said depository of his commission.

No handling or service charges shall be deducted by the depository from the amounts deposited. Any handling or service charges which are authorized by the depository agreement or by applicable federal law shall be billed to the board of county commissioners and paid by the said board from the general fund of the county.

The comptroller shall prescribe and furnish the necessary forms and regulations to carry out the purposes of this section.

History.—§5, ch. 57-349; §7, ch. 59-23.

219.06 Income and expenses.—Each officer whose compensation for his official duties is paid wholly or partly by fees or commissions, or fees and commissions, shall handle all collections of fees, commissions, and other compensation for his official duties in the same manner as other public money is herein required to be handled, and shall record them in detail sufficient to furnish the information required for the sworn statement required by §145.03, to be made to the board of county commissioners.

Fees and commissions collected in the same transactions with collections of other public funds may be kept or deposited with such other public funds, and accounted for with them, until distribution is made of such other public funds.

The officer may withdraw from the earnings of the office for his personal use at any time any amount which, together with previous withdrawals, shall not exceed his interest therein if his compensation were calculated to that time, prorated according to the number of days that had elapsed since the beginning of the calendar year.

Disbursements made from the earnings of an officer for the expenses of the office shall be made by check payable to the person performing the service or furnishing the goods, supported by an itemized bill or voucher, except that a petty cash fund may be maintained for necessary cash expenditures and such petty cash fund may be reimbursed from time to time by checks supported by vouchers showing the purposes of the expenditures.

History.—§6, ch. 57-349.

219.07 Disbursements.—Each officer shall, not later than the fortieth day after the end of each calendar month, distribute all public money collected by him during that calendar month which he is required to pay over to others to the officer, agency, fund or person entitled to receive the same; provided, that distributions or partial distributions may be made more frequently; and provided further, that money required by law or court order, or by the purpose for which it was collected, to be held and disbursed for a particular purpose in a manner different from that set out herein shall be held and disbursed accordingly.

History.—§7, ch. 57-349; §1, ch. 59-177.
cf.—§116.01 Payment of public funds into treasury.

219.08 Continuing duty.—Each of the duties required to be performed or done under the provisions of this act which is not done or performed at or within the time or times herein prescribed shall continue to be the duty of the person charged therewith until it is actually and completely performed.

History.—§8, ch. 57-349.

222.01 Designation of homestead by owner before levy.—Whenever any person, being the head of a family, residing in this state, desires to avail himself of the benefit of the provisions of the constitution and laws exempting property as a homestead from forced sale under any process of law, he may make statement, in writing, containing a description of the real property claimed to be exempt, and declaring that the same is the homestead of the party in whose behalf such claim shall be made. Such statement shall be signed by the person making the same and recorded in the office of the county judge.

History.—§1, ch. 1715, 1869; RS 1998; GS 2520; RGS 3875; CGL 5782.

cf.—Art. X Florida constitution.

§192.17 Homestead exemptions, duty of assessor.

222.02 Designation of homestead after the levy.—Whenever a levy is made upon the lands or tenements of such head of a family whose homestead has not been set apart and selected, such person, his agent or attorney, may in writing notify the officer making such levy, by notice under oath made before any officer of this state duly authorized to administer the same, at any time before the day appointed for the sale thereof, of what he regards as his homestead, with a description thereof, and the remainder only shall be subject to sale under such levy.

222.03 Survey at instance of dissatisfied creditor.—If the creditor in any execution or process sought to be levied is dissatisfied with the quantity of land selected and set apart, and shall himself, or by his agent or attorney, notify the officer levying, the officer shall at the creditor's request cause the same to be surveyed, and when the homestead is not within the corporate limits of any town or city, the person claiming said exemption shall have the right to set apart that portion of land belonging to him which includes the residence, or not, at his option, and if the first tract or parcel does not contain one hundred and sixty acres, the said officer shall set apart the remainder from any other tract or tracts claimed by the debtor, but in every case taking all the land lying contiguous until the whole quantity of one hundred and sixty acres is made up. The person claiming the exemption shall not be forced to take as his homestead any tract or portion of a tract, if any defect exists in the title, except at his option. The expense of such survey shall be chargeable on the execution as costs; but if it shall appear that the person claiming such exemption does not own more than one hundred and sixty acres in the state, the expenses of said survey shall be paid by the person directing the same to be made.

History.—§3, ch. 1715, 1869; §1, ch. 1944, 1873; RS 2000; GS 2522; RGS 3877; CGL 5784.

222.04 Sale after survey.—After such survey has been made, the officer making the levy may sell the property levied upon not included in such property set off in such manner.

History.—§4, ch. 1715, 1869; RS 2001; GS 2523; RGS 3878; CGL 5785.

222.05 Setting apart leasehold.—Any person owning and occupying any dwelling house on land not his own which he may lawfully possess, by lease or otherwise, and claiming such house as his homestead, shall be entitled to the exemption of such house from levy and sale as aforesaid.

222.06 Method of exempting personal property; inventory.—When a levy is made by writ of execution, writ of attachment or writ of garnishment upon any personal property, money, choses in action, or other property of a personal nature, which may be exempt from levy and sale by any process upon which levy shall have been made, the debtor, if he wishes to claim said property as exempt from sale, as aforesaid, shall make or cause to be made an inventory of the whole of his personal property, affixing thereto true and correct cash valuations thereof, and shall attach to such inventory an affidavit made by himself, his attorney or authorized agent that said inventory contains a true and correct list or schedule of all the personal property owned by him in the state, and the true cash value thereof, and shall in such schedule designate which said property he claims to be exempt, or wishes to have set aside as his said exemption. Said inventory or schedule shall be in duplicate, and both thereof shall be delivered to the officer making the levy, or serving the writ under which said property has been levied upon. Thereupon such officer shall serve one of said schedules of said property upon the creditor or plaintiff, or his attorney or agent, within twenty-four hours after the same shall be so delivered to him. Then the said creditor, his attorney or agent, if he wishes to contest the claim of exemption so made by the debtor, shall file with such officer his notice of contest thereof within twenty-four hours after receipt of copy of schedule by him; and upon failure or refusal of the creditor, his attorney or agent, to file notice of contest of such exemption within twenty-four hours as aforesaid, the said officer shall release the said property from such levy, and re-deliver the same to the said debtor. If notice of contest shall be filed, as aforesaid, then said officer shall appoint three disinterested appraisers who shall be citizens of the county, who, after having made oath before said officer that they will faithfully appraise said property, shall appraise the same at its cash value and affix to the several items of property enumerated in the inventory or schedule its cash value, and the appraisement shall be signed and sworn to by the said appraisers. Notice of the time and place of appraisement shall be given to the said creditor, his attorney or agent at least twenty-four hours before the making of the same. The appraisers shall be entitled to the same fees as are allowed to jurors, and the same shall be allowed as costs upon the process in the hands of the officer, but no costs shall be required of the debtor for the proceedings to appraise and exempt any property claimed by him to be exempt; provided, that any property owned by him, over and above the amount allowed by law as exempt, shall be liable to sale under such process, and for the costs of this proceeding. The officer levying such writ may demand of the creditor sufficient deposit of costs to pay the expenses of appraisement, as aforesaid, not exceeding the sum of twelve dollars, before he shall be required to appoint appraisers.

Garnishment.—If the property or any part thereof claimed to be exempt is held under a writ of garnishment, the officer levying said writ shall file, within thirty-six hours, if no contest of said exemption has been filed with him, the debtor's schedule of property claimed to be exempt with the clerk, or judge if there be no clerk, of the court out of which said writ issued, and thereupon the clerk, or the judge if there be no clerk, shall make an order, without delay, releasing or discharging the said writ, which said order may be delivered to the garnishee by the debtor, his attorney or agent, or may be served by the said officer; for the making and serving of said order a fee of one dollar each may be collected by the officer and by the clerk or judge, but no other or further charges therefor shall be made against the debtor.

History.—§7, ch. 1715, 1869; RS 2003; GS 2525; §§1, 2, ch. 6927, 1915; RGS 3880; CGL 5787.

222.07 Defendant's rights of selection.—Upon the completion of the inventory the person entitled to the exemption, his agent or attorney, may select from such an inventory an amount of property not exceeding, according to such appraisal, the amount of value exempted; but if the person so entitled, or his agent or attorney, does not appear and make such selection, the officer shall make the selection for him, and the property not so selected as exempt may be sold.

History.—§8, ch. 1715, 1869; RS 2004; GS 2526; RGS 3881; CGL 5788.

222.08 Jurisdiction to set apart homestead and exemption.—The circuit courts have equity jurisdiction to order and decree the setting apart of homesteads and of exemptions of personal property from forced sales.

History.—§2, ch. 3246, 1881; RS 2005; GS 2527; RGS 3882; CGL 5789.

222.09 Injunction to prevent sale.—The circuit courts have equity jurisdiction to enjoin the sale of all property, real and personal, that is exempt from forced sale.

History.—§1, ch. 3246, 1881; RS 2006; GS 2528; RGS 3883; CGL 5790.

222.10 Jurisdiction to subject property claimed to be exempt.—The circuit courts have equity jurisdiction upon bill filed by a creditor or other person interested in enforcing any unsatisfied judgment or decree, to determine whether any property, real or personal, claimed to be exempt, is so exempt, and in case it be not exempt, the court shall, by its decree subject it, or so much thereof as may be necessary, to the satisfaction of said judgment or decree and may enjoin the sheriff or other officer from setting apart as exempt property, real or personal, which is not exempt, and may annul all exemptions made and set apart by the sheriff or other officer.

History.—§3, ch. 3246, 1881; RS 2007; GS 2529; RGS 3884; CGL 5791.

222.11 Exemption of wages from garnishment.—No writ of attachment or garnishment or other process shall issue from any of the courts of this state to attach or delay the payment of any money or other thing due to any person who is the head of a family residing in this state, when the money or other thing is due for the personal labor or services of such person.

History.—§1, ch. 2065, 1875; RS 2008; GS 2530; RGS 3885; CGL 5792.

222.12 Proceedings for exemption.—Whenever any money or other thing due for labor or services as aforesaid is attached by such process, the person to whom the same is due and owing may make oath before the officer who issued the process that the money attached is due for the personal labor and services of such person, and he is the head of a family residing in said state. When such an affidavit is made, notice of same shall be forthwith given to the party, or his attorney, who sued out the process, and if the facts set forth in such affidavit are not denied under oath within two days after the service of said notice, the process shall be returned, and all proceedings under the same shall cease. If the facts stated in the affidavit are denied by the party who sued out the process within the time above set forth and under oath, then the matter shall be tried by the court from which the writ or process issued, in like manner as claims to property levied upon by writ of execution are tried, and the money or thing attached shall remain subject to the process until released by the judgment of the court which shall try the issue.

222.13 Life insurance policies; disposition of proceeds.—

(1) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (2) and (3), whenever any person residing in the state shall die leaving insurance on his life, the said insurance shall inure exclusively to the benefit of the surviving child or children and husband or wife of such person in equal portions, or to any person for whose use and benefit such insurance is declared in the policy, and the proceeds thereof shall be exempt from the claims of creditors of the insured unless the insurance policy declares otherwise. Except as otherwise provided in subsections (2) and (3), whenever the insurance is for the benefit of the estate of the insured or is payable to the estate or to the insured, his executors, administrators, or assigns, and in the event the insured should die intestate or die leaving a will which does not effectively bequeath the proceeds or any part of the proceeds of any insurance in effect on the life of the decedent at the time of his death, or which does not effectively direct or authorize the executor of the insured to use said proceeds or any part thereof for the payment of debts, estate and inheritance taxes, or charges or expenses of administration, such proceeds not effectively bequeathed or used in accordance with such effective authorization of the testator, of any policy in effect at the time of the death of the insured and made payable as above provided, shall be paid to the personal representative of the insured's estate for the benefit of the surviving child or children and husband or wife in equal portions, and be distributed without regard to §§734.03 and 734.04 upon the order of the county judge on petition of any interested party or like proceedings pursuant to §734.25(5); and if the county judge determines that administration of the insured's estate is unnecessary and the insured is survived by a child or children or husband or wife, the order of no administration necessary shall direct payment of the proceeds of any such policy to said child or children and husband or wife in equal portions.

(2) Whenever any person residing in the state shall die leaving surviving no child or spouse, and leaving insurance on his life for the benefit of the estate of the insured or payable to the estate or to the insured, his executors, administrators or assigns, the proceeds of the insurance not effectively bequeathed or used by the executor in accordance with the effective authorization of the testator for the uses or purposes herein specified, shall descend and be distributed in accordance with the laws of descent and distribution of this state in like manner as any other property or effects of the insured if the insured should die intestate or die leaving a will which does not effectively bequeath the proceeds or any part of the proceeds of such insurance in effect on the life of the decedent at the time of his death. The proceeds of any such insurance shall be paid to the personal representative for the payment of debts, estate and inheritance taxes, claims, charges and expenses of administration, and to enforce contribution and to equalize advancement and for distribution. The provisions of this subsection shall apply to all policies of insurance which at the time of death of the insured may be payable as above provided, regardless of whether or not any such policy is so payable by reason of the death of any beneficiary specifically named in such policy. If the county judge determines that administration of the insured's estate is unnecessary and if the insured leaves surviving no child or spouse, such proceeds of any policy in effect at the time of the death of the insured and made payable as above provided, shall be paid as directed in the order of no administration necessary.

(3) Whenever any person residing in the state shall die leaving insurance on his life for the benefit of the estate of the insured or payable to the estate or to the insured, his executors, administrators or assigns, the proceeds of the insurance may be bequeathed by the insured in like manner as he may bequeath or devise any other property or effects which shall be subject to disposition by last will and testament, and for such purpose specific or general expressions in the will referring to insurance or insurance proceeds shall be sufficient and effective; and the insured may, in his will, direct or authorize his executor to use all or any part of the proceeds of any such insurance made payable as above provided, for the payment of debts, estate and inheritance taxes, claims, charges and expenses of administration, or for any of such purposes or uses, and for such purpose specific or general expressions in the will referring to insurance or insurance proceeds shall be sufficient. The proceeds of any such insurance shall be paid to the personal representative of the insured's estate and, if in his will the insured has bequeathed any of such proceeds or has directed or authorized his executor to use any of such proceeds for the payment of debts, estate or inheritance taxes, claims, or charges or expenses of administration, such proceeds shall be assets in like manner as other assets, in the hands of the personal representative, subject to any such effective direction of the testator as to the use thereof, for the payment of dower, legacies, debts, family allowance, estate and inheritance taxes, claims, charges and expenses of administration, and to enforce contribution and to equalize advancement and for distribution. The provisions of this subsection shall apply to all policies of insurance which at the time of the death of the insured may be payable as hereinabove provided, regardless of whether or not any such policy is so payable by reason of the death of any beneficiary specifically named in such policy and regardless of whether or not any such policy was in existence or was so payable at the time of the execution of the last will and testament of the insured or any codicil thereto. If the county judge determines that administration of the insured's estate is unnecessary, payment of such proceeds shall be made as directed in the order of no administration necessary.

(4) When the personal representative of the insured's estate is required by law or by order of the county judge to file bond, the condition of the bond of the personal representative shall be deemed to include the faithful performance of the duties of such personal representative according to law with respect to such proceeds.

(5) Payments as herein directed in every such case shall discharge the insurer from any further liability under the policy, and the insurer shall in no event be required or be responsible for the application of such payments.

History.—§1, ch. 1864, 1872; RS 2347; §1, ch. 4555, 1897; §1, ch. 5165, 1903; GS 3154; RGS 4977; CGL 7065; §1, ch. 29861, 1955; §1, ch. 59-333; §1, ch. 63-230.

222.14 Exemption of cash surrender value of life insurance policies from legal process.—The cash surrender values of life insurance policies issued upon the lives of citizens or residents of the state, upon whatever form, shall not in any case be liable to attachment, gar-nishment or legal process in favor of any creditor of the person whose life is so insured, unless the insurance policy was effected for the benefit of such creditor.

History.—§1, ch. 10154, 1925; CGL 7066.

222.15 Wages due deceased employee may be paid wife, etc.—

(1) It is lawful for any employer, in case of the death of an employee, to pay to the wife or husband, and in case there is no wife or husband, then to the child or children, provided the child or children be over the age of eighteen years, and in case there is no child or children, then to the father or mother, any wages or traveling expenses that may be due said employee at the time of his death.

(2) It is also lawful for the industrial commission, in case of death of any unemployed individual to pay to those persons referred to in subsection (1), any unemployment compensation payments that may be due said individual at the time of his death.

History.—§1, ch. 7366, 1917; RGS 4979; CGL 7068; §1, ch. 20407, 1941; §1, ch. 63-165.
cf.—§215.28(5) Payment of wages due deceased employee.

222.16 Wages or unemployment compensation payments so paid not subject to administration.—Any wages, traveling expenses or unemployment compensation payments so paid under the authority of §222.15 shall not be considered as assets of the estate and subject to administration; provided, however, that the traveling expenses so exempted from administration shall not exceed the sum of three hundred dollars.

History.—§2, ch. 7366, 1917; RGS 4980; CGL 7069; §1, ch. 20407, 1941; §2, ch. 63-165.
cf.—§215.28(5) Payroll deductions.

222.17 Manifesting and evidencing domicile in Florida.—

(1) Any person who shall have established a domicile in this state may manifest and evidence the same by filing in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for the county in which the said person shall reside, a sworn statement showing that he resides in and maintains a place of abode in that county which he recognizes and intends to maintain as his permanent home.

(2) Any person who shall have established a domicile in the State of Florida, but who shall maintain another place or places of abode in some other state or states, may manifest and evidence his domicile in this state by filing in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for the county in which he resides, a sworn statement that his place of abode in Florida constitutes his predominant and principal home, and that he intends to continue it permanently as such.

(3) Such sworn statement shall contain, in addition to the foregoing, a declaration that the person making the same is, at the time of making such statement, a bona fide resident of the state, and shall set forth therein his place of residence within the state, the city, county and state wherein he formerly resided, and the place or places, if any, where he maintains another or other place or places of abode.

(4) Any person who shall have been or who shall be domiciled in a state other than the State of Florida, and who has or who may have a place of abode within the State of Florida, or who has or may do or perform other acts within the State of Florida, which independently of the actual intention of such person respecting his domicile might be taken to indicate that such person is or may intend to be or become domiciled in the State of Florida, and if such person desires to maintain or continue his domicile in such state other than the State of Florida, he may manifest and evidence his permanent domicile and his intention to permanently maintain and continue his domicile in such state other than the State of Florida, by filing in the office of the clerk of the circuit court in any county in the State of Florida in which he may have a place of abode or in which he may have done or performed such acts which independently may indicate that he is or may intend to be or become domiciled in the State of Florida, a sworn statement that his domicile is in such state other than the State of Florida, as the case may be, naming such state where he is domiciled and stating that he intends to permanently continue and maintain his domicile in such other state so named in said sworn statement. Such sworn statement shall also contain a declaration that the person making the same is at the time of the making of such statement a bona fide resident of such state other than the State of Florida, and shall set forth therein his place of abode within the State of Florida, if any. Such sworn statement may contain such other and further facts with reference to any acts done or performed by such person which such person desires or intends not to be construed as evidencing any intention to establish his domicile within the State of Florida.

(5) Upon the filing of such declaration it shall be the duty of the clerk of the circuit court in whose office such declaration is filed, to record the same in a book to be provided for that purpose, and for the performance of the duties herein prescribed, the several clerks of the circuit courts of the state shall, for each declaration, collect a fee of one dollar.

(6) It shall be the duty of the attorney general of the state to prescribe a form for the declaration herein provided for, and to furnish the same to the several clerks of the circuit courts of the state.

(7) Nothing herein shall be construed to repeal or abrogate other existing methods of proving and evidencing domicile except as herein specifically provided.

History.—§§1-6, ch. 20412, 1941; §1, ch. 26896, 1951.

222.18 Exempting disability income benefits from legal processes.—Disability income benefits under any policy or contract of life, health, accident or other insurance of whatever form, shall not in any case be liable to attachment, garnishment, or legal process in the state, in favor of any creditor or creditors of the recipient of such disability income benefits, unless such policy or contract of insurance was effected for the benefit of such creditor or creditors.

History.—§1, ch. 20741, 1941.

228.041 Specific definitions.—Specific definitions shall be as follows:

(1) STATE SYSTEM OF PUBLIC EDUCATION.—The state system of public education shall consist of such publicly supported and controlled schools, institutions of higher learning, other educational institutions, and other educational services as may be provided or authorized by the constitution and laws of Florida.

(a) Public schools.—The public schools shall consist of nursery schools and kindergarten classes; elementary and secondary school grades and special classes; junior colleges; adult, part-time, vocational, and evening schools, courses, or classes authorized by law to be operated under the control of county boards.

(b) Institutions of higher learning.—The institutions of higher learning shall consist of all state supported educational institutions offering work above the public school level, other than junior colleges, that are authorized and established by law, together with all activities and services authorized by law to be administered by or through each of those institutions.

(c) Other educational institutions.—Other state supported institutions primarily of an educational nature shall be considered parts of the state system of public education. The educational functions of other state supported institutions not primarily of an educational nature but which have specific educational responsibilities shall be considered responsibilities belonging to the state system of public education.

(d) Other educational services.—These shall include health services, vocational rehabilitation, and such special services and functions as may be authorized by law or by regulations of the state board as prescribed by law and as are considered necessary to improve, promote, and protect the adequacy and efficiency of the state system of public education.

(2) COUNTY SCHOOL SYSTEM.—A county school system is a part of the state system of public education and shall consist of all schools, courses, agencies, and services under the control of a county board.

(3) SCHOOL DISTRICT.—A school district is a special tax district created and existing pursuant to §10, Art. XII of the constitution and §230.34.

(4) COUNTY SCHOOL BOARD ELECTION DISTRICT.—A county school board election district is one of the districts into which a county is divided for the purpose of electing members of the county board.

(5) SCHOOL DISTRICT ELECTION.—A school district election is the election which is to be held on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of odd-numbered years for the purpose of voting the school district tax levy for maintenance purposes and for selecting trustees for the ensuing two years.

(6) ELECTOR; SCHOOL DISTRICT ELECTIONS.—An elector qualified to vote in any school district election is any qualified elector whose voting registration is in the school district where said election is being held, who pays a tax on real or personal property within such district.

(7) ELECTOR; BOND ELECTIONS.—An elector eligible to vote in any school district bond election is any freeholder in such district who is an elector qualified to vote in a school district election in such district.

(8) SCHOOLS AND JUNIOR COLLEGES DISTINGUISHED.—

(a) School.—A school is an organization of pupils for instructional purposes into classes or grades at any school center on an elementary, high, secondary or other public school level except junior colleges, approved by and under regulations of the state board.

(b) Junior college.—A junior college is an educational institution operated by a county board as part of a county school system under specific authority and regulations of the state board.

(9) SCHOOL CENTER.—A school center is a place of location of any school or schools on the same or on adjacent sites.

(10) ATTENDANCE AREA.—An attendance area is the area from which pupils are designated to attend a given school; that is, the territory served by any given school.

(11) SCHOOL PLANT.—A school plant includes all physical features incident to or necessary to accommodate pupils and teachers and the activities of the educational program of each school center. It includes site, playgrounds and equipment, athletic field, the school building or buildings with all their mechanical and educational equipment, gymnasiums, vocational buildings, bus sheds, teachers' homes, and other equipment wherever located necessary to provide an adequate school program.

(12) SCHOOL OFFICERS.—The officers of the state system of public education shall be the state superintendent of public instruction and the members of the state board of education and for each county school system the officers shall be the county superintendent of public instruction and members of the county board of public instruction.

(13) TRUSTEES.—The trustees of each school district shall be subordinate school officers and shall be referred to herein as trustees.

(14) INSTRUCTIONAL PERSONNEL.—Instructional personnel comprises the members of the instructional staff and includes supervisors, principals, teachers, librarians, and others engaged in an instructional capacity in the schools.

(a) Principal.—A principal is the head of any school or school center having more than one teacher. He may be a teaching principal, who devotes half or more of his time to actual classroom teaching, or a supervising principal, who devotes less than half of his time to actual classroom teaching and has charge of one or more schools. A supervising principal is a principal designated to have supervision of instruction in all schools in a particular part of a school district.

(b) Teacher.—A teacher, except as otherwise designated, shall be any person employed primarily in an instructional capacity.

(15) ADMINISTRATIVE PERSONNEL.—Administrative personnel comprises the county superintendent and those persons who may be employed as professional administrative assistants to the county superintendent, but does not include secretarial, clerical, or other office assistants.

(16) PARENT AND SCHOOL PATRON.—The terms parent and school patron shall be interpreted to refer to either or both parents, to any guardian, or to any person in parental relationship to a child or exercising supervisory authority in place of a parent over a child of public school age.

(17) SCHOOL GRADE.—A school grade is one of the divisions or sections of the public school program which represents the work of a school year.

(18) SCHOOL DAY.—A school day for any group of pupils is that portion of the day in which school is actually in session and shall comprise not less than five net hours, and not less than six hours including intermissions for all grades above the third; not less than four net hours for the first three grades; and not less than three net hours in kindergarten and nursery school grades; provided that the minimum length of the school day herein specified may be decreased not to exceed one net hour under regulations of the state board.

(19) SCHOOL WEEK.—A school week shall comprise the school days of any calendar week during which schools are actually in session plus any school holidays authorized under regulations of the state board and occurring within that week.

(20) SCHOOL MONTH.—A school month shall consist of twenty school days, excluding any school holidays.

(21) SCHOOL HOLIDAY.—A school holiday is a legal or other prescribed holiday falling on a regular school day during which schools are authorized in accordance with regulations of the state board not to be in session, but for which school employees do not receive compensation as for any day on which schools are in session.

(22) SCHOOL VACATION PERIOD.—That period of the school year beginning on or before December 24 and continuing for a period of time to be fixed by the county board which shall include Christmas day and New Year's day, shall be set apart as a vacation period, and during that time schools shall not be in session and that time shall not be considered a part of the school month. Any period when schools are not in session between the end of one school year and the beginning of the next school year shall also be considered a school vacation period.

(23) SCHOOL YEAR.—The school year shall comprise the period during which the schools are regularly in session for the minimum number of one hundred eighty days for pupils plus periods for pre-school and post-school conferences during any school fiscal year beginning on or after July 1 and ending on or before June 30; provided that the state board may in special cases on application by the county board approve a school year which begins not to exceed ninety days before the beginning of the school fiscal year.

(24) SCHOOL FISCAL YEAR.—The school fiscal year shall begin on July 1 and shall end at the close of June 30 in each and every year.

(25) EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN.—The term "exceptional children" as used in §§232.38, 236.04(4), 236.61, and 236.62 shall mean a child or youth who having been identified as exceptional by competent authority designated by the state board, shall be determined to require special classes, facilities or services or a combination thereof to be properly educated.

(26) SPECIAL SERVICES.—Means such related services to the exceptional child or youth as transportation, special teaching situations, i.e., (home, hospital) corrective teaching in speech, sight and health habits, the provision of special seats or equipment. In addition, special materials and/or teaching supplies may be required for the proper instruction of exceptional children and youth.

(27) The state board of education shall be authorized to set standards for the certification of personnel to effectuate the services prescribed in subsections (25) and (26) and in §§236.61 and 236.62.

(28) YEAR OF SERVICE.—The minimum time which may be recognized in administering the state program of education, not including retirement, as a year of service by a school employee shall include full time actual service, exclusive of sick leave and other types of leave and holidays, for a total of more than half of the number of days required for the normal contractual period of service for the position held, which shall be one hundred ninety-six days or longer, or the minimum required for the county to participate in the minimum foundation program in the year service was rendered, or the equivalent for service performed on a daily or hourly basis; provided further that absence from duty after the date of beginning service shall be covered by leave duly authorized and granted; provided further that the county board of public instruction shall have authority to establish a different minimum for local county school purposes.

228.13 Public schools required.—The public schools of the state shall provide for twelve consecutive years of instruction which shall constitute the uniform system of public free schools prescribed by §1, Art. XII of the constitution and which shall include the following:

(1) ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS.—Elementary schools shall comprise all classes and grades through the sixth or, upon decision by the county board when authorized by regulations of the state board, may include work through the eighth grade.

(2) HIGH OR SECONDARY SCHOOLS.—High or secondary schools shall include junior high schools with grades seven to nine, inclusive; senior high schools with grades ten to twelve, inclusive; or junior-senior high schools with grades seven to twelve, inclusive; or, upon decision by the county board when authorized by regulations of the state board, may be organized as four-year high schools comprising grades nine to twelve, inclusive.

History.—§213, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(32).

228.14 Other public schools; nursery schools, kindergartens, junior colleges, special schools and courses.—The public schools of Florida shall, in addition to the elementary and high schools prescribed in §228.13, include nursery schools, kindergartens, junior colleges and special schools, courses or classes as authorized below:

(1) NURSERY SCHOOLS.—Nursery schools shall comprise classes for children who have attained the ages prescribed by §232.05, and may be established in the discretion of county boards where sufficient children of these ages are available to make possible an organization of at least twenty such children at any school center.

(2) KINDERGARTEN.—Kindergarten classes comprising children between the ages as provided by §232.04, may be established in the discretion of county boards; provided, sufficient children of these ages are available to make possible an organization of at least twenty such children at any school center.

(3) JUNIOR COLLEGES.—Junior colleges may be established in the discretion of the county boards in the manner prescribed by law. The term, junior college, as used herein shall mean an educational institution operated by the county board as part of the county school system and offering (a) a program of general education consisting of classical and scientific courses in the thirteenth and fourteenth grades parallel to that of the first and second years of work at a senior four-year state institution of higher learning, (b) terminal courses of a technical and vocational nature, and (c) courses for adults.

(4) OTHER SCHOOLS, COURSES AND CLASSES.—There may be established at the discretion of county boards other schools, courses and classes pursuant to law or by regulation of the state board for (a) giving instruction in applied arts and sciences, (b) rehabilitation of atypical, dependent and delinquent children, (c) promoting the education of adults, (d) furnishing part-time, evening and vocational schools and classes, (e) providing vocational training, and (f) offering other types of instruction of a similar nature.

History.—§214, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(33); §7, ch. 29764, 1955; §1, ch. 57-252.

228.15 Junior college board.—

(1) CREATION OF STATE JUNIOR COLLEGE BOARD.—There is hereby created a state junior college board which shall consist of seven prominent and representative citizens of the state appointed by the governor for four year overlapping terms. The terms of all members shall begin on July 1. A majority of the members shall reside in counties contributing to the support of a public junior college, but not more than one member shall reside in any county or group of counties participating in the support of a single junior college.

(2) ORGANIZATION OF STATE JUNIOR COLLEGE BOARD.—The board shall select one of its members to serve as chairman. The chairman shall serve a term of one year but may be re-elected. The board shall meet upon call of the chairman or of the state superintendent of public instruction. The members of the board shall receive no compensation but shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in §112.061.

(3) POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE STATE JUNIOR COLLEGE BOARD.—The board shall be responsible for the establishment of state-wide policy regarding the operation of the public junior colleges and shall determine ways and means to effect articulation and coordination of junior colleges with other institutions, subject to the approval of the state board of education. The board shall recommend establishment of new junior colleges in accordance with the state plan to the state board of education; it shall review all capital outlay requests for state appropriations; and it shall perform such other duties as may be delegated to it by law or by the state board of education. In the performance of these responsibilities, the board shall be authorized to make studies and to employ such consultants or professional assistance as may be necessary and advisable, if funds are available therefor.

History.—§215, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(34); §1, ch. 23726, 1947; §8, ch. 29764, 1955; §2, ch. 57-252; §1, ch. 61-267; (1), (3) §2, ch. 63-495; (2) §19, ch. 63-400.

228.16 Support of public schools.—The public schools shall be supported and financed as prescribed below and in chapters 236 and 237. No matriculation or tuition fees shall be charged pupils whose parents are bona fide residents of Florida, except as prescribed herein.

(1) NURSERY SCHOOLS.—Nursery schools, when organized as public schools or public school classes, shall be supported and maintained from county taxes, district taxes, or from such funds supplemented by tuition charges, or from funds from federal or other lawful sources, exclusive of state sources.

(2) KINDERGARTENS.—Kindergartens, when organized as public schools or public school classes comprising children who have attained the age as provided by §232.04, shall be considered as part of the elementary school organization and shall be supported and maintained by funds from state, county, district, federal or other lawful sources or combinations of sources.

(3) ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY SCHOOLS.—

(a) Public education in grades one to twelve inclusive, comprising elementary and secondary schools and vocational departments or schools, shall be made available at public expense for a minimum term of at least nine months each year (one hundred eighty actual teaching days) to all persons who have attained the age as provided by §232.01. The funds for the support and maintenance of these schools shall be derived from state, county, district, federal or other lawful sources, combinations of sources, or as specifically set forth in this subsection.

(b) Pupils whose parent, parents, or guardian are nonresidents of Florida shall be charged a tuition fee of fifty dollars payable at the time the pupil is enrolled. For the purposes of this subsection a nonresident is defined as a person who has lived in Florida less than one year, or who has not purchased a home which is occupied by him as his residence prior to the enrollment of his child or children in school, or who has not filed a manifestation of domicile in the county where the child is enrolled. No tuition shall be charged pupils whose parent, parents, or guardian are in the federal military service or are a civilian employee, the cost of whose education is provided in part or in whole by federal subsidy to state-supported schools, or whose parent, parents, or guardian are migratory agricultural workers.

(c) Funds as set forth in paragraph (b) of this subsection shall be collected by the school in which the child is enrolled and remitted to the county board of public instruction for the county in which the funds are collected. The board of public instruction shall use the funds for the operation and maintenance of its schools.

(4) JUNIOR COLLEGES; TECHNICAL OR VOCATIONAL SCHOOLS AND SCHOOLS OFFERING UNGRADED WORK.—Junior colleges, and technical or vocational schools and schools offering ungraded work for persons regardless of age, when organized in accordance with the provisions of law, shall be supported and maintained as a part of the county school system from funds derived from state, county, district, federal or other lawful sources or combinations of sources; provided, that tuition or matriculation fees may be charged only if and as authorized by regulations of the state board.

(5) OTHER SCHOOLS, COURSES, AND CLASSES.—Other schools, courses and classes shall be supported by state, county, district, and federal funds or by any combinations of these funds supplemented by funds from such other lawful sources as may be available; provided, that tuition or matriculation fees may be charged only if and as authorized by regulations of the state board.

228.161 Junior college; purchase of land by municipality.—Any municipality wherein a junior college (as defined by §228.16(4)) is situated, is authorized and empowered to purchase land with municipal funds and to donate and convey such land or any other land, to the board of public instruction of the county wherein such municipality is located for the use of any such junior college.

History.—§1, ch. 57-736.

228.19 Other public educational services.—The general control of other public educational services shall be vested in the state board except as provided herein. The state board may, at the request of the board of commissioners of state institutions, advise as to standards and requirements relating to education to be met in all state schools or institutions under their control which provide educational programs. The state department of education, may provide supervisory services for the educational programs of all such schools or institutions. The direct control of any of these services provided as part of the county program of education shall rest with the county board. These services shall be supported out of state, county, district, and federal or other lawful funds depending on the requirements of the services being supported.

229.01 State functions.—Public education is basically a function and responsibility of the state. The responsibility for establishing such minimum standards and regulations as shall tend to assure efficient operation of all schools and adequate educational opportunities for all children is retained by the state. The responsibility for the actual operation and administration of all schools needed within the counties in conformity with regulations and minimum standards prescribed by the state, and also the responsibility for the provision of any desirable and practicable opportunities authorized by law beyond those required by the state are delegated by law to the school officials of the respective counties.

History.—§301, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(41).

229.04 Meeting dates.—On or before July first of each year the state board shall designate and set aside one day each month as a regular meeting day. Special meetings may be held on request of the state superintendent.

History.—§304, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(44).

229.05 Quorum.—Three members of the state board shall constitute a quorum. No business may be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present.

History.—§305, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(45).

229.06 Regulations and standards have force of law.—All rules and regulations and minimum standards adopted or prescribed by the state board in carrying out the provisions of the school code shall, if not in conflict therewith, have the full force and effect of law.

History.—§306, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(46).

229.07 General powers of state board.—The state board shall exercise the following general powers:

(1) DETERMINE POLICIES.—The state board shall determine and adopt such policies as are required by law and as in the opinion of the state board are necessary for the more efficient operation of any phase of public education.

(2) ADOPT RULES AND REGULATIONS.—The state board shall adopt and prescribe all needful rules and regulations for the proper enforcement and carrying out of the provisions of the school code.

(3) PRESCRIBE MINIMUM STANDARDS.—Whenever the establishment of minimum standards will aid in providing adequate educational opportunities and facilities, the state board shall adopt such minimum standards for any phase of education as are considered necessary in carrying out the provisions of the school code.

(4) PERFORM DUTIES AND EXERCISE RESPONSIBILITIES.—The state board shall have the power to perform such duties and to exercise such responsibilities as are assigned to it by law or as it may find necessary for the improvement of the state system of public education.

History.—§307, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(47); §12, ch. 29764, 1955.

cf.—§228.15 Junior colleges; state board.

§231.11 State board may prescribe minimum curricula for training of instructional personnel.

§232.18 Regulations relating to attendance.

229.08 Duties and responsibilities of state board.—It shall be the responsibility of the state board to exercise all powers and perform all duties prescribed below:

(1) HOLD MEETINGS.—To hold meetings as prescribed for the transaction of business relating to the operation of the state system of public education.

(2) RECORDS TO BE KEPT.—To require to be kept by the secretary such records as are necessary to set forth clearly all actions and proceedings of the state board.

(3) ADOPT SEAL.—To adopt a seal to be used in authenticating all official acts.

(4) HOLD TITLE TO LANDS HELD FOR INSTITUTIONS UNDER MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL OF STATE BOARD OF CONTROL.—To hold title to all lands and interests in lands had, held, or possessed by or for any or all of the institutions under the management and control of the state board of control.

*(5) ADMINISTER STATE SCHOOL TRUST FUND.—To provide for the proper administration of the state school fund established by § 4, art. XII of the constitution herein designated as the state school trust fund so that the principal shall remain sacred and inviolate, as required by §5, art. XII of the constitution.

(6) CONTROL SCHOOL LANDS.—To obtain possession of, to hold title to, and take general charge, oversight, and management of all lands granted to or held by the state for educational purposes; to fix the terms of sale and policies relating to rental or use of such lands, and to adopt whatever policies may be necessary to preserve them from trespass or injury and to provide for their improvement.

(7) INSTITUTIONS UNDER MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL OF STATE BOARD OF CONTROL.—To exercise such control and supervision over the institutions under the management and control of the state board of control as may be deemed proper by said state board of education with due regard to the highest interest of education.

(8) BIENNIAL BUDGET: ADOPTION OF.—To adopt and transmit to the state budget commission on official blanks furnished for such purposes on or before December fifteenth, biennially, prior to the meeting of the state legislature, estimates of expenditure requirements for the institutions, agencies, and services under the control of the state board except as otherwise provided in the school code, for each fiscal year of the ensuing biennium.

(9) VOCATIONAL EDUCATION: TO CONSTITUTE COOPERATING BOARD.—To constitute the state board for vocational education required by the acts of congress; to cooperate with the office of education, United States department of health, education and welfare, in the administration of all acts of congress relating to vocational education and vocational rehabilitation; to have all necessary authority to cooperate with the office of education in the administration of these acts; to administer any legislation pursuant thereto enacted by the state, and to administer the funds provided by the federal government and the state for the promotion of vocational education in agricultural subjects, trade and industrial subjects, distributive education, home economics subjects, and in vocational rehabilitation; to approve plans for the promotion of vocational education in such subjects as an essential and integral part of the public school system of the state and to provide for the preparation of teachers in such subjects; to fix the compensation of such officials and assistants as may be necessary to administer the provisions of any federal acts relating to these subjects in the state, and to pay such compensation and other necessary expenses of the administration from funds appropriated for these purposes; to provide for the making of studies and investigations relating to vocational education in such subjects; to promote and aid in the establishment by local communities of schools, departments, or classes; to prescribe qualifications for the teachers and supervisors of such subjects, and to have full authority to provide for the certification of such teachers and supervisors; to cooperate with local communities in the maintenance of schools, departments, or classes or to establish such schools, departments, or classes under its own direction and control; to establish and determine by general regulations the qualifications to be possessed by persons engaged in the training of vocational teachers; and to provide otherwise for the proper conduct of the vocational education and vocational rehabilitation program and for the articulation of this work with other phases of the state program.

(10) FEDERAL GOVERNMENT; COOPERATE WITH.—

(a) To approve plans for cooperating with the federal government in carrying out any or all phases of the educational program in which it may find cooperation to be desirable, and to provide for the proper administration of funds which may be appropriated by congress and apportioned to the state for any or all educational purposes.

(b) The state board of education shall prescribe regulations under which contracts, agreements or arrangements may be made with agencies of the federal government for funds, services, commodities, or equipment to be made available to the public tax-supported schools, school systems and educational institutions under the supervision or control of the state board of education.

(c) All contracts, agreements or arrangements made by public tax-supported schools, school systems or educational institutions under the supervision or control of the state board of education involving funds, services, commodities, or equipment which may be provided by agencies of the federal government shall be entered into in accordance with regulations prescribed by the said board of education and in no other manner.

(11) OTHER AGENCIES: COOPERATE WITH.—To approve plans for cooperating with other agencies, federal, state, county, and municipal, in the development of regulations and in the enforcement of laws for which the state board and such agencies are jointly responsible and to approve plans for cooperating with other appropriate agencies for the improvement of conditions relating to the welfare of schools.

(12) STATE BOARD OF CONTROL.—To supervise the work of the state board of control as prescribed by law.

(13) PROVIDE FOR ADMINISTRATION OF INSTITUTIONS, AGENCIES, AND SERVICES CONTROLLED BY STATE BOARD.—To provide for the proper administration of and to determine policies governing the operation of all institutions, agencies, and services directly under the control of the state board.

(14) APPOINT COMMITTEE MEMBERS.—To appoint with the advice of the state superintendent such committees and such members of committees as may be required by the school code or as it may find desirable on the basis of educational needs in the state.

(15) REMOVAL FROM OFFICE.—To remove from office for cause any person appointed by the state board under the provisions of the school code, and any trustee. Cause for such removal shall be incompetency, immorality, misconduct in office, gross insubordination, or willful neglect of duty. The charges against any such person shall be made known to him in writing through the state superintendent, and the person against whom charges are preferred shall be given, on not less than ten days' notice of the time and place of the hearing by the state board an opportunity to be heard in his own defense in person or by counsel.

(16) TO HEAR AND DETERMINE CONTROVERSIES.—To advise and counsel with school officials concerning the interpretation and meaning of the school code and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto; and whenever practicable to adjust amicably and settle such controversies arising thereunder as may be submitted to it by all persons directly concerned.

(17) AUTHORIZE FORMS AND REQUIRE REPORTS.—To authorize, approve, and require to be used such forms as are needed to promote uniformity, accuracy, and completeness in executing contracts, keeping records, and making reports, and to require such reports to be made in such manner as may be recommended by the state superintendent.

(18) PROVIDE FOR ENFORCEMENT OF LAWS AND REGULATIONS.—To provide for the proper enforcement of all laws relating to the state system of public education and of all regulations or actions of the state board.

(19) PRESCRIBE MINIMUM STANDARDS AND RULES AND REGULATIONS.—To prescribe such minimum standards and rules and regulations as are required by law or as are recommended by the state superintendent in accordance with the provisions of subsection (20), §229.17, and as it may find desirable to aid in carrying out the purposes and objectives of the school code.

(20) ADOPT LONG-TIME PROGRAM.—To adopt and use for guidance in determining policies, regulations, and minimum standards a long-time program for the development of the state system of public education based on special studies and surveys and recommendations submitted by the state superintendent.

(21) COOPERATE WITH STATE SUPERINTENDENT.—To cooperate fully with the state superintendent at all times to the end that the state system of public education may be constantly improved.

(22) OTHER RESPONSIBILITIES.—To assume such other responsibilities and to exercise such other powers and perform such other duties as may be assigned to it by law or as it may find necessary to aid in carrying out the purposes and objectives of the school code.

§231.28 Revocation of certificate by state board.

§235.04 Disposal of school property by county board.

Note.—Ch. 63-522 amended sub. §(5) as set forth below subject to the ratification of a constitutional amendment at the 1964 general election:

(5) ADMINISTER STATE SCHOOL TRUST FUND.—To provide for the proper administration of the state school fund established by §4, Art. XII of the constitution herein designated as the state school trust fund so that the principal shall remain sacred and inviolate except for expenditure for capital outlay on behalf of state institutions of higher learning, including junior colleges, and capital outlay for public schools, as provided and required by §5, Art. XII of the constitution, and to utilize the principal of such fund for the payment of the cost and expense necessary for and attendant to such capital outlay and capital improvement projects at institutions of higher learning, including junior colleges, and capital outlay for public schools, as may have been authorized or approved by the legislature in a general appropriations act or by other legislation.

229.082 Federal funds.—The state board is authorized, in its discretion, to accept the provision of any act of congress appropriating and apportioning funds to the state for use in connection with any phase of the state system of public education. Such funds shall be apportioned and disbursed as follows:

(1) STATE BOARD TO PRESCRIBE REGULATIONS.—The state board shall prescribe such regulations as it finds necessary to provide for the proper apportionment and disbursement of these funds.

(2) DISBURSEMENT OF FUNDS.—Disbursement of such funds shall be made by the state treasurer on warrants to be drawn by the state comptroller upon requisition by the state superintendent and approval by the state board.

History.—§14, ch. 29764, 1955.
Note.—Formerly §236.23.

229.091 Annual registration of all educational institutions with state board of education.—

(1) The state board of education shall organize and maintain in the office of the state superintendent of public instruction a register of educational institutions within the state coming within the provisions of this act. There shall be included in the registration of each institution the name and address of the institution, names of administrative officers, deans of colleges or schools, deans of students, enrollment, and number of teachers.

(2) For the purpose of organizing and maintaining this register, each individual, association, copartnership, or corporation, which designates itself as an elementary, secondary, business, technical or grade school below college level, or which gives pre-employment or supplementary training in technology or in fields of trade or industry, or any post-secondary school, junior college, college or university; or other institutions which offer academic, literary, or vocational training below college level, or any combination of the above, including institutions which perform the functions of the above schools through correspondence or extension, shall annually on a day designated by the state board of education register with the state superintendent of public instruction by executing and filing a registration form. The inquiries to be contained and answered in such form shall be prescribed by the state board of education, and sufficient copies of these forms shall be furnished annually to each such institution; provided any such institution publishing an annual catalogue containing the information as required by the registration form may file copies of such catalogue in lieu of the registration form; and provided further that institutions operated by the state or political subdivisions thereof, colleges or schools accredited by the southern association of colleges and schools, or the Florida association of colleges and universities, or the accrediting commission of business schools, or the Florida council of independent schools, or by the Florida state department of education of schools created pursuant to the provisions of the private school corporation act of 1959, chapter 623, or institutions operated by established religious bodies, or schools offering courses in in-service training given in connection with the primary purpose of the firm, person, association, partnership, or corporation and such primary purpose is not education, do not come within the provisions of this act.

(3) The failure of any institution to file the annual registration form as required by the state board of education shall be grounds for revoking the certificate of approval and the charter. Failure by proper authorities of institutions to file such registration shall be judged a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be subject to a fine not exceeding $500.00.

(4) It is the intent of the legislature in the passage of this act, to create a centralized registry where current information may be had relative to the educational institutions of this state coming within the provisions of this act as a service to the public, to governmental agencies and other interested parties.

History.—§§1-4, ch. 63-549.

229.12 Bond of state superintendent.—Before entering upon the duties of his office, the state superintendent shall execute with two good and sufficient sureties approved by the state board or with a surety company authorized to do business in Florida a bond in the amount of five thousand dollars, the premium for which shall be paid from money appropriated for the operation of the state department.

History.—§312, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(52).
cf.—§113.07 Bonds of officials.

229.15 State superintendent to be executive officer of state board.—The state board of education shall consist of the governor, the secretary of state, the attorney general, the state treasurer and the superintendent of public instruction; of which the governor shall be the president and the state superintendent of public instruction shall be secretary and executive officer.

History.—§315, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(55); §20, ch. 29764, 1955.

229.16 General powers of state superintendent.—The state superintendent shall have the following general powers:

(1) GENERAL SUPERVISION.—To exercise general supervision over the state system of public education in order to promote progress, to determine problems and needs, and to recommend improvements.

(2) RECOMMEND TO, AND EXECUTE POLICIES OF STATE BOARD.—To advise and counsel with the state board on all matters pertaining to education; to recommend to the state board for approval such matters and policies as, in his opinion, should be acted upon or adopted; and to execute or to provide for the execution of all such measures and policies as are approved.

(3) RECOMMEND AND SUPERVISE EX-

ECUTION OF RULES AND REGULATIONS.—To prepare and organize by subjects and submit to the state board for adoption such rules and regulations as, in his opinion, will contribute to the more orderly operation of any aspect of public education, and, when such rules and regulations have been adopted, to see that they are properly executed.

(4) RECOMMEND AND PUT INTO EFFECT MINIMUM STANDARDS.—From time to time to prepare, organize by subjects, and submit to the state board for adoption such minimum standards relating to the operation of any phase of the state system of public education as, in his opinion, will aid in assuring more adequate educational opportunities for all, and to see, insofar as practicable that such minimum standards as are adopted by the state board are put into effect and are properly observed.

(5) ADMINISTER STATE DEPARTMENT.—To organize, staff, and administer the state department so as to render the maximum service to public education in the state.

(6) PERFORM DUTIES AND EXERCISE RESPONSIBILITIES.—To perform such duties and exercise such responsibilities as are assigned to him by law or as may be found necessary by the state board for the improvement of the state system of public education in carrying out the purposes and objectives of the school code.

(7) PUBLICATION AND DISTRIBUTION OF FLORIDA SCHOOL CODE.—The state superintendent of public instruction shall cause to be printed such copies of said Florida school code as he may find necessary to meet the needs of his department, to supply the necessary copies to county school officials of the state, to be used by him in the mutual exchange of school laws with other states, to meet such needs as may be determined under regulations of the state board of education, and for sale to the general public. The price of the copies of the Florida school code to be sold to the general public shall be fixed by the state board of education to cover the cost of printing and distributing same.

(8) OTHER PUBLICATIONS.—In order that all persons concerned may be adequately informed regarding educational progress, conditions, plans, and needs, the state superintendent shall authorize publication through the department of such bulletins, reports, manuals, periodicals, circulars, and notices as he may consider advisable and desirable to promote public education in the state.

History.—§316, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 392(56); §21, ch. 29764, 1955.

Note.—Formerly §227.07(7).

229.17 Duties and responsibilities of state superintendent.—It shall be the responsibility of the state superintendent to exercise all powers and perform all duties prescribed below; provided, that in those fields in which policies are required by law to be approved by the state board the state superintendent shall act as the advisor and executive officer of the state board.

(1) MEETINGS OF THE STATE BOARD.—To attend all meetings of the state board, submit such recommendations and information to the state board for consideration as he may deem advisable or as may be requested of him by the state board, to advise and counsel with the state board regarding these matters, and to call such special meetings of the state board as he shall deem necessary.

(2) KEEP RECORDS.—To keep such records as are necessary to set forth clearly all acts and proceedings of the state board. These records shall include a minute book giving a chronological record of all proceedings as well as such indices and supplementary records as are necessary to classify and to locate any and all actions.

(3) SEAL.—To have a seal for his office, with which, in connection with his own signature, he shall authenticate true copies of decisions, acts, or documents.

(4) APPORTION STATE SCHOOL FUNDS.—To apportion all state school funds to the credit of the county general school funds of the respective counties in accordance with the provisions of law and of rules and regulations of the state board.

(5) STATE SCHOOL TRUST FUND.—To recommend to the state board policies and steps designed to protect and preserve the principal of the state school trust fund and to provide an assured and stable income from the fund, and to execute such policies and actions as are approved.

(6) SCHOOL LANDS.—To investigate and submit proposals for sale of all school lands held by the state for educational purposes; to recommend policies for rental, use, or improvement of such lands and for preserving them from trespass or injury; to execute such policies as are approved.

(7) INSTITUTIONS UNDER MANAGEMENT AND CONTROL OF STATE BOARD OF CONTROL.—To make such recommendations regarding the institutions under the management and control of the state board of control as he may deem advisable.

(8) BIENNIAL BUDGET: PREPARATION OF.—To prepare for transmission and submission to the state board, on or before November fifteenth, biennially, prior to the meeting of the state legislature, estimates of the expenditure requirements for the institutions, agencies, and services under the control of the state board, except as otherwise provided in the school code, for each fiscal year of the ensuing biennium.

(9) VOCATIONAL EDUCATION.—To act as secretary and executive officer of the state board in matters pertaining to vocational education and vocational rehabilitation; to recommend to the state board, and, when approved by the board, to execute plans for cooperating with the federal government for the conduct of the vocational rehabilitation program in the state; to designate such assistants as are necessary to carry out properly the program and plans; to carry into effect such rules and regulations as the state board may adopt for the promotion of vocational education and vocational rehabilitation in the state; to keep all necessary records and make all required reports, and to provide for the proper articulation of vocational education and vocational rehabilitation with all other phases of education in the state.

(10) FEDERAL GOVERNMENT.—To recommend ways and means of cooperating with the federal government in carrying out any or all phases of the educational program in which, in his opinion, cooperation is desirable. To recommend policies for administering funds which may be appropriated by congress and apportioned to the state for any or all educational purposes, and to execute such plans as are approved.

(11) OTHER AGENCIES.—To recommend policies and ways and means of cooperating with other agencies, federal, state, county, and city, for carrying out those phases of the program in which such cooperation is required by law or is deemed by him to be desirable, and to cooperate with such agencies in planning and bringing about improvements in the educational program.

(12) STATE BOARD OF CONTROL.—To bring to the attention of the state board recommendations of the state board of control relating to matters which are required to be approved by the state board.

(13) INSTITUTIONS, AGENCIES, AND SERVICES CONTROLLED BY STATE BOARD.—To recommend policies and regulations and to see that approved policies and regulations relating to the operation of schools, institutions, agencies, and services under the direct control of the state board are properly carried out.

(14) RECOMMEND COMMITTEE MEMBERS.—To recommend to the state board the personnel of such committees as are authorized by law; also to recommend to the state board the establishment and personnel of such committees as may be deemed by him to be desirable in carrying out the purposes and objectives of the school code.

(15) REMOVAL FROM OFFICE.—To recommend when he deems it desirable that the state board remove from office for cause any person appointed by the state board or any other person removable by the state board; to act for the state board in notifying any such person of the charges against him and of the date on which the hearing has been scheduled, and to assemble and present to the state board any evidence that may be available relating to any charges which are filed.

(16) ISSUE CERTIFICATES AND LICENSES AND RECOMMEND REVOCATION.—To issue to qualified applicants in accordance with state board regulations certificates, permits, and licenses authorized by law, and to recommend to the state board revocation of any certificate, permit, or license for cause on the basis of evidence assembled and submitted to the state board.

(17) TO HEAR AND DETERMINE CONTROVERSIES.—To advise and counsel concerning the interpretation and meaning of the school code and the rules and regulations adopted pursuant thereto; and whenever practicable to amicably adjust and settle such controversies arising thereunder as may be submitted to him by all persons directly concerned.

(18) FORMS AND REPORTS.—To prepare for approval of the state board such forms and procedures as are deemed necessary to be used by county boards, school officials, principals, teachers, and other employees and to assure uniformity, accuracy, and efficiency in the keeping of records, the execution of contracts, the preparation of budgets, and the submission of reports; to furnish at state expense, when deemed advisable by him, those forms which can more economically and efficiently be provided in that manner; and to notify the county board of any county for which any report has not been filed in the manner or by the date prescribed by law or by regulations of the state board that the salary of the county superintendent must be withheld until the report has been properly filed.

(19) LAWS AND REGULATIONS.—To see, insofar as practicable, that all laws and regulations of the state board relating to education are properly observed and to report to the state board any violation which he does not succeed in having corrected.

(20) MINIMUM STANDARDS AND RULES AND REGULATIONS.—To prepare, organize, and recommend to the state board such minimum standards and rules and regulations in the following fields as are required by law or as he may find necessary to aid in carrying out the purposes and objectives of the school code; and to execute such standards and rules and regulations as are adopted by the state board in the following fields: (1) establishment, organization, and operation of schools, agencies, services, and institutions, including the classification or accreditation of parochial, denominational, and private schools; (2) personnel; (3) child welfare; (4) courses of study and instructional aids; (5) transportation; (6) school plant; (7) finance; (8) records and reports.

(21) LONG-TIME PROGRAM.—To assemble all data relative to the preparation of a long-time program for the development of the state system of public education, to prepare and propose such a program after consulting with educational and lay leaders, as well as with the state board, and, from time to time, to make such revisions in the proposed program as he may consider necessary.

(22) CONDUCT SPECIAL STUDIES AND SURVEYS.—To conduct in cooperation with county boards or with other school officials any special studies or surveys which he may consider desirable as a basis for bringing about improvements in the educational program.

(23) RECOMMEND CHANGES AND IMPROVEMENTS IN THE SCHOOL CODE.—To draw up and submit to the legislature, when he deems it necessary, recommendations for additional legislation or changes in the school code, which recommendations may be in the form of prepared bills.

(24) EXAMINE, ACCREDIT, AND RECOMMEND IMPROVEMENTS IN SCHOOLS, SCHOOL SYSTEMS, AND INSTITUTIONS.—To examine the school plant, personnel, instruction, schools, methods of keeping accounts, records and reports and other aspects of county school systems and educational institutions; to make recommendations to the proper authorities for needed changes and improvements; and to classify or accredit schools or services on the basis of standards and regulations prescribed by the state board.

(25) SECRETARY AND EXECUTIVE OFFICER OF STATE TEXTBOOK PURCHASING BOARD.—To serve as secretary and executive officer for the state textbook purchasing board as described in chapter 233.

(26) CALL MEETINGS.—To call at such times and places as he may find practicable and desirable conferences or other meetings on educational matters of county superintendents, other county school officials, principals, teachers, or others connected with the state system of public education, these meetings to be used as the basis for obtaining and imparting information and instructions on the practical workings and problems of the school system and the means of promoting its efficiency and usefulness.

(27) PUBLICATIONS.—To arrange for the preparation, publication, and distribution of materials relating to the state system of public education which will supply information concerning needs, problems, plans, possibilities; also to prepare and publish at least biennially a report giving statistics and other useful information pertaining to the state system of public education; to have printed copies of school laws, forms, instruments, instructions and regulations of the state board and to provide for the distribution of the same under regulations of the state board.

(28) OTHER RESPONSIBILITIES.—To assume such other responsibilities and to perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by law or as may be deemed by him to be necessary to aid in the more efficient operation of the state system of public education in carrying out the purposes and objectives of the school code.

229.19 Functions of state department.—The state department shall be located in the offices of the state superintendent, shall operate under the direction and control of the state superintendent and shall assist him in providing professional leadership and guidance, and in carrying out the policies, procedures, and duties authorized by law or by the state board or found necessary by him to attain the purposes and objectives of the school code.

History.—§319, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(59).

229.20 Organization of state department.—The state department shall be organized into such divisions, branches, or sections as may be found necessary and desirable by the state superintendent to perform all proper functions and render maximum services relating to the operation and improvement of the state system of public education; provided, that the organization shall be such as to promote coordination of functions and services relating to administrative and financial problems, on the one hand, and to instructional problems, on the other hand.

History.—§320, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(60).

229.201 Records; preservation; destruction.—

(1) The purpose of this section is to make available for the use of the state superintendent of public instruction sufficient floor space to enable him to efficiently administer the affairs of the office.

(2) The state superintendent of public instruction is authorized to photograph, microphotograph, or reproduce on film or prints, documents, records, data, and information of a permanent character which in his discretion he may select, and the state superintendent of public instruction is authorized to destroy any of the said documents after they have been photographed and after audit of his office has been completed for the period embracing the dates of said instruments. Photographs or microphotographs in the form of film or prints made in compliance with the provisions of this section shall have the same force and effect as the originals thereof would have, and shall be treated as originals for the purpose of their admissibility in evidence. Duly certified or authenticated reproductions of such photographs or microphotographs shall be admitted in evidence equally with the original photographs or microphotographs.

(3) The state superintendent of public instruction is authorized, in his discretion, to destroy general correspondence which is over three years old; records of bills, accounts, vouchers and requisitions which are over five years old and copies of which have been filed with the comptroller; and other records, papers and documents over three years old which do not serve as part of an agreement or understanding nor have value as permanent records.

History.—§§1-3, ch. 29745, 1955.

229.21 Maintenance of state department.—Appropriations and other funds available for the maintenance of the state department shall be expended as provided by law.

History.—§321, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(61).

229.22 Employees; appointment, compensation.—The state superintendent shall appoint with due regard to qualifications for the duties to be performed, designate the titles, prescribe the duties, determine the compensation, and effect the removal for cause of all employees in the state department, the total amount of compensation for employees to be subject to the limitations of the appropriations available for the maintenance of the state department.

History.—§322, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(62).

229.23 Special services of the state department; pooling of purchases by county boards.—The state department of education shall render such special services as will be of benefit to the schools of the state. As one phase of these services it shall assist county boards in securing school buses, contractual needs, equipment, and supplies at as reasonable prices as possible by providing a plan under which county boards may voluntarily pool their bids for such purchases. The state department of education shall prepare bid forms and specifications, obtain quotations of prices and make such information available to county boards in order to facilitate this service. County boards from time to time, as prescribed by the state board, shall furnish the state department of education with information concerning the prices paid for such items and the state department of education shall furnish to county boards periodic information concerning the lowest prices at which school buses, equipment, and school supplies are available based upon comparable specifications; provided, that no county board shall make any such purchases which exceed three hundred dollars at any higher prices except during emergencies as prescribed by the state board; provided, further, that all prices are to be computed f.o.b. point of destination.

229.24 State board authorized to accept gifts.—

(1) The state board of education shall have authority to accept, on behalf of the state system of public education or of any school fund established or recognized by law, any gift or bequest of money, royalty or other personal or real property given or bequeathed to the state system of public education, or to any school fund established or recognized by law; provided, that no conditions shall be attached to any such gift or bequest of money, royalty or other personal or real property given or bequeathed for the purposes designated herein which are contrary to the provisions of law or regulations of the state board relating to the use or expenditure of the fund.

(2) The state treasurer shall be treasurer and custodian of all such gifts and bequests of money, royalty and other personal property given or bequeathed for the purposes designated herein. He shall receive and provide for the proper custody and disbursement of any such funds, in accordance with the provisions of law and regulations of the state board.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 20879, 1941.

cf.—§272.01 Board to hold title to patents, trade marks, copyrights, etc.

229.241 State board authorized to exchange land.—

(1) The state board of education of this state is hereby authorized in its discretion to exchange land of the state school fund held by said board for other land in this state held by any other state agency, or by any county in this state, or by any person, private or corporate, where such exchange will be advantageous to said fund.

(2) The said state board of education shall have authority to fix the terms and conditions of any such exchange and to select and agree upon the lands to be conveyed to and to be received by said board, and to make and enter into contracts and agreements therefor. To be acceptable, the land to be received by said board in exchange shall be free of tax or other debt and shall be clear as to title.

(3) In making exchange of land, the said board may in its discretion convey said land without the reservation of oil, gas, or of phosphate and other minerals required by §270.11, where deeds to land received in exchange convey title in fee simple without such reservations, or to determine the part or parts to be reserved and the part or parts to be conveyed so as to facilitate exchange on a basis as nearly equal as may be.

(4) In pursuance of the provisions of the constitution of this state that "The principal of the state school fund shall remain sacred and inviolate," the land comprising part of said fund shall not be subject to taxes of any kind whatsoever, but shall enjoy constitutional immunity therefrom, nor shall taxes of any kind be imposed thereon; nor, since not subject to tax, shall the state or any state agency be liable for taxes or the equivalent thereof sought to be imposed upon said land. All outstanding tax sale certificates against land of the state school fund are hereby cancelled.

(5) Any such exchanges of land heretofore made by said state board of education are hereby confirmed and validated.

History.—§§1-5, ch. 25186, 1949.

229.25 Short title.—Sections 229.25-229.39 shall be known as the "vocational rehabilitation law of Florida."

229.27 Establishment of division of vocational rehabilitation.—There is hereby established in and under the supervision of the state board a division of vocational rehabilitation.

History.—§3, ch. 25364, 1949.

229.28 Director of division of vocational rehabilitation.—The division shall be administered, under the general supervision and direction of the executive officer, by a director appointed by the executive officer with the approval of the state board in accordance with established personnel standards and on the basis of his education, training, experience, and demonstrated ability in the field of vocational rehabilitation. The director shall devote his full time to the administration of the vocational rehabilitation program. In carrying out his duties under §§229.25-229.39 the director

(1) shall, with the approval of the executive officer, prepare regulations for promulgation by the state board governing personnel standards, the protection of records and confidential information, the manner and form of filing applications, eligibility, and investigation and determination thereof, for vocational rehabilitation services, procedures for fair hearings and such other regulations as he finds necessary to carry out the purposes of §§229.25-229.39;

(2) shall, with the approval of the executive officer and the state board, establish appropriate subordinate administrative units within the division;

(3) shall, recommend to the executive officer for appointment such personnel as he deems necessary for the efficient performance of the functions of the division;

(4) shall, prepare and submit to the state board annual reports of activities and expenditures and, prior to each regular session of the legislature, estimates of sums required for carrying out §§229.25-229.39 and estimates of the amounts to be made available for this purpose from all sources;

(5) shall, with the approval of the executive officer, make requisitions for disbursement, in accordance with §229.082;

(6) shall, with the approval of the executive officer and the state board, take such other action as he deems necessary or appropriate to carry out the purposes of §§229.25-229.39;

(7) may, with the approval of the executive officer and the state board, delegate to any officer or employee of the division such of his powers and duties, except the making of regulations and the making of recommendations for appointment of personnel, as he finds necessary to carry out the purposes of §§229.25-229.39.

History.—§4, ch. 25364, 1949.

229.29 Administration.—Except as may be otherwise provided by the law for the vocational rehabilitation of the blind, the state board, through the division, shall provide vocational rehabilitation services to disabled individuals determined to be eligible therefor and, in carrying out the purposes of §§229.25-229.39, the division is authorized, among other things,

(1) to cooperate with other departments, agencies, and institutions, both public and private, in providing for the vocational rehabilitation of disabled individuals, in studying the problems involved therein, and in establishing, developing and providing, in conformity with the purposes of §§229.25-229.39, such programs, facilities and services as may be necessary or desirable;

(2) to enter into reciprocal agreements with other states to provide for the vocational rehabilitation of residents of the states concerned;

(3) to conduct research and compile statistics relating to the vocational rehabilitation of disabled individuals.

History.—§5, ch. 25364, 1949.

229.30 Cooperation with federal government.—The state board, through the division, shall cooperate, pursuant to agreements, with the federal government in carrying out the purposes of any federal statutes pertaining to vocational rehabilitation and is authorized to adopt such methods of administration not in conflict with the laws of Florida as are found by the federal government to be necessary for the proper and efficient operation of such agreements or plans for vocational rehabilitation and to comply with such conditions as may be necessary to secure the full benefits of such federal statutes.

History.—§6, ch. 25364, 1949.

229.301 State accepts provisions of vocational rehabilitation act.—The consent of the state is given to the provisions and requirements of the act of congress approved by the president, June 2, 1920, amended June 5, 1924, entitled "An act to provide for the promotion of vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry or otherwise and their return to civil employment," and any acts supplementary thereto or amendatory thereof. State and county funds may also be used subject to regulations of the state board for the maintenance of physically-handicapped persons in training under the provisions of this act in cases where such persons could not otherwise avail themselves of the services which the national act was designed to provide. The treasurer of Florida may receive the grants of money appropriated under said act and amendments thereto, and the state board is empowered and instructed to cooperate with the office of education in accord with the terms and conditions expressed in the act of congress aforesaid.

History.—§1021, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(340); §24, ch. 29764, 1955.

Note.—Formerly §236.21.

229.302 Cooperative agreements with other governmental agencies relative to joint use of services and facilities.—

(1) The division of vocational rehabilitation of the state board for vocational education is authorized to enter into cooperative agreements with any state agency or institution, county, county agency or institution, municipality, or municipal agency or institution having legal responsibility for the care of the disabled for the purpose of enabling the division and the cooperating governing bodies, agencies and institutions to utilize jointly their services and facilities to enlarge and improve the opportunities for disabled individuals to achieve self-support or self-care.

(2) For this act to be valid an agreement must be entered into mutually by the governing bodies, agencies, or institutions involved and must be approved by the administrative officers or by the boards governing the counties, municipalities, agencies, or institutions. The agreements shall provide only for those services by each political subdivision, agency or institution which the political subdivision, agency or institution is authorized by law to provide; provided that any political subdivision, agency or institution shall be permitted to withdraw and terminate its part of an agreement at the end of any fiscal year by giving the other political subdivision, agency or institution involved thirty days notice.

(3) In order to effectuate the provisions of this act, the state budget commission is authorized and empowered within its discretion when it finds it to be in the public interest to permit two or more agencies, institutions, county or city governments, pursuant to their mutual, unanimous request to pool portions of their funds or to transfer portions of their funds to the account of the division of vocational rehabilitation in order to carry out plans for rehabilitation which are lawful and which give promise of better achieving the rehabilitation of disabled persons than would result through the separate efforts of the participants in the agreement. Funds pooled or transferred under this act may be made available for expenditures for rehabilitation by the agency designated in the agreement to disburse such funds. Funds expended pursuant to agreements authorized under this act may be utilized for the purpose of matching funds available under the terms of U.S. public law 565 or other federal laws pertaining to the rehabilitation of handicapped persons.

(4) A copy of each agreement made pursuant to this act shall be filed with the secretary of state within a period of thirty days following the consummation of such agreement.

History.—§§1-4, ch. 63-246.

229.303 Cooperative agreements with Florida school for the deaf and blind.—

(1) The division of vocational rehabilitation of the state board for vocational education is authorized to enter into cooperative agreements with the Florida school for the deaf and blind for the purpose of enabling said agencies to utilize jointly their services and facilities to enlarge and improve the opportunities for deaf and blind individuals to achieve self-support or self-care.

(2) (a) For such an agreement to be valid, it must be entered into mutually by such agencies and must be approved by the administrative officers or by the boards governing same. The agreement may provide for those services which each agency or institution is authorized by law to furnish; provided that such agreement may establish a vocational rehabilitation facility for the deaf at the Florida school for the deaf and blind which facility may accept as clients any deaf adult otherwise qualified for admission. Either agency may withdraw and terminate its part of such agreement at the end of any fiscal year by giving the other agency involved thirty days notice.

(b) The Florida school for the deaf and blind is authorized to use funds now in its budget for matching those of the division of vocational rehabilitation, in furtherance of such agreement. Said school may employ such additional personnel as may be necessary to implement such agreement.

(3) In order to effectuate the provisions of this act, the state budget commission shall, upon the conclusion of any such agreement, pool portions of the funds of said agencies as indicated in such agreement. Funds pooled or transferred under this act may be made available for expenditures for rehabilitation by the agency designated in the agreement to disburse such funds, and may be used to compensate additional personnel employed under subsection (2)(b). Funds expended pursuant to any agreement authorized under this act may be utilized for the purpose of matching funds available under the terms of federal laws pertaining to the rehabilitation of the deaf.

(4) A copy of any such agreement, when and if concluded pursuant hereto, shall be filed with the secretary of state within a period of thirty days following the consummation of such agreement.

History.—§§1-4, ch. 63-389.

229.31 Appropriations.—Budget estimates of the amount of appropriations needed each fiscal year for vocational rehabilitation services and for the administration of said program shall be submitted to the state budget commission and the legislature by the executive officer of the state board or in such other manner as may be provided by law and sufficient funds for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of §§229.25-229.39 shall be appropriated by the legislature. In the event federal funds are available to the state for vocational rehabilitation purposes, the division of vocational rehabilitation is authorized to comply with such requirements as may be necessary to obtain said federal funds in the most advantageous proportions possible insofar as this may be done without violating other provisions of the state law and constitution. Any federal funds received as reimbursement of state expenditures for a prior year or biennium shall be added to the state appropriation for the biennium during which such funds are reimbursed and the same shall be made available for expenditure and so expended as to entitle the state board to receive any federal matching funds which may be available for vocational rehabilitation pursuant to such expenditures.

History.—§7, ch. 25364, 1949; §25, ch. 29764, 1955.

229.32 Gifts.—The director is hereby authorized and empowered with the approval of the state board, to accept and use gifts made unconditionally by will or otherwise for carrying out the purposes of §§229.25-229.39. Gifts made under such conditions as in the judgment of the state board are proper and consistent with the provisions of §§229.25-229.39 and the laws of the United States and the laws of Florida may be so accepted and shall be held, invested, reinvested, and used in accordance with the condition of the gift.

History.—§8, ch. 25364, 1949.

229.33 Eligibility for vocational rehabilitation.—Vocational rehabilitation services shall be provided to any disabled individual (a) who is a resident of the state at the time of filing his application therefor and whose vocational rehabilitation, the director determines after full investigation, can be satisfactorily achieved, or (b) who is eligible therefor under the terms of an agreement with another state or with the federal government: provided, that, except as otherwise provided by law or as specified in any agreement with the federal government with respect to classes of individuals certified to the state board thereunder, the following rehabilitation services shall be provided at public cost only to disabled individuals found to require financial assistance with respect thereto:

- (1) Physical restoration;
- (2) Transportation provided for other purposes than to determine the eligibility of the individual for vocational rehabilitation services and the nature and extent of the services necessary;
- (3) Occupational licenses;
- (4) Placement equipment and materials;
- (5) Maintenance;
- (6) Training books and materials.

History.—§9, ch. 25364, 1949.

229.34 Benefits not assignable.—The right of a disabled individual to any of the benefits under §§229.25-229.39 shall not be transferrable or assignable at law or in equity and any benefits, including money, goods or chattels received hereunder shall be exempt from all state, county and municipal taxes and from sale under the process of any court, except for obligations contracted for the purchase of such property.

History.—§10, ch. 25364, 1949.

229.35 Retention of title to and disposal of equipment.—The division is authorized to retain title to any property, tools, instruments, training supplies, equipment or other items of value acquired for use of handicapped persons or employed personnel in the operation of the vocational rehabilitation program, and to repossess and transfer same for the use of other handicapped persons or employees.

The director, with the approval of the state board, is authorized to offer for sale any surplus items acquired in the operation of the program when they are no longer necessary, or to exchange them for necessary items which may be used to greater advantage. When any such surplus equipment is sold or exchanged a receipt for same shall be taken from the purchaser showing the consideration given for such equipment and forwarded to the treasurer and any funds received by the state board pursuant to any such transactions shall be deposited in the state treasury in the appropriate federal or state rehabilitation funds and shall be available for expenditure for any purpose consistent with §§229.25-229.39.

History.—§11, ch. 25364, 1949.

229.36 Hearings.—Any individual applying for or receiving vocational rehabilitation who is aggrieved by any action or inaction of the division shall be entitled, in accordance with regulations, to a hearing in accordance with the regulations adopted and promulgated by the state board on that subject.

History.—§12, ch. 25364, 1949.

229.37 Misuse of vocational rehabilitation lists and records.—It shall be unlawful, except for purposes directly connected with the administration of the vocational rehabilitation program, and in accordance with regulations, for any person or persons to solicit, disclose, receive, or make use of, or authorize, knowingly permit, participate in, or acquiesce in the use of any list of, or names of, or any information concerning, persons applying for or receiving vocational rehabilitation, directly or indirectly derived from the records, papers, files, or communications of the state or subdivisions or agencies thereof, or acquired in the course of the performance of official duties. Any violation of this provision is hereby declared to be a misdemeanor and shall be punishable accordingly.

History.—§13, ch. 25364, 1949.

229.38 Limitation on political activity.—No officer or employee engaged in the administration of the vocational rehabilitation program shall use his official authority or influence to permit the use of the vocational rehabilitation program for the purpose of interfering with an election or affecting the results thereof or for any partisan political purpose. No such officer or employee, excluding elective officials and constitutional officers, shall take any active part in the management of political campaigns or participate in any political activity, except that he shall retain the right to vote as he may please and to express his opinion as a citizen on all subjects. No such officer or employee shall solicit or receive, nor shall any such officer or employee be obliged to contribute or render, any service, assistance, subscription, assessment, or contribution for any political purpose. Any officer or employee violating this provision shall be subject to discharge or suspension. No such officer or employee engaged in the administration of the vocational rehabilitation program (except elective officials and constitutional officers) shall be appointed or promoted as a reward for loyalty and effort in a political campaign or other political activity, nor shall any such officer or employee be demoted or discharged because of political affiliation or lack of same except as a disciplinary measure in instances of violation of the prohibitions against political activity. Any violation of this section is declared to be a misdemeanor and punishable accordingly.

cf.—§104.31 Political activities of state officers and employees.

229.39 Duties of other agencies and officials regarding §§229.25-229.39.—It shall be the duty of all officials in charge of state or county agencies whose official duties enable them to know the needs of disabled individuals for vocational rehabilitation to report to the state board the names of such individuals who come to their attention and who appear to be eligible and feasible for vocational rehabilitation services provided under §§229.25-229.39. Such officials shall cooperate with the state board in carrying out the purpose of §§229.25-229.39 in so far as their duties and facilities permit, but the board may not delegate any of its duties and responsibilities under §§229.25-229.39 to any other agency or individual except with respect to disabled individuals for each of whom a vocational rehabilitation plan has been approved by the director or by a member of his staff to whom he has delegated authority to approve individual vocational rehabilitation plans. Provided, however, that nothing in §§229.25-229.39 shall be so construed as to prevent other agencies from rendering services to disabled individuals not designed especially for the purpose of vocationally rehabilitating such individuals or services to which disabled individuals might be entitled without regard to their disabilities.

History.—§15, ch. 25364, 1949.

229.411 Self-care program for handicapped; legislative findings.—It is hereby found by the legislature of the state that many seriously disabled persons are institutionalized or require the services of an attendant and that studies and demonstrations have shown that many such persons, although not apparently feasible for vocational rehabilitation services based on a plan designed to prepare for employment in a designated vocation as now required for eligibility for vocational rehabilitation services nevertheless could be substantially assisted toward achieving ability for self-care by the services the division of vocational rehabilitation could render to them and that such persons might be made able to dispense with or greatly reduce the need for services of an attendant or for institutional care, thereby relieving such individuals from being a burden on others and helping to restore and maintain their independence and self respect; and some such persons, after achieving the ability to care for themselves, may later through further rehabilitation services be rendered able to perform remunerated work thereby making them less dependent on others for financial support. The legislature further finds that the division of vocational rehabilitation which serves approximately twenty thousand disabled individuals annually, is specially qualified and equipped by over thirty years of rehabilitation experience and by the nature of its comprehensive program of disability evaluation, studies of individual capacity for employment and vocational rehabilitation services leading to the employment of handicapped persons to administer such a program and that it is in the best interest of the state that such a program be established as a means of providing necessary services to individuals, thereby reducing and discouraging dependency and encouraging individual effort for self support.

History.—§1, ch. 59-385.

229.42 Definitions.—

(1) "Severely handicapped person" is defined to mean a person of employable age with a physical or mental disability so handicapping as to require that he be institutionalized or have the services of an attendant in order to provide himself with his daily living requirements.

(2) "Evaluation services for rehabilitation purposes" means comprehensive, individual case studies including diagnosis, psychological and physical tests of capacity for training and rehabilitation, and such other procedures and observations necessary to determine the nature and extent of a handicap, its effect on employability and ability for self-care, the attitude of the individual toward his handicap and especially his desire to overcome the handicap through training and rehabilitation procedures, the prognosis for improvement and the practical procedures and training necessary to achieve the ability for self care and for eventual employment.

(3) "Self-care rehabilitation services" means such diagnostic, psychological, medical, surgical, physical restoration, guidance, training and related services including equipment and prosthetic appliances and training in their use needed to enable a severely handicapped person to dispense with or largely dispense with the need for institutional care or for the services of an attendant and to achieve, insofar as practicable, the ability for independent living.

(4) "Severely handicapped person eligible for self-care rehabilitation services" means such person whose rehabilitation for self-care purposes the division of vocational rehabilitation finds to be feasible under the provisions of this law.

(5) "Division of vocational rehabilitation" means the division of vocational rehabilitation authorized by the vocational rehabilitation laws of Florida, §§229.25-229.39.

History.—§2, ch. 59-385.

229.43 Administration.—The division of vocational rehabilitation of the state board for vocational education is hereby authorized, in addition to its other duties and responsibilities, to administer a program of self-care rehabilitation services for severely handicapped persons who appear to be feasible for such services.

History.—§3, ch. 59-385.

229.44 Powers of division of vocational rehabilitation.—The division of vocational rehabilitation in carrying out a program of providing self-care rehabilitation services to severely handicapped persons shall be authorized to:

- (1) Employ necessary personnel;
- (2) Employ consultants;
- (3) Provide diagnostic, medical, and psychological and other evaluation services;
- (4) Provide training necessary for rehabilitation;

(5) Provide for persons found to require financial assistance with respect thereto maintenance while undergoing rehabilitation, transportation incident to necessary rehabilitation services, physical restoration services, prosthetic appliances and other equipment determined to be necessary for rehabilitation.

(6) Provide rehabilitation facilities necessary for the rehabilitation of the handicapped or contract with such facilities for necessary services. The division shall not, however, assume responsibility for permanent custodial care of any individual and shall provide rehabilitation services only for a period long enough to accomplish the rehabilitation objective or to determine that rehabilitation is not feasible through the services which can be made available to the individual being served.

History.—§4, ch. 59-385.

229.45 Cooperation by division with state agencies.—The division of vocational rehabilitation is hereby authorized to cooperate with other agencies of the state government or with any non-profit, charitable corporations or foundations concerned with the problems of the disabled. The division may provide disability evaluation, work capacity appraisal and appraisal of vocational rehabilitation potential of handicapped individuals for other public agencies pursuant to agreements made with the approval of the state board at the request of such agencies. The division may charge the agencies contracting for these services the actual cost thereof.

History.—§5, ch. 59-385.

229.46 Cooperation with federal agencies.—The division of vocational rehabilitation is hereby authorized to cooperate with any agency of the federal government charged with the responsibility for administering laws relating to rehabilitation of handicapped individuals or the evaluation of the capacity of handicapped persons for employment, or for preparation for employment or for self-care. The division shall further be authorized to accept and disburse any funds appropriated by congress and made available to the state for the purpose of rehabilitating disabled individuals or the evaluation of disabled individuals for rehabilitation or for gainful activity, or for any other purpose related to the lawful function of the division, and the division is authorized to take such action, with the approval of the state board, as may be necessary to execute the purposes of any such federal grants.

History.—§6, ch. 59-385.

229.47 Utilization of state and federal funds.—The state board for vocational education is authorized to utilize for purposes of this law and for matching any federal funds which may be available for similar rehabilitation purposes any funds appropriated or allotted to the board for the rehabilitation of the handicapped. The board shall further authorize the division of vocational rehabilitation to accept such gifts and refunds as may be made unconditionally or as are not burdened with conditions inconsistent with the purposes of the rehabilitation program.

History.—§8, ch. 59-385.

229.48 State treasury depository.—The state treasury shall be the depository of all funds appropriated by the state legislature or received as federal grants or received as gifts from private individuals for the purposes of this program. Such funds shall be kept in a separate account distinct from all other state funds. Funds received by grant or gift, other than state appropriations, shall not lapse or be converted to the general fund at the end of any appropriations period.

History.—§9, ch. 59-385.

229.49 Reports of division of vocational rehabilitation.—The division of vocational rehabilitation shall prepare at the end of each fiscal year for submission to the state board for vocational education a report showing the activities of the division, the number of handicapped persons served, the effects of such service, the expenditures made in carrying out the purposes of this law, the funds necessary for the succeeding year or biennium; the division shall also make recommendations to the board relative to rehabilitation services which it believes necessary to improve the economic conditions of Florida's handicapped citizens.

History.—§11, ch. 59-385.

229.50 State advisory committee on rehabilitation of handicapped.—The executive officer of the state board for vocational education shall appoint a state advisory committee on rehabilitation of the handicapped. The purpose of the committee shall be to advise the state board and the division of vocational rehabilitation regarding the rehabilitation of the handicapped and to advise the division with regard to services which are available to disabled and handicapped persons through other agencies of the state government and through private agencies and to make recommendations for the coordination and improvement of services which are designed for the rehabilitation of the citizens of Florida. The membership of the committee shall include the state health officer, the state director of public welfare, the state director of the crippled children's commission, the chairman of the Florida industrial commission, and the coordinator of the state board of institutions. In addition to these designated members, the executive officer shall appoint six other members, two of whom shall be chosen from the medical profession, one shall be selected from organized labor, one shall be a person who is engaged as an employer or manager in commerce or industry, one shall be selected from a private agency or association having a major interest in the rehabilitation of the handicapped. One member of the advisory committee shall be selected from the membership of the Florida legislature. The committee shall serve without compensation but shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in §112.061. Members designated from the public agencies named above shall serve continuously on the committee. The other members shall serve for terms designated by the executive officer of the state board for vocational education.

History.—§7, ch. 59-385; §19, ch. 63-400.

- 230.65 State and county financial support of area vocational-technical centers.

230.01 County unit.—Each county shall constitute a unit for the control, organization, and administration of schools.

History.—§401, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(64); §27, ch. 29764, 1955.

230.02 Scope of county system.—A county school system shall include all public schools, classes, and courses of instruction and all services and activities directly related to education in that county which are under the direction of the county school officials.

History.—§402, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(65).

230.03 Control; organization, administration, and supervision.—The county school system shall be controlled, organized, administered, and supervised as follows:

(1) COUNTY SYSTEM.—The county school system shall be considered as a part of the state system of public education. All actions of county school officials shall be consistent and in harmony with state laws and with rules and regulations and minimum standards of the state board. County school officials, however, shall have the authority to provide additional educational opportunities, as desired, which are authorized but not required by law.

(2) COUNTY BOARD.—Responsibility for the organization and control of the public schools of the county shall be vested in the county board, as provided in §§230.04-230.23.

(3) COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.—Responsibility for the administration of the schools and for the supervision of instruction in the county shall be vested in the county superintendent as the secretary and executive officer of the county board, as set forth in §§230.24-230.33.

(4) TRUSTEES.—The school district trustees shall constitute an advisory body for the district as set forth in §§230.34-230.43.

(5) PRINCIPAL OR HEAD OF SCHOOL.—Limited responsibility for the administration of any school or schools at a given school center and for the supervision of instruction therein shall be delegated to the principal or head of the school or schools as hereinafter set forth.

History.—§403, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(66); (4), (5) r. by §28, ch. 29764, 1955, remaining subsections renumbered; (4) §1, ch. 57-249.

230.04 Membership of county board.—The county board in each county shall be composed of five members. Each member of the county board shall be a qualified elector of the county in which he serves, and shall be a resident of the county board member residence district from which he is elected as hereinafter prescribed.

History.—§404, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(67); §5, ch. 23726, 1947.

230.05 Term of office.—County board members shall be elected at the general election in November for terms of four years.

History.—§405, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(68); §29, ch. 29764, 1955.

230.061 County board member residence districts.—

(1) For the purpose of nominating and electing county school board members, each county shall be divided into five county school board member residence districts, which shall be numbered one to five, inclusive, so as to place in each district, as nearly as practicable, the same number of qualified electors.

(2) The county school board of any county may make any change which it deems necessary in the boundaries of any county school board residence district of the county at any meeting of the county school board; provided that such changes shall be made only in odd-numbered years and provided further, that no change which would affect the residence qualifications of any incumbent member shall disqualify such incumbent member during the term for which he is elected.

(3) Such changes in boundaries shall be shown by resolutions spread upon the minutes of the county board, and shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court, and shall be published at least once in a newspaper published in the county within thirty days after the adoption of the resolution, or, if there be no newspaper published in the county, shall be posted at the county courthouse door for four weeks thereafter. A certified copy of this resolution shall be transmitted to the office of the secretary of state.

History.—§3, ch. 57-249; (2) §1, ch. 59-232.

230.08 Nomination in primary elections.—Each political party holding a primary election during any election year shall nominate one nominee for membership on the county board from each county board member residence district from which a member is to be elected. The nomination from each county board member residence district shall be by vote of the qualified electors of the entire county.

History.—§408, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(71); §7, ch. 23726, 1947; §32, ch. 29764, 1955.

230.10 Election of board by county-wide vote.—The election of members of the county board shall be by vote of the qualified electors of the entire county. Each candidate who qualifies to have his name placed on the ballot of the general election shall be listed according to the county board member residence district in which he resides. Each qualified elector of the county shall be entitled to vote for one candidate from each county board member residence district. The candidate from each county board member residence district who receives the highest number of votes in the general election shall be elected to the county board.

History.—§410, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(73); §9, ch. 23726, 1947.

230.11 County board members to represent entire county.—The county board of each county shall represent the entire county. Each member of the county board shall serve as the representative of the entire county, rather than as the representative of any district in the county.

History.—§411, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(74).

230.12 Board members shall qualify.—Before entering upon the duties of office after being elected, or, if appointed, within ten days after receiving notice of appointment, each member of the county board shall take the prescribed oath of office.

History.—§412, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(75).

230.15 Organization of board.—On the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January following each general election, the county board shall organize by electing a chairman, the county superintendent to act as the ex officio secretary; provided, that if a vacancy should occur in the chairmanship, the county board shall proceed to elect a chairman at the next ensuing regular or special meeting. At the organization meeting, the county superintendent shall act as chairman until the organization is completed. The chairman and the secretary shall then make and sign a copy of the proceedings of organization, including the schedule for regular meetings and the names and addresses of all county school officers, annex their affidavits that the same is a true and correct copy of the original, and the secretary shall file the document within two weeks with the state superintendent.

History.—§415, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(78); §26, ch. 29754, 1955.

230.151 Vice-chairman of board; powers.—

Any county school board of Florida is hereby authorized to elect one of its members as vice-chairman in the same manner and for the same term as the chairman.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 26905, 1951; §1, ch. 29754, 1955.

230.16 Regular and special meetings.—

The county board shall hold not more than one regular meeting each month for the transaction of business according to a schedule arranged by the county board and shall convene in special sessions when called by the county superintendent or by the county superintendent on request of the chairman of the county board or on request of a majority of the members of the county board; provided, that actions taken at special meetings shall have the same force and effect as if taken at a regular meeting; and, provided further, that in the event the county superintendent should fail to call a special meeting when requested to do so, as prescribed herein, such a meeting may be called by the chairman of the county board or by a majority of the members of the county board by giving two days' written notice of the time and purpose of the meeting to all members and to the county superintendent, in which event the minutes of the meeting shall set forth the facts regarding the procedure in calling the meeting, and the reason therefor, and shall be signed either by the chairman or by a majority of the members of the county board.

History.—§416, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892 (79).

230.17 Place of meetings.—All regular and special meetings of the county board shall be held at the county seat and in the office of the county superintendent or in a room convenient to that office and regularly designated as the county board meeting room.

History.—§417, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(80).

230.18 Majority a quorum.—A majority shall constitute a quorum for any meeting of the county board. No business may be transacted at any meeting unless a quorum is present, except that a minority of the county board may adjourn the meeting from time to time until a quorum is present.

History.—§418, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(81).

230.19 Vacancies; how filled.—The office of any county board member shall be vacant when he removes his residence from the county board election district from which he was elected. All vacancies on the county board shall be filled by appointment by the governor.

History.—§419, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(82).

230.201 Compensation of members of county board.—In addition to the salary provided in §145.041, each member of a county board shall be allowed from the county school fund reimbursement of traveling expenses as authorized in §112.061, provided, however, that any travel outside of the county shall also be governed by the rules and regulations of the state board.

History.—§25, ch. 29754 and §37, ch. 29764, 1955; §4, ch. 57-249; §9, ch. 63-400.

Note.—Formerly §242.02.

230.21 County board to constitute a corporation.—Each county board is constituted a body corporate by the name of "The Board of Public Instruction of _____ County, Florida." In all suits against county boards, service of process shall be had on the chairman of the county board, or, if he can not be found, on the county superintendent as executive officer of the county board, or, in the absence of the chairman and the county superintendent, on another member of the county board.

History.—§421, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(84).
cf.—§47.13 Service of process, generally.

230.22 General powers of county board.—

The county board, after considering recommendations submitted by the county superintendent, shall exercise the following general powers:

(1) DETERMINE POLICIES.—The county board shall determine and adopt such policies as are deemed necessary by it for the efficient operation and general improvement of the county school system.

(2) ADOPT RULES AND REGULATIONS.—The county board shall adopt such rules and regulations to supplement those prescribed by the state board as in its opinion will contribute to the more orderly and efficient operation of the county school system.

(3) PRESCRIBE MINIMUM STANDARDS.—The county board shall adopt such minimum standards as are considered desirable by it for improving the county school system.

(4) CONTRACT, SUE, AND BE SUED.—The county board shall constitute the contracting agent for the county school system. It may, when acting as a body, make contracts, also sue and be sued in the name of the county board; provided, that in any suit, a change in personnel of the county board shall not abate the suit, which shall proceed as if such change had not taken place.

(5) PERFORM DUTIES AND EXERCISE RESPONSIBILITY.—The county board may perform those duties and exercise those responsibilities which are assigned to it by law or by regulations of the state board and, in addition thereto, those which it may find to be necessary for the improvement of the county school system in carrying out the purposes and objectives of the school code.

History.—§422, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(85).

230.221 Permitting courses in Bible study and religion.—The county school board may install in the public schools in the county a secular program of education including but not limited to an objective study of the Bible and of religion.

History.—§1, ch. 63-532.
cf.—§231.09(2) Bible reading.

230.23 Powers and duties of county board.

—The county board acting as a board shall exercise all powers and perform all duties listed below:

(1) REQUIRE MINUTES AND RECORDS TO BE KEPT.—Require the county superintendent, as secretary, to keep such minutes and records as are necessary to set forth clearly all actions and proceedings of the county board.

The typed minutes of each meeting shall be read, corrected if necessary, and approved at the next regular meeting; provided, that this action may be taken at an intervening special meeting if the board desires. The minutes shall be signed by the chairman and county superintendent immediately after correction and approval, and shall be kept as a public record in a permanent, bound book in the county superintendent's office.

The minutes shall show the vote of each member present on all matters on which the board takes action. It shall be the duty of each member to see to it that both the matter and his vote thereon are properly recorded in the minutes. Unless otherwise shown by the minutes, it shall be presumed that the vote of each member present supported any action taken by the board in either the exercise of, violation of or neglect of the powers and duties imposed upon the board by law or legal regulation, whether such action is recorded in the minutes or is otherwise established. It shall also be presumed that the policies, appointments, programs and expenditures not recorded in the minutes but made and actually in effect in the county school system were made and put into effect at the direction of the county board, unless it can be shown that they were done without the actual or constructive knowledge of the members of the board.

(2) CONTROL PROPERTY.—Retain possession of all property to which title is now held by the county board and to obtain possession of and accept and hold under proper title as a body corporate by the name of "The Board of Public Instruction of _____ County, Florida," all property which may at any time be acquired by the county board for educational purposes in the county; manage and dispose of such property to the best interests of education; contract, sue, receive, purchase, acquire by the institution of condemnation proceedings if necessary, lease, sell, hold, transmit, and convey the title to real and personal property, all contracts to be based on resolutions previously adopted and spread upon the minutes of the county board; receive, hold in trust, and administer for the purpose designated, money, real and personal property, or other things of value granted, conveyed, devised, or bequeathed for the benefit of the schools of the county or of any one of them.

(3) ADOPT SCHOOL PROGRAM.—Authorize the assembling of all data and the making of school surveys essential to the development of a school program for the entire county and to adopt such a program as the basis for operating the schools—one phase of the program to be a long-time program and another phase to constitute the annual program.

(4) ESTABLISHMENT, ORGANIZATION, AND OPERATION OF SCHOOLS.—Adopt and provide for the execution of plans for the establishment, organization, and operation of the schools of the county, as follows:

(a) Schools and attendance areas.—After considering recommendations of the county superintendent to authorize schools to be located and maintained in those communities in the county where they are needed to accommodate as far as practicable and without unnecessary expense all the youth who should be entitled to the facilities of such schools, separate schools to be provided for white and negro children; and approve the area from which children are to attend each such school, such area to be known as the attendance area for that school; provided, that only under exceptional circumstances as defined under regulations of the state board may an elementary school be located within four miles of another elementary school and a high school within ten miles of another high school in rural areas for children of the same race.

(b) Adequate educational facilities for all children without tuition.—See that adequate educational facilities are provided through the uniform system of public schools for all children of school age in the county, these facilities to be provided with due regard to the needs of the children on the one hand and to economy on the other. Insofar as possible, arrangements are to be made for children to attend, without tuition charges to such children on account of county lines, those schools offering the facilities needed by the children which are most readily accessible and which would involve the least cost, regardless of whether those schools are located in another county; provided, that nursery schools and kindergartens may be established, as provided by law, and fees for such schools may be prescribed in the discretion of the county board.

(c) Elimination of school centers and consolidation of schools.—Provide for the elimination of school centers within the county and for the consolidation of schools whenever the needs of pupils can better and more economically be served at other school centers than those which they have been attending.

(d) Cooperate with boards of adjoining counties in maintaining schools.—Approve plans for cooperating with county boards of adjoining counties in this state or in adjoining states for establishing school attendance areas composed of territory lying within the counties and for the joint maintenance of county-line schools or other schools which are to serve those attendance areas. The conditions of such cooperation shall be as follows:

1. Establishment. — The establishment of a school to serve attendance areas lying in more than one county and the plans for maintaining the school shall be effected by resolutions spread upon the minutes of each county board concerned, which resolutions shall set out the territorial limits of the areas from which children are to attend the school and the plan to be followed in maintaining and operating the school.

2. Control.—Control of the school or schools involved shall be vested in the county board of the county in which the school or schools are located unless otherwise agreed by the county boards.

3. Settlement of disagreements. — In the event an agreement can not be reached relating to such attendance areas or to the school or schools therein, the matter may be referred jointly by the cooperating county boards or by either county board to the state superintendent for decision under regulations of the state board, and his decision shall be binding on both county boards.

(e) Classification and standardization of schools.—Adopt plans and regulations for determining those school centers at which work is to be restricted to the elementary grades, school centers at which work is to be offered only in the high school grades, and school centers at which work is to be offered in any or all grades, and in accordance with such plans and regulations to determine the grade or grades in which work is to be offered at each school center; approve standards and regulations for classifying and standardizing the various schools of the county on such bases as to furnish incentive for the improvement of all schools.

(f) Opening and closing of schools; fixing uniform date for.—Fix, insofar as possible, a uniform date each year for the opening of all schools under its control, on which date, unless otherwise authorized by the county board, all schools shall open, in order that the keeping of records, the making of reports, the payment of salaries, and the supervision of instruction may be facilitated; provided, that all schools, unless excepted under regulations of the state board, shall begin so as to close before the last day of June of any year; fix the closing date for all schools in the county, these dates to be so determined as to assure, as far as practicable, uniform terms for all schools in the county; adopt regulations for the closing of schools during an emergency and to provide for the payment of salaries to the members of the instructional staff on such occasions. However, notwithstanding any of the foregoing, any county board may, in its discretion operate any or all of the county schools on a quarterly basis; provided that all education requirements required by law are complied with. Any county board so instituting a twelve-month school program shall have full authority in the assignment of pupils so as to equalize the number of pupils attending the schools during any quarter and so as to utilize school facilities to the maximum extent on a year-round basis and shall also have full authority to enter into contracts with principals, teachers and other school personnel for employment on a twelve-month basis at the same rate of monthly compensation and with the same monthly ratio of minimum foundation program contributions as is applicable to employment on a ten-month basis.

(g) Observance of school holidays and vacation periods.—Approve and designate the school holidays to be observed during the year, except for emergencies; provided, that the number of such school holidays shall not exceed a total of one day for each thirty days of the term; approve the manner of observance of such holidays by the schools of the county; and approve and designate the school vacation periods. These holidays and vacation periods shall, insofar as practicable, be uniform for all schools of the county.

(h) Vocational classes and schools.—Provide for the establishment and maintenance of vocational schools, departments, or classes, giving instruction of less than college grade in agriculture, trades and industries, distributive education, or in home economics, and use any moneys raised by public taxation in the same manner as moneys for other school purposes are used for the maintenance and support of public schools or classes of less than college grade.

(i) Vocational rehabilitation. — Provide for the establishment and maintenance of vocational rehabilitation services for the physically handicapped, consistent with state and federal laws.

(j) County boards authorized to establish public evening schools.—The county boards of public instruction in the state may establish and maintain, in the respective counties, public evening schools, elementary or high, as a branch of the public school system of the county; and such evening schools, when so maintained, shall be available to all residents of Florida, native or foreign born, who, for any satisfactory cause, have been unable to attend any day public school of the county or school district; and all evening schools so maintained shall be under the direction and control of the county board of public instruction and the county school superintendent and shall be subject to the same laws, rules and regulations prescribed for the conduct of day schools in the school district or county, as the case may be, in which such evening schools are maintained; and the expense thereof shall be paid out of the county school fund.

(k) Instruction in operation of motor vehicles.—

1. Beginning with the school year 1961-62, there may, and beginning with the school year 1963-64, there shall, be installed in all secondary schools of the state, a course of study and instruction in the safe and lawful operation of a motor vehicle. Such course of study and employment of instructors therefor shall be administered under rules and regulations of the state board of education.

2. For the purpose of financing the driver education program in the secondary schools, there shall be levied an additional fifty cents per year to the driver's license fee required by §322.21. The additional fee shall be promptly remitted to the department of public safety. The department of public safety shall transmit the additional fee to the state treasurer, and such fee shall be deposited in the general revenue fund.

3. All moneys appropriated biennially for driver education shall be expended by the department of education solely for the purpose of financing a program of instruction in safe driving of motor vehicles in the public schools throughout the state for young people who have not attained their twentieth birthday or who are enrolled in a secondary school or students of the state school for the deaf and blind.

4. All moneys appropriated for driver education shall be administered under the direction of the state superintendent of public instruction and shall be made available to the respective county boards of public instruction upon certification to the state comptroller by the state superintendent of public instruction based upon facts reported to him by the county superintendents of the respective counties, provided that:

a. Instructional personnel engaged in driver education shall be approved and certified in accordance with standards prescribed by the state board of education.

b. All schools offering a course of instruction in driver education shall require of each enrollee a physical screening examination in conformity with regulations prescribed by the state board of education.

c. Distribution of the funds to the respective county boards of public instruction shall be in a uniform manner, reimbursing them for the expense of their driver education program to the extent that the appropriation will permit, based on the principles defined in the minimum foundation program so that opportunity for driver education shall be on an equal basis in all the counties as to instruction and equipment, in accordance with the rules and regulations which shall be promulgated by the state board of education in accord herewith.

5. From the appropriated funds, the state superintendent of public instruction is hereby empowered to provide funds and authorize expenditures by county boards of public instruction for purchasing equipment and supplies, including automobiles purchased through the department of public safety, for the training of personnel, for identifying and encouraging correction of health problems which limit ability to operate a motor vehicle, and for such other purposes as may be deemed necessary for the adequate and efficient administration of the aims and objectives of this subsection.

6. The state superintendent of public instruction is empowered from the funds appropriated, to incur expenditures for the employment and expenses of such personnel on the state department of education staff as may be necessary, for the conducting of studies, and for any and all requirements for carrying out the purposes of this subsection.

7. The state board of education is authorized to adopt rules and regulations pertaining to the driver education program in the public school system, provided, that such courses shall not be made a part of or a substitute for any of the minimum requirements for graduation, and provided that a sufficient number of driver education courses shall be offered during out-of-school hours, in the late afternoon or evening, on Saturdays and during the summer months so that no person will find it necessary to take driver education at the expense of some other essential part of his program of studies or of his employment. Such restricted license as may be necessary for such instruction shall be provided by the department of public safety.

(1) Americanism vs. communism; required high school course.—

1. The legislature of the state hereby finds it to be a fact that

a. The political ideology commonly known and referred to as communism is in conflict with and contrary to the principles of constitutional government of the United States as epitomized in its national constitution,

b. The successful exploitation and manipulation of youth and student groups throughout the world today are a major challenge which the free world forces must meet and defeat, and

c. The best method of meeting this challenge is to have the youth of the state and nation thoroughly and completely informed as to the evils, dangers and fallacies of communism by giving them a thorough understanding of the entire communist movement, including its history, doctrines, objectives and techniques.

2. The public high schools shall each teach a complete course of not less than thirty hours, to all students enrolled in said public high schools entitled "Americanism versus communism."

3. The course shall provide adequate instruction in the history, doctrines, objectives and techniques of communism and shall be for the primary purpose of instilling in the minds of the students a greater appreciation of democratic processes, freedom under law, and the will to preserve that freedom.

4. The course shall be one of orientation in comparative governments and shall emphasize the free-enterprise-competitive economy of the United States as the one which produces higher wages, higher standards of living, greater personal freedom and liberty than any other system of economics on earth.

5. The course shall lay particular emphasis upon the dangers of communism, the ways to fight communism, the evils of communism, the fallacies of communism, and the false doctrines of communism.

6. The state textbook committee and the state board of education shall take such action as may be necessary and appropriate to prescribe suitable textbook and instructional material as provided by state law, using as one of its guides the official reports of the house committee on un-American activities and the senate internal security sub-committee of the United States congress.

7. No teacher or textual material assigned to this course shall present communism as preferable to the system of constitutional government and the free-enterprise-competitive economy indigenous to the United States.

8. The course of study hereinabove provided for shall be taught in all of the public high schools of the state no later than the school year commencing in September 1962.

(m) Cooperate with other agencies in joint projects.—Adopt plans for cooperating with county boards of other counties in this state or in adjoining states or with other governmental agencies or with nonprofit corporations as provided in this act for such joint projects or activities as may be authorized by regulations of the state board. The conditions of such cooperation shall be as follows:

1. Establishment.—The project or activity shall be initiated by resolutions spread upon the minutes of each county board concerned.

2. Control.—The control and ownership of any physical property and the control and administration of any project or activity engaged in under the provisions of this section shall be vested in the board of public instruction of the county of location unless otherwise agreed by the county boards or unless the project or activity is undertaken as authorized in subsection (3).

3. Other agencies.—The state board may, by regulation, authorize one or more county boards to engage in a contractual relationship with governmental agencies or with nonprofit corporations which have been formed and incorporated for the purpose of providing a cooperative educational service to the counties.

4. Settlement of disagreements.—In the event an agreement cannot be reached relating to any phase of the project or activity, the matter may be referred jointly by the cooperating county boards, or by any individual county board of the cooperating counties, to the state superintendent for decision under regulations of the state board, and his decision shall be binding on all county boards of the cooperating counties.

(5) PERSONNEL. — Designate positions to be filled, prescribe qualifications for those positions, and provide for the appointment, compensation, promotion, suspension, and dismissal of employees as follows, subject to the requirements of chapter 231; provided, however, that in all Florida counties wherein trustees are abolished, nominations of such school personnel as had hitherto been made to said trustees shall be made directly to the county board of public instruction at the times regularly prescribed by law for nomination by trustees in those counties in which trustees have not been abolished.

(a) Positions and qualifications.—Act upon recommendations submitted by the county superintendent for positions to be filled and for minimum qualifications for personnel for the various positions.

(b) Appointment; other than instructional staff and other employees in district schools.—Act on written recommendations submitted by the county superintendent of persons to act as administrative, supervisory, technical, attendance or health assistants, his office assistants, and bus drivers and appoint persons to fill such positions.

(c) Appointment of instructional staff.—Act not later than six weeks before the close of school during any year on the nomination by the trustees of supervising principals or principals and act not later than four weeks before the close of school during any year on the nomination by the trustees of all other members of the instructional staff. The county board may reject, but only for good cause, any supervising principal, principal, or other member of the instructional staff nominated, and, in case the second nomination by the trustees for any such position be rejected, the said county board shall then proceed on its own motion to fill such position; provided, that in the event the trustees do not make nominations within the time limits hereinabove prescribed, the county board may upon its own motion, appoint supervising principals or principals or other members of the instructional staff, as the case may be.

(d) Appointment of instructional staff and other employees.—Act not later than six weeks before the close of school during any year on the nomination by the county superintendent of supervising principals or principals; act not later than four weeks before the close of school during any year on the nominations by the county superintendent of all other members of the instructional staff; and act on the nomination by the county superintendent of all other employees in such schools. The county board may reject any supervising principal, principal, or other member of the instructional staff, or other employee nominated, and in case the second nomination by the county superintendent for any position be rejected, the said county board shall then proceed on its own motion to fill such positions.

(e) Compensation and salary schedules.—Adopt a salary schedule or salary schedules to be used as a basis for paying members of the instructional staff and other school employees, such schedules to be arranged, insofar as practicable, so as to furnish incentive for improvement in training and for continued and efficient service; fix and authorize the compensation of members of the instructional staff and other school employees on the basis of such schedules.

(f) Contracts and terms of service.—Provide written contracts for all regular members of the instructional staff. All contracts with members of the instructional staff shall be in accordance with the salary schedule adopted by the county board and shall be in writing for definite amounts and for definite terms of service and shall specify the number of monthly payments to be made. All such contracts shall be executed in duplicate and a true signed copy retained by the board in the office of the county superintendent. The county board is prohibited from paying any salary to any member of the instructional staff, except when this provision has been observed.

(g) Transfer and promotion.—Act on recommendations of the county superintendent regarding transfer and promotion of any employee, subject to the provisions of §§230.34-230.43.

(h) Suspension and dismissal.—Suspend or dismiss members of the instructional staff and other school employees; provided, that no administrative assistant, supervisor, principal, teacher, or other member of the instructional staff may be discharged or removed during the term for which he is employed without opportunity to be heard at a public hearing after at least ten days' written notice of the charges against him and of the time and place of hearing; and, provided further, that the charges must be based on immorality, misconduct in office, incompetency, gross insubordination, willful neglect of duty, drunkenness, or conviction of any crime involving moral turpitude. Whenever such charges are made against any such employee of the county board, the county board may suspend such person without pay, pending a speedy hearing of such charges, but if charges are not sustained he shall be immediately reinstated, and his back salary shall be paid. In cases of suspension by the county board or by the county superintendent, the county board shall hold a public hearing, after notice as above provided, to determine upon the evidence submitted whether the charges have been sustained and, if said charges are sustained, either to dismiss said employee or fix the terms under which said employee may be reinstated. If such charges are sustained and such employee is discharged, his contract of employment is thereby canceled.

(6) CHILD WELFARE.—Provide for the proper accounting for all children of school age, for the attendance and control of pupils at school, for proper attention to health, safety, and other matters relating to the welfare of children in the following fields, as prescribed in chapter 232.

(a) School census.—Provide for an accurate school census of the children of the county as a basis for determining children who should attend school and for enforcing compulsory school attendance laws.

(b) Admission, classification, promotion, and graduation of pupils.—Adopt rules and regulations for admitting, classifying, promoting, and graduating pupils to or from the various schools of the county, including discretionary power to separate the sexes in the various schools of the county.

(c) Enforcement of attendance laws.—Provide for the enforcement of all laws and regulations relating to the attendance of pupils at school and for employing such assistants to the county superintendent as may be needed to enforce effectively these laws.

(d) Control of pupils.—Adopt rules and regulations for the control, disciplining, and suspension of pupils and decide all cases recommended for dismissal.

(e) Provide for education of special groups.—Provide, insofar as practicable, for special facilities for classes for backward, defective, truant, or incorrigible children of school age and for children with unusual ability; and provide facilities in the way of day, part-time, or night schools or classes for adolescents and adults, including illiterates and groups needing Americanization and, when desirable and practicable, provide for the education of children below the first grade level in nursery school or kindergarten classes.

(f) Health examinations and treatments.—Provide for all children of school age in the county to have periodic physical and dental examinations and, insofar as practicable, arrange and cooperate with other organizations for the prompt treatment of all pupils who are in need of remedial and preventive treatment; provided, that except in emergencies pupils may be given remedial or preventive treatment only on written consent of the parent.

(7) COURSES OF STUDY AND OTHER INSTRUCTIONAL AIDS.—Provide adequate instructional aids for all children as follows and in accordance with the requirements of chapter 233.

(a) Courses of study; adoption.—Adopt courses of study for use in the schools of the county; provided, that such courses shall comprise materials needed to supplement minimum courses of study prescribed by the state board for all schools.

(b) Textbooks.—Provide for proper requisitioning, distribution, accounting, storage, care, and use of all textbooks and other books furnished by the state and furnish such other textbooks and library books as may be needed; provided, that the county board shall not requisition from the state any textbooks for pupils attending a junior college, nor shall it furnish any textbooks to pupils attending a junior college.

(c) Other instructional aids.—Provide such other teaching accessories and aids as are needed to carry out the program.

(d) School libraries; establishment and maintenance.—Establish and maintain school libraries or school libraries open to the public and, in addition thereto, such traveling or circulating libraries as may be needed for the proper operation of the county school system.

(8) TRANSPORTATION OF PUPILS.—After considering recommendations of the county superintendent to make provision for the transportation of pupils to the public schools or school activities they are required or expected to attend; authorize transportation routes arranged efficiently and economically; provide the necessary transportation facilities, and, when authorized under regulations of the state board and if more economical to do so, provide limited subsistence in lieu thereof; and adopt the necessary rules and regulations to insure safety, economy, and efficiency in the operation of all buses, as prescribed in chapter 234.

(9) SCHOOL PLANT.—Approve plans for locating, planning, constructing, sanitating, insuring, maintaining, protecting, and condemning school property as prescribed in chapter 235, and as follows:

(a) School building program.—Approve and adopt a county-wide school building program, indicating the centers at which school work is to be offered on the various levels, the type, size, and location of schools to be established, and the steps to be taken to carry out the program. This program shall be a part of the long-time program for the county and, insofar as practicable, shall be based on the recommendations of a survey made or approved under the direction of the state department.

(b) Sites, buildings, and equipment.—Select and purchase school sites, playgrounds, and recreational areas located at centers at which schools are to be constructed and of adequate size to meet the needs of pupils to be accommodated; to approve the proposed purchase of any site, playground, or recreational area for which district funds are to be used; to expand existing sites; to rent buildings when necessary; to erect or contract for the erection of buildings and provide for the proper supervision of construction; to make or contract for additions, alterations, and repairs on buildings and other school properties; to insure that all plans and specifications for buildings provide adequately for the safety and well-being of pupils, as well as for economy of construction by having such plans and specifications submitted to the state department for approval; to provide furniture, books, apparatus, and other equipment necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the schools.

(c) Maintenance and upkeep of school plant.—Provide adequately for the proper maintenance and upkeep of school plants, so that children may attend school without sanitary or physical hazards and provide for the necessary heat, lights, water, power, and other supplies and utilities necessary for the operation of the schools.

(d) Insurance of school property.—Carry insurance on every school building in all school plants including contents, boilers and machinery, except buildings of three classrooms or less which are of frame construction and located in a tenth class public protection zone as defined by the Florida inspection and rating bureau; and on all school buses and other property under the control of the county board or title to which is vested in the county board, except as exceptions may be authorized under regulations of the state board.

In consideration of the premium at which each policy shall be written it shall be a part of the policy contract between the county and the named insured that the company shall not be entitled to the benefit of the defense of governmental immunity for the insured by reason of exercising a governmental function on any suit brought against the insured. Immunity of the county board against liability damages is waived to the extent of liability insurance carried by the county board. Provided, however, no attempt shall be made in the trial of any action against a county board of public instruction to suggest the existence of any insurance which covers in whole or in part any judgment or award which may be rendered in favor of the plaintiff, and if a verdict rendered by the jury exceeds the limit of the applicable insurance, the court shall reduce the amount of said judgment or award to a sum equal to the applicable limit set forth in the policy.

(e) Condemnation of buildings.—Condemn and prohibit the use for public school purposes of any building which can be shown for sanitary or other reasons to be no longer suitable for such use, and when any building is condemned by any state or other government agency as authorized in chapter 235, to see that it is no longer used for school purposes.

(10) FINANCE.—Take steps to assure children adequate educational facilities through the financial procedure authorized in chapters 236 and 237 and as prescribed below:

(a) Provide for all schools to operate at least one hundred and eighty days.—Provide for the operation of all public schools, both elementary and secondary, as free schools for a term of at least one hundred and eighty days; determine county and district current school funds necessary in addition to state funds to operate all schools for such minimum term; arrange for the levying of county school taxes necessary to provide the amount needed from county sources; and certify, to be included on the ballot of the school district at the regular biennial election, the rate of taxes which must be levied in order to provide the district funds necessary to maintain the term herein prescribed, or such higher rate as is recommended by the trustees.

(b) Annual budget.—Cause to be prepared, approve, and have submitted to the state superintendent on or before August first, as required by law and by regulations of the state board, the annual school budget, such budget to be so prepared and executed as to promote the improvement of the county school system.

(c) Tax levies.—Adopt and spread on its minutes a resolution fixing the county school tax levy, provided for under §8, Art. XII of the constitution, necessary to carry on the school program adopted for the county for the next ensuing fiscal year as required by law, and fixing the district bond interest and sinking fund tax levy necessary for districts against which bonds are outstanding; adopt and spread on its minutes a resolution suggesting the tax levy provided for in §10, Art. XII of the constitution, found necessary to carry on the school program adopted for the county for the next ensuing fiscal year.

(d) School funds.—See that, insofar as practicable, an accurate account is kept of all funds which should be transmitted to the county board for school purposes at various periods during the year from all sources and, if any funds are not transmitted promptly, to take the necessary steps to have such funds made available.

(e) Borrow money.—Borrow money, as prescribed in §§237.25-237.28, when necessary in anticipation of funds reasonably to be expected during the year as shown by the budget.

(f) Financial records and accounts.—Provide for keeping of accurate records of all financial transactions, including records of school and student activity funds, and school lunch programs, on forms prescribed by the state board and have these records kept under the various classifications commonly used in school financial accounting; authorize and compensate such trained assistants to the county superintendent as may be needed to maintain adequate records.

(g) Approval and payment of accounts.—Approve and pay monthly all accounts; keep all payments within the amounts specified in the budget, as required by law; make available all records for proper audit by state officials; have prepared monthly statements showing receipts, balances, and expenditures to date and require a copy of each such statement to be filed with the state superintendent as provided by law.

(h) Bonds of employees.—Fix and prescribe the bonds, and pay the premium on all such bonds, of all school employees who are responsible for school funds in order to provide reasonable safeguards for all such funds or property.

(i) Contracts for materials, supplies, and services.—Contract for materials, supplies, and services needed for the county school system; provided, that no contract for supplying these needs shall be made with any member of the county board, with the superintendent, or with any trustee in the county, or with any business organization in which any county board member, the county superintendent, or any trustee has any financial interest whatsoever, except that any trustee may submit sealed competitive bids and be awarded a contract as provided by law for the lowest and best bid.

(11) SCHOOL DISTRICTS.—Adopt policies needed to provide adequate school facilities in the county, as follows:

(a) Elections and trustees.—Provide for all elections in special tax school district number one to be held on a uniform date on odd-numbered years as herein prescribed and to supervise the holding of such elections, canvass returns, and announce the results. If, after any biennial election in which trustees are elected a vacancy should occur among the trustees, the county board shall appoint, after consulting with the patrons of the school, a qualified person from the district to serve in the position of trustee until the next biennial election.

(b) Approval of budget and expenditure of district funds.—Approve annual budgets recommended by the county superintendent for the expenditure of funds from special tax school district number one for the benefit of the public school pupils of the district as herein provided, and authorize the expenditure of funds within the budget.

(c) Bonds.—Approve tentatively, as prescribed hereinafter, the amount of bonds proposed to be issued in the special tax school district; arrange for elections to be held as prescribed by law to determine whether the proposed issue of bonds will be approved by the electors of the school district and, if such a bond issue be approved, arrange, as prescribed in §§236.35-236.51, for the sale of bonds in the amount designated and for the proper expenditure of the funds derived therefrom.

(d) School tax areas.—Tax areas for building, repairing or making additions to school buildings and equipment on projects approved by the state superintendent in accordance with regulations of the state board on the basis of a survey authorized under regulations of said board may be created in any county as hereinafter provided. Tax areas so created may be of two kinds: 1. elementary school tax areas, and 2. high school tax areas. Elementary school tax areas shall as near as practical include the real property of the county within the attendance area most accessible to a particular or proposed elementary school or schools which will receive the educational advantages and benefits from such school or schools. High school tax areas shall as near as practical include the real property of the county within the attendance area most accessible to a particular or proposed high school or schools which will receive the educational advantages and benefits from such school or schools, and high school tax areas may overlap in part or entirely one or more elementary school tax areas. There may be as many tax areas as necessary. Whenever a petition signed by not less than ten per cent of the registered qualified freeholders within a proposed tax area meeting the above territorial requirements and requesting creation of such a tax area is presented to the county school board, the county school board shall within fifteen days after receipt of petition call a hearing of all freeholders of the district and shall advertise in a local newspaper of general circulation at least once a notice of the proposed hearing and the subject matter to be discussed, together with a legal description of the proposed territory to be included in the tax area. Such hearing shall have the purpose of receiving any objections by any freeholder and for the exclusion of any property which will not receive the benefit or services anticipated within the attendance area as described.

Following such hearing the school board shall allow twenty days in which legal action may be brought by any freeholder concerning the proposed election. If no complaint or legal proceedings are initiated within twenty days the school board then shall declare by resolution the tax area to be created, and shall immediately determine the sum necessary to do the proposed building, repairing or making additions to school buildings and equipment in said area, within the limits of §17, Art. XII, Florida constitution, and thereafter call an election within and under the requirements of said §17, Art. XII to determine whether or not bonds shall be issued for the purpose of financing same. In the election only freeholders shall participate, and at least two questions shall be submitted:

1. Shall a special tax school district area be created?

2. Shall bonds be sold in a certain amount for purposes set forth in the law for a school building and equipment within the special tax school district area?

If as a result of such election the bonds are issued the county school board shall proceed to carry out the program but if the bonds are not authorized the tax area so created shall cease to exist. For the purpose of this law tax areas herein provided for are defined as being special tax school districts and shall bear such title designated as the county school board shall determine, as provided for and contemplated by §17, Art. XII of the Florida constitution and the creation of tax areas as herein provided shall not be held to alter or disturb the present one school district for administrative and district school tax purposes, and counties wherein tax areas are created shall still be eligible to participate in the minimum foundation program to the same extent as such counties would be if no tax areas had been set up. Only the property in the tax areas or special tax school districts as described and provided for in this section shall be pledged for payment of bonds issued for the public schools within any such special tax school districts and the county school board shall be unconditionally obligated and shall have power to levy an ad valorem tax on all taxable property within said district for payment of principal and interest on said bonds without limit as to rate or amount, and each such special tax school district shall be a body corporate for the purpose of issuing and payment of bonds. No capital outlay funds as provided by the minimum foundation program are in any way to be pledged to secure payment of any such bonds issued under the provisions of this law and of §17, Art. XII of the constitution of Florida, but such bond issues shall be separate and apart from and in no way affect the provisions of the minimum foundation program, however capital outlay funds or any other funds may be used for the retirement or payment of such bonds or for any purpose when not inconsistent with the requirements of the minimum foundation program. The provision of this paragraph shall not apply to counties having more than 150,000 population according to the last official federal census.

(12) RECORDS AND REPORTS.—Provide for the keeping of all necessary records and the making of all needed or required reports, as follows:

(a) Forms, blanks, and reports.—Require all members of the instructional staff, attendance assistants, school lunch personnel, bus drivers, and other employees to keep accurately all records and to make promptly in the proper form all reports required by law or by regulations of the state board, such records and reports to be kept on forms and blanks provided by the state board, or, if such forms and blanks are not provided, to prescribe the necessary forms and blanks for these records and reports; require the keeping of such additional records; and the making of such additional reports as may be deemed by the county board to be necessary to provide data essential for the operation of the school system, and to prescribe such forms and furnish such blanks as may be required for these records and reports.

(b) Reports to the state superintendent.—See that the county superintendent prepares all reports to the state superintendent that may be required by law or by rules and regulations of the state board, using therefor such forms and blanks as may be prescribed by the state board; provided, that these reports and such other reports as shall be required or authorized in the school code shall be the only reports required to be filed with state officials or agencies; see that all such reports are promptly transmitted to the state superintendent; to withhold the further payment of salary to the county superintendent when notified by the state superintendent that he has failed to file any report within the time or in the manner prescribed; and to continue to withhold the salary until the county board is notified by the state superintendent that said report has been received and accepted; provided, that when any report has not been received by the date due and after due notice has been given to the county board of that fact, the state superintendent, if he deems it necessary, may require the report to be prepared by a member of his staff, and the county board shall pay all expenses connected therewith. Any member of the county board who shall be responsible for the violation of this provision shall be subject to suspension and removal.

(13) COOPERATION WITH OTHER AGENCIES.—Cooperate with federal, state, county, and municipal agencies in the enforcement of laws and regulations pertaining to vocational education, vocational rehabilitation, physical restoration of children and adults, health of pupils, school attendance, child welfare, and other matters relating to education.

(14) ENFORCEMENT OF LAW AND RULES AND REGULATIONS.—See that all laws and rules and regulations of the state board or of the county board are properly enforced.

(15) COOPERATE WITH COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.—Cooperate fully with the county superintendent at all times to the end that the county school system may constantly be improved.

(16) NURSING SCHOLARSHIPS.—Any county board of public instruction or board of county commissioners may create scholarships, loans or other financial assistance to persons qualified as candidates for either a three-year professional nurse program or a one-year course in practical nursing in a recognized training school.

(17) SCHOOL LUNCH PROGRAM.—Assume such responsibilities and exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to it by law or as may be required by regulations of the state board or as in the opinion of the county board are necessary to assure school lunch services, consistent with needs of pupils; effective and efficient operation of the program; and the proper articulation of the school lunch program with other phases of education in the county.

(18) OTHER RESPONSIBILITIES.—Assume such other responsibilities and exercise such powers and perform such duties as may be assigned to it by law or as may be required by regulations of the state board or as, in the opinion of the county board, are necessary to provide for the more efficient operation of the county school system in carrying out the purposes and objectives of the school code.

230.232 Pupil assignment; powers and duties of county boards of public instruction.—

(1) The county board of public instruction of the several counties are hereby authorized and directed to provide for the enrollment in a public school in the county of each child residing in such county who is qualified under the laws of this state for admission to a public school and who applies for enrollment in or admission to a public school in such county. The authority of each such board in the matter of the enrollment of pupils in the public schools shall be full and complete. No pupil shall be enrolled in or admitted to attend any public school in which such child may not be enrolled pursuant to the rules, regulations, and decisions of such board.

(2) In the exercise of authority conferred by subsection (1) upon the county boards of public instruction, each such board shall provide for the enrollment of pupils in the respective public schools located within such county so as to provide for the orderly and efficient administration of such public schools, the effective instruction of the pupils therein enrolled, and the health, safety, education and general welfare of such pupils. In the exercise of such authority the board shall prescribe school attendance areas and school bus transportation routes and may adopt such reasonable rules and regulations as in the opinion of the board shall best accomplish such purposes. The county boards of public instruction shall prescribe appropriate rules and regulations to implement the provisions of this subsection and other applicable laws of this state and to that end may use all means legitimate, necessary and proper to promote the health, safety, good order, education and welfare of the public schools and the pupils enrolling therein or seeking to enroll therein. In the accomplishment of these objectives the rules and regulations to be prescribed by the board may include, but be not limited to, provisions for the conduct of such uniform tests as may be deemed necessary or advisable in classifying the pupils according to intellectual ability and scholastic proficiency to the end that there will be established in each school within the county an environment of equality among pupils of like qualifications and academic attainments. In the preparation and conduct of such tests and in classifying the pupils for assignment to the schools which they will attend, the board shall take into account such sociological, psychological and like intangible social scientific factors as will prevent, as nearly as practicable, any condition of socio-economic class consciousness among the pupils attending any given school in order that each pupil may be afforded an opportunity for a normal adjustment to his environment and receive the highest standard of instruction within his ability to understand and assimilate. In designating the school to which pupils may be assigned there shall be taken into consideration the request or consent of the parent or guardian or the person standing in loco parentis to the pupil, the available facilities and teaching capacity of the several schools within the county, the effect of the admission of new students upon established academic programs, the effect of admission of new pupils on the academic progress of the other pupils enrolled in a particular school, the suitability of established curriculum to the students enrolled or to be enrolled in a given school, the adequacy of a pupil's academic preparation for admission to a particular school, the scholastic aptitude, intelligence, mental energy or ability of the pupil applying for admission and the psychological, moral, ethical and cultural background and qualifications of the pupil applying for admission as compared with other pupils previously assigned to the school in which admission is sought. It is the intention of the legislature to hereby delegate to the local school boards all necessary and proper administrative authority to prescribe such rules and regulations and to make such decisions and determinations as may be requisite for such purposes.

(3) (a) The parent or guardian of any child, or the person standing in loco parentis to any child who shall apply to the appropriate public school official for the enrollment of any such child in any public school within the county in which such child resides, and whose application for such enrollment shall be denied may, pursuant to rules and regulations established by the county boards of public instruction, apply to such board for enrollment in such school and shall be entitled to a prompt and fair hearing by such board in accordance with the rules and regulations established by such board. The majority of such board shall be a quorum for the purpose of holding such hearing and passing upon such application and the decision of the majority of the members present at such hearing shall be the decision of the board. If at such hearing the board shall find that such child is entitled to be enrolled in such school or if the board shall find that the enrollment of such child in such school will be for the best interest of such child and will not interfere with the proper administration of the school or with the proper instruction of the pupils there enrolled and will not endanger the health or safety of the pupils there enrolled, the board shall direct that such child be enrolled in and admitted to such school. If the board finds that the child is not entitled to be enrolled in such school or that his enrollment in such school would not be for the best interest of the child or that his enrollment would seriously interfere with the proper administration of such school or with the proper instruction of the pupils there enrolled or that the child's admission to such school would endanger the health or safety of the children there enrolled, the board shall deny the petition for enrollment and direct the enrollment of the child in such other school in the county as shall be determined by the board to be best adapted or qualified to serve the best interests of the child and of the public school system.

(b) If a parent or guardian of any child whose application for enrollment has been denied, or the person standing in loco parentis to any such child, shall be dissatisfied with the decision of any county board with respect to the school in which such child shall be enrolled, such parent or guardian, or such person standing in loco parentis to such child, may seek a review of such decision by making and filing with the state board of education within thirty days after the rendition of such decision, an application for review thereof, and as soon as practicable, but not later than thirty days after receiving such application, the state board of education shall cause the county school board, whose decision is sought to be reviewed, to transmit to it the transcript of the evidence in such case before them, and within said thirty day period of time affirm, reverse or modify said decision or remand the matter to the county board for further proceedings, provided, however, that the state board of education may, in its discretion, take or direct to be taken any additional evidence or testimony and may consider such additional testimony in connection with the original transcript, and shall affirm, reverse or modify the decision of the board of public instruction or remand the matter to the county board for further proceedings, and in all such proceedings, the county superintendent of public instruction and the board of public instruction of said county shall be notified and shall be considered as a party to the review.

In addition to the matters and things set forth herein to be considered by the county board of public instruction in the assignment of such pupil to a school, the state board of education may take into consideration any matter and thing which in its judgment and discretion relates to the welfare, safety, well-being, peace and tranquility of the community or area affected, and taking all such matters into consideration, shall render its decision, either reversing the action or actions theretofore taken as provided above or modifying the decision or decisions previously taken, or remand the matter to the county board of public instruction for further proceedings.

(c) Any parent or guardian of any child or any person standing in loco parentis to any child, or a majority of the board of public instruction of any county affected by the decision of the state board of education, if dissatisfied, may have the decision reviewed by the circuit court of Leon county by making application to said court for a writ of certiorari. The review proceeding shall be had in the manner and within the time provided by the Florida appellate rules.

In any such review proceeding the board shall be the sole party respondent and the attorney general of this state shall be given notice thereof and shall take such action therein as he shall be directed by the board.

(d) In any proceeding brought pursuant to the provisions of this section the attorney general of this state is authorized upon request to furnish representation to the county school board, and to represent the state board of education of this state as the case may be, and upon request shall furnish such services as may be necessary to properly present and defend the action of the public bodies and of ficials charged with the responsibility of administering the provisions of this section.

(e) Reviews by the state board of education of this state of any decisions rendered by the county school boards in the state shall be considered and construed as a step in the local proceeding.

(4) The county school boards of the public schools of Florida are authorized and empowered to conduct surveys within their respective counties to determine the attitudes and feelings of the citizens of their respective communities with the subsequent purpose of formulating plans to maintain, preserve and improve the public school system of Florida.

(5) The county school boards are authorized and empowered to create and appoint citizens committees and study groups from their localities to assist in the aforementioned surveys and plans.

(6) The county school boards shall be authorized to employ special counsel to assist the county school board's attorney in representing the board in any litigation involving rules and regulations and rulings and decisions of the board under the provisions of this section.

(7) The provisions of this law are severable, and if any section or provision of this law shall be held to be in violation of the constitution of Florida or of the United States, such decision shall not affect the validity or enforceability of the remainder of this law.

230.233 Automatic closing and suspension of public schools.—

(1) In the event the national guard or any other military forces or personnel are employed or used upon the order or direction of any federal authority on public school properties of this state or in the vicinity of any public school in this state to prevent acts of violence or alleged acts of violence precipitated or alleged to be precipitated by the operation of said school or student or students attending such school, said school shall be closed automatically and its operation suspended so long as said troops remain on such school properties or within the vicinity of said school.

(2) The board of public instruction of any county wherein a school is closed pursuant to the provisions of subsection (1) hereof, is authorized and directed to take necessary steps to carry out the provisions of this said section.

(3) The board of public instruction of any county in which a school is closed under the provisions of this section may authorize and provide for the transfer to another school in the county of any pupil enrolled in such closed school upon petition of the parent or the person standing in loco parentis to such child requesting such transfer.

(4) For the purpose of the preparation of attendance records required by law, pupils enrolled in any school closed under the provisions of this section shall be considered and reported "present" during period of suspension of operation.

History.—§§1-4, ch. 57-1975.

230.24 County superintendent; election and term of office.—The county superintendent shall be elected for a term of four years or until the election or appointment and qualification of his successor.

History.—§424, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(87).

230.26 Oath of county superintendent.—Before entering upon the duties of his office, the county superintendent shall take the oath of office prescribed by the constitution of the state.

History.—§426, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(89).
cf.—§2, Art. XVI Florida constitution, Oath of office.

230.28 Vacancy in office of county superintendent.—The office of county superintendent in any county shall be vacant when the county superintendent removes his residence from the county.

230.301 Basis for compensation of county superintendents.—On and after the first day of July, 1947, the annual salaries of county superintendents of the respective counties of Florida shall be fixed and based upon the total number of instruction units in said counties during the preceding fiscal year as prescribed by §236.04; provided, however, that (1) no county superintendent shall receive an annual salary in excess of seven thousand five hundred dollars, (2) no county superintendent shall receive under this law a salary during any year which is less than the salary he lawfully received during 1946-47, and (3) no county superintendent shall receive a salary during any year which exceeds by more than nine hundred dollars, the salary he lawfully received during the year 1946-47. The basis for determining the salary of the county superintendent in each county subject to the above limitations, shall be as follows:

(a) For the first fifteen instruction units in the county: two hundred dollars per unit shall be paid.

(b) For the next five instruction units or fraction thereof in the county: one hundred dollars per unit shall be paid.

(c) For the next ten instruction units or fraction thereof in the county: fifty dollars per unit shall be paid.

(d) For the next one hundred twenty instruction units in the county: ten dollars per unit shall be paid.

(e) For any additional instruction units in the county, five dollars per unit shall be paid.

The annual salary of each county superintendent as herein authorized shall be paid in twelve equal monthly installments on the last day of each month or on the first day of the ensuing month.

Note.—Formerly §242.01.

230.302 Basis for compensation of county superintendents, counties of less than 200,000.—

(1) On and after the first day of July, 1957, the annual salary of the superintendent of public instruction of each county within the state of a population of less than two hundred thousand according to the latest official census shall be fixed, and paid, according to the total number of instruction units within the county during the immediately preceding fiscal year, and at the following rates:

(a) Two hundred and fifty dollars for each of the first fifteen units.

(b) One hundred dollars for each unit in excess of fifteen and not exceeding twenty.

(c) Fifty dollars for each unit in excess of twenty and not exceeding thirty.

(d) Ten dollars for each unit, or fraction thereof, in excess of thirty and not exceeding four hundred.

(e) Five dollars for each unit, or fraction thereof, in excess of four hundred.

(2) Provided, however, that

(a) No county superintendent of public instruction shall receive for his annual salary a sum in excess of the highest maximum annual salary established by law to be paid to the other highest paid county official in his county;

(b) No county superintendent of public instruction shall receive a salary during any year which shall be less than six thousand dollars;

(3) The total number of instruction units in each county of the state, for the purpose of determining the salaries here prescribed, shall be determined as provided in §236.04, or any amendment thereof.

(4) The salaries of each superintendent of public instruction within the state shall be paid in twelve equal monthly payments, which shall be payable upon the last day of each month.

(5) This section shall not be construed to repeal any special or local act, or any general act of local application fixing or regulating the compensation of county superintendents of public instruction, and provided further, that this section shall not be construed to apply to any special or local act or any general act of local application passed at this session of the legislature regulating the compensation of superintendents of public instruction.

Note.—Formerly §242.011.

230.31 Secretary and executive officer of the county board.—The county superintendent shall be the secretary and executive officer of the county board; provided, that when the county superintendent of any county is required to be absent on account of performing services in the volunteer forces of the United States or in the National Guard of the state or in the regular Army or Navy of the United States, when the said county superintendent shall be called into active training or service of the United States under an Act of Congress or pursuant to a proclamation by the President of the United States, he shall then be entitled to a leave of absence for not to exceed the remaining portion of the term for which he was elected.

History.—§431, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(94); §2, ch. 20970, 1941.

230.32 General powers of county superintendents.—The county superintendent shall have the authority, and when necessary for the more efficient and adequate operation of the county school system, the county superintendent shall exercise the following powers:

(1) GENERAL OVERSIGHT.—Exercise general oversight over the county school system in order to determine problems and needs, and recommend improvements.

(2) ADVISE, COUNSEL, AND RECOMMEND TO COUNTY BOARD.—Advise and counsel with the county board on all educational matters and recommend to the county board for action such matters as should be acted upon.

(3) RECOMMEND POLICIES.—Recommend to the county board for adoption such policies pertaining to the county school system as he may consider necessary for its more efficient operation.

(4) RECOMMEND AND EXECUTE RULES AND REGULATIONS.—Prepare and organize by subjects and submit to the county board for adoption such rules and regulations to supplement those adopted by the state board as, in his opinion, will contribute to the efficient operation of any aspect of education in the county. When rules and regulations have been adopted, the county superintendent shall see that they are executed.

(5) RECOMMEND AND EXECUTE MINIMUM STANDARDS.—From time to time to prepare, organize by subjects, and submit to the county board for adoption such minimum standards relating to the operation of any phase of the county school system as are needed to supplement those adopted by the state board and as will contribute to the efficient operation of any aspect of education in the county; to see that minimum standards adopted by the county board are observed.

(6) PERFORM DUTIES AND EXERCISE RESPONSIBILITIES.—Perform such duties and exercise such responsibilities as are assigned to him by law and by regulations of the state board.

History.—§432, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(95).

230.321 County superintendents appointed under §2A., Art. XII, state constitution.—

(1) In every county authorized to appoint a superintendent of public instruction under Art. XII of the state constitution, he shall be the executive officer of the county board of public instruction and shall not be subject to the provision of law, either general or special, relating to tenure of employment or continuing contracts of other school personnel. His duties relating to the county school system shall be as provided by law and rules and regulations of the state board of education.

(2) This county board of public instruction of each of said counties shall fix the salary of, and enter into contracts of employment up to a maximum of four years tenure with the county superintendent of public instruction and shall adopt special rules and regulations relating to his appointment.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 57-308.

230.33 Duties and responsibilities of county superintendent.—The county superintendent shall exercise all powers and perform all duties listed below and elsewhere in the law; provided, that in so doing he shall advise and counsel with the county board.

The recommendations, nominations, proposals and reports required by law and regulation to be made to the county board by the county superintendent shall be either recorded in the minutes or shall be made in writing, noted in the minutes and filed in the public records of the board. It shall be presumed that, in the absence of the record required in this paragraph, the recommendations, nominations and proposals required of the county superintendent were not contrary to the action taken by the county board in such matters.

(1) ASSIST IN ORGANIZATION OF BOARD.—Preside at the organization meeting of the county board and transmit to the state superintendent, within two weeks following such meeting, a certified copy of the proceedings of organization, including the schedule of regular meetings, and the names and addresses of county school officials.

(2) REGULAR AND SPECIAL MEETINGS OF THE BOARD.—Attend all regular meetings of the county board, call special meetings when emergencies arise, and advise, but not vote, on questions under consideration.

(3) RECORDS FOR THE BOARD.—Keep minutes of all official actions and proceedings of the county board and keep such other records, including records of property held or disposed of by the county board, as may be necessary to provide complete information regarding the county school system.

(4) SCHOOL PROPERTY.—Act for the county board as custodian of such school property as may be placed in his charge by the county board.

(a) Recommend purchase and plans for control.—Recommend to the county board plans for contracting, receiving, purchasing, acquiring by the institution of condemnation proceedings if necessary, leasing, selling, holding, transmitting, and conveying title to real and personal property.

(b) Property held in trust.—Recommend to the county board plans for holding in trust and administering property, real and personal, money, or other things of value, granted, conveyed, devised, or bequeathed for the benefit of the schools of the county or of any one of them.

(5) SCHOOL PROGRAM: PREPARE LONG-TIME AND ANNUAL PLANS FOR.—Supervise the assembling of data and sponsor studies and surveys essential to the development of a planned school program for the entire county; prepare and recommend such a program to the county board as the basis for operating the county school system. One phase of this program shall be a long-time program, and another phase shall constitute the annual program. The long-time program shall be concerned with the location and development of elementary, high, and special schools, school buildings, transportation, personnel, instruction, and other educational features involving the interest and welfare of the children and citizens of the county over a period of years. The annual program shall be concerned with the budget, sites to be purchased, buildings to be constructed, transportation routes, personnel, instruction, and all other phases of the school program for any particular school year, which shall be developed, insofar as possible, in harmony and conformity with the long-time program.

(6) ESTABLISHMENT, ORGANIZATION, AND OPERATION OF SCHOOLS, CLASSES, AND SERVICES.—Recommend the establishment, organization, and operation of such schools, classes, and services as are needed to provide adequate educational opportunities for all children in the county, including:

(a) Schools and attendance areas.—Recommend the location of schools needed to accommodate the pupils of the county and the area from which children should attend each school.

(b) Recommend adequate facilities for all children.—Recommend plans and procedure necessary to provide adequate educational facilities for all children of the county.

(c) Elimination of school centers and consolidation of schools.—Determine when the needs of pupils can better be served by eliminating school centers and by consolidating schools; recommend to the county board plans for the elimination of such school centers as should be eliminated and for the consolidation of such schools as should be consolidated.

(d) Cooperation with other counties in maintaining schools.—Recommend plans and procedures for cooperating with county boards of adjoining counties, in this state or in bordering states, in establishing school attendance areas composed of territory lying within the counties and for the joint maintenance of county line or other schools which should serve such attendance areas, and carry out such plans and administer such schools for which his county is to be responsible under any agreement which is effected.

(e) Classification and standardization of schools.—Recommend plans and regulations for determining those school centers at which work should be restricted to the elementary grades, school centers at which work should be offered only in the high school grades, and school centers at which work should be offered in any or in all grades; recommend the grade or grades in which work should be offered at each school center; recommend bases for classifying and standardizing the various schools of the county in order to provide proper incentive for the improvement of all schools.

(f) Opening and closing dates of schools.—Recommend and arrange for a uniform date each year for the opening of all schools in the county, unless other dates shall be found necessary and desirable; recommend and arrange the closing dates for all schools in the county, these dates to be so determined as to assure, as far as practicable, uniform terms for all schools in the county. Recommend regulations for the closing of any or all schools during an emergency and when emergencies arise to close any or all schools in the county and immediately notify the county board of the action taken and the reason therefor.

(g) School holidays and vacation periods.—Recommend school holidays to be observed and the manner of such observance by the schools and see that such holidays as are approved by the county board are properly observed; also recommend school vacation periods.

(h) Vocational classes and schools.—Recommend plans for the establishment and maintenance of vocational schools, departments, or classes, giving instruction of less than college grade in agriculture, trades and industries, distributive education, or in home economics, and administer and supervise instruction in such schools, departments, or classes as are established by the county board.

(i) Vocational rehabilitation.—Recommend plans for the establishment and maintenance of vocational rehabilitation services for the physically handicapped, consistent with state and federal laws, and to administer and supervise such services.

(j) Cooperation with other counties in special projects or activities.—Recommend plans and procedures for cooperating with other county boards or with other agencies, in this state or in bordering states, in special projects or activities which can be more economically or advantageously provided by such cooperation.

(k) School lunches.—Recommend plans for the establishment, maintenance, and operation of school lunch program consistent with state laws and regulations of the state board, and to administer and supervise such services.

(7) PERSONNEL.—Be responsible, as required herein, for directing the work of the personnel, subject to the requirements of chapter 231 and in addition he shall have the following duties:

(a) Positions and qualifications.—Recommend to the county board duties and responsibilities which need to be performed and positions which need to be filled to make possible the development of an adequate school program in the county and recommend minimum qualifications of personnel for these various positions.

(b) Assistants and bus drivers.—Recommend in writing to the county board persons to act as administrative, supervisory, technical, attendance, or health assistants, his office assistants, and bus drivers.

(c) Supervising principals or principals of district schools.—Submit to the trustees of the school district his recommendation of a person to fill the position of supervising principal or principal of each school.

(d) Members of the instructional staff of county schools.—Confer with the supervising principals or principals with reference to the persons who shall be recommended to the trustees for nomination as members of the instructional staff (other than principal) of county schools.

(e) Compensation and salary schedules.—Prepare and recommend to the county board for adoption a salary schedule or salary schedules to be used as the basis for paying members of the instructional staff and other school employees, arranging such schedules, insofar as practicable, so as to furnish incentive for improvement in training and for continued and efficient service.

(f) Contracts and terms of service.—Recommend to the county board terms for contracting with employees and prepare such contracts as are approved; provided, that contracts with the members of the instructional staff are to be prepared, recommended, and executed as hereinbefore prescribed.

(g) Transfer and promotion.—Recommend employees for transfer and transfer any employee during any emergency and report the transfer to the county board at its next regular meeting.

(h) Suspension and dismissal.—Suspend members of the instructional staff and other school employees during emergencies for a period of not to exceed ten school days, notify the county board immediately of such suspension, and, when authorized to do so, serve notice on the suspended member of the instructional staff of the charges made against him and of the date of hearing; recommend employees for dismissal under the terms prescribed herein.

(i) Direct work of employees and super- visé instruction.—Direct or arrange for the proper direction and improvement, under regulations of the county board, of the work of all members of the instructional staff and other employees of the county school system; supervise or arrange under regulations of the county board for the supervision of instruction in the county and take such steps as are necessary to bring about continuous improvement.

(8) CHILD WELFARE.—Recommend plans to the county board for the proper accounting for all children of school age, for the attendance and control of pupils at school, for the proper attention to health, safety, and other matters which will best promote the welfare of children in the following fields, as prescribed in chapter 232:

(a) School census.—Keep an accurate census of the children of the county and make such reports thereon as may be required.

(b) Admission, classification, promotion and graduation of pupils.—Recommend rules and regulations for admitting, classifying, promoting, and graduating pupils to or from the various schools of the county.

(c) Enforcement of attendance laws.—Recommend plans and procedures for the enforcement of all laws and regulations relating to the attendance of pupils at school and for the employment of such qualified assistants as may be needed by him to enforce effectively those laws.

(d) Control of pupils.—Propose rules and regulations for the proper control, discipline and suspension of pupils and review recommendations for suspension of pupils and transmit to the county board for action recommendations for dismissal of pupils.

(e) Educational facilities for special groups.—Recommend plans and procedure for special facilities or classes for backward, defective, truant, or incorrigible children of school age, and for children with unusual ability; and recommend facilities in the way of day, part-time, or night schools or classes for adolescents and adults, including illiterates and groups needing Americanization, as well as for children below the first grade level.

(f) Health examination and treatments.—Recommend plans and supervise arrangements so that all children in the county may have periodic physical and dental examinations and arrange, insofar as practicable, for prompt treatment of all pupils in need of remedial and preventive treatment; provided, that except in emergencies pupils may be given remedial or preventive treatment only on written consent of the parent.

(9) COURSES OF STUDY AND OTHER INSTRUCTIONAL AIDS.—Recommend such plans for improving, providing, distributing, accounting for, and caring for textbooks and other instructional aids as will result in general improvement of the county school system, as prescribed in chapter 233 and including the following:

(a) Courses of study.—Prepare and recommend for adoption, after consultation with teachers and principals and after considering any suggestions which may have been submitted by trustees or patrons of the schools, courses of study for use in the schools of the county needed to supplement those prescribed by the state board.

(b) Textbooks.—See that all textbooks and library books furnished by the state and needed in the county are properly requisitioned, distributed, accounted for, stored, cared for, and used; and recommend such additional textbooks or library books as may be needed.

(c) Other instructional aids.—Recommend plans for providing and facilitate the provision and proper use of such other teaching accessories and aids as are needed.

(d) School libraries; establishment and maintenance.—Recommend plans for establishing and maintaining school libraries, or school libraries open to the public, and, in addition thereto, such circulating or traveling libraries as are needed for the proper operation of the county school system.

(10) TRANSPORTATION OF PUPILS.—Ascertain which pupils should be transported to school or to school activities, determine the most effective arrangement of transportation routes to accommodate these pupils; recommend such routing to the county board; recommend plans and procedures for providing facilities for the economical and safe transportation of pupils; recommend such rules and regulations as may be necessary and see that all rules and regulations relating to the transportation of pupils approved by the county board, as well as regulations of the state board, are properly carried into effect, as prescribed in chapter 234.

(11) SCHOOL PLANT.—Recommend plans, and execute such plans as are approved regarding all phases of the school plant program, as prescribed in chapter 235, and including the following:

(a) School building program.—Recommend plans and procedures for having a survey made under the direction of the state department, or by some agency approved by the state department, as a basis for developing a county-wide school building program as a phase of the long-time program for the county; recommend such program when sufficient evidence is available, specifying the centers at which school work should be offered on the various levels, the type, size, and location of schools to be established, and the steps to be taken to carry out the program.

(b) Sites, buildings, and equipment.—Recommend the purchasing of school sites, playgrounds, and recreational areas located at centers at which schools are to be constructed and of adequate size to meet the need of pupils to be accommodated; or of additions to existing sites when needed; recommend the rental of buildings when necessary; recommend the erection of buildings; recommend additions, alterations, and repairs to buildings and other school properties; insure that all plans and specifications for buildings provide adequately for the safety of pupils as well as for economy of construction by submitting such plans and specifications to the state superintendent for approval; recommend the purchasing of furniture, books, apparatus, and other equipment necessary for the proper conduct of the work of the schools.

(c) Maintenance and upkeep of the school plant.—Propose plans for assuring proper maintenance and upkeep of the school plant and for the provision of the utilities and supplies for the operation of the schools; and when the plans are approved by the county board, take such steps as are necessary to see that buildings are kept in proper sanitary and physical condition and that heat, lights, water and power and other supplies and utilities are adequate.

(d) Insurance of school property.—Propose plans and procedures for insuring economically every plant and its contents, boilers and machinery as well as school buses and other property, under the control of the county board and see that the proper records are kept of such insurance.

(e) Condemnation of buildings.—Inspect periodically all school buildings and surroundings to determine whether there are any unsanitary conditions or whether there are physical hazards which are likely to jeopardize the health or life of the pupils or instructional staff; request competent assistance from the state or other authorized agency, if necessary to determine whether buildings found to be defective should be condemned and to recommend to the county board condemnation of buildings which should be abandoned.

(12) FINANCE.—Recommend measures to the county board to assure adequate educational facilities throughout the county, in accordance with the financial procedure authorized in chapters 236 and 237, and as prescribed below:

(a) Plan for operating all schools for minimum term.—Determine and recommend county and district funds necessary in addition to state funds to provide for at least a one hundred eighty day term for all schools, and recommend plans for insuring the operation of all schools for the term authorized by the county board.

(b) Annual budget.—Prepare the annual school budget to be submitted to the county board for approval according to law; submit this budget, when approved by the county board, to the state superintendent on or before August first of each year, on forms required under regulations of the state board; provided, that the tentative school district budget shall be open to examination by the trustees before such budget is included in the county budget for submission to the county board.

(c) Tax levies.—Recommend to the county board, on the basis of the needs shown by the budget, the amount of county school tax levy necessary to provide the county current school funds needed for the maintenance of the public schools of such county for at least one hundred eighty days; recommend to the county board the tax levy required on the basis of the needs shown in the budget for the district bond interest and sinking fund of each district; and recommend to the county board to be included on the ballot at each biennial election prescribed by the law the school district tax levies necessary to carry on the school program for a term of at least one hundred eighty days.

(d) School funds.—Keep an accurate account of all funds which should be transmitted to the county board for school purposes at various periods during the year and see, insofar as possible, that these funds are transmitted promptly; report promptly to the county board any delinquencies or delays that occur in making available any funds that should be made available for school purposes.

(e) Borrowing money.—Recommend when necessary the borrowing of money as prescribed by law.

(f) Financial records and accounting.—Keep or have kept accurate records of all financial transactions on forms prescribed by the state board.

(g) Payrolls and accounts.—Prepare, at least monthly, payrolls and statements of accounts due to be paid by the county board; certify these statements as correct and complete and recommend them to the county board for payment; prepare monthly statements showing receipts, balances, and disbursements to date, a copy of such monthly statements to be filed with the state superintendent. A copy of the monthly statement for the district current school funds shall be furnished to trustees upon their request.

(h) Bonds for employees.—Recommend the bonds of all school employees who should be bonded in order to provide reasonable safeguards for all school funds or property.

(i) Contracts.—Recommend to the county board the desirable terms, conditions, and specifications for contracts for supplies, materials, or services to be rendered; see that materials, supplies, or services are provided according to contract.

(13) SCHOOL DISTRICTS.—

(a) Elections.—Recommend plans and procedures for holding and supervising all elections.

(b) Budgets and expenditures.—Prepare, after consulting with the principals of the various schools and with trustees tentative annual budgets for the expenditure of district funds for the benefit of public school pupils of the county; provided, that such budget shall not be submitted to the county board for adoption until the trustees have had opportunity to examine such budgets as hereinafter provided.

(c) Bonds.—Recommend the amounts of bonds to be issued in the district and assist in the preparation of the necessary papers for an election to determine whether the proposed bond issue will be approved by the electors; if such bond issue be approved by the electors, recommend plans for the sale of bonds and for the proper expenditure of the funds derived therefrom.

(14) RECORDS AND REPORTS.—Recommend such records as should be kept in addition to those prescribed by regulations of the state board or by the state superintendent; prepare forms for keeping such records as are approved by the county board; see that such records are properly kept, and make all reports that are needed or required, as follows:

(a) Forms, blanks, and reports.—See that all members of the administrative and instructional staff, attendance assistants, school lunch personnel, bus drivers, and other employees keep accurately all records and make promptly in proper form all reports required by the school code or by regulations of the state board, such records and reports to be kept on forms and blanks authorized by the state board and provided by the state superintendent, or, if such forms and blanks are not provided, prepare necessary forms and blanks for these records and reports; recommend the keeping of such additional records and the making of such additional reports as may be deemed necessary to provide data essential for the operation of the school system, and prepare such forms and blanks as may be required and see that these records and reports are properly prepared.

(b) Reports to the state superintendent.—Prepare for the approval of the county board all reports that may be required by law or by rules and regulations of the state board to be made to the state superintendent, using therefor such forms and blanks as may be prescribed by the state board, and to transmit promptly all such reports, when approved, to the state superintendent, as required by law; provided, that if any such reports are not transmitted at the time and in the manner prescribed by law or by state board regulations the salary of the county superintendent shall be withheld until such report has been properly submitted. Unless otherwise provided by regulations of the state board, the annual report on attendance and personnel shall be due on or before July first, and the annual school budget and the report on finance shall be due on or before August first of each year.

(c) Failure to make reports; penalty.—Any county superintendent who knowingly signs and transmits to any state official a false or incorrect report shall forfeit his right to any salary for the period of one year from that date.

(15) COOPERATION WITH OTHER AGENCIES.—Recommend plans for cooperating with and on the basis of approved plans to cooperate with federal, state, county, and municipal agencies in the enforcement of laws and regulations pertaining to vocational education, vocational rehabilitation, physical restoration of children and adults, health of pupils, school attendance, child welfare, and other matters relating to education.

(16) ENFORCEMENT OF LAWS AND REGULATIONS.—See, insofar as practicable, that all laws and regulations of the state board, as well as supplementary regulations of the county board, are properly observed; report to the county board any violation which he does not succeed in having corrected.

(17) COOPERATE WITH COUNTY BOARD.—Cooperate with the county board in every manner practicable to the end that the county school system may continuously be improved.

(18) VISITATION OF SCHOOLS.—Visit the schools; observe the management and instruction; give suggestions for improvement; and advise with trustees, supervisors, principals, teachers, patrons, and other citizens with the view of promoting interest in education and improving the school conditions of the county.

(19) CONFERENCES, INSTITUTES, AND STUDY COURSES.—Call and conduct institutes and conferences with supervisors, principals, teachers, attendance assistants, school lunch personnel, janitors, bus drivers, trustees, patrons and other interested citizens; organize and direct study and extension courses for teachers, advising them as to their professional studies; assist patrons and people generally in acquiring knowledge of the aims, services, and needs of the schools.

(20) PROFESSIONAL AND GENERAL IMPROVEMENT.—Attend such conferences for superintendents as may be called or scheduled by the state superintendent and avail himself of means of professional and general improvement so that he may function most efficiently.

(21) RECOMMEND REVOKING CERTIFICATES.—Recommend in writing to the state superintendent the revoking of any certificate for good cause, including a full statement of the reason for his recommendation.

(22) MAKE RECORDS AVAILABLE TO SUCCESSOR.—Leave with the county board and make available to his successor upon retiring from office a complete inventory of school equipment and other property, together with all official records and such other records as may be needed in supervising instruction and in administering the county school system.

(23) OTHER DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES.—Perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by law or by regulations of the state board.

230.331 Reproduction and destruction of county school records.—

(1) The purpose of this section is to reduce the present space required by the county school systems for the storage of their records and to permit the county superintendent of public instruction to administer the affairs of the county school system more efficiently.

(2) The county superintendent of public instruction is authorized to photograph, microphotograph, or reproduce on film or prints, documents, records, data, and information of a permanent character which in his discretion he may select, and the county superintendent of public instruction is authorized to destroy any of the said documents after they have been photographed and after audit of his office has been completed for the period embracing the dates of said instruments. Photographs or microphotographs in the form of film or prints made in compliance with the provisions of this section shall have the same force and effect as the originals thereof would have, and shall be treated as originals for the purpose of their admissibility in evidence. Duly certified or authenticated reproductions of such photographs or microphotographs shall be admitted in evidence equally with the original photographs or microphotographs.

(3) The county superintendent of public instruction is authorized, in his discretion, to destroy general correspondence which is over three years old and other records, papers and documents over three years old which do not serve as part of an agreement or understanding nor have value as permanent records.

History.—Comp. §1-3, ch. 57-378.

230.34 Consolidation of school districts.—

(1) On and after January 1, 1948, all school districts and all territory not included in school districts in each county of the state, shall be consolidated in each county into one school district to be known as "Special Tax School District Number 1," and the boundaries of said "Special Tax School District Number 1" shall be coextensive with the boundaries of the county and subject to all general law relative to school districts.

(2) All obligations of each special tax school district incurred prior to consolidation shall continue to remain the obligation of the area which incurred the obligation and such consolidation shall in nowise impair the security of any bonds or other indebtedness outstanding at the time of the consolidation, and it shall be the duty of the county board to see that the obligations of each district so consolidated shall be faithfully discharged.

(3) Three trustees for said "Special Tax School District Number 1" shall be elected by the qualified electors of said county at the time and place prescribed by or fixed pursuant to law, but not more than one trustee shall come from any one residence district for which a county board member is provided for by law. The persons qualified to hold such office and who receive the greatest number of votes cast for election of trustees, subject to the limitation prescribed above, shall serve for the ensuing two years as trustees for said school district.

(4) The millage for the ensuing biennium for said "Special Tax School District Number 1" shall also be voted on and determined at the same time, as prescribed by law.

(5) No tax that shall have been levied or assessed prior to the time when the provisions hereof shall be of full force and effect, shall be hereby impaired.

(6) Insofar as applicable and insofar as consistent with the provisions hereof, and when not in conflict herewith, the provisions of the general law of this state relating to school districts and to the consolidation of school districts, shall be applicable to said "Special Tax School District Number 1" upon this act becoming a law.

(7) All of the area of each county of the state shall become one school district, as hereinbefore provided, as of January 1, 1948, and the trustees thereof shall take office on said date.

(8) The county board of each county may in its discretion divide the county into school community areas for the purpose of setting up school advisory committees for such areas; each school community area shall follow precinct lines and as nearly as practicable comprise the attendance area for such school community; school community areas may be formulated either from incorporated territory or from rural territory or from a combination of both; provided, however, that any municipality or area for which a supervising principal is employed shall lie wholly within one school community area. The advisory committee for each school community area shall consist of three members and shall be selected in the manner prescribed by the county board of each county in conformity with regulations prescribed by the state board. Each school advisory committee herein authorized shall have the authority at all times to consult and advise with the supervising principal or principal of the school community area and with the county superintendent and county board concerning the conditions and needs of the schools which they represent, but the school advisory committee shall not have any of the powers and duties now reserved by law to school district trustees or to the county board.

cf.—§11, Art. XII, Florida constitution, Incorporated town or city may constitute school district.

230.35 Schools under control of county board and county superintendent.—All public schools conducted within the county shall be under the direction and control of the county board with the county superintendent as executive officer and shall be subject to the same laws and rules and regulations as are prescribed for the conduct for all schools in the county, except as hereinafter provided.

History.—§435, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(98); §43, ch. 29764, 1955.

230.37 Organization and term of trustees.—Trustees for any school district shall consist of three members who are qualified electors in the district and who are elected biennially for two-year terms by vote of the qualified electors of the district. New members shall take office on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in January following their election. The trustees shall meet and select one member as chairman at any time during the month of January after a biennial election is held.

cf.—§236.31 Election biennially.

230.39 Procedure for conducting biennial school district elections.—The manner and method for conducting the biennial school district elections shall be as prescribed in chapter 236; provided, that the county board shall publish once each week for four successive weeks, beginning not more than forty-five days nor less than thirty days prior to the date set for the election, in some newspaper published in the county and with general circulation throughout the county, a notice of the election; and, provided further, that persons whose names are to be printed on the ballot for approval of trustees as prescribed in §236.32 (1) may be nominated at any time up to fifteen days preceding the date of the election. One notice of the election shall be sufficient for all districts in the county. In case there shall be no newspaper published in the county, the notice of election shall be posted at least thirty days prior to the election in each of the districts in the county.

§3, ch. 20970, 1941.

230.40 Vacancy in office of trustee.—The position of trustee shall be considered to be vacant in any school district when any person holding the office of trustee removes his residence from the district.

History.—§440, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(103).

230.41 Removal of trustees.—Any trustee failing to discharge the duties of his position may be removed by the state board after ten days' written notice to such trustee as provided in §229.08.

History.—§441, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(104).
cf.—§3, Art. XII, Florida constitution, Power of state board to remove school officer.

230.42 General powers of trustees.—The powers of the trustees shall be supervisory in nature and not administrative or controlling powers. The general supervisory powers of trustees shall be as follows:

(1) CONSULT WITH PATRONS, TEACHERS, AND PRINCIPALS.—The trustees of any school district shall consult with patrons, teachers, or principals regarding all matters relating to the welfare of the schools of the district, in order to determine the progress and needs of those schools. They shall, however, have no authority over instructional matters except in an advisory capacity.

(2) ADVISE WITH COUNTY SCHOOL OFFICIALS.—The trustees shall advise with the county superintendent and county board and make recommendations with respect to the general welfare and needs of the schools of the district.

History.—§442, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(105).
cf.—§10, Art. XII, Florida constitution, Powers of trustees.

230.43 Specific powers and responsibilities of trustees.—The specific powers of the trustees, which shall be exercised by the trustees of any district only when acting as a body, shall be the following:

(1) NOMINATION OF SUPERVISING PRINCIPALS OR PRINCIPALS.—To consider the recommendations of the county superintendent regarding all persons to be nominated by them for supervising principals or principals of all district schools and to make nominations for such positions to the county board; provided, that all nominations for reappointment of supervising principals or principals shall be submitted to the county board at least eight weeks before the close of school.

(2) NOMINATION OF OTHER MEMBERS OF THE INSTRUCTIONAL STAFF.—To consider recommendations of the supervising principal or the principals of the schools in the district and the county superintendent regarding the nomination of teachers and other members of the instructional staff to serve in the schools and to make nominations for such positions to the county board; providing, that all nominations for reappointment of members of the instructional staff shall be submitted to the county board at least six weeks before the close of school. If any nomination is rejected for good cause as herein prescribed, the trustees shall, after considering recommendations of the supervising principals or the principals of the schools in the district and the county superintendent, submit a second nomination for such position to the county board.

(3) RECOMMEND DISMISSAL OF MEMBERS OF THE INSTRUCTIONAL STAFF.—To file with the county board written charges against any member of the instructional staff whom they may recommend for dismissal for cause.

(4) SCHOOL BUILDINGS, GROUNDS, AND EQUIPMENT.—To have general supervision of the buildings, grounds, equipment, and other property of the schools of the district and to recommend to the county superintendent or to the county board at an official meeting such repairs and alterations as may be considered necessary.

(5) USE OF PROPERTY FOR OTHER PURPOSES.—To permit the use of the school buildings and grounds of the district for civic, social, recreation and community purposes; provided, however, that such use does not interfere with the school program nor materially increase the maintenance cost of the property.

230.45 Patriotic programs, rules and regulations.—The board of public instruction of any county is hereby authorized to adopt rules and regulations pertaining to and requiring to be used in all of the schools of the county any program of a patriotic nature to encourage greater respect for the government of the United States, its national anthem and flag, subject always to other existing pertinent laws of the United States or of the state; provided, that when the national anthem is played, students and all civilians shall always stand at attention, men removing the headdress; and provided, further, that the pledge of allegiance to the flag, "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands, one nation, under God, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all," be rendered by standing with the right hand over the heart. However, civilians will always show full respect to the flag when the pledge is given by merely standing at attention, men removing the headdress, as provided by §7 of United States public law No. 623, approved June 22, 1942, as amended by United States public law No. 829, approved December 22, 1942.

History.—§1, ch. 22015, 1943; §47, ch. 29764, 1955.

230.46 When junior colleges may be organized.—

(1) COUNTY BOARD MAY ESTABLISH OR ACQUIRE JUNIOR COLLEGE.—Any county board, upon first obtaining the approval of the state board, may, as a part of the county school system, organize, establish and operate a junior college, or acquire and operate a junior college previously established.

(2) COUNTY BOARDS OF CONTIGUOUS COUNTIES MAY ESTABLISH OR ACQUIRE JUNIOR COLLEGE.—The county boards of any two or more contiguous counties, upon first obtaining the approval of the state board, may enter into an agreement to organize, establish and operate, or acquire and operate, a junior college in one of the counties under the conditions set forth in this section; provided, that no county board may discontinue performing its part of any agreement with another county or counties for the acquisition or operation of a junior college without first obtaining the approval of the state board.

(3) PLAN TO ACQUIRE, ESTABLISH

AND OPERATE JUNIOR COLLEGE MUST BE APPROVED BY STATE BOARD.—No junior college shall be established, acquired or operated as provided in this section until the proposed plan of operation and financial support has been approved by the state board, which plan shall contain provisions for serving all eligible students in the attendance area to be served by such junior college.

(4) COUNTY BOARD MAY NOT TAKE OVER ALL OR ANY PART OF FOUR-YEAR INSTITUTION OF HIGHER LEARNING; COURSES BEYOND SOPHOMORE LEVEL PROHIBITED.—No county board, under subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall acquire or operate as a junior college any established four-year institution of higher learning or any part thereof. No junior college shall offer courses or degrees beyond the sophomore level as determined by the state board.

History.—§1, ch. 19159, 1939; §47, ch. 23726, 1947; §1, ch. 28068, 1953; §4, ch. 57-252.

Note.—Formerly §242.41.

230.47 Junior college part of county school system; employment of president; advisory committee; minimum standards.—

(1) JUNIOR COLLEGE PART OF COUNTY SCHOOL SYSTEM; DIRECTED BY A PRESIDENT.—A junior college, established or acquired under the provisions of §230.46, shall comprise a part of the county school system of the state, shall be subject to the general school laws of the state insofar as such laws are applicable, shall be under the control of the county board of the county in which it is located and shall be directed by a president, who shall be responsible through the county superintendent to the county board of the county in which the junior college is located. A junior college may be separately organized and operated or may be organized and operated in connection with a secondary school.

(2) EMPLOYMENT OF PRESIDENT; MINIMUM SALARY.—When a vacancy exists in the presidency of a junior college, the county board shall employ a qualified person to fill the position who has been approved by the state board. No county board shall contract with a person to be president of a junior college for a salary less than seven thousand five hundred dollars per year.

(3) DUTIES AND POWERS OF ADVISORY COMMITTEE.—For each junior college established or acquired by a county board or county boards, an advisory committee shall be appointed as hereinafter prescribed. The advisory committee may meet with the county board of the county in which the junior college is located whenever matters involving the junior college are being acted upon, and the advisory committee shall advise the county board on such matters, but the members of the advisory committee shall not have a right to vote at the meeting of the county board. The advisory committee shall meet at least once each quarter and shall submit to the county board, after consulting with the president of the junior college, whatever recommendations relating to personnel, curricula, finance and policies in general it deems to be for the best interest of the junior college.

(4) MEMBERS AND METHOD OF APPOINTMENT OF ADVISORY COMMITTEE; SECRETARY; MINUTES.—The advisory committee shall be comprised of five lay members when a junior college is operated by one county board, and of not more than nine lay members when operated by more than one county board. Members of the advisory committee shall be appointed by the state board for three-year overlapping terms in accordance with a plan to be prescribed by said board; provided, that all such appointments shall be made from a list of persons recommended by the county board or boards of the counties contributing to the support of the junior college, on or before June 1 of each year in accordance with this plan; provided further, that each county contributing to the support of the junior college shall have not less than one representative on the advisory committee. Only persons living in a county contributing to the support of the junior college shall be eligible for appointment to the advisory committee. On the first Tuesday after the first Monday in June of each year the advisory committee shall organize by electing a chairman. The president of the junior college shall act as the ex-officio secretary of the committee. The secretary shall keep the minutes of the meetings and file copies with the county superintendent, and such minutes shall be available to the county board.

(5) STATE BOARD SHALL PRESCRIBE MINIMUM STANDARDS.—The state board shall prescribe minimum standards which must be met before a junior college is organized, acquired or operated, and which will assure that the purposes of the junior college are attained.

History.—§2, ch. 19159, 1939; §48, ch. 23726, 1947; §1, ch. 29367, 1955; §5, ch. 57-252.
Note.—Formerly §242.42.

230.48 State and county financial support of junior colleges.—

(1) STATE SUPPORT OF JUNIOR COLLEGES.—Each junior college approved by the state board shall participate in the minimum foundation program funds for junior colleges. The amounts of money to be allocated for this purpose from the minimum foundation program fund shall be according to the formula established by law.

(2) COUNTY SUPPORT OF JUNIOR COLLEGES.—Each county board operating a junior college and each county board participating in the operation of a junior college, under provision of law, shall make a financial effort to support the junior college which is at least equal to five per cent of the minimum local financial effort required to support the minimum foundation program for grades one to twelve, inclusive, in those counties, as prescribed in §236.07(8), provided that no funds calculated to be included in the minimum foundation program for kindergarten through grade twelve shall be used for the support of a junior college, and provided further that no county board or group of county boards operating a junior college shall be required to make a financial effort to support the junior college of more than fifty per cent of the total cost of the minimum foundation program for such junior college. Subject to the foregoing proviso, the county board of each county participating in the operation of a junior college shall annually appropriate to the county board of the county in which the junior college is located a sum at least equivalent to five per cent of the minimum financial effort required for the county board making the appropriation to support the minimum foundation program for grades one to twelve, inclusive, which sum shall be used by the county board to which it is appropriated exclusively for the purpose of supporting the junior college. Any county board which fails to make the financial effort required hereunder to support the junior college, shall during such default be ineligible to receive any state funds under the minimum foundation program. No matriculation or tuition fees may be charged pupils attending a junior college unless such fees are authorized by the state board, and, if such authorization is made, any fees charged shall conform to the requirements for such fees prescribed by the state board.

History.—§3, ch. 19159, 1939; §49, ch. 23726, 1947; §6, ch. 57-252.

Note.—Formerly §242.43.

Note.—Local contributions as prescribed by this section are apparently superseded by the provisions of §236.74(6) enacted by the 1963 legislature as §7 of ch. 63-495.

230.49 Budgets for junior colleges.—A tentative budget of the estimated income and expenditures for each junior college shall be prepared by the president of each junior college and presented for approval to the advisory committee of such junior college. When approved by the advisory committee, the budget shall be submitted to the county superintendent of the county in which the junior college is located, who shall submit said budget to the county board operating the junior college. Upon the approval of the budget by the county board, the county superintendent shall submit it to the state superintendent for approval, who shall notify the county board of his approval or of his refusal to approve same with his reasons for not approving it. Such budget shall become final only when approved by the state superintendent, pursuant to regulations of the state board. Funds provided in this budget shall be used exclusively for junior college purposes. The method for preparation and approval of the junior college budget as set out herein shall be exclusive of any method of other budgets of the county board.

History.—§2, ch. 28068, 1953; §7, ch. 57-252.

230.56 Location of college in two-county area.—In establishing a junior college in a two-county area in which the counties are of comparable size and the principal municipality of each county is of comparable size, the state board of education shall approve a site located between each said municipalities, taking into consideration the convenience of service and accessibility to: first, the people of the said municipalities and, secondly, the people of other populated areas in said counties.

History.—§8, ch. 57-760.

230.57 Junior colleges; ownership of real and personal property.—All real or tangible personal property acquired in whole or in part, or on which buildings shall have been constructed, with funds appropriated herein or hereafter shall be the property of the county board of public instruction of the county in which the junior college is located, subject, however, to divestment by law of the legislature transferring title to the state board of education.

History.—§9, ch. 57-760.

230.58 Establishment of junior colleges.—

(1) LEE, LAKE, COLUMBIA AND ORANGE COUNTIES.—Authorization is hereby given for the establishment of junior colleges to be located in Lee, Lake, Columbia and Orange counties in accordance with provisions of §230.46.

(2) MONROE AND POLK COUNTIES.—Authorization is hereby given for the establishment of junior colleges to be located in Monroe and Polk counties in accordance with provisions of §230.46.

(3) OKALOOSA COUNTY.—Authorization is hereby given for the establishment of junior colleges to be located in Okaloosa county in accordance with provisions of §230.46. The need for junior college facilities shall be established by a survey made under the supervision of the state department of education; the facilities recommended by such survey must be approved by the state board of education and the projects must be constructed according to the provisions of §§235.25-235.33 and state board of education regulations.

(4) DUVAL COUNTY.—Authorization is hereby given for the establishment of junior colleges to be located in Duval county in accordance with provisions of §230.46. There is hereby appropriated the amount of $30,000.00 to the board of public instruction of Duval county to defray expenses incurred in organizing said junior college or colleges. Upon certification by the state superintendent of public instruction to the comptroller of the creation of a junior college, in said county, the comptroller shall draw his warrant in the amount of $30,000.00 on the general revenue fund payable to the board of public instruction of Duval county. Upon receipt of such warrant said board of public instruction shall create and deposit said warrant in a junior college fund to be expended for expenses incurred in organizing said junior college or colleges.

(5) LIVE PROGRAMMING.—A course produced and transmitted by the originating television system. This term shall apply to either production and transmission simultaneously, or to the first transmission of a course subsequent to production.

(6) PRERECORDED PROGRAMMING.—All transmission not included in the definition of live programming.

(7) CONTRACTING COUNTY.—A county entering into a contract for acquisition, establishment or operation of an educational television system or to a county entering into a contract with an educational television station to provide educational television programming to such county, or to a county entering into a contract for services and channels. It shall not include contracts for the purchase or sale of personal property or the leasing of real property.

(8) Privately owned television broadcast station, community antenna television system or closed circuit television system shall mean such broadcast stations or systems operated by private individuals or corporations, and offering their services for educational television either as a public service or for compensation.

History.—§1, ch. 63-221.

230.60 Educational television stations may be established.—

(1) COUNTY BOARD MAY ESTABLISH OR ACQUIRE AN EDUCATIONAL TELEVISION SYSTEM.—Any county board, after first obtaining the approval of the state board of education may, as a part of the county school system, organize, establish, contract for and operate an educational television system, or acquire and operate a system previously established, or may contract for providing educational television courses with privately owned television stations, with community antenna television systems or closed circuit television systems.

(2) COUNTY BOARDS OF COOPERATING COUNTIES MAY ESTABLISH OR ACQUIRE EDUCATIONAL TELEVISION SYSTEMS.—A county board of any two or more cooperating counties, after first obtaining the approval of the state board, may enter into a contract to organize, establish and operate or acquire and operate an educational television system under the conditions set forth in this section, provided that no county board may discontinue performing its part of any agreement with another county or counties for the acquisition or operation of an educational television system without first obtaining the approval of the state board.

(3) PLAN TO ACQUIRE, ESTABLISH, AND OPERATE EDUCATIONAL TELEVISION SYSTEM MUST BE APPROVED BY STATE BOARD.—No educational television system shall be established, acquired, or operated as provided in this section until the proposed plan for operation and financial support has been approved by the state board.

History.—§1, ch. 63-221.

230.61 Educational television system part of county school system; advisory committee; minimum standards.—

(1) EDUCATIONAL TELEVISION STATION OR SYSTEM PART OF COUNTY SCHOOL SYSTEM.—An educational television system established or acquired under the provisions of §230.60 shall comprise a part of the county school system of the state, shall be subject to the general school laws of the state insofar as such laws are applicable, shall be under the control of the county board holding the federal communications commission license for the operation of the educational television system and shall be directed by a manager who shall be responsible through the county superintendent to the licensee board.

(2) DUTIES AND POWERS OF ADVISORY COMMITTEE.—For each educational television system operated by a county board or county boards, or contracting with a county board to provide educational television programming, an advisory committee shall be appointed as hereinafter prescribed. The members of the advisory committee shall serve without compensation but shall be entitled to per diem and travel in accordance with §112.061. The advisory committee may meet with the licensee whenever matters involving the educational television system are being acted upon. The advisory committee shall meet at least once each quarter and submit to the licensee, after consulting with the manager of the educational television system, whatever recommendations relating to personnel, course offerings, finance, and policies in general it deems to be for the best interest of the educational television system. The advisory committee shall advise the licensee on such matters but the members of the advisory committee shall not have the right to vote at any joint meeting.

(3) MEMBERS AND METHOD OF AP-

POINTMENT OF ADVISORY COMMITTEE.—

(a) The advisory committee shall be composed of: The county superintendent of each of the cooperating or contracting counties; one member of the educational staff at the supervisory level from each of the cooperating or contracting counties, said member to be nominated by the respective county boards of public instruction and approved by the state board of education; and one lay resident of either the licensee county or one of the contracting counties, said member to be nominated annually by the other members of the advisory committee and approved by the state board of education.

(b) When there are no cooperating or contracting counties and the educational television system is operated by one county board, said county board after considering the recommendations of the county superintendent shall nominate three additional members of the advisory committee to be approved by the state board of education.

(4) STATE BOARD SHALL PRESCRIBE MINIMUM STANDARDS.—The state board shall prescribe minimum standards and adopt applicable regulations which must be met before an educational television system is organized, acquired or operated which will assure that the purposes of the educational television system are obtained.

(5) ADVERSE RULING, APPEAL BY ADVISORY COMMITTEE.—If the licensee is a county board of public instruction and said board acts adversely to the recommendation of the advisory committee, the advisory committee may appeal the action to the state board of education within ten days. The appeal shall serve as a stay of action, and the licensee board shall take no action in the matter until after the decision of the state board, which decision shall be final.

History.—§1, ch. 63-221.

230.62 Budgets for educational television stations or systems operated by a county board.—

A tentative budget of the estimated income and expenditures for each educational television system operated by a county board shall be prepared by the manager of such educational television system and presented for approval to the advisory committee for such educational television system. When approved by the advisory committee, the budget shall be submitted to the county superintendent of the licensee county, who shall submit said budget to the county board operating the educational television system. Upon the approval of the budget by the county board, the county superintendent shall submit it to the state superintendent for approval who shall notify the county board of his approval or his refusal to approve same, with his reasons for not approving it. Such budget shall become final only when approved by the state superintendent, pursuant to regulations of the state board, which regulations shall specify the sources of revenue, the purposes of the expenditures and the amount of reserve to be included in said budget. Funds provided in this budget shall be used exclusively for the operation and maintenance of the educational television system. Method of preparation and approval of the educational television system budget as set out herein shall be exclusive of any method of preparation or approval of other budgets of the county school board.

History.—§1, ch. 63-221.

(1) TEACHING.—Teach efficiently and faithfully, using the books and materials required, following the prescribed courses of study, and employing approved methods of instruction, the following: the essentials of the United States constitution, flag education, including proper flag display and flag salute, the elements of civil government, the elementary principles of agriculture, the true effects of all alcoholic and intoxicating liquors and beverages and narcotics upon the human body and mind, kindness to animals, the history of the state, conservation of natural resources, and such additional materials, subjects, courses, or fields in such grades as may be prescribed by law or by regulations of the state board and the county board in fulfilling the requirements of law; provided, that state and county school officials shall furnish and put into execution a system and method of teaching the true effects of alcohol and narcotics on the human body and mind, provide the necessary textbooks, literature, equipment, and directions, see that such subjects are efficiently taught by means of pictures, charts, oral instruction, and lectures and other approved methods, and require such reports as are deemed necessary to show the work which is being covered and the results being accomplished, and provided further, that any child whose parent shall present to the school principal a signed statement that the teaching of disease, its symptoms, development and treatment, and the viewing of pictures or motion pictures of such subjects conflict with the religious teachings of their church, shall be exempt from such instruction, and no child so exempt shall be penalized by reason of such exemption.

(2) BIBLE READING.—Have, once every school day, readings in the presence of the pupils from the Holy Bible, without sectarian comment.

(3) EXAMPLE FOR PUPILS.—Labor faithfully and earnestly for the advancement of the pupils in their studies, deportment and morals, and embrace every opportunity to inculcate, by precept and example, the principles of truth, honesty and patriotism and the practice of every Christian virtue.

(4) TREATMENT OF PUPILS.—Treat pupils under their care kindly, considerately, and humanely, administering discipline in accordance with regulations of the state board and the county board; provided, that in no case shall cruel or inhuman punishment be administered to any child attending the public schools.

(5) OBJECTIVE FOR PUPILS.—Require the pupils to observe personal cleanliness, neatness, order, promptness, and gentility of manners, avoid vulgarity and profanity, and cultivate in them habits of industry and economy, a regard for the rights and feelings of others, and their own responsibilities and duties as citizens.

(6) CONFERENCES.—Attend such conferences relating to education as may be required by law, by the state superintendent, or by the county superintendent.

(7) COOPERATION.—Cooperate with the state, county, and local school officials in the enforcement of school laws and of state and county board regulations.

(8) RECORDS AND REPORTS.—Keep such records and prepare and submit such reports as may be required by law, by regulations of the state board, or of the employing county board.

(9) RULES AND REGULATIONS.—Conform to all rules and regulations that may be prescribed by the state board and by the county board.

(10) PROTECT PROPERTY.—See that the school building, and all things pertaining thereto, are not unnecessarily defaced or injured.

(11) FIRE AND EMERGENCY DRILLS.—Give instructions in and hold under the direction of the school principal, such fire and emergency drills as may be prescribed by law, by regulations of the state board and of the county board, and as otherwise may be deemed necessary.

(12) CUSTODY OF PROPERTY.—Deliver, on closing or suspending school, all keys, records and reports, and account for all other school property to the principal of the school, to the county superintendent, or to a trustee as may be prescribed by regulations of the state board and of the county board.

(13) CONTRACTS.—Fulfill the terms of any written contract, unless released from the contract by the county board, as prescribed in §§231.36 and 231.361.

History.—§509, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(113); (1) §1, ch. 28055, 1953; (13) §1, ch. 61-459.

231.10 Florida teacher education advisory council.—To aid in developing desirable standards and particularly to assist in the improvement of teacher, administrator and supervisor education in the state there shall be organized a council which shall be designated as the Florida teacher education advisory council. This council shall be comprised of representatives from the following: one member designated by each institution of higher learning in the state which offers courses for the preparation of teachers; one additional member from each institution of higher learning in the state which offers courses for the preparation of teachers and which has a separate college or school of education; provided that in each such institution one representative shall be a member of the staff of the school or college of education and one representative shall be a member of the staff of the college of arts and sciences; two members from the state department of education, one of whom shall be the director of certification and accreditation and one of whom shall be the director of instructional field services; two representatives from the Florida education association, one of whom shall be the executive secretary thereof and one of whom shall be the president thereof; two each secondary teachers, junior high school teachers and elementary teachers, who shall be appointed by the state superintendent of public instruction upon recommendation of those associations constituting the largest state-wide organization of such teachers; one each junior college representative, county superintendent, supervisor, secondary principal, junior high principal and elementary principal, who shall be appointed by the state superintendent of public instruction upon recommendation of those associations constituting the largest state-wide organization of such persons; six persons appointed by the governor, one of whom shall be a member of a county school board, one of whom shall be a parent of a child enrolled in the public schools of the state, and four of whom shall be by citizens not connected with the educational system of the state or any county therein.

Members shall serve for three year overlapping terms and shall be entitled to reimbursement for expense of attending meetings of the council. Reimbursement for such expense shall be made by the state treasurer from funds appropriated for the state department of education on warrants to be drawn by the state comptroller upon requisitions approved by the state superintendent.

The duties of the Florida teacher education advisory council shall be as follows:

(1) To plan and conduct, in cooperation with the state department of education and institutions of higher learning, studies relating to the selection, education, guidance and placement of school personnel and especially of instructional and administrative personnel in the state.

(2) To submit to the state board, through the state superintendent, on or before January 1 of each year, a report summarizing the findings of studies conducted during the year and proposing such recommendations for improvement in the program as are considered desirable.

History.—§510, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(114); §15, ch. 23726, 1947; §48, ch. 29764, 1955; §1, ch. 59-357.

cf.—§229.07 General powers of state board.

231.11 Program for education of public school personnel; approval of institutions.—The state board shall prescribe minimum standards including minimum curricula for the education of personnel engaged in public school work in the state. The state board, on the basis of standards prescribed by it, shall have the authority to approve institutions both within and without the state for the purpose of certifying administrative and instructional personnel for the public schools.

History.—§511, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(115); §16, ch. 23726, 1947; §49, ch. 29764, 1955.

231.12 Recommendations regarding teacher training institutions.—The state superintendent shall make periodic inspections of the teacher training institutions under the control of the state board of control, and make recommendations to the presidents of these institutions in matters pertaining to their teacher training functions.

History.—§512, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(116).

231.13 Conferences.—As a means of stimulating the professional improvement of personnel in service, the state superintendent may call conferences of personnel of the public schools on matters relating solely to education, which conferences, if held on a school day within the period of time covered by a contract, shall be attended with pay by all who may be designated in the call of the state superintendent; provided, that the call of the state superintendent may indicate that attendance is optional, and that in any case of those absent from their usual duties during the time of the conference, only those actually in attendance at the conference shall be entitled to pay for time covered by the conference.

History.—§513, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(117).
cf.—229.17 State superintendent may call meetings.

231.14 Certificate required.—No person shall be employed to serve in an administrative or instructional capacity as a regular or part-time teacher in the public schools of the state who does not hold a valid certificate to teach in Florida granted or recognized pursuant to law under regulations of the state board; nor shall any county board employ, contract with, or pay any person a salary for administrative or instructional services who does not hold such a valid certificate; provided, that previous residence in Florida shall not be required as a prerequisite for any person holding a valid Florida certificate to serve in an instructional or administrative capacity in schools of the state.

History.—§514, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(118); §17, ch. 23726, 1947.

231.15 Positions for which certificates required.—Each person employed or occupying a position as administrative assistant to the county superintendent, school supervisor, helping teacher, principal, teacher, attendance assistant, school librarian, or other position in which the employee serves in an administrative or instructional capacity in any public school of any county of this state, shall hold the certificate required by law, and by regulations of the state board in fulfilling the requirements of the law for the type of service rendered; provided, however, that the certification requirements for employment by the county board may be waived under regulations of the state board, for personnel engaged in providing educational experiences by occasional personal lectures, by occasional instruction of adults, or by means of radio or television transmission.

History.—§515, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(119); §9, ch. 57-249; §9, ch. 63-376.

231.151 Certificates for personnel employed in junior colleges.—Each person employed in an administrative or instructional position in a public junior college shall hold a valid certificate in accordance with §§231.14 and 231.15. Such certificate shall be issued on the basis of qualifications set by the state board for junior college personnel; provided that §231.16(2) shall not apply to the issuance of junior college certificates to persons having three or more years of teaching experience or its equivalent as defined by regulations of the state board, or to continuing contracts for junior college personnel.

History.—§1, ch. 63-398.

231.16 Types, classes and ranks of certificates to be issued; examinations.—

(1) The state board shall prescribe the types, classes and ranks of certificates to be issued, the subjects or fields of instruction which these certificates shall cover, and the requirements for such certificates; provided, that regulations of the state board in regard to certification shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of law; and provided, further, that new regulations adopted at any time shall not become effective to the exclusion of prior regulations for a period of one year. The regulations of the state board shall include regulations specifying, as prerequisite to each type of certificate to be granted, a definite amount of college credits in prescribed professional courses and subject fields and the period of time prior to the application for certificate within which time a specified portion of such college work shall have been done, and may require a definite period of time during which the applicant shall have served under supervision in the public schools.

(2)(a) No certificate other than one interim certificate, valid for one year only, shall be issued to an applicant who has not made a score of at least five hundred or such higher minimum score as may be fixed by regulation of the state board of education, on the common examinations of the national teacher examinations, or on a comprehensive examination approved by the state board of education as at least equivalent thereto. The rank of such interim certificate shall be determined by the applicant's academic degree and other qualifications. If, at the expiration of the interim certificate, the applicant has made the minimum score as prescribed above, he may be issued upon application a certificate, the rank of which shall be determined by his academic degree and other qualifications. If, at the expiration of the interim certificate, the applicant has not made the prescribed minimum score, he may be issued upon application one temporary certificate which shall be in rank V; provided that the holder of a temporary certificate in rank V may not become eligible for a higher rank certificate subsequent to September 1 of the school fiscal year in which the rank V certificate was issued. The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to personnel certified for part-time employment.

(b) Any person holding a certificate dated July 1, 1961, or July 1, 1962, shall be adjudged to have held the interim certificate as provided in paragraph (a).

(3) Nothing contained in subsection (2) of this section shall impair, for the rank certificated, the validity of any certificate dated on or before July 1, 1961.

History.—§516, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(120); §18, ch. 23726, 1947; §2, ch. 61-263; (2) §1, ch. 63-223.

231.162 Construction of chapter 61-263.—Nothing in chapter 61-263 amending chapters 231 and 236 shall be construed to impair the authority of the legislature to change from time to time, as it may deem in the best interest of education, the qualifications and requirements for issuance and renewal of certificates as a prerequisite to continuance in service as instructional personnel under continuing contracts and the qualifications and requirements for competence awards and any other awards or increments.

History.—§6, ch. 61-263.

231.17 Certificates granted on application to those meeting prescribed requirements.—The state superintendent shall issue a certificate of the proper type to any person possessing the qualifications for such a certificate, as prescribed herein, and by rules and regulations of the state board, who pays the required fee, makes application in writing on the form prescribed by the state superintendent, submits satisfactory evidence that he possesses said qualifications, and who meets the requirements given in §231.18. To be eligible for a certificate to serve in an administrative or instructional capacity, the applicant shall be a citizen of the United States, shall be at least twenty years of age or shall have received a four year degree from an accredited institution of higher learning and shall not have attained the age of seventy years, shall meet such academic and professional requirements based on credentials certified to by standard teacher-training institutions of higher learning as may be prescribed by the state board, shall be recommended for a teaching certificate by the institution of higher learning from which he was graduated, shall be free from malignant, communicable, or mental diseases, and from any physical illness, defect, or deformity which would impair or prevent the performance of duties, functions, or responsibilities of a teacher, and shall be of good moral character; provided, that the state board shall have authority to prescribe regulations under which certificates or permits may be issued to citizens of other nations not antagonistic to democratic forms of government who may be needed to teach, or who may be assigned to teach in the state on an exchange basis, and that the provisions of §231.18 shall not apply to such persons.

History.—§517, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(121); §2, ch. 21989, 1943; §19, ch. 23726, 1947; §1, ch. 26894, 1951; §5, ch. 29754, 1955; §10, ch. 57-249; §6, ch. 59-371; §10, ch. 63-376.

231.171 Ranks I and II; limitation on teaching field.—It is the intent of the legislature that all instructional personnel certificated in rank I and rank II subsequent to July 1, 1961, shall teach only in the fields or areas for which such personnel are certificated; provided, that instructional personnel may be employed by county boards of public instruction to teach out of the field in which they are certificated only upon certification by the county superintendent to the state superintendent that suitable personnel, properly certificated for the vacancies, are not available; provided further that minimum foundation program salary allocation for instructional units sustained by instructional personnel in rank I and rank II not included in the above conditions shall be computed at the unit value prescribed for rank III; provided further that instructional personnel now taking courses for the completion of degrees leading to rank I or rank II certification who will complete such programs prior to July 1, 1963, shall not be considered to fall within the purview of this act. This section shall become effective July 1, 1962.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 61-294.

231.18 Support of the United States constitution.—Each person applying for a certificate which would make him eligible to serve in an administrative or instructional capacity in the schools of Florida in addition to meeting all other requirements, and before receiving a certificate, shall file along with his other credentials a written statement under oath that he subscribes to and will uphold the principles incorporated in the constitution of the United States.

History.—§518, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 892(122); §20, ch. 23726, 1947.

231.20 Graduate certificate.—Upon fulfilling the requirements given in §231.17, a graduate certificate valid for five years from the date of issue, extendible as specified in §231.24, and authorizing the holder thereof to teach the grades, subjects, or subject fields indicated on the certificate, shall be issued to any regular graduate of a standard institution of higher learning, approved under regulations of the state board, requiring the completion of a four-year course for graduation, who is recommended by that institution for a certificate.

History.—§520, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 892(124); §2, ch. 26894, 1951.

231.24 Extension of certificates.—All certificates except temporary and provisional certificates issued under the provisions of the Florida Statutes, shall be extendible for successive periods under regulation of the state board prescribing such additional training or experience, or both, as may be deemed necessary for said extension; provided, that the applicant for the extension of the certificate has not reached his seventieth birthday; and provided, however, that when any person holding a valid Florida teacher's certificate is called into or volunteers for actual wartime service or required peacetime military training, his certificate shall be extended for a period of time equal to the time he spends in military service, providing such person makes proper application and presents substantiating evidence to the state superintendent regarding such military service.

231.28 Revocation of certificates.—The state board of education shall have authority to suspend the teaching certificate of any person for one year, thereby denying him the right to teach for that period of time, after which the holder may return to teaching as provided in subsection (6); or, revoke the teaching certificate of any person, thereby denying him the right to teach for a period of time not to exceed ten years, with reinstatement subject to provisions of subsection (6); or, revoke permanently the teaching certificate of any person, provided:

(1) It can be shown that such person obtained the teaching certificate by fraudulent means, or has proved to be incompetent to teach or to perform his duties as an employee of the public school system, or to teach in or to operate a private school, or has been guilty of gross immorality or an act involving moral turpitude, or has had his certificate revoked in another state, or has been convicted of a misdemeanor, felony, or any other criminal charge, other than a minor traffic violation, or upon investigation has been found guilty of personal conduct which seriously reduces his effectiveness as an employee of the county board, or has otherwise violated the provisions of law, the penalty for which is the revocation of the teaching certificate, or has refused to comply with the regulations of the state board of education or the board of public instruction in the county in which he is employed.

(2) The procedure for the revocation or suspension of a teaching certificate shall be prescribed in state board of education regulations, in compliance with the laws of Florida and constitutional guarantees of due process of law.

(3) The plea of guilty in any court, or the decision of guilty by any court, or the forfeiture by the teaching certificate holder of a bond in any court of law, or the written acknowledgment, duly witnessed of offenses listed in subsection (1), to the county superintendent of public instruction or his duly appointed representative, or to the county board of public instruction shall be prima facie proof of grounds for revocation of the certificate as listed in subsection (1) in the absence of proof by the certificate holder that his plea of guilty, forfeiture of bond or admission of guilt were caused by threats, coercion or fraudulent means. Should additional evidence be needed, the state board of education may appoint a state professional education organization or a special agency or individual to conduct an investigation to determine the facts in the case.

(4) Notice of charges and hearing sent by registered mail to the certificate holder's last known address shall be considered as adequate notice under this act. Inability to deliver the notice by mail or the refusal of the certificate holder to accept the notice, or his failure to reply to such notice within the time limits as prescribed in the state board of education regulations, shall not be construed as a bar to further proceedings in such matters by said state board of education. In either case, the state board of education may proceed to consider the charges in the absence of the accused or his counsel and to take such action as it may deem proper.

(5) The revocation by the state board of education of a teaching certificate of any person shall automatically revoke any and all Florida teaching certificates held by that person.

(6) The teaching certificate which has been suspended under §231.28 is automatically reinstated at the end of the suspension period, provided such certificate did not expire during the period of suspension. If the certificate expired during the period of suspension, the holder of the former certificate may secure a new certificate by making application and by meeting the certification requirements of the state board current at the time of the application for the new certificate.

The person whose teaching certificate has been revoked, as provided in §231.28, may apply for a new certificate at the expiration of that period of ineligibility as fixed by the state board of education by making application and by meeting the certification requirements of the state board current the time of the application for the new certificate.

The county superintendent of public instruction shall report to the state board of education the name of any person who has been dismissed or severed from employment because of conduct involving any immoral, unnatural, or lascivious act.

History.—§528, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(132); §6, ch. 29754, 1955; (1) §2, ch. 59-339; §1, ch. 63-225; (6) §1, ch. 63-248.

cf.—§229.08 Duty of state board to revoke certificate.

§229.17 State superintendent may recommend revocation.

§230.33 (21) County superintendent may recommend revocation to state superintendent.

231.29 Record of personnel.—The state superintendent shall maintain a complete statement of the academic preparation, professional training, and teaching experience of each person to whom a certificate is issued. The applicant, or the county superintendent, shall furnish the information making up such records on blanks furnished by the state superintendent. The state superintendent shall furnish a transcript of all essential information in this statement to the county superintendent in the county where the person is employed.

(1) The county superintendent shall be responsible for the records of each person employed in his county. The file of each person shall be open to inspection only by the county board, the county superintendent, the principal, the person himself, and by such other person as he may authorize in writing.

(2) By July 1 of each year and at each time that employment is terminated, the principal or the county superintendent shall evaluate the services of each certificate holder, and such evaluation shall become part of the personnel file required of this section, and a copy shall be forwarded to the state superintendent for his file.

(3) The state board shall by regulation prescribe the procedures for evaluating the services of instructional personnel.

(4) Whenever a person ceases to be employed in any county, the county superintendent shall send the personnel file to the state superintendent.

(5) To carry out the provisions of this act there is hereby annually appropriated from the general revenue fund to the state department of education the amount of ten thousand dollars.

History.—§529, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(133); §1, ch. 61-286.

231.30 Fees; disposition. — Each applicant for a certificate shall pay a fee of five dollars. The fee shall be retained whether the certificate is granted or not, provided that incomplete applications including fees and overpayments may be returned. An applicant for a duplicate certificate shall pay a fee of one dollar and shall present evidence establishing his identity as the holder of the original certificate. The proceeds from the collection of certification fees shall be remitted by the state superintendent to the state treasurer and shall by him be kept in a separate fund to be known as the "educational certification and service trust fund" and disbursed for the payment of expenses incurred in the printing of forms and bulletins, the issuing of certificates, and the providing of a registration service under §231.31 upon warrants drawn by the comptroller upon vouchers approved by the state superintendent.

231.31 Registration service for certificated personnel. — The state superintendent may maintain in his office a registration service which shall provide for keeping a list of certificated instructional personnel who apply to him to be placed on such list as an aid to securing positions. For each such applicant the record shall show the position or positions he or she is certificated to fill and such other information as may be helpful to those seeking qualified individuals. This list is to be used in giving service to instructional personnel interested in securing positions, to school officials who wish to secure lists of properly certificated personnel for consideration for various types of positions, and for use by the state superintendent when called upon to suggest names of certificated persons qualified to fill positions in various fields in which local school officials fail to locate properly certificated personnel.

231.32 Service fees authorized. — Any person interested in an instructional position who applies for listing with the registration service for instructional personnel, as authorized by §231.31, shall pay a fee of not exceeding one dollar, as prescribed by regulations of the state board, to cover the expenses incident to the operation of the service, which fee shall entitle the teacher or other person interested in an instructional position to have his name maintained on the list and his record of credentials preserved for the period of one year. The proceeds derived from these fees shall be remitted by the state superintendent to the state treasurer, and shall be kept by him in the "educational certification and service trust fund" and disbursed as set forth in §231.30.

History.—§532, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(136); §7, ch. 22858, 1945; §2, ch. 61-119.

231.33 School bus driver's license. — Each driver of a school bus shall hold a school bus driver's license which shall be issued, extended, and revoked as prescribed in §§234.14-234.21. Fees paid by applicants shall be remitted by the state superintendent to the state treasurer to become a part of the "educational certification and service trust fund" and shall be disbursed as a part of that fund.

History.—§533, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(137); §2, ch. 61-119.

cf.—§234.16 License requirements.
§322.01(4) School bus defined.

231.34 Certificates for other personnel. — The state board of education shall have authority to classify school services and to prescribe regulations in accordance with which certificates shall be issued by the state superintendent to school employees who meet the standards prescribed by such regulations for their class of service. Each person employed as a school nurse shall hold a license to practice nursing in the state and each person employed as a school physician shall hold a license to practice medicine in the state. This section shall not be construed to include the management, control and operation of lunchrooms in public schools where such lunchrooms are not operated under the control and direction of the county school board.

cf.—§232.29 et seq. Health and sanitation.

231.35 Appointment of employees. — All employees of the county school system shall be appointed as prescribed in chapter 230; provided that the terms "to consider the recommendations of" or "to act upon the recommendations of" shall be interpreted to mean that neither the trustees nor the county board shall act on the appointment of employees without having considered any recommendations or nominations submitted as prescribed by law, that such recommendations or nominations may be rejected only for good cause, and that when any such rejection has been made, a second and if necessary a third recommendation or nomination shall be requested and if made within a reasonable time as prescribed by the county board, shall be considered or acted on as prescribed by law before the trustees or county board shall have a right to nominate or to appoint on their own motion; and, provided further, that the following procedure shall be observed in making appointments and reappointments of instructional personnel:

(1) FILLING VACANCIES. — The county board shall prescribe regulations which define reasonable time limits within which trustees shall be required to submit nominations of persons to fill vacancies. If the trustees of any district fail to submit a proper nomination or nominations within the time limits prescribed by these regulations, the county board shall have the authority to appoint persons to fill any such vacancies after acting on nominations of qualified persons submitted by the county superintendent. Nominations to fill vacancies shall not be required to be submitted at the time nominations for reappointment are required by law except when prescribed by regulations of the county board.

(2) REAPPOINTMENTS.—It shall be the duty of the trustees of each district to file with the county board in writing by the time prescribed by law and not more than four weeks in advance of the time prescribed by law for filing nominations for reappointment, a definite recommendation for or against the reappointment of each person subject to annual nomination for reappointment. It shall likewise be the duty of the county board through the county superintendent to notify in writing each person subject to annual reappointment whether or not he has been reappointed for the ensuing year. If the trustees should fail to act on any reappointment by the time prescribed by law for such action, it shall be the duty of the county board to act on its own volition after considering nominations submitted by the county superintendent.

History.—§535, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 892(139); §4, ch. 20970, 1941.

231.351 Annual contracts under certain conditions.—Any teacher who is otherwise entitled to receive a continuing contract under §231.36, may in the alternative be retained on an annual basis if the county board of public instruction of the particular county upon the recommendation of the county superintendent shall by majority vote find that such teacher does not meet the desired standards. Among the criteria to be considered shall be educational qualifications, efficiency, capability, character and capacity to meet the educational requirements of the community. A recommendation to grant such annual contract shall be made by the county superintendent of public instruction and shall be submitted at least three months prior to the close of the school year, giving good and sufficient reasons for such recommendation. Such annual contract shall be automatically renewed by the county board at least four weeks prior to the close of each successive school year unless the county superintendent or such teacher shall, not later than three months prior to the close of the school year, request the county board to reconsider the annual contract. The county board may reconsider any annual contract on its own motion and shall take whatever action that it deems necessary and proper as authorized by this or any other section.

History.—§1, ch. 63-316.

231.36 Contracts with instructional staff and with professional administrative assistants.—Each person employed as a member of the instructional staff in any county school system or as a professional administrative or attendance assistant, supervisor or principal shall be properly certificated and shall be entitled to and shall receive a written contract as specified in chapter 230; provided, that any person so employed who shall violate the terms of his contract by leaving his position without first being released from his contract by the county board of the county in which he is employed shall be ineligible for employment in the school system of the state or any county therein for the period of one year from the date of such violation; provided, that the school board shall take official action on such violation and furnish a copy of the proceedings to the certification section of the state department of education, whereupon the certificate of the violator shall be considered as invalid for the period of one year from the date of violation; provided, also, that the county board of each county shall provide continuing contracts as prescribed herein. Each member of the instructional and administrative staff in each county school system, except in counties operating under local, special or general tenure laws with stated population application, who holds a regular certificate based at least on graduation from a standard four year college, or as otherwise provided by law, who has completed three years of probationary service in the same county of the state during a period not in excess of five successive years; such service being continuous except for leave duly authorized and granted, who has been reappointed for the fourth year, and, who has met the requirements of §231.16(2), relating to comprehensive examination and score thereon, shall be entitled to and shall be issued a continuing contract in such form as may be prescribed by regulations of the state board; provided, however, that such continuing contract shall be effective at the beginning of the school fiscal year following the completion of all requirements; provided, that the period of probationary service provided herein may be extended to four years when prescribed by the county board and agreed to in writing by the employee at the time of reappointment. Each person to whom a continuing contract has been issued as provided herein shall be entitled to continue in his position or in a similar position in the county at the salary schedule authorized by the county board without the necessity for annual nomination or reappointment until such time as the position is discontinued, the person resigns or his contractual status is changed as prescribed below:

(1) Any member of the county administrative or supervisory staff who is under continuing contract may be dismissed or may be returned to annual contract status for another three years in the discretion of the county board, when a recommendation to that effect is submitted in writing to the county board by the county superintendent, or by a majority of the county board, at least three months before the close of any school year, giving good and sufficient reasons therefor, and when after ten days written notice to the employee a public hearing is held, if such hearing is requested in writing by the person under consideration, and when the reasons given by the county superintendent or by a majority of the county board are sustained by majority vote of the county board. Any such decision of the county board adverse to the employee, may, however, be appealed by him in writing to the state board, through the state superintendent for review, and the decision of the state board shall be final as to sufficiency or insufficiency of the reasons for dismissal or discontinuation of the continuing contract status.

(2) Should the county board of public instruction have to choose from among its personnel who are on continuing contracts as to which should be retained, among the criteria to be considered shall be educational qualifications, efficiency, compatibility, character, and capacity to meet the educational needs of the community. Whenever a county board is required to or does consolidate its school program at any given school center by bringing together pupils theretofore assigned to separated schools, the county board may determine on the basis of the foregoing criteria from its own personnel, and any other certificated teachers, which teachers shall be employed for service at this school center, and any teacher no longer needed may be dismissed. The decision of the board shall not be controlled by any previous contractual relationship. In the evaluation of these factors the decision of the county board of public instruction shall be final.

(3) Any member of the instructional staff, including any principal, who is under continuing contract may be dismissed or may be returned to annual contract status for another three years when a recommendation to that effect is submitted in writing to the county board on or before April 1 of any school year, giving good and sufficient reason therefor, by the county superintendent, or by the principal if his contract is not under consideration or by a majority of the county board. The employee whose contract is under consideration shall be duly notified in writing by the party or parties preferring the charges at least five days prior to the filing of the written recommendation with the county board, and such notice shall include a copy of the charges and the recommendation to the county board. If the employee upon being officially notified in writing by the county board that it will consider the charges filed against him wishes a public hearing, he shall notify the board in writing within ten days after the date of the official notice. Upon receiving such a request, the county board shall within ten days notify the teacher of the time and place of the public hearing. In the event the teacher does not request a public hearing, the county board shall proceed to take appropriate action. Any decision adverse to the employee shall be made by an affirmative vote of four members of the county board. Any such decision adverse to the employee may be appealed by him in writing to the state board, through the state superintendent, for review; provided such appeal is filed within thirty days after the decision of the county board, and provided further that the decision of the state board shall be final as to sufficiency or insufficiency for dismissal or discontinuation of the continuing contract status.

(4) The county board of public instruction of any given county may, at its own discretion, grant to a person who has served as county superintendent of public instruction in that county, at the completion of his service as superintendent, a continuing contract as a classroom teacher. Service as superintendent shall be construed as continuous teaching service in the public schools of this state.

(5) Any member who has retired may interrupt retirement and be re-employed in any public school during periods of emergency or critical need as determined by the county school board; any member so re-employed by the same county from which he retired shall be entitled to continue on the same contractual basis that existed immediately prior to retirement.

(6) Any teacher who is employed in a cooperative education program in this state may be immediately placed on continuing contract with the county board wherein the cooperative education program is produced if, at the time of employment, such person is on a continuing contract in a county which is participating in support of the particular cooperative education program in which the person is employed; provided that if at the time of reappointment of personnel, during the first three years, said person is not recommended for continued employment in the cooperative education program, he shall automatically revert to continuing contract status in the county of immediate prior employment; and provided further, that in meeting the requirements for a continuing contract prescribed herein prior successive years of service rendered in any county participating in the support of the particular cooperative education program may be counted as years of probationary service for a continuing contract with the county board wherein the cooperative education program is produced.

231.361 Vocational teachers; status.—Vocational teachers, and other teachers who qualify for certificates on the basis of non-academic preparation, shall be entitled to all the contractual rights and privileges now granted to other instructional personnel holding certificates of corresponding rank.

History.—§1, ch. 29625, 1955.

231.362 Junior college personnel.—Any person who is employed in any junior college in this state shall be immediately placed on continuing contract with the county board wherein the junior college is located if, at the time of employment, such person is on a continuing contract in a county which is participating in support of the particular junior college in which such person is employed; provided, that if at the time of annual contract renewal during first three years of employment in the junior college said person is not recommended for reappointment in the junior college, he shall automatically revert to continuing contract status in the county in which he was employed immediately prior.

(1) If in the establishment of a junior college a public educational institution has been or is consolidated with a public junior college, instructional and administrative personnel of such an institution who are on tenure or who are entitled to tenure under the rules and regulations governing such institutions and who are subsequently employed in the junior college may, at the discretion of the county board, be placed on continuing contract with the county board wherein the junior college is located.

(2) In meeting the requirements for a continuing contract as prescribed by §231.36, prior successive years of service rendered in a public educational institution which is consolidated with a junior college may be counted as years of probationary service.

History.—§1, ch. 59-344; §13, ch. 63-376.

231.37 Salary.—Any person employed in an instructional capacity shall receive the salary prescribed by the salary schedule adopted by the county board in compliance with the requirements of chapter 230.

History.—§537, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(141).

231.38 Contracts with personnel other than instructional personnel.—Contracts with personnel other than instructional personnel shall be made as prescribed by law, by regulations of the state board, and by regulations of the county board.

History.—§538, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(142).

231.39 Provisions for leave of absence.—Any member of the instructional staff may secure leave of absence during the year when it is necessary to be absent from duty as prescribed by law and, under certain conditions may receive compensation during such period of absence. Any such leave of absence shall be classified as sick leave, illness-in-line-of-duty leave, professional leave, or personal leave. Subject to the provisions in the sections which follow, county boards shall prescribe regulations governing the granting of leaves of absence during the year. County boards shall also have authority to prescribe regulations for the granting, and with the approval of the trustees of the district in which the person is serving, to grant more extended leaves of absence, as follows:

(1) EXTENDED PROFESSIONAL LEAVE.—Extended leave for professional improvement may be granted for a period not to exceed one year to any member of the instructional staff who has served satisfactorily and successfully in the schools of the county; provided, that partial compensation may be authorized only when the person has served in the county for seven years or more.

(2) MILITARY LEAVE.—Military leave shall be granted without pay, except as provided by §115.07, to employees of a county board of public instruction who are required to serve in the armed forces of the United States or this state in fulfillment of obligations incurred under selective service laws or because of membership in reserves of the armed forces or national guard, and may be granted at the discretion of the county board without pay to any employee volunteering for military duty. Employees granted such leave for military service shall, upon completion of the tour of duty, be returned to employment without prejudice, provided application for re-employment is filed within six months following the date of discharge or release from active military duty; and provided further that the county board of public instruction shall have a reasonable time, not to exceed six months, to reassign the employee to duty in the school system. Military leave shall not be counted as years of service toward a continuing contract or for allocation of minimum foundation funds.

History.—§539, ch. 19355, 1939; §5, ch. 20970, 1941; CGL 892(143); §14, ch. 63-376.

231.40 Sick leave.—Any member of the instructional staff employed in the public schools of the state who is unable to perform his duty in the school because of illness, or because of illness or death of father, mother, brother, sister, husband, wife, child, or other close relative, or member of his own household, and consequently has to be absent from his work shall be granted leave of absence for sickness by the county superintendent, or by someone designated in writing by him to do so. The following provisions shall govern sick leave:

(1) EXTENT OF LEAVE.—Each member of the instructional staff shall be entitled to not more than ten days of sick leave during any one school year; provided, that such leave shall be taken only when necessary because of sickness as herein prescribed. Such sick leave shall be cumulative from year to year; provided, that not more than eighty school days sick leave, including sick leave for the current year and accumulated sick leave for previous years may be claimed in any one year; and provided, that unused sick leave credit for any year may not be claimed later than the end of the twelfth year thereafter; and provided, further, that at least half of this cumulative leave must be established within the same county school system. County school boards of the several counties may establish policies which will allow a teacher two days in each year for religious holidays; provided, that the use by the teacher of such days for religious holidays shall be charged to the sick leave provided for herein; and provided, further, that leave for religious holidays shall be non-cumulative.

(2) COMPENSATION.—Any individual so employed shall receive full compensation for the time justifiably absent on sick leave as prescribed in subsections (1) and (3) hereof.

(3) CLAIM MUST BE FILED.—Any member of the instructional staff who finds it necessary to be absent from his position because of illness shall notify the principal of his school if possible before the opening of school on the day on which he must be absent, or during that day except for emergency reasons recognized by the county board as valid. Any member of the instructional staff shall, before claiming and receiving compensation for the time absent from his or her duties while absent because of sick leave as prescribed in this section, make and file by the end of the school month following his return from such absence with the county superintendent of the county in which he is so employed a written certificate which shall set forth the day or days absent, that such absence was necessary and that such person is entitled to receive pay for such absence in accordance with the provisions of §§231.39-231.49; provided, however, that the county board of any county may prescribe regulations under which the county superintendent may require a certificate from a licensed physician or from the county health officer.

History.—§540, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(144); §22, ch. 23726, 1947; §1, ch. 29624, 1955; (1) §1, ch. 57-79; (1) §1, ch. 61-61.

231.41 Illness-in-line-of-duty leave.—Any member of the instructional staff shall be entitled to illness-in-line-of-duty leave when he has to be absent from his duties because of a personal injury received in the discharge of duty or because of illness from any contagious or infectious disease contracted in school work. The following requirements shall be observed:

(1) DURATION OF LEAVE AND COMPENSATION.—Leave of any such member of the instructional staff shall be authorized for a total of not to exceed ten school days during any school year for illness contracted from such causes as prescribed above; provided that county boards shall be authorized, when in the opinion of the county board it is desirable to do so, to carry insurance to safeguard the county board against excessive payments during any year.

(2) CLAIMS.—Any member of the instructional staff who has any claim for compensation while absent because of illness contracted or injury incurred as prescribed herein shall file a claim in the manner prescribed in §231.40 (3), by the end of each month during which such absence has occurred. The county board of the county in which such person is employed shall approve such claims and authorize the payment thereof; provided that the county board shall satisfy itself that the claim correctly states the facts and that such claim is entitled to payment in accordance with the provisions of this section.

History.—§541, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(145).

231.42 Professional leave.—Any member of the instructional or professional administrative staff who finds it necessary to be absent from his duties for professional reasons or is assigned by the county superintendent under regulations of the county board to be absent for professional reasons or any county superintendent may apply for professional leave during such absence. Such leave may be granted under regulations of the county board. The county board shall also prescribe by regulations, subject to any regulations of the state board, conditions under which compensation is to be allowed and the extent of compensation for such leave; provided, that any leave granted under this section for members of the instructional or professional administrative staff must be approved by the county superintendent.

History.—§542, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(146); §23, ch. 23726, 1947.

231.43 Personal leave.—The county board of each county shall adopt regulations prescribing conditions under which members of the instructional staff shall be granted leave of absence for personal reasons. Any such leave of absence shall be approved by the county superintendent, subject to regulations of the county board. Any member of the instructional staff who is absent for personal reasons shall not be entitled to pay while absent.

History.—§543, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(147).

231.44 Absence without leave.—Any member of the instructional staff of any county who is willfully absent from duty without leave shall forfeit compensation for the time of such absence, and his contract shall be subject to cancellation by the county board.

History.—§544, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(148); re-enacted by §6, ch. 61-288.

231.45 Principal and county superintendent to keep records of absences.—The principal of each school shall see that a record is kept of the days present for duty and the days absent from duty for each teacher in his school and see that both the days present and absent for each teacher are reported to the county superintendent at least once each month on the forms prescribed for that purpose. This report shall include the exact dates and the reasons for each absence. The county superintendent of each county in the state shall keep full and complete records of all absences of instructional personnel provided for in §§231.39-231.49, with the exact day when each such absence occurred and the nature of the cause of such absence and advise with the county board as to the disposition to be made of claims arising for payment of such benefits as are provided in said sections.

History.—§545, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(149); §2, ch. 61-459.

231.46 Forms to be provided.—The county boards of the respective counties shall provide and furnish all blank forms necessary for compliance with the provisions of this section which are not furnished by the state department; provided, that the state board shall prescribe the necessary wording for any such forms not furnished by the state department in order that the same shall be uniform throughout the state.

History.—§546, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(150).

231.47 Substitute teachers.—Provisions for substitute teachers shall be as follows:

(1) ABSENCE FOR TEN DAYS OR LESS.—When any member of the instructional staff of any county is absent for any reason for ten days or less and a substitute is deemed necessary by the principal of the school or by the county superintendent to carry on the work effectively, a person properly qualified to act as substitute shall be secured by the county superintendent or by the principal to fill the temporary vacancy; provided, that a person who is not properly certificated may be employed as a temporary substitute only in cases of emergency as authorized under regulations of the county board. The amount of pay the substitute shall receive shall be determined by regulations of the county board.

(2) ABSENCE FOR MORE THAN TEN DAYS.—When any member of the instructional staff of any county shall be absent for any reason for more than ten days the temporary absence shall be filled as prescribed in subsection (1) herein, by a properly qualified and certificated person until the next meeting of the county board, at which time the vacancy shall be filled in the same manner in which the regular positions are filled; provided, that the county board may in accordance with the procedure prescribed for the appointment of regular teachers authorize and approve employment of properly qualified persons who are to serve regularly as substitutes.

(3) COMPENSATION OF SUBSTITUTE TEACHERS.—The county board shall adopt regulations prescribing the compensation and the procedure for compensating substitute teachers; provided, that when a member of the instructional staff is granted sick leave, illness-in-line-of-duty leave, or professional leave for absence the substitute shall be paid by the county board.

History.—§547, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(151); (1), (2) §11, ch. 57-249; (1) §3, ch. 61-459.

231.48 Absences of other personnel.—The county school board shall make regulations governing absences of any personnel not covered by the school code; provided that, any bus driver employed in the school system of the state unable to perform his or her duties because of illness requiring absence from work shall be granted a leave of absence by the school board and shall be entitled to not more than six days per annum sick leave, which may be made accumulative not to exceed thirty-six days. Such bus driver shall be entitled to receive full compensation for sick leave granted.

History.—§548, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(152); §1, ch. 57-744; §1, ch. 59-338.

231.49 Provisions relating to Florida workmen's compensation law.—Nothing contained in this chapter shall supersede any of the provisions of the Florida workmen's compensation law; provided, however, that where amounts payable under the provisions of the school code, for injuries, accidents, or other disabilities which would entitle an employee to compensation under the provisions of said Florida workmen's compensation law, exceed the amounts payable under the said compensation law, payments shall be made, as provided in the school code, for the difference between the amount paid under Florida workmen's compensation law and the amount due under the provision of the school code.

231.50 Monthly allowance; when made.—

(1) Whenever any person shall have served as a teacher in the public schools of Florida or shall have served therein as county superintendent of public instruction, or both, for an aggregate period of thirty-five or more years, and such person is then incapacitated to do and perform any vocational work sufficient to earn a livelihood, such person shall thereafter, so long as the above conditions exist, during the remainder of his life, be entitled to a monthly allowance of one hundred dollars; provided that if the last salary received by such person as a teacher was less than one hundred dollars per month, the monthly allowance hereunder shall be not more than said last monthly salary, but in no event shall the allowance be less than eighty-five dollars per month; provided, however, that no person shall be entitled to receive such allowance who is receiving any other retirement allowance or pension under any other law of this state; and provided, however, that no person who has ever been eligible to become a member of the teacher's retirement system of the state shall be entitled to receive such allowance.

(2) Every person receiving a monthly allowance under §231.50 (1) is entitled to receive in addition to any amount received thereunder, an increased allowance of twenty-five dollars monthly.

(3) The sum of sixteen thousand two hundred dollars is hereby appropriated from the general revenue fund of the state for the purpose as stated herein.

History.—§550, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(154); §1, ch. 22017, 1943; §1, ch. 22841, 1945; §1, ch. 25411, 1949; §1, ch. 29918, 1955; §1, ch. 63-540.

231.51 Proof required.—For any person to obtain the allowance as set forth in §231.50 the said person shall make such proof of the facts and conditions entitling him to the said allowance as shall reasonably be required by the state board, and when such proof has been submitted to the satisfaction of the state board, the state treasurer shall pay to such person the monthly allowance herein provided for on warrants drawn by the comptroller.

History.—§551, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(155); §1, ch. 20914, 1941.

231.52 Monthly allowance to widows of pensioners.—When any teacher, drawing pension under §231.50, shall die leaving surviving a widow to whom such pensioner has been married for a continuous period of at least ten years immediately prior to his death, and from whom no divorce is obtained, such widow, upon proof of marriage to and continuation of marriage for the minimum period with, and death of, her said husband, shall be granted a pension payable from the date of the death of her said husband, and at the same time and rate as other pensions paid under §231.50. The comptroller is hereby authorized and directed to draw his warrants in payment of such pensions so long as such widow shall remain unmarried and continue to be a resident of the state; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be so construed as to allow such pension to be paid to any widow where such widow of a deceased pensioner under this section receives a like pension in her own right as a retired school teacher.

History.—§1, ch. 20914, 1941.

231.53 Appropriation for monthly allowance to incapacitated teachers.—There is appropriated out of any moneys in the state treasury not otherwise appropriated, a sufficient sum of money to meet the requirements of §231.50.

History.—§3, ch. 14782, 1931.
Note.—Formerly §242.06.

231.54 Short title.—Sections 231.54-231.55 shall be known as the professional teaching practices act.

History.—§1, ch. 63-363.

231.55 Legislative intent; declaration.—It is the intent and purpose of the legislature that the practice of teaching in the public school system and its related services including administering and supervisory services, shall be designated as professional services. Teaching is hereby declared to be a profession in Florida, with all the similar rights, responsibilities and privileges accorded other legally recognized professions.

History.—§1, ch. 63-363.

231.56 Code of ethics; standards.—

(1) The members of this profession under the leadership of the largest organization of practitioners shall develop and provide for adoption of codes of ethics and professional performance.

(2) In meeting its responsibilities the profession shall carry out its activities in accordance with the provisions of the constitution and laws of Florida.

(3) Upon the adoption of such professional standards as may be required those who practice in this profession shall be obligated to abide by these standards.

History.—§1, ch. 63-363.

231.57 Professional practices commission.—

(1) A professional practices commission is created consisting of nineteen members appointed by the state board of education. A member, in order to be qualified for appointment, shall be certified to teach in the state, or a member of the faculty of an institution of higher learning, and a citizen of the United States and a resident of the state, and have practiced his profession in Florida for at least five years immediately preceding his appointment. The commission shall be composed of four elementary school classroom teachers and four secondary school classroom teachers, one elementary school principal, one secondary school principal, one supervisor, one superintendent, one representing the state department of education, one representing the public junior colleges, one representing the state university system, two representing the Florida education association, and two representing the Florida state teachers association.

(2) The members of the commission shall be nominated by the teaching profession as provided in subsection (3) and the names of nominees shall be submitted by the state superintendent of public instruction to the state board of education.

(3) A panel of three nominees for each place on the commission for which each group is responsible shall be submitted to the state superintendent by each of the following: Florida education association, Florida state teachers association, Florida association of public junior colleges, and by the public institutions of higher learning; and by the organization representing the majority of each of the following: elementary school principals, secondary school principals, supervisors of instruction, and county superintendents. The classroom teachers department shall submit a panel of twelve each of elementary classroom teachers and secondary classroom teachers. Initial appointments shall be: six for one year, six for two years, and seven for three years. Thereafter, terms shall be for three years. A member may be reappointed to the commission only one time.

(4) The commission is given the initial responsibility of developing, through the teaching profession, criteria of professional practices in areas including, but not limited to:

(a) Ethical and professional performance.

(b) Preparation for and continuance in professional services.

(c) Transfer and assignment of teaching personnel.

(5) (a) The commission shall have the authority to select its own chairman, and, subject to approval of the state board of education, shall have the authority to establish procedures for developing codes or standards of ethics, professional performance, and practices as described herein, to adopt such codes and standards, and to adopt rules and regulations to effectuate the purposes of this act.

(b) The commission shall have the power to recommend action in cases of violation of the standards of professional practice for all teachers, which shall represent the generally accepted standards within the teaching profession with respect to competent performance and ethical practice toward other members of the profession, parents, students, and the community.

(c) A violation of any of the standards so adopted shall be deemed to be unprofessional practice.

(d) In carrying out its functions of developing standards the commission may incorporate in its recommendations the proposals developed by any of the committees of any existing professional organizations under the professional teaching practices act.

(6) (a) The commission in administering this act after a public hearing may make recommendations to the state board of education that a member of the profession be warned or reprimanded, may make recommendations to the state board of education in cases involving suspension or revocation of certificates of members of the profession, and may make any recommendations to the state board of education or to local or county boards of public instruction which will promote an improvement of the teaching profession.

(b) In analyzing charges of breach of ethical or professional practices, the commission may request assistance through any of the investigative processes of any existing professional organization.

(7) The commission shall have the authority to subpoena witnesses and place them under oath.

History.—§2, ch. 63-363.

231.58 Removal from commission.—The state board of education may remove any member from the commission for misconduct or malfeasance in office, incapacity, or neglect of duty.

History.—§3, ch. 63-363.

231.59 Commission; financial affairs.—The commission shall be financed by the members of the teaching profession in the amount necessary to carry out the purposes of this act.

History.—§4, ch. 63-363.

232.01 Regular school attendance required between ages of seven and sixteen; permitted at the age of six; exceptions.—All children, except those who become or have become married, unmarried students who are pregnant, and students who have already had a child outside of wedlock, who have attained the age of seven years or who will have attained the age of seven years by February 1 of any school year or who are older than seven years of age but who have not attained the age of sixteen years are required to attend school regularly during the entire school term except as hereinafter provided; provided that a child who attains the age of sixteen years during the school year shall not be required to attend school beyond the date upon which he attains that age; provided, further, that any child who has attained the age of five years and nine months on or before the first day of the month within which schools open in any county during any year shall be admitted at the beginning of the school term or may be admitted at any time during the first month of the school year to the first grade of any school having annual promotions, but if any child is not so enrolled in the first grade during the first month of the school year except for illness as certified by a physician, he shall not be admitted to the first grade until the beginning of the following school year; and provided, further, that a pupil who has attained the age of five years and eleven months on or before the opening day of any semester shall be admitted at the beginning of the said semester or may be admitted at any time during the first two weeks of the said semester to any school having semi-annual promotions; provided further, however, that any other provisions of this section notwithstanding, no child shall be compelled to attend any school in which the races are commingled when a written objection of the parent or guardian has been filed with the board of public instruction. If in connection therewith a requested assignment or transfer is refused by the board, and if no other school facility as defined by §232.02 shall exist in the county which can and will accept the pupil whose parent or guardian objects to his attendance in a school where the races are commingled, the parent or guardian may notify the board in writing that he is unwilling for the pupil to remain in the school to which assigned and the assignment and further attendance of the pupil shall thereupon terminate, and such parent or guardian and pupil shall thereupon be exempt from the operation of §§232.01 and 232.02.

The county boards of public instruction of the several counties shall have the authority to adopt rules and regulations governing the attendance of married students in public schools.

The county boards of public instruction may develop policies under which pupils may be transferred to the first grade from another state, provided their parents or guardians are legal residents of that state.

History.—§601, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(172); §24, ch. 23726, 1947; §1, ch. 59-419; §1, 2, ch. 59-412; §7, ch. 61-288.

232.02 What constitutes school attendance.

—Regular attendance is the actual attendance of a pupil during the entire school day as defined in §228.041(18), or a half day which shall be counted as a half day's attendance. Regular attendance within the intent of §232.01 may be achieved by attendance at: (a) a public school supported by public funds; (b) a parochial or denominational school; (c) a private school supported in whole or in part by tuition charges or by endowments or gifts; and (d) with a private tutor who meets all requirements prescribed by law and regulations of the state board for private tutors.

History.—§602, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(173); §9, ch. 59-371.

232.03 Evidence of date of birth required.

—Before admitting a child to the first grade, the principal shall require evidence that the child has attained the age at which he should be admitted in accordance with the provisions of §232.01. The county superintendent or attendance assistant may require evidence of the age of any child whom he believes to be within the limits of compulsory attendance as provided for in §§232.01-232.19. If the first prescribed evidence is not available, the next evidence obtainable in the order set forth below shall be accepted:

(1) A duly attested transcript of the child's birth record filed according to law with a public officer charged with the duty of recording births; or

(2) A duly attested transcript of a certificate of baptism showing the date of birth and place of baptism of the child, accompanied by an affidavit sworn to by the parent; or

(3) An insurance policy on the child's life which has been in force for at least two years; or

(4) A bona fide contemporary Bible record of the child's birth accompanied by an affidavit sworn to by the parent; or

(5) A passport or certificate of arrival in the United States showing the age of the child; or

(6) A transcript of record of age shown in the child's school record of at least four years prior to application, stating date of birth; or

(7) If none of these evidences can be produced, an affidavit of age sworn to by the parent, accompanied by a certificate of age signed by a public health officer or by a public school physician, or, if neither of these shall be available in the county, by a licensed practicing physician designated by the county board, which certificate shall state that the health officer or physician has examined the child and believes that the age as stated in the affidavit is substantially correct.

History.—§603, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(174); §51, ch. 29764, 1955.

232.04 In kindergartens.—Children who will have attained the age of four years and nine months on or before the first day of the month within which schools open in any county during the school year shall be eligible for admission to public kindergartens during that school year under rules and regulations prescribed by the county board. If any school in which a kindergarten department is organized has mid-year admissions, a child who has attained the age of four years and eleven months at the beginning of the second semester may be enrolled in such kindergarten at that time.

History.—§604, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(175); §52, ch. 29764, 1955; §12, ch. 57-249.

232.05 In nursery schools.—Children who will have attained the age of three years and nine months on or before the first day of the month within which schools open in any county during the school year may be eligible for admission to public nursery schools during that year under rules and regulations of the county board; provided, that if any school in which a nursery school department is organized has mid-year admissions, then and in that event a child who is three years and nine months of age at the beginning of the second semester may be enrolled in such nursery school at that time.

History.—§605, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(176); §7, ch. 29764, 1955; §13, ch. 57-249.

232.051 Part-time schools.—Wherever there are fifteen children for any cause, except mental or physical disability or the completion of the eight grammar grades, exempted from regular school attendance upon any school or schools three miles or less apart and residing or employed within the regular attendance area of such school or schools, the board of public instruction shall provide a part-time school or schools; such part-time school or schools to be in session at least one hundred forty-four hours in any one school year during regular employment hours and furnishing instruction in any subjects designed to enlarge the civic or vocational intelligence of such children.

History.—§1, ch. 8550, 1921; CGL 500.

Note.—Formerly §242.10.

cf.—§238.14 State system of education includes part-time schools.

232.052 Part-time; exemption from regular school attendance.—Any board of public instruction may, at its discretion, exempt from regular school attendance any child fourteen years of age or over, who may be properly employed under the laws of Florida and who is enrolled in a part-time school as provided in §§232.051 and 232.053; provided, that this section shall be mandatory upon boards of public instruction only where federal funds provided for under act of congress and funds matching such federal funds are available for the salaries of teachers of such part-time schools.

History.—§2, ch. 8550, 1921; CGL 501.

Note.—Formerly §242.20.

cf.—§232.06, 232.07 Exemption certificates.

232.053 Part-time; subjects to be taught.—Boards of public instruction may provide part-time schools furnishing instruction to persons fourteen years of age, or over, in any subjects designed to enlarge the civic or vocational intelligence of such persons.

History.—§3, ch. 8550, 1921; CGL 502.

Note.—Formerly §242.21.

232.054 Part-time; when attendance required; night school.—Any parent, guardian or other person having the control, custody or charge of any child who has been exempted from regular school for any cause, except mental or physical disability, or the completion of the eight grammar grades, shall cause such child to attend a part-time school for at least one hundred forty-four hours in any one school year wherever such part-time school has been provided in compliance with §§232.051-232.053; and any person employing such child shall permit such child to attend such part-time school; provided, that wherever a night school, giving instruction equal in length to that of a part-time school established in compliance with §232.051, has been established prior to the passage of chapter 8550, acts of 1921, and is maintained by the board of public instruction, the board of public instruction may accept such night school attendance in lieu of part-time school attendance.

History.—§4, ch. 8550, 1921; CGL 503.

Note.—Formerly §242.22.

232.055 Part-time; compulsory attendance laws applicable.—The provisions of law relating to the enforcement and administration of compulsory school attendance are applicable to the enforcement and administration of §§232.051-232.054; and the state board of education may prescribe such rules and regulations as, in its discretion, are necessary to carry out the provisions of said sections.

History.—§5, ch. 8550, 1921; CGL 504.

Note.—Formerly §242.23.

232.06 Certificates of exemptions authorized in certain cases.—Children within the compulsory attendance age limits who hold valid certificates of exemption which have been issued by the county superintendent shall be exempt from attending school. A certificate of exemption shall cease to be valid at the end of the school year in which it is issued. Children entitled to such certificates and the conditions upon which they may be issued are as follows:

(1) PHYSICAL AND MENTAL DISABILITY.—Children whose physical or mental condition is such as to prevent or render inadvisable their attendance at school or application to study; provided, that before issuing a certificate for physical or mental disability, the county superintendent shall require the submission of a statement from the county health officer, if a licensed physician, in counties having such an officer, and in other counties from a licensed practicing physician designated by the county board, certifying that the child is physically or mentally incapacitated for school attendance; provided further, that children who are so handicapped by deafness or blindness as to be unable to make satisfactory progress in the public schools shall attend the Florida state school for the deaf and the blind or some other institution within or without the state in which equivalent instruction is offered, the rating of such instruction to be determined by the state superintendent under regulations prescribed by the state board; and provided further, that if any child is so seriously crippled as to make impossible or inadvisable his or her attendance at a regular public school, the county superintendent shall attempt to make arrangements for such child to attend a public or other school for crippled children.

(2) DISTANCE EXEMPTION.—Children from six years of age to ten years of age, inclusive, unless deaf, blind, or seriously crippled, who, because of distance and lack of public transportation, would be compelled to walk more than three miles by the nearest traveled route to the school or to the nearest publicly maintained school bus route to attend a public school, and children eleven years of age or older, unless deaf, blind, or seriously crippled, who, because of distance and lack of public transportation, would be compelled to walk more than four miles by the nearest traveled route to the nearest school or the nearest publicly maintained school bus route to attend a public school.

(3) EMPLOYMENT EXEMPTION.—Children who have reached fourteen years of age who hold employment certificates and are employed under provisions of the child labor law.

(4) JUDICIAL EXEMPTIONS.—Upon the recommendation of a judge of the juvenile court and the agreement of the county superintendent any child within the compulsory attendance age limit may be granted a certificate of exemption.

History.—§606, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(177); (4) n. §1, ch. 57-229.

232.07 Employment certificates authorized for certain children.—The county superintendent of each county or an attendance assistant or principal of a school authorized by the county superintendent in writing may issue on his own initiative or on the recommendation of the principal or trustees concerned, employment certificates to children fourteen or fifteen years of age, provided such certificates may be issued to children twelve to fifteen years of age who are exempt from school attendance under the provisions of §§232.01 and 232.06, without meeting the requirements of subsections (1) through (5), when, in the opinion of the county superintendent such action is in the best interest of the child. Evidence of the age of the child shall be obtained as prescribed in §232.03. Employment certificates shall be issued in triplicate upon a form prescribed by the state board, one copy to be sent to the employer, one copy to be sent within one week thereafter through the state superintendent to the Florida industrial commission and one copy to be filed in the office of the county superintendent. The copy furnished to the employer shall be returned by the employer to the county superintendent within ten days after he ceases to employ the child regularly, and the certificate shall then cease to be valid; provided, that the employer may, if he desires, retain the copy of the certificate for his records and notify the county superintendent by written notice delivered to the county superintendent that he is no longer employing the child regularly. An employment certificate may be issued when all required conditions have been satisfactorily met, as follows:

(1) APPLICATION.—The child accompanied by his parent shall appear and make application in person to the principal, an attendance assistant, or to the county superintendent.

(2) STATEMENT OF PARENT.—The parent shall file a written statement upon a form prescribed by the state board showing that the employment of the child is necessary for the support and maintenance of the family, that the child has a satisfactory position, and shall give such additional facts in regard to the income, expenditures, and financial situation of the family as shall be needed in substantiating such statement. The county superintendent shall, after considering this statement of the parents and such facts as he may obtain from his own subsequent investigation, determine whether the employment of the child is necessary for the support and maintenance of the family. If he determines this matter in the affirmative, he shall forthwith issue an employment certificate, and, if he shall determine this matter in the negative, he shall file in his office an order setting forth his reasons for refusing to issue such certificate.

(3) STATEMENT OF EMPLOYER.—The person into whose service the child is to enter shall state in writing upon forms prescribed by the state board that he or it desires to employ the child, explaining the nature of the occupation for which the child is to be employed; provided, that the parent may be considered as the employer as mentioned in this section; and provided, further, that the county superintendent shall cancel an employment certificate issued under such circumstances when he shall have ascertained or have been notified, upon forms prescribed by the state board, by the attendance assistant that such employment is no longer regular or in amount sufficient to justify absence from school, as determined under regulations prescribed by the state board, or necessary for the maintenance and support of the family.

(4) STATEMENT OF PRINCIPAL.—A statement signed by the principal or teacher in charge of the school last attended by the child and certifying that the child has completed the eighth grade of the public schools, or its equivalent, shall be submitted. Such statement shall give the age and date of birth of the child as shown on the records of the school; also, the name and address of the parent. If such a statement cannot be obtained, the child may be examined by the county superintendent to determine whether he meets the required educational standards. A record of each such examination shall be kept in the files of the county superintendent.

(5) HEALTH CERTIFICATE.—A certificate signed by a physician designated by the county board shall be submitted, stating that such physician has personally examined the child; that in his opinion the child is fourteen years of age or over, is of good physical development for his age, is of sound health, and is physically qualified to perform the work for which he is to be employed. Such physical examination and such expression of opinion shall be based upon forms and standards prescribed jointly by the state board of health and the state board of education. In a county in which the county board has not designated a physician for that purpose, such an examination may be made and certified to only by a licensed practicing physician authorized by the county board to make the examinations and issue such certificate.

cf.—§1.01 "Person" defined.
 §450.011 et seq. Child labor.

232.08 Age certificates authorized for children who have reached sixteen years of age.—The county superintendent, or an attendance assistant or principal of a school authorized by the county superintendent in writing to do so, shall upon application issue age certificates for employment purposes upon a form prescribed by the state board, which certificates shall be different in form and color from employment certificates, and shall be issued to children who are sixteen years of age or over. Evidence as prescribed in §232.03 that the child is sixteen years of age or over shall be submitted to the person authorized to issue certificates.

History.—§608, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(179).

232.09 Parents responsible for attendance of children.—Each parent of a child within the compulsory attendance age shall be responsible for such child's school attendance as required under the provisions of §§232.01-232.19. The absence of a child from school shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this section; provided, that no parent of a child shall be held responsible for such child's nonattendance at school under any of the following conditions:

(1) WITH PERMISSION.—The absence was with permission of the head of the school; or

(2) WITHOUT KNOWLEDGE OR UNABLE TO CONTROL.—The absence was without the parent's knowledge, consent, or connivance; or that he or she has made a bona fide and diligent effort to control and keep the child in school and that he or she is unable to do so; in which cases the child shall be dealt with as a delinquent; or

(3) FINANCIAL INABILITY.—That he or she was unable financially to provide necessary clothes for the child, which inability was reported in writing to the county superintendent prior to the opening of school or immediately after the beginning of such inability; provided, that the validity of any claim for exemption under this subsection shall be determined by the county superintendent subject to appeal to the county board; or

(4) SICKNESS, INJURY, OR OTHER INSURMOUNTABLE CONDITION.—That attendance was impracticable or inadvisable on account of sickness or injury, attested to by a written statement of a licensed practicing physician, or was impracticable because of some other stated insurmountable condition as defined by regulations of the state board; or

(5) DISTANCE EXEMPTION.—That attendance was impossible because of the distance of the home of the child from the nearest school and the lack of transportation at public expense, as set forth in §232.06.

History.—§609, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(180).

232.10 Absence must be explained.—Whenever a child of compulsory school attendance age is absent without the permission of the person in charge of the school, the parent of the child shall, as soon as practicable after learning of the absence, report and explain the cause of such absence to the teacher or principal of the school. If the parent of the child knows of the absence, failure to make such report and explanation shall be prima facie evidence of the child's being absent with the consent or connivance of the parent.

History.—§610, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(181).

232.11 County superintendent to prepare lists; principals to check.—The county superintendent shall make, from the latest child accounting records available to his office and from membership lists furnished to him by each school at the end of each year, lists of pupils of compulsory attendance age who should attend the various schools of the county, and shall furnish each principal on or before the opening day of school of each year with a record of changes in the list of children who should attend his school. Upon the opening of school and after receipt of such information, the principal shall check the enrollment of the school to determine whether all children required to attend have entered school, and if any have failed to enter to make diligent effort to ascertain the reason for such failure to enroll.

cf.—§230.23 (6) (a) School census.

232.12 Report of nonattendance in public schools.—At the end of the tenth school day from the opening of each school, the principal or teacher in charge of the school shall, on a form prescribed by the state superintendent, report to the county superintendent of his county or of the county in which the child resides the name and address of each child from the attendance area of that school who is required to attend under the provisions of §232.01 and who has not enrolled in the school, together with the reason, if known, for such non-enrollment, and at the same time he shall report the names of all children enrolled in the school whose names did not appear on the list furnished by the county superintendent, furnishing such additional information about each child as may be required by the county superintendent for his records. Weekly thereafter, throughout the school year, he shall report the name and address of each such child and the name and address of each child who has been absent during the week without permission or satisfactory explanation by the parent.

History.—§612, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(183).

232.13 Lists of deaf, blind, and crippled children.—At the close of the second week of school each year the principals of the schools in each county shall transmit to the county superintendent and the county superintendent shall transmit to the state superintendent a list of the deaf children and a list of the blind children in the county, said lists to be transmitted by the state superintendent promptly to the president of the Florida School for the Deaf and Blind. Similarly a list comprising all other children who have serious physical disabilities which prevent their attendance in public schools, or which greatly impede their progress in school, shall at the same time be prepared by the principals of the schools and sent by the county superintendent to the state superintendent for transmission to the Crippled Children's Commission or to any other agency providing services for handicapped children.

History.—§613, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(184); §6, ch. 20970, 1941.

232.14 Attendance records and reports required.—All officials, teachers, and other employees in public, parochial, denominational, and private schools, including private tutors, shall keep all records and shall prepare and submit promptly all reports that may be required by law and by regulations of state and county boards under the provisions of §§232.01-232.19.

History.—§614, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(185).

232.141 Attendance checked twice daily; attendance defined.—The attendance of all public school pupils shall be checked morning and afternoon of each school day and recorded in the teacher's register or by some approved system of recording attendance; provided that pupils may be counted in attendance only if they are actually present or if away from school on field trips or other activities sponsored by the schools under the actual supervision of school authorities.

History.—§1, ch. 29802, 1955.

232.142 Falsification of attendance records; penalty.—The presentation of reasonable and satisfactory proof that any teacher, principal, any other school personnel or school officer, has falsified or caused to be falsified attendance records for which he is responsible shall be sufficient grounds for the revocation of his teaching certificate by the state board of education, or for dismissal or removal from office; provided that such individual shall be entitled to hearing as provided by law or state board of education regulations.

History.—§2, ch. 29802, 1955.

232.15 Public, parochial, denominational, and private schools must keep records and make reports.—The principal or teacher in charge of each school, public, parochial, denominational, and private, and each private tutor shall keep a register of enrollment and attendance and make such reports therefrom as may be required under regulations of the state board, which said register shall show the absence or attendance of each enrolled child for each school day of the year and shall be open for inspection by the county superintendent or attendance assistant of the county in which the school is located.

History.—§615, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(186).

232.16 County superintendent responsible for enforcement.—The county superintendent shall be responsible for the enforcement of the provisions of §§232.01-232.19. In a county in which no attendance assistant is employed, the county superintendent shall have those duties and responsibilities and exercise those powers assigned by the provisions of said sections to attendance assistants.

History.—§616, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(187).

232.17 Attendance assistants; qualifications; compensation; duties.—Provisions for the employment, qualifications, compensation, and duties of attendance assistants shall be as follows:

(1) EMPLOYMENT AND QUALIFICATIONS OF ATTENDANCE ASSISTANTS.—The county board of each county, on its own initiative or upon the recommendation of the county superintendent, may employ and fix compensation, including reimbursement for travel, of a sufficient number of qualified attendance assistants, who hold a certificate prescribed under regulations of the state board, to guarantee regular attendance at school of all children of the county within compulsory school age requirements who are not herein exempted from attendance. No attendance assistant shall receive any compensation or reimbursement for any month until he shall have filed such reports and met such qualifications as may be required under regulations of the county board and of the state board.

(2) DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF ATTENDANCE ASSISTANTS.—The duties and responsibilities of the attendance assistant shall be exercised under the direction of the county superintendent and shall be as follows:

(a) Maintain records.—Central county child accounting records, unless maintained by others assigned by the county superintendent, shall be kept by attendance assistants. These records shall be on forms prescribed by the state board.

(b) Investigate nonenrollment and unexcused absences.—In accordance with procedure established by the state board, attendance assistants shall investigate cases of nonenrollment and unexcused absences from school of all children within the compulsory school age.

(c) Give written notice.—Under the direction of the county superintendent the attendance assistant shall give written notice, either in person or by registered mail, to the parent when no valid reason is found for a child's nonenrollment or absence from school, requiring enrollment or attendance within three days from the date of notice. If such notice and requirement should be ignored the attendance assistant shall report the case to the county superintendent, and that official as hereinafter provided shall take such steps as are necessary to bring criminal prosecution against the parent, guardian, or other person having control.

(d) Return child to parent.—The attendance assistant shall visit the home or place of residence of a child and any other place in which he is likely to find any child who is required to attend school when such child is absent from school during school hours, and, when such child shall have been found, shall return him to his parent or to the principal or teacher in charge of the school, or to the private tutor from whom absent.

(e) Visit home.—The attendance assistant shall visit promptly the home of each child of school age in his attendance district not in attendance upon the school, and of any child who should attend the Florida state school for the deaf and the blind, and who is reported as not enrolled in that school or as absent without excuse. If no valid reason is found for such non-enrollment or absence from such school or schools he shall give written notice to the parent, requiring the child's enrollment or attendance as prescribed above. He shall secure the written approval of the president of the Florida state school for the deaf and the blind before he directs or requests the parents of any child to take or send such child to that school. Ten days' notice must be given in the case of a child who is ordered sent to that school. On refusal or failure of the parent to meet such requirement, the attendance assistant shall report the same to the county superintendent, and that official shall proceed to take such action as is prescribed in §232.19(2).

(f) Report to the Florida industrial commission.—The attendance assistant shall report to the Florida industrial commission or to any person acting in similar capacity who may be designated by law to receive such notices, all violations of the child labor law that may come to his knowledge.

(g) Right to inspect.—The attendance assistant shall have the same right of access to, and inspection of, establishments where minors may be employed or detained as is given by law to the Florida industrial commission only for the purpose of ascertaining (a) whether children of compulsory school age holding employment certificates for work in that establishment are actually employed there and are actually working there regularly, (b) whether children of compulsory school age without employment certificates are employed in the establishment, (c) whether the nature of the work being done by the child is substantially the same as that described by the employer in the statement required to be made by him in §232.07(3). The attendance assistant shall, if he finds unsatisfactory working conditions or violations of the child labor law, report his findings to the Florida industrial commission, or its agents. The county superintendent may, on recommendations based on such inspection by the attendance assistant, cancel the employment certificate of any child employed or supposed to be employed in that establishment.

(h) Record of visits.—The attendance assistant shall keep an accurate record of all children returned to schools or homes, of all cases prosecuted, and of all other service performed. A written report of all such activities shall be made monthly to the county board and shall be filed in the office of the county superintendent.

History.—§617, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(188); §10, ch. 26484, 1951; §54, ch. 29764, 1955. cf.—§450.111, Employment certificates.

232.18 State board shall adopt rules and regulations.—The state board, in order better to effect the purposes of §§232.01-232.19, shall adopt rules and regulations which shall have the full force and effect of law, and shall become effective thirty days after adoption. Upon adoption, the state superintendent shall promptly mail a certified copy of such rules and regulations to each county superintendent.

History.—§618, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(189); §55, ch. 29764, 1955. cf.—§229.07 General power of state board to pass rules and regulations.

232.19 Court procedure and penalties.—The court procedure and penalties for the enforcement of the provisions of this chapter, relating to compulsory school attendance, shall be as follows:

(1) COURT JURISDICTION.—The juvenile court shall have original and exclusive jurisdiction of all proceedings against, or prosecutions of, children under the provisions of this chapter. Proceedings against, or prosecutions of, parents or employers as provided by this section shall be in the court of each county having jurisdiction of misdemeanors wherein trial by jury is afforded the defendant.

(2) NONENROLLMENT AND NON-ATTENDANCE CASES.—In each case of non-enrollment or of nonattendance upon the part of a child who is required to attend some school, when no valid reason for such non-enrollment or nonattendance is found, the county superintendent shall institute a criminal prosecution against the child's parent.

(3) HABITUAL TRUANCY CASES.—In case a child becomes an habitual truant the attendance assistant shall file with the juvenile court a complaint alleging the facts.

(4) ATTENDANCE REGISTER AS EVIDENCE.—The register of attendance of pupils at a public, parochial, denominational, or private school, or of pupils taught by a private tutor, kept in compliance with rules and regulations of the state board, shall be prima facie evidence of the facts which it is required to show. A certified copy of any rule or regulation and a statement of the date of its adoption and promulgation by the state board shall be admissible as prima facie evidence of the provisions of such rule or regulation and of the date of its adoption or promulgation.

(5) PROCEEDINGS AND PROSECUTIONS; WHO MAY BEGIN.—Proceedings or prosecutions under the provisions of this chapter may be begun by the county superintendent, by an attendance assistant, by the probation officer of the county, by the executive officer of any court of competent jurisdiction, or by an officer of any court of competent jurisdiction, or by a duly authorized agent of the state superintendent.

(6) PENALTIES.—Penalties for refusing or failing to comply with the provisions of this chapter shall be as follows:

(a) The parent.—The parent who refuses or fails to have a child under his control to attend school regularly shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars or sentenced to imprisonment in the county jail for not more than ninety days. The continued or habitual absence of a child without the consent of the principal or teacher in charge of the school he attends or should attend, or of the tutor who instructs or should instruct him, shall be prima facie evidence of a violation of this chapter.

(b) The child.—The child who, because of irregular attendance, habitual truancy, or persistent misconduct, has become incorrigible and a menace to the school he attends or should attend shall be dealt with by the juvenile court of the county, as if he were a dependent, neglected, or delinquent child.

(c) The principal or teacher.—The principal or teacher in charge of a school, public, parochial, denominational, or private, or the private tutor who willfully violates any provisions of this chapter may, upon satisfactory proof of such violation, have his certificate revoked by the state board.

(d) The employer.—The employer who fails to notify the county superintendent when he ceases to employ a child to whom an employment certificate has been issued, or who employs a child under sixteen years of age without receiving an employment certificate as provided for in §232.07, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be fined not more than one hundred dollars or imprisoned in the county jail for not more than ninety days.

History.—§619, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(190), 8115(8), 8115(9); §56, ch. 29764, 1955; (1)a. by §1, ch. 61-101. cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

232.20 Continuing or periodic child accounting required.—The state board shall establish and prescribe forms for accounting for every resident of Florida between the ages of six and eighteen years, said accounting to constitute a continuing or periodic school census record including such information as shall be recommended by the state superintendent. If a periodic school census is maintained, it shall be brought up to date at least twice in each decade by a utilization of facts derived from the federal and state census compilations, and from any other available sources. The county superintendent of each county shall be responsible for maintaining the continuing or periodic school census record of his county in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and with regulations of the state board.

History.—§620, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(191).

232.21 Continuing or periodic child accounting records and their use.—The records of the continuing or periodic census for each county prescribed in §232.20 shall be kept in the office of the county superintendent and shall be accessible to all who wish to examine them. These records shall be organized and used by the county superintendent and attendance assistants as follows:

(1) ENROLLMENT FILE.—A file shall be kept showing all children enrolled in school in the county.

(2) NONENROLLMENT FILE.—The records of children not enrolled in school shall be separated and kept in a manner to provide ready reference concerning children with employment certificates, children with age certificates, children with exemption certificates according to causes for exemption, and children whose enrollment in school should be required.

History.—§621, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(192).

232.22 Record and report forms; promotion and transfer of pupils.—Record and report forms as prescribed by the state board shall be used as follows:

(1) THE TEACHER'S REGISTER.—Each teacher employed in the public schools of the state who is assigned the responsibility for keeping a record of the attendance of pupils shall keep in a register prepared for that purpose an accurate record of the daily attendance of each pupil enrolled, with such other data as may be required to be kept in the said register.

(2) PUPIL'S REPORT CARDS.—At regular intervals reports shall be made by principals or teachers in public schools to parents or those having parental authority over the children enrolled and in attendance upon their schools, apprising them of the progress being made by the pupils in their studies and giving other needful information.

(3) TEACHER'S MONTHLY AND FINAL REPORTS.—At the close of each school month and at the end of the school year any teacher assigned the responsibility for keeping a record of the attendance of pupils shall make a report to the principal on blanks furnished by the state for that purpose; provided, that in cases of one-teacher schools the monthly and final reports are to be made by the teacher directly to the county superintendent.

(4) PRINCIPAL'S MONTHLY AND FINAL REPORTS.—Upon receipt of teachers' monthly reports the principal shall make consolidated reports to the county superintendent on blanks furnished by the state for that purpose, and at the end of the school year shall make consolidated final reports to the county superintendent on blanks prescribed and furnished by the state for that purpose. When requested by the trustees of the district, the principal shall provide them with a copy of such reports. No teacher or principal shall be entitled to receive any salary from public school funds unless all such records and reports required of him by this section have been made, except as provided in chapter 237.

(5) BUS DRIVER'S REPORTS.—Drivers of school busses shall make such reports to principals and county superintendents from time to time as may be required by the county board, or by regulations of the state board.

History.—§622, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(193).

232.23 Transfer of records and procedure.—All records of children who transfer from school to school shall be made through the central child record file in each county on forms prescribed by the state board. The procedure for transferring and maintaining records of such children shall be prescribed by regulations of the state board.

History.—§623, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(194).

232.24 Promotion of pupils.—In accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the county board, not inconsistent with rules and regulations adopted by the state board, pupils attending the public schools shall, upon satisfactory completion of the required studies, be promoted by the teacher on approval of the principal from one grade to another; provided, that records of all promotions and nonpromotions shall be reported to the county superintendent, and that said records of promotions and nonpromotions shall become a part of the permanent child accounting records in the office of the county superintendent.

History.—§624, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(195).

232.25 Pupils subject to control of school.—Subject to law and rules and regulations of the state board and of the county board, each pupil enrolled in a school shall, during the time he is being transported to or from school at public expense, during the time he is otherwise en route to or from school, during the time he is attending or is presumed by law to be attending school, and during the time he is on the school premises, be under the control and direction of the principal or teacher in charge of the school, and under the immediate control and direction of the teacher or other member of the instructional staff or of the bus driver to whom such responsibility may be assigned by the principal.

History.—§625, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(196).

232.26 Authority of principal.—Subject to law and rules and regulations of the state board and of the county board, the principal or teacher in charge of a school may delegate to any teacher or other member of the instructional staff or to any bus driver transporting pupils of the school such responsibility for the control and direction of the pupils as he may consider desirable. The principal may suspend a pupil for wilful disobedience, for open defiance of authority of a member of his staff, for use of profane or obscene language, for other serious misconduct, and for repeated misconduct of a less serious nature; provided, that each such suspension with the reasons therefor shall be reported immediately in writing to the parent and to the county superintendent; and provided, further, that no one suspension shall be for more than ten days and that no suspension shall be made a dismissal unless so ordered by the county board in a resolution adopted and spread upon its minutes. He may suspend any pupil transported to or from school at the public expense from the privilege of riding on a school bus for a period of ten days, or until such suspension is modified or made a dismissal by the county board, giving immediate notice in writing to the county superintendent and to the parent as provided above.

History.—§626, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(197); §15, ch. 63-376.

232.27 Authority of teacher.—Each teacher or other member of the staff of any school shall assume such authority for the control of pupils as may be assigned to him by the principal and shall keep good order in the classroom and in other places in which he is assigned to be in charge of pupils, but he shall not inflict corporal punishment before consulting the principal or teacher in charge of the school, and in no case shall such punishment be degrading or unduly severe in its nature. Under no circumstances may a teacher (except of a one-teacher school) suspend a pupil from school or class.

History.—§627, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(198).

232.28 Authority of school bus driver.—The driver of a school bus shall assume such authority for the control of pupils being transported to or from the school as may be assigned to him by the principal. He shall preserve order and good behavior on the part of all persons being transported to or from school or school functions at public expense. Any pupil who persists in disorderly conduct on the bus shall be reported to the principal of the school he attends, but no pupil shall be suspended from being transported or be given physical punishment by the bus driver or be put off the bus at other than the regular stop for that pupil except on permission of the principal or parent.

History.—§628, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(199).

232.29 Physical and mental examination.—The state board of education and the state board of health shall jointly prescribe uniform forms, rules and regulations, and, through their executive officers, shall arrange for the examination at appropriate intervals of each child attending the public schools of the state for the purpose of discovering, reporting, and promoting treatment of mental and physical defects that require medical or surgical treatment for the proper development of each child.

History.—§629, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(200).
cf.—§230.23 Duty of county board to provide for health examination.

§230.33 Recommendation of county superintendent.

232.30 Medical examination of school children under supervision of state board of health.—Subject to these rules and regulations the state board of health shall have supervision over all matters pertaining to the medical examination of school children in Florida, with such duties and powers as are prescribed by law pertaining to public health, and all school children shall be examined as to their physical condition at appropriate intervals. Any work done by health authorities in schools shall be arranged with the school authorities, provided, however, that any child shall be exempt from medical or physical examination, or medical or surgical treatment, upon written request of the parent or guardian of such child who objects to the examination and/or treatment on religious grounds, and provided further that the laws, rules and regulations relating to contagious or communicable diseases and sanitary matters shall not be violated.

History.—§630, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(201); §1, ch. 28054, 1953.

232.31 County boards and health authorities to cooperate.—County boards of public instruction and county health authorities shall cooperate in providing and arranging for periodic medical examinations of all school children under regulations of the state board of education and the state board of health. In a county in which adequate medical inspection service is not provided by county health authorities or by the state board of health, the county board shall have the authority to employ one or more county school physicians or school nurses for that purpose.

History.—§631, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(202).
cf.—§231.34 Licenses for health assistants.

232.32 County health units; cooperation.—In counties in which county health units have been provided and are in active operation, the county board and the county superintendent shall cooperate with said units in all matters having to do with the health and welfare of school children; provided, that if the periodic medical inspection of school children is a part of the program of a county health unit such medical inspection shall be considered as meeting the requirements for a medical inspection as set forth in this chapter.

History.—§632, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(203).

232.33 Child ill at school.—If a child becomes ill while at school the teacher or principal shall segregate such child from other children until such time as he can be removed to his home.

History.—§633, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(204).

232.34 Procedure during epidemics.—In case of an epidemic of a communicable disease among the pupils of a school, the county superintendent shall observe such measures as are advised by the full-time county health officer who shall act in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the state board of health. In case there is no full-time county health officer, the county superintendent shall act on the advice of a physician designated by the county board, which physician shall act in accordance with rules and regulations prescribed by the state board of health regarding control of communicable diseases.

History.—§634, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(205).

232.35 Admittance of child after illness with communicable disease.—A school child who has been ill of a communicable disease shall in no case be allowed to return to school except upon the written permission of the full-time county health officer or other reputable physician licensed to practice in the state.

History.—§635, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(206).

232.36 Sanitation of schools; state regulations.—The state board of education and the state board of health shall jointly adopt and promulgate all needful rules and regulations having to do with sanitation of school buildings, grounds, shops, cafeterias, toilets, school busses, laboratories, rest rooms, first aid rooms, and all rooms or places in which pupils congregate in pursuit of the school duties or activities.

History.—§636, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(207).

232.37 Duties of county boards with reference to sanitation.—The county board shall see that all state rules and regulations having to do with sanitation of the schools under their control are enforced; provided, that additional rules and regulations not in conflict with the state rules and regulations may be adopted by the county board and enforced through the county superintendent.

History.—§637, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(208).

232.38 Exceptional children; names to be reported to county superintendents.—The Florida crippled children's commission, the state board of health, and the state board of social welfare shall direct their field workers to review their case records on or before March 31 of each year and to report to the county superintendent of each county the names and other pertinent information for all exceptional children in the county whose conditions, in their opinion, require special educational services.

History.—§2, ch. 20910, 1941; am. §25, ch. 23726, 1947.

232.39 Secret societies prohibited in public schools.—It shall be unlawful for any person, group or organization to organize or establish a fraternity, sorority or other secret society in the state whose membership shall be comprised in whole or in part of pupils enrolled in any public school whether elementary or secondary or to go upon any school premises for the purpose of soliciting any pupils to join such an organization. A secret society shall be interpreted to be a fraternity, sorority or other organization whose active membership is comprised wholly or partly of pupils enrolled in the public schools of the state and which perpetuates itself wholly or partly by taking in additional members from the pupils enrolled in public schools on the basis of the decision of its membership rather than on the right of any pupil who is qualified by the rules of the school to be a member of and take part in any class or group exercise designated and classified according to sex, subjects included in the course of study or program of school activities, fostered and promoted by the county board of public instruction and county superintendent of public instruction or by principals of the schools.

Provided, that this shall not be construed to prevent the establishment of an organization fostered and promoted by the school authorities, or which is first approved and accepted by the school authorities and whose membership is selected on the basis of good character, good scholarship, leadership ability and achievement; provided further that full information regarding the charter, principles, purposes, and conduct of any such excepted organization shall always be available to all students and instructional personnel of any school where same may be organized.

Provided further that this law shall not be construed to relate to any junior organization or society sponsored by the knights of pythias, the oddfellows, the moose, the woodmen of the world, the knights of Columbus, the elks, the masons, the B'nai B'rith, the young men's and young women's Hebrew associations and the young men's and young women's Christian associations, kiwanis, rotary, optimist, civitan and exchange clubs.

Note.—Formerly §242.46.

232.40 Pupils prohibited from belonging to secret societies.—It shall be unlawful for any pupil enrolled in any public school whether elementary or secondary of this state to be a member of, to join or to become a member of or to pledge himself to become a member of any secret fraternity, sorority or group wholly or partly formed from the membership of pupils attending such public schools or to take part in the organization or formation of any such fraternity, sorority or secret society; provided that this shall not be construed to prevent any pupil from belonging to any organization fostered and promoted by the school authorities, or which is first approved and accepted by the school authorities and whose membership is selected on the basis of good character, good scholarship, leadership ability and achievement.

History.—§2, ch. 21777, 1943; §2, ch. 24072, 1947.

Note.—Formerly §242.47.

232.41 County boards may prescribe regulations.—The county board of public instruction of each county shall have full power and authority to enforce the provisions for carrying out the provisions of this law and to prescribe and enforce such rules and regulations as are necessary for carrying out the provisions of this law. County boards are hereby required to enforce the provisions of this law by suspending or, if necessary, expelling any pupil in any elementary or secondary school who refuses or neglects to observe these provisions.

History.—§3, ch. 21777, 1943.

Note.—Formerly §242.48.

232.42 Institutions of higher learning excepted.—The provisions of §§232.39-232.41 shall not apply to students enrolled at the university of Florida, Florida state university, or any private school, college or university.

History.—§4, ch. 21777, 1943.

Note.—Formerly §242.49.

232.43 Insuring school students engaged in athletic activities against injury.—Any school athletic association or school of the state may formulate and conduct a plan or method of insuring school students against injury sustained by reason of such students engaging and participating in the athletic activities conducted or sponsored by such association or school in which such students are enrolled.

History.—§1, ch. 20727, 1941; §3, ch. 59-339.

Note.—Formerly §242.45.

232.44 Audit of records of nonprofit corporations and associations handling interscholastic activities.—

(1) The state auditor shall, at least every six months, audit the books and records of any nonprofit association or corporation which operates for the purpose of supervising and controlling interscholastic activities of the public high schools in the state and whose membership is composed of duly certified representatives of public high schools in the state, and whose rules and regulations are established by members thereof.

(2) Any such nonprofit association or corporation shall keep adequate and complete records of all moneys received by it, including the source and amount, and all moneys spent by it, including salaries, fees, expenses, travel allowances, and all other items of expense. All records of any such organization shall be open for inspection by the state auditor or his employees.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 59-474.

233.01 Courses of study committee; appointment; qualifications; term; compensation.—The state superintendent shall recommend and the state board shall appoint a continuing committee on courses of study, to be composed of twelve persons of which nine shall be actively engaged in teaching or supervision of teaching in public elementary schools, public high schools, and teacher-training institutions of the state and three persons shall be lay citizens of the state; provided, that not less than two representatives from the elementary school field and two representatives from the junior and senior high school field shall be appointed. The state superintendent and a member of his department whom he shall designate shall be additional and ex officio members of the committee. Appointments shall be made to the courses of study committee for terms of four years. Initial appointment of lay citizens from the state shall be: one person shall be appointed for a period of two years; one person shall be appointed for a period of three years; and one person shall be appointed for a period of four years, and thereafter every appointment shall be for a period of four years. Vacancies on the committee shall be filled for unexpired terms in the same manner as the original appointments were made. Each member of the committee, except ex officio members, shall receive compensation at the rate of ten dollars for each day of actual service and in addition shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in §112.061 when attending meetings of the committee. All meetings of said committee shall be held in Florida. Payment of such compensation and traveling expenses shall be made by the state treasurer from the appropriation for the administration of the state textbook program on warrants to be drawn by the state comptroller upon requisition approved by the state superintendent.

History.—§701, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(209); §57, ch. 29764, 1955; §1, ch. 59-282; §2, ch. 63-55; §19, ch. 63-400.

233.02 Courses of study committee; affidavits of members.—Before transacting any business, each member of the committee on courses of study and its secretary shall make an affidavit to be filed with the state superintendent that he will faithfully discharge the duties imposed upon him as a member or as secretary of the committee; that he has no interest and that, while a member of the committee, he will assume no interest as author, as associate author, as publisher, or as representative of author or publisher of any textbook; that he is in no way connected with, and that, while a member of the committee, he will assume no connection with the distribution of such books; and that he is not pecuniarily interested, and that, while a member of the committee, he will assume no pecuniary interest directly or indirectly in the business or profits of any person engaged in manufacturing, publishing, or selling school books or other publications designed for use in classroom teaching.

History.—§702, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(210).
cf.—§1.01 "Person" defined.

233.03 Duties of courses of study committee.—The duties of the courses of study committee shall be as follows:

(1) MEETINGS.—To meet at the call of the state superintendent, and to remain in session for such periods, not to exceed twenty days for each session, as the state superintendent may consider necessary or desirable.

(2) ORGANIZATION.—To elect, during the first meeting of each year, one of its members chairman. An employee of the state department shall serve as secretary to the committee and shall keep an accurate record of its proceedings.

(3) EXAMINE COURSES OF STUDY.—To examine carefully courses of study now used with a view to utilization of the best ideas thus obtained in revising from time to time courses of study for the Florida schools.

(4) PREPARATION OF TENTATIVE COURSES OF STUDY.—To prepare, as the state superintendent may direct, for immediate or future use in the uniform system of public schools of the state, courses of study or revisions of existing courses of study.

(5) REPORTS TO THE STATE SUPERINTENDENT.—To prepare and submit on or before March 15 of each year to the state superintendent for his consideration:

(a) Recommendations for possible changes in the courses of study or curricula of the uniform system of the public schools of the state.

(b) Recommendations as to revisions in the list of subjects in which textbooks are to be furnished by the state.

(c) Recommendations as to the need for change of any textbook being furnished by the state.

(d) Recommendations as to instructional aids and materials which would be of assistance to teachers in carrying out the intent of the courses of study.

History.—§703, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(211);
(5) (a), §58 ch. 29764, 1955; (5) §2, (6) r. §3, ch. 59-282.

233.04 Recommendations of state superintendent.—The state superintendent shall study carefully the report or reports of the courses of study committee, and shall consider in connection therewith both the cost of the projected program and the educational value of the proposed changes. After giving due consideration to the recommendations of the courses of study committee, the state superintendent shall make such recommendations for such textbook changes, replacements, or additions as he may consider necessary or desirable. He shall transmit on or before April 15 of each year the report or reports of the courses of study committee, together with his own recommendations, to the state board.

History.—§704, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(212); §4, ch. 59-282.

233.05 Decisions by state board.—On or before May 15 of each year the state board shall, after consideration of the reports of the courses of study committee and the recommendations of the state superintendent, make final decision as to what books, if any, shall be changed, and as to what changes, if any, shall be made in the list of subjects for which texts are to be furnished by the state, and a copy of its decisions in regard to changes of textbooks, and the educational fields in which adoptions are to be made shall be furnished to the state textbook purchasing board.

History.—§705, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(213); §5, ch. 59-282.

233.06 Special committees for courses of study planning.—The state superintendent shall, at his discretion, appoint committees, each to be composed of not less than three nor more than twelve persons actively engaged in teaching or supervision of teaching in public elementary schools, public high schools and teacher-training institutions of the state who shall undertake such curricular studies or the development of such curriculum guides as the courses of study committee may recommend and as the state superintendent may approve. Each special committee, at the direction of the state superintendent, shall meet at a place to be designated by him and shall remain there in session for such period or periods as the state superintendent may direct. Members of these special committees shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in §112.061, such payments to be made by the state treasurer from the appropriation for the administration of the state textbook program on warrants drawn by the comptroller upon presentation of a requisition approved by the state superintendent.

History.—§706, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(214); §6, ch. 59-282; §2, ch. 63-55; §19, ch. 63-400.

233.07 State textbook committees, appointment; term; compensation.—

(1) Each school year, not later than June 15, the state board of education shall, upon recommendation of the state superintendent, appoint textbook committees composed of persons actively engaged in teaching or in the supervision of teaching in the public elementary schools, high schools and institutions of higher learning of the state, and representing the major fields and levels in which textbooks are used in the public schools of the state, and in addition lay citizens not professionally connected with education. There shall be a separate committee for the selection of textbooks for the elementary grades, and separate committees for the social sciences, English, mathematics, science, foreign languages, and such other fields as may be necessary up to a maximum number of twelve committees. There shall be lay members on all committees, and such lay members shall make up at least one third of the total membership of the elementary and social science textbook committees. The elementary and social science committees shall consist of twelve members, and all other textbook committees shall consist of not more than nine members. The state superintendent and a member of his department whom he shall designate shall be additional and ex officio members of each committee. The names and mailing addresses of the members of the state textbook committees shall be made public when appointments are made, and members shall be appointed for three-year overlapping terms. Vacancies on the committees shall be filled for unexpired terms in the same manner as the original appointments were made. Each member of the committees shall receive compensation at the rate of ten dollars a day, and in addition shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in §112.061 for actual service in meetings of committees called by the state superintendent. Payment of such compensation and travel expenses shall be made by the state treasurer from moneys appropriated for the administration of the state textbook program on warrants to be drawn by the state comptroller upon requisition approved by the state superintendent.

(2) It is the intent of the legislature that all other references in the law to the state textbook committee shall apply to each committee created by this section.

History.—§707, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(219); §1, ch. 28210, 1953; §7, ch. 59-282; §§1, 3, ch. 61-322; §19, ch. 63-400.

233.08 Affidavit of members of state textbook committee.—Before transacting any business, each member of the state textbook committee shall make an affidavit, to be filed with the state superintendent, that he will faithfully discharge the duties imposed upon him as a member or as a secretary of the committee; that he has no interest and that, while a member of the committee, he will assume no interest as author, as associate author, as publisher, or as representative of author or publisher of any textbook; that he is in no way connected and that, while a member of the committee, he will assume no connection with the distribution of such books; and that he is not pecuniarily interested and that, while a member of the committee, he will assume no pecuniary interest directly or indirectly in the business or profits of any person engaged in manufacturing, publishing, or selling school books or other publications designed for use in classroom teaching; that he will not accept any emolument or promise of future reward of any kind from any publisher of school books, his agent, or any one interested in or intending to bias his judgment in any way in the selection of any book to be adopted.

History.—§708, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(220); §8, ch. 59-282.

233.09 Duties of each state textbook committee.—The duties of each state textbook committee shall be as follows:

(1) PLACE AND TIME OF MEETING.—

To meet at the call of the state superintendent at a place in the state designated by him, and to remain there in session for any period of time, not to exceed twenty days, which the state superintendent may require.

(2) ORGANIZATION.—A chairman and vice-chairman shall be elected by the committee for each adoption. An employee of the state department of education shall serve as secretary to the committee and shall keep an accurate record of its proceedings.

(3) RULES AND REGULATIONS.—To adopt rules and regulations for evaluating textbooks submitted by publishers in each adoption. Included in these rules and regulations shall be:

(a) Provisions which afford each publisher or his representative an opportunity to present to the members of the state textbook committee the merits of each textbook submitted in each adoption.

(b) Procedures which shall be used in the counties for evaluating textbooks by county committees or individual members of the profession during a state level adoption.

Where field studies of textbooks submitted for consideration in an adoption are made at the request of the state textbook committee, the committee may adopt rules and regulations regarding the distribution of sample copies of textbooks.

(4) EVALUATION OF TEXTBOOKS.—To evaluate carefully each textbook or series of textbooks submitted, to ascertain which textbook or series of textbooks, if any, submitted for consideration best implement the curricular objectives of the schools of the state. The evaluation shall take into consideration subject matter, treatment, printing, material, and mechanical make-up. Each textbook or series of textbooks shall be evaluated according to its suitability, usability, and desirability.

(5) REPORT OF COMMITTEE.—After a thorough study of all data submitted on each textbook or series of textbooks and after each member of the appropriate committee has carefully evaluated each textbook or series of textbooks, each state textbook committee shall present a written report to the state board for transmission to the state textbook purchasing board, and such report shall be made public. The report shall include:

(a) Description of the procedures used in determining the textbook or series of textbooks to be recommended to the state board of education.

(b) Recommendations of not more than three textbooks for each grade and subject field in the curriculum of public elementary and high schools in the state in which adoptions are to be made, except in reading in the elementary school, where not more than five textbooks for each grade level may be recommended. If deemed advisable, the committee may include such other information, expression of opinion, or recommendation as would be helpful to the state textbook purchasing board. If there be a difference of opinion among the members of the committee as to the merits of any textbook, any member may file an expression of his individual opinion. No textbook which treats a subject in a partisan manner shall be included in the list of suitable, usable, and desirable textbooks; it being hereby declared that it be the legislative intent that material in textbooks used in elementary and secondary schools of this state shall not editorialize or propagandize communistic philosophy or other principles inimical to our form of constitutional government, and persons charged with the selection of textbooks should use their best efforts to carry out such legislative intent to effectuate the use of materials which provide all students with the traditional ideals and basic concepts of American democracy.

History.—§709, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(221); §9, ch. 59-282; §2, ch. 61-322.

233.10 Findings of committee confidential.

—The findings of the committee, including the evaluation of textbooks, shall be in executive session. Any person who reveals any of the findings of the committee except as herein provided shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not to exceed five hundred dollars, or imprisoned in the county jail for a term not to exceed six months.

History.—§710, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(222), 8115(11); §10, ch. 59-282.
cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

233.11 Contact with publishers or publishers' representatives.—It is lawful for any member of the state textbook committee to discuss matters relating to textbooks with any agent or representative of a publishing house, either directly or indirectly, except that during the period when the committee shall have been called into session for the purpose of evaluating books submitted for adoption, such discussions shall be limited to official meetings of the committee and in accordance with rules and regulations adopted by the committee for that purpose.

History.—§711, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(223), 8115(12); §2, ch. 28210, 1953; §11, ch. 59-282.

233.12 Miscellaneous instructional aids.—The state superintendent may appoint from time to time special committees on elementary or high school levels of three persons to be approved by the state board to study and evaluate instructional materials and aids available in the various fields as supplementary material. These special committees shall render reports of their investigations to the state superintendent, and on the basis of said reports he may publish lists of approved instructional materials for which purposes expenditures by county boards may be considered legitimate. Committees shall meet on call of the state superintendent and the members shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in §112.061, payments to be made by the state treasurer from the appropriation for the administration of the state textbook program on warrants drawn by the comptroller upon requisition by the state superintendent.

History.—§712, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(224); §28, ch. 63-376; §2, ch. 63-55; §19, ch. 63-400.

233.13 State to furnish textbooks in public schools.—All textbooks adopted for use in the public schools in the state shall be furnished by the state for the use of pupils of such public schools, and the board of commissioners of state institutions of the state shall constitute the state textbook purchasing board, and the same shall enter into contracts with any publisher or publishers for furnishing books for the period of time for which such books have been adopted. In all matters relating to adoption or purchase of textbooks the state superintendent shall act as secretary and executive officer of the state textbook purchasing board; provided, that the state shall not furnish any textbooks for the use of pupils attending a junior college.

History.—§713, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(225); §59, ch. 29764, 1955; §13, ch. 57-252.

cf.—§229.17 State superintendent as secretary and executive officer of state textbook purchasing board.

233.14 Bids or proposals; advertisement and its contents; sample books; where deposited.—Beginning on or before May 15 of any year in which purchases are to be made, the state board shall advertise in a newspaper published in Tallahassee, once each week for a period of four weeks preceding the date on which the bids shall be received, that a certain designated time not later than June 15 sealed bids or proposals to be deposited with the secretary of state will be received from publishers for furnishing the book or books or other instructional materials proposed to be adopted as listed in the advertisement for a five year period, dating from July 1 following the adoption.

The advertisement shall state that each bid shall be accompanied by a specimen copy of each book included in the bid, which specimen copies shall be identical with those furnished to the members of the state textbook committee as prescribed hereafter in this section and with those furnished to the state and county superintendents as provided in §233.18. The advertisement shall state that a contract covering the adoption of a book or books shall be for a definite term of five years. The advertisement shall fix the time within which the required contract must be executed and shall state that the state textbook purchasing board reserves the right to reject any or all bids or proposals. The advertisement shall also give information as to how specifications which have been adopted by the state board in regard to paper, binding, cover boards, and mechanical make-up, can be secured.

The bids or proposals submitted shall be for furnishing the designated book, books, or other materials in accordance with specifications for a five year period. The proposal or bid shall state the lowest wholesale price or prices at which the book, books, or other materials will be furnished, delivered f. o. b. to the Florida depository of the publisher or bidder. Specimen copies of all books or materials upon which bids or proposal are based shall be delivered by the publisher to the state superintendent for distribution to each member of the state textbook committee.

History.—§714, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(226); §12, ch. 59-282.

233.15 Deposit must accompany bid.—The state board shall require each publisher who submits a bid or proposal for furnishing any book or books under the provisions of this chapter to deposit with the state treasurer such sum of money or certified check as may be determined by the state board, the amount to be not less than five hundred dollars and not more than two thousand five hundred dollars, according to the number of books or series of books covered by the proposal, which deposit shall be forfeited to the state for the benefit of the appropriation for the purchase of textbooks if the bidder making the deposit shall fail or refuse to execute such contract and bond within thirty days from date of acceptance in case his bid or proposal is accepted.

History.—§715, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(227); §1, ch. 63-55.

233.16 Powers and duties of state textbook purchasing board.—The powers and duties of the state textbook purchasing board shall be:

(1) SELECTION AND ADOPTION OF BOOKS.—As soon as practicable the state textbook purchasing board shall notify all publishers who have submitted bids that, at a designated time and place, it will open bids and proposals which have been submitted and deposited with the secretary of state. At the time and place designated the bids or proposals shall be opened, read, and tabulated in the presence of the bidders or their representatives. A publisher may not revise his bid after the bids have been filed. When all bids or proposals have been carefully considered, the state textbook purchasing board shall, from the list of suitable, usable, and desirable books reported by the state textbook committee, select and adopt not more than three textbooks for each grade and subject field in the curriculum of public elementary and high schools in the state in which adoptions are made, except in reading in the elementary schools, where not more than five textbooks for each grade level may be adopted, in the subject areas designated in the advertisement, which adoption shall continue for a five year period, the period to begin on the ensuing July 1 unless otherwise ordered by the state board. The state textbook purchasing board shall always reserve to itself the right to reject any and all bids, or proposals, if it shall be of the opinion that any or all bids, for any reason, should be rejected, and said state textbook purchasing board may ask for new sealed bids from publishers whose books were recommended by the state textbook committee as suitable, usable, and desirable, to specify the dates for filing such bids and the date on which they shall be opened, and proceed in all matters regarding the opening of bids and awarding contracts as required by the terms and provisions of this chapter; provided, that in all cases bids or proposals shall be accompanied with a cash deposit or certified check of from five hundred dollars to two thousand five hundred dollars, as the state board may direct. The state textbook purchasing board, in adopting books, shall give due consideration both to the prices bid for furnishing books and to the report and recommendations of the state textbook committee. When the state textbook purchasing board shall have finished with the report of the state textbook committee, the report shall be filed and preserved in the office of the state superintendent and shall be open at all times for public inspection.

(2) CONTRACT WITH PUBLISHERS; BOND.—The attorney general of the state as soon as practicable after the state textbook purchasing board shall have made the adoption of any book or books and all bidders or publishers having secured the adoption of any book or books have been notified of the same by registered letter, shall prepare a contract in accordance with the provisions of the school code, in triplicate, with every bidder publisher awarded the adoption of any books; said contracts shall be executed by the governor and secretary of state under the seal of the state, one copy to be kept by the contractor, one copy to be filed in the office of the secretary of state, and one copy to be filed in the office of the state superintendent. Any publisher or publishers to whom any contract shall be let under the provisions of this chapter shall be required to give bond in such amount as the said state textbook purchasing board shall deem advisable, payable to the state, conditioned for the faithful, honest, and exact performance of said contract, and the said bond shall further provide for the payment of reasonable attorney's fees in case of recovery in any suit upon the same. The surety on such bond shall be a guaranty or surety company authorized by the laws of the state to do business in the state; provided, however, that said bond shall not be exhausted by a single recovery but may be sued upon from time to time until the full amount thereof shall be recovered, and the said state textbook purchasing board may at any time, after giving thirty days' notice, require additional security or additional bond. The form of any bond or bonds, contract or contracts, under the provisions of this chapter, shall be prepared and approved by the attorney general of the state. Any publisher or publishers with whom such book contract or contracts are made shall establish and maintain in some city or town in the state, convenient as a distribution point, an agency or depository, where a stock of books covered by the contract or contracts held by such publisher or publishers shall be kept at all times in sufficient quantities to supply all immediate demands for such book or books; provided, however, that any publisher or publishers not maintaining an individual or separate state agency or depository as above set forth, shall maintain in this state a joint agency or depository, to be located at some suitable and convenient distribution point, at which general agency or depository each publisher joining in such joint agency or depository shall keep on hand at all times books in sufficient quantities to supply all immediate demands for such book or books covered by the contract or contracts of the publisher or publishers maintaining such joint agency or depository. The maximum price at which the state textbook purchasing board shall contract to pay, f.o.b. the Florida depository of the publisher, for any books to be used in the public schools of this state shall not exceed the minimum price at which the publisher sells such books in wholesale quantities, f.o.b. the publisher's publishing house, after all discounts have been deducted. Any contract made for the purchase of books for the use in the public schools of this state at a higher price than the maximum price fixed by the preceding sentence shall be void. It shall be stipulated in every contract entered into under the provisions of this chapter between the state textbook purchasing board and any publisher or publishers to whom any contract shall be let under the provisions of this chapter, that if at any time during the life of said contract any book or books therein included shall be sold in any other state at a lower price by said publisher or publishers than is designated in such contract the said lower price shall immediately become the price of such book or books to the state and the state textbook purchasing board shall, at any time said board may find that any such book or books have been sold at a lower price to any state, county, school district, or city in the United States, or to any person, sue upon the bond herein provided for and recover the difference between the contract price and the lower price for which they find the book or books have been sold.

(3) REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE CONTRACT.—The state textbook purchasing board may, from time to time, make any necessary regulations, not contrary to the provisions of this chapter, to secure the prompt and faithful performance of all contracts, and it is expressly provided that, should any contractor fail or refuse to furnish books as provided in this chapter, or otherwise break his contract, the state textbook purchasing board may sue on the bond hereinbefore required, in the name of the state, in the courts of the state having jurisdiction, and recover damages on the bond given by the contractor for failure to furnish books, the sum recovered to inure to the appropriation for the purchase of textbooks.

(4) RETURN OF DEPOSIT; DEPOSIT FORFEITED.—When a successful bidding publisher shall have executed contract and submitted the required bond within thirty days after the awarding of the contract, notice of which awarding shall be given by registered letter, the state textbook purchasing board shall advise the state treasurer, who shall return to the publisher the cash deposit made by him. At the same time or prior thereto, the state textbook purchasing board shall inform the state treasurer of the names of the unsuccessful bidders, whose deposits shall be returned to them. Should any successful bidder fail or refuse to execute contract and bond within thirty days after the awarding of the contract the cash deposit shall be forfeited to the State of Florida to be placed by the state treasurer to the credit of the appropriation for the purchase of textbooks.

(5) FORFEITURE OF CONTRACT AND BOND.—In case of the failure of any publisher to furnish a book or books as provided in the contract, his bond shall stand forfeited, and the state textbook purchasing board shall make another contract on such terms as they may find desirable after giving due consideration to the recommendations of the state superintendent.

History.—§716, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(228); (1) §13, ch. 59-282; (3), (4) §1, ch. 63-55. cf.—§1.01(13) defines registered mail to include certified mail with return receipt requested.

233.17 Term of adoption of textbooks.—The term of adoption for any book or books shall be for a five year period, beginning on July 1 following the adoption.

History.—§717, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(229); §14, ch. 59-282.

233.18 Copies of bids, contracts, and books retained.—Specimen copies of all textbooks, which have been made the bases of contracts under the provisions of this chapter, clearly marked and identified as such, shall be deposited by their publishers with the state superintendent and each county superintendent, which specimens said officials shall preserve and keep open for inspection by the public. All contracts and bonds executed under the provisions of this chapter shall be signed in triplicate. One copy of each contract and an original of each bid, whether accepted or rejected, shall be preserved in the office of the state superintendent for at least five years beyond the termination of the contract.

History.—§718, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(230).

233.21 Parents may purchase state adopted books.—Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to prohibit parents, guardians, or other persons from purchasing from the publishers textbooks adopted by the state under the provisions of the school code.

History.—§721, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(233).

233.22 State superintendent to file order with publisher; books to be delivered at destination.—The state superintendent shall upon the receipt of requisition for books from the county superintendent of each county, either revise or return for revision or approve such requisition and order the publisher or publishers, with whom contracts have been made, or the agency or depository heretofore provided for of any publisher or publishers, to forward to any such county superintendent the books shown by such approved requisition to be needed in that particular county. The publisher or publishers of such depository shall prepare triplicate invoices or bills for the books so shipped, one copy thereof to be mailed to the state superintendent at Tallahassee, and the other two to the county superintendent, to whom the books are shipped.

History.—§722, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(234).

233.23 County superintendent to check and forward invoice to state superintendent.—The county superintendent of each county shall, upon receipt of any shipment of books made to him under the provisions of this chapter, check the same with the invoices or bills rendered therefor, and if the shipment is in accordance with the invoices or bills, he shall approve and receipt the invoices or bills and shall forward one copy to the state superintendent.

History.—§723, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(235).

233.24 Approval and payment of textbook invoices.—The state superintendent shall, upon receipt of the approved invoice or bill, provided for in §233.23, for said books, present same to the state board for approval, and when approved by the state board the same shall be delivered to the state comptroller who shall issue a warrant therefor, countersigned by the governor and payable out of money in the appropriation for the purchase of textbooks.

History.—§724, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(236); §1, ch. 63-55.

233.25 Procedure to be followed by publisher.—

(1) REGISTRATION.—Any bidder or publisher submitting textbooks to the state for adoption shall, on or before the day bids are received, register in the office of the state superintendent the names and home addresses of all agents, or employees of any kind, or persons retained for legal or other services to whom there is being paid or to whom there will be paid any salary, commission, or royalty for representing the bidder or publisher in the state in the book adoption for which books have been submitted, and this registered list shall be open for inspection by the public and copies of it shall be made available to the members of the state textbook committee and to the members of the state textbook purchasing board. The failure of any bidder or publisher to register the names and addresses of representatives of any kind as herein specified shall be deemed sufficient cause for summary rejection of the bid or proposal of such bidder or publisher.

(2) CONTACT WITH STATE TEXT-

BOOK COMMITTEE.—It is unlawful, except as herein provided, for any agent or representative of a publishing house to discuss matters relating to the books under consideration with any member of the state textbook committee either directly or indirectly. Any person violating any provisions of this section shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine of not exceeding five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding ninety days.

History.—§725, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(237), 8115(13); §15, ch. 59-282.
cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

233.27 State board to adopt rules and regulations governing school libraries.—The state board shall prescribe such rules and regulations for the establishment, government, preservation, and maintenance of public school libraries as will insure to the public school pupils of the state the best practicable library opportunities.

History.—§727, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(239).

233.28 County boards to supplement rules and regulations of state board.—Each county board shall provide such rules for book classification, distribution, accounting, preservation, and care as are in its opinion necessary or desirable and as are consistent with state board rules and regulations for the government, maintenance, and preservation of public school libraries.

History.—§728, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(240).

233.29 County boards to establish and maintain libraries.—Each county board may in its discretion locate, establish, and maintain, as essential to the instructional program, adequate libraries and library services in the public schools of the county which it serves. Each county board may, upon requisition by the principal of a school and, when district current school funds are involved, with the approval of the trustees of the district and upon recommendation of the county superintendent, purchase for each public school in the county such library books and provide such library services as will meet the library standards approved by the state board for schools of comparable size, condition, and organization. The costs of such library services shall, except as otherwise provided herein, be defrayed out of available county general school funds, district current school funds under limitations prescribed by law, or other funds which may be or may become available for such purposes.

In addition thereto each county board, subject to rules and regulations of the state board, may establish and maintain mobile circulating libraries whenever in its opinion such mobile circulating libraries are necessary or desirable, and the cost thereof shall be proper charges against the county general school fund, and, within limitations prescribed by law, proper charges against district current school funds, and proper charges against other funds which may be or may become available for such purposes; provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to inhibit or limit the right of schools or other agencies to raise and expend money for school library books.

History.—§729, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(241).

233.30 County board cooperative libraries.—Each county board may, at its discretion, make contracts or agreements with county or community groups or organizations for a cooperative program or programs of library establishment, maintenance, and use, and all such contracts or agreements with county or community groups or organizations shall provide that such cooperative school and county or school and community libraries shall be established on public school property and shall continue under the supervision and control of such county board; and such part of the costs therefor as may, by contract or agreement, be properly chargeable to such county board shall be defrayed out of available county general school funds or, under limitations prescribed by law, other funds which may be or may become available for such purposes.

History.—§730, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(242).

233.31 Library personnel.—The library personnel shall be regarded as part of the instructional staff, except as otherwise designated under regulations of the state board.

History.—§731, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(243).

233.32 Rules and regulations for accounting for, distribution, and preservation of textbooks.—The state board on the recommendation of the state superintendent shall prescribe needful rules and regulations for the accounting for, distribution, and preservation of state-owned textbooks. Each county board, subject to approval of the state superintendent, shall make such supplemental rules and regulations as are necessary to promote economy and efficiency in county textbook administration.

History.—§732, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(244).

233.33 List of books adopted; unlawful not to use.—The state superintendent, as soon as practicable after the state textbook purchasing board shall have adopted books and completed all contracts and approved bonds for the faithful performance of contracts for furnishing or supplying books for use in the public schools of the state, shall issue a statement announcing such fact to the people of the state, and direct the use of books adopted. The books adopted as a uniform system of textbooks for use in the high schools and in the elementary schools shall be introduced and used as textbooks in all public schools of the state. It is unlawful to use in the public schools of the state, to the exclusion of a book adopted for the same subject, any book not on the adopted list.

History.—§733, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(245).

233.34 Textbook allocation.—Prior to June first of each year the state superintendent shall, on a basis approved by the state board, apportion to each of the several counties, a credit in the state textbook fund which, except as herein modified, shall mark the maximum amount for which a county superintendent may requisition textbooks during the school year for which such credit in the state textbook fund has been apportioned. The state superintendent shall reserve from allocation to the several counties, an amount which, in his opinion, will be sufficient to provide for proper costs of the state textbook program other than textbook purchase; and additions to county textbook allocations made necessary because of increased enrollments, inadequate inventories occasioned by conservative requisitions in previous years, and textbook replacements occasioned by fire or storm losses which, as provided herein, represent proper charges against the state textbook fund.

History.—§734, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(246); §17, ch. 59-282.

233.35 Storage of books.—Subject to the rules and regulations prescribed by the state board, each county board shall provide safe and dry places for keeping books that have been delivered to the county superintendent, and use every reasonable means to safeguard and account for all books.

History.—§735, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(247).
cf.—§230.33 Duties of county superintendent.

233.36 Records.—The state superintendent shall keep a record of all books delivered to the county superintendent of each county under the provisions of this chapter, as shown by invoices to the state superintendent by the county superintendent, as herein provided for, and shall make periodic audits of books which have been furnished by the state, requiring a complete accounting for all such books. Any necessary blanks required for assisting in carrying into effect the provisions of this chapter shall be prescribed and furnished by the state superintendent, and the expense thereof paid from the appropriation for the administration of the state textbook program.

History.—§736, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(248); §2, ch. 63-55.

233.37 Schools to continue to use books until unserviceable.—When a change of textbooks has been made for any subject, each county superintendent shall designate which schools of his county shall use the old textbooks which he has on hand or in the schools of his county, and all such textbooks shall continue to be used until they are in such physical condition as to make them unsuitable for further use or until the content is obsolete. The county superintendent shall not requisition copies of the newly adopted textbook for those pupils for whom copies of the old textbooks are available; provided, that under rules and regulations of the state board, the state superintendent may dispose of the books of the old adoption when they have become unserviceable, upon such terms and conditions as shall yield their fair salvage value. All sums or amounts which shall accrue to the state by reason of the sale, exchange, or other disposition of such textbooks shall be placed to the credit of the appropriation for the purchase of textbooks.

History.—§737, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(249); §4, ch. 61-459; §1, ch. 63-55.

233.38 Exchange of textbooks.—To effectuate economical and expeditious distribution of textbooks to the several counties of the state for use in the public schools, the state superintendent is directed to arrange for exchange of books among the several counties in accordance with their respective needs, and to that end, the county superintendents in the several counties shall, upon direction from the state superintendent, crate and ship such books as shall be designated to such counties in the state as the state superintendent may determine, and the state superintendent may, when he deems advisable, direct surplus books in any county to be shipped to some central point to be designated by him to be held or distributed as the need therefor shall arise.

History.—§738, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(250).

233.39 Renovation and repair of textbooks.—The state board of education shall prescribe rules and regulations under which the state superintendent shall, whenever requested to do so by any county superintendent, make necessary arrangements for the renovation and repair of books which could thereby be put into serviceable condition. All proper expense in connection with such renovation and repair, upon approval of the state board, is made a proper charge against the appropriation for the purchase of textbooks. The state board shall formulate and prescribe such rules and regulations for the letting of contracts for the renovation and repair of books used in the public schools of the state as in its judgment may be practicable and economically feasible and shall enter into such contracts upon the basis of competitive bids from responsible firms who must, prior to contract award, have on hand in their plants that equipment necessary to perform the work of rebinding specified by the state board. For the purpose of rebinding, textbooks shall be classified by the state superintendent as to size, and such classification shall be the basis for bids from rebinding firms. Bids from rebinding firms shall be on the basis of minimum quantities of one hundred books in each classification. No such contract shall be entered for the renovation and repair of books used in the public schools of this state where the cost of renovation and repair shall exceed the original acquisition cost of such books, or the cost of replacing such books, whichever is the lesser; provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit the inmates of the state prison from repairing and renovating any public school textbooks.

History.—§739, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(251); §1, ch. 26900, 1951; §18, ch. 59-282; §1, ch. 63-55.

233.40 Fumigation of textbooks.—The state board shall issue, upon recommendation of the state board of health, such rules and regulations governing the occasion for and the manner of fumigation of used textbooks as will protect the pupils from infections, if any, which may be transmitted through reissued textbooks. The cost of such fumigation, when authorized and done in accordance with regulations of the state board, is made a proper charge against the appropriation for the purchase of textbooks.

History.—§740, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(252); §1, ch. 63-55.

233.41 Suits in name of state; credit of amount recovered.—Any suit of any nature instituted under the provisions of this chapter shall be brought in the name of the state and any amount recovered by reason of such suit shall be placed to the credit of the appropriation for the purchase of textbooks.

History.—§741, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(253); §1, ch. 63-55.

233.42 Suits for damage to books.—Any loss occasioned by the neglect, carelessness, or failure of the county superintendent or any principal or teacher in charge of any school to account for textbooks or failure to comply with the provisions of this chapter shall entitle the state to bring suit for the recovery of the amount of the loss occasioned thereby.

History.—§742, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(254).

233.43 Duties of county superintendent relating to books.—The duties and responsibilities of each county superintendent for the requisition, receipt, storage, distribution, use, conservation, records, and reports of textbooks shall be as follows:

(1) REQUISITION.—To transmit on or before June twentieth of each year to the state superintendent a requisition for additional books needed for the following school year for the pupils of the public elementary, junior, and senior high schools of his county, such requisition to be based on the known minimum textbook needs of his county school system. Where more than one textbook is adopted by the state in a grade or subject field, the county superintendent may requisition the quantity of each adopted textbook needed by his county, provided that the interest and abilities of pupils enrolled in the schools in his county require the fullest utilization of each textbook requisitioned for that year. Within limits defined by the state superintendent, the county superintendent may file as many requisitions for textbooks during each year as shall be necessary to complete the textbook needs of his county.

(2) INVOICES.—To check any shipments of books made to him, under the provisions of this chapter, with the invoices or bills rendered therefor, and if the shipments are in accordance with the invoices or bills, he shall approve and receipt the invoices and bills and shall forward an original copy to the state superintendent.

(3) STORAGE.—To store books in a safe and dry central book depository or in book rooms which have been designated, as provided by law, by county boards; to keep separately the books which have been used in white and negro schools.

(4) DISTRIBUTION.—To deliver, upon receipt of any books provided under the terms of this chapter, to the principal or teacher in charge of each school in the county the proper number of books required for use in the school of which said principal or teacher has charge, and take a receipt therefor.

(5) RECEIPT.—To issue a receipt for all books returned to him by principals or teachers either during or at the close of the school year.

(6) MONEY COLLECTED FOR LOST OR DAMAGED BOOKS.—To make full report to the state superintendent at the time of submitting his annual report of the amount of money which has been collected from pupils, parents, or guardians on account of loss of textbooks and paid to the state treasurer through the state superintendent during the period of time since the last similar report.

(7) USE.—To make sure that, when a change in textbooks has been made by reason of a new adoption, the schools of his county make such new book changes or continue in use such books of the old adoption as the state superintendent may direct.

(8) FUMIGATION.—To cause the used books in his county to be fumigated at such times and in such manner as may be approved and prescribed by the state board upon the recommendation of the state board of health.

(9) CONSERVATION AND CARE.—To make and enforce regulations, not contrary to the provisions herein, which will insure that books issued by him are properly treated in the schools and in the hands of pupils.

(10) ACCOUNTING BY PRINCIPALS AND TEACHERS.—To require of principals and teachers such accounting procedures and reports as may be prescribed by the state superintendent under powers granted herein and under rules and regulations of the state board.

(11) INVENTORY REPORT.—To prepare and transmit each year, as a part of his annual report to the state superintendent, an inventory of books on hand in the several schools of the county and in the county school offices or other places provided for textbook storage.

(12) TEXTBOOK ACCOUNTING AND RECORDS.—To prepare such other textbook accounting records or reports at such times and in such manner as the state superintendent may direct, or as the county superintendent may find necessary.

(13) SCHOOL LIBRARY BOOKS.—To requisition, under limitations prescribed in §233.34, books for the public school libraries of his county.

(14) EVALUATION OF TEXTBOOKS.—To conduct an evaluation of each textbook to be requisitioned that has not been used previously in the schools of the county. This evaluation should provide evidence that each textbook to be requisitioned which has not previously been used in the schools of the county would be appropriate, acceptable and usable in the schools of the county. The county superintendent shall submit such reports of county evaluations as may be required by the state board.

History.—§743, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(255); (1) §19, (14) n. §20, ch. 59-282.

233.44 When books may be dropped from the records.—

(1) LOST, DESTROYED, OR DAMAGED BOOKS.—Books which have been lost, destroyed, or damaged for which proper charges have been assessed and collected and remitted to the state superintendent, or books which have been destroyed by order of a competent health officer, or a representative of the state superintendent, shall be dropped from the record of books for which, as provided by law, county boards are held responsible.

(2) BOOKS DESTROYED BY FIRE OR STORM.—Books which have been destroyed by fire or storm will not constitute a charge against the county textbook allocation if evidence acceptable to the state superintendent is presented, showing that reasonable safeguards and precautions were taken for the protection of the books so destroyed.

History.—§744, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(256).

233.45 Penalty for school officers dealing in textbooks.—No county superintendent, county board member, or any person officially connected with the government of or direction of public schools, or teacher thereof, shall receive during the months actually engaged in performing duties under his contract any private fee, gratuity, donation, or compensation, in any manner whatsoever, for promoting the sale or exchange of any school book, map, or chart in any public school, or be an agent for the sale, or the publisher of any school textbook or reference work, or be directly or indirectly pecuniarily interested in the introduction of any such textbook, and any such agency or interest shall disqualify any persons so acting or interested from holding any school office whatsoever, and the person so offending shall be fined in the sum not exceeding one hundred dollars, or imprisoned not more than thirty days; provided, that this section not be construed as preventing the adoption of any book written in whole or in part by a Florida author.

History.—§745, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8115(14).

233.46 Duties of principals and teachers.—The duties and responsibilities of principals and teachers for textbook management and care are as follows:

(1) REQUISITION.—To prepare and transmit, at such times and in such manner as the county superintendent may direct, such requisitions for textbooks as represent the known textbook needs of the school or schools served by such principal or teacher.

(2) STORAGE.—To store books when not in use in a dry book room. Books in storage shall be neatly arranged and segregated by title, subject, and grade.

(3) DISTRIBUTION. — To distribute books received from the county superintendent in such quantities as may be necessary or desirable to pupils of the school of which the principal or teacher may have charge.

(4) RECEIPT.—To require a receipt from each pupil to whom a book or books are issued, and to give a receipt to each such pupil upon the return of the book or books so issued.

(5) MONEY COLLECTED FOR LOST OR DAMAGED BOOKS.—To collect from each pupil or his parent the purchase price of each book the pupil has lost, destroyed, or unnecessarily damaged and to report and transmit such amounts so collected to the county superintendent for the transmission to the state superintendent; provided, that if such textbook so lost, destroyed, or damaged has been in school use for more than one year, a sum ranging between fifty and seventy-five per cent of the purchase price of the book shall be collected; such sum shall be determined by the physical condition of the book. The state superintendent shall deposit all such remittances to the credit of the appropriation for the purchase of textbooks, notwithstanding the provisions of §§255.01-255.03, and the amounts so deposited shall be available for textbook purchases as provided in §233.48(2).

(6) SALE OF TEXTBOOKS.—When requested by the parent of a pupil in the school where he is employed, he shall sell to such parent any textbook or textbooks used in the school. All such sales shall be made under regulations prescribed by the county board of public instruction and by the state board of education. No such sale shall be made if there is a retail dealer or retail outlet for such textbooks in the attendance area, or within the corporate limits of the city where the school is located where such textbooks may be purchased. All money collected from the sale of textbooks shall be reported and transmitted to the county superintendent, who shall report and transmit the same to the state superintendent of public instruction, who shall deposit all such remittances to the credit of the appropriation for the purchase of textbooks, and the amounts so deposited shall be available for textbook purchases as provided in §233.48(2).

(7) CONSERVATION AND CARE.—To ascertain by inspection, and to insure through every available agency, that all books issued to the school by the county superintendent, either in the hands of pupils or in storage, are cared for properly.

(8) ACCOUNTING FOR TEXTBOOKS.—To see that all books are fully and properly accounted for on forms prescribed by the state superintendent, and on forms which are supplied through the office of the county superintendent.

(9) RECORDS AND REPORTS. — To prepare and transmit such textbook records and reports as may be required by the state superintendent and such supplementary records and reports as the county superintendent may direct.

History.—§746, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(257); §1, ch. 26922, 1951; (5), (6) §3, ch. 63-55.

233.47 Responsibility of pupils, parents, or guardians for textbooks.—All books purchased under the provisions of this chapter shall be the property of the state, and, when distributed to the pupils as provided for in this chapter, they shall be merely loaned to the pupils of the school while pursuing the courses of study therein, and are to be returned at the direction of the principal or teacher in charge. Each parent, guardian, or other person having charge of a pupil or pupils to whom or for whom books have been issued, as provided herein, shall be held liable for any loss, destruction, unnecessary damage, or failure of such pupil or pupils to return such books when directed by the principal or teacher in charge, and shall be required to pay for such loss, destruction, or unnecessary damage as provided in §233.46.

History.—§747, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(258).

233.48 State textbook program; expenditures.—

(1) ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES.—All costs of the state textbook program, other than those costs enumerated in subsection (2) of this section, shall be paid from moneys to be appropriated for administrative expenses of the state textbook program.

(2) STATE TEXTBOOKS.—All contractual obligations for the purchase, renovation, repair, or fumigation of state textbooks, and transportation charges from the depository to the counties, shall be paid from the appropriation for the purchase of textbooks.

(3) The state superintendent shall audit all invoices, requisitions, vouchers, and other proper charges against the appropriations for the state textbook program, and shall present them for approval and payment as required by law or in accordance with regulations of the state board.

History.—§748, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(259); §4, ch. 63-55.

233.49 Textbooks; children with impaired vision.—The state superintendent of public instruction is authorized to purchase and arrange for distribution among county school systems previously adopted textbooks which are prepared in various media for the use of partially sighted children enrolled in the public schools of Florida.

History.—§1, ch. 63-373.

234.01 Purpose.—County boards, after considering recommendations of the county superintendent and any suggestions which may have been submitted by trustees of the district shall provide transportation for each pupil who should attend a public school when and only when transportation is necessary for accomplishment of one of the following purposes: (1) to provide adequate educational facilities and opportunities which otherwise would not be available; (2) to transport pupils whose homes are more than a reasonable walking distance, as defined by regulations of the state board, from the nearest appropriate school; provided, that no state funds shall be paid for the transportation of pupils whose homes are within two miles from the nearest appropriate school; and, provided further, that in each case where transportation of pupils would be impracticable, the county board is authorized to take steps for making available educational facilities as are authorized by law and as, in the opinion of the county board, are practical.

History.—§801, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(260); §8, ch. 29754, 1955.

234.02 Safety and health of pupils.—Maximum regard for safety and adequate protection of health shall be primary requirements which must be observed by county boards in routing buses, appointing drivers, and providing and operating equipment.

History.—§802, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(261).

234.03 Liability insurance.—Liability insurance shall be carried on school buses and may be carried on other motor vehicles as provided below:

(1) LIABILITY INSURANCE REQUIRED TO PROTECT PUPILS TRANSPORTED.—County boards are required to secure and keep in force, in companies duly authorized to do business in Florida, insurance covering liability for damages on account of bodily injury, or death resulting therefrom, to pupils legally enrolled in the public schools, by reason of the ownership, maintenance, operation, or use of school buses and other vehicles while said pupils are being transported to or from a school or school activity. Such liability insurance shall be carried in the sum of ten thousand dollars for bodily injury, or death resulting therefrom, to any one pupil and shall, for any one accident, be limited to five thousand dollars multiplied by the rated seating capacity of the bus or vehicle as determined by regulations of the state board of education.

(2) OTHER LIABILITY INSURANCE PERMITTED.—County boards of public instruction are hereby permitted in their discretion to secure and keep in force:

(a) Insurance covering liability for damages on account of bodily injury, or death resulting therefrom, to persons, other than pupils legally enrolled in the public schools, by reason of the ownership, maintenance, operation, or use of school buses. If such bodily injury liability insurance is provided, it shall be carried in the sum of ten thousand dollars for bodily injury, or death resulting therefrom, to any one person and shall, for any one accident, be limited to five thousand dollars multiplied by the rated seating capacity of the bus as determined by regulations of the state board of education.

(b) Insurance covering liability for damage on account of bodily injury to pupils and other persons by reason of the ownership, maintenance, operation, or use of vehicles other than those used for transportation of pupils, or if such vehicles are other than school owned, to require owners of such vehicles to show evidence of the existence of adequate insurance during the time that such vehicles are in the service of the county board of public instruction. If such bodily injury liability insurance is provided, it shall be carried in the sum of not less than ten thousand dollars for bodily injury, or death resulting therefrom, to any one person and shall be for any one accident not less than twenty thousand dollars.

(c) Medical payments insurance on school buses and other vehicles. If medical payments insurance is provided, it shall be carried in the sum of not less than five hundred dollars per person.

(d) Insurance covering liability for damage to property of others on all vehicles by reason of ownership, maintenance, operation, or use, or if other than school owned to require owners of such vehicles to show ample evidence of the existence of adequate insurance during the time that such vehicles are in the service of the county board of public instruction. If such property damage liability insurance is provided, it shall be carried in the sum of not less than five thousand dollars for any one accident.

(3) PREMIUM PAYMENT AUTHORIZED.—The premiums for such insurance shall be paid from the county current school fund, the district current school fund, or the state fund apportioned to the county for transportation.

(4) WAIVER OF IMMUNITY.—In consideration of the premium at which each policy shall be written it shall be a part of the policy contract between the county and the named insured that the company shall not be entitled to the benefit of the defense of governmental immunity for the insured by reason of exercising a governmental function on any suit brought against the insured. Immunity of the county board against liability damages is waived to the extent of liability insurance carried by the county board. Provided, however, no attempt shall be made in the trial of any action against a county board of public instruction to suggest the existence of any insurance which covers in whole or in part any judgment or award which may be rendered in favor of the plaintiff, and if a verdict rendered by the jury exceeds the limit of the applicable insurance, the court shall reduce the amount of said judgment or award to a sum equal to the applicable limit set forth in the policy.

(5) PENALTY.—The members of any county board which owns or operates a school bus or other vehicle used for the transportation of pupils without complying with the provisions of this section shall for such failure be subject to removal from office, and any person owning or operating a school bus or other vehicle used for the transportation of pupils as set forth in this section and failing to comply with its provisions shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

History.—§803, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(262), 8115(15); §60, ch. 29764, 1955; (2), (3) §4, ch. 59-339; (2), (3) §9, ch. 61-288; (1)-(3) §16, ch. 63-376. cf.—§775.07, Punishment for misdemeanor.

234.04 Traffic to stop for school bus.—

(1) Any person using, operating or driving a motor vehicle upon or over the roads or highways of this state, upon approaching any school bus used in transporting school pupils to or from school which is properly identified by being painted a uniform color as approved by the state board of education, with the words "school bus" on the front and back in black letters at least four inches high, while such bus is stopped upon the roads or highways of this state, is required to bring such motor vehicle to a full stop before passing such school bus. If a stop signal which meets standard requirements prescribed by the state board shall be displayed from the bus, said signal shall be due warning to the driver of any approaching vehicle that children may be on the highway and such vehicle shall not pass the school bus until the signal has been withdrawn.

(2) The driver of a vehicle upon a divided highway where the one-way roadways are separated by an intervening unpaved space of at least five feet or physical barrier need not stop upon meeting or passing a school bus which is on a different roadway.

(3) Any person failing to comply with the requirements of this section, or violating any of the provisions hereof, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $300 or by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed 90 days.

History.—§804, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(263), 8115(16); §9, ch. 29754, 1955; §1, ch. 59-218. cf.—§775.08, Alternative punishment.

234.041 School buses; unlawful to simulate color or use secondhand buses without effecting certain changes.—

(1) It shall be unlawful for any person to use on the public highways of the state any bus of an orange or yellow color, known as school bus chrome, or any color purporting to resemble the color of a school bus for the transportation of passengers other than school pupils.

(2) It shall be unlawful for any person to use on the public highways of the state any bus of an orange or yellow color, known as school bus chrome, or any color purporting to resemble the color of a school bus when said vehicle has ceased to be so used, unless and until said bus has been changed from said colors to some other color by repainting, and unless and until all signs and insignia which mark or designate it as a school bus have been removed therefrom.

(3) Any person violating any provision hereof shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor.

History.—§§1-3, ch. 57-280; (1), (2) §5, ch. 61-459.

234.05 Physical examination of bus drivers.

—Each county board shall designate a physician or physicians to examine and report the physical condition of bus drivers and driver applicants in accordance with regulations of the state board and procedure prescribed by the state superintendent.

History.—§805, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(264).

234.06 Definition of transportation equipment.—"Transportation equipment" is defined as any vehicle or conveyance used for transportation of pupils when the cost of rent, lease, purchase, maintenance, or operation of said vehicle or conveyance is defrayed in whole or in part from public school funds.

History.—§806, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(265); §61, ch. 29764, 1955.

234.07 General requirements for equipment.

—All transportation equipment shall be of such construction as to provide for safe, comfortable, and economical transportation of passengers. Equipment which is used to transport nine or more public school pupils at one time shall be constructed, maintained, and operated in accordance with all requirements of law and regulations of the state board relating to school buses.

History.—§807, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(266).

234.08 School buses.—School buses shall be defined as set forth below and shall meet specifications as follows:

(1) DEFINITION.—For the purpose of the school code, a school bus is defined as a motor vehicle regularly used for the transportation of pupils of the public schools to and from school or to and from school activities, and owned, operated, rented, or leased by any county board, excepting motor vehicles of the type commonly called pleasure cars and carrying eight pupils or less; and excepting motor vehicles subject to and meeting all requirements of the state railroad commission and operated by carriers operating under the jurisdiction of the state railroad commission but not used exclusively for the transportation of public school pupils.

(2) SPECIFICATIONS.—Each school bus with a total seating space of more than fifteen lineal feet which is rented, leased, purchased, or contracted for purchase, and each and every school bus with a total seating space of more than fifteen lineal feet, shall meet the following requirements:

(a) All structural parts of the school bus body, including sides, top, frame, braces, and any section or member in which structural strength is necessary, shall be of steel or metal that is equivalent to steel.

(b) All windshield, window, and door glass shall be of shatterproof construction.

(c) The front, rear, and sides of the bus shall be painted a uniform color as approved by the state board of education.

(d) Each school bus shall be properly designated as such in black letters in accordance with requirements prescribed by the state board.

(e) Each school bus shall be equipped with adequate brakes, horn, lights, and such other equipment as may be required by regulations of the state board, all of which shall be maintained in good operating condition.

(f) Each school bus shall meet with such additional specifications and standards which are in accordance with law and which, upon recommendation of the state superintendent, are prescribed by the state board as essential for the safe, comfortable, and economical transportation of pupils.

History.—§808, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(267); (2) §10, ch. 29754, 1955.

234.081 School buses flashing signals.—

(1) On and after July 1, 1963, every new school bus and on or before July 1, 1964, every school bus in service shall, in addition to any other equipment and distinctive markings required by this chapter, be equipped with signal lamps mounted laterally as high as practicable, which shall be capable of displaying on the traffic side to the front two alternately flashing lights, one red and one amber, located at the same level, and on the traffic side to the rear two alternately flashing lights, one red and one amber, at the same level, and these lights shall have sufficient intensity to be visible at five hundred feet in normal sunlight. Each such light shall be a minimum of five and one fourth inches in diameter with a black background of one and one fourth inches to three inches wide with a minimum hood of two and one half inches, and such light shall meet or exceed the standards of the society of automotive engineers of New York.

(2) The state board of education after diligent studies may alter specifications of flashing lights to comply with the national school bus standards; provided that when changes are made, they shall be applicable to all school buses in service.

History.—§1, ch. 63-8.

234.09 Withdrawal from use of buses not meeting requirements.—The county superintendent shall notify the county board of any school bus owned, leased, rented, or operated by the county board which does not meet all requirements of law and regulations of the state board, and the county board shall, if such school bus is in an unsafe condition, withdraw it from use as a school bus until the bus meets said requirements. The state superintendent may inspect or have inspected any school bus to determine whether the bus meets requirements of law and regulations of the state board. The state superintendent may, after due notice to a county board that any school bus does not meet certain requirements of law and regulations of the state board, rule that such bus shall be withdrawn from use as a school bus, this ruling to be effective forthwith or upon a date to be specified therein, whereupon the county board which owns, leases, rents, or operates said bus shall withdraw same from use as a school bus until the bus meets requirements of law and regulations of the state board and until the state superintendent has officially revoked his said ruling.

History.—§809, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(268).

234.10 Designation of routes.—Each county board, after considering recommendations from the county superintendent and suggestions which may have been submitted by the trustees, shall specifically designate the route to be traveled regularly by each school bus, and each route shall meet the following requirements:

(1) Each route shall be planned and adjusted to the capacity of the bus, and insofar as is practicable the normal capacity of each bus shall be used.

(2) Each route shall serve regularly only pupils whose homes are beyond a reasonable walking distance to the nearest appropriate school.

(3) Routes served by school buses as designated by county school boards shall be restricted to those areas where road conditions, capacity of bridges and number of pupils to be served makes such service economically feasible and practicable. School bus service shall be established only after considering such other methods of providing educational opportunities as are authorized by law and regulations of the state board.

(4) A route shall not be extended for the purposes of accommodating pupils whose homes are within reasonable walking distance of a shorter or more economical route which is available to serve the pupils.

(5) District lines shall not interfere with the routing of any school bus.

(6) Where it is practicable to extend a school bus route to serve any territory which lies in more than one county so that pupils living in the extended area to be served by the bus may have improved educational facilities, county boards of the respective counties shall cooperate and make such mutual plans and agreements as necessary to make these improved facilities available to the pupils. Pupils shall not be transported at public expense from one county to or from the schools of another county, unless a valid agreement exists between the respective county boards. This agreement shall state the responsibility of each county board for operation of the bus and maintenance of the daily schedule. Whenever a bus crosses a county line, all rules and regulations of the county in which it is traveling shall be observed, unless otherwise provided in the agreement between the county boards.

History.—§810, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(269); §63, ch. 29764, 1955; §17, ch. 63-376.

234.11 Zoning.—Each county board, after considering recommendations from the county superintendent, shall designate, by map or otherwise, nontransportation zones, which shall be composed of all areas in the county from which it is unnecessary or impracticable to furnish transportation. Nontransportation zones shall be designated annually prior to the opening of school and prior to the designation of bus routes for the succeeding school year.

History.—§811, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(270).

234.12 Highway hazards.—County superintendents with the assistance of school principals, teachers, and bus drivers, shall report, or cause to be reported, those hazards on or near public sidewalks, streets, and highways which endanger the life or threaten the health or safety of pupils who walk or are transported regularly between their homes and the school in which they are enrolled, said reports to be submitted promptly in writing to the mayor or manager of the city or to the board of county commissioners, respectively, according to location of the hazard reported, and, until such hazards are corrected, the county superintendent shall take or cause to be taken such precautions as are necessary to safeguard pupils who are transported at public expense.

History.—§812, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(271).

234.13 Municipal and county officials to investigate and report on hazards.—Upon receipt of information from the county superintendent concerning sidewalk, street, or highway hazards which threaten the safety of pupils, the board of county commissioners, or the municipal official having proper authority, shall investigate, or cause to be investigated, the place or situation reported, and with reasonable diligence and promptness shall take such steps as are practicable to correct the hazard reported or shall report to the county superintendent that it is impracticable to make corrections necessary to overcome the reported hazards.

History.—§813, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(272).

234.14 General qualifications.—Each school bus driver shall:

(1) Be of good moral character, of good vision and hearing, able-bodied, free from communicable disease, mentally alert, sufficiently strong physically to handle the bus with ease and to make emergency repairs, and not a user of alcoholic beverages or narcotics, and shall possess such other qualifications as shall be prescribed by the state board, and

(2) Hold a school bus driver's license which is current and valid; provided, that persons less than twenty-one years of age, and who are seventeen years of age or more, shall be eligible for a chauffeur's license to drive a school bus when otherwise qualified, and shall be eligible to drive a school bus for transporting pupils to and from school or school functions when and only after the state board has adopted rules and regulations authorizing such persons to drive and governing the conditions under which they may be permitted to drive school buses; provided, further, that for the duration of a war emergency, persons who are between sixteen and seventeen years of age and who are otherwise qualified shall be eligible for an emergency chauffeur's license to drive a school bus for transporting pupils to and from school and school functions, but such emergency chauffeur's license shall be issued and used only after the state board of education has adopted rules and regulations authorizing such persons to drive and governing the conditions under which they may be permitted to drive school buses.

History.—§814, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(273); §3, ch. 21989, 1943; (2) §64, ch. 29764, 1955.

cf.—§231.33 School bus driver's license.
§322.01(4) School bus defined.

234.15 Annual physical examination.—Each driver or applicant shall, not more than three months prior to employment each school year, pass a physical examination in accordance with procedure prescribed by the state superintendent, except that in emergency a driver may be employed upon condition that during the first two weeks of employment he shall pass said physical examination. A re-examination may be required by the county superintendent or the county board at any time.

History.—§815, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(274).

234.16 Licensing requirements.—The state superintendent shall designate such uniform procedures and prescribe such forms as are necessary to license each school bus driver who is duly qualified in accordance with law and regulation of the state board and shall issue said license when the prescribed procedure has been fulfilled and recorded on the prescribed forms and the following specific requirements have been met:

(1) APPLICANT.—Each applicant for a license to drive a school bus shall:

(a) Submit a written application on a form prescribed by the state superintendent, such form to include provision for information as to age, sex, race, criminal record if any, experience as driver of vehicles, and experience in school bus driving;

(b) Be examined by a physician designated by the county board as prescribed in §234.15;

(c) If required by state board regulations, pay a fee as prescribed by said regulations to cover cost of licensing.

(2) PHYSICIAN.—A physician, designated by the county board to examine bus driver applicants, shall report, on a form prescribed by the state superintendent, information concerning the physical condition of applicant, and shall certify that the applicant, at a time not more than three months prior to the date when the license becomes effective, is physically fit for the responsibilities of a school bus driver.

(3) COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.—The county superintendent, not more than three months prior to the date when the license becomes effective, shall certify on a form prescribed by the state superintendent that the applicant fulfills all requirements for a school bus driver.

History.—§816, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(275); (1) (c) §10, ch. 61-288.

cf.—§231.33 School bus drivers license, for distribution of fees.

234.17 Extension of license.—A valid school bus driver's license may be extended by the state superintendent for a period not to exceed two years; provided, (1) duly prescribed procedure has been observed by the driver and valid records and reports therein show the driver has continued to meet qualifications and requirements established by law and regulations of the state board; (2) the person to whom the extension is granted served as a school bus driver at least four school months during the school year preceding the extension; (3) the extension is recommended by the county board of the county in which the driver served during the year preceding the extension, said recommendation to be based on merit as a qualified and successful driver and issued not more than three months prior to the date when the license extension becomes effective.

History.—§817, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(276). cf.—§322.01 et seq. Drivers' licenses.

234.18 Revocation of license.—The state board, upon recommendation of the state superintendent, shall invalidate and revoke any bus driver's license upon sufficient evidence that the holder of the license does not fulfill all qualifications required by law and regulation of the state board for a school bus driver.

History.—§818, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(277).

234.19 Posting of license.—Each school bus driver shall at all times keep his license to drive a school bus conspicuously posted in the bus he is driving.

History.—§819, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(278).

234.20 School officials not to drive.—No school board member or school district trustee shall be a contractor for transporting school children or shall be a school bus driver in the county in which he holds office.

History.—§820, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(279).

234.21 Responsibility of school bus drivers.—Each school bus driver shall keep such records and make such reports and shall perform such duties as are required by law or by regulations of the state board or the county board.

History.—§821, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(280).

234.22 Maintenance of equipment.—All equipment maintained or operated from public school funds shall be in safe operating condition. Each county board shall designate and adopt a specific plan for adequate examination, maintenance, and repair of transportation equipment. Examination of the mechanical condition of each school bus shall be made by a capable mechanic at least once each month that the bus is in operation.

History.—§822, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(281).

234.23 Report forms and procedure.—Each county board shall prescribe such forms and reporting procedure on the part of school bus drivers, school principals, and transportation supervisors as are necessary to supplement forms and procedure prescribed by the state board and state superintendent (1) to obtain an adequate accounting of transportation costs; (2) to determine adequate information concerning need for transportation; (3) to determine observance of law and regulations of the state board relating to transportation; (4) to properly map and designate all transportation routes and nontransportation zones. Each county board shall require to be kept records prescribed by the state board concerning transportation and shall submit such reports and maps to the state superintendent concerning transportation as are authorized by law or prescribed by the state board.

History.—§823, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(282).

234.24 School buses to observe rules of the road.—Each school bus shall be operated in conformity with all rules of the road duly established by law and shall observe traffic requirements for the route over which it travels.

History.—§824, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(283).

234.25 School buses to stop at crossings.—Each school bus shall be brought to a full stop before crossing any railroad track and before entering or crossing any arterial highway or dangerous thoroughfare and shall not proceed until the driver has clearly observed that it is safe to proceed.

History.—§825, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(284).

|--|---|

235.01 Purpose.—The purpose of this chapter is to authorize state, county, and district school officials to cooperate in establishing and maintaining school plants that will meet public school needs throughout the state in promoting the health, comfort, and the moral and intellectual development of school children.

History.—§901, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(235).

235.02 Use of school buildings and grounds.—Subject to law, the trustees of any district may provide for or permit the use of school buildings and grounds within the district, out of school hours during the school term, or during vacation, for any legal assembly, or as community play centers, or may permit the same to be used as voting places in any primary, regular, or special election. The county board shall adopt rules and regulations necessary to protect school plants when used for such purposes, and shall provide for the use of school property other than that under the supervision of trustees.

History.—§902, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(236).

235.03 Persons using school property.—Any person making use of the school property for any such purposes shall see that the buildings and grounds are left in as good condition as existed before, and, in case of failure upon the part of all such persons to do this or to pay for any damage to the property, the ordinary wear and tear excepted, all further applications for the use of the property by such person shall be refused.

History.—§903, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(237).

235.04 Disposal of school property.—The county board may dispose of any school land or property which is by a resolution of such county board determined to be unsuited for school purposes either because of location, condition, or other cause. The county board shall take diligent measures to dispose of school property only on the most advantageous terms by public or private sale. If, in the opinion of the county board, said school land or property to be disposed of is worth over five hundred dollars, then said county board shall have such property appraised by three qualified appraisers acting as a body and shall not accept a price less than the appraised value placed on such land or property by said appraisers; provided, that where trade-ins are involved in the replacement of worn-out equipment the dealers' bids, after at least three have been requested in accordance with law, would constitute a legal appraisal. The official minutes of the school board shall set forth the name of the purchaser, the sale price, and, if the same is over five hundred dollars, the appraised value, and the identity of the three appraisers in each such transaction.

Each deed conveying any school land under the provisions of this law shall have a certificate attached thereto signed by the county superintendent of public instruction of such county that all the provisions of this law have been complied with. Such certificate shall be proof of the validity of such deeds.

History.—§904, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(238); §1, ch. 29797, 1955; §14, ch. 57-249.

cf.—§229.08 Control of school lands by state board.

235.05 Right of eminent domain.—There is conferred upon the county board in each of the several counties in the state the authority and right to take private property for any public school purpose or use when, in the opinion of the county board, such property is needed in the operation of any or all of the public schools within the county, including property needed for any school purpose or use in any school district or districts within the county. The absolute fee simple title to all property so taken and acquired shall vest in the county board of such county unless the county board seeks to appropriate a particular right or estate in such property.

History.—§905, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(289).

235.06 When school property condemned.—Any school building or any other part of any school plant or any premises found at any time to be in an unsafe or insanitary condition shall be condemned and prohibited from further use for school purposes until the objectionable conditions are removed or remedied. School property may be condemned in the following manner:

(1) CONDEMNATION BY COUNTY BOARD.—The county board may condemn school property, or if there is any doubt about the condition of any school building, the county board may request the county superintendent to have an inspection made by (a) the state department of education, (b) an architect or an engineer licensed to practice in Florida, (c) the state or local board of health if a sanitary condition is involved, or (d) local fire authorities. If any such inspection results in a recommendation for condemnation, the county board shall condemn and withdraw such school property from further school use until the condition resulting in condemnation has been corrected.

(2) CONDEMNATION BY STATE DEPARTMENT OR STATE BOARD OF HEALTH.—An inspection of any school property may be made by the state department or by the state board of health, either of which may order the property to be withdrawn from school use until undesirable conditions are corrected; provided, that the state board of health shall notify the state superintendent of any such action taken by it.

History.—§906, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(290).

235.07 Insuring school property.—The county board shall keep all school buildings of every school plant insured against loss or damage by fire except those of three classrooms or less which are of frame construction and located in a tenth class public protection zone as defined by the Florida inspection and rating bureau. School property in the county may be insured in such amount and with such kinds of insurance as will give proper protection; provided, that it shall be the duty of each county board to arrange insurance on a five-year plan.

History.—§907, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(291); §2, ch. 22839, 1945; §65, ch. 29764, 1955; §5, ch. 59-339.

235.08 Burning public school property.—Whoever willfully sets fire to or burns or causes to be burned or whoever aids, counsels, or procures the burning of any public school property shall be punished by imprisonment in the state penitentiary for a period not exceeding ten years, or by fine of not exceeding one thousand dollars.

History.—§908, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8115(17).
cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.
§806.01 et seq. Arson.

235.09 Obscenity on school buildings or buses.—Whoever willfully cuts, paints, pastes, marks, or defaces by writing or in any other manner, any school building, furniture, apparatus, appliance, outbuilding, ground, fence, tree, post, school bus or other school property with obscene word, image, or device shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding fifteen days, or by fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars. This section shall not apply to any pupil in and subject to the discipline of the school.

History.—§909, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 8115(18); §66, ch. 29764, 1955.
cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.
§847.01 Punishment for distributing obscene literature.

235.10 Barbed wire prohibited.—No barbed wire shall be used in the construction of fences enclosing the grounds of any public school playground unless the lowest strand is six feet above grade level. Any person who shall violate any provision of this section shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail for a period not exceeding fifteen days or by a fine of not exceeding one hundred dollars.

History.—§910, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(292), 8115(19); §7, ch. 22858, 1945.
cf.—§775.06 Alternative punishment.

235.11 Cleaning and disinfecting buildings.—The county superintendent shall, not less than five days prior to the opening of any regular school year, have all buildings used for public school purposes thoroughly cleaned. Should any contagious or infectious disease be in the community or among the school children, the county superintendent shall, as long as the disease is prevalent in the community and the school building or buildings are being used, have any such school building regularly disinfected at such times and in such manner as may be prescribed by the county health officer, or, if there be no county health officer, by a physician, designated by the county board, who is licensed to practice in Florida.

History.—§911, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(293).

235.12 Care and maintenance of school property.—All school buildings, toilets, and school property shall at all times be kept in clean and sanitary condition. The county board, in accordance with the provisions of §§230.34-230.43, shall see that proper provision is made for efficient care and maintenance of all school property.

History.—§912, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(294).

235.13 Fire precaution.—A principal or teacher in charge of a school shall see that all teachers, janitors, and any and all school employees under his direction take proper precautions in handling or storing of waste papers, kerosene lamps, oiled dusting cloths, and any and all inflammable articles, and to endeavor to see that pupils exercise all necessary precautions. All closets, cabinets, attics, basements, storage spaces, and any places within or under the building where supplies are kept or where waste paper or other materials may accumulate shall be regularly checked by the principal and county superintendent and any improper conditions shall be remedied.

History.—§913, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(295).

235.14 Fire drills.—The state superintendent shall formulate and prescribe regulations and instructions for fire drills for all the public schools of the state, and each principal or teacher in charge of each such school shall be provided with a copy of such regulations and instructions; and each such person shall see that fire drills for his school are held at least twice each semester and that all teachers and pupils of the school are properly instructed regarding such regulations and instructions.

History.—§914, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(296).
cf.—§231.09 Instructional personnel to hold fire drills.

235.15 Survey required.—As soon as practicable, unless a school survey has been made in the county within the past ten years, each county board shall arrange for a survey of the county school system to aid in formulating a long-time program for the schools of the county. The report based on the survey shall show the location and condition of all school buildings, the location of pupils and the transportation routes, the places where schools for the various grades should be maintained temporarily or permanently, and shall include such other information as may be required under regulations of the state board. The county board may request assistance from the state department in carrying on the survey or may utilize such other agency as may be approved under regulations of the state board. A copy of each such survey report with accompanying maps shall be filed with the state superintendent.

History.—§915, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(297).

235.16 School plant program based on survey.—The county board of any county in which a survey has been made, as provided in this chapter, shall, within six months after the completion of the survey, adopt and submit to the state superintendent a proposed school plant program for the schools of that county. This school plant program of the county shall, insofar as practicable, be based upon the findings and recommendations of the survey report. The program shall take into consideration the school needs of the entire county. From time to time, as conditions and needs change, the program may be amended by resolutions adopted by the county board, provided copies of the resolutions with supporting evidence are filed with the state superintendent. The state superintendent shall cause a study to be made of the proposed program, or amendments thereto, for each county and shall submit to the county board his recommendations for improvements in the program.

History.—§916, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(298).

235.18 Annual capital outlay program and budget.—Each county board shall, on or before the first day of July of each year, adopt a proposed capital outlay program and budget for the ensuing year in order that the capital outlay needs of the county school system for the entire year may be well understood and, insofar as possible, provisions made for same. This capital outlay program and budget shall be a part of the annual school budget and shall be based upon and in harmony with the long-range school plant program previously filed with the state superintendent. This program shall designate and locate the capital outlay projects for the year, including the new buildings, the alterations and additions to be made, and the consolidations to be effected, and no public school fund shall be expended on any such project not included in the budget as amended to date. If approved by the state superintendent, the program, as amended during the year with his approval, shall be executed as provided by law supplemented by rules and regulations of the state board.

History.—§918, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(300); §67, ch. 29764, 1955.

235.19 Sites adapted to needs.—Before acquiring property for school sites, the county board of any county shall determine the location of proposed elementary, junior, and senior high school centers for the county. The county board shall also authorize the county superintendent to make a careful study to determine the school needs which should be met in any particular situation and to determine the most economical and practicable location for the school site so that the maximum number of children can walk to school and so that school buses can be routed most efficiently for the remainder of the children. In preparing recommendations regarding proposed school sites, the county superintendent may secure the services of representatives of the state department or such other assistance as he may find desirable to aid in making a proper selection.

History.—§919, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(301); §68, ch. 29764, 1955.

235.20 Site must be adequate.—Each new site selected shall be adequate in size to meet the needs of the school to be served. As far as practicable, any present sites which are not adequate shall be increased to conform to minimum standards for new sites. Each school site shall contain a minimum of two acres for a one-teacher school. At least one acre shall be added to this minimum size of the site for each fifty pupils enrolled in the school after the first fifty pupils and until the enrollment reaches five hundred pupils; provided, that this requirement may be waived in the discretion of the state superintendent under regulations of the state board when any county board files evidence showing that a school site of that size is impracticable in any given situation.

History.—§920, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(302).

235.21 Other minimum standards to be met.—It shall be the responsibility of the county superintendent to recommend to the county board for purchase and of the county board to purchase school sites in accordance with the provisions of chapter 230 which meet standards prescribed below and such supplementary standards as may be prescribed by the state board to promote the educational interests of the children. Each site shall be well drained, reasonably free from mud, and the soil shall be adapted to landscaping as well as to playground purposes. Insofar as practicable, the school site shall not adjoin a right of way of any railway or of any through highway and shall not be adjacent to any factory or other property from which noise, odors, or other disturbances would be likely to interfere with the school program.

History.—§921, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(303).

235.23 Sites to be improved.—It shall be the responsibility of the county board to see that each school site is arranged to provide adequate play areas, is attractively landscaped, and is maintained in such a manner that it is both useful and attractive.

History.—§923, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(305).

235.24 New buildings must meet minimum standards.—Any building constructed for public school purposes in any county in this state shall meet all minimum standards prescribed by law or by rules and regulations of the state board of education, and, in addition, all minimum standards prescribed jointly by the state board of education and the state board of health as herein provided. It shall be the responsibility of the state board of education and of the state board of health to prescribe jointly necessary minimum standards relating to the sanitation of school buildings and the protection of public health as affected by the school plant.

History.—§924, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(310); §69, ch. 29764, 1955.

235.25 Approval of plans required.—As a means of insuring that all school buildings constructed or materially altered or added to, hereafter conform to the minimum standards prescribed by law and by regulations of the state board, each county board which undertakes the construction, alteration of, or the addition to any school building, the cost of which exceeds fifteen hundred dollars, shall see that plans and specifications for the proposed construction are submitted to the state superintendent for analysis and recommendation. No public school funds may legally be expended for the construction or alteration of or the addition to any school building in any county in this state unless the provisions of this section are observed and until the county board of the county has received in writing a statement from the state superintendent that the plans and specifications for the proposed construction have been approved as hereinafter provided.

History.—§925, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(311); §70, ch. 29764, §11, ch. 29754, 1955.

235.26 Minimum standards for school building construction.—No county superintendent shall recommend tentative approval, and no county board shall tentatively approve any plans for construction of any school building in the county, unless the following minimum requirements and any supplementary regulations of the state board of education and any regulations concerning the sanitation of schools jointly prescribed by the state board of education and the state board of health in conformity with the school code have been fully complied with. Furthermore, it shall be the responsibility of the architect concerned in proposing and preparing plans for the construction or alteration of or the addition to any such school building to see that these standards are observed. The state superintendent shall not approve any plans that fail to meet these minimum standards except as modifications of these standards are authorized under regulations of the state board.

(1) EXPANSIBILITY.—Each building shall be so planned that enlargements and additions can readily be made without unnecessary cost and without interfering with the natural light and ventilation of any of the rooms.

(2) ORIENTATION.—Any orientation of classrooms is acceptable provided provisions for control of light and glare are acceptable to the state superintendent.

(3) HEIGHT OF BUILDINGS.—No school building of frame construction or which has masonry walls, but otherwise has ordinary or joint construction and wood finish, shall be more than one story high. No school building constructed with fire-resistive corridors and stairways and with masonry walls, but with ordinary construction otherwise—that is, with combustible floors, roof, and finish—shall be constructed which is more than two stories in height.

(4) ENTRANCES AND EXITS.—There shall be as few steps as possible leading to entrances or exits of any school building. If steps are necessary, they shall be arranged in a straight run, or if a change in direction is necessary such change shall be provided by means of a platform at least the width of the stairs. All entrances shall be kept free from outside obstructions. There shall preferably be separate outside entrances to all rooms which are commonly used for community purposes. All exit doors shall be hung so as to swing outward and shall be provided with hardware that will permit opening by pressure from the inside at all times. No exit door shall open immediately upon a flight of stairs unless a landing of at least the width of the door is provided between such stairs and the door.

(5) CORRIDORS.—Corridors shall meet the following standards:

(a) Construction.—Corridors in buildings with two or more stories shall be of fire-proof or fire-resistive construction.

(b) Width.—The minimum clear passageway of main corridors of any school building of four class rooms or more shall be not less than eight feet. The minimum clear passageway of secondary corridors shall vary with the length of such corridors and the number of class rooms leading to them, but such secondary corridors shall be not less than six feet in width. Each end of each corridor shall terminate on an egress or stairway, excepting that pockets not to exceed the length of one standard class room may be planned when conditions require.

(c) Lighting.—Corridors shall be well lighted by outside windows where practicable. Illumination of an intensity of at least three foot candles shall be provided by artificial lighting if the natural lighting is not sufficient to provide this amount of illumination on a clear day.

(6) STAIRS.—Stairways shall be arranged as follows:

(a) Construction.—All stairways from story to story shall be of fireproof or of fire-resistive construction.

(b) Runs.—Each main stairway from story to story shall be constructed in two straight runs, with not more than fourteen nor less than three risers to the run. Between the runs there shall be an intermediate platform or landing of at least the same clear width as the stairway. Risers to main stairways shall be uniform in height and shall not exceed seven inches, and treads excluding nosings shall be not less than ten inches in width.

(c) Number.—Every school building of two or more stories shall be provided with at least two main stairways, remote from each other; the number of stairways shall be determined by the exit formula of the national board of fire underwriters as found from time to time in their current building exits code. No stairway for pupil use may be constructed with winders, irrespective of whether stairways constitute required means of egress. No door shall open immediately upon a stairway and no door near a stairway shall swing across or into the required line of travel of such stairway. No closet or storage space may be placed under or over any stairway.

(d) Ramps.—To overcome any difference in floor levels which would require less than three risers, gradients shall be employed of not over one inch in twelve-inch run. Floors at all exits shall be so designed as to be level and flush with the adjacent floors.

(e) Lighting.—All stairways shall be provided with adequate natural lighting of not less than four foot candles over the entire area and in addition, so far as possible, shall be provided with artificial illumination of not less than four foot candles over the entire area.

(f) Handrails.—Stairways must be provided with a substantial handrail to each side of stairs throughout the entire length of stairway. Stairways shall be not less than forty-four inches from balustrade to balustrade or wall. If the width is greater than five feet, six inches, an intermediate handrail shall be provided. The same width shall be maintained throughout the entire length of the stairway.

(7) BASEMENT.—Insofar as practicable, buildings shall be constructed so that basement rooms are not necessary and only when special permission is granted by the state superintendent shall instructional rooms be placed in basements. Basement rooms designed as class rooms, laboratories, toilets, or for any purposes other than for heating plant or fuel room shall be at least twelve feet in height and shall in no case be more than two feet below the finished grade on the side where most of the natural light is received. The flooring used in any instructional rooms shall be of a type that will not subject pupils to cold and dampness.

(8) HEATING SYSTEM.—The provisions for heating shall be as follows:

(a) Central heating.—All school buildings containing ten class rooms or more shall be provided with a central heating system, or the equivalent as defined by regulations of the state board; provided, that the state superintendent may, subject to regulations of the state board, authorize exceptions to this provision for schools which are south of the twenty-seventh parallel of latitude.

(b) Room for central heating plant.—The room in which any central heating plant is housed and any fuel room for such heating plant shall be constructed of fire-resistive materials for walls, ceiling, and floors and shall be provided with an outside entrance. If there is inside connection with the building, it shall be provided with a self-closing fire door approved by the national fire underwriters association. Provision shall be made for easy removal of ashes from the heating plant by means of the outside entrance to the room or by an ash hoist.

(c) Jacketed heaters.—In all buildings not provided with a central heating plant and in those south of the twenty-seventh parallel of latitude for which exceptions are not granted under regulations of the state board, each class room shall be equipped with a ventilating jacketed heater or the equivalent as defined by regulation of the state board.

(9) VENTILATION.—The following provisions shall be made for ventilation:

(a) Cross ventilation.—Where mechanical ventilation is not provided, every school room used by students shall be provided with means of cross ventilation.

(b) Windows.—When windows are used for ventilation, they shall be of such design that at least fifty per cent of their area may be opened at one time.

(c) Deflectors.—When windows are used as the method of ventilation, two or more windows shall be provided with deflectors to protect pupils from currents of cold air.

(10) NATURAL LIGHTING.—The following provisions shall be made for natural lighting:

(a) Admission of light.—All instructional rooms shall provide for the admission of light from the left or, in special cases, from the left and rear of pupils unless exceptions are authorized under state board regulations.

(b) Glass area.—The total net glass area in each instructional room north of the twenty-seventh parallel of latitude shall be not less than eighteen per cent of the total floor area, and not less than fifteen per cent south of that parallel. If trees, buildings, or other obstructions are located near the proposed buildings, the direct light from the sky shall be unobstructed above a line drawn from the window sill of windows on the first floor forming an angle with the horizon of forty-five degrees.

(c) Wall space.—At least four feet of wall space shall be provided between the front window and the front wall of any class room.

(11) ARTIFICIAL LIGHTING.—Artificial lighting shall be provided whenever practicable and when provided shall meet the following requirements: provided that where public power is available, the auditorium, corridors, and exits of any building shall be equipped for lighting.

(a) Wiring.—All wiring and other electrical work installed in any building shall be in accordance with regulations of the national board of fire underwriters and, in addition, shall meet all requirements of the southeastern underwriters association and of any other state or local official agencies.

(b) Outlets.—Class rooms wired for artificial lighting shall contain not less than four outlets, and the illumination on each desk shall be not less than ten foot candles.

(12) CLASS ROOMS.—

(a) Width.—The width of any standard class room used for instructional purposes shall be not more than twice the distance from the floor to the top of the window glass in the room. Other instructional rooms may vary from this ratio only when adequate artificial lighting has been provided.

(b) Height.—The ceiling of each class room shall be not less than twelve feet above the floor.

(c) Mullions.—Mullions shall be so arranged that the distance between glass in adjoining windows shall not exceed twenty inches.

(13) DOORS.—

(a) Doors of school houses to swing outward.—All the outer doors of any public school building shall be so hung that when they are opened, they will swing to the outside.

(b) Door hardware.—All class room doors, laboratory doors, library doors, pupil wardrobe doors, or doors to all spaces accommodating pupils shall be provided with hardware which can not be locked against pupils who are in such spaces.

(c) Sizes.—All doors to classrooms or instructional spaces shall be not less than three feet wide by six feet eight inches high.

(14) LIBRARY.—In every school building where elementary or high school, or combination elementary and high school, subjects are taught, there shall be provision for minimum library facilities to meet regulations that may from time to time be adopted by the state board.

(15) OTHER INSTRUCTIONAL ROOMS.—Provision shall be made for such other instructional rooms as are necessary to meet the needs of the educational program of the school.

(16) AUDITORIUM.—No auditorium which is arranged to accommodate more than five hundred persons shall be above the main floor of any building which is not of fire-resistive construction.

(17) OFFICE SPACE.—Any building having more than four class rooms shall be provided with office space for the principal.

(18) TOILETS AND LAVATORIES.—Each school plant shall be provided with a sufficient number of suitable water closets, earth closets, or privies adequately screened and ventilated, urinals, lavatories, and other conveniences as may be prescribed jointly by regulations of the state board of education and the state board of health for the use of the pupils attending school therein. No toilets for both sexes shall be constructed in a detached building under the same roof unless the plans for and location of the same have been approved by the state superintendent, and, in such case, they shall be constructed with a solid partition made of brick, stone, cement, concrete, or by a double wooden partition with at least six inches air-spaces between the two walls of such partition, so as to effectively separate the water closets designated for the use of boys from those designated for the use of girls.

(19) WATER SUPPLY.—Each school plant shall be provided with pure drinking water. Unless the water comes from a city or other community supply which is regularly tested, water provided for the school plant shall be tested at least twice each year and the source of supply shall be condemned at any time the water is found to be unsafe for drinking purposes. Facilities for washing shall be provided at each school building.

(20) FIRE PROTECTION.—In the construction and maintenance of any new school building and in the maintenance of any existing school building, special attention shall be given to protection and safeguards from fire hazards.

(a) Fire escapes.—Any and all school buildings two or more stories in height which do not have fireproof or fire-resistive stairways and corridors and adequate exits and in which the greatest elevation of the floor of any story used or occupied by pupils is ten or more feet above the ground at any accessible door, window, or suitable place of exit from that floor, shall be provided with at least one adequate and easily accessible fire escape for each two hundred and fifty pupils enrolled in the school. Each such fire escape shall be constructed of fire-resistive material securely erected on the outside of the building and kept free from obstruction at all times; and shall meet all regulations prescribed by the national board of fire underwriters as supplemented by regulations of the governmental unit in which the building is located and by regulations of the state board. Any such building not properly equipped with fire escapes as prescribed herein shall be condemned and prohibited from further use for school purposes until so equipped.

(b) Fire extinguishers.—Any school plant not protected by the services of a public fire department must be provided with chemical fire extinguishers approved by the national board of fire underwriters and the number required per school plant shall be sufficient to obtain credit in fire rate. Fire extinguishers shall be prominently exposed to view and always accessible. The principal of each school shall see that each extinguisher is annually recharged and annually at the first teachers' meeting shall have the operation of an extinguisher demonstrated for the benefit of the teachers.

(c) Fire alarms.—There shall be placed in a hall or corridor of each school plant an alarm consisting of a bell or gong arranged or equipped so as to be sounded from at least one convenient station or place upon each floor and of sufficient size and volume of tone to be distinctly heard in each room when sounded. In the absence of such alarm, there shall be placed in each room an alarm consisting of a bell or gong of sufficient volume to be heard throughout the room where placed, all of which alarms shall be arranged or equipped so as to be sounded simultaneously from the same station or place. At least one of such stations or places shall be conveniently located in a hall or corridor upon each floor. Fire alarms shall be installed in accordance with regulations of the national board of fire underwriters.

235.27 Approval required.—Before the contract has been let for the construction of any school building, the county board shall require the county superintendent to submit to the state superintendent two copies of each of the following as hereinafter prescribed: (a) preliminary drawings and proposals, (b) complete working drawings, and (c) specifications. The county board shall not proceed with the construction of any such proposed project until the approval of the state superintendent is received as prescribed below; provided, that the approval of the state superintendent shall include the desirability and needs for the new building, the educational and functional planning, the location on the site, the type of construction, sanitary provisions, conformity to minimum standards, and such other pertinent factors that should be considered in the educational planning of the school building. The approval of the state superintendent shall not include responsibility for the structural design or for the strength of materials proposed to be used or for the mechanical design and efficiency of any heating, plumbing, ventilating, or electrical system.

History.—§927, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(313).

235.28 Preliminary drawings and proposals.—The preliminary drawings and proposals shall show the location of the site, the proposed location of the building on the site, the general arrangement of floor plans, front elevation, the educational program to be accommodated, and such other information as shall be prescribed under regulations of the state board. After examining or having examined these drawings and proposals, the state superintendent shall submit his recommendations to the county board, shall call attention to any laws or standards which are not observed, shall require changes to be made to provide for proper observance of these, and shall submit such recommendations as, in his opinion, should have the consideration of the county board. The county board shall then require such changes to be made as are necessary to make the proposals conform to law and minimum standards, and shall decide whether each of the recommendations submitted by the state superintendent shall be followed.

History.—§928, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(314).

235.29 Complete working drawings and specifications.—Complete working drawings and specifications shall not be prepared in final form for any building until the county board has received the approval or recommendations of the state superintendent on the preliminary drawings as prescribed above. The county board shall then provide the state superintendent with two complete copies of working drawings and specifications showing all details and describing fully all construction materials, finish, and other pertinent matters. These are to be examined by the state superintendent to determine whether all laws or prescribed standards are observed and to determine what recommendations are pertinent in order to approve the proposed building or specifications.

Before giving final approval to such plans, the state superintendent, shall, when he has any doubt as to whether any regulations prescribed jointly by the state board of education and the state board of health are complied with, request written approval by the state health officer or the sanitary engineer of the state board of health of the plans and specifications regarding water supply to be used, plumbing, disposal of sewage and waste, and any other matters relating to sanitation. One copy of the final plans and specifications shall then be returned to the county board with the recommendations or approval of the state superintendent. The county board shall then require such changes as are necessary to make the drawings and specifications conform to requirements of law and of prescribed mini-minimum standards and such of the recommendations from the state superintendent as are approved by the county board shall be incorporated in the working drawings and specifications. Thereafter, no changes shall be made except minor changes, which are not in conflict with requirements and minimum standards without the approval of the state superintendent.

History.—§929, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(315).

235.30 Supervision and inspection.—Before the construction or alteration of, or addition to, any building has been started, the county board shall provide for the proper supervision and necessary inspection of the work.

History.—§930, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(316).

235.31 Advertising and awarding contracts for building or improvements.—As soon as practicable after any bond issue has been voted upon and authorized or funds have been made available for the construction, repair, alteration, or otherwise for the improvement of any school building; and after plans for the work have been approved by the state superintendent, the county board, after advertising the same in the manner prescribed by law, shall award the contract for such building or improvements to the lowest responsible bidder therefor; provided, that the county board may within its discretion reject any and all bids received if it deems the same expedient, and may readvertise, calling for new bids. For a project costing twenty thousand dollars or less, the county board may arrange for the building to be erected on a day labor basis. The provisions of this section shall be retroactive to July 1, 1956.

(1) As an option to the provisions prescribed above, county boards of public instruction may elect to come under the auspices of regulations for the prequalification of bidders on school construction as shall be prescribed by the state board of education. The state superintendent of public instruction after consulting with a technical committee including representatives from recognized contractors' associations shall recommend to the state board of education the regulations for statewide application governing the prequalification of bidders on school construction projects. Except as otherwise provided herein the procedure for the adoption of such regulations by said state board shall be as prescribed in existing law.

If any county board elects the above option, it shall publish for at least thirty days a notice of the board's intent to elect said option in a local newspaper having general circulation throughout said county after which a public hearing shall be held.

The county board of public instruction shall adopt such policies, procedures and practices as are necessary to implement the state board regulations with regard to the prequalification of bidders. The county superintendent shall submit a copy of the policies, procedures and practices as are to be adopted by the county board to the state superintendent and these shall be approved by him.

The state superintendent shall assure that a maximum degree of uniformity in requirements, procedures and practices are followed by those counties choosing to come under this option. Neither the county board shall adopt nor the state superintendent shall approve any procedure or requirement for the prequalification or the certification of contractors which may operate to restrict responsible competition to prevent submission of a bid by, or to prohibit the consideration of a bid submitted by, any responsible contractor, whether resident or non-resident of the county wherein the work is to be performed. Such regulations shall operate only to limit competition to parties able to promptly perform the conditions of the contract and to respond in damages in case of default.

(2) The county board shall require all applicants to furnish the county superintendent of public instruction a statement under oath on such forms as the county board may prescribe, setting forth detailed information with respect to competence, past performance record, experience, financial resources and capability in conformity with state board regulations, together with such other information as the county board may deem necessary. The state board regulations may require that said application be accompanied by a current financial statement prepared by a public accountant certified in the state and prepared in accordance with standard reporting requirements prescribed by the said board. Financial information as may be required by such regulations shall remain confidential and shall not be disclosed to anyone except members of a local school board and its staff who may elect to adopt such regulations as hereinafter provided.

(3) Any person or firm desiring to bid for the performance of any contract which the county board proposes to let must first be certified by the county board of public instruction as qualified pursuant to law and regulations of the state board. The county board shall be required to act upon the application for qualification within thirty days after the same is presented. Upon receipt of such application the county superintendent acting on behalf of said board shall cause the same to be examined and the statements therein to be verified and after obtaining whatever technical assistance is needed shall determine whether the applicant shall be recommended for certification to the county board. If the applicant is found to possess the prescribed qualifications, the county superintendent shall recommend to the county board that a certificate of qualification be issued. The county board acting on the recommendation of the county superintendent may issue a certificate of qualification valid for such period of time as it shall prescribe but not to exceed one year, provided the county board may revoke such certificate of qualification for cause.

(4) The certificate of qualification shall contain a statement fixing the actual amount of work, in terms of estimated cost, which the applicant will be permitted to have on contract with the board and not completed at any one time, and may contain a statement limiting such bidder to the submission of bids upon a certain class of work. Subject to the foregoing restrictions, the certificate of qualification shall authorize the holder to bid on all work on which bids are taken by the county board during the period of time therein specified.

(5) Any applicant for a certificate of qualification aggrieved by the action of the county board, may, within ten days after receiving notification of such action, request in writing a reconsideration by the board, of his application, and may submit additional evidence bearing on his qualifications. The board shall thereupon reconsider the application, and may adhere to, modify or reverse its original action. The board shall act upon any request for reconsideration within thirty days after the filing thereof, and shall immediately notify the applicant of the action taken.

(6) No contractor shall be qualified to bid when an investigation by the county superintendent acting for the county board discloses that such contractor is delinquent on a previously awarded contract by said board, and in such case his certificate of qualification may be suspended or revoked by the county board.

The board may suspend, for a specified period of time, or revoke for good cause any certificate of qualification.

Any person or firm found delinquent on a contract or whose certificate is revoked or suspended shall be given the same benefit of appeal and reconsideration as provided in the case of an applicant refused an original certificate.

(7) All general laws, population acts or special or local acts authorizing the exercise of power in conflict with the provisions of this section are hereby repealed.

History.—§931, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(317), §§1, 2, ch. 57-396; §§1, 2, ch. 63-500.

235.32 Substance of contract; contractors to give bond; penalties.—Upon accepting a satisfactory bid, the county board shall enter into a contract with the party or parties whose bid has been accepted, and such contract shall contain the drawings and specifications of the work to be done or the material to be furnished, the time limit in which the construction is to be completed, the time and method by which payments are to be made upon said contract and the penalty to be paid by the contractor for any failure to comply with the terms of said contract. The contractor shall furnish the county board with a performance bond, issued by a surety company licensed to do business in Florida, for one hundred per cent of the contract price. The contractor shall also furnish a payment bond in accordance with §255.05 as a guaranty against the involvement of the county board in actions to obtain payment for materials, supplies or labor used directly or indirectly by contractor or subcontractors. Any and all persons, firms or corporations who shall construct any part of any school building or addition thereto on the basis of any unapproved plans or in violation of any plans approved in accordance with the provisions of this chapter and regulations of the state board relating to school building standards or specifications shall be subject to forfeiture of his bond and unpaid compensation in an amount sufficient to reimburse the county board for any costs which will need to be incurred in making any changes necessary to assure that all requirements are met, and shall also be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction of any such violation shall be subject to a fine of not more than two hundred dollars or imprisonment in the county jail for not to exceed ninety days, or both, in the discretion of the court for each and every such separate violation. The contractor shall also comply with the requirements of §215.19 relating to the rate of payment for wages of laborers, mechanics and apprentices.

History.—§932, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(318); §4, ch. 21989, 1943; §13, ch. 29754, 1955.

235.321 Changes in construction requirements after award of contract.—After the award of a construction contract no changes may be made other than those which result from conditions which were not foreseen at the time of the award of contract. Where any one change increases or decreases the scope of the original contract, the proposal to change shall be supported by accurate cost data, establishing the fair and current market value of the labor, materials, equipment and/or incidentals required to accomplish the change plus or minus a reasonable margin to represent the contractor's profit and overhead. Cost data shall be in sufficient detail as will enable any qualified architect and/or engineer to confirm the accuracy of such proposal. Before the board shall act on the proposal to change the contract, the accuracy of the supporting cost data shall be certified to the board by the architect or engineer in charge of the work, who shall also certify that in his considered professional opinion, the prices quoted are both fair and reasonable and in proper ratio to the cost of the original work contracted for under benefit of competitive bidding.

Except as hereinafter provided no change or changes shall be effected, the total of which involves costs in excess of (1) two thousand five hundred dollars or two and one-half per cent, whichever is the greater, of the contract cost of projects costing one hundred thousand dollars or less; (2) two thousand five hundred dollars plus two per cent of the excess of one hundred thousand dollars of projects costing between one hundred thousand dollars and two hundred thousand dollars; (3) four thousand five hundred dollars plus one and one-half per cent of the excess of two hundred thousand dollars of projects costing between two hundred thousand dollars and five hundred thousand dollars; (4) nine thousand dollars plus one per cent of the excess of five hundred thousand dollars for all projects costing more than five hundred thousand dollars.

For the purpose of computing the limiting value of the change orders, all component parts of all change orders must be cumulatively totaled as though each item were a positive sum.

Where the cost of changes exceeds the maximum allowable as provided herein, the approval of the state board of education shall be required for the scope of the changes involved.

History.—§14, ch. 29754, 1955.

235.33 Payments.—At no time while a building is in the process of construction shall the county board authorize or make payments to the contractor in excess of ninety per cent of the amount due on the contract on the basis of the work completed and materials suitably stored on the site. The final payment shall not be made until the building has been inspected by the architect or other person designated for that purpose and until he has issued a written certificate that the building has been constructed in accordance with the approved plans and specifications and approved change orders and until the county board, acting on these recommendations, has accepted the building. After acceptance by the local board, a duplicate copy of this written certificate, duly certified as having been accepted by the local board, shall be filed with the state superintendent.

235.34 Street, sidewalk, sanitary improvements; school plants, facilities of other state agencies; expenditures authorized.—

(1) It is hereby declared that the placing of sidewalks, the making of street improvements, sidewalk improvements, sanitary improvements and like special benefits are proper and necessary parts of school plants when such improvements are furnished to or in connection with such plants and that they are proper and necessary facilities for other state boards or agencies whenever they are lawfully constructed so as to bring such benefits within the provisions of laws governing special benefits in this state; that in the case of school plants and facilities such improvements are necessary for the safety and health of the students and others using such school plants and facilities.

(2) The county boards of public instruction of the state and other boards and agencies of the state which have the handling and disposition of public moneys derived through the collection of taxes, be, and each of them is hereby authorized, from the funds in their hands or control, and coming into their hands and control, to expend such portion thereof as may be necessary for the purpose of paying off and discharging lawfully imposed encumbrances upon school properties, or properties of other state agencies or boards, which encumbrances have been lawfully imposed thereon for special or local assessments for street improvements, sidewalk improvements, sanitary improvements and like special benefits.

235.35 Acquisition of lands for use in farm demonstration work.—The county boards of public instruction of the several counties of this state may acquire by purchase, lease, or gift suitable lands for use in farm demonstration work in connection with any school in the county; provided, any tract so acquired shall not exceed forty acres in area for each school and shall be located convenient and accessible to the school in connection with which it is to be used.

History.—§1, ch. 7916, 1919; CGL 510.

Note.—Formerly §242.14.

235.36 County commissioners may improve roads and sidewalks.—The boards of county commissioners of the state may pave and maintain any road, byway, or sidewalk, adjacent to, or running through, the property belonging to any school district or other public free school of any county in the state, where the material and equipment is available for such paving, or maintenance; and it is declared that such paving, or maintenance, of such roads, byways or sidewalks, is a public county purpose; provided, that such action upon the part of the boards of county commissioners is not required by this section to be mandatory but discretionary.

History.—§1, ch. 19194, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(306).

Note.—Formerly §242.10.

235.37 County commissioners may beautify school sites.—The boards of county commissioners of the several counties of the state may plant and maintain trees, flowers, shrubbery, or other beautifying plants upon the school grounds of any school district, or other public free schools, in said counties where the plants, materials, etc., are available, and the planting and maintenance of such trees, flowers, shrubbery, or other beautifying plants are declared to be public county purposes.

History.—§2, ch. 19194, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(307).

Note.—Formerly §242.11.

235.38 County boards and county commissioners may effect agreements.—The boards of county commissioners, and the boards of public instruction of the several counties of the state may enter into and carry out such contracts, or agreements as may be made between them with reference to the above mentioned county public purposes described in §§235.36 and 235.37.

History.—§3, ch. 19194, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(308).

Note.—Formerly §242.12.

235.39 County boards to cooperate.—It is the legislative intent that county school boards and boards of county commissioners shall cooperate and do all things necessary in carrying out the purposes of §§235.36-235.38, to the end that the grounds of the public free schools shall be of greater utility and more beautiful surroundings.

History.—§71, ch. 29764, 1955.

Note.—Formerly §242.13.

235.40 Radio and television facilities.—The county boards of public instruction of the several counties of this state may acquire by purchase, permanent easement, or gift, suitable lands and other facilities either within or without the boundaries of the county or counties for use in providing educational radio or television transmitting sites and may erect such buildings, antennas, transmission equipment and towers or other structures as are necessary to accomplish the purposes of this section.

236.01 State minimum foundation program fund.—There is hereby established, as a part of the county school fund authorized by §9 of Art. XII of the constitution of the state, a state minimum foundation program fund for schools, to be known as "The Foundation Program Fund," which shall be used to assist county boards in maintaining the minimum foundation program for all schools in the county as prescribed by law and in otherwise providing substantially equal public educational opportunities. This fund shall comprise all appropriations made by the legislature to the credit of the foundation program fund and shall be apportioned and distributed to the county school fund of the several counties of the state based upon the principles of classification and procedures declared by law. The minimum foundation program is the school program to be financed in each county with the assistance of the foundation program fund as hereinafter provided.

History.—§1001, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(320); §26, ch. 23726, 1947.

236.02 Requirements for participation in foundation program fund.—Each county which participates in the foundation program fund, as hereinafter prescribed, shall provide evidence of its effort to maintain an adequate school program throughout the county and shall meet at least the following requirements:

(1) ACCOUNTS AND REPORTS.—Maintain adequate and accurate records including a system of internal accounts for individual schools, and file with the state superintendent in correct and proper form on or before the date due as fixed by law or regulation, and before receiving any apportionment, each annual or periodic report which is required by regulations of the state board.

(2) MINIMUM TERM.—Operate all schools for a term of at least nine months (one hundred eighty actual teaching days) each school year; provided, that the state board may prescribe procedures for altering and, upon written application, may alter this requirement during a national or local emergency as it may apply to an individual school or schools in any county or counties, and thereupon the apportionment shall be reduced for said county or counties in proportion to the decrease in the length of term in any such school or schools.

(3) EMPLOYMENT POLICIES FOR INSTRUCTIONAL PERSONNEL.—Notify in writing all instructional personnel concerning reemployment by the times prescribed by law; provide written continuing contracts for all personnel entitled to such contracts as prescribed by law; provide each other member of the instructional staff, at least one month before schools begin, or before assuming his position if he is not employed until after that date, with a written contract providing for the payment of a definite salary as prescribed by law; require twelve calendar months of service for such principals and other special instructional personnel as prescribed by regulations of the state board, and ten months to include not less than one hundred and ninety-six days of service, excluding Saturdays and holidays, for all other members of the instructional staff, any such service on a twelve-months basis to include reasonable allowance for vacation or further study as prescribed by the county board in accordance with regulations of the state board, and pay all instructional personnel according to a schedule adopted by the county board to include:

(a) Personnel employed for twelve months shall be paid in twelve equal installments.

(b) In the event the county board adopts a ten-payment schedule for personnel employed for ten months, one-tenth of the total annual salary shall be paid by the close of each calendar month of service.

(c) In the event that the county board adopts a twelve-payment schedule for personnel employed for ten months, one-twelfth of the annual salary shall be paid by the close of each calendar month of service for the first ten months, and the remaining two monthly installments shall be paid in equal amounts at the end of each of the said two months; provided, that the balance remaining unpaid thereon shall, upon demand of the person entitled thereto, become due and shall be payable at the end of the fiscal year of the county board.

(d) No salary payment shall be due or made until the end of the first month's period of service.

(4) SUPERVISORS.—Employ for the full calendar year a qualified supervisor or supervisors of instruction for the schools of the county in accordance with the provisions of law and regulations of the state board; provided, that no supervisor may be assigned work or responsibilities other than for supervision of instruction.

(5) CLASS LOAD.—Comply with the requirements of law and regulations of the state board prescribing minimum and maximum classroom teaching loads.

(6) SALARY SCHEDULE.—Expend funds for instructional salaries in accordance with a salary schedule or schedules adopted by the county board in accordance with the provisions of law and regulations of the state board.

(a) Such schedule or schedules shall make provision for the following:

1. A minimum annual salary of four thousand dollars for each member of the instructional staff to whom a continuing contract has been issued; and

2. Additional yearly increments to each such member under continuing contract, in recognition of experience and professional growth, assuring a minimum annual salary of five thousand dollars, commencing with the eleventh year of efficient teaching service in the public school system of this state, and including the services set forth in §238.01(4).

(b) In addition to factors of training and experience the county school board may adopt additional factors as incentives for the determination and recognition of superior teaching and service in the program of instruction.

(c) The state board may authorize the adoption by any county board of plans under which the yearly increments and minimum salaries prescribed in paragraph (a) may be withheld in special cases when such are found not to be warranted; and in case of special hardship the state board may exempt a county or counties from the said minimum salary requirements if after full investigation it is found that such county or counties are financially unable to meet such requirements in any school year, but any such exemption shall not extend beyond the particular year authorized and in no event may exemption be authorized for more than two successive years.

(7) BUDGETS.—Observe fully at all times all requirements of law relating to the preparation, adoption and execution of budgets for the county school system.

(8) MINIMUM FINANCIAL EFFORT REQUIRED.—Make the minimum financial effort required for the support of the minimum foundation program as prescribed by law.

(9) COUNTY BOARD.—Nominate and elect by countywide vote from county board member residence districts, a five member county board which serves as a policy-determining body and which after July 1, 1951, shall receive only the compensation authorized by general law.

(10) ONE COUNTYWIDE DISTRICT.—By July 1, 1948, either eliminate all special tax school districts or consolidate all school districts in the county into one countywide district.

History.—§1002, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL Supp. 892(321); §27, ch. 23726, 1947; §3, ch. 25363, 1949; (3) §10, ch. 26484, 1951; (3) §27, ch. 29754, 1955; (6) §1, ch. 57-297; (6)(b) §7, ch. 59-339; (6) §4, ch. 61-263; (6)(a), (b) §1, ch. 63-401; (6)(b) §2, ch. 63-463.

236.021 Competence awards, repealer.—This section was repealed by §1, ch. 63-463 subject to the provision that teachers who qualified in the 1962-63 school fiscal year under the provisions of this law for competence awards payable in the 1963-64 school fiscal year and who continue teaching service in the public school system of the county shall receive such awards.

History.—§1, ch. 61-263; r. §1, ch. 63-463.

236.03 State superintendent to determine units.—The state superintendent shall determine from reports submitted as prescribed by regulations of the state board by county superintendents, principals of schools and presidents of junior colleges the average daily attendance of students, the instructional personnel employed, the area served by public school transportation and the number of pupils transported in grades one through twelve, inclusive, in the public schools of each county in Florida, and also in the kindergartens, and in the junior colleges in counties which meet the requirements of law for instruction for such groups. On the basis of said reports, the state superintendent shall calculate the number of instruction and transportation units in each county as hereinafter prescribed. The state board shall determine by regulation the basis for classifying small schools and special classes or courses for the purpose of computing instruction units. If, for any reason beyond the control of the county board of any county, the ratio between the total average daily attendance and the total average daily membership of students in the entire county for the year is below the ratio for the highest two of the preceding four years in that county, the state superintendent shall, in accordance with regulations prescribed by the state board, use the average ratio between the average daily attendance and the average daily membership in that county for the highest two of the preceding four years as the basis for calculating the total number of instruction units for instructional personnel for the county. The county superintendent in each county of the state shall be required to submit to the state superintendent of public instruction, not later than December 1 of each school year, a report of the average daily attendance for each school for the first two months of the current school year. If in any county the average daily attendance of all pupils in the county for the first two months of any school year is more than five per cent greater than the average daily attendance in the county during the first two months of the preceding school year, the state superintendent shall report the facts to the state board, which shall have authority to authorize an increase in the amount of funds allocated from the foundation program fund for that county by the percentage of increase which is in excess of five per cent.

History.—§1003, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(322); §7, ch. 20970, 1941; §28, ch. 23726, 1947; §4, ch. 25363, 1949; §1, ch. 28017, 1953; §72, ch. 29764, 1955; §8, ch. 57-252; §3, ch. 63-495.

cf.—§229.17 State superintendent to apportion school funds.

236.031 Minimum foundation fund increase; allocation to county boards.—

(1) The increase in minimum foundation program fund as authorized by the state board of education pursuant to §236.03, shall be allocated and paid to the county boards of public instruction under regulations of the state board of education to the extent that funds are available for this purpose.

(2) Upon receipt of the funds distributed to a county under the provisions of §236.03, the county board may amend the annual school budget to reflect such increase.

(3) Provided that nothing contained in this section shall be considered as increasing the appropriations for the minimum foundation program fund as established by the legislature.

History.—§1, ch. 57-190.

236.04 Procedure for determining number of instruction units.—The number of instruction units for instructional personnel for elementary, junior and senior or four year high schools in each county, and for kindergartens in counties which meet the requirements of law for instruction for such groups, shall be determined from the average daily attendance in the public schools of the county for the preceding year and from reports on instructional personnel for the ensuing year in the manner prescribed below, provided the attendance of students may not be counted more than once in determining instruction units.

(1) UNITS FOR ISOLATED ELEMENTARY, JUNIOR, AND SENIOR OR FOUR-YEAR HIGH SCHOOLS.—An elementary, junior, senior, or four year high school with fewer than one hundred twenty pupils in average daily attendance during the preceding year shall be classified as isolated for purposes of computing instruction units when it has the characteristics of isolated schools prescribed by the state board based on size, school population density, surrounding road conditions and distance from another school of the same type. Instruction units shall be computed for such isolated schools as follows:

(a) For each isolated one-teacher school: one unit.

(b) For the attendance in all isolated schools in the county, other than one-teacher schools, having an average daily attendance of fewer than sixty pupils: one unit for each seventeen pupils or major fraction thereof.

(c) For the attendance in all isolated schools in the county having an average daily attendance of sixty or more pupils but fewer than ninety pupils: one unit for each twenty pupils or major fraction thereof.

(d) For the attendance in all isolated schools in the county having an average daily attendance of ninety or more pupils but fewer than one hundred twenty pupils: one unit for each twenty-two pupils or major fraction thereof.

(2) UNITS FOR OTHER ELEMENTARY, JUNIOR, SENIOR, OR FOUR-YEAR HIGH SCHOOLS.—Instruction units shall be computed as prescribed below for all other elementary, junior, senior or four-year high schools:

(a) For the attendance in all schools in the county having an average daily attendance of one hundred and twenty or more pupils but fewer than two hundred pupils: one unit for each twenty-five pupils or major fraction thereof.

(b) For the attendance in all schools in the county having an average daily attendance of two hundred or more pupils but fewer than three hundred pupils: one unit for each twenty-six pupils or major fraction thereof.

(c) For the attendance in all schools in the county having an average daily attendance of three hundred or more pupils and for the attendance in all non-isolated schools in the county having fewer than one hundred and twenty pupils in average daily attendance: one unit for each twenty-seven pupils or major fraction thereof, except that not more than one unit shall be allowed for any one-teacher school.

(d) The state board of education is authorized to approve selected schools to operate an extended school term beyond the required one hundred eighty days of instruction and to authorize the state superintendent to compute a proportionate increase in instruction units based on average daily attendance in such approved schools pursuant to regulations adopted by the state board. Provided, however, every such school shall, during the extended term herein authorized, conduct an academic instructional program of the same or greater quality and intensity as that conducted during the required one hundred eighty days of instruction.

(3) UNITS FOR KINDERGARTENS.—Instruction units for kindergarten pupils in counties qualifying under law and regulations of the state board for such services shall be computed by allowing one such unit for each twenty-five pupils or major fraction thereof in average daily attendance in kindergartens in the county when teachers are employed on a full-time basis. The state board shall have authority to authorize one unit for each class of twenty or more pupils in isolated centers where fewer than twenty-five pupils of kindergarten age are available. When kindergartens are being organized in any county the state board shall have authority to authorize during any year one unit for each class of twenty or more pupils proposed by the county board to be organized in any new center in the county. If at any school the kindergarten and one or more elementary grades are taught by one teacher, instruction units shall be computed on the basis of all kindergarten and elementary pupils in attendance in schools of such classification.

(4) UNITS FOR EXCEPTIONAL CHILDREN.—Instruction units for exceptional children and youth for counties meeting requirements prescribed by §236.61, for the education of exceptional children and youth, shall be computed as follows:

(a) For each group of ten or more exceptional children to be taught by a properly qualified full time teacher as a special class, or taught individually as home-bound or hospitalized children unable to attend school for the major portion of a year; one instruction unit shall be allowed. The minimum number of pupils required for such unit may be reduced to not less than five, as authorized by regulations of the state board, for special situations where the instruction of a larger number would not be feasible or practicable. One-fifth of a unit may be authorized for each exceptional child taught in communities where fewer than five exceptional children are in need of special instruction as determined by the county board in accordance with the provisions of law.

(b) For each properly qualified member of the instructional staff devoting full time to the instruction or improvement of exceptional children from regular classes as prescribed by regulations of the state board: one instruction unit shall be allowed.

(c) For each group of ten or more exceptional children between three and five years of age who need special instruction for entrance into special classes or schools because of deafness or other similar handicaps, as prescribed by regulations of the state board, and for the instruction of which a full time qualified teacher is to be employed: one instruction unit shall be allowed.

(5) UNITS FOR VOCATIONAL EDUCATION.—Instruction units for vocational education shall be computed as follows for all students regardless of age in the schools of each county.

(a) For each qualified full time vocational teacher employed to teach courses approved under regulations of the state board, provided the average daily attendance in the classes taught by such teacher is not less than fifty per cent (or such higher per cent for any type of school or work as may be prescribed by the state board) of the average daily attendance used for calculating the number of instruction units other than for vocational teachers in schools of such classification: one instruction unit shall be allowed.

(b) For each additional qualified vocational teacher employed to teach evening, part-time, or short-unit classes for less than a full school day or a full school year, and approved under regulations of the state board, provided the average daily attendance in any such class is not less than ten: a proportionate fraction of an instruction unit shall be allowed, the method of computing such fractional units to be prescribed by the state board.

(c) For each additional qualified vocational teacher employed to teach approved classes when the average daily attendance is less than the minimum prescribed under (a) and (b) above: a proportionate part of an instruction unit shall be allowed if and as authorized by regulations of the state board.

(6) UNITS FOR ADULT EDUCATION.—For classes or courses in adult education other than vocational education: one instruction unit shall be allowed for each additional qualified teacher employed for a full-time load, or the equivalent, as prescribed by regulations of the state board, provided the minimum class size for a full instruction unit shall be not less than fifteen students in average daily attendance; a proportionate fraction of a unit shall be allowed in accordance with regulations prescribed by the state board:

(a) Where a qualified teacher is employed to teach approved part-time or short-unit classes of less than a full school day or full school year;

(b) Where the average attendance in an approved class or course falls below that prescribed above for a full instruction unit.

(7) UNITS FOR ADMINISTRATIVE AND SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONAL SERVICES.—For each eight instruction units in a county, determined as prescribed in (1) to (6) inclusive of this section: one instruction unit or proportionate fraction of a unit shall be allowed for administrative and special instructional services when used in accordance with regulations prescribed by the state board.

(8) UNITS FOR SUPERVISORS OF INSTRUCTION.—Each county board which employs for the purpose of improving instruction in the county one or more qualified supervisors of instruction and which adopts and carries out a plan for improvement of instruction in the county, in accordance with regulations of the state board shall be entitled to additional instruction units for each supervisor of instruction employed in the county as prescribed below; provided, that any adjacent counties may propose a plan which may be approved in accordance with regulations of the state board for cooperative employment of a supervisor or supervisors of instruction. The number of instruction units for supervisors to which each county is entitled shall be determined as follows:

(a) For the first one hundred instruction units or fraction thereof, one instruction unit shall be allowed for the employment of a general supervisor of instruction.

(b) For each additional one hundred instruction units or fraction thereof, one additional instruction unit shall be allowed for an additional supervisor of instruction if employed; provided, that no county shall be entitled to more than six such additional instruction units for supervisors.

(9) TOTAL INSTRUCTION UNITS.—The total number of instruction units for each county for apportionment purposes shall be determined by adding together the number of instruction units for instructional personnel authorized in subsections (1) through (8) for kindergarten through grades twelve.

(10) INSTRUCTIONAL PERSONNEL PAID FROM MINIMUM FOUNDATION PROGRAM.—

(a) The total number of instructional personnel in any county employed and paid in whole or in part from funds used to support the minimum foundation program at any time shall not be more than five per cent greater than the total number of instruction units for instructional personnel calculated as prescribed above. Not less than ninety-five per cent of instruction units allocated to a county must be filled; provided that if any county board authorizes payments from funds used to support the minimum foundation program to instructional personnel employed in the county in excess of the maximum or less than the minimum as prescribed herein the state superintendent shall forthwith notify the state comptroller of the amount of such discrepancy and an equal amount shall be withheld from each monthly apportionment to said county until full correction has been made.

(b) For the first fiscal year after any county board of public instruction has ceased to operate a federally owned school facility located on federal property the computation of the allocations for the minimum foundation program fund shall include the number of teachers and the salaries paid said teachers who taught in the federally owned school during the preceding school year.

History.—§1004, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(323); §§1, 4, ch. 22537, 1945; am. §29, ch. 23726, 1947; (10), §1, ch. 26933, 1951; (2), §1, ch. 28079, 1953; §73, ch. 29764, §§1, chs. 29844 and 29864, 1955; §9, ch. 57-252; (11)(a) §1, ch. 61-317; §1, ch. 63-370, §4, ch. 63-495.

236.05 Procedure for determining number of transportation units for kindergartens through grade twelve and for junior colleges.—The number of transportation units to be allowed each county board for transporting pupils for kindergartens through grade twelve shall be determined as set out in subsections (1) and (2) of this section and for junior colleges operated pursuant to §230.46 as set out in subsection (3) hereof.

(1) UNITS FOR TRANSPORTATION BASED ON NUMBER OF PUPILS TRANSPORTED.—One transportation unit shall be allowed for each eighty pupils in average daily attendance during the preceding school year who were transported at public expense to public schools in the county approved for transportation under regulations of the state board and whose homes were two or more miles from the nearest appropriate school; provided, that this mileage limitation shall not apply to the transportation of physically handicapped pupils as authorized under regulations of the state board; and provided, further, that in event the county board reports that a school or department is to be discontinued the ensuing year and the pupils of said school or department are to be transported to another school, the instruction units which otherwise would have been allowed for instructional personnel may, for the ensuing year only, upon application of the county board, be allowed as units for transportation. In computing said units a proportionate part of one unit shall be allowed for any remaining number of such transported pupils in average daily attendance less than eighty.

(2) UNITS OF TRANSPORTATION BASED ON AREA.—One transportation unit shall be allowed for each fifty-six land sections of school transportation area computed as follows: Each regular government-survey land section, or the equivalent of such section where not established by government survey, shall be counted which is wholly or partially within one and one-half miles of the regular route of any school bus which has a combined passenger seating capacity in excess of eighteen linear feet, and each additional such land section shall be counted which is traversed by a regular route served by a smaller motor vehicle which transports pupils at public expense; provided, that no section shall be counted twice and no sections shall be added for a side route used to pick up children living within one and one-half miles of the trunk route except as prescribed by regulations of the state board; provided, further, that when authorized by regulations of the state board, a transportation unit shall be allowed for each bus used exclusively for the purpose of transporting ten or more physically handicapped pupils to a public school; and a proportionate fraction of a unit shall be allowed for a vehicle used exclusively for the transportation of a smaller number of exceptional children as prescribed by regulations of the state board; provided, further, that the number of units for transportation based on area allotted for any county shall not be in excess of two and one-half times the number of units allowed that county for transportation based on number of pupils transported; and provided, further, that the state board may prescribe regulations under which uniform adjustments may be authorized whereby one unit may be allowed for a smaller number of land sections which shall not be less than forty-eight in counties having more than thirty per cent of the total school bus route mileage over unpaved or unsurfaced roads. In computing said units, a proportionate part of one unit shall be allowed for any remaining sections of transportation area.

(3) NUMBER OF TRANSPORTATION UNITS FOR JUNIOR COLLEGES.—One transportation unit shall be allowed the county board furnishing the transportation for each thirty pupils in average daily attendance during the preceding school year who are transported at public expense to a junior college and whose homes were more than two miles from the junior college; provided that the mileage limitation shall not apply to transportation of physically handicapped students as authorized under regulations of the state board; provided further that in computing the units for a junior college a proportionate part of one unit shall be allowed for any remaining number of such transported pupils in average daily attendance less than thirty; and provided further that during each of the first two years of the operation of a junior college one transportation unit shall be allowed the county board furnishing the transportation for each thirty pupils in average daily attendance during the first month of each year of operation of the junior college.

History.—§1005, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(324); §8, ch. 20970, 1941; §30, ch. 23726, 1947; (1) §15, ch. 57-249; §10, ch. 57-252; §11, ch. 59-371.

236.07 Procedure for determining annual apportionment to each county.—The procedure for determining the apportionment annually to each county from the foundation program fund shall be as follows:

(1) DETERMINING TRAINING RANKS OF INSTRUCTIONAL PERSONNEL.—The state superintendent in accordance with regulations prescribed by the state board, as provided by §231.16, shall determine for each county annually, as of a date prescribed by the state board, the percentage of instructional personnel employed within each of the following classifications, levels of training, and certification.

RANK I. Those under continuing contract and those not under continuing contract as prescribed by §231.36, holding certificates based on earned doctor's degree from a standard institution of higher learning and on such other qualifications as may be prescribed by the state board of education.

RANK II. Those under continuing contract and those not under continuing contract, as prescribed by §231.36, holding certificates based on an earned master's degree from a standard institution of higher learning and on such other qualifications as may be prescribed by the state board of education.

RANK III. Those under continuing contract and those not under continuing contract as prescribed by §231.36, holding certificates based on a four-year college degree from a standard institution of higher learning and on such other qualifications as may be prescribed by the state board of education.

RANK IV. Those holding certificates based on three to three and nine-tenths years of college training.

RANK V. Those holding certificates based on two to two and nine-tenths years of college training.

RANK VI. Those holding certificates based on less than two years of college training.

The rank of any certificate based on qualifications equivalent to a degree established as of October 1, 1953, shall not be affected; provided, that subsequent to October 1, 1953, ranks may be established for the post-graduate and advanced post-graduate certificates issued prior to October 1, 1955, based on programs of teacher education equivalent to the master's degree and the doctor's degree if such programs are approved by the state department of education prior to October 1, 1953; and provided, further, that subsequent to October 1, 1953, ranks for personnel engaged in trade and industrial education and adult education may be established on the basis of qualifications which are equivalent to a degree as prescribed by regulations of the state board of education.

(2) DETERMINING THE TRAINING LEVEL OF INSTRUCTION UNITS.—Multiply the number of instruction units determined for each county according to law by the percentage of instructional personnel in each training rank and classification, as determined in subsection (1) above, and the product for each rank shall be the number of instruction units to which that county is entitled in each rank.

(3) DETERMINING THE AMOUNT TO BE INCLUDED FOR INSTRUCTIONAL SALARIES.—

(a) Multiply the number of instruction units in Rank I by five thousand dollars, in Rank II by four thousand four hundred dollars, in Rank III by three thousand nine hundred fifty dollars, in Rank IV by three thousand dollars and in Rank V by two thousand eight hundred dollars.

(b) For each instruction unit sustained by instructional personnel under continuing contract in Ranks I, II, and III, there shall be added four hundred dollars; and for each instruction unit sustained by instructional personnel under continuing contract in Ranks I, II, and III who have completed ten years of efficient teaching service in Florida public schools as aforesaid there shall be added four hundred dollars in addition to the above; provided, for any county, which by local law a tenure program is provided in lieu of continuing contracts, the state board of education shall by regulations provide for the recognition and application of comparable tenure requirements in lieu of the requirements herein relating to continuing contracts.

(c) The amounts included for salaries for supervisors, administrative and special instructional personnel, and vocational teachers in each county shall be increased by up to twenty per cent when such money is used to pay the salaries of personnel who are employed, pursuant to regulations of the state board, for the two month period, or fractional part thereof, beyond the ten months of employment required in §236.02. Such regulations of the state board shall permit during such two month period, or fractional part thereof, employment of supervisors, administrative and special instruction services personnel, and vocational teachers, and shall likewise also permit use of salaries for administrative and special instruction services personnel for the employment of teachers to teach, during such two month period, or fractional part thereof, academic subjects or pre-school orientation classes which such teachers are certified to teach and are regularly engaged in teaching in the county during the preceding or succeeding regular ten month school year. Classes in academic subjects during such two month period, or fractional part thereof, shall be of such minimum size as shall be prescribed by the state board, and may be composed of students taking advance work acceleration purposes, or of students repeating subjects previously taken either for make-up or remedial work, or of both, and such work shall be credited as work taken during the regular school year.

These amounts are to be used only for apportionment purposes and are not to be construed as a state salary schedule. No teacher shall be paid an amount less than ninety per cent of the salary allotment for the rank of such teacher. The sum of these products shall be the total amount included in the minimum foundation program for instructional salaries, which shall not exceed the amount paid as salaries in any case.

(d) Provision for adult education teachers under the minimum foundation program shall be the same as now provided for administrative and special service personnel, supervisors, and vocational education personnel when they are employed on a twelve-months basis.

(e) The state board of education shall promulgate and adopt necessary regulations for the determination of the classification of instructional personnel and instruction units with relation to continuing contracts and continuous efficient teaching service in Florida public schools.

(4) DETERMINING THE AMOUNT TO BE INCLUDED FOR TRANSPORTATION.—Multiply the number of units for transportation determined for each county according to law by one thousand two hundred fifty dollars and the product shall be the amount included in the minimum foundation program for transportation. The state board shall have authority to decrease the value of the transportation unit to not less than one thousand dollars during any year when studies show that transportation costs have decreased sufficiently to justify any proposed decrease in the value of the unit. No county shall be permitted to use foundation program funds to purchase buses, chassis or other transportation equipment at prices which exceed those found by the state department of education to be the lowest which can be obtained, as prescribed in §229.23. Any county which spends or proposes to spend for transportation, exclusive of the amount for purchase of buses, a sum which exceeds one hundred fifteen per cent of the amount included in the minimum foundation program for transportation for that county, shall submit all proposed expenditures for salaries of bus drivers, contract prices for transportation and prices for purchase of buses and chassis to the state board for review in accordance with standards prescribed by it until such county reduces its annual expenditures for transportation exclusive of the amount spent for purchase of buses and chassis to not more than one hundred fifteen per cent of the amount included in the minimum foundation program for transportation, or provides the state board with evidence satisfactory to it that the cost cannot be further reduced, provided, that if the ratio of the total cost in the several counties of the state for public school transportation, as determined by regulations of the state board of education, to the total amount included in the minimum foundation program for transportation is greater than the one hundred fifteen per cent, then the computed percentage shall be used in that year in lieu of the one hundred fifteen per cent prescribed above.

(5) DETERMINING THE AMOUNT FOR CURRENT EXPENSES OTHER THAN INSTRUCTIONAL SALARIES AND TRANSPORTATION.—Multiply the number of instruction units, determined for each county according to law by three hundred twenty-five dollars and this product shall be the amount included for current expense other than instructional salaries and transportation; provided, that of this product twenty-five dollars per instruction unit shall be specifically designated for the purchase of instructional materials; and provided, further, that the state board shall establish minimum standards to be met by county boards in expending funds for other current expenses.

(6) DETERMINING THE AMOUNT TO BE INCLUDED FOR CAPITAL OUTLAY AND DEBT SERVICE.—The amount included in the minimum foundation program for capital outlay and debt service shall be as determined and provided in Art. XII, §18 of the constitution and state board of education regulations pertaining thereto. Any portion of the fund not needed during any fiscal year may be carried forward in ensuing budgets or temporarily invested as prescribed by law or regulations of the state board of education.

(7) DETERMINING THE TOTAL CALCULATED COST OF THE MINIMUM FOUNDATION PROGRAM.—The total calculated cost of the minimum foundation program in each county shall be the sum of the amounts included in the minimum foundation program for instructional salaries, transportation, current expenses other than instructional salaries and transportation and capital outlay and debt service as set forth above.

*(8) DETERMINING THE MINIMUM FINANCIAL EFFORT IN EACH FISCAL YEAR REQUIRED OF EACH COUNTY FOR THE MINIMUM FOUNDATION PROGRAM.—The amount which each county shall provide toward the cost of the minimum foundation program is that county's per cent of the financial ability of the state as determined by an index of relative taxpaying ability prescribed by law in §236.071, multiplied by twenty-five per cent of the total calculated cost of the minimum foundation program for kindergarten and grades 1 through 12 for all counties for the preceding fiscal year for instructional salaries, transportation, and current expenses other than instructional salaries and transportation, and recalculation funds provided in §§236.03 and 236.031, but exclusive of adjustments for prior years as provided in §236.07(9). Provided, however, that the combined required effort of all counties for grades 1 through 12 shall not increase more than five per cent in any year. The financial effort of any county toward meeting the cost of the minimum foundation program for that county shall consist of the proceeds of either county or district or of both the county and district current school taxes; provided, that when a county is levying the maximum mills permitted by law, race track, federal impact, and national forest funds may be included. If a county requests that instruction units for kindergartens be included in its minimum foundation program and is entitled to such units under the laws of the state, the financial effort required of that county as prescribed herein shall be increased by five per cent.

(9) DETERMINING THE ALLOCATION FROM STATE FUNDS.—The total allocation to each county from the foundation program fund shall be the total calculated cost of the minimum foundation program for that county as determined in subsection (7) above, less the minimum financial effort required of that county as determined in subsection (8) above; provided, however, from this amount shall be deducted in the succeeding fiscal year (a) any amount required to be deducted from the full apportionment for any school or schools that operated less than one hundred eighty teaching days during the preceding year; (b) in such counties as fail to pay instructional personnel at least the amount included in the minimum foundation program for instructional salaries, the difference between the amount included in the minimum foundation program for instructional salaries and the amount actually paid to teachers in such counties; (c) in such counties as fail to pay instructional personnel holding certificates of any rank salaries which total at least as much as the amount included in the minimum foundation program for such personnel, the difference between the amount actually paid and the amount included in the minimum foundation program; (d) any portion of the amount included in the minimum foundation program for capital outlay and debt service which a county board expends in violation of the state board regulations; (e) any unused portion of the amount included in the minimum foundation program for instruction units of any type or classification.

(10) Those teachers holding certificates in Rank III as of April 15, 1951, based on the establishment of ninety or more semester hours of college training and an examination type of certificate issued prior to October 1, 1939, shall remain in Rank III.

*Note.—(8) was amended by chs. 63-495 (S. B. 430) and 63-529 (S. B. 314) ch. 495 contains a section which states the intent of the legislature which reads as follows:

Section 8. It is the intent of the legislature that the amendment contained herein to subsection (8) of §236.07, shall be construed as applying solely to exclusion of junior colleges from the provisions of that section and that the provisions of Senate Bill 314 shall prevail in regard to the required local effort for the foundation program for grades kindergarten through 12.

236.071 Foundation program fund; state supervisory service fund; formula for index of taxpaying ability.

(1) There is hereby appropriated to the state minimum foundation program fund annually from the general revenue fund a sum equivalent to the difference between the total cost of the minimum foundation program for all counties as determined in §236.07(7) and the total financial effort required of the counties toward the cost of the minimum foundation program as determined in §236.07(8), less any deductions required by §236.07(9), that the total amount for the biennium not to exceed the sum biennially appropriated by the legislature. In addition thereto there is hereby appropriated from the general revenue fund annually a sum computed at the rate of five dollars for the total number of instruction units of the state as prescribed in §236.04, which shall be placed in the state supervisory service fund, which is hereby established and shall be used through the state department of education for state supervisory services for the instructional program for county schools as prescribed by regulations of the state board.

(2) The legislature finds and declares that substantially equal public educational advantages should obtain in all counties of the state; that such equality does not now exist. In order to provide in every county, from combined state and county sources, substantially equivalent educational advantages, the state minimum foundation program fund shall be, and it is hereby apportioned and distributed on the basis of educational needs and relative taxpaying ability as prescribed by law, in the ascertainment of which, the state board shall determine (a) the relative ability of the several counties to support the cost of the minimum foundation program by ad valorem taxation, such ability to be determined by an index of relative taxpaying ability established by law; (b) the cost of the minimum foundation program as determined in §236.07. In determining said index of the relative taxpaying ability of the several counties of Florida the state superintendent shall find each county's per cent of the state total of each of the following factors: sales tax returns, gainfully employed workers excluding government and farm workers, value of farm products, assessed value of railroad and telegraph, automobile tag registration. The Index of taxpaying ability for each county expressed in terms of its per cent of the state total taxpaying ability shall be determined as follows: Find the sum of the county's per cent of sales tax returns multiplied by .3654 plus its per cent of gainfully employed workers less government and farm workers multiplied by .2442 plus its per cent of the value of farm products multiplied by .0586 plus its per cent of the railroad and telegraph assessments multiplied by .0461 plus its per cent of automobile tag registrations multiplied by .2857; furthermore, if any county fails for any reason to make the minimum financial effort required for the minimum foundation program, the state's portion of the foundation program allocation to that county shall be decreased proportionately. The state superintendent shall obtain data for the factors included in the index from the most reliable published source as determined by the state board of education.

(3) The state board shall have full power and authority to prescribe rules and regulations necessary to carry out the intent, purpose and policies of the laws relating to the minimum foundation program, and all such rules and regulations shall be held to be prima facie reasonable, just and valid.

236.073 Foundation program fund; survey establishing need for facilities.—The need for facilities shall be established by a survey made under the supervision of the state department of education; the facilities recommended by such survey must be approved by the state board of education and the projects must be constructed according to the provisions of §§235.24-235.33, and state board of education regulations.

History.—§2, ch. 29638, 1955.

236.074 County school additional capital outlay trust fund created.

(1) ADDITIONAL CAPITAL OUTLAY.—In addition to the capital outlay funds provided in Art. XII, §18 of the constitution and §236.07, there is provided hereby additional capital outlay funds in the amounts and upon the conditions hereinafter provided.

(2) AVERAGE DAILY ATTENDANCE.—The term average daily attendance as used in this section means average daily attendance for grades one through twelve.

(3) APPROPRIATION FOR ADDITIONAL CAPITAL OUTLAY.—There is created in the office of the state treasurer a county school additional capital outlay trust fund. There is hereby annually appropriated from the general revenue fund to the county school additional capital outlay trust fund of the several counties maintained in the office of the state treasurer the sum of thirteen million seven hundred fifty thousand dollars to be distributed at the rate of an amount equal to two hundred dollars multiplied by the number of pupils in average daily attendance for the last completed school year commencing with the school year 1958-1959 which is in excess of the number of pupils in average daily attendance during the next preceding school year as determined by law; provided that the average daily attendance for the next preceding school year shall never be computed for the purposes of this section as less than the average daily attendance for any school year commencing with and subsequent to the 1955-1956 school year; provided further, that any undistributed balance of the appropriation herein made remaining at the end of the first year of the biennium may be carried forward and added to the amount available in the second year of the biennium.

(4) LIMITATIONS ON APPROPRIATION.—The annual appropriation made in subsection (3) of this section is subject to the following limitations:

(a) In order for a county board of public instruction to avail itself of the appropriation in subsection (3) of this section, it must create in its county school fund a separate fund known as the school construction fund, and place in the school construction fund from any source available to such board an amount equal to the amount it seeks to obtain from the appropriation under subsection (3) of this section, provided that no money received from capital outlay funds other than as provided in this section or proceeds from loans against state appropriations for capital outlay shall be included in the school construction fund. The school construction fund so placed in the county school fund shall be used solely for school construction or reconstruction.

(b) If, during the first year of any biennium, the school construction fund of any county school fund does not receive all or any part of the money to which it would be entitled under subsection (4)(c) of this section if the county board of public instruction had placed in the school construction fund the amount required to receive the full amount available under subsection (4)(c) of this section, the money not so received shall remain to the credit of such county in the county school additional capital outlay trust fund in the office of the state treasurer and may be received by the school construction fund of the county school fund of any county in the second year of such biennium by the county board of public instruction complying with the provisions of this subsection; provided if there has been a decrease in the average daily attendance under subsection (3) of this section, then the county board of public instruction of such county shall only be entitled to such amount as would have remained to the credit of the county board of public instruction if the appropriation under subsection (3) of this section had been calculated on the basis of the average daily attendance for the first year of the biennium. Nothing in this paragraph shall be construed to limit the rights of any county board of public instruction as to funds appropriated under this section for the second year of any biennium.

(c) Upon the funds referred to in paragraph (a) of this subsection being deposited in the school construction fund, the county board of public instruction shall furnish to the state superintendent of public instruction such evidence thereof as he may prescribe. Upon the receipt of such evidence, the state superintendent of public instruction shall certify to the comptroller the amount so deposited, who shall thereupon issue a warrant on the funds in the county school additional capital outlay trust fund in the state treasurer's office payable to the county board of public instruction in an amount equal to the amount certified to him by the state superintendent of public instruction and the county board of public instruction shall upon the receipt thereof place such funds in the school construction fund in the county school fund to be used for school construction or reconstruction and for no other purpose.

(d) The funds in the school construction fund in the county school fund of any county shall be used only for construction or reconstruction approved by the state board of education and in accordance with the findings of the state board of education as to priority of needs as shown by a survey or surveys; provided that essential classroom facilities shall in all cases be entitled to first priority.

(e) The funds in the school construction fund in the county school fund of any county may be invested as provided by law for the investment of other funds in the county school fund until they can be utilized for the construction or reconstruction as required under this section; provided that such funds and the interest accruing thereon shall be expended for no purpose other than the construction or reconstruction provided for under this section.

(5) FUNDS NOT MATCHED SHALL REVERT TO GENERAL REVENUE FUND.—All funds under subsection (3) of this section remaining in the county school additional capital outlay trust fund in the office of the state treasurer at the end of each biennium shall revert to the general revenue fund of the state and the several county boards of public instruction shall have no right or claim thereto.

(6) DECLARATION OF INTENTION.—It is the declared intent of the legislature that the appropriations provided by this section and the funds provided by the county boards of public instruction to qualify for the same shall be used for no purpose other than the construction and reconstruction of schools under the provisions of this section and facts arising which may make the duties imposed hereunder impossible of performance by a county board of public instruction shall not discharge such duties and thereby entitle such county board of public instruction to utilize the funds for any other purpose.

History.—§§1-6, ch. 57-334; (3) §1, ch. 59-253; (3)-(5) §2, ch. 61-119; (4) §18, ch. 63-572.

236.075 County school sales tax trust fund; creation and use of; appropriation.—

(1) There is created in the office of the state treasurer a county school sales tax trust fund. There is hereby annually appropriated from the sales tax receipts deposited in the general revenue fund to the aforesaid county school sales tax trust fund, for use as herein-after described, the amount equal to the number of instruction units for kindergartens through grades twelve determined pursuant to §236.04, and the number of units for junior colleges as determined pursuant to §236.72, multiplied by five hundred fifty dollars. The amount herein annually appropriated shall be divided into twelve equal parts and each one twelfth part shall be deposited monthly to the aforesaid county school sales tax trust fund by the comptroller from the first sales tax receipts deposited in the general revenue fund each month.

(2) The moneys paid into the county school sales tax trust fund under the provisions of subsection (1) shall be paid out to the county school fund of the several counties as follows:

(a) On July 1 of each year commencing with July 1, 1961, the state superintendent of public instruction shall determine the total number of instruction units in the state as determined in this chapter, and the number of instruction units in each county.

(b) The state superintendent of public instruction shall multiply the number of instruction units in each of the several counties by the amount of five hundred fifty dollars and the resulting product shall be the amount to be disbursed that year to the board of public instruction of the several counties in twelve monthly payments.

(c) Upon the monthly determination of the amount due as to each county board of public instruction, the comptroller shall issue his warrants on the county school sales tax trust fund payable to the several county boards of public instruction in the amounts so determined.

(d) Upon the receipt of such warrants, the county board of public instruction shall deposit the same in the county school fund and such funds shall be utilized in the same manner as other money in the county school fund.

History.—§§2, 3, ch. 59-336; (1), (2), §2, ch. 61-119; §1, ch. 61-255; (1) §6, ch. 63-495; (2) §19, ch. 63-572. cf.—§212.20 Funds collected, disposition; additional powers of comptroller; operational expense.

236.08 State superintendent to determine and certify allocation.—The state superintendent shall determine the allocation of foundation program funds to each county in accordance with the law and regulations of the state board. On or before July 1, the state superintendent shall tentatively compute and notify the comptroller of the estimated amount of the allotment to each county from the foundation program fund during the ensuing year and during each month of the ensuing year. On or before the first day of March, the state superintendent shall make a final computation and shall certify to the comptroller the actual amount to which each county is entitled from the foundation program fund for that fiscal year and the amount to be allocated monthly to each county for the remainder of the fiscal year.

236.09 Apportionments made monthly for twelve months.—The estimated amount of the foundation program fund to be apportioned to each county during any year shall be divided by twelve to determine the monthly apportionments for the first nine months of the fiscal year and the monthly apportionment to each county for the remaining three months of the fiscal year shall be determined by dividing by three the remainder due on the basis of the final computation. This monthly apportionment shall be credited to and made available for the county general school fund of the respective counties beginning on the fifteenth day of July and continuing on the fifteenth day of each month thereafter to and including the month of June of each year. The comptroller on or before the fifteenth day of each month shall draw warrants on the foundation program fund, except county capital outlay and debt service school funds, to the respective county boards in the amounts prescribed herein for the monthly apportionment and shall transmit such warrants to the respective county boards.

236.17 State treasurer custodian of funds.

—The state treasurer shall be treasurer and custodian of all state funds for vocational education and rehabilitation, state textbook funds, and other state funds for the public school program. He shall receive and provide for the proper custody and disbursement of these funds in accordance with the provisions of law.

History.—§1017, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(336).

236.171 Special school lunch program trust fund.—

(1) A special school lunch program trust fund is created in the state treasury. This fund shall be known as the "special school lunch program trust fund." Custody and disbursement of said fund shall be in accordance with §236.17.

(2) The department of education is authorized to deposit into the fund money received from persons or groups of persons for:

(a) Registration fees, tuition and other costs and expenses of training programs conducted, coordinated or arranged by the department of education in connection with the school lunch program;

(b) Purchase of books, magazines, pamphlets, and other printed matter sold by the United States government printing office, other governmental agencies or commercial publishers;

(c) The cost of preparing and issuing duplicate copies of such certificates and records as pertain to the school lunch program.

(3) Expenditures from the fund are authorized for:

(a) Payment of registration fees, tuition, and other costs and expenses of training programs conducted, coordinated or arranged by the department of education in connection with the school lunch program;

(b) Payment for the items mentioned in subsection (2)(b).

(c) Payment for the cost of preparing and issuing the duplicate copies mentioned in subsection (3)(b).

(4) All expenditures shall be certified by the superintendent of public instruction or his duly authorized agent and disbursement made by the comptroller by warrant on the state treasurer.

(5) The state board of education is authorized to adopt such regulations and policies consistent with this law as may be necessary to accomplish its purposes.

History.—§§1-5, ch. 59-121; (1) §2, ch. 61-119.

236.18 Federal funds.—Federal funds for education in the state shall comprise all funds appropriated by congress and apportioned to the state for special educational services and functions or for the public schools of the state. The state board shall have authority to prescribe plans and regulations for apportioning and expending such funds including funds for school lunches.

236.22 Federal funds for vocational education and rehabilitation.

—The federal funds for vocational education in elementary and high schools of the state and for vocational rehabilitation shall comprise all funds appropriated by congress for such purposes and apportioned to the state for such uses. These funds shall be apportioned and disbursed as required by acts of congress supplemented by regulations of the state board. They shall be made available to county boards for reimbursement of expenses incurred for vocational education in the same manner as prescribed for state funds for vocational education in §229.301 unless otherwise required by law.

History.—§1022, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(341).
cf.—§229.301 Vocational rehabilitation funds.

§229.31 State appropriations for vocational rehabilitation.

236.24 Sources of county current school fund.

—The county current school fund shall consist of funds derived from the county school tax levy, from capitation taxes, from appropriations by county commissioners, from any and all other distinctly county sources for school purposes, from national forest trust funds, from gifts and other sources from which funds may be used for the general support of the county school system.

The board of public instruction shall have the power at all times to invest county current school funds in bonds of the United States government or any bonds fully and unconditionally guaranteed as to interest and principal by the United States government, in the bonds of special tax school district number 1 of the same county, state board of education bonds of any county, or in loans of the county board incurred under the provisions of §237.27.

History.—§1024, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(343); §2, ch. 61-119; §12, ch. 61-288.
cf.—§9, Art. XII Florida constitution, county school fund.

236.25 County school tax.—The county school tax shall constitute the proceeds derived from the assessment and collection of a tax of not less than three mills or more than ten mills on the dollar of all taxable property in the county for the support of the public schools as provided in §8, Art. XII of the constitution. This tax shall be certified, assessed, and collected, as prescribed in §237.18 and shall be expended as provided by law.

History.—§1025, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(344).

236.27 National forest trust fund.—All moneys received by any county board from the national forest trust fund shall become a part of the county current school fund of the county.

History.—§1027, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(346); §2, ch. 61-119.
cf.—§254.01 et seq. Disposition of national forest trust fund.

236.28 Other revenues.—Any funds received for reimbursement of expenses incurred by the county current school fund for vocational education, funds from fees, gifts, donations, funds from philanthropic agencies, or any other funds whatever from sources which properly belong to the county current school fund shall be deposited to the credit of and become a part of that fund.

History.—§1028, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(347).

236.29 Apportionment and use of county current school fund.—The county current school fund shall be apportioned, expanded and disbursed in the county for the support of the public schools of the county as prescribed by law; provided, however, that the county current school fund shall also be used to pay the principal and interest on bonds legally issued and payable from said fund, together with other proper items of debt service against such fund, including any necessary refunding expense as prescribed by regulations of the state board of education. The county board shall, before the maturity of such bonds or other indebtedness and before interest due dates, deposit with the paying agent or make available, as designated in the resolution authorizing the issuance of the bonds or other legal evidences of indebtedness, sufficient funds with which to pay all prinicipal and interest when due; provided, that when such funds have been so deposited with the paying agent or made available, all interest on the indebtedness represented by the maturing bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness shall cease as of their maturity dates; and provided, further, that if any such bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness are not presented for payment within six months after the date on which they mature, the funds shall be returned to the county board and shall be placed by said board in the county current school fund and the county board shall pay said bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness from said fund when presented for payment. Any holder of bonds, coupons or other indebtedness claiming interest after maturity on account of the fact that funds were not deposited with the paying agent or made available to pay such bonds, coupons or other indebtedness at maturity, shall be required to produce evidence in the form of a letter from the paying agent or the county board of the county, respectively, acknowledging that the bonds, coupons and other evidences of indebtedness upon which interest is claimed were presented for payment, that no funds were available for the payment thereof, that such bonds, coupons and other evidences of indebtedness were presented for payment at least annually thereafter and that no funds were available to pay such indebtedness. The paying agent or the county board of the county, whichever has the duty of holding the funds, shall, upon request of the holder of defaulted bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness furnish to such holder the letter required herein. When such evidence is presented the county current school fund shall be liable for the payment of principal and interest on the bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness from maturity until paid at the rate prescribed on the face thereof. If at any time any bonds, coupons or other evidences of indebtedness are reduced to judgment, the county current school fund shall be responsible for past due interest only at the rate prescribed by the bonds or other evidences of indebtedness and any rate of interest in excess of that amount shall be illegal and invalid. Such judgments shall bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum until paid. When any proposal for refunding the indebtedness against said county current school fund has been prepared and approved by the state superintendent, as required by law, and when the holders of at least eighty per cent of the outstanding indebtedness against said fund have agreed in writing to the refunding plan, the county board shall be authorized to pay, out of the county current school fund, from and after that date, on the original and refunding bonds or other evidences of indebtedness only the rate of interest which has been agreed upon for the refunding bonds or other evidences of indebtedness and no owner or holder of a bond, coupon or other evidence of indebtedness shall be entitled to a higher rate of interest after that date; provided, that such owner or holder shall be given the option by the county board of receiving payment in cash for all principal and interest due on the bonds and coupons or other evidence of indebtedness he holds at the same rate at which the remaining indebtedness has been refunded.

236.30 Sources and uses of district current school fund.—The district current school fund shall be comprised of those funds from district sources which are restricted by §10, Art. XII of the constitution to be used exclusively for the public schools within the district. There shall be a district current school fund which shall consist of proceeds from the school district tax.

The board of public instruction shall have the power at all times to invest district current school funds in bonds of the United States government or any bonds fully and unconditionally guaranteed as to interest and principal by the United States government, in the bonds of special tax school district number 1 of the same county, state board of education bonds of any county, or in loans of the county board incurred under the provisions of §237.27.

236.31 Election biennially.—Elections shall be held biennially in each school district in the state under the direction of the county board. These elections shall be held at the special school district election date on the first Tuesday after the first Monday in November of odd numbered years, as prescribed in chapter 230; provided, that if for any unavoidable cause the biennial election shall not be held on this date in any school district of any county, then the millage last approved in and by such school district shall remain and be in effect, and the trustees of the district shall continue to hold office until the next election shall be held.

History.—§1031, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(350) cf.—§230.38 Trustees election at time of biennial school election.

236.32 Procedure for holding and conducting school district elections.—The procedure for holding and conducting school district elections shall be:

(1) HOLDING ELECTIONS.—All school district elections shall be held and conducted in the manner prescribed by law for holding general elections, except as provided in this chapter. The county board shall appoint inspectors and clerks for said election, whose duties shall be the same as those of similar officers in general elections, except as herein stated.

(2) LIST OF QUALIFIED ELECTORS.—The supervisor of registration of any county shall furnish, upon payment for such service to the county board, on demand, a certified list of the qualified electors, residing in a school district.

(3) FORM OF BALLOT.—The county board shall provide substantially the following form of ballot to be used for election of trustees and for voting the levy in each school district in the county:

SPECIAL TAX SCHOOL DISTRICT ELECTION FOR _____ COUNTY, FLORIDA, HELD _____, 19____

1. Ballot for election of trustees—
INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS: Indicate your choice by marking an "X" after the name of the person or persons of your choice for the office of trustee, or by writing in the name of the person or persons of your choice for the office and marking an "X" thereafter. Vote for three persons:

FOR TRUSTEE OF THE DISTRICT:

John Smith	_____	_____
Fred Brown	_____	_____
Henry Jones	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____
_____	_____	_____

2. Ballot for school tax district millage levy.—

INSTRUCTIONS TO VOTERS: Indicate by marking an "X" in the space after line one whether you favor the proposed millage levy which is necessary for the approved school term. If you favor a different millage levy, write the levy you favor after line two:

1. Estimated millage levy required for regular term

(10 mills) _____

2. Other millage levy _____

On the ballot for approval of trustees for the district shall be printed the names of all persons who have been nominated by petition of five or more persons qualified to vote in the election, filed with the county board at least fifteen days prior to the holding of the election and requesting that the names of such persons be placed on the ballot to be voted upon as trustees of that school district; on the ballot for the proposed school district millage levy shall be printed the millage found necessary by the county board.

(4) QUALIFICATIONS OF ELECTORS.

—All qualified electors residing within any school district in the state whose voting registration is in that district, who pay a tax on real or personal property within the district, shall be entitled to vote in this election.

(5) CANVASS OF RETURNS.—The county board shall canvass the returns of the election as made to it by the inspectors and clerks of the election and shall declare the results at the next regular meeting of said board or at a special meeting called for that purpose.

(6) RESULTS OF ELECTION.—The tax levy receiving the majority of all votes for tax levies cast by qualified electors, or, in case no one levy receives a majority, that levy for which, together with the votes cast for higher levies, a majority of the votes are cast, shall become the levy for the district for the next ensuing two years. The three persons receiving the highest number of votes cast on the ballot for the election of trustees, as prescribed herein, shall serve for the ensuing two years as trustees of the district.

(7) EXPENSES OF ELECTION.—The cost of the publication of the notice of the election and all expenses of the election in the school district shall be included in the budget and paid by the county board out of any balances on hand which are placed to the credit of the district, or out of the first moneys collected from the school district.

History.—§1032, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(351); §7, ch. 22858, 1945; §78, ch. 29764, 1955; (3) §14, ch. 61-288.

236.33 County board to certify levy and county commissioners to order assessment and collection.—The county board shall certify and spread upon its minutes a resolution stating the tax levy approved by the voters in each school district election in the county and such taxes shall be certified, assessed, and collected as prescribed in §237.18 and shall be expended as provided by law; provided, however, that the county board, with the consent of the state superintendent of public instruction, where it is plainly manifest from the county school budget that there are ample available funds from other school revenue sources to meet the requirements of the obligations of the tax school district, may reduce the tax levy approved by the voters in the school district election.

History.—§1033, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(352); §1, ch. 26335, 1949.

236.34 Accounting for and disbursement of district current school funds.—The county superintendent, under the direction of the county board, shall keep a separate and distinct record of district current school funds received and placed to the credit of the school district in the county, and of the district current school fund expenditures to be charged against the school district. The county board may expend the district current school funds for the use of each of the public schools within that district as appropriated in the budget and as prescribed in chapter 237.

History.—§1034, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(353); §79, ch. 29764, 1955.

236.35 Source and use of bond construction fund.—The bond construction fund shall consist of funds derived from the sale of school district bonds authorized in §17, Art. XII of the constitution, together with any other funds directed to be placed therein by regulations of the state board of education, and other similar funds which are to be used primarily for capital outlay purposes within any school district.

History.—§1035, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(354); §18, ch. 29754, 1955; §18, ch. 57-249.

236.36 Proposals for issuing bonds.—Whenever the residents of a school district of any county in this state shall desire the issuance of bonds by such school district for the purpose of acquiring, building, enlarging, furnishing, or otherwise improving buildings or school grounds, or for any other exclusive use of the public schools within such school district, they shall present to the county board, a petition signed by not less than twenty-five per cent of the duly qualified electors residing within the school district, setting forth in general terms the amount of the bonds desired to be issued, the purpose thereof, and that the proceeds derived from the sale of such bonds shall be used for the purposes set forth in the petition. In counties of twenty-five thousand population or more, according to the latest federal census, the said petition may be dispensed with and the proposition of issuing bonds for the purposes as herein outlined may be initiated by the county board of the said county or by the trustees of said school district or by both bodies; provided, that nothing contained in this section shall repeal any of the provisions of §§100.201-100.351.

236.37 Procedure of county boards with reference to proposals for issuing bonds.—It shall be the duty of the county boards of the several counties of Florida to plan the school financial program of the county so that, insofar as practicable, needed capital outlay expenditures can be made without the necessity of issuing bonds. Whenever the county board of any county proposes an issue of bonds or has received any petition proposing the issuance of bonds, as provided in §236.36, the said board shall forthwith proceed as follows:

(1) The county board, after considering recommendations submitted by the county superintendent, shall determine whether in its opinion the projects for which bonds are proposed to be issued are essential for the school program of the county. If in the opinion of the county board any of the projects are not necessary or desirable, the county superintendent shall notify the trustees of the district in writing within ten days of the adverse action of the county board giving the reasons therefor; provided, that if the trustees of the district decide that the reasons given by the county board for rejecting the proposal or any part of the proposal are not good and sufficient reasons, said trustees may then file with the county board in writing a request giving their reasons for reconsideration of the proposal, whereupon the county board shall, at its next ensuing meeting, proceed as set forth in subsection (2) below.

(2) If the proposed projects are deemed essential by the county board or if the proposed projects are rejected in whole or in part and have been resubmitted by the trustees of the district as set forth in subsection (1) above, the county board shall, if practicable, prepare a plan for carrying out the projects, or at least part of the projects, with current funds which have been or can be set aside for that purpose.

(3) If the county board determines that any portion of the projects cannot be carried out so that all costs can be met from the proceeds of a special district millage voted for that purpose or from county current funds which are not needed for salaries of teachers or other necessary expenses of operating the schools or from such funds which can reasonably be expected to be available by the time the projects are completed, or cannot be completed on the basis of a loan against county or district current funds, approved in accordance with §237.27, the county board shall then determine the amount of bonds necessary to be issued to complete the projects as proposed for the district and shall adopt and transmit to the state superintendent a resolution setting forth the proposals with reference to the projects and the proposed plan for financing the projects, said resolution to be in such form and contain such information as may be prescribed by the state board of education; provided, that if the state superintendent shall determine that the issuance of bonds as proposed is unnecessary or is unnecessary in the amount and according to the plan proposed, and shall notify the county board accordingly, the county board shall then either amend its resolution to conform to the recommendation of the state superintendent or shall inform the trustees of the district in writing of the adverse recommendation of the state superintendent and no further action shall be taken for a period of at least one year on the proposal for a bond issue unless, within thirty days thereafter, a petition signed by at least thirty-five per cent of the qualified electors within the district is received by the county board requesting that an election be called to vote bonds for the purposes set forth and in an amount which shall not exceed the amount of bonds proposed by the county board. If such a petition is received by the county board, as provided herein, or if the resolution proposing a bond issue has been approved by the state superintendent, the county board shall then proceed at its next ensuing meeting to adopt a resolution authorizing that an election be held for the purpose of determining whether bonds shall be issued as proposed.

History.—§1037, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(356); §5, ch. 21989, 1943; §81, ch. 29764, 1955.

236.38 Publication of resolution.—It shall be the duty of the county board, when the resolution proposing a bond issue has been approved by the state superintendent or when such a proposal has been rejected by the state superintendent and a new petition signed by thirty-five per cent of the qualified electors of the district has been presented, and when the resolution authorizing an election has been adopted as set forth above, to cause such resolution to be published once each week for four successive weeks in some newspaper published in the county. This resolution may also include a notice of election as prescribed in §236.39.

History.—§1038, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(357); §6, ch. 21989, 1943; §82, ch. 29764, 1955.

236.39 Notice of election; qualifications of electors.—The said county board shall also at the meeting, at which is passed the resolution provided for in §236.37 order that an election shall be held in said school district to determine whether or not there shall be issued by said district the bonds provided for in said resolution, in which election only the duly qualified electors thereof who are freeholders shall vote, and prior to the time of holding said election the said county board shall cause to be published once each week for four successive weeks in a newspaper published in the county a notice of the holding of said election which shall specify the time and place or places of the holding thereof. The resolution, prescribed in §236.37, may be incorporated in and published as a part of the notice prescribed in this section.

History.—§1039, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(358); §83, ch. 29764, 1955; §12, ch. 59-371.
cf.—§6, Art. IX, Florida constitution, bond elections.

236.40 Conduct of election; form of ballot; appointment of inspectors; canvassing returns.

—The election, provided for in §236.39, shall be held at the place or several places in said district where the last general election was held throughout said district, unless the county board shall otherwise order; and the county board shall appoint inspectors for the election and cause to be prepared and furnished to said inspectors the ballots to be used at said election; the form of ballots for such election shall be: "For bonds" or "Against bonds". The inspectors shall make returns to the said county board immediately after the said election, and the said county board shall hold a special meeting as soon thereafter as practicable for the purpose of canvassing said election returns and shall determine and certify to the result thereof.

History.—§1040, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(359); §7, ch. 22858, 1945.

236.41 Result of election held.—If it shall appear by the result of said election that a majority of the votes cast shall be "For bonds", the county board shall be authorized and required to issue the bonds authorized by said election for the purposes specified in the resolution as published, not to exceed the amount therein named; but, if the majority of the votes cast shall have been "Against bonds", no bonds shall be issued.

History.—§1041, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(360).
cf.—§6, Art. IX, Florida constitution, bond elections.

236.42 If election adverse, no second election within one year.—If the result of the said election shall be adverse to the issuance of said bonds, no election shall be held for such purpose within one year thereafter; except, however, in the event such election shall result or shall have resulted in an equal number of votes being cast for the issuance of said bonds as shall be cast adverse to issuance of bonds, the county board may call and order another or second election within said district to have determined the question of whether the bonds specified in the original petition and resolution shall be issued by said district, after giving notice as provided for by §236.39, and it shall not be necessary to have presented to said county board further petitions to order said second election.

236.43 Receiving bids and sale of bonds.

(1) In case the issuance of bonds shall be authorized at said election, or in case any bonds outstanding against the district are being refunded, the county board shall cause notice to be given by publication in some newspaper published in the county that said board will receive bids for the purchase of the bonds at the office of the county superintendent of said county. The notice shall be published twice and the first publication shall be given not less than thirty days prior to the date set for receiving the bids. Said notice shall specify the amount of the bonds offered for sale and shall state whether the bids shall be sealed bids or whether the bonds are to be sold at auction, shall give the schedule of maturities of the proposed bonds and such other pertinent information as may be prescribed by regulations of the state board. Bidders may be invited to name the rate of interest which the bonds are to bear or the county board may name rates of interest and invite bids thereon. In addition to publication of notice of the proposed sale as set forth above, the county board shall also notify in writing at least three recognized bond dealers in the state and shall also at the same time notify the state superintendent concerning the proposed sale, enclosing a copy of the advertisement.

(2) All bonds and refunding bonds issued as provided by law shall be sold to the highest and best bidder at such public sale unless sold at a better price or yield basis within thirty days after failure to receive an acceptable bid at a duly advertised public sale; provided, that at no time shall bonds or refunding bonds be sold or exchanged at less than par value except as specifically authorized by the state board; and provided, further, that the county board shall have the right to reject all bids and cause a new notice to be given in like manner inviting other bids for such bonds, or to sell all or any part of such bonds to the state board at a price and yield basis which shall not be less advantageous to the county board than that represented by the highest and best bid received. In the marketing of said bonds the county board shall be entitled to have such assistance as can be rendered by the governor, the state treasurer, the state superintendent, or any other public state officer or agency. In determining the highest and best bidder for bonds offered for sale, the net interest cost to the county board as shown in standard bond tables shall govern; provided, that the determination of the county board as to the highest and best bidder shall be final.

236.44 Bidders to give security.—The county board may require of all bidders for said bonds that they give security by bond or by a deposit to said county board that the bidder shall comply with the terms of the bid, and any bidder whose bid shall be accepted shall be liable to the county board for all damages on account of the nonperformance of the terms of such bid or to a forfeiture of the deposit required by said county board.

History.—§1044, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(363).

236.45 Form and denomination of bonds.

The county board may prescribe the denomination of the bonds to be issued and such bonds may be issued with or without interest coupons in the discretion of the board. The form of the bonds to be issued may be prescribed by the state board on the recommendation of the attorney general. The schedule of maturities of the proposed bonds shall be so arranged that the total payments required each year, including the payments on other bonds outstanding against the district, shall be as nearly equal as practicable. The schedule shall provide that all bonds are to be retired within a period of twenty years from the date of issuance unless a longer period is required and has been specifically approved by the state board of education. All bonds issued hereunder which bear interest in excess of two and ninety-nine one-hundredths per cent shall be callable on terms prescribed by the county board beginning not later than ten years from the date of issuance.

History.—§1045, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(364); §8, ch. 21989, 1943.

236.46 Investment of fiduciary funds in bonds; security for deposit of public funds.

School district bonds authorized and issued under the provisions of this chapter shall be lawful investments for fiduciary and trust funds including all funds in the control of trustees, assignees, administrators, and executors, and may be accepted as security for all deposits of public funds.

History.—§1046, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(365).

236.47 Records to be kept and reports to be made.

—The county board shall maintain a complete record of all bonds issued under the provisions of this chapter, which record shall show upon what authority the bonds are issued, the amount for which issued, the persons to whom issued, the date of issuance, the purpose or purposes for which issued, the rate of interest to be paid, and the time and place of payment of each installment of principal and interest. This record shall be so arranged as to show the amount of principal and interest to be paid each year and shall also show the annual or semiannual payments which are made and the bonds which are canceled. In addition the county superintendent shall file with the state superintendent in accordance with regulations of the state board reports giving such information as may be required regarding any bonds which may be issued as provided herein.

History.—§1047, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(366); §9, ch. 21989, 1943.

236.48 Bonds may be validated; validity of bonds.—When an issue of bonds for any school district shall be authorized in the manner provided under the terms of this chapter, such bonds shall, in the discretion of the county board, be subject to validation in the manner provided for in chapter 75. In lieu of validation as set forth in that chapter, the county board may, in its discretion, submit to the attorney general all information relating to the issuance of bonds as provided in said chapter 75, and an approving opinion of the attorney general shall be sufficient evidence that the bonds are valid. Bonds reciting that they are issued pursuant to the terms of this chapter shall, in any action or proceeding involving their validity, be conclusively deemed to be fully authorized thereby, to have been issued, sold, executed, and delivered in conformity therewith, and with all other provisions of law applicable thereto, and shall be incontestible, anything herein or in other statutes to the contrary notwithstanding, unless such action or proceeding is begun before or within thirty days after the date upon which the bonds are sold, paid for and delivered.

History.—§1048, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(367); §10, ch. 21989, 1943.

236.49 Proceeds; how expended.—The proceeds derived from the sale of said bonds shall be held by the county board and shall be expended by the board for the purpose for which said bonds were authorized for said school district, and shall be held and expended in the manner following:

(1) The county board shall deposit, or cause to be deposited, the proceeds arising from the sale of each issue of bonds in a separate bond construction fund account in the school depository.

(2) All or any part of the fund derived from the proceeds of any such bond issue that in the judgment of the county board is not immediately needed may be placed on time deposit in the school depository or invested in securities issued by or guaranteed by the United States government, or in the following securities of the county or district maturing not later than the time when the funds are reasonably expected to be needed:

(a) In bonds of the United States government or in any other bonds or obligations which shall then be fully and unconditionally guaranteed as to principal by the United States government, at the then current market price of such bonds or other obligations; provided, that any such bond or other obligation purchased under the authority hereof shall be surrenderable at par and accrued interest not later than one year next after the date of the purchase of the same.

(b) In any bonds issued by the district to which the bond construction fund belongs provided such bonds are not in default and can be obtained at a price which will result in a net saving to the taxpayers of the district.

(c) In any obligations of the county board approved by the state board of education in accordance with the provisions of §237.27.

(d) In any bonds or obligations of the county board for the payment of which the taxing power of the county board has been pledged; providing, such bonds or obligations are not in default.

(e) In any bonds of other special tax school districts of the county; provided, that such funds shall not be invested in any bonds which have been in default as to principal or interest at any time during the six-month period preceding the date of purchase.

(f) In any bonds issued by the state board of education for the county.

History.—§1049, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 892(368); am. §1, ch. 21823, 1943; §19, ch. 29754, 1955.

236.50 Disposition of surplus of bond issue.—Should there remain any of the proceeds of the sale of school district bonds after the purpose and object for which the said bonds were issued shall have been carried out and performed by the county board, the surplus then shall be held by the county board and paid out by said board for the exclusive use of the public schools within such school bond district as said county board may deem reasonable and proper.

History.—§1050, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(369); §20, ch. 29754, 1955; §17, ch. 57-249.

cf.—§230.43 Recommendation of trustees for disposal of surplus.

236.51 Additional bond issues.—After the issuance by any school district of bonds in the manner authorized in this chapter, the qualified electors of such school district may thereafter, from time to time, in the manner herein provided for, authorize one or more additional bond issues as they may determine upon.

History.—§1051, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(370).

236.52 Source and use of district interest and sinking fund.—The district interest and sinking fund of any school district shall comprise the proceeds of the tax levied for the purpose of paying the principal and interest of bonds outstanding against the district as provided in this chapter and in addition such funds as may accrue to the credit of the district interest and sinking fund from interest on deposits, investments or other sources. The district interest and sinking fund in each district shall be used to pay the principal and interest on bonds legally issued against the district and other proper items of debt service against such district, including any necessary refunding expense as prescribed by regulations of the state board of education. The county board shall, before the maturity of bonds and before interest due dates, deposit with the paying agent or make available, as designated in the resolution authorizing the issuance of bonds, sufficient money of the district interest and sinking fund with which to pay all principal and interest when due; provided, that when such money has been so deposited with the paying agent or made available, all interest on the indebtedness represented by the maturing bonds or coupons shall cease as of their maturity dates; and provided, further, that if any such bonds or coupons are not presented for payment within six months after the date on which they mature, the money shall be returned to the county board and shall be held by said board as a reserve fund in the account of the district interest and sinking fund until the bonds and coupons are presented for payment. Any holder of bonds or coupons, claiming interest after maturity shall be required to produce evidence in the form of a letter from the paying agent or the county board of the county, respectively, acknowledging that the bonds or coupons upon which interest is claimed were presented for payment upon maturity, that no funds were available for the payment thereof, that such bonds or coupons were presented for payment at least annually thereafter and that no funds were available to pay such bonds or coupons. The paying agent or the county board of the county, whichever has the duty of holding the money shall, upon request of the holder of defaulted bonds or coupons, furnish to such holder the letter required herein. When such evidence is presented, the district interest and sinking fund shall be liable for the payment of principal and interest on the bonds and coupons from maturity until paid at the rate prescribed on the face of the bonds. If at any time any bonds or coupons are reduced to judgment, the district interest and sinking fund shall be responsible for past due interest only at the rate prescribed by the bonds and any rate of interest in excess of that amount shall be illegal and invalid. Such judgments shall bear interest at the rate of five per cent per annum until paid. When any proposal for refunding the indebtedness against any district has been prepared and approved by the state superintendent, as required by law, and when the holders of at least eighty per cent of the outstanding indebtedness represented by the bond issue have agreed in writing to the refunding plan, the county board shall be authorized to pay, from and after that date on the original and refunding bonds from the district interest and sinking fund, only the rate of interest which has been agreed upon for the refunding bonds and no owner or holder of a bond or coupon shall be entitled to a higher rate of interest after that date; provided, that such owner or holder shall be given the option by the county board of receiving payment in cash for all principal and interest due on the bonds and coupons he holds at the same rate at which the remaining bonds and coupons have been refunded.

236.53 County commissioners to levy tax for bonds; sinking fund.—Whenever any school district bonds shall have been issued, the county board shall determine annually, by resolution, until all of such bonds shall be paid and retired, the amount necessary to be raised for each district bond interest and sinking fund, and the millage necessary to be levied for each such fund. A certified copy of said resolution shall annually be filed with the board of county commissioners and the board of county commissioners of the county in which such district is located shall order, annually, the assessor to assess and the collector to collect a tax upon all taxable property within said school district, sufficient to raise and pay the principal and interest on said school district bonds maturing during the year and sufficient to create a sinking fund for the payment of principal of said bonds at maturity of same, which sinking fund shall be provided for by resolution of the county board before the issuing of any bonds. All school district taxes for the payment of principal and interest and to create a sinking fund for the retirement of said bonds shall be assessed, equalized, and collected upon taxable property in the school district by the same officers and in the same manner as is provided by law for the assessment, equalization, and collection of other county taxes; provided, that all taxes authorized herein shall be assessed and collected on railroad, street railroad, sleeping car, parlor car, and telegraph company property in the manner now provided by law. The county tax collector shall turn over to the county school depository or depositories, as designated by the county board, all money collected for the interest and sinking fund of all bonds issued and outstanding against any such school district.

History.—§1053, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(372).

236.55 Interest and sinking funds may be invested in certain bonds, warrants and notes.—The county board shall have the power at all times to invest the interest and sinking funds collected for the retirement of any bonds of any school district in bonds issued by the United States government or any bonds fully and unconditionally guaranteed as to interest and principal by the United States government, in the bonds of another school district of the same county, in loans of the county board or of any district in the county incurred under the provisions of §237.27, or in any county general school fund bonds, warrants or notes of said county as authorized by the state board of education. Said bonds, warrants or notes shall be of such date and maturity that they will mature on or before the date of maturity of the district's bonds with whose sinking fund they have been purchased. Such bonds, warrants or notes shall be purchased at par or less, except when purchase of any such bonds or warrants at a price above par is specifically approved on the basis of an application therefor submitted to the state superintendent. The county board shall have authority at any time to use the interest and sinking fund of any district for purchasing for the purpose of canceling and retiring bonds outstanding against the interest and sinking fund of said district at any price which will result in a net saving to the taxpayers of the district; provided, always, that the county board shall have the right to keep the interest and sinking fund on deposit earning the rate of interest agreed upon until such time as within its judgment it may be able to invest it in bonds, warrants or notes to better advantage as herein provided for.

History.—§1055, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(374); §11, ch. 21989, 1943; §85, ch. 29764, 1955.

236.56 Disposition of balance in interest and sinking fund.—If all principal and interest outstanding against any school district shall have been paid, and there shall still remain a balance in the interest and sinking fund to the credit of that district, the board shall, by resolution, authorize this balance to be transferred to the credit of the district current school fund of that district, and the balance so transferred shall be expended in the same manner and for the same purposes as the district current school funds are expended.

History.—§1056, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(375).

236.57 Report required.—The county superintendent shall prepare, on or before August first, as a part of the annual financial report, a separate report for each district having issued bonds during the year and for each district having issued bonds at some prior time which issue of bonds has not yet been retired. Such report or reports shall include such facts regarding the amount of money received from the bonds, the amount of money expended from the proceeds, the amount on hand, the amount collected from the interest and sinking fund of the bonds, the amount expended, the amount invested, and the kind and amount of securities held therefor, as may be prescribed under regulations of the state board. This report shall be published in a newspaper of general circulation in the district, or of the county in which the district is located, and a copy of the report shall be sent to the state superintendent.

History.—§1057, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(376).

236.58 Procedure used in apportioning state and county current school funds for use within the county.—The procedure to be used by the county board in determining the needs of each school in the county, and in determining the state and county current school funds needed to aid in maintaining each school in the county shall be as follows:

(1) COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT TO CALCULATE COST OF MAINTAINING SCHOOLS FOR ESTABLISHED TERM.—The county superintendent shall calculate for the county board the cost of maintaining each school in the county for a minimum term of one hundred eighty days, or for such longer term as shall be established by the county board for the minimum term of that county. This cost shall be determined on a uniform basis for all schools in the county.

(2) COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT TO CALCULATE MINIMUM DISTRICT TAX LEVY REQUIRED.—After calculating the cost of the program as prescribed above, the county board shall then determine the amount that will need to be raised from district taxes throughout the county, in addition to the amount that will be available from state funds and from county current school funds. On the basis of this amount and of the assessed values, the county board shall thereupon determine the minimum district tax levy that is necessary in order to provide the tax income from district sources which is needed to make possible the minimum term and program throughout the county as prescribed by the county board. This proposed levy shall be included on the ballot for the district.

(3) PROCEEDS FROM LEVY TO AID IN MAINTAINING MINIMUM TERM.—The proceeds from this tax levy, if approved by the electors of the district, shall be used to aid in maintaining the minimum term for the district as prescribed by the county board and shall be used in no other manner.

(4) PROCEDURE IF ELECTORS DO NOT APPROVE RECOMMENDED LEVY.—If the electors of the school district should fail to approve the district tax levy found necessary by the county board to aid in maintaining the minimum term as prescribed herein, the county board shall determine the district tax proceeds which should be available in the district from the levy which is approved by the electors, shall determine the difference between the proceeds from this levy and from the levy recommended for the minimum term, and shall calculate the length of time each year the schools of the district could operate were this difference in proceeds available for use in the district. The county board shall then prescribe as the term for the schools in the district for the ensuing two years the adopted length of term for the schools of the county minus the length of term schools in the district could operate if this difference in proceeds were available for use as prescribed in this section.

236.601 Board of administration to act as fiscal agent in issuance and sale of motor vehicle anticipation certificates.—

(1) In aid of the provisions of §18, Art. XII of the state constitution, the state board of administration may upon request of the state board of education, act as fiscal agent for the state board of education in the issuance and sale of any or all bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates, including any refunding of bonds, certificates or interest coupons thereon which may be issued pursuant to the provisions of §18, Art. XII of the state constitution and upon request of the state board of education the state board of administration may take over the management, control, bond trusteeship, administration, custody and payment of any or all debt service or other funds or assets now or hereafter available for any bonds or certificates issued for the purpose of obtaining funds for the use of any county board of public instruction or to pay, fund or refund any bonds or certificates theretofore issued for such purpose under the provisions of §18, Art. XII of the state constitution. The state board of education may from time to time provide by its duly adopted resolution or resolutions the duties said fiscal agent shall perform as authorized by this section and such duties may be changed, modified or repealed by subsequent resolution or resolutions as the state board of education may deem appropriate, provided, however, that such changes shall only affect the duties of the state board of administration as fiscal agent and shall in nowise affect or modify the paramount constitutional authority of the state board of education under §18 of Art. XII of the state constitution nor affect, modify or impair the contract rights of persons holding or owning said obligations authorized to be issued pursuant to said §18 of Art. XII.

(2) No such bonds or motor vehicle tax anticipation certificates shall ever be issued by the state board of administration until after the adoption of a resolution requesting the issuance thereof by the state board of education for and on behalf of the county for which such obligations are to be issued.

(3) All such bonds or certificates issued pursuant to this act shall be issued in the name of the state board of education but shall be issued for and on behalf of the county board of public instruction requesting the issuance thereof and shall be issued pursuant to any rules or regulations adopted by the state board of education which are not in conflict with the provisions of §18 of Art. XII of the state constitution.

(4) The proceeds of any sale of original bonds or original certificates shall be deposited in the state treasury to the credit of the particular construction account for which said original bonds or original certificates were issued and shall be under the direct control and supervision of the state board of education and withdrawals from said construction accounts shall be made only upon warrants signed by the state comptroller, countersigned by the governor of the state, and drawn upon the state treasurer. Such warrants shall be issued by the comptroller only when the vouchers requesting such warrants are accompanied by the certificates of the state board of education to the effect that such withdrawals are proper expenditures for the cost of the particular construction account against which the requested warrant is to be drawn.

(5) The state board of administration shall annually determine the amounts necessary to meet the debt service requirements of all bonds or certificates administered by it pursuant to this section and shall certify to the state board of education said amounts needed. The state board of education, upon being satisfied that said amounts are correct, shall pay said amounts direct to the state board of administration for application by said state board of administration as provided under the terms of the resolutions authorizing the issuance of said bonds or certificates and as provided in §18 of Art. XII of the state constitution.

(6) The state board of administration may invest any sinking fund or funds administered pursuant to this section as provided in §18 of Art. XII of the state constitution upon request and in accord with the directions of the state board of education.

(7) The expenses of the state board of administration incident to the issuance and sale of any bonds or certificates issued under the provisions of §18 of Art. XII of the state constitution and under the provisions of this section shall be paid from the proceeds of the sale of the bonds or certificates or from the funds distributable to each county under the provisions of §18 (a) of Art. XII of the state constitution. All other expenses of the state board of administration for services rendered specifically for, or which are properly chargeable to the account of any bonds or certificates issued for and on behalf of any county board of public instruction under the provisions of §18 of Art. XII of the state constitution shall be paid from the funds distributable to each county under the provisions of §18 (a) of Art. XII of the state constitution; but general expenses of the state board of administration for services rendered all the counties alike shall be prorated among them and paid from the funds distributable to each county on the same basis as such funds are distributable under the provisions of §18 (a) of Art. XII of the state constitution.

(8) The provisions of this section contemplate that it will aid the state board of education and better serve the purposes contemplated by §18 of Art. XII of the state constitution and not be inconsistent therewith.

History.—§§1-8, ch. 28065, 1953.

236.602 Bonds payable from motor vehicle license tax funds; instruction units computed.—

(1) That whenever the state board of education shall issue bonds or certificates for and on behalf of any board of public instruction of any county, the aggregate number of instruction units in such county in any future school fiscal year, as authorized under the amendment contained in Art. XII, Sec. 18, of the state constitution, to the full extent necessary to pay all principal of and interest on, and reserves for, bonds or certificates issued for and on behalf of such county in any school fiscal year as the same shall become due and payable, shall be not less than the aggregate number of instruction units in such county for the school fiscal year preceding the school fiscal year in which such bonds or certificates are issued, computed in accordance with the statutes in force in the school fiscal year preceding the school fiscal year in which such bonds or certificates are issued.

(2) The provisions of this section are not intended to, and shall not, be applicable to or confer any rights on, any county to payments from said motor vehicle license taxes except to the full extent necessary to pay all principal of and interest on, and reserves for, bonds or certificates so issued by said state board of education for and on behalf of such counties, in each future school fiscal year as the same shall mature and become due; and except for such purpose, all payments of the amounts of said motor vehicle license taxes distributable under the provisions of Sec. 18, Art. XII of the state constitution shall continue to be made and distributed to such counties in the manner provided by said amendment and the general laws of Florida in force and effect at the time of such distributions.

History.—§§1, 2, ch. 20626, 1955.

236.61 Exceptional children; definition; requirements for participation.—The term "exceptional child" shall mean any educable child or youth whose physical functions or members are so impaired, as certified by a competent physician, that he cannot be adequately educated in the regular classes of the public schools or that he cannot be adequately educated in such classes without the provision of special facilities or services; and any other educable child or youth who, because of a physical, emotional or mental condition, has been certified by a competent specialist qualified under regulations of the state board to examine exceptional children, as unsuitable for enrollment in a regular class of the public schools or as unable to be adequately educated in the regular classes of the public schools without the provision of special educational facilities or services. Instruction units for exceptional children shall be computed as prescribed in §236.04, when the following requirements for participation have been met:

(1) Each county board which participates in this program shall submit annually to the state superintendent a plan outlining its proposed procedure for the provision of special educational services for exceptional children and no funds authorized herein may be allotted to any county until such plan has been approved in writing by the state superintendent in accordance with regulations of the state board.

(2) No child shall be given special services under the terms of this law as an exceptional child until he is properly classified as an exceptional child in keeping with the definition given above. A copy of the report certifying to the child's condition shall be kept on file in the office of the principal of the school in which the child is enrolled.

(3) In providing for the education of exceptional children the county superintendent, principals and teachers shall utilize the regular school facilities and adapt them to the needs of exceptional children wherever this is possible. No child shall be segregated and taught apart from normal children until a careful study of the child's case has been made and evidence obtained which indicates that segregation would be for the child's benefit or is necessary because of difficulties involved in teaching the child in a regular class.

(4) The principal of the school in which the child is taught shall keep a written record of the case history of each exceptional child showing the reason for the child's withdrawal from the regular class in the public school and his enrollment in or withdrawal from a special class for exceptional children and this record shall be available for inspection by school officials at any time.

History.—§4, ch. 20910, 1941; §37, ch. 23726, 1947.

236.62 Exceptional children; requirements for teachers.—No teacher shall be employed to teach exceptional children under the provisions of this law until such teacher has been duly certificated as a teacher of exceptional children under the regulations of the state board, which is hereby directed to develop plans for the proper education of teachers of exceptional children and to prescribe and issue such standards and regulations as may be necessary and reasonable for certificating teachers and supervisors for exceptional children.

History.—§5, ch. 20910, 1941, §38, ch. 23726, 1947.

236.70 State junior college minimum foundation program fund.—There is hereby established, as a part of the county school fund authorized by §9, Art. XII of the state constitution, a state junior college minimum foundation program fund to be known as the junior college minimum foundation program fund, which shall be used to assist county boards in maintaining the minimum foundation program for junior colleges in the county as authorized by law. This fund shall comprise all appropriations made by the legislature for the support of the junior college minimum foundation program and shall be apportioned and distributed to the county school fund of the several counties of the state based upon the principles of classification and procedures declared by law. The junior college minimum foundation program is the program to be financed in each junior college with the assistance of the minimum foundation program fund as hereinafter provided.

History.—§7, ch. 63-495.

236.71 Requirements for participation in junior college minimum foundation program fund.—Each county which participates in the junior college minimum foundation program fund, as hereinafter prescribed, shall provide evidence of its effort to maintain an adequate junior college program which shall meet the minimum standards prescribed by the state board in accordance with §230.47(5).

History.—§7, ch. 63-495.

236.72 State superintendent to determine units for junior colleges.—The state superintendent shall determine from reports submitted as prescribed by regulations of the state board by county superintendents and presidents of junior colleges the average daily attendance of students, and the instructional personnel employed, in the junior colleges in counties which meet the requirements of law for operating a junior college. On the basis of said reports the state superintendent shall determine the number of instruction units in each junior college as hereinafter prescribed. If in any junior college the average daily attendance of pupils for the first two months of any academic year is more than five per cent greater than the average daily attendance in the junior college during the first two months of the preceding academic year, the state superintendent shall report the facts to the state board which shall have the authority to authorize an increase in the amount of funds allocated from the junior college minimum foundation program fund for that junior college by the percentage of increase which is in excess of five per cent.

History.—§7, ch. 63-495.

236.73 Procedure for determining number of instruction units for junior colleges.—The number of instruction units for instructional personnel for junior colleges in counties which meet the requirements of law for operating a junior college, shall be determined from the average daily attendance in the junior college, provided that attendance may not be counted more than once in determining instruction units. Instruction units for junior colleges shall be computed separately from other units in the county as follows:

(1) One unit for each twelve students in average daily attendance at a junior college for the first four hundred twenty students, and one unit for each fifteen students in average daily attendance for all over four hundred twenty students. Average daily attendance at a junior college shall be defined by regulations of the state board.

(2) For each eight instruction units in a junior college: One instruction unit or proportionate fraction of a unit shall be allowed for administrative and special instructional services when used in accordance with regulations prescribed by the state board.

(3) For each twenty instruction units: One instruction unit or proportionate fraction of a unit shall be allowed for student personnel services when used in accordance with regulations prescribed by the state board.

(4) For the fiscal year 1963-64 only, each county in which a junior college is located shall be entitled to one junior college president unit for each junior college approved by the state board. For each president unit there shall be allocated as a part of the junior college foundation program the sum of seven thousand five hundred dollars.

History.—§7, ch. 63-495.

236.74 Procedure for determining annual apportionment to each county for junior colleges.—The procedure for determining the annual apportionment from the junior college minimum foundation program fund to each county authorized to operate a junior college under the provisions of §230.46 shall be as follows:

(1) DETERMINING TRAINING RANKS OF INSTRUCTIONAL PERSONNEL AND TRAINING LEVEL OF INSTRUCTION UNITS.—The training ranks of instructional personnel and the training level of instruction units of junior colleges shall be determined by the state superintendent in the manner provided in §236.07(1), (2), provided that ranks for personnel engaged in technical education may be established on the basis of qualifications which are equivalent to a degree as prescribed by regulations of the state board.

(2) DETERMINING THE AMOUNT TO BE INCLUDED FOR INSTRUCTIONAL SALARIES.—

(a) Multiply the number of instruction units in Rank I by five thousand two hundred dollars, in Rank II by four thousand six hundred dollars, in Rank III by four thousand one hundred fifty dollars, and in Rank IV by thirty-two hundred dollars.

(b) For each instruction unit sustained by instructional personnel under continuing contracts in Ranks I, II, and III there shall be added three hundred dollars; and for each instruction unit sustained by instructional personnel under continuing contract in Ranks I, II, and III who have completed ten years of continuous efficient teaching service in Florida public schools as aforesaid there shall be added three hundred dollars in addition to the above; provided, for any county, which by a local law a tenure program is provided in lieu of continuing contracts, the state board of education shall by regulations provide for the recognition and application of comparable tenure requirements in lieu of the requirements herein relating to continuing contracts.

(c) The amounts included for salaries for administrative and special instructional personnel and student personnel services in each junior college shall be increased by up to twenty per cent when such money is used to pay the salaries of personnel who are employed, pursuant to regulations of the state board, beyond a ten month contract period.

These amounts are to be used only for apportionment purposes and are not to be construed as a state salary schedule. The sum of these products shall be the total amount included in the junior college minimum foundation program for instructional salaries, which shall not exceed the amount paid as salaries in any case.

(3) DETERMINING THE AMOUNT FOR CURRENT EXPENSES OTHER THAN INSTRUCTIONAL SALARIES AND TRANSPORTATION.—Multiply the number of instruction units for junior colleges determined for each county according to law by eight hundred fifty dollars, and beginning in 1964-65 add seventeen thousand five hundred dollars for administrative expenses including salaries of the first approved junior college center in each county, and add ten thousand dollars for administrative expenses including salaries of each additional center approved by the state board of education; and the sum of these shall be the amount included for current expenses other than instructional salaries and transportation for the junior college program in each county where a junior college is operated; provided that all of the money provided hereunder is used exclusively for junior colleges; and, provided further, that the state board shall establish minimum standards to be met by county boards in expending these funds for junior colleges.

(4) DETERMINING THE AMOUNT TO BE INCLUDED FOR CAPITAL OUTLAY AND DEBT SERVICE.—The amount included in the junior college minimum foundation program for capital outlay and debt service shall be as determined and provided in §18, Art. XII of the state constitution and state board of education regulations pertaining thereto.

(5) DETERMINING THE TOTAL CALCULATED COST OF THE JUNIOR COLLEGE MINIMUM FOUNDATION PROGRAM.—The total calculated cost of the minimum foundation program for each junior college shall be the sum of the amounts included in the junior college minimum foundation program for instructional salaries, current expenses other than instructional salaries and transportation, and capital outlay and debt service as set forth above.

(6) DETERMINING THE MINIMUM FINANCIAL EFFORT IN EACH FISCAL YEAR REQUIRED OF EACH PARTICIPATING COUNTY FOR THE JUNIOR COLLEGE MINIMUM FOUNDATION PROGRAM.—The amount which each county approved by the state board to operate a junior college or to participate in the support of a junior college shall provide toward the cost of the junior college minimum foundation program is that county's per cent of the financial ability of the state as determined by an index of relative tax-paying ability prescribed by law multiplied by five per cent of ninety-five per cent of the calculated yield of six mills of taxes levied on the nonexempt assessed valuation of the state subject to the provisions of §236.071; provided that the required amount shall be subject to the limitation in §230.48.

(7) DETERMINING THE ALLOCATION FROM STATE FUNDS.—The total allocation to each junior college from the junior college minimum foundation program fund shall be the total calculated cost of the minimum foundation program for that junior college as determined in subsection (5), less the minimum financial effort required as determined in subsection (6); provided, however, that from this amount shall be deducted in the succeeding fiscal year

(a) In such junior colleges as fail to pay instructional personnel at least the amount included in the minimum foundation program for instructional salaries, the difference between the amount included in the minimum foundation program for instructional salaries and the amount actually paid to instructors in such junior colleges; and

(b) Any unused portion of the amount included in the junior college minimum foundation program for instruction units of any type or classification.

History.—§7, ch. 63-495.

237.01 Uniform records and accounts.—The financial records and accounts of each county board shall be kept by the county superintendent on the forms and under regulations prescribed by the state board for the uniform system of financial records and accounts for the schools of the state. This system shall require that all operating expenses be charged to the fiscal year in which they were incurred. These accounts shall be kept accurately and balanced, summarized, and reconciled with the accounts of the county school depository or depositories at least once each month by the time of the first regular board meeting of that month, a copy of the summary statement being sent to the state superintendent on forms prescribed by the state board. The county superintendent shall recommend to the county board such clerical assistants as are necessary for the proper keeping of the uniform system of financial records and accounts, and it shall be the duty of the county board to make adequate appropriation for such clerical assistance. If, in the judgment of the county superintendent, the clerical assistance provided, or the appropriation in the budget for clerical assistance, is inadequate, he shall certify the facts to the state superintendent, and the state superintendent, if investigation discloses the clerical assistance to be inadequate, may request the county board to incorporate in the budget the amount necessary to provide the services needed.

History.—§1059, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(378).

237.02 Expenditures.—Expenditures shall be limited to the amount budgeted under the classification of accounts provided for each fund, and to the total amount of the budget, after the same have been amended as prescribed by law. Before the first meeting of the county board each month, the county superintendent shall check actual receipts and expenditures against budgeted receipts and expenditures, and recommend to the county board such action as may be necessary to keep expenditures within the budgeted income during the fiscal year. The county board shall endeavor to obtain maximum value for all expenditures and shall take such steps as are necessary to get the lowest prices for materials which are best adapted to the needs. The county board shall also assume responsibility for seeing that a balanced school program is maintained by budgeting and approving expenditures for functions in terms of relative importance and as prescribed by law. The following procedure shall be observed in incurring liabilities against the school funds.

(1) PURCHASES.—The plan for making purchases in any county shall be approved by the county board. Purchases of any item costing more than three hundred dollars must first be specifically authorized by the county board. The county superintendent may be authorized to make purchases or to approve purchases of a business assistant functioning under his direction of small items where the total amount of the purchase does not exceed an amount prescribed by the county board. No person, unless authorized to do so under regulations of the county board, may make any purchase involving the use of school funds; no expenditures for any such unauthorized purchase shall be approved by the county board. Before making any purchase which he is authorized by the county board to make or before recommending any purchase to the board, the county superintendent shall, insofar as possible, propose standards and specifications which are to be prescribed for materials to be purchased. He shall see that all materials thus purchased conform to those standards and specifications, and shall take such other steps as are necessary to see that the maximum value is being received for any money expended.

(2) BIDS.—Bids shall be requested from three or more sources by the county board for any authorized purchase costing more than three hundred dollars. The county board shall have the authority to reject any or all bids and request new bids. In the acceptance of bids, the county board shall accept the lowest and best bid. Provided that the state board of education may, by regulation, provide for alternative procedures for bidding or purchasing in cases where the character of the item requested renders competitive bidding impractical.

(3) REQUISITIONS.—In so far as practicable, all purchases shall be based on requisitions. Within limits prescribed by the county board, the county superintendent shall be authorized to approve requisitions under regulations of the county board; provided, that in so doing he shall certify that funds to cover the expenditures which would be required by the requisitions are authorized by the budget and have not been encumbered.

(4) EXPENDITURES FROM DISTRICT CURRENT SCHOOL FUNDS.—Expenditures from district current school funds within the amount authorized in the budget shall be made by authority of the county board. Requisitions for expenditures against these funds may be filed by the supervising principal if there be such, or in case there be no supervising principal, then by the principals of the schools concerned. These requisitions may be approved by the county superintendent, subject to regulations of the county board, when district current school funds to cover the expenditures are authorized in the budget and have not been encumbered.

(5) EXPENDITURES FROM COUNTY AND OTHER FUNDS.—Expenditures from county and other funds available for the public school program of any county shall be authorized by the county board in accordance with procedures herein prescribed.

(6) VOUCHERS.—Each statement of an account for purchase of materials and supplies or services made under regulations of the county board shall be known as a voucher and shall be numbered and filed until paid. When a voucher has been approved by the county board, as provided herein, it shall be entered upon the records and charged against the proper account classification. When a voucher has been paid, the county superintendent shall mark it with the date, number and amount of the warrant, and the fund from which drawn, and shall make the proper entries in the records and thereafter file the voucher in numerical order. The records of the county board shall be held open, if necessary, for two weeks after June thirtieth of any year to permit the approving and recording of all expenditures incurred before the close of the school year. All vouchers not paid during the year in which they were incurred shall, when paid, be charged to the appropriation in the ensuing year's budget provided for indebtedness incurred during the previous year. No voucher shall be approved or paid nor any warrant drawn to pay any voucher unless a statement of the account shall bear the written or initialed approval of the county superintendent certifying that the purchase has been properly authorized by the board, that the account is correct, due, and unpaid, and that funds to cover the expenditure are authorized in the budget and have not been encumbered. The county superintendent shall recommend payments from school funds only after he has exercised due diligence in assuring himself that such payments are lawful, are provided for in the budget, are reasonable, and are for goods received in good order or for services properly rendered and for which payment has not been made.

(7) PAYROLL VOUCHERS.—Payroll vouchers may be made up, approved, and ordered paid by the county board during and before the end of the period for which they are made; provided, that if a less amount be due at the end of the period, only the amount due may be paid or an adjustment of the amount due shall be made on the next payroll.

(8) STATEMENT OF ACCOUNT APPROVED IN OPEN MEETING.—The county board shall authorize all expenditures and shall approve all vouchers. No voucher shall be approved for payment by the county board except in open meeting of the board. Warrants shall be drawn only in payment of vouchers approved as prescribed herein, and each warrant drawn shall be listed in a supplementary minute book with proper reference thereto in a summary form in the regular minute book. The county board may authorize the county superintendent and chairman of the county board to pay approved vouchers which become payable before the next meeting date. At the next meeting the county superintendent shall present a list of warrants paid since the last meeting signed by him and the chairman, giving all detailed and necessary information, to be entered in the minutes and in the supplementary minutes as herein prescribed.

(9) INTERNAL FUNDS.—The county board shall be responsible for the administration and control of all local school funds derived by any school, including junior colleges, from all activities including the school lunch program, or any other source, and shall prescribe the principles and procedures to be followed in administering these funds consistent with regulations adopted by the state board of education.

The state board of education shall adopt regulations governing the procedures for the handling of the receipt, expenditure, deposit and disbursement of internal funds, which regulations do not necessarily have to comply with the requirements set forth in §237.02(1)-(8).

(10) POOL PURCHASES.—The counties may jointly pool their requirements and resources and designate one county board, or the state department of education, to act as agent for all in the requisitioning, bidding, and purchasing of materials or supplies. Each county participating in such a pool purchase shall pay its pro rata cost to the county designated as the agent county and each county shall show only the net cost of such purchases in its annual report. The agent county shall in each case furnish each cooperating county a statement signed by the superintendent and chairman of the county board certifying that the purchase complied with all applicable laws and regulations. If the state department of education is designated as the agent, purchases shall be made in accordance with the requirements of the state purchasing commission and such purchases shall be deemed to satisfy the legal requirements of each participating county.

(11) FINANCING COOPERATIVE PROJECTS OR ACTIVITIES.—When any county board or one or more county boards engage in any cooperative projects or activity, as authorized under §230.23(4)(m), each county board may provide its portion of the total financial cost by any one or more of the following methods as may be agreed upon by the co-operating counties:

(a) The assignment of personnel to perform duties in connection with the project or activity.

(b) The direct expenditure of funds for the purchase of supplies or equipment required by the project or activity.

(c) The making of payments under contract to any cooperating governmental agency or to a nonprofit corporation; such payments to be considered as payment for contractual services performed or to be performed by the receiving agency or nonprofit corporation. The receiving county shall budget the contract receipts as income and shall show the gross expenditures in the annual financial report. The title to any equipment purchased by the agency or nonprofit corporation shall be in the name of such receiving agency or nonprofit corporation.

cf.—§230.43 Recommendation of expenditures by trustees.

237.03 Transfer of funds restricted.—No transfer from current funds for the maintenance and support of schools shall be made to any other fund without written permission of the state superintendent. No transfer shall be made from the district bond interest and sinking fund, or from the bond construction fund, except transfers of balances authorized by law.

History.—§1061, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(380).

237.04 Petty cash funds.—The county superintendent may be allowed, not to exceed one hundred dollars, and the principal of the school, not to exceed fifty dollars as a petty cash fund from which to make needed expenditures for school purposes in emergencies. Each petty cash fund established shall be managed by and charged to a single designated person. The funds shall be kept separate from all other funds and itemized receipts shall be taken for each expenditure. A statement of expenditures shall be made, from time to time and at the end of each year, to the county board, and upon their approval, shall be entered in the records as other vouchers are entered. The county board shall reimburse the funds as often as it deems necessary. The funds shall be used for regular and legal expense of the schools, and no part of any such fund may be loaned or advanced against the salary of an employee.

History.—§1062, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(381); §19, ch. 63-376.

237.05 Budget system established.—For the purpose of promoting economy and efficiency in the financial operations of the public schools and for the purpose of keeping all school expenditures within the estimated receipts and balances, as provided herein, there is established a budget system for the control of the finances of county boards.

History.—§1063, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(382).

237.06 Form of annual budget required.—An annual budget is required to be prepared and approved by the county board of each county and submitted to the state superintendent for examination on or before August first of each year, as hereinafter provided. Such annual budget shall be prepared and submitted on forms and in accordance with regulations prescribed by the state board. The annual budget submitted by each county board shall, in so far as practicable, be consistent with and contribute to the development of a long-time planned school program for the county.

History.—§1064, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(383).
cf.—§230.23 Duties of county board.

237.07 Estimate of allotment of state funds.—On or before June fifteenth of each year, the state superintendent shall certify to each county superintendent the estimated number of instruction units upon which the state funds shall be allotted to his county during the next year. When official reports on attendance and on salaries to be paid teachers have been received from all county superintendents, and the number of instruction units to be used for the ensuing year has been determined, any adjustments in the estimated allotment to any county shall promptly be reported to the county superintendent of that county by the state superintendent.

History.—§1065, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(384).

237.08 Estimate of assessor of taxes.—On or before the first Monday in July the assessor of each county shall certify to the county superintendent his estimate of the total valuation reasonably to be expected by him to be assessed on the current year's tax roll for nonexempt property, for homestead property, and for tax delinquent property on which certificates are held by the state, in each school district, separately, and in the entire county. If, after the certification of his estimates, and before equalization of the tax roll, it shall appear to the assessor of taxes that said estimates, or any of them, were in error by ten per cent or more, he shall immediately certify his revised estimate to the county superintendent, and such revised estimate shall be substituted for the original estimate at any time before the final adoption of the budget. Immediately upon the equalization of the tax roll as provided by law, the county assessor of taxes shall certify to the county board the actual assessed valuation of the property in the county as prescribed above.

237.09 County superintendent to prepare tentative budget.—On or before July fifteenth of each year, the county superintendent of each county, after tentatively ascertaining the policies of the county board regarding the school program and the budget for the ensuing year, and after consulting with the principals of the various schools or with supervising principals to determine needs, shall prepare as accurately as possible an estimate of the cost of the program including all obligations to be met and necessary reserves, the balances and income to be available, and the tax levies needed during the next ensuing fiscal year, which estimates shall be prepared in proper form to constitute the tentative budget for the county as prescribed below.

This tentative budget shall provide, in so far as practicable, for a uniform term for all schools in the county based on an equitable and equalizing apportionment of state and county school funds, and shall be balanced before it is submitted to the county board; that is, the estimate of expenditures to be made during the year, including obligations against the fund, plus reserves, shall not exceed the estimate of income plus the balance expected to be available at the beginning of the year. This tentative budget shall be prepared as follows:

(1) ESTIMATE OF EXPENDITURES AND RESERVES.—The county superintendent shall prepare an itemized list of the functions to be performed, the services to be rendered, and the obligations to be met by and for the county school system, and, on the basis of that list, shall prepare the following estimates of expenditures to be incurred during the next fiscal year; provided, that in the district current school fund budgets and in the general county budget for the support and maintenance of the schools, he may propose a reserve for contingencies which shall not exceed five per cent of the total budget; and, provided further, that in these same budgets he may propose a reserve of not exceeding twenty per cent of the taxes estimated for the budget, which reserve, if authorized, shall be set aside as a "cash balance to be carried over" for the purpose of paying expenses for the period in the next succeeding fiscal year between July first and November thirtieth of such year—the time when taxes to be levied for the succeeding year's expenses will begin to be available:

(a) For district current school funds in each school district in the county.—An estimate of the expenditures that will need to be incurred for the support and maintenance of the schools by the district current school fund, and for indebtedness of the district current school fund; also, of the reserve for contingencies and of the balance, as hereinbefore provided, which should be carried forward at the end of the year.

(b) For the county general school fund.—An estimate of the expenditures which will need to be incurred for the support and maintenance of the schools and for the legal indebtedness of the fund; also, of the reserve for contingencies and of the balance in the county current school fund which should be carried forward at the close of the year as hereinbefore provided.

(c) For the district bond interest and sinking fund of each district.—For each school district, the bond principal and interest maturing in the year for which the budget is made shall be determined and estimates shall be made for expenses connected with the payment of such bonds and coupons, commissions of the tax collector, and of the assessor of taxes, if such commissions are authorized by law, and expenses of refund operations, if any are contemplated. If any interest or serial bonds are payable between the end of the fiscal year for which the budget is made and November thirtieth of the succeeding year, or before the date on which a sufficient amount of the succeeding year's taxes may reasonably be expected to be available, a sufficient "cash balance to be carried over" shall be reserved as provided hereinabove, to pay such principal and interest. In any year, more than one year before the fiscal maturity of the bonds of a district, an additional reserve may be provided not to exceed the current year's principal and interest requirements. For serial bonds maturing at intervals greater than one year, reserves for "sinking funds" shall be calculated on a straight-line basis for such intervals. Sinking funds for bonds not maturing serially shall be provided by "reserve for sinking funds" calculated on a straight-line basis.

(d) For the district bond construction fund.—For each school district an estimate of the cost of each proposed project shall be made and of any other expenditures to be incurred by the district bond construction fund; provided, that a reserve of not exceeding ten per cent of the total budget of this fund may be proposed for contingencies.

(2) ESTIMATE OF BALANCES ON HAND, INCOME, AND TAX LEVIES NEEDED.—The county superintendent shall determine the balances on hand and shall prepare an estimate of receipts reasonably to be expected by him to be available from all sources to meet the cost of the program for the county school system. These estimates shall not include estimated receipts from tax redemptions which are to be omitted to constitute a reserve for noncollection of taxes unless the receipts from tax redemptions can reasonably be expected to exceed the amount of uncollected taxes, in which case the estimated amount of excess only shall be included. The estimates of receipts from taxes are to be based on the estimate of the assessor, as hereinbefore prescribed, and on anticipated collection of ninety-five per cent of the taxes to be assessed. This estimate shall be prepared as follows:

(a) For the district current school fund in each school district in the county.—An estimate of the income anticipated from the tax levy necessary to aid in maintaining the minimum term adopted for the county, from such additional millage as shall have been authorized by the voters of any district, of the income from all other district sources, and of the balance on hand.

(b) For the county general school fund.—An estimate of the balance in the county general school fund which can reasonably be expected to be on hand, the estimate of the allotment of state and federal funds to which the county is entitled during the year as certified by the state superintendent, an estimate of the amount needed from county school taxes and of the amount to be available from all other county general school fund sources; also an estimate of the county school tax millage levy necessary to produce the amount needed.

(c) For the district bond interest and sinking fund of each district.—For each school district an estimate of the balance on hand, of the amount available from tax sources and from all other sources; also an estimate of the tax levy to be made to meet the obligations of the district bond interest and sinking fund and to provide for the reserve authorized.

(d) For the district bond construction fund.—An estimate of the proceeds from sale of bonds, insurance, sale of property, and other funds available or to be available in the district bond construction fund.

(3) TENTATIVE BUDGET FOR SCHOOL DISTRICT.—The estimates of expenditures, reserves, balances, and income of the district current school fund prepared as prescribed in subsections (1)(a) and (2)(a) above shall constitute the tentative budget. This tentative budget shall be submitted to the trustees by the county superintendent for review before it is submitted to the county board; provided, that changes involving expenditures in excess of the anticipated receipts for the district, or those in conflict with state board or county board regulations, may not be made.

(4) TENTATIVE CONSOLIDATED BUDGET FOR THE COUNTY.—After preparing the tentative budget for the district current school fund, the county superintendent shall add the estimates of expenditures and reserves in the district current school fund to the estimates of expenditures to be made from the county general school fund, and shall combine the estimate of income and balances from the district current school fund with the estimate of income from the county general school fund and the balance in that fund to arrive at the tentative budget for the maintenance and support of schools in the county. If, when a tentative budget has been prepared in this form, the proposed expenditures, plus reserves, exceed the estimated income, plus balances, the proposed tax levy for the general fund shall be increased, if that is possible without exceeding the maximum of ten mills, or, if such increase is not possible, the appropriations for expenditures or the reserves shall be reduced. This tentative budget for the county shall comprise and show, separately:

(a) The budget for the support and maintenance of the schools.—This budget shall include the estimate of the expenditures and of the income, classified under appropriate headings, for the current school program of the county; also, the estimates of reserves and balances and of the proposed county tax levy and of the district current tax. In counties organizing or operating a public junior college, under the provisions of §§230.46, 230.47 and 236.071, the estimates for such college shall be itemized separately from estimates for other schools and in accordance with the provisions of §237.06.

(b) District bond interest and sinking fund budget.—This budget shall include the obligations to be met and the cash balance to be carried over as a reserve at the end of the year, as provided above, the estimated balance on hand at the beginning of the year, also the estimated receipts and the tax levies proposed in the district bond interest and sinking fund of each school district. The tax levy proposed in each district shall be adequate, together with the cash balance in the fund, to provide receipts needed to meet all obligations of the fund during the year, as hereinabove provided.

(c) District bond construction fund budget.—This budget shall include the estimated cost of projects to be undertaken during the year; also, the estimates of the cash balance on hand and of the receipts from various sources as stated above.

(d) Capital outlay program.—This report shall include a list of the capital outlay projects to be undertaken during the year, giving the location, size, type, and cost of each project according to funds to be used in meeting the cost.

(e) Other parts.—The budget shall include such other parts or items as are prescribed under regulations of the state board.

History.—§1067, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(386); (4)(a) §3, ch. 28068, 1953; (3), (4)(a) §88, ch. 29764, 1955; §19, ch. 57-249; (3) §17, ch. 61-288.

237.10 County superintendent to submit tentative consolidated budget to county board.

—The county superintendent of each county shall prepare a tentative budget in such form and separate parts as prescribed above, and submit this budget to the county board on or before July fifteenth of each year. The county superintendent shall attach to the tentative budget his certificate that the budget has been properly prepared, that his estimates contained therein are made according to his best information, knowledge, judgment, and belief, and that the figures obtained from the estimates of other officers, as prescribed, are correctly represented according to such estimates.

History.—§1068, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(387).

237.11 County board to approve budget.

On or before August first of each year, the county board of each county shall receive and examine the tentative budget prepared and submitted by the county superintendent, as prescribed above, and shall require such changes to be made in keeping with the purposes of the school code as may be to the best interest of the school program in the county; provided, that the county board may not require any changes in the county superintendent's estimates of receipts except as follows:

(1) When and if a revised statement shall have been received from the state superintendent, the estimate of state funds contained in the budget shall be changed accordingly.

(2) When and if a revised estimate of assessed valuation, or a certificate of the equalized assessed valuation shall be received from the assessor of taxes before the budget is finally adopted, the estimated receipts from taxes assessed shall be changed accordingly.

(3) The proposed levy of county school taxes may be changed to be not less than three mills or not more than ten mills on the dollar on taxable property in the county.

(4) Errors and omissions shall be corrected by the county board. When and if such change is made, the estimate of receipts shall be required to be changed accordingly.

The county board shall determine, within prescribed limits, the extent of the reserves to be allotted for contingencies, and the cash balance to be carried forward at the end of the year. If the county board shall require any changes to be made in receipts, in the reserves for contingencies, or in the cash balance to be carried forward at the end of the year, it shall also require necessary changes to be made in the appropriations for expenditures so that the budget, as changed, will not contain appropriations for expenditures and reserves in excess of, or less than, estimated receipts and balances.

History.—§1069, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(388).

237.12 Public hearings; budgets to be submitted to state superintendent.—On or before August 1 of each year, the county board of each county having tentatively approved each separate part of the budget and the entire budget for the schools of the county, shall cause a summary of the tentative budgets, including the proposed millage levies as prescribed by the state board, to be advertised one time in a newspaper of general circulation published in the county, or by posting at the courthouse door if there be no such newspaper, and the advertisement shall state that the county board shall meet on a day fixed in the advertisement not earlier than one week and not later than two weeks from the date of the advertising but before August 1 for the purpose of a public hearing concerning the tentatively approved budgets. The county board shall meet upon the date fixed in the advertisement for the public hearing and from day to day thereafter if it deems it necessary for the purpose of holding further public hearings and making whatever revisions in the budget it may deem necessary. The county board shall then approve each separate part of the budget and the entire budget for the county for the current fiscal year and shall require the county superintendent to transmit forthwith two copies of the approved budget, prepared in such form and separate parts as required to the state superintendent for approval as prescribed by law. Each copy of each separate part of the budget so transmitted shall be certified by the chairman of the county board and by the county superintendent as a true and correct copy of the budget as adopted by the county board following the public hearing or hearings.

History.—§1070, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(389); §8, ch. 22839, 1945.

237.13 State board to prescribe regulations and procedures for examining and approving budgets and for reserves.—It shall be the duty of the state board to prescribe such regulations as are necessary to guide the state superintendent in examining and preparing reports on all budgets submitted by county boards and to require that such budgets be examined and that a written report on the result of such an examination be submitted to each county superintendent for transmission to the county board of that county within thirty days of the receipt of the budget as prescribed below; provided, that the state board shall also have authority to prescribe regulations in accordance with which county boards may be authorized to provide in their budgets for school building and bus reserve funds, to invest such funds, and to carry forward such reserves in their budgets from year to year in such amounts and for such periods of time as are authorized by the state board regulations; such reserves as authorized shall be in addition to those authorized in §237.09.

History.—§1071, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(390); §9, ch. 22839, 1945.

237.14 State superintendent to examine budgets and make reports.—The state superintendent shall examine or have examined and make a report, in accordance with the regulations of the state board, on the budget from each county in the state. This examination shall be made and the report completed within thirty days of the receipt of the budget, and the report shall be transmitted to the county board of each county through the county superintendent. In this report, the state superintendent shall, as hereinafter prescribed, either (1) require certain changes to be made, (2) suggest that certain changes be made, or (3) certify that the budget is satisfactory and shall become official from the date of the report.

History.—§1072, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(391).

237.15 State superintendent shall require changes if budget improperly prepared.—If the budget of any county has been improperly prepared or fails to meet conditions prescribed below, the state superintendent shall incorporate in his report the respects in which the budget is inadequate and shall require that the budget be changed in those respects. If any changes are required, as prescribed below, the county board shall authorize such changes to be made and shall resubmit the budget, with the corrections, within fifteen days of the date of the report from the state superintendent.

(1) BUDGET MUST BE PROPERLY PREPARED.—If it is found that the budget of any county has not been properly prepared, the county superintendent shall be required to prepare the budget in proper form, such revised budget to be approved by the county board and to be submitted to the state superintendent for examination.

(2) ESTIMATED RECEIPTS FROM STATE FUNDS MUST BE CORRECT.—If at any time before the budget becomes official, the estimated allotment of state funds to any county is revised more than five hundred dollars after the number of instruction units allotted the county has been officially determined, the budget shall be required to be revised to include the correct figure for the state allotment and to include any necessary corrections in the appropriations for instructional salaries or transportation.

(3) COUNTY TAX LEVY MUST BE ADEQUATE.—If the county tax levy as proposed is less than the maximum of ten mills of ad valorem tax, authorized under §8, Art. XII of the constitution, and is not adequate to assure the proper maintenance and support of the public schools of such county for a term of at least one hundred eighty days during the ensuing year, the state superintendent shall certify to the county board through the county superintendent the levy which is required; provided, such levy does not exceed ten mills, and the county board shall amend its proposed budget and require the proper levy to be made in accordance with the direction of the state superintendent.

(4) ESTIMATED INCOME PLUS BALANCES MUST EQUAL PROPOSED EXPENDITURES PLUS RESERVES.—If the proposed expenditures, plus reserves, do not equal the estimated income, plus balances, the budget shall be required to be revised and corrected.

(5) PROPOSED EXPENDITURES MUST

BE LEGAL.—If the budget contains improper or illegal appropriations, or contains other than harmless improprieties in form of preparation, it shall be revised and corrected.

(6) INSTRUCTIONAL SALARIES MUST CONSTITUTE PROPER PROPORTION OF TOTAL BUDGET.—If, in any county, the amount budgeted for instructional salaries is less than the amount allotted to the county for instructional salaries from state funds, or than the amount allotted in the salary schedule adopted by the county board, the budget shall be required to be revised to provide for more adequate salaries.

History.—§1073, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(392); (3) §89, ch. 29764, 1955.

237.16 State superintendent to recommend changes.—In addition to the foregoing, the state superintendent shall incorporate in his report on the budget for each county, recommendations concerning any changes which in his opinion should be made to improve the school program in the county. If the report of the state superintendent recommends any changes, it shall become the duty of the county board, either to revise and adopt the budget in accordance with recommendations of the state superintendent, or to adopt the budget without complying with any one or all of such recommendations and to transmit to the state superintendent, through the county superintendent, within thirty days of the receipt of the report, a written statement giving, for each suggested change which is not adopted, the reason for preferring to follow the budget as prepared rather than to make the change recommended, in which case such written statement shall be adopted in a meeting of the board and entered in the minutes of the board together with the recommendations of the state superintendent.

History.—§1074, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(393).

237.17 When budget becomes official.—The budget of any county shall be considered as finally adopted and as official, and shall regulate the expenditures of the county board, when (1) such budget has been approved by the state superintendent as hereinabove prescribed, (2) when, within thirty days from the date the budget has been received by the state superintendent, no report or recommendations have been prepared by the state superintendent, or (3) when the county board has filed with the state superintendent a statement as hereinbefore prescribed explaining why any recommended changes can not be made. The state superintendent shall then make his certificate upon each copy of the budget, attesting his approval, or that the budget has become official without his approval, as hereinabove prescribed. The certificate of the state superintendent shall give the date upon which the budget became finally official and effective. One copy of the budget with such certificate shall be sent to the county superintendent, who shall thereupon record such certificate and budget in the minute book of the county board, and the other copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the state superintendent. Upon the execution of the said certificate, either of the copies of the budget certified by the state superintendent shall be original evidence of the budget or of any of its provisions.

237.18 Levying of taxes.—Upon the final adoption of the budget, and upon receipt of the certificate of the assessor of taxes giving the assessed valuation of the county and of each of the school districts, the county board shall determine by resolution the amounts necessary to be raised for the county current school fund, and for each district bond interest and sinking fund and the millage necessary to be levied for each such fund, and shall also show in said resolution the millage voted by each school district for the district current school fund. A certified copy of said resolution shall thereupon be filed with the board of county commissioners and the board of county commissioners shall thereupon order the assessor to assess the several millages certified by the county board against the taxable property in the county and the taxable property of the several school districts. The assessor shall then assess the taxes as ordered by the board of county commissioners and the collector shall collect said taxes and pay over the same promptly as collected to the county school depository or depositories to be used as provided by law; provided, that all taxes authorized herein shall be assessed and collected on railroad, street railroad, sleeping car, parlor car, and telegraph company property in the manner now provided by law.

The county board shall determine the millage to be levied for the county general school fund and the district bond interest and sinking funds by dividing the applicable assessed valuation, as finally certified by the assessor after equalization, into the amount budgeted to be received from taxes before five per cent is deducted, using the nearest one-quarter of a mill or other fraction or decimal ordinarily used in the county; provided, that if the assessed valuations are not equalized until after the final adoption of the budget, and it is thereupon determined that the legal millage will not be sufficient to produce the amount estimated from taxes for the budget of any fund, the budget will be valid, notwithstanding the deficiency of taxes; provided further, that not less than three mills, nor more than ten mills, may be levied for the county current school fund; and, provided further, that not more than ten mills may be levied for the district current school fund of any district.

237.19 Result of final adoption of budget.—

(1) The budget when finally adopted shall give the appropriations and reserves therein the force and effect of fixed appropriations and reserves and the same shall not be altered or amended or exceeded except as authorized herein; provided, that should the actual receipts during any year be less than budgeted receipts, and any obligations are thereby incurred which cannot be met before the close of the year, such obligations shall be included in the budget for the next year as an appropriation for the payment of indebtedness of the previous year and shall be payable out of the first funds available for that purpose; and provided, further, that in the event any suit is brought, wherein the relief sought would require any change or alteration in any part of the official budget, or if brought before the budget becomes official, would require a change in the expenditures as budgeted for the preceding year, the state superintendent shall be made a party to said suit; and if said suit be instituted without the state superintendent being named a party thereto, the same shall abate, and the court, of its own motion, or on motion of any interested party, shall enter an order staying the cause until such time as the state superintendent is made a party thereto; and if the state superintendent is not made a party thereto within a reasonable period, said suit shall be dismissed, either on the court's own motion or motion of any interested party.

(2) The estimates contained in the official budget prepared as required by the school code shall be ample lawful authority for the appropriation, reservation, and expenditure of the total amount of receipts estimated in the budget to be available; provided, that any part of the reserve adopted for contingencies, as provided above, may be appropriated at any time during the year for any lawful expense of the fund by amendment of the budget, with the approval of the state superintendent, thereby establishing an appropriation or increasing the original appropriation for such purposes. Any receipts to any fund in excess of the total budgeted for receipts shall be used to increase the reserve for contingencies and may be appropriated in like manner by amendment of the budget. No part of any reserve adopted by the county board and included in the budget of any fund except interest and sinking funds and funds for capital outlay as a reserve for "cash balance to be carried over" shall be spent during the year in which it is budgeted, but if received shall be carried over to provide funds for the early months of the succeeding school year before revenues for the year are actually available.

History.—§1077, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(396); §12, ch. 21989, 1943; (2), §22, ch. 29754, 1955.

237.20 Amendment of budget.—The county superintendent shall not approve, and the county board shall not at any time authorize or approve, expenditures in excess of the amount budgeted for any item in any separate part of the budget or that will decrease the amount set aside for reserve for contingencies, except as the budget is properly amended as prescribed herein, and any such expenditure, if made, shall not be a lawful expenditure. The county superintendent may, however, recommend, and the county board may approve, by formal resolution entered in its minutes in the form of an amendment to the budget, an increase in the amount appropriated in the budget for any item and a corresponding decrease in any item or in the reserve for contingencies which is found necessary by the board and which preserves the balance of the budget; provided, that if the proposed amendment involves an increase in any major item in the budget as defined by regulations of the state board or a decrease in the amount appropriated for instructional salaries or for payment of indebtedness of the preceding year, or in the reserve for contingencies, the proposed amendment shall not become effective until approved by the state superintendent. Any unexpected receipts, necessitating the setting up of a new fund, and budget therefor, may be adopted and become effective in the same manner as herein provided for amendments. Any amendment, involving the district current school fund may be effected by resolution of the county board, except that when the total for any major item in the school budget for the county is altered thereby, the procedure shall be as prescribed herein.

The county superintendent shall forward to the state superintendent two copies of the resolution proposing and giving the reasons for proposing such an amendment to the budget as prescribed herein, each copy to be certified by the chairman of the county board and by the county superintendent as a true and correct copy of the resolution as adopted by the county board. The state superintendent shall certify thereon his approval or disapproval, return one copy to the county board through the county superintendent, and the county superintendent shall thereupon record such certificate and amendment in the minute book of the county board. The other copy shall be filed with the budget for the year. Any amendment so adopted and approved shall have the same effect as if it had been originally incorporated in the budget for the year, but no proposed amendment disapproved by the state superintendent shall be of any force or effect.

237.21 Expenditures between July first and date budget becomes official.—In the period from July first to the date the budget is finally adopted and becomes official, ordinary expenses may be paid at the same rate as budgeted for the preceding year, but expenditures not budgeted for such preceding year, or made at a greater rate than contemplated by the preceding year's budget, may be made only on approval of the state superintendent.

History.—§1079, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(398).

237.22 Procedure in counties having budget commissions.—In all counties in which school budgets are required to be made and adopted by county budget commissions, the county superintendent shall submit the tentative budget to the county board and the county board shall consider, revise if necessary, and approve the said budget, all as provided by law, and submit the budget, so approved, to the county budget commission as early as possible before July fifteenth, and the county budget commission shall thereupon immediately proceed to consider and adopt the budget by July thirty-first, and return two copies of the approved budget to the county superintendent for transmission to the state superintendent. Each copy of the budget so transmitted shall be certified by the chairman and secretary of the budget commission as true and correct copies of the budget as adopted by the budget commission; provided, that the budget adopted shall conform in every respect to the requirements of law. The reports and recommendations of the state superintendent shall be made to the county superintendent, and copies of all correspondence connected therewith shall be mailed simultaneously to the budget commission. Amendments to such budgets shall be made on application of the county board after having first been approved by the county budget commission; provided, that the approval of the budget commission shall not be required for any amendment which does not require the approval of the state superintendent; and provided, further, that the reserve for contingencies, or any part thereof, may be appropriated by the county board of any such county with the approval of the state superintendent, and no approval thereof shall be necessary by the county budget commission.

237.23 Penalty.—

(1) Any member of a county board, any trustee or county superintendent, who shall violate the provisions of §§237.01-237.24, shall be guilty of malfeasance and misfeasance in office, and shall be subject to removal from office; and any contract or attempted contract entered into by any school officer or subordinate school officer, not within the purview or in violation of the provisions of said sections shall be void, and no such contract or attempted contract shall be enforceable in any court.

(2) Each and every member of any county board voting to incur an indebtedness against the county or district school funds in excess of the expenditure allowed by law, or in excess of any appropriation as adopted in the original budget or amendments thereto, or to approve or pay any illegal charge against the said funds, and any chairman of a county board or the county superintendent who shall sign a warrant for payment of any such claim or bill of indebtedness against any of the said funds shall be personally liable for the amount, and shall be guilty of malfeasance in office and subject to removal by the governor. It shall be the duty of the state auditor or other state official charged by law with the responsibility for auditing school accounts, upon discovering any such illegal expenditure or expenditures in excess of the appropriations in the budget as officially amended, to certify such fact to the state comptroller, who thereupon shall verify such fact and it shall be the duty of the state comptroller to advise the attorney general thereof, and it shall be the duty of the attorney general to cause to be instituted and prosecuted, either through his office or through any state attorney proceedings at law or in equity against such member or members of a county board or the county superintendent; provided, that if either of the said officers do not institute proceedings within ninety days after the audit has been certified to them by the comptroller then any taxpayer may institute suit in his own name in behalf of the county.

237.24 Certain provisions to be directory.—

No irregularities of form or manner in the preparation or adoption of any budget, under the provisions of §§237.05-237.24, shall invalidate either the budget adopted or the taxes levied therefor; provided, that the budget and the taxes levied conform substantially to the principles and provisions of said sections.

History.—§1082, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(401).

237.25 Purposes of and procedures in incurring school indebtedness.—Indebtedness for school purposes may be incurred only as follows:

(1) School districts may issue bonds creating a long-term indebtedness as prescribed by law.

(2) Notes may be issued for money borrowed in anticipation of the receipt of current school funds, included in the budget from the state, county, or districts, as authorized under §237.26.

(3) Indebtedness may be incurred for certain purposes as authorized under §237.27.

(4) Bonds or revenue certificates issued on behalf of the county by the state board of education as authorized by §18, Art. XII of the constitution.

History.—§1083, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(402); §92, ch. 29764, 1955.

237.26 Current loans authorized under certain conditions.—At any time the current school funds on hand are insufficient to pay obligations created by the county board of any county, in accordance with the approved budget of the county, the county board is authorized to negotiate a current loan to pay these obligations, providing for the repayment of that loan from the proceeds of revenues reasonably to be anticipated during the fiscal year in which the loan is made as prescribed below; provided, that the county board shall, whenever possible, so arrange its expenditures as to make the incurring of current loans unnecessary; provided further, that when it is deemed necessary, for the benefit of the schools of the county, for a current loan to be negotiated, the county board shall arrange for a loan only in the amount actually needed and for the repayment of the loan at the earliest date practicable.

(1) CURRENT LOANS AGAINST COUNTY CURRENT SCHOOL FUND.—The county boards of the several counties in the state are hereby authorized and empowered to borrow money, to be retired from the county school tax at a rate of interest not to exceed six per cent per annum, for the purpose of paying all outstanding obligations and for the further purpose of paying any and all legitimate expenses incurred in operating the schools of said county; provided, however, that it shall be unlawful for any county board to borrow any sum of money in any one year in excess of eighty per cent of the amount as estimated by them in the official budget for the current fiscal year for the county to be available from the county school tax. The said sum so borrowed shall be paid in full before the county board shall be authorized to borrow money on the estimate for any succeeding year.

(2) CURRENT LOANS AGAINST DISTRICT CURRENT SCHOOL FUND.—The county boards of the several counties in the state are hereby authorized and empowered to borrow money, to be retired from the district current fund of any school district in the county at a rate of interest not to exceed six per cent per annum, for the purpose of paying all outstanding obligations and for the further purpose of paying any and all legitimate expenses incurred in operating the schools of said district; provided, however, that it shall be unlawful for any county board to borrow any sum of money in any one year in excess of eighty per cent of the amount as estimated by them in the official budget for the current fiscal year for the county to be available from the district current tax of said district. The said sum so borrowed shall be paid in full before the county board shall be authorized to borrow money on the estimate for said district for any succeeding year.

(3) OUTSTANDING INDEBTEDNESS NOT AFFECTED.—Nothing in subsections (1) and (2) above shall be construed to invalidate any outstanding debt of any county as now existing and now due, or to become due, or as requiring any county board to pay the same in full before being permitted to borrow eighty per cent on the estimate for the next ensuing year, or to prohibit any county board from funding or refunding at its maturity any debt created and existing at the time of the adoption of the school code, and being thereby prohibited from borrowing eighty per cent of its income for the ensuing year, as provided above; and, provided further, that no county board shall hereafter incur debts of any nature in excess of the estimated amount, except as herein provided.

(4) EVENTUALITY OF TAX LITIGATION; FINANCING OF OUTSTANDING BONDS.—In the event that the county tax roll is subjected to litigation and the tax collector is prevented from collecting taxes on that roll, the following shall apply:

(a) The restriction of eighty per cent in subsections (1) and (2) of this section shall not apply if the collection of taxes is delayed beyond May 1.

(b) The county boards of the several counties of the state are authorized and empowered to borrow money, to be repaid from the district interest and sinking fund, at a rate not to exceed six per cent per annum, for the purposes of paying any and all legitimate debt service necessary for the outstanding bond issues of such districts at the times that the funds are needed to prevent the bonds or interest payments from being in default; provided, however, that the amount of money so borrowed shall be limited to the amount of the district interest and sinking fund tax receipts included in the official school budget for that year or the amount necessary to be borrowed to meet such obligations, whichever amount is the lesser.

237.27 Obligations for a period of one year.

—The county board of any county is authorized only under the following conditions to create obligations by way of anticipation of budgeted revenues accruing on a current basis without pledging the credit of the county or requiring future levy of taxes for certain purposes for a period of one year; provided, however, that such obligations may be extended from year to year with the consent of the lender for a period not to exceed four years:

(1) PURPOSES MUST BE AUTHORIZED BY STATE BOARD.—The purposes for which such obligations may be incurred within the intent of this section shall include only the purchase of school buses for transportation of pupils, the purchase of land for school sites and the erection, alteration or addition to school plants, the purchase of school plant equipment and the adjustment of insurance of school property on a five-year plan in accordance with §235.07, as provided by regulations of the state board.

(2) OBLIGATIONS MAY NOT EXCEED ONE-FOURTH OF COUNTY OR OF DISTRICT CURRENT REVENUE FOR THE PRECEDING YEAR.—No obligation of the nature prescribed herein may be incurred by any county board when such proposed obligations exceed one-fourth of the revenue derived during the preceding year from county current school funds or from the district current school funds of the district for which the obligation is incurred.

(3) COUNTY BOARD TO SUBMIT PROPOSAL.—When the county board of any county proposes to incur obligations of the nature authorized in this section, the county board shall adopt and spread upon its minutes a resolution giving the nature of the obligations to be incurred, stating the plan of payment and providing that such funds will be budgeted during the period of the loan, from the current revenue to retire the obligations maturing during the year. This plan of payment shall not extend over a period longer than one year. The county board shall then cause a copy of the resolution to be prepared and sent to the state board for approval.

(4) STATE BOARD MAY APPROVE OR REJECT PROPOSAL.—The state board may approve the proposal for incurring obligations authorized under subsection (1) of this section, only when in its opinion the proposal is reasonable and just and the expenditure needed and when county finances will in its opinion permit the retirement when due of this indebtedness as proposed; provided that the state board shall not approve more than two such applications for any county during any one year. When in its opinion there is any doubt regarding the merit or justification of the proposal or regarding the ability of the county board to retire the obligations proposed, the state board shall reject the proposal and the county board shall not incur the obligation as proposed.

(5) INTEREST-BEARING NOTES AUTHORIZED.—The county board of any county for which the state board has authorized the incurring of the obligations as provided in this section, shall issue interest-bearing notes for the obligations. The notes shall provide the terms of payment and shall not bear interest in excess of six per cent per annum. No additional obligations of a similar nature may be incurred against the funds of any county or school district when notes authorized under this subsection are still outstanding and unpaid when such proposed obligations together with the unpaid notes outstanding exceed one-fourth of the revenue of the preceding year.

History.—§1085, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(405); §12, ch. 20970, 1941; §7, ch. 22858, 1945; §94, ch. 29764 and §1, ch. 29865, 1955.

237.28 Provisions for retirement of existing indebtedness which is unfunded or in default.

—In any county in which, at the time of the adoption of the school code, there is any indebtedness outstanding against the county current, or against the district current school fund which has not yet been funded, or at any time any such indebtedness is in default as to principal or interest, the county board shall proceed as follows:

(1) PLAN FOR RETIRING INDEBTEDNESS TO BE PROPOSED.—The county board shall prepare and propose a plan for retiring any unfunded indebtedness or any such indebtedness which is in default so that no creditor having a valid claim will be given a preferred status. This plan shall be so prepared as to show the funds needed for operating the schools on the most economical basis practicable, the amount of any other obligations which must be met each year, the total funds available each year for the entire school program, and the funds that can reasonably be spared for retirement of indebtedness without needlessly handicapping the school program and which can be budgeted each year for the retirement of such indebtedness.

(2) PROPOSAL TO BE SUBMITTED TO STATE SUPERINTENDENT.—The proposal for funding and retiring all such indebtedness, when approved by the county board, shall be submitted to the state superintendent for consideration. The county board shall not attempt to retire any such indebtedness until this procedure has been followed and until it has had the benefit of the recommendations of the state superintendent. Upon receiving the proposal, the state superintendent shall determine the minimum funds which are, in his opinion, necessary for the operation of the school program in the county; shall determine what funds remain for retirement of indebtedness each year; shall determine whether the proposed plan is in accordance with these facts, and, if it is not, shall propose modifications in the plan in accordance with the facts. The recommendations of the state superintendent shall then be submitted to the county board for consideration.

(3) WHEN PLAN TO BE EFFECTIVE.—The plan for retiring indebtedness, herein prescribed, shall become effective when the county board and the state superintendent jointly agree upon the amount of funds necessary for operating the schools and the amount which can be budgeted each year for retiring indebtedness. When this plan has been agreed upon, it shall become the duty of the county board to see that the amount approved for retiring indebtedness is incorporated in the budget each year, and the state superintendent shall see that this amount has been incorporated before the budget is approved, or, if such an amount can not reasonably be incorporated in the budget, as shown by evidence submitted by the county board, determine the respects in which the plan should be modified, and to see that the budget includes the amount for retiring indebtedness which can reasonably be included.

(4) FUNDING OUTSTANDING INDEBTEDNESS.—The county board of each county in the state, having an outstanding indebtedness legally incurred and constituting an obligation or obligations payable from the county current school fund or constituting an obligation or obligations payable from the district current school fund is authorized to issue and sell interest-bearing coupon warrants in a sum or sums not to exceed the total amount of such indebtedness. Such coupon warrants shall bear interest at a rate not to exceed six per cent per annum, shall be payable either annually or semiannually, and shall be in such form and denomination as the county board issuing the same shall prescribe. None of such warrants shall be issued to run for a longer period of time than ten years from the date of issue. Such warrants shall be numbered consecutively, beginning with number one, and each warrant shall have attached thereto interest coupons, each coupon bearing the number of its warrant and representing or calling for an annual or semiannual, as the case may be, payment of interest on its warrant.

Each such warrant shall be signed by the chairman and attested by the secretary of the county board issuing the same, and shall have the seal of said county board affixed thereto, and the interest coupons attached thereto shall be signed by, or bear the printed or lithographed facsimile signature of said chairman and secretary. Each warrant and interest coupon shall be dated and shall bear the due date. Such warrants and interest coupons shall be issued upon, and payable from, the fund designated on the face thereof. The fund so designated shall be the county current school fund in warrants issued for payment of indebtedness originally incurred which was payable from such fund, and shall be the district current school fund in warrants issued for payment of indebtedness originally incurred which was payable from such fund. All funds derived from the sale of interest-bearing coupon warrants, as herein provided, shall be used for the purpose of retiring the indebtedness for payment of which said warrants were issued, and for no other purpose, and any funds remaining from the sale of such warrants shall be applied to retiring the interest-bearing coupon warrants from which such funds were derived.

(5) FUNDING OR REFUNDING OTHER TYPES OF INDEBTEDNESS.—Any proposed plan for refunding any type of outstanding and legally incurred school indebtedness, not covered by §237.28, shall be submitted to the state superintendent for approval under regulations of the state board. No such indebtedness may be refunded and no plan for refunding such indebtedness may be approved, unless the plan provides for retiring the indebtedness in reasonably equal annual installments over the period of years covered, unless other obligations to be retired during any of these years make adjustments necessary. No indebtedness of any type may be refunded on a sinking fund basis. The county board shall provide that all refunding warrants, notes or bonds shall be callable, upon proper notice, beginning not more than ten years following the date of refunding. If any indebtedness outstanding against the county or district current school funds cannot be retired over a period of ten years as prescribed in §237.28, or cannot be funded or refunded by issuing interest bearing coupon warrants, the state superintendent is authorized to cooperate with the school officials of the county in developing a practicable plan for refunding such indebtedness and, when such a plan has been developed, may approve an agreement with the county school officials for refunding such indebtedness to be retired over a period of time which shall not exceed a maximum of twenty years; and, if necessary, for refunding the indebtedness by issuing interest bearing notes. Any funding or refunding obligations issued, as prescribed herein, are not and shall not be deemed to be additional bonds within the meaning of the constitution and laws of Florida, and it shall not be necessary for such obligations to be submitted to, or approved by, a vote of the people of the county. In preparing and carrying out such a plan for funding or refunding the school indebtedness, the county board and county superintendent shall follow the procedures prescribed in §237.28, supplemented by regulations of the state board, except for the modifications which are herein authorized.

237.29 Officials to safeguard funds; disposition of wages of deceased employees.—Each and every official and employee of the county board, who is in any way responsible for collecting, depositing, budgeting, or expending school funds, or for purchasing materials or services for school usage, or is in any other manner responsible for school funds, shall see that these funds are fully and properly safeguarded at all times. Proper safeguards are to be evidenced not only by accurate and complete accounting, observance of all legal requirements, preparation of all required reports, but also by exercising every diligence to see that value has been received for any funds which are expended.

Wages of deceased employees shall be disposed of in accordance with §§222.15 and 222.16.

History.—§1087, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(406); §7, ch. 22858, 1945; §8, ch. 61-459.

237.30 School funds to be paid to treasurer or into depository.—Every tax collector, or other person having moneys which by law go to any district or county school fund shall at least once each month pay the same over to the depository or depositories designated by the county board for such purpose, and shall provide the county board with a duplicate of the deposit slip. Every officer having moneys which by law go to any state school fund, shall pay the same to the state treasurer, and the treasurer shall see that these moneys are deposited to the credit of the proper state school fund.

History.—§1088, ch. 19355, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(407).

237.31 Bonds required for school officials.—Each and every official or other person who is responsible in any manner for handling or expending school funds or property shall be adequately bonded at all times. The officials who are to be bonded and the provisions for bonding such officials shall be as follows:

(1) COUNTY SUPERINTENDENT.—Before assuming office, being commissioned, or assuming responsibility for any school funds, property or records, the county superintendent shall execute with a surety company authorized to do business in Florida a bond conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office, including accounting for and turning over to the proper authority all school funds or properties over which he has supervision. The amount of the bond shall be determined in the same manner as the total bond for the chairman of the county board is determined as prescribed in subsection (2) below, except the bond of the county superintendent in each county shall be one thousand dollars in excess of the bond of the chairman of the county board.

(2) MEMBERS, CHAIRMAN AND VICE-CHAIRMAN OF THE COUNTY BOARD.—Each and every member of the county board of the several counties in the state, elected or appointed to such office, before he is commissioned or assumes office, shall be required to execute a sufficient bond with a surety company authorized to do business in Florida, the bond to be conditioned upon the faithful performance of the duties of his office, including the proper safeguarding of all funds for which the county board has supervision. The bond shall be in the amount of two thousand dollars for each member of the county board. The chairman and vice-chairman of the board shall be required to give bond in the additional amount of one thousand dollars in counties in which the annual revenue receipts for school purposes during the year preceding his election as chairman and vice-chairman were more than one hundred thousand dollars and were less than two hundred thousand dollars, and the bond for the chairman and vice-chairman shall be increased an additional one thousand dollars for each additional one hundred thousand dollars or fraction thereof of receipts in the county; provided, that the maximum additional amount for which bond shall be required of the chairman and vice-chairman of the county board of any county shall be eight thousand dollars.

(3) SCHOOL EMPLOYEES.—It shall be the responsibility of the county board to provide for the bonding of any school employee who is responsible for school moneys or property. The amount of the bond (individual, schedule or blanket) shall be prescribed by the county board of the county in which the person is employed. The bond may be with a surety company authorized to do business in Florida, or with two good and sufficient sureties.

(4) SCHOOL CONTRACTORS.—All contractors paid from school funds shall give bond for the faithful performance of their contracts in such amount and for such purposes as prescribed by law or by regulations of the county board or of the state board relating to the type of contract involved; provided, that it shall be the duty of the county board to require from every contractor a bond adequate to protect the school and school funds involved.

(5) PREMIUM ON BONDS.—The premium on the bond of each and every county school official and of any employee of the county board shall be paid out of the county current school funds of the county; provided, that premiums for bonds of employees in district schools may be paid from the district current school fund or other funds.

(6) FILING BONDS.—All bonds required of school officials under this section shall be filed with the secretary of state in the amount certified by the state superintendent. All bonds required of school employees shall be approved by the county superintendent under regulations of the county board and shall be filed with the county board. Bonds of school officials or school employees shall not be required to be approved by the county commissioners.

cf.—§113.04 Fidelity bond premiums.

237.32 School depositories; payments into and withdrawals from depositories.—

(1) SCHOOL FUNDS TO BE PAID INTO DEPOSITORIES; TRIPLICATE RECEIPTS TO BE ISSUED.—The tax collector, the clerk of the circuit court, the county superintendent, and all other persons having or receiving, or collecting any money payable to the several school funds of the county or of the districts, shall pay the same to the bank or banks selected by the county board of public instruction to receive funds for that purpose. No bank or banks shall be so selected unless it is qualified as a county depository as provided by §136.02. Each bank receiving any school money, as provided herein, shall make a receipt for same in triplicate; one copy of which the said bank will carefully preserve and keep; one copy shall be given to the person from whom money was received; and one copy shall be given to the county board.

(2) SEPARATE ACCOUNTS FOR FUNDS ON DEPOSIT WITH EACH DEPOSITORY; OVERDRAWING ACCOUNTS PROHIBITED.—The county board shall require the county superintendent to keep and the county superintendent shall keep, as prescribed in this chapter, an accurate and complete set of accounts for each fund on deposit in each county school depository. This account shall show the amount in each fund subject to withdrawal, amount deposited, amount expended, and the balance thereof, as shown by the books at the end of each month for each and every fund (or deposit) carried by the said county board, and no check, or warrant or warrants, shall ever be drawn in excess of the balance to the credit of the fund as kept under direction of the county board; provided, however, that nothing in this chapter shall be construed as prohibiting the county board from borrowing money, as now, or as may hereafter be, provided by law.

(3) HOW FUNDS DRAWN FROM DEPOSITORIES.—All money drawn from any county school depository, holding same as prescribed herein, shall be upon a check or warrant drawn on authority of the county board, as prescribed in the school code. Each check or warrant so drawn shall be signed by the chairman of the county board and countersigned by the county superintendent with corporate seal of the county board affixed; provided, however, that as a matter of convenience the corporate seal of the county board may be printed upon the warrant and a record of such warrant, both as to date, number, and amount, and person to whom drawn, shall be kept by the county superintendent in a supplementary minute book, with proper reference thereto in the regular minute book of the county board; and provided further that the county board may by resolution, a copy of which must be delivered to the depository, provide for internal funds to be withdrawn from any county depository, by a check duly signed by at least two bonded school employees designated by the board to be responsible for such account or accounts.

(4) PAYMENT OF SCHOOL WARRANTS.—The county school depository, upon presentation to it of the county school warrants, shall pay the same, if there are any funds in its custody applicable thereto.

238.01 Definitions.—The following words and phrases as used in this chapter shall have the following meanings unless a different meaning is plainly required by the context:

(1) "Retirement system" shall mean the teachers' retirement system of Florida provided for in §238.02.

(2) "Board of trustees" shall mean the board provided by §238.03 to administer the retirement system.

(3) "Medical board" shall mean the board of physicians provided for in §238.04.

(4) "Teacher" shall mean any member of the teaching or professional staff and any certificated employee of any public free school, of any county school system and vocational school, any member of the teaching or professional staff of the Florida industrial school for boys, Florida industrial school for girls, Florida school for the deaf and the blind, Florida division of corrections and any tax-supported institution of higher learning of the state, and any member and any certified employee of the state department of education, any certified employee of the retirement system, any full-time employee of any nonprofit professional association or corporation of teachers functioning in Florida on a state-wide basis, which seeks to protect and improve public school opportunities for children and advance the professional and welfare status of its members, any person now serving as county superintendent of public instruction, or who was serving as county superintendent of public instruction on July 1, 1939 and any hereafter duly elected or appointed county superintendent of public instruction, who holds a valid Florida teachers' certificate. In all cases of doubt the board of trustees shall determine whether any person is a teacher as defined herein.

(5) "Member" shall mean any person included in the membership of the retirement system as provided in §238.05.

(6) "Employer" shall mean the state, or the boards of public instruction of all the counties of the state employing teachers, subject to the provisions of this chapter or other agency of and within the state by which the teacher is paid, or any nonprofit professional association or corporation of teachers as referred to in (4).

(7) "Service" shall mean service as a teacher as described in (4) rendered while a member of the retirement system.

(8) "Prior service" shall mean service as a teacher rendered prior to the date of establishment of the retirement system and for which credit is allowable under §238.06.

(9) "Membership service" shall mean service as a teacher as described in §238.06.

(10) "Creditable service" shall mean prior service plus membership service for which credit is allowable under §238.06.

(11) "Beneficiary" shall mean any person in receipt of a retirement allowance, or other benefit as provided by this chapter.

(12) "Regular interest" shall mean interest at such rate as may be set from time to time by the board of trustees.

(13) "Accumulated contributions" shall mean the sum of all the amounts deducted from the salary of a member and credited to his individual account in the annuity savings fund provided in §238.09(1), together with regular interest on such accounts.

(14) "Earnable compensation" shall mean the full compensation payable to a teacher working the full working time for his position. In respect to plans A, B, C and D only, in cases where compensation includes maintenance the board of trustees shall fix the value of that part of the compensation not paid in money; provided that all members shall from July 1, 1955 make contributions to the retirement system on the basis of "earnable compensation" as defined herein and all persons who are members on July 1, 1955 may, upon application, have their "earnable compensation" for the time during which they have been members prior to that date determined on the basis of "earnable compensation" as defined in this law, upon paying to the retirement system on or before the date of retirement, a sum equal to the additional contribution with accumulated regular interest thereon they would have made if "earnable compensation" had been defined at the time they became members, as it is now defined.

(15) "Average final compensation," with respect to plans A, B, C and D of §238.07, shall mean the average annual earnable compensation of a member for the ten years of his service as a teacher during which he received his highest salary; and with respect to plan E of §238.07, average final compensation shall mean the average annual earnable compensation of a member for ten years during the last fifteen years prior to retirement during which he contributed and in which his annual earnable compensation was highest or the average of his annual earnable compensation since July 1, 1945, if greater.

(16) "Annuity" shall mean annual payments for life derived as provided in this chapter from the accumulated contributions of a member. All annuities shall be paid in equal monthly installments.

(17) "Pension" shall mean annual payments for life derived as provided in this chapter, from money provided by the state and shall mean, when used in conjunction with plan E, the excess of the retirement allowance as provided by plan E over the annuity as defined above. All pensions shall be paid in equal monthly installments.

(18) "Retirement allowance" shall mean annual payments for life and shall be the sum of the annuity plus the pension except that when used in conjunction with plan E of §238.07, retirement allowance shall mean the total retirement allowance payable under plan E.

(19) "Actuarial equivalent" shall mean a benefit of equal value when computed at regular interest upon the basis of the mortality tables adopted by the board of trustees.

(20) The masculine pronoun whenever used shall include the feminine.

History.—§1, ch. 19014, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(156); §1, ch. 20749, 1941; §1, ch. 22062, 1943; §1, ch. 22693, 1945; §1, ch. 23864, 1947; §1, ch. 25398, 1949; §1, ch. 29942, 1955; (4) §1, ch. 61-362; (15), (18) §1, ch. 61-301; (15), (18) §1, ch. 63-554.

238.02 Name and date of establishment.—A retirement system is established and placed under the management of the board of trustees for the purpose of providing retirement allowances and other benefits for teachers of the state. The retirement system shall begin operations as July 1, 1939. It has such powers and privileges of a corporation as may be necessary to carry out effectively the provisions of this chapter and shall be known as the "Teachers' retirement system of the state," and by such name all of its business shall be transacted, all of its funds invested, and all of its cash and securities and other property held in trust for the purpose for which received.

History.—§2, ch. 19014, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(157).

238.021 Teachers' retirement system; plans.—The teachers' retirement system shall be deemed to be divided into five plans, to be designated plans A, B, C, D, and E and §§238.01 to 238.181, inclusive, shall control with respect to plans A through E and membership therein, except as provided for under §238.31.

History.—§4, ch. 61-301; §2, ch. 63-554.

238.03 Administration.—(1) The general administration and the responsibility for the proper operation of the retirement system and for making effective the provisions of this chapter are vested in the board of trustees. Subject to the limitation of this chapter, the board of trustees shall, from time to time, establish rules and regulations for the administration and transaction of the business of the retirement system and shall perform such other functions as are required for the execution of this chapter.

(2) The membership of the board of trustees shall consist of the state board of education and two members who shall be known as teacher members and who shall be appointed by the governor for terms of three years each. These appointees shall be teachers of distinction who shall have taught school for at least five years.

The initial terms of the first two teacher members of the board of trustees shall be two and three years, respectively. Following the completion of the initial terms, the terms of office of such members shall be three years.

(3) Until the appointment and qualifying of the two teacher members to be appointed, the other five members are empowered to perform the duties of the board of trustees.

(4) Any vacancy in the board of trustees shall be filled for the unexpired term in the same manner as the office was previously filled.

(5) A majority of the members of the board of trustees shall constitute a quorum.

(6) The members of the board of trustees shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for traveling expenses as provided in §112.061 from the expense fund provided under §238.09(4).

(7) The board of trustees shall elect from its membership a chairman and vice chairman, and shall appoint a secretary who may be, but need not be, one of its members. The secretary shall give bond in such amount and with such sureties as the board may require. The compensation of all employees of the board of trustees shall be fixed by the board, and all other expenses of the board, necessary for the proper operation of the retirement system, shall be paid at such rates and in such amounts as the board of trustees shall approve.

(8) The board of trustees shall keep in convenient form such data as shall be necessary for actuarial valuation of the various funds created by this chapter and for checking the experience of the retirement system.

(9) The attorney general of the state shall be the legal adviser of the board of trustees.

(10) The board of trustees shall employ such agents, servants and employees as in its judgment may be necessary to carry out the terms and provisions of this chapter and shall provide for their compensation. Among the employees of the board shall be an actuary who shall be the technical adviser of the board of trustees on matters regarding the operation of the funds created by the provisions of this chapter and who shall perform such other duties as are required in connection therewith.

(11) In the year 1943 and at least once in each five-year period thereafter, the actuary shall make an actuarial investigation of the mortality, service and salary experience of the members and beneficiaries as defined in this chapter, and shall make a valuation of the various funds created by the chapter, and having regard to such investigation and valuation, the board of trustees shall adopt such mortality and service tables as shall be deemed necessary, and shall certify the rates of contribution payable under the provisions of this chapter.

(12) The actuary shall make an annual valuation of the assets and liabilities of the funds of the retirement system on the basis of the tables adopted by the board of trustees in accordance with the requirements of this section, and shall prepare an annual statement of the amounts to be contributed by the state in accordance with §238.09.

(13) The board of trustees shall publish annually the valuation, as certified by the actuary, of the assets and liabilities of the various funds created by this chapter, a statement as to the receipts and disbursements of the funds, and a statement as to the accumulated cash and securities of the funds.

(14) The board of trustees shall keep a record of all of its proceedings and such record shall be open to inspection by the public.

(15) The board of trustees is authorized to photograph and reduce to microfilm as a permanent record, its ledger sheets showing the salary and contributions of members of the retirement system, also the records of deceased members of the system and thereupon to destroy the documents from which such films are photographed.

238.04 Medical board.—The board of trustees shall employ a medical board of three physicians, not eligible to participate in the retirement system.

The medical board shall arrange for, and shall pass upon, all medical examinations required under the provisions of this chapter, shall investigate all essential health or medical statements, and certificates by or in behalf of a member in connection with his application for disability retirement, and shall report in writing to the board of trustees its conclusions and recommendations upon all the matters referred to it, and perform such other duties as may be required of them by the board of trustees.

History.—§4, ch. 19014, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(159).

238.05 Membership.

(1) The membership of the retirement system shall consist of the following:

(a) All persons who were teachers at any time during the school years 1936-1937 through 1938-1939, shall become members as of July 1, 1939, unless, prior to December 1, 1939, any such teacher shall file with the board of trustees on a form prescribed by such board a notice of his election not to be covered in the membership of the retirement system and a duly executed waiver of all present and prospective benefits which would otherwise inure to him on account of his participation in the retirement system; provided, that all persons who were not eligible for membership in the retirement system at the time the system became effective and who are now eligible to membership by reason of the redefinition of the word "teacher," and by reason of having served in any of the capacities included in the redefinition of the term during any of the school year 1936-1937 through 1942-1943 shall become members as of July 1, 1943, unless prior to December 1, 1943, any such person shall file with the board of trustees a notice of his election not to be covered in the membership of the retirement system as prescribed above; provided, that all persons who become eligible for membership in the retirement system by reason of the redefinition in §238.01, of the word "teacher," and who served in any of the capacities included in the redefinition of the term during any of the school years 1936-1937 through 1944-1945, shall become members as of July 1, 1945, unless prior to December 1, 1945, any such person shall file with the board of trustees a notice of his election not to be covered in the membership of the retirement system as prescribed above; provided also that all persons who become eligible for membership in the retirement system by reason of the redefinition in subsection (4) of §238.01, of the word "teacher" and who served in any of the capacities included in the redefinition of the term during any of the school years 1936-1937 through 1946-1947 shall become members as of July 1, 1947, unless prior to December 1, 1947, any such person shall file with the board of trustees a notice of his election not to be kept in the membership of the retirement system as prescribed above; provided, however, that any person who has heretofore filed a nonelection waiver blank shall not be required to make another such election; provided, further, that any person who heretofore has elected not to become a member shall until July 1, 1949, have the option of becoming a member.

(b) All persons who became or who become teachers on or after July 1, 1939, except as provided in paragraph (a) hereof, shall become members of the retirement system by virtue of their appointment as teachers; provided that employees who are not members of the teaching or professional staff shall only become members of the retirement system by filing a notice with the board of trustees of their election to become members.

(2) A teacher whose membership in the retirement system is contingent on his own election and who has elected not to become a member, may thereafter apply for and be admitted to membership and receive credit for prior service; provided no such teacher shall receive credit for service prior to such election unless he is admitted to membership as of a date before May 1, 1959. Credit for service rendered prior to July 1, 1939, shall be for continuous employment only except that one period of absence of not more than five years will be allowed in computing such prior service credit, provided, however, that a teacher admitted to membership prior to January 1, 1955, shall receive credit for all prior service and if he has retired, his retirement allowance shall be increased effective July 1, 1961. A teacher admitted to membership under this provision must pay into the annuity savings trust fund prior to his retirement contributions plus regular interest thereon based upon all salary received as a teacher prior to and after July 1, 1939.

(3) Except as otherwise provided in §238.07 (9) membership of any person in the retirement system shall cease if he shall be continuously unemployed as a teacher for a period of more than five consecutive years; or upon the withdrawal by a member of his accumulated contributions as provided in §238.07(13), or upon retirement; or upon death; provided that the adjustments prescribed below are to be made for persons who enter military, naval or other armed services of the nation during a period of war, or national emergency, and for persons who are granted leaves of absence. Any member of the retirement system who within one year before the time of entering the military, naval or other armed services of the nation was a teacher, as defined in §238.01, or was engaged in other public educational work within the state, and member of the teachers' retirement system at the time of induction, or who has been or is granted leave of absence, shall be permitted to elect to continue his membership in the teachers' retirement system and membership service shall be allowed for the period covered by service in the armed forces of the nation or by leave of absence under the following conditions:

(a) A person who has been granted leave of absence shall file with the board of trustees before his next contribution is due an application to continue his membership during the period covered by his leave of absence, and if such application is filed, shall make his contribution to the retirement system on the basis of his last previous annual salary as a teacher, and shall, prior to retirement, pay in full to the system such contributions with accumulated regular interest and such contributions with interest may be paid at one time or in monthly, quarterly, semi-annual or annual payments in his discretion.

(b) A person who enters or who has entered the armed services of the nation may either continue his membership according to the plan outlined under paragraph (a) above or, in lieu thereof, may file with the board of trustees at any time following the close of his military service an application that his membership be continued and that membership service be allowed for not more than five years of his period service in the armed forces of the nation during any period of war or national emergency; provided that any such person shall, prior to retirement, pay in full his contributions with accumulated regular interest to the retirement system for the period for which he is entitled to membership service on the basis of his last previous annual salary as a teacher, such contributions with interest to be paid to the trustees of the retirement system at one time or in monthly, quarterly, semiannual or annual payments in his discretion.

(c) Any person who served in the armed forces of the United States in world war I, or who served as a registered nurse or nurse's aide in service connected with the armed forces of the United States during the period of world war I, who is now a member of the teachers' retirement system and who, at or before the time of entering the armed forces or the service of the care and nursing of members of the armed forces of the United States, was a teacher as defined in §238.01, shall be entitled to prior service and out-of-state prior service credit in the teachers' retirement system for his period of such service.

(4) The board of trustees may in its discretion deny the right to become members to any class of teachers who are serving on a temporary or any other than a per annum basis, and it may also in its discretion make optional with members in any such class their individual entrance into membership.

History.—§5, ch. 19014, 1939; CGL 1940 Supp. 892(160); §2, ch. 20749, 1941; §1, ch. 21971, §2, ch. 22062, 1943; §2, ch. 22693, 1945; §2, ch. 23864, 1947; §7, ch. 24337, 1947; §11, ch. 25035, 1949; §2, ch. 25398, 1949; (3) §1, ch. 28196, 1953; (1)(b), (2), (3) §3, ch. 29942, 1955; (2) §1, ch. 57-357; (2) §1, ch. 61-303; (2) §1, ch. 61-458.

238.06 Membership application, creditable service and time for making contributions.—

(1) Under such rules and regulations as the board of trustees shall adopt, each teacher upon becoming a member shall file with the board of trustees an application showing date of birth and such other necessary information as the board of trustees may require for the proper operation of the retirement system. Until such application is filed no teacher nor his beneficiary shall be eligible to receive any benefits under this chapter. If a member has been a teacher in Florida, he shall itemize on such application all service as a teacher rendered prior to the date of establishment of the retirement system, including service in a similar capacity in other states rendered by him prior to the first day of July, 1939, for which he claims credit; provided, that persons not eligible to membership in the retirement system as of July 1, 1939, and now eligible to membership shall file with the board of trustees an application and shall meet with all other requirements prescribed above; and provided, further, that all such persons shall be entitled to prior service credit for the years prior to July 1, 1939, as prescribed in Subsection (4) of this Section; and provided, further, that any person made eligible to membership in the retirement system by provisions of this law may elect:

(a) To make no contributions for the school years between 1939-1940 and 1952-1953, inclusive, and if he so elects, shall be entitled to no membership credit for those years except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

(b) To make contributions with accumulated regular interest to the retirement system on or before the time of retirement of such member for such years after July 1, 1939, as he served as a teacher, at the prescribed rate on the basis of his salary for those years, and if such contributions are made, he shall be entitled to membership service credit for such years.

(2) With respect to plans A, B, C, or D as set forth in §238.07, any member of the retirement system may elect to contribute to the retirement system an amount which shall be equivalent to the difference between the amount such member has contributed and the amount he would have contributed had the provisions of §238.01(14) been in effect July 1, 1939, and such election must be made and the amount paid into the retirement system on or before the time of the retirement of such member.

(3) The board of trustees shall fix and determine by appropriate rules and regulations how much service in any year is the equivalent of a year of service, but in no case shall it allow any credit for a period of absence without pay of more than a month's duration nor shall it allow credit for more than one year of service for all service in any school year.

(4) Subject to the above restriction and to such other rules and regulations as the board of trustees shall adopt, the board of trustees shall verify, as soon as practicable after the filing of the application, the statement of service therein claimed and shall issue to each person who becomes a member or any person with prior teaching service in the state who becomes a member of the retirement system, a prior service certificate certifying the length of service with which he is credited on the basis of his statement of service. Such prior service credit shall include credit for service rendered prior to date of establishment as a teacher within the state or in a similar capacity outside the state but not more than ten years of credit for service outside the state shall be included. Credit for prior service outside the state may be claimed only by a person employed as a teacher in the state prior to July 1, 1939; provided that any person who became a member of the system after July 1, 1939, but prior to July 1, 1955, and remained a member for ten years shall be entitled to receive out-of-state prior service credit for a period not exceeding ten years; provided that any person with out-of-state service who became a member of the system after July 1, 1939, but prior to July 1, 1955, and remained a member for ten years shall be entitled to receive membership service credit for a period of not exceeding ten years, including credit for the period covered by service in the armed forces of the nation during world war II; provided such member was a public school teacher within one year before entering the armed services; and provided he resumed teaching, if such member shall, prior to retirement, make contribution to the retirement system with accumulated regular interest thereon in an amount equal to the contribution he would have made if such service had been rendered in the state subsequent to July 1, 1939; provided that no member who receives, or who is entitled to receive, a pension or annuity from any other state or county or municipality or other taxing district shall receive out-of-state prior service credit or membership service credit as set forth above; provided, however, that the change in this subsection shall not affect the rights of persons who have retired when this amendment to the law takes effect; provided, however, that any person who becomes a member of the system on or after July 1, 1955 and who has moved from another state to Florida, and becoming employed in a category covered by the teachers' retirement system, must teach in the state for five years before being entitled to receive any out-of-state service credit. After having been employed within the state for a period of five years, a teacher may establish and receive credit for one year of out-of-state service for each additional year of service credit within the state, with a maximum of ten years out-of-state credit allowed. In order to establish and receive this out-of-state credit, a teacher, who became a member of the system on or after July 1, 1955, but prior to October 1, 1963, must pay into the retirement system prior to retirement total contributions equal to eight per cent (plus accumulated regular interest thereon), of such out-of-state compensation as the teacher received during those years of out-of-state service for which the teacher receives out-of-state credit. In order to establish and receive this out-of-state credit, a teacher who becomes a member of the retirement system on or after October 1, 1963, must pay into the retirement system prior to retirement, total contributions which are in addition to the regular membership contributions and which, when accumulated with regular interest thereon, are equal to the actuarial equivalent at the time of retirement of the monthly benefit which becomes payable at retirement on account of out-of-state credit. In the event that such accumulated additional contributions at time of retirement are less than the actuarial equivalent at time of retirement of the monthly benefit attributable to out-of-state credit, the monthly benefit attributable to out-of-state credit shall be reduced by an amount equal to the product of:

(a) The monthly benefit attributable to out-of-state credit, and

(b) The ratio that such deficiency bears to the actuarial equivalent of the monthly benefit attributable to the out-of-state credit.

If such accumulated additional contributions are in excess of the actuarial equivalent at time of retirement of the monthly benefit attributable to out-of-state credit, such excess shall be paid in a lump sum to the member at time of retirement. No person may receive retirement benefits for less than ten years of service credit earned in Florida.

(5) Any person who is a member of the teachers' retirement system, and who has been employed as an employee of any county in Florida or any county board of public instruction of Florida or the state or the United States department of agriculture at Welaka, Florida, shall upon payment of accumulated contributions for the years subsequent to July 1, 1939, receive credit for both prior and membership service for all years in which such person was employed by any county in Florida or any county board of public instruction of Florida or the state or the United States department of agriculture at Welaka, Florida, toward retirement in the teachers' retirement system; provided, such contributions shall be paid on or before the date of the retirement of such member.

(6) So long as membership continues, a prior service certificate shall be final and conclusive for retirement purposes as to such prior service credit, unless modified by the board of trustees upon application made by the member within one year after the date of issuance or modification of a prior service certificate or upon the discovery by the board of trustees of error or fraud.

(7) When membership ceases such certificate shall become void; should the teacher again become a member, such teacher shall enter the system as a teacher not entitled to prior service credit, except as provided in §238.07(12)(c); and provided further that if the teacher should so become a member following the first occurrence of cessation of membership, such certificate shall be valid until the membership next ceases.

(8) Creditable service at retirement on which the retirement allowance of a member shall be based shall consist of the membership services rendered by him since he last became a member, and also, if he has a prior service certificate which is in full force and effect, the service certified on his prior service certificate.

(9) A public school librarian with credit for less than ten years of public school service in Florida may be permitted to work after age seventy with the approval of his employer and shall be permitted to earn retirement credit for such service in the teachers' retirement system.

(10) Subject to the provisions of subsection (4) of this section, out-of-state service credit shall be allowed for service rendered as a teacher in American overseas dependent schools conducted by the armed forces of the United States for children of citizens of the United States residing in areas outside the continental United States.

238.07 Regular benefits; survivor benefits.—

(1) Any member who attains seventy years of age shall be retired forthwith; provided, however, that with the approval of his employer he may remain in service until the end of the school year following the date on which he attains seventy years of age. If any member retires under the provisions of this subsection, who before his death fails to select one of the optional benefits set forth in §238.08, his executors or administrators shall receive the excess of his accumulated contributions at retirement over the total of all annuity payments made to the member.

(2) The provisions for the retirement of a member are as follows:

(a) To retire at the age of sixty upon the basis of a standard of service of thirty-five years (this provision shall be known and referred to throughout this chapter as plan A); or

(b) To retire at the age of fifty-five upon the basis of a standard of service of thirty-five years (this provision shall be known and referred to throughout this chapter as plan B); or

(c) To retire at the age of fifty-five upon the basis of a standard of service of thirty years (this provision shall be known and referred to throughout this chapter as plan C); or

(d) To retire after twenty-five years of service upon the basis of a standard of service of twenty-five years provided the member has reached age fifty; provided, further, however, that a member electing to retire under this provision shall not be eligible to receive the benefits allowed by (8) and (11) (f) (this provision shall be known and referred to throughout this chapter as plan D); or

(e) 1. To retire (1) at the age of ~~sixty~~ which shall be the normal retirement age; or (2) prior thereto but at or subsequent to age fifty-five, provided that upon such date the teacher has completed ten years of creditable service, which shall be the early retirement age; or (3) subsequent to age sixty, which shall be the delayed retirement age (this provision shall be known and referred to throughout this chapter as plan E); provided that the manner and time of selecting a plan of retirement are set out elsewhere in this chapter.

(3) Any member who, prior to July 1, 1955, elected to retire under one of plans A, B, C, or D may elect, prior to retirement, to retire under plan E in accordance with the terms hereof. Any person who became a member on or after July 1, 1955, shall retire under plan E, except as provided for under §238.31. With respect to plans A, B, C, or D, any member shall have the right at any time to change to a plan of retirement requiring a lower rate of contribution. The board of trustees shall also notify the member of the rate of contribution such member must make from and after selecting such plan of retirement; provided that any member in service may retire upon reaching the age of retirement formerly selected by him, upon his written application to the board of trustees setting forth at what time, not more than ninety days subsequent to the execution and filing of such application, it is his desire to retire notwithstanding that during such period of notification he may have separated from service. Upon receipt of such application for retirement the board of trustees shall retire such member not more than ninety days thereafter; and provided further that before such member may retire he must file with the board of trustees his written selection of one of the optional benefits provided in §238.08.

(4) Upon service retirement under plans A and B a member shall receive a retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(a) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at the time of his retirement; and

(b) A pension, in addition to this annuity, of one one-hundred-fortieth of his average final compensation, multiplied by the number of his years of membership service since he last became a member; and

(c) If the member has a prior service certificate in full force and effect, an additional pension of one-seventieth of his average final compensation, multiplied by the number of years of service certified on his prior service certificate.

(5) Upon service retirement under plan C a member shall receive a service retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(a) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at the time of his retirement; and

(b) A pension, in addition to his annuity of one one-hundred-twentieth of his average final compensation, multiplied by the number of years of membership service since he last became a member; and

(c) If the member has a prior service certificate in full force and effect, an additional pension of one-sixtieth of his average final compensation, multiplied by the number of years of service certified on his prior service certificate.

(6) Upon service retirement under plan D, a member shall receive a service retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(a) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at the time of his retirement; and

(b) A pension, in addition to his annuity, of one one-hundredth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of his years of membership service since he last became a member; and

(c) If the member has a prior service certificate in full force and effect, an additional pension of one-fiftieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of service certified on his prior service certificate.

(7) Upon service retirement under plan E, a member shall receive a service retirement allowance which shall be determined as follows:

(a) At normal retirement age: two per cent of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of creditable service.

(b) At early retirement age: Two per cent of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of creditable service and adjusted for actuarial equivalents based on completed months by which early retirement precedes normal retirement.

(c) At delayed retirement age: Two per cent of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of creditable service.

(8) Any member who has heretofore, or who hereafter, retires after thirty years of creditable service shall receive a retirement allowance of not less than one hundred dollars per month, provided, however that with respect to plans A, B or C, any person with less than thirty but with ten or more years of service shall be entitled to a service retirement allowance which shall be computed on the basis of an average final compensation of twenty-four hundred dollars per year and shall receive a retirement allowance which shall be the equivalent of one-sixtieth of said average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his creditable service; provided that in no event shall such a member receive a retirement allowance greater than one hundred dollars per month.

(9) Any member who has taught, or who teaches in the public free schools of Florida for not less than an aggregate of ten years and withdraws or has withdrawn from the system, may elect to leave his accumulated contributions in the system or to repay his withdrawn accumulations to the system, and upon reaching retirement age, he shall receive a retirement allowance based on the number of years of service which he taught in the public schools of Florida before retirement, provided, that a person who has lost his membership and later returns to service shall be allowed the privilege of having credit restored for previous service if he returns to full time teaching service and renders three additional years of continuous service.

(10) Any member in service, who has ten or more years of creditable service, may upon the application of his employer or upon his own application, be retired by the board of trustees not less than thirty nor more than ninety days next following the date of filing such application, on a disability retirement allowance; provided that the medical board after a medical examination of such member shall certify that such member is mentally or physically incapacitated for the further performance of duty, that such incapacity is likely to be permanent, and that such member should be retired.

(11) Upon retirement on account of disability, a member shall be paid his service retirement allowance if he is eligible for a service retirement allowance; otherwise, he shall receive a retirement allowance which shall consist of:

(a) An annuity which shall be the actuarial equivalent of his accumulated contributions at the time of retirement; and

(b) If he is making contributions for retirement under plan A or B, he shall receive a pension which, together with his annuity shall provide a total retirement allowance equal to one-seventieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of service creditable to him at retirement, if such retirement allowance exceeds twenty-five per cent of his average final compensation; or if such retirement allowance does not exceed twenty-five per cent of his average final compensation, a pension shall be payable which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance of twenty-five per cent of his average final compensation; provided, however that no retirement allowance shall exceed one-seventieth of his average final compensation, multiplied by the number of years of total service which would be credited to the member were his service continued to the minimum age for service retirement.

(c) If he is making contributions for retirement under plan C, he shall receive a pension which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance equal to one-sixtieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of service creditable to him at retirement, if such retirement allowance exceeds twenty-five per cent of his average final compensation; or if such retirement allowance does not exceed twenty-five per cent of his average final compensation, a pension shall be payable which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance of twenty-five per cent of his average final compensation; provided, however that no retirement allowance shall exceed one-sixtieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of total service which would be credited to the member were his service continued to the minimum age for service retirement.

(d) If he is making contributions for retirement under plan D, he shall receive a pension, which together with his annuity shall provide a total retirement allowance equal to one-fiftieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of service creditable to him at retirement, if such retirement allowance exceeds twenty-five per cent of his average final compensation; or if such retirement allowance does not exceed twenty-five per cent of his average final compensation, a pension shall be payable which, together with his annuity, shall provide a total retirement allowance of twenty-five per cent of his average final compensation, provided, however that no retirement allowance shall exceed one-fiftieth of his average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of total service which would be creditable to the member were his service continued to the minimum age of service retirement; provided, however that when a member has taught the standard number of years required for retirement under any of the several retirement plans provided by this section and elected by such member, and such member shall retire on account of disability prior to attainment of the minimum required age under the plan elected, then such member so retired shall receive the same benefits as if he had retired on service retirement under the plan elected.

(e) If he is making contributions for retirement under plan E, he shall receive a retirement allowance which shall consist of one hundred per cent of the retirement allowance to which he would be entitled if his date of disability retirement were his otherwise normal retirement date; provided, however that the retirement allowance payable upon disability retirement shall not be less than the twenty-five per cent of average final compensation nor, if disability retirement occurs prior to the date on which the member is first eligible for service retirement, shall it be greater than the service retirement allowance to which the member would be entitled if he continued in active service to such date at the same rate of compensation effective on the date of disability retirement.

(f) With respect to plans A, B or C, the average final compensation under this subsection shall be computed on the actual average final compensation, or upon the basis of an average final compensation of twenty-four hundred dollars per year, whichever is the greater.

(g) Notwithstanding the minimum disability retirement allowance set out in paragraphs (a) through (f) of this subsection any member who retired prior to July 1, 1957 on account of disability, shall, on and after July 1, 1957, receive as a minimum disability retirement allowance seventy-five dollars per month, or an annual sum equal to forty multiplied by the number of years of his creditable service whichever is the greater, and any person who retires on and after July 1, 1957, shall, from the date of his retirement, receive as a minimum disability retirement allowance seventy-five dollars per month, or an annual sum equal to forty multiplied by the number of years of creditable service, whichever is the greater.

(12) (a) Once each year during the first five years following the retirement of a member on a disability retirement allowance, and once in every three-year period thereafter, the board of trustees may require any disability beneficiary who has not yet attained his minimum service retirement age to undergo a medical examination by the medical board or a physician or physicians designated by the medical board, such examination to be made at the place of residence of said beneficiary or other place mutually agreed upon. Should a disability beneficiary, who has not yet attained his minimum service retirement age, refuse to submit to any such medical examination, his retirement allowance shall be discontinued until his withdrawal of such refusal, and should such refusal continue for one year, all his rights in and to his pension shall be forfeited.

(b) Should the medical board report and certify to the board of trustees that such disability beneficiary is engaged in or is able to engage in a gainful occupation paying more than the difference between his disability retirement allowance and his average final compensation, and should the board of trustees concur in such report, then the amount of his pension shall be reduced to an amount which, together with his annuity and the amount earnable by him, shall equal the amount of his average final compensation. Should his earning capacity later be changed, the amount of his pension may be further modified; provided that the pension so modified shall not exceed the amount of the pension allowable under (11) of this section, at the time of retirement, nor an amount which, when added to the amount earnable by the beneficiary, together with his annuity, equals the amount of his average final compensation. A beneficiary restored to active service at a salary less than the average final compensation upon the basis of which he was retired shall not become a member of the retirement system at that time.

(c) Should a disability beneficiary under his minimum service retirement age be at any time in service at a salary equal to or greater than his average final compensation upon the basis of which he was retired, his disability retirement allowance shall cease and he shall again become a member of the retirement system and shall contribute thereafter at the same rate at which he paid prior to disability. Any prior service certificate, on the basis of which his allowance was computed at the time of his disability retirement, shall be restored to full force and effect; and, in addition, upon his subsequent retirement he shall be credited with all his membership service on the basis of which his allowance was computed at the time of his disability retirement.

(13) Should a member cease to be a teacher except by death or by retirement under the provisions of this chapter, he shall be paid the amount of his accumulated contributions. Should a member die before retirement, the amount of his accumulated contributions shall be paid to such person, if any, as he shall have nominated by written designation duly executed and filed with the board of trustees; otherwise, to his executors or administrators.

(14) Any member who retires on or after July 1, 1954, who at the time of his retirement has not served as a teacher in Florida for ten years shall not be eligible to receive and shall not be paid any service retirement allowance.

(15) Any member of the teachers' retirement system who has heretofore, or who hereafter, retires and who has passed his sixty-fifth birthday and whose retirement allowance is less than one hundred fifty dollars shall have his retirement allowance redetermined and shall be entitled to a service retirement allowance which shall be computed on the basis of an average final compensation of twenty-four hundred dollars per year and shall receive a retirement allowance which shall be the equivalent of one-sixtieth of said average final compensation multiplied by the number of years of his creditable service; provided, that in no event shall such redetermination entitle the member to receive a retirement allowance greater than one hundred fifty dollars.

(15A) (a) Any member of the teachers' retirement system who has heretofore, or who hereafter, retires with no less than ten years of creditable service and who has passed his sixty-fifth birthday, may, upon application to the board of trustees, have his retirement allowance redetermined and thereupon shall be entitled to a monthly service retirement allowance which shall be equal to four dollars multiplied by the number of years of his creditable service which shall be payable monthly during his retirement; provided, that the amount of retirement allowance as determined hereunder, shall be reduced by an amount equal to

1. Any social security benefits received by the member, and

2. Any social security benefits that the member is eligible to receive by reason of his own right or through his spouse.

(b) No payment shall be made to a member of the teachers' retirement system under this act, until the board of trustees has determined the social security status of such member.

(c) Eligibility of a member of the teachers' retirement system shall be determined under the social security laws and regulations, provided however, that a member shall be considered eligible if he or his spouse has reached sixty-five years of age and would draw social security if he or his spouse were not engaged in activity that results in his or his spouse receiving income that would make him or her ineligible to receive social security benefits. A member of the teachers' retirement system shall be deemed to be eligible for social security benefits if he has this eligibility in his own right or through his spouse.

(d) The board of trustees shall review, at least annually, the social security status of all members of the teachers' retirement system receiving payment under this act and shall increase or decrease payments to such members as shall be necessary to carry out the intent of this act.

(e) No member of the teachers' retirement system shall have his retirement allowance reduced or any of his rights impaired by reason of this act.

(f) This subsection shall take effect on January 1, 1962.

(16) (a) Definitions under survivor benefits are:

1. A dependent is a child, widow, widower or parent of the deceased member who was receiving not less than one half of his support from the deceased member at the time of the death of such member.

2. A child is a natural or legally adopted child of a member, under eighteen years of age, or eighteen years of age or older who is physically or mentally incapable of self-support, and such mental and physical incapacity occurred prior to such child obtaining the age of eighteen years; provided, that such person shall cease to be regarded as a child upon the termination of such physical or mental disability, and provided, further, that the determination as to such physical or mental incapability shall be vested in the board of trustees. No person shall be considered a child whenever such child has married; such child has been legally adopted by someone other than the widow or widower of a deceased member; or such child becomes eighteen years of age except as to a child who is physically or mentally incapable of self-support as hereinbefore set forth.

3. A parent is a natural parent of a member and includes a lawful spouse of a natural parent.

4. A beneficiary is a person who is entitled to benefits under this subsection by reason of his relation to a deceased member during the lifetime of such member.

(b) In addition to all other benefits to which a member in service on or after July 1, 1957, shall, subject to the conditions set out below, be entitled, the beneficiary of such member shall, upon the death of such member, receive the following benefits:

Minimum number of years of service of member in Florida	Beneficiaries of deceased member	Benefits
1. Three years	Widow or dependent widower who has care of dependent child or children of deceased member	$165.00 per month for one child; $200.00 per month if more than one child; maximum benefits $200.00 per month
2. Three years	One or more dependent children	$165.00 per month for one child; $200.00 per month if more than one child; maximum benefits $200.00 per month
3. Three years	Dependent parents 65 years or older	For each parent, $100.00 per month for life
4. Three years	Designated beneficiary and if no designated beneficiary, then the executor, or administrator of deceased member	$500.00 lump sum death benefits payable only once
5. Ten years	Dependent widow or widower 50 years of age and less than 65 years of age	$100.00 per month for life
6. Ten years	Widow or widower 65 years of age or older	$100.00 per month for life
